ARTICLE II LICENSE GRANTS

Section 2.1. License Grant; Right of Reference.

(a) Exclusive License Grant. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Company hereby grants to Licensee an exclusive (even with respect to Company and any Affiliated Entity, subject to this Section 2.1(a) and Section 2.7), sublicensable (subject to Section 2.2(a)), royalty-bearing right and license under the Licensed Technology, to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Compound and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, including the right to co-administer Licensed Products with other pharmaceutical products in the Field in the Territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing exclusive grant: (i) Company retains the right under the Licensed Technology, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers, (A)(1) to Develop, Manufacture and have Manufactured Licensed Products anywhere in the world for obtaining Regulatory Approval of Licensed Products in any indications outside the Territory and Commercializing Licensed Products in any indications outside the Territory, and (2) to Develop, Manufacture and have Manufactured Licensed Products anywhere in the world for obtaining Regulatory Approval of Licensed Products outside of the Field in the Territory and Commercializing Licensed Products outside of the Field in the Territory, and (B) to perform, and have performed, its obligations under the Development Plan; and (ii) [] and its Affiliates retain a right (with no ability to sublicense such right) to continue to make and use Compound solely in connection with its and their internal research (but not Development or Commercialization) activities.

(b) Licensee Right of Access and Reference. Company hereby grants Licensee, its Affiliates and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (i) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Company or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (ii) all data generated relating to the Licensed Products, including clinical and preclinical data, Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Company or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, in each case ((i) and (ii)), for the sole purpose of Developing, seeking and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Licensee and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.1(b). Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent that during the Term any Affiliated Entities Control any Regulatory Filings or other corresponding documentation reasonably related to any Licensed Product as a result of performing Development, Manufacture or Commercialization activities with respect to any such Licensed Product, Company will cause such Affiliated Entities to grant Licensee, its Affiliates and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, such Regulatory Filings or other corresponding documentation in a manner consistent with Company's obligations set forth in this Section 2.1(b).

(c) Delivery of Documentation. From time-to-time during the Term, upon a Party's reasonable request, the other Party will promptly provide requesting Party with copies of all data and information (including communications with Regulatory Authorities, existing Regulatory Filings and clinical and pre-clinical data, in each case, in the form such data and information is maintained) relating to Licensed Products that are (i) Controlled by and in the possession of the other Party, its Affiliates or its sublicensees and (ii) necessary or reasonably useful to support the requesting Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of, or Regulatory Approval or Marketing Authorization for, Licensed Products, in the case that Licensee is the requesting Party, in Field and the Territory, and in the case that Company is the requesting Party, outside the Field or Territory.

Section 2.2. Sublicensing and Subcontracting.

(a) Licensee Right to Sublicense. Licensee will have the right to grant Sublicenses (through multiple tiers) to its Affiliates and to Third Parties, in each case, of any and all rights granted to Licensee by Company pursuant to Section 2.1 [], but subject to the requirements of Section 2.2(b).

(b) Sublicense Requirements. Each Sublicense granted by Licensee to a Third Party pursuant to Section 2.2(a) will be in writing and will be consistent with the relevant restrictions and limitations set forth in this Agreement. No Sublicense will diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of either Party under this Agreement. Licensee will be liable for any act or omission of its Sublicensees as if such Sublicensees were Licensee hereunder, and Company shall have the right to proceed directly against Licensee without any obligation to first proceed against such Sublicensee. Each Sublicense will contain the following provisions: (i) a requirement that the Sublicensee comply with the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1 with respect to Company's Confidential Information, (ii) [], and (iii) provisions whereby Licensee obtains ownership of, or a fully sublicensable non-exclusive (or exclusive) license (or an option to obtain such license) under and to, any Know-How and Patent Rights that are developed by the Sublicensee in the performance of such agreement and are reasonably necessary or useful to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products. Licensee shall provide Company with a copy of any sublicense agreement it enters into with a Third Party, within [], which copy may be disclosed to Upstream Licensors, provided that such copy may be subject to redaction as Licensee reasonably believes appropriate to protect confidential business information, including financial provisions and other sensitive information as applicable. Each such sublicense agreement shall be considered the Confidential Information of Licensee.

(c) Sublicense Survival. Upon the termination of this Agreement, at the written request of any Sublicensee who is not then in breach of its sublicense agreement, Company agrees to enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee under the same terms and conditions of this Agreement (except for Section 6.1(a) and Section 6.1(b)), effective upon the date that notice of such written request.

Section 2.3. Performance by Independent Contractors. Licensee may contract or delegate any portion of its obligations hereunder to a contractor subject to the terms and condition of Section 14.8.

Section 2.4. Company Right of Access and Reference. Licensee hereby grants Company, its Affiliates and sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (i) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (ii) all data generated relating to the Licensed Products, including clinical and preclinical data, Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, in each case ((i) and (ii)), for the sole purpose of Developing, seeking and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of the Licensed Products outside the Field or outside the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Company and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates and sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.4.

Section 2.5. Reservation of Rights. No rights, other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, are granted to either Party under this Agreement, and no additional rights will be deemed granted to either Party by implication, estoppel or otherwise, with respect to any intellectual property rights. All rights not expressly granted by either Party, its Affiliates or Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) to the other Party under this Agreement are reserved. Neither Party nor any of its Affiliates or Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) will use or practice any Know-How or Patent Rights licensed or provided to such Party or any of its Affiliates or Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) outside the scope of or otherwise not in compliance with the rights and licenses granted to such Party, its Affiliates and Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) under this Agreement.

Section 2.6. No Inconsistent Third Party Agreements. During the Term, Company will not, and will cause its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) not to, sell, license or engage in any other transaction or action relating to any (a) intellectual property or (b) any Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, Marketing Authorization and all corresponding documentation, in each case ((a) and (b)), in any way that would contravene, adversely affect or be inconsistent or in conflict with the rights of Licensee or the obligations of Company under this Agreement, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Section 2.7. Compliance with Upstream Licenses.

(a) All licenses and other rights granted to Licensee under this ARTICLE II are subject to the rights and obligations of Company under the Upstream Licenses. Licensee, its Affiliates and their respective Sublicensees will comply with all applicable provisions of the Upstream Licenses, and will perform and take such actions as may be reasonably required to allow Company to comply with its obligations thereunder, including obligations relating to sublicensing, patent matters, confidentiality, reporting, audit rights, indemnification and diligence, in each case, to the extent that Company is provided a copy of such Upstream Licenses. Without limiting the foregoing, Licensee will prepare and deliver to Company any additional reports required under the applicable Upstream License and reasonably requested by Company, in each case, sufficiently in advance to enable Company to comply with its obligations under the applicable Upstream License.

(b) Licensee acknowledges and agrees that under the [] Agreement, [] retained rights to comply with certain obligations to manufacture and supply Compound to a Third Party, [] (“[]”) for use in clinical trials of combinations of []’s proprietary compounds and the Compound, and [] has a right to conduct development and commercialization activities for such combination therapies and contingent reversionary rights with respect to certain indications (collectively, the “[] Rights”), in each case, as further described in the [] Agreement. The licenses and other rights granted to Licensee under this ARTICLE II are subject to the [] Rights.

ARTICLE III DEVELOPMENT

Section 3.1. Development Diligence; Development Responsibilities.

(a) Development Diligence. Licensee (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory in accordance with the Development Plan. Licensee shall not be deemed to be in breach of its obligations under this Section 3.1(a) to the extent it is prevented from or delayed in using Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and seek Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory as a result of the acts or omissions of the Company, including Company's breach of any of its obligations under this Agreement or failure to timely perform its obligations under the Development Plan. Company (directly, or through its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable), Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to perform the activities assigned to it in the Development Plan.

(b) Development Responsibilities. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this ARTICLE III and Section 5.2, Licensee will have sole authority to, at its own expense, Develop the Licensed Product for the purpose of obtaining Regulatory Approval in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation of any Development activities for which it (or any of its Affiliates) is assigned responsibility under this Agreement (including the Development Plan), and will keep Company reasonably informed as to the progress of such activities.

Section 3.2. Development Plan. The Development of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory will be conducted by the Parties pursuant to the Development and regulatory plan and regulatory strategy (the "Development Plan"), an initial draft of which will be prepared by Licensee and delivered to the JSC within [] after the Effective Date (or such later time as the Parties may mutually agree). As soon as practicable thereafter, the Parties will mutually agree to finalize the Development Plan and Company and the JSC will adopt the Development Plan. Any material changes to the Development Plan will be drafted by Licensee and agreed upon by the JSC pursuant to Section 5.2, subject to the decision-making and escalation procedures set forth in Section 5.5. In the event of any proposed change to the Development Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, the JSC will meet as promptly as practicable to review and discuss any such proposed changes and determine an appropriate revision (if any) to the Development Plan. If Licensee is delayed in performing (or fails to perform) an obligation assigned to Licensee in the Development Plan as a result of Company's failure to timely perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or the Development Plan, then the deadlines for the performance of Licensee's obligations under the Development Plan will be extended commensurate with the delay caused by Company.

(a) Specific Clinical Studies. The Development Plan shall provide that, among other things, Licensee will (i) commit a minimum of [] to (A) fund Clinical Studies in the Field in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [] (" Trials") and [] (" Trials") and (B) reimburse Company for []; (ii) enroll [] patients in the [] Trials and [] patients in the [] Trials; (iii) initiate a proof of concept Phase 2 Study in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [] in accordance with the Development Plan (" Phase 2 Trial"); and (iv) upon successful completion of the [] Phase 2 Trial, subject to the approval of the JSC, lead a global registrational Clinical Study in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [].

Section 3.3. Development Records and Reporting.

(a) Records. Licensee will maintain complete and accurate records of all work conducted by Licensee in furtherance of seeking Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Such records will be maintained in sufficient detail and in good scientific manner appropriate for patent and regulatory purposes and in accordance with applicable Laws.

(b) Reporting. Licensee will provide to Company a written report at least [], in English, describing in reasonable detail Licensee's activities and progress related to the pursuit of Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will respond to Company's reasonable questions or requests for additional information relating to such activities in a timely manner.

Section 3.4. Regulatory Submissions and Approvals; Communications; Meetings.

(a) Regulatory Filings and Approvals. Licensee, or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees, will have the sole and exclusive right to file and hold all Regulatory Filings, and to apply for and maintain all Regulatory Approvals and Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, in each case for all Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory at Licensee's cost and expense in the name of Licensee or any of its Affiliates and Sublicensees; provided that (i) the Parties will use good faith efforts to cooperate to effectuate this Section 3.4(a), and (ii) in the event that after the Parties' use of good faith efforts, Licensee, its Affiliate, or Sublicensee is unable to become the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory in order to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under this Agreement, (A) Company will be the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (B) Company hereby designates Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees as Company's regulatory agent and exclusive general distributor for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and (C) to the extent later permitted by applicable Laws, Company will promptly cooperate with Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees, including transferring and assigning all Regulatory Approvals and Regulatory Filings to Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees, to allow Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees to be the legal and beneficial owner of all Regulatory Approvals for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee will be responsible, at its sole cost and expense, for all regulatory activities leading up to and including the obtaining of Regulatory Approvals and any pricing or reimbursement approvals, as applicable, for Licensed Products in the Field from Regulatory Authorities or Governmental Authorities in the Territory, provided that, Licensee will conduct such activities (and any and all regulatory activities delegated to Licensee in this Agreement) (1) in its own name, if Licensee is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or (2) as the express and authorized regulatory agent of record for Company in the Field in the Territory, if Company is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, under which situation such actions will be taken on behalf of Company and for the benefit of Licensee in the Field in the Territory.

(b) Regulatory Communications. Subject to applicable Laws and this Section 3.4, Licensee will oversee, monitor and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Licensee will promptly notify Company of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory that are received by Licensee from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by Licensee to any Regulatory Authority.

(c) Regulatory Meetings. Until such time as Licensee obtains Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, to the extent legally permissible and practicable, Licensee will provide Company with reasonable prior written notice of all material meetings with Regulatory Authorities (including advisory committee meetings and any other meeting of experts convened by a Regulatory Authority) regarding the Licensed Product if permitted by applicable Laws or the Regulatory Authority. Company will have the right to request to be present at (but not to participate in, unless requested by Licensee or the Regulatory Authority) all such meetings with Regulatory Authorities to the extent permitted under applicable Laws, at Company's sole cost and expense, and Licensee will consider any such request in good faith.

(d) Termination or Suspension of Clinical Studies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, the Parties hereby agree that Licensee may terminate or suspend any Clinical Study relating to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, without the approval or consent of the JSC or Company, if (i) a Regulatory Authority, institutional review board or safety data review board for such Clinical Study has required or recommended such termination or suspension or (ii) Licensee believes in good faith that such termination or suspension is warranted because of observed safety risks to the study subjects or patients. In either case, Licensee will promptly notify Company in writing of such termination or suspension.

(e) Regulatory Investigation or Inquiry. If any Regulatory Authority (i) contacts Licensee or its Affiliate with respect to the alleged improper Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of any Licensed Product, (ii) conducts, or gives notice of its intent to conduct, an inspection at Licensee's or its Affiliate's facilities used in the Development of the Licensed Product, or (iii) takes, or gives notice of its intent to take, any other regulatory action with respect to any activity of Licensee or its Affiliate that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect any Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Product outside of the Territory, then Licensee will promptly notify Company in writing of such contact, inspection or notice.

Section 3.5. Use of other Company Compounds. To the extent that during the Development of the Licensed Products in accordance with the Development Plan, any Development activities contemplate the use of any compounds Controlled by the Company other than the Compound (the "Additional Compounds"), the Parties will discuss in good faith entering into separate written agreements, pursuant to the terms and conditions of which, Licensee will have the right to use such Additional Compounds and Company will provide to Licensee such Additional Compounds for such Development activities; provided that, Company shall have no obligation to enter into any such written agreements.

Section 3.6. Development of the Licensed Products outside the Territory. For clarity, Company retains the exclusive right and will be solely responsible and have sole discretion and control over the Development activities (including regulatory activities) of the Licensed Products anywhere in the world, other than in the Field in the Territory. Company will oversee, monitor and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to such Licensed Products. Company will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings with respect to such Licensed Products. Company will promptly notify Licensee of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Product outside the Territory that are received by Company, its Affiliated Entities or other licensees (to the extent that Company has the right to disclose such material communications or correspondence of other licensees and provided that Company uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such right from such other licensees) from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by Company, its Affiliated Entities or other licensees to any Regulatory Authority. In the event Company's or its Affiliated Entities' or other licensees' Development activities (including regulatory activities) of the Licensed Product outside the Territory and/or outside the Field would reasonable be expected to materially adversely impact Licensee's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, to the extent Company has knowledge of such Development activities, Company will give Licensee reasonable advance notice of any such activities prior to undertaking such activities. Without limiting Section 3.1, the Parties will discuss in good faith such activities and Company will consider in good faith the views of Licensee and suggestions to minimize the impact of such activities on Licensee's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.

Section 3.7. Pharmacovigilance. Within [], the Parties will negotiate in good faith and finalize the actions that the Parties will employ with respect to the Licensed Product to protect patients and promote their well-being in a written pharmacovigilance agreement (the “Pharmacovigilance Agreement”). These responsibilities will include mutually acceptable guidelines and procedures for the receipt, investigation, recordation, communication, and exchange (as between the Parties) of Adverse Event reports and any other information concerning the safety of any Licensed Product, including recall and withdrawal responsibilities, processes and procedures. Such guidelines and procedures will be in accordance with, and enable the Parties to fulfill, local and national regulatory reporting obligations under applicable Laws. Furthermore, such agreed procedure will be consistent with relevant ICH guidelines, except where said guidelines may conflict with existing local regulatory reporting safety reporting requirements, in which case local reporting requirement will prevail. Licensee will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events and safety data related to the Licensed Product in the Field to applicable Regulatory Authorities in the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Company will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events and safety data related to Licensed Product to applicable Regulatory Authorities outside the Territory or outside the Field, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Product outside the Territory or outside the Field. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement will also provide for a worldwide safety database to be maintained by Company at its sole cost and expense, which worldwide safety database will be accessible by Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors to the full extent necessary for Licensee to exercise its rights under this Agreement, comply with its obligations under this Agreement, and comply with all applicable Laws. Each Party hereby agrees to comply with its respective obligations under such Pharmacovigilance Agreement and to cause its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) and permitted sublicensees and contractors to comply with such obligations.

ARTICLE IV MANUFACTURE, SUPPLY AND COMMERCIALIZATION

Section 4.1. Supply Agreement. Within [], the Parties will negotiate in good faith and enter into a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of the Licensed Products by Company to Licensee for Development and Commercialization in the Field in the Territory (the “Supply Agreement”). Unless otherwise agreed or required by applicable Laws, the Supply Agreement will specify that (a) Company will (or will cause its Affiliates to) Manufacture and supply, and Licensee will exclusively purchase from Company, all of Licensee’s, its Affiliates’ and Sublicensees’ needs for the Licensed Products for the Development and Commercialization in the Field in the Territory in their finished form and at a price equal to []; provided, however, that such price may not be greater than []; (b) such Licensed Products will be compliant with all requirements of the applicable Regulatory Authority(ies) and applicable Laws; (c) such Licensed Products supplied by Company to Licensee for a given vial will come from the drug substance Manufactured by or on behalf of Company; and (d) other customary supply terms, including []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Supply Agreement will further specify that if Company, its Affiliated Entities or sublicensees identifies, secures or engages a CMO for the Manufacture and supply of the Licensed Products and the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost for such CMO to Manufacture and supply the Licensed Products is lower than the price charged by Company to Manufacture and supply Licensed Products under the Supply Agreement, then (x) Company will inform Company of such CMO, and (y), at Company’s election, Company will either (i) reduce the price to Manufacture and supply Licensed Products under the Supply Agreement to match such CMO’s Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost, or (ii) use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to provide, or cause such CMO to provide, an opportunity to engage such CMO for the Manufacture and supply of Licensed Products to Licensee on substantially the same terms as those provided or proposed to be provided to Company, its Affiliated Entities or sublicensees (in which case the exclusivity obligations described in the foregoing clause (a) will not apply with respect to such CMO); provided, if Licensee fails to secure such Manufacture and supply from such CMO, then Company will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to purchase the applicable Manufacturing services from such CMO and will supply such Licensed Products to Licensee on substantially the same terms as those provided by such CMO to Company, its Affiliated Entities or sublicensees, as applicable.

Section 4.2. Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Licensee nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then, the Parties will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to discuss in good faith alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of the Parties as agreed under this Agreement.

Section 4.3. Audit by Licensee. Company will keep any and all records, materials and documents relating to the Manufacture of the Compound and Licensed Products during the Term and [] thereafter. During the Term, Licensee will have the right [] to have an independent, certified public accountant, selected by Licensee and reasonably acceptable to Company to inspect such records, materials and documents for the purpose of determining the accuracy of the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost due within the prior [] period. Such audit may not be conducted more than [] and will take place at the location(s) where such records, materials, documents are maintained by Company upon reasonable prior written notice, during regular business hours and under obligations of confidentiality. If it is determined that any amounts were overpaid or underpaid during such period, Company will pay Licensee such overpaid amounts, or Licensee will pay Company the overpaid amounts [] of the date the independent certified public accountant's written report is received by the paying Party. The fees charged by such independent certified public accountant will be paid by Licensee, unless it is determined that any overpaid amounts exceed [] of the total amount payable by Licensee to Company for the period then being audited, in which case Company will be responsible for the fees charged by such independent certified public accountant.

Section 4.4. Manufacture Technology Transfer Option. At any time after the Effective Date, upon Licensee's written notice to Company, (a) the license granted to Licensee by Company under Section 2.1(a) will include the right for Licensee to Manufacture the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, solely for use and sale by Licensee, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (b) the Parties will discuss in good faith modifications to this Agreement to cover Licensee's Manufacturing of the Compound and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (c) Company will, within a reasonable time mutually agreed by the Parties, provide access to and transfer to Licensee Licensed Know-How Controlled by Company or its Affiliates that is necessary or reasonably useful for Licensee to Manufacture the Compound and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and (d) upon reasonable request from Licensee and at Licensee's sole cost, provide to Licensee all necessary assistance and services to enable Licensee to Manufacture the Compound and the Licensed Product in substantially the same manner as Company, its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) or a CMO on behalf of Company Manufactures the Compound and the Licensed Product for Licensee, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees.

Section 4.5. Commercialization.

(a) Commercialization Diligence. Upon receipt of the Marketing Authorization for a Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, Licensee (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize such Licensed Product in the Field in such Region in the Territory. Licensee will be solely responsible for, at its expense, and will have sole discretion with respect to, Commercializing the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory.

(b) Reporting Obligations. Licensee will report to Company in writing, on an [], beginning with the Calendar Year following the first Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (for the period ending December 31 of the prior Calendar Year), summarizing in reasonable detail Licensee's Commercialization activities for such Licensed Product performed to date (or updating such report for activities performed since the last such report was given hereunder, as applicable). In addition, Licensee will provide Company with written notice of the First Commercial Sale of each Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory as soon as reasonably practicable after such event; provided, however, that, Licensee will inform Company of such event prior to public disclosure of such event by Licensee. Licensee will provide such other information to the Company as the Company may reasonably request with respect to Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory and will keep the Company reasonably informed of Licensee's Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products.

(c) Trademarks. Licensee will have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory using Licensee related Trademarks and any other Trademarks and trade names it determines appropriate for the Licensed Products, which branding may vary by Region or within a Region. Licensee will own all rights in such Trademarks and register and maintain such Trademarks in the countries and regions within the Territory, where and how it determines appropriate.

(d) Diversion. Subject to applicable Law, each Party hereby covenants and agrees that (i) it and its Affiliates and Affiliated Entities will not, and it will contractually obligate (and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enforce such contractual obligation) its licensees, sublicensees and contractors not to, directly or indirectly, actively promote, market, distribute, import, sell or have sold any Licensed Product, including via the Internet or mail order, to any Third Party or to any address or Internet Protocol address or the like, in the other Party's territory, and (ii) neither Party will engage, nor permit its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities, sublicensees or contractors to engage, in any advertising or promotional activities relating to any Licensed Product for use directed primarily to customers or other buyers or users of such product located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, or solicit orders from any prospective purchaser located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 4.5(d), will prevent Company, its Affiliated Entities and licensees from undertaking, or having undertaken, any of the foregoing activities with respect to any Licensed Product outside of the Field in the Territory.

(e) No Violation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Licensee (including its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will not be obligated to undertake or continue any Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products if Licensee (or its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, as applicable) reasonably determines that performance of such Commercialization activity would violate applicable Laws or infringe any Third Party Patent Rights.

ARTICLE V

GOVERNANCE; JOINT STEERING COMMITTEE

Section 5.1. Formation; Purposes and Principles. As soon as practicable following the Effective Date (but in no event later than [] after the Effective Date), Company and Licensee will form a joint steering committee (the "JSC") to provide oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement.

Section 5.2. Specific Responsibilities. In addition to its overall responsibility to provide strategic oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement, the JSC will:

(a) coordinate and share information with respect to the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Product by Licensee in the Territory;

(b) keep each Party reasonably informed of the other Party's Development and Commercialization activities and interactions with Regulatory Authorities in the other Party's territory, by receiving updates from the Party conducting such activities []; attempt to resolve in the first instance all matters between the Parties that are in dispute, in accordance with Section 5.5 and Section 13.1; and

(c) perform such other functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as appropriate to further the purposes of this Agreement to the extent agreed to in writing by the Parties.

Section 5.3. Membership. The JSC will be composed of a total of [] representatives of each Party, which will be appointed by each of Company and Licensee, respectively. Each individual appointed by a Party as a representative to the JSC will be an employee of such Party with sufficient seniority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of compounds and products similar to the Compound and Licensed Products under this Agreement. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JSC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which notice may be given by e-mail, sent to the other Party's co-chairperson. The JSC will be co-chaired by one designated representative of each Party. The co-chairperson of the JSC will cast its Party's vote on the JSC and such designee will have the authority to make decisions on behalf of such Party. Each co-chairperson will alternate being responsible for each meeting for (a) calling and conducting meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the applicable co-chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material decisions made and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within [] after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes issued in accordance with (d) of this Section 5.3 will be deemed approved unless one or more members of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes within [] of receipt. The Alliance Managers will work with the chairpersons to prepare and circulate agendas and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those in ARTICLE VIII.

Section 5.4. Meetings; Reports. The JSC will hold meetings at least [] during the Term for so long as the JSC exists, unless the Parties mutually agree in writing to a different frequency. No later than [] prior to any meeting of the JSC (or such shorter time period as the Parties may agree), the applicable co-chairperson will prepare and circulate an agenda for such meeting. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] prior written notice to the other Party if such Party reasonably believes that a significant matter must be addressed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the applicable co-chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC no later than [] prior to the special meeting with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed decision on the matters to be considered. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may mutually agree. Other representatives of the Parties, their Affiliates, or Third Parties involved in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products may be invited by the members of the JSC to attend meetings as non-voting observers; provided, however, that such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in ARTICLE VIII. No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least [] representative of each Party (which representative is not such Party's Alliance Manager) is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided.

Section 5.5. Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers. The Parties will endeavor in good faith and in compliance with this Agreement to reach unanimous agreement with respect to all matters within the JSC's authority. Each Party's representatives on the JSC will collectively have one vote, (the "Party Vote") and no action or decision will be taken by the JSC without unanimous Party Vote (i.e., the affirmative Party Vote of each Party), which will be documented by a written consent signed by each Party's co-chairperson. Should the JSC not be able to reach agreement with respect to a matter at a duly called meeting of the JSC, either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution, and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then []. Notwithstanding any provision of this ARTICLE V to the contrary, the JSC will not have the authority to amend the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

Section 5.6. Alliance Managers.

(a) Appointment. Each Party will appoint a person to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the Development and Commercialization of Licensed Products between meetings of the JSC (each, an “Alliance Manager”). The Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the committees as non-voting participants and may bring to the attention of the JSC any matters or issues either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may mutually agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time or may designate different Alliance Managers with respect to Development and Commercialization matters, respectively, by notice in writing to the other Party.

(b) Responsibility. The Alliance Managers, if appointed, will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JSC and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will:

- (i) provide a single point of communication within the Parties’ respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement;
- (ii) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and
- (iii) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JSC occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

ARTICLE VI FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Section 6.1. Upfront Payment; Warrant; Milestone Payments.

(a) Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee will pay Company a non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off payment in the amount of Ten Million U.S. Dollars (US$ 10,000,000), which upfront payment will be due and payable to Company within [] following the Effective Date.

(b) Warrant. In partial consideration for the licenses granted to Licensee by Company under Section 2.1, Lian Oncology will issue one or more Warrants to the Company in substantially the form set forth hereto as Exhibit E (the “Warrants”) exercisable for such number of ordinary shares of Lian Oncology as is equal to ten percent (10%) of the then-fully diluted equity of Lian Oncology at the time of issuance (the “Warrant Shares”) at a price per share equal to []. The Warrants shall be exercisable by Company upon certain milestones as further set forth in Exhibit E hereto.

(c) Development Milestone Payment. During the Term, Licensee will notify Company in writing of the achievement by or on behalf of Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees of any milestone event set forth in this Section 6.1(c) (each, a “Development Milestone Event”) promptly after the occurrence thereof, and Licensee will pay Company a non-refundable, non-creditable milestone payment set forth in the tables below (each, a “Development Milestone Payment”) within [] of the achievement of such milestone event by Licensee, its Affiliates or any Sublicensees. Each of the milestone payments set forth in this Section 6.1(c) is payable only upon the first achievement of such milestone by the first Licensed Product to achieve such Development Milestone Event, and none of the Development Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Development Milestone Event is achieved.

(d) Sales Milestone Payments. During the Term, Licensee will pay to Company each of the milestone payments set forth below within [] upon and only after the cumulative Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory first exceed the indicated Dollar value (each, a “Sales Milestone Event” and the corresponding payment, a “Sales Milestone Payment”). Each of the milestone payments set forth in this Section 6.1(d) is payable only upon the first achievement of such milestone by the first Licensed Product to achieve such Sales Milestone Event and none of the Sales Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Sales Milestone Event is achieved.

Section 6.2. Royalties.

(a) Royalty Rate. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, during the Royalty Term, Licensee will pay to Company a royalty on the Net Sales of Licensed Products in the Territory that is the greater of (i) the [] Agreement Territory Royalty Payments, and (ii) the product of the Net Sales of Licensed Products in the Territory and the applicable royalty rate in the following table, subject to the provisions of Section 6.5.

Portion of the Annual Net Sales of the Licensed Products

1. []	[]
2. []	[]
3. []	[]

(b) [] Agreement Territory Royalty Payments. The [] Agreement Territory Royalty Payments in any one period shall be equal to the product of (i) the Net Sales of Licensed Products in the Territory and (ii) the royalty rate actually paid or payable by the Company to [] under the [] Agreement during such period attributable to the Net Sales of Licensed Products in the Territory for such period (for clarity, which royalty rate shall not exceed []), and subject to any royalty reductions as permitted under the [] Agreement.

(c) Royalty Term. Royalties will be due under this Section 6.2 with respect to a given Licensed Product in a given Region in the Territory during the period commencing upon the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in a specified Region and ending upon the latest of (i) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim of the Licensed Patent that [], (ii) the expiry of the applicable Regulatory Exclusivity for such Licensed Product in such Region; or (iii) the [] anniversary of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region (such period, the “Royalty Term”).

Section 6.3. Royalty Payments and Reports. Within [] after the end of each Calendar Quarter, commencing with the Calendar Quarter during which the First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product is made anywhere in the Territory, Licensee will provide to Company a report setting forth (a) the amount of the gross and Net Sales on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region-by-Region basis in the Territory during such Calendar Quarter (including such amounts expressed in local currency and as converted to Dollars); (b) an itemized summary of the type and amount of permitted deductions from gross sales to determine Net Sales as set forth in the definition of Net Sales and the total amount of such deductions; (c) the applicable royalty rates for each Licensed Product in each Region in the Territory after applying any permitted deductions set forth in Section 6.5; and (d) a calculation of the royalties which will have accrued hereunder with respect to Net Sales due to Company for such Calendar Quarter. Promptly following the delivery of the applicable quarterly report, Company will invoice Licensee for the royalties due to Company with respect to Net Sales by Licensee, its Affiliates and their respective Sublicensees for such Calendar Quarter, and Licensee will pay such amounts to Company within [] following Licensee’s receipt of such invoice.

Section 6.4. Upstream License Fees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Company will be solely responsible for any and all payments Company owes to the Upstream Licensors under the applicable Upstream Licenses and in no event will Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors be directly liable for any of such payments, except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Section 6.5. Royalty Payment Reductions. The following shall only apply if royalties are being paid pursuant to Section 6.2(a)(ii):

(a) Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property. With respect to particular Region in the Territory, Licensee will be entitled to deduct from royalty payments under Section 6.2(a)(ii) otherwise payable to Company in such Region [] of any Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property Costs applicable to such Region.

(b) Generic Entry. If at any time during the Royalty Term there is a Generic Product in the Field sold in any Region in the Territory in which a Licensed Product is then being sold by Licensee or an Affiliate or Sublicensee, then the applicable royalties in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a)(ii) will be reduced by [].

(c) Lack of Patent Protection. If at any time during the Royalty Term the last-to-expire Licensed Patent in a particular Region in the Territory having a Valid Claim covering [] expires, then the applicable royalties in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a)(ii) will be reduced [].

(d) Cumulative Deductions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the deductions set forth in Section 6.5(a) through Section 6.5(c) reduce the royalties otherwise payable to Company as specified in Section 6.2(a)(ii) by more than [].

Section 6.6. Financial Audits.

(a) Record Keeping. Licensee and its Affiliates will, and will cause their respective sublicensees to, keep complete, true and accurate books and records in accordance with its Accounting Standards of the items underlying (i) Net Sales and (ii) royalty payments under this Agreement. Licensee and its Affiliates will, and will cause their respective sublicensees to keep, such books and records [] following the Calendar Quarter to which they pertain. Company will have the right [], at its own expense, to have an internationally-recognized independent, certified public accountant, selected by Company and reasonably acceptable to Licensee (the "Auditor"), review any such records of Licensee in the location(s) where such records are customarily maintained by Licensee upon reasonable prior notice, during regular business hours and under obligations of confidentiality, except to the extent necessary to enforce Company's rights under this Agreement or if disclosure is required by applicable Law, for the sole purpose of verifying the basis and accuracy of payments made under this Agreement and the content of the reports described in Section 6.3, within the prior []. The Auditor will have the right to disclose to Company or Upstream Licensors its conclusions regarding any payment owed under this Agreement. The records covering any specific period of time may be audited no more than once.

(b) Audit Report. The report prepared by the Auditor, a copy of which will be sent or otherwise provided to each Party by such Auditor at the same time before such report is considered final, will contain the conclusions of such Auditor regarding the audit and will specify that the amounts paid pursuant thereto were correct or, if incorrect, the amount of any underpayment or overpayment, and the specific details regarding any discrepancies. No other information will be provided to Company without the prior consent of Licensee unless disclosure is required by Laws, regulation or judicial order, and if so determined by Company, it will, if permitted, give Licensee prior notice thereof to the extent possible for Licensee to seek a protective order against or limiting such disclosure. If such report shows any underpayment, then Licensee will remit to Company, within [], (i) the amount of such underpayment and (ii) if such underpayment exceeds [] of the total amount owed for the period then being audited, the actual costs incurred by Company in conducting such review. For the avoidance of doubt, []. If such report shows any overpayment, then Licensee will, at Company's election, credit the overpaid amount against future payments owed to Company or reimburse Company the amount of such overpayment. The Parties mutually agree that all information subject to review under this Section 6.6 is Confidential Information of both Parties and that the receiving Party will retain and cause the Auditor to retain all such information in confidence in accordance with confidentiality and non-use obligations no less stringent than those contained in ARTICLE VIII.

Section 6.7. Tax Withholding; Gross Up. In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to Company) is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Licensee pursuant to this Agreement under applicable Laws, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Licensee will make such deduction and withholding and [], and any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Licensee on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority for the account of Company and Licensee will provide Company reasonable evidence of the remittance within [] thereof and for the purposes of this Agreement, Licensee will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Company with respect to such payments paid to the such Governmental Authority. Each Party will cooperate to reasonably assist the other Party in lawfully claiming exemptions from or minimizing such deductions or withholdings under double taxation Laws or similar circumstances, including through requesting any available certifications or forms from the other Party that would reduce or exempt a payment from deductions or withholding prior to withholding any amounts.

Section 6.8. Currency of Payments. All amounts payable and calculations under this Agreement will be in Dollars. As applicable, Net Sales and any royalty reductions will be translated into Dollars using the average of the applicable daily foreign exchange rates published in the Wall Street Journal (or any other qualified source that is acceptable to both Parties) for [] in which such Net Sales occurred. All payments under this Agreement will be paid in Dollars by wire transfer to an account designated by the receiving Party (which account the receiving Party may update from time to time in writing).

Section 6.9. Late Payments. Without limiting any other rights or remedies available to Company hereunder, any late payment by Licensee will bear interest, to the extent permitted by Laws, at [] on the date payment was due or the highest rate permitted by law (whichever is higher), computed from the date such payment was due until the date Licensee makes the payment.

ARTICLE VII INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP, PROTECTION AND RELATED MATTERS

Section 7.1. Ownership of Inventions.

(a) Ownership of Product Inventions. Any and all Inventions invented or otherwise developed or generated [] during the Term [] pursuant to this Agreement, including the Patent Rights claiming the composition of matter, use, formulation or manufacture of such Licensed Products (collectively, "Product Inventions") will be [] owned by []. The Patent Rights claiming [] will be included in the Licensed Patents, and [] will be included in the licenses granted to Licensee in Section 2.1(a).

(b) Ownership of [] Intellectual Property Rights. The ownership of [] generated from the Parties' activities under this Agreement [] will be determined based on the principles of inventorship in accordance with United States patent Laws.

(c) Assignment Obligation. Each Party will assign its rights, and cause all employees of such Party who perform activities for such Party under this Agreement to be under an obligation to assign their rights, in any Patent Rights and Know-How, whether or not patentable, resulting therefrom to such Party to effectuate the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.1(a) and Section 7.1(b). With respect to any activities of a Party under this Agreement that are subcontracted to a Person that is not an employee, the Party retaining such subcontractor will include in the applicable subcontract an assignment to such Party of all rights in Patent Rights and Know-How made by such subcontractor resulting from such activities, and in any event will include in the applicable subcontract a license to such Party that is sublicensable to the other Party under this Agreement, of any Patent Rights and Know-How made by such contractor or subcontractor resulting from such activities.

Section 7.2. Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patents.

(a) In the Territory. As between the Parties, [] will have the first right, at its expense, to prepare, file, prosecute and maintain the Licensed Patents in the Field in all Regions in the Territory, at []'s sole cost and expense. [] will keep [] reasonably informed of all steps with regard to and the status of such preparation, filing, prosecution, and maintenance of such Patent Rights, including by providing [] with (i) copies of all correspondence and material communications it sends to or receives from any patent office or agency in the Territory relating to such Licensed Patents, (ii) a draft copy of all applications sufficiently in advance of filing to permit reasonable review and comment by [] and giving due consideration to such comments, and (iii) a copy of applications as filed, together with notice of its filing date and serial number. Before [] submits any material filing, including a new patent application, or response to such patent authorities with respect to such Licensed Patents, [] will provide [] with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such filing or response and will take into account and consider in good faith []'s reasonable and timely requests and suggestions regarding the filing, prosecution and maintenance of such Licensed Patents under this Section 7.2(a).

(b) Step-In Right. If [] elects not to continue to prosecute or maintain a given Patent Right within the Licensed Patents in the Field in the Territory pursuant to Section 7.2(a), then [] will give [] notice thereof [] prior to allowing such Patent Rights to lapse or become abandoned or unenforceable, and [] will have the right to prosecute or maintain such Patent Right. [] will have the right, but not the obligation, to assume responsibility for continuing the prosecution of such Patent Rights in the Field in such Region and paying any required fees to maintain such Patent Rights in the Field in such Region or defending such Patent Rights, all at []'s sole expense, through patent counsel or agents of its choice. [] will not become an assignee of any such Patent Rights as a result of its assumption of any such responsibility. Upon transfer of []'s responsibility for filing, prosecuting and maintaining any of the Patent Rights to [] under this Section 7.2(b), (i) [] will promptly deliver to [] copies of all necessary files related to the Patent Rights with respect to which responsibility has been transferred and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for [] to assume such prosecution, maintenance and defense, and (ii) such Patent Rights shall thereafter be deemed not to be a part of the Licensed Patents under this Agreement, unless and until [] elects not to continue to prosecute or maintain such Patent Rights.

(c) Cooperation. Each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate, with the other Party with respect to the preparation, filing, prosecution and maintenance of Licensed Patents pursuant to this Section 7.2, including with respect to obtaining patent term restoration, supplemental protection certificates or their equivalents, and patent terms extension with respect to the Licensed Patents in any Region where applicable.

Section 7.3. Third Party Infringement.

(a) Notice. Each Party will promptly notify the other in writing of any (i) apparent, threatened or actual infringement by a Third Party of any Licensed Patent, or (ii) unauthorized use or misappropriation of any Licensed Know-How by a Third Party of which it becomes aware, and, in each case, will provide the other Party with all evidence in such Party's possession or control supporting such infringement or unauthorized use or misappropriation (each, an "Infringement").

(b) [] First Right. As between the Parties, [] will have the first right, but not the obligation, using counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense, to institute any Action alleging Infringement of the Licensed Patents (any such Action, an "Infringement Action") in the Field in the Territory, except as provided in this Section 7.3(b) and except that Section 7.3(c) shall instead apply with respect to an Infringement Action by a Third Party of any Licensed Patent both in the Field and outside the Field in the Territory. [] shall have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such action with respect to infringement of the Licensed Patents in the Field in the Territory by counsel of its own choice, and [] will notify and keep [] apprised in writing of any such Infringement Action and will consider []'s reasonable interests and requests regarding such Infringement Action; provided, that, if [] fails to commence a suit to enforce the Licensed Patents against such Infringement Action (or to settle or otherwise secure the abatement of such Infringement Action) [], [] will have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense to institute such Infringement Action against the applicable Third Party infringer(s).

(c) [] First Right. As between the Parties, [] shall have the first right, but not the obligation, using counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense, to institute an Infringement Action of the Licensed Patents in the Territory other than as set forth in Section 7.3(b), except as provided in this Section 7.3(c). [] shall have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Action of the Licensed Patents in the Territory by counsel of its own choice, and [] will notify and keep [] apprised in writing of any such Infringement Action and will consider [] reasonable interests and requests regarding such Infringement Action; provided, that, if [] fails to commence a suit to enforce the Licensed Patents against such Infringement Action (or to settle or otherwise secure the abatement of such Infringement Action) [], and [] reasonably believes such infringement of such Licensed Patent would affect []'s rights with respect to any Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, the Parties will discuss in good faith whether to initiate such Infringement Action. If following such discussion, [] still reasonably believes such infringement of such Licensed Patent would affect []'s rights with respect to any Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, then [] will have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense to institute an Infringement Action against the applicable Third Party infringer(s), and [] shall have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such action by counsel of its own choice.

(d) Cooperation. In any Infringement Action brought under the Licensed Patents pursuant to Section 7.3(b) and Section 7.3(c), each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate with each other, in good faith, relative to the other Party's efforts to protect the Licensed Patents and will join such suit as a party, if requested by the other Party. Furthermore, the Party initiating any Infringement Action pursuant to Section 7.3(b) or Section 7.3(c) will consider in good faith all reasonable and timely comments from the other Party on any proposed arguments asserted or to be asserted in litigation related to the enforcement or defense of any such Patent Rights. Neither Party shall have the right to settle any patent infringement litigation with respect to any Licensed Patent under this Section 7.3 in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party without the consent of such other Party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(e) Allocation of Recoveries. Any settlements, damages or monetary awards recovered by either Party pursuant to any Infringement Action with respect to the Licensed Patents will, after reimbursing the Parties for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in making such recovery (which amounts will be allocated pro rata if insufficient to cover the totality of such expenses), be [].

Section 7.4. Claimed Infringement. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party if a Third Party brings any Action alleging patent infringement by Licensee or Company or any of their respective Affiliates, Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) or sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Product (any such Action, an "Infringement Claim") in the Field in the Territory. [] will have the right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory with respect to []'s activities, at []'s sole cost and expense, and [] will have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory by counsel of its own choice. [] shall have the sole right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim with respect to []'s activities, including []. Upon the request of the Party controlling the response to the Infringement Claim, the other Party will reasonably cooperate with the controlling Party in the reasonable defense of such Infringement Claim. The other Party will have the right to consult with the controlling Party concerning any Infringement Claim and to participate in and be represented by independent counsel in any associated litigation. If the Infringement Claim is brought against both Parties, then each Party will have the right to defend against the Infringement Claim. The Party defending an Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 will (a) consult with the other Party as to the strategy for the prosecution of such defense, (b) consider in good faith any comments from the other Party with respect thereto and (c) keep the other Party reasonably informed of any material steps taken and provide copies of all material documents filed, in connection with such defense. The Party controlling the defense against an Infringement Claim will have the right to settle such Infringement Claim on terms deemed reasonably appropriate by such Party, provided, that, unless any such settlement includes a full and unconditional release from all liability of the other Party and does not adversely affect the rights of the other Party, any such settlement will be subject to the other Party's prior written consent.

Section 7.5. Upstream Licenses. To the extent that an Upstream Licensor of Company has retained any right to prosecute or enforce any Licensed Patents or otherwise be involved in such activities pursuant to the Upstream Agreements granting Company a license thereto (including pursuant to the [] Agreement), Company will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cause such Third Party licensor to take the actions (or refrain from taking action, as applicable) consistent with this ARTICLE VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company will not be deemed to be in breach of its obligations under this ARTICLE VII if []. Furthermore, [].

Section 7.6. Common Interest. All information exchanged between the Parties regarding the prosecution and maintenance, and enforcement and defense, of Licensed Patents under this ARTICLE VII will be deemed Confidential Information of the disclosing Party. In addition, the Parties acknowledge and agree that, with regard to such prosecution and maintenance, and enforcement and defense, the interests of the Parties as collaborators and licensor and licensee are to obtain the strongest patent protection possible, and as such, are aligned and are legal in nature. The Parties agree and acknowledge that they have not waived, and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a waiver of, any legal privilege concerning the Patent Rights under this ARTICLE VII, including privilege under the common interest doctrine and similar or related doctrines. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, to the extent a Party has a good faith belief that any information required to be disclosed by such Party to the other Party under this ARTICLE VII is protected by attorney-client privilege or any other applicable legal privilege or immunity, such Party will not be required to disclose such information, and the Parties will in good faith cooperate to agree upon a procedure (including entering into a specific common interest agreement, disclosing such information on a "for counsel eyes only" basis or similar procedure) under which such information may be disclosed without waiving or breaching such privilege or immunity.

ARTICLE VIII CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY

Section 8.1. Confidential Information.

(a) Confidentiality Obligation. During the Term and for a period of [] after any termination or expiration of this Agreement, each Party agrees to, and will cause its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities sublicensees and contractors to, keep in confidence and not to disclose to any Third Party, or use for any purpose, except to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Party, without the prior written consent of such disclosing Party. The existence and terms of this Agreement are the Confidential Information of each Party.

(b) Permitted Disclosures. Each Party agrees that it and its Affiliates and Affiliated Entities will provide or permit access to the other Party's Confidential Information only to the receiving Party's employees, consultants, advisors and sublicensees, and to the employees, consultants and advisors of the receiving Party's Affiliates and Affiliated Entities, and to, with respect to Company, Upstream Licensors, in each case on a need to know basis who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information no less stringent than the obligations of confidentiality and non-use of the receiving Party pursuant to this Section 8.1; provided, however, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities or sublicensees, and its and its Affiliates' and Affiliated Entities' respective employees, consultants and advisors, to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 8.1 as if such Affiliates, Affiliated Entities, employees, consultants, advisors and sublicensees were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1.

(c) Confidentiality Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Party may use and disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as follows: (i) under appropriate written confidentiality and non-use obligations no less stringent than those in this Agreement, to its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities, bona fide potential or actual collaborators, licensors, sublicensees, licensees, or strategic partners and to employees, directors, agents, consultants, and advisors of any other Third Parties, (ii) to its financial advisors, attorneys and accountants, bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors and underwriters on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement; provided, however, that each Party may disclose the terms of this Agreement (but not any other Confidential Information) to bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement and of duration customary in confidentiality agreements entered into for a similar purpose; provided, further, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by any of the foregoing individuals to treat such Confidential Information as required under Section 8.1 as if such individuals were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1, or (iii) as required by any court or other governmental body or as otherwise required by applicable Laws (including any such disclosures as are required by a Regulatory Authority in connection with seeking Regulatory Approval, Pricing and Reimbursement Approval, import authorization for any Licensed Product in the Territory, or the rules or regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States or of any stock exchange or listing entity); provided, that, notice is promptly given to the other Party and the disclosing Party cooperates with reasonable requests from the other Party to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to protect the Confidential Information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this ARTICLE VIII, Confidential Information that is permitted or required to be disclosed will remain otherwise subject to the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1(b) and this Section 8.1(c). If either Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Party with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Party with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to have terms identified by such other Party afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Regulatory Authority.

(d) Secrecy of Licensed Know-How. Without limiting the generality of Section 8.1(a), during the Term the receiving Party will protect, and will cause, to the extent applicable, its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities and sublicensees, and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents to protect, the secrecy and confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How and unpublished Patent Rights using at least the same degree of care as it uses to prevent the disclosure of its own other confidential information of like importance and in any event a reasonable duty of care.

Section 8.2. Publicity. The Parties acknowledge the importance of supporting each other's efforts to publicly disclose results and significant developments regarding the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and each Party may make such disclosures from time to time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 8.2. Such disclosures may include achievement of milestones, significant events in the Development process with respect to Licensed Products, or Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products.

(a) On a date to be mutually agreed by the Parties, the Parties will jointly issue a press release regarding the signing of this Agreement. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence and for disclosures permitted in accordance with Section 8.1(b), whenever either Party elects to make any public disclosure regarding milestones, significant events in the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, it will first notify the other Party of such planned press release or public announcement and provide a draft for review no less than [] in advance of issuing such press release or making such public announcement (or, with respect to press releases and public announcements that are required by applicable Laws, with as much advance notice as possible under the circumstances if it is not possible to provide notice no less than [] in advance). Each Party will have the right to review and approve any such planned press release or public announcement proposed by the other Party with respect to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or that includes Confidential Information of the other Party; provided, however, that (A) the reviewing Party will attempt to provide such approval as soon as reasonably possible and will not unreasonably withhold such approval; (B) the reviewing Party will provide explanations of its disapproval of such press release; and (C) a Party desiring to make such public disclosure may issue such press release or public announcement without such prior review by the other Party if (1) the contents of such press release or public announcement have previously been made public other than through a breach of this Agreement by such Party, and (2) such press release or public announcement is consistent with the previously issued press release or other publicly available information; and provided, further, that the other Party will have the right to review, but not approve, any press release or public announcement that the proposing Party determines is required by applicable Laws based on the advice of counsel, which public disclosures are subject to Section 8.2. The Party reviewing a press release provided under this clause (A) of this Section 8.2(a) will review and approve or disapprove such press release within [] after its receipt thereof.

(b) The principles to be observed in such disclosures will include accuracy, compliance with applicable Laws and regulatory guidance documents, reasonable sensitivity to potential negative reactions of Regulatory Authorities and the need to keep investors informed regarding the business of the Party making such public disclosure. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will restrict a Party from making a disclosure required by Laws as reasonably determined by such Party's counsel, including disclosures required by any Laws relating to the public sale of securities (as provided in Section 8.1(c)); provided, however, that such disclosure will include the maximum amount of Confidential Information required by such applicable Laws, and the Parties will use reasonable efforts to seek confidential treatment of Confidential Information to be included in such disclosures.

(c) In the event that either Party proposes to publish or present the results of Development or Commercialization carried out on the Licensed Product, including any oral presentation or abstract that contain clinical data or pertain to results of Clinical Studies or other studies, such publication or presentation will be subject to the prior review by the JSC for patentability and protection of the Parties' Confidential Information. Each Party will provide to the JSC the opportunity to review any proposed abstracts, manuscripts or summaries of presentations that cover the results of Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products during the Term. The JSC will review such proposed material at the next meeting of the JSC, with either approval of the proposed material or a specific statement of concern, based upon either the need to seek patent protection or concern regarding competitive disadvantage arising from the proposal. In the event that the JSC provides such a statement of concern, the submitting Party will not submit such publication that contains such information until the other Party is given a reasonable period of time to seek patent protection for any material in such publication or presentation that it believes is patentable or to resolve any other issues, and the submitting Party will remove from such proposed publication any Confidential Information of the other Party as requested by the other Party.

(d) In addition to the foregoing, with respect to any disclosures by Licensee, such disclosures will be subject at all times to any publicity or publication requirements set forth in any Upstream License. Licensee will not submit or publish any article or other publication to or with any scientific journal or other publisher that requires, as a condition of publication, that Licensee agrees to make available to the publisher or Third Parties any materials that are the subject of the publication. All publications made by Licensee relating to any Compound or Licensed Product will be prepared, presented, and published in accordance with pharmaceutical industry accepted guidelines.

ARTICLE IX
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; CERTAIN COVENANTS

Section 9.1. Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that, as of the Effective Date:

(a) Organization. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.

(b) Authority. It has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, it has the right to grant to the other the licenses and sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement, and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents.

(c) Consents. Except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained.

(d) No Conflict. It is not under any obligation, contractual or otherwise, to any Person that would materially affect the diligent and complete fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) and the licenses and sublicenses to be granted by such Party pursuant to this Agreement (i) do not conflict with or violate any requirement of Laws applicable to such Party, (ii) do not conflict with or violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award of any court or governmental agency presently in effect applicable to such Party, and (iii) do not conflict with, violate, breach or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any contractual obligations of such Party or any of its Affiliates or Affiliated Entities.

(e) Enforceability. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon it and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the general principles of equity and subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(f) Compliance with Laws. The Parties will, and will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to ensure that their respective Affiliates, Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) and sublicensees shall, comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws in exercising their rights and fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will conduct all Development, and Commercialization activities relating to the Compound or Licensed Product(s) in accordance with applicable Laws (including data privacy Laws, current international regulatory standards, including, as applicable, GMP, GLP, GCP, and other rules, regulations and requirements), and will cause all permitted collaborators and sublicensees hereunder to comply with such applicable Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will comply with all applicable Laws concerning bribery, money laundering, or corrupt practices or which in any manner prohibit the giving of anything of value to any official, agent, or employee of any government, political party, or public international organization, candidate for public office, health care professional, or to any officer, director, employee, or representative of any other organization specifically including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and the UK Bribery Act, in each case, in connection with the activities conducted pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties will require any contractors, subcontractors, sublicensees, or other Persons that provide services to such Party in connection with this Agreement to comply with such Party's obligations under this Section 9.1(f).

Section 9.2. Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Company. Company represents, warrants and covenants to Licensee that, as of the Effective Date:

(a) Licensed Patents. All Licensed Patents as of the Effective Date are listed in Exhibit C. Except as otherwise noted in Exhibit C, Company is the sole and exclusive owner of the Licensed Patents, all of which are free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances. With respect to Licensed Patents not solely owned by Company, Company licenses such Licensed Patents in a manner that permits exclusive sublicensees as provided in this Agreement. All Licensed Patents owned by Company and, [], all other Licensed Patents, have been filed and prosecuted in good faith in the patent offices in accordance with applicable Laws, and all applicable fees have been paid on or before the due date for payment. [], all issued Licensed Patents are valid and enforceable.

(b) Licensed Know-How. Company owns or Controls the Licensed Know-How, Company has the right to use and disclose (in each case, under appropriate circumstances of confidentiality) the Licensed Know-How free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances [].

(c) Licensed Technology. [], Company has not granted to any Third Party, including any academic organization or agency, any license, option or other rights to research, Develop, manufacture, use or Commercialize the Compound or the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory other than any rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement. No Third Party has any license, option or other rights or interest in or to the Licensed Technology other than the rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement.

(d) Delivery of Documentation. True, complete, and correct copies of: (i) all existing material Regulatory Filings in its possession and control relating to Licensed Products, (ii) all material adverse information with respect to the safety and efficacy of the Licensed Products in Company's or its Affiliated Entities' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) possession and control, and (iii) all material data in Company's or its Affiliated Entities' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) possession and control needed to support Regulatory Filings in the Territory, in each case ((i), (ii) and (iii)) have been provided or made available to Licensee prior to the Effective Date.

(e) Third Party Challenges. There are no claims, judgments, or settlements against, or amounts with respect thereto, made against Company or any of its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Patents or the Licensed Know-How. [], [], no claim or litigation has been received by Company or its Affiliates or, [], threatened by any Person (i) alleging that the Licensed Patents are invalid or unenforceable, (ii) asserting the misuse of any of the Licensed Patents, (iii) challenging Company's Control of the Licensed Patents (i.e., alleging that a Third Party has a right or interest in or to the Licensed Technology) or (iv) alleging misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party used in the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products by or on behalf of Company prior to the Effective Date.

(f) Non-Infringement of Third Party IP. [], the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product, as conducted by Company, its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) or its or their sublicensees prior to the Effective Date did not infringe any Patent Right or misappropriate or otherwise violate or misappropriate any Know-How of any Person (in the case of pending Patent Rights, evaluating them as if issued). No claim of infringement of the Patent Rights or misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party has been received by the Company, or [], threatened, against Company, any of its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) or its or their sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products.

(g) Absence of Litigation. There are no judgments or settlements against or owed by Company, its Affiliates or its sublicensees, or, [], pending litigation against Company, its Affiliates, or its sublicensees, or litigation threatened against Company, its Affiliates, or its sublicensees, in each case related to Licensed Products, including any such litigation any relating to any Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals or Marketing Authorizations Controlled by Company, its Affiliates or its sublicensees as of the Effective Date.

(h) Maintenance of Regulatory Filings, Good Laboratory and Clinical Practices. Company, its Affiliates, and its sublicensees have generated, prepared, maintained, and retained all Regulatory Filings and Marketing Authorizations in its control that are required to be maintained or retained pursuant to and in material compliance with applicable Laws, and have conducted in material compliance with applicable Laws, including GLP and GCP all Development of Licensed Products in the Field conducted prior to the Effective Date.

(i) Confidentiality of Know-How. Company has taken precautions, consistent with its usual business practice, to preserve the confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How.

(j) Assignment of Third Party Rights; Third Party Consents.

(i) Company has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities under the Development Plan for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Licensee will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Company, without payments beyond those required by ARTICLE VI, the licenses and other rights granted to Licensee under this Agreement.

(ii) Each Person who has or has had any ownership rights in or to any Licensed Patents purported to be owned solely by Company, has assigned and has executed an agreement assigning its entire right, title, and interest in and to such Licensed Patents to Company; [], no current officer, employee, agent, or consultant of Company or any of its Affiliates is in violation of any term of any assignment or other agreement, in each case, regarding the protection of the Licensed Patents.

(iii) Prior to the Effective Date, Company has obtained all consents from Third Parties necessary to grant Licensee the licenses and rights Company purports to grant to Licensee under this Agreement.

(k) Statements to Regulatory Authorities. Neither Company nor any of its Affiliates, nor, [], its sublicensees nor any of its or their respective officers, employees, or agents has made an untrue statement of material fact or fraudulent statement to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products, or failed to disclose a material fact required under applicable Laws to be disclosed to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products.

(l) Compliance with Laws. Company has used commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all of the studies, tests and pre-clinical and clinical trials of Licensed Products conducted prior to, or being conducted as of, the Effective Date by or on behalf of Company have been and are being conducted in all material respects in accordance with applicable Laws.

(m) Upstream Licenses.

(i) All Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date are listed in Exhibit D. Company (A) has not materially breached any of its obligations under the terms and conditions with the Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date and all Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date are in full force and effect; (B) has not received any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company of, requests a material amendment of, termination of any Upstream License; and (C) is not aware of any potential breach, default, or potential default of any Upstream License; and

(ii) During the Term, Company and its Affiliates (A) will not materially breach the terms and conditions of each Upstream License that would be necessary or reasonably useful for Licensee to Develop, or Commercialize the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory pursuant to this Agreement; (B) will [] ensure that the Upstream Licenses are in full force and effect for so long as any Licensed Technology licensed to Company under such Upstream Licenses are necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; (C) will provide prompt notice to Licensee of its receipt of any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company of, requests a material amendment of, or termination of any Upstream License; and (D) will not amend, modify or terminate any Upstream Licenses in a manner that would terminate rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of the licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder[].

(n) No Conflict. During the Term, Company and its Affiliates will not grant any interest in the Licensed Technology that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section 9.3. Non-Assertion. During the Term, Company will enforce its rights against [] under the [] Agreement with respect to []'s covenant that it and its affiliates will not assert rights to the Licensed Technology or any Patent Rights covering any metabolite of the Compound, including [] against Company, its Affiliates, sublicensees, or any of their respective distributors, resellers or customers; (b) will not otherwise participate in any such action or proceeding against Company, its Affiliates and sublicensees, or any of their respective distributors, resellers or customers; and (c) will not support or encourage any Third Party to sue for infringement or misappropriation of any Patent Rights covering [], in each case ((a), (b), and (c)), to the extent that such infringement or misappropriation arises incidentally as a result of the administration of the Compound in patients.

Section 9.4. Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Licensee. Licensee represents, warrants and covenants to Company that, as of the Effective Date, no claim or demand of any Person has been asserted in writing to Licensee arising out of, and to the knowledge of Licensee, no investigations are pending or threatened in writing with respect to, Licensee's development, regulatory or commercialization activities [].

Section 9.5. No Debarment. Each Party represents and warrants that neither it nor any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement has ever been, or is currently: (a) debarred under 21 U.S.C. § 335a or by any Regulatory Authority; (b) excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise ineligible to participate in federal health care programs or in federal procurement or non-procurement programs; (c) listed on the FDA's Disqualified and Restricted Lists for clinical investigators; or (d) convicted of a criminal offense that falls within the scope of 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7(a), but has not yet been excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise declared ineligible. Each Party further covenants that if, during the Term of this Agreement, it becomes aware that it or any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement is the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could lead to that Party becoming a debarred entity or individual, an excluded entity or individual or a convicted entity or individual, such Party will promptly notify the other Party.

Section 9.6. No Other Warranties. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTION 9.1, SECTION 9.2, SECTION 9.3, SECTION 9.4 OR SECTION 9.5, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED PRODUCT, VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION; DAMAGES

Section 10.1. Indemnification by Company. Company will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Licensee, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a “Licensee Indemnified Party”), from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Licensee Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Company in this Agreement, or any breach by Company of any obligation, covenant or agreement in this Agreement; (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Company or any of its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable), sublicensees, or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing Company’s obligations or exercising Company’s rights under this Agreement; (c) activities conducted by or on behalf of Company, its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) or its sublicensees or contractors related to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products anywhere in the world prior to the Effective Date; and (d) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products by or on behalf of Company, any of its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable), Sublicensees or contractors outside the Territory; provided, however, that Company’s obligations pursuant to this Section 10.1 will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Licensee has an obligation to indemnify Company pursuant to Section 10.2.

Section 10.2. Indemnification by Licensee. Licensee will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company, its Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a “Company Indemnified Party”) from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Company Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Licensee in this Agreement, or any breach by Licensee of any covenant or agreement in this Agreement, (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of, or violation of Laws by, Licensee, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing Licensee’s obligations or exercising Licensee’s rights under this Agreement, or (c) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors in the Field in the Territory; provided, however, that Licensee’s obligations pursuant to this Section 10.2 will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Company has an obligation to indemnify Licensee pursuant to Section 10.1.

Section 10.3. Claims for Indemnification.

(a) Notice. An Indemnified Party entitled to indemnification under Section 10.1 or Section 10.2 will give prompt written notification to the Indemnifying Party from whom indemnification is sought of the commencement of any Action by a Third Party for which indemnification may be sought (a “Third Party Claim”) or, if earlier, upon the assertion of such Third Party Claim by a Third Party; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 10.3(a) will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.

(b) Defense. Within [] after delivery of a notice of any Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 10.3(a), the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of such defense, the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Party not controlling such defense may participate therein at its own expense.

(c) Cooperation. The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.

(d) Settlement. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Indemnifying Party will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which will not be unreasonably withheld (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)), agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party).

(e) Mitigation of Loss. Each Indemnified Party will take and will procure that its Affiliates, Affiliated Entities (to the extent applicable) and sublicensees take all such reasonable steps and actions as are necessary or as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require in order to mitigate any Third Party Claims (or potential losses or damages) under this ARTICLE XIV. Nothing in this Agreement will or will be deemed to relieve any Party of any common law or other duty to mitigate any losses incurred by it.

Section 10.4. Insurance. Each Party, at its own expense, will maintain liability insurance (or self-insure) with respect to its activities under this Agreement in an amount consistent with industry standards. Each Party will provide a certificate of insurance (or evidence of self-insurance) evidencing such coverage to the other Party upon request. Without limiting the foregoing, during the Term and thereafter for the period of time required below, each Party will maintain on an ongoing basis comprehensive general liability insurance policies which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similar situated in such Party's territory. Not later than [] following receipt of written request from a Party, the other Party will provide to the requesting Party a certificate of insurance evidencing such insurance policies. Each Party will maintain such insurance or self-insurance coverage without interruption during the Term and for a period of [] thereafter, and, if applicable, will provide certificates or letters evidencing such insurance coverage without interruption as reasonably requested during the period of time for which such coverage must be maintained. Each Party will be provided at least [] prior written notice of any cancellation or material decrease in the other Party's insurance coverage limits described above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party's failure to maintain adequate insurance will not relieve that Party of its obligations set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI
LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Section 11.1. No Consequential or Punitive Damages. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN Section 11.2, NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES OR AFFILIATED ENTITIES WILL BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXERCISE OF ITS RIGHTS OR THE PERFORMANCE OF ITS OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, INCLUDING ANY LOST PROFITS ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, IN EACH CASE HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF ANY NOTICE OF SUCH DAMAGES.

Section 11.2. EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION. THE LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMER SET FORTH IN Section 11.1 WILL NOT APPLY TO A CLAIM: (A) FOR GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT; (B) FOR A BREACH OF ARTICLE VIII; OR (C) FOR INDEMNIFIABLE LOSSES PURSUANT TO Section 10.1 OR Section 10.2, AS APPLICABLE.

ARTICLE XII
TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 12.1. Term. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this ARTICLE XII, this Agreement will become effective as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force until the last to expire Royalty Term in the Field in the Territory for all Licensed Products (the "Term").

Section 12.2. Paid-Up License Upon End of Royalty Term. Upon the expiration of the Royalty Term for a given Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, the licenses and rights of reference granted to Licensee pursuant to Section 2.1 will become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, and royalty free with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region.

Section 12.3. Early Termination.

(a) Termination for Material Breach. Upon (i) any material breach of this Agreement by Company or (ii) any material breach of this Agreement by Licensee (the Party so allegedly breaching being the "Breaching Party"), the other Party (the "Non-Breaching Party") will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement in its entirety by providing [] written notice to the Breaching Party in the case of any other material breach, which notice will, in each case (A) expressly reference this Section 12.3(a), (B) reasonably describe the alleged breach which is the basis of such termination, and (C) clearly state the Non-Breaching Party's intent to terminate this Agreement if the alleged breach is not cured within the applicable cure period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended if the Breaching Party provides a written plan for curing such breach to the Non-Breaching Party and uses Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan; provided, however, that no such extension will exceed [] without the written consent of the Non-Breaching Party; and (2) if the Breaching Party disputes (x) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, (y) whether such material breach is reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, or (z) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, the dispute will be resolved pursuant to ARTICLE XIII, and this Agreement may not be terminated during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure. The termination will become effective at the end of the notice period unless the Breaching Party cures such breach during such notice period; provided, however, that the Non-Breaching Party may, by notice to the Breaching Party, designate a later date for such termination in order to facilitate an orderly transition of activities relating to Licensed Products.

(b) Termination by Licensee for Convenience. Licensee may, upon [] prior written notice to Company, terminate this Agreement for convenience, without cause, and for any or no reason, on a Region-by-Region basis.

(c) Termination for Bankruptcy. This Agreement may be terminated, to the extent permitted by applicable Laws, by either Party upon the filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by the other Party; provided, however, that in the case of any involuntary bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceeding such right to terminate will only become effective if the Party subject to such proceeding consents to the involuntary bankruptcy or such proceeding is not dismissed within [] after the filing thereof.

(d) Patent Challenge. Company has the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Licensee in the event that Licensee or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees directly or indirectly challenges in a legal or administrative proceeding the patentability, enforceability or validity of any Patent Rights within the Licensed Technology (a “Patent Challenge”); provided that this Section 12.3(d) will not apply to any Patent Challenge that (i) is first made by Licensee or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees in defense of a claim of patent infringement brought by the Company under the applicable Patent Rights or any Patent Challenge, (ii) was brought by an Acquirer prior to the effective date of such Change of Control, or (iii) is brought by any non-Affiliate Sublicensee if Licensee (A) causes such Patent Challenge to be terminated or dismissed (or in the case of ex-parte proceedings, multi-party proceedings, or other Patent Challenges in which the challenging party does not have the power to unilaterally cause the Patent Challenge to be withdrawn, causes such Sublicensee to withdraw as a party from such Patent Challenge and to cease actively assisting any other party to such Patent Challenge), or (B) terminates such Sublicensee’s sublicense to the Patent Rights being challenged by the Sublicensee, in each case, within [] after the Company’s notice to Licensee under this Section 12.3(d).

Section 12.4. Effects of Termination.

(a) Effects of Termination Generally. Upon termination of this Agreement in its entirety pursuant to Section 12.3, the JSC will cease to exist, the Parties’ rights, licenses and obligations under this Agreement will terminate and neither Party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement from and after the effective date of termination, except as set forth in this Section 12.4; provided, however, that, if this Agreement is terminated with respect to a particular Region only, then such rights and obligations will terminate only to the extent they relate solely to the terminated Region and the JSC will continue with respect to such non-terminated Regions.

(b) Winding Down of Activities. If there are any on-going Development or Commercialization activities at termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith and adopt a plan to wind-down such activities in an orderly fashion or, at Company’s election, promptly transition such activities from Licensee to Company or its designee, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any Clinical Studies of the Licensed Products, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems and in compliance with all applicable Laws.

(c) License Grant to Company. Upon termination of this Agreement, Licensee hereby grants (effective on delivery of the notice of termination) to Company a royalty-free, fully-paid up, worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual, transferable license, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers under the Licensee Technology as it exists on the effective date of termination to enable Company solely to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the “Reversion License”); provided that, with respect to any Licensee Technology that is Controlled by Licensee and its Affiliates and sublicensees pursuant to an agreement with a Third Party, Company will pay all amounts due under any such agreement as a result of Company's exercise of the rights granted thereunder. The Reversion License will be [] other than for termination due to [], in which case, the Reversion License will be []. If Company, the Affiliated Entities or its or their sublicensees exercises the Reversion License or the rights granted pursuant to Section 12.4(g) and this Agreement has been terminated by Licensee pursuant to [], Company will pay to Licensee, in consideration of the rights granted to Company, an amount []; provided, however, that if the Parties cannot agree upon [] within [], then, notwithstanding Section 13.2, the matter shall be resolved in accordance with Exhibit F. Following such termination, Company will indemnify, defend and hold Licensee and the Licensee Indemnified Party harmless in the manner forth in Section 10.2(c) (including, for the avoidance of doubt, all product liability claims (whether arising during Development or Commercialization) relating to any Compound or Licensed Product (whether pursuant to design defect, manufacturing defect, failure to notify, or otherwise)) as if Company were Licensee and the Licensee Indemnified Parties were the Company Indemnified Parties, mutatis mutandis for all Third Party Losses arising after the effective date of such termination, and Licensee's indemnification obligations under Section 10.2(c) shall thereupon cease for Third Party Losses arising after the effective date of such termination.

(d) Accrued Obligations. Expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason will not release either Party from any obligation or liability which, on the effective date of such expiration or termination, has already accrued to the other Party or which is attributable to a period prior to such expiration or termination.

(e) Survival. This Section 12.4(e), the provisions set forth in the following Sections, as well as, to the extent applicable, any other Sections or defined terms referred to in such Sections or Articles or necessary to give them effect, will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety: Section 2.2(c), Section 4.3 (only for [] following the effective date of such expiration or termination), Section 7.1, Section 7.6, ARTICLE VIII, ARTICLE X, ARTICLE XI, Section 12.4, ARTICLE XIII and ARTICLE XIV. Furthermore, any other provisions required to interpret the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement, including applicable definitions in ARTICLE I, will survive to the extent required. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, including this all rights and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement, including this Section 12.3(d), any licenses granted under this Agreement, will terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety or solely with respect to the terminated Region, as the case may be, for any reason.

(f) Inventory. Upon termination of this Agreement, Company will have the right to purchase all of Licensee and its Affiliates' remaining inventory of Licensed Products held as of the effective date of termination of this Agreement at a price equal to Licensee's Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost with the definition of Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost in Section 1.1 (mutatis mutandis).

(g) Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Following the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3, as promptly as practicable after Company's written request, Licensee will, to the extent permitted under applicable Laws and not commercially infeasible, and at Company's sole cost and expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Company's rights under this Section 12.4(g) was for Licensee's material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a), in which case such transfer will be at Licensee's sole cost and expense), assign and transfer to Company all Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products that are held by or owned by Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the effective date of termination, with respect to the terminated Region, as the case may be, and will take such actions and execute such other instruments, assignments and documents as may be necessary to effect the transfer of rights under such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Company. If applicable Laws or relevant Regulatory Authorities prevent or delay the transfer of ownership of any such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Company or if it is commercially infeasible for Licensee to do so, then Licensee will grant, and hereby does grant, to Company an exclusive and irrevocable right of access and right of reference to such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory or the terminated Region, as the case may be, and will reasonably cooperate with Company, at Company's expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Company's rights under this Section 12.4(g) was for Licensee's material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a), in which case such transfer will be at Licensee's sole cost and expense), to make the benefits of such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations available to Company or its designee(s).

(h) Return of Confidential Information. Within [] after the effective date of termination (but not expiration) of this Agreement in its entirety, each Party will, and cause its Affiliates to (i) destroy, all tangible items solely comprising, bearing or containing any Confidential Information of the other Party that are in such first Party's or its Affiliates' possession or Control, and provide written certification of such destruction, or (ii) prepare such tangible items of the other Party's Confidential Information for shipment to such other Party, as such other Party may direct, at the first Party's expense; provided, however, that, in any event, (A) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights that survive expiration or termination of this Agreement; and (B) each Party may retain one copy of the Confidential Information of the other Party for its legal archives.

(i) Rights in Bankruptcy. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement constitutes an executory contract under Section 365 of the Code for the license of "intellectual property" as defined under Section 101 of the Code and constitutes a license of "intellectual property" for purposes of any similar laws in any other country. The Parties further acknowledge that Licensee, as licensee of such rights under this Agreement, will retain and may fully exercise all of its protections, rights and elections under the Code, including, but not limited to, Section 365(n) of the Code, and any similar laws in any other country. In the event of the commencement of a bankruptcy proceeding by or against Company under the Code and any similar laws in any other country, Licensee will be entitled to a complete duplicate of (or complete access to, as appropriate) any such intellectual property and all embodiments of such intellectual property, and the same, if not already in its possession, will be promptly delivered to it (a) upon any such commencement of a bankruptcy proceeding upon its written request therefor, unless Company elects to continue to perform all of its obligations under this Agreement, or (b) if not delivered under (a) above, following the rejection of this Agreement by or on behalf of Company upon written request therefor by Licensee. All rights, powers and remedies of Licensee provided for in this Section 12.4(i) are in addition to and not in substitution for any and all other rights, powers and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including, without limitation, under the Code and any similar laws in any other country).

(j) Cooperation. Each Party will cause its Affiliates, sublicensees and contractors to comply with the obligations in this Section 12.4.

ARTICLE XIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 13.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, any and all disputes between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will first be referred to the JSC for resolution. Should the JSC not be able to reach agreement at a duly called meeting of the JSC within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the JSC, then either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, subject to Section 5.5 with respect to the Company's final decision-making authority on all matters to within the purview of the JSC relating to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory, either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 13.2.

Section 13.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 12.4(c) and this Section 13.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 13.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (the “Rules”) by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with each Party appointing one (1) arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within [], the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with ICC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by either Party by notice to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings [] will be held in []; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney’s fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of either Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 13.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 13.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by Laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of both Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, neither Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 13.2 will preclude either Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding. Notwithstanding the Parties’ agreement to arbitrate, unless the Parties agree in writing in any particular case, claims and disputes between the Parties relating to or arising out of, or for which resolution depends in whole or in part on a determination of the interpretation, scope, validity, enforceability or infringement of, Patent Rights or of any Trademark rights relating to any Licensed Products will not be subject to arbitration under this Agreement, and the Parties may pursue whatever rights and remedies may be available to them under law or equity, including litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction, with respect to such claims and disputes.

Section 13.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN Section 13.2 (ARBITRATION). THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

ARTICLE XIV
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Assignment; Successors.

(a) Assignment.

(i) General. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of each Party under this Agreement will not be assignable, delegable, transferable, pledged or otherwise disposed of by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that either Party may assign or transfer this Agreement together with all of its rights and obligations hereunder, without such consent (but with written notice to the other Party), (A) to an Affiliate or (B) [], or in the event of its merger or consolidation, reorganization or similar transaction, subject to the assignee agreeing in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.1(a)(i) will be null and void.

(ii) Securitization. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 14.1(a)(i) or elsewhere in this Agreement, Company may assign to a Third Party its right to receive the milestone payments and the royalty payments owed under ARTICLE VI (such assignment, a "Securitization Transaction") without the prior written consent of Licensee. Further, in connection with a contemplated Securitization Transaction, Company may disclose to such Third Party the Confidential Information of Licensee (including the royalty reports contemplated under Section 6.3), without the prior written consent of Licensee, to the extent reasonably necessary to enable such Third Party to evaluate the Securitization Transaction opportunity (provided that such Third Party is under obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information that are no less stringent than the terms of ARTICLE VIII), and to allow such Third Party to exercise its rights under this Section 14.1(a)(ii). As part of any consummated Securitization Transaction, Company may assign, without the prior written consent of Licensee, its right to receive the royalty reports and to conduct audits under Section 6.3 and Section 6.6 to the counterparty in such Securitization Transaction, and to allow such counterparty to exercise its rights under such Sections.

(b) Successors. Any permitted assignment of the rights and obligations of a Party under this Agreement will be binding on, and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against, the successors and permitted assigns of the assigning Party. The permitted assignee or transferee will assume all obligations of its assignor or transferor under this Agreement. Any assignment or attempted assignment by either Party in violation of the terms of this Section 14.1(b) will be null, void and of no legal effect.

Section 14.2. Choice of Laws. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted under the Laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Any dispute, controversy, claim or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in accordance with Section 13.2; provided, however, that all questions concerning (a) inventorship of Patent Rights under this Agreement will be determined in accordance with Section 7.1 and (b) the construction or effect of Patent Rights will be determined in accordance with the Laws of the country, Region or other jurisdiction in which the particular patent within such Patent Rights has been filed or granted, as the case may be. Any communication or proceedings resulting from disputes under this Agreement will be in English language. The Parties agree to exclude the application to this Agreement of the United Nations Conventions on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980).

Section 14.3. Notices. Any notice or report required or permitted to be given or made under this Agreement by one Party to the other will be in writing and will be deemed to have been delivered (a) upon personal delivery (upon written confirmation of receipt), (b) when received by the addressee, if sent by a reputable internationally recognized overnight courier that maintains records of delivery, or registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested and (c) in the case of notices provided by telecopy (which notice will be followed immediately by an additional notice pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above if the notice is of a default under this Agreement), upon completion of transmission, with transmission confirmed, to the addressee's facsimile machine, as follows (or at such other addresses or facsimile numbers as may have been furnished in writing by a Party to the other as provided in this Section 14.3). This Section 14.3 is not intended to govern the day-to-day business communications necessary between the Parties in performing their obligations under the terms of this Agreement.

Section 14.4. Severability. In the event that one or more provisions of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, then such provision will not render any other provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, and all other provisions will remain in full force and effect and will be enforceable, unless the provisions that have been found to be invalid or unenforceable will substantially affect the remaining rights or obligations granted or undertaken by either Party. The Parties agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision.

Section 14.5. Integration. This Agreement, together with all schedules and exhibits attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, whether written or oral, including, effective as of the Effective Date, the Term Sheet (provided that all information disclosed or exchanged under such agreement will be treated as Confidential Information hereunder). In the event of a conflict between the Development Plan or any schedules or attachments to this Agreement, on the one hand, and this Agreement, on the other hand, the terms of this Agreement will govern. Each Party confirms that it is not relying on any representations or warranties of the other Party except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

Section 14.6. Waivers and Amendments. The failure of any Party to assert a right under this Agreement or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition by the other Party. The exercise by any Party of any right or election under the terms or covenants herein will not preclude or prejudice any Party from exercising the same or any other right it may have under this Agreement, irrespective of any previous action or proceeding taken by the Parties hereunder. Notwithstanding the authority granted to the JSC under this Agreement, (a) no waiver will be effective unless it has been given in writing and signed by the Party giving such waiver, and (b) no provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified other than by a written document signed by authorized representatives of each Party.

Section 14.7. Independent Contractors; No Agency. Neither Party will have any responsibility for the hiring, firing or compensation of the other Party's or such other Party's Affiliates' employees or for any employee benefits with respect thereto. No employee or representative of a Party or its Affiliates will have any authority to bind or obligate the other Party for any sum or in any manner whatsoever, or to create or impose any contractual or other liability on such other Party, without such other Party's written approval. For all purposes, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, each Party's legal relationship under this Agreement to the other Party will be that of independent contractor, and the relationship between the two Parties will not constitute a partnership, joint venture, or agency, including for all tax purposes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.

Section 14.8. Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors. To the extent that this Agreement imposes obligations on Affiliates, sublicensees or contractors of a Party, such Party will cause its Affiliates and its sublicensees and contractors to perform such obligations, as applicable. Either Party may use one or more of its Affiliates, sublicensees or contractors to perform its obligations and duties or exercise its rights under this Agreement, solely to the extent permitted and as specified in this Agreement; provided, however, that (a) each such Affiliate, sublicensee or contractor will perform any such obligations delegated to it in compliance with the applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement as if such Affiliate, sublicensee or contractor were a party hereto, (b) the performance of any obligations of a Party's by its Affiliates, sublicensees or contractors will not diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of such Party under this Agreement, and (c) subject to such Party's assignment to an Affiliate pursuant to Section 14.1, such Party will remain liable under this Agreement for the prompt payment and performance of all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to this Section 14.8, if a Party exercises its rights and performs its obligations under this Agreement through one or more of its Affiliates, "Company" will be interpreted to mean "Company or its Affiliates" and "Licensee" will be interpreted to mean "Licensee or its Affiliates" where necessary to give each Party's Affiliates the benefit of the rights provided to such Party in this Agreement and the ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 14.9. Force Majeure. Neither Party will be responsible to the other for, or be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement for, any failure or delay in performing any of its obligations under this Agreement or for other nonperformance under this Agreement (excluding, in each case, the obligation to make payments when due) if such delay or nonperformance is caused by or results from events beyond the reasonable control of the non-performing Party, including national industry strike, fire, flood, earthquake, hurricanes, tsunamis, war, acts of war (e.g., hostilities between nations), insurrections, riots, civil commotion, strikes, lockouts, or other labor disturbances (whether involving the workforce of the non-performing Party or of any other Person), act of terrorism, act of God or acts, omissions or delays in acting of the government of any country or Region or of any local government (including trade disputes), in each case, except to the extent such delay results from the breach by the non-performing Party or any of its Affiliates of any term or condition of this Agreement (a “Force Majeure Event”). In such event, the Party affected will promptly (and, in any event, within [*]) notify the other Party in writing of such Force Majeure Event, stating the nature of the event, its anticipated duration, and any action being taken to avoid or minimize its effect. The suspension of performance will be of no greater scope and no longer duration than is necessary and the non-performing Party will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to resume performance of its obligations.

Section 14.10. No Third Party Beneficiary Rights. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and they will not be construed as conferring any rights on any other Third Party. This Agreement is not intended to and will not be construed to give any Third Party any interest or rights (including any Third Party beneficiary rights) with respect to or in connection with any agreement or provision contained herein or contemplated hereby, other than, to the extent provided in ARTICLE X, the Indemnified Parties.

Section 14.11. Non-exclusive Remedy. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and each Party retains all remedies at law or in equity, including the Parties’ ability to receive legal damages or equitable relief, with respect to any breach of this Agreement. Neither Party will be required (but, for clarity, will have the right as specified in this Agreement) to terminate this Agreement due to a breach of this Agreement by the other Party.

Section 14.12. Interpretation. The Article and Section headings used herein are for reference and convenience only, and will not enter into the interpretation of this Agreement. Except as otherwise explicitly specified to the contrary, (a) references to an Article, Section or Exhibit means an Article or Section of, or a Schedule or Exhibit to this Agreement and all subsections thereof, unless another agreement is specified; (b) references in any Section to any clause are references to such clause of such Section; (c) references to any agreement, instrument, or other document in this Agreement refer to such agreement, instrument, or other document as originally executed or, if subsequently amended, replaced, or supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; (d) references to a particular Laws mean such Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto; (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively; (f) unless the context requires a different interpretation, the word “or” has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase “and/or”; (g) the terms “including,” “include(s),” “such as,” “e.g.” and “for example” mean including the generality of any description preceding such term and will be deemed to be followed by “without limitation”; (h) whenever this Agreement refers to a number of days, such number will refer to calendar days unless Business Days are specified, and if a period of time is specified and dates from a given day or Business Day, or the day or Business Day of an act or event, it is to be calculated exclusive of that day or Business Day; (i) “monthly” means on a calendar month basis, (j) “quarter” or “quarterly” means on a Calendar Quarter basis; (k) “annual” or “annually” means on a Calendar Year basis; (l) “year” means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (m) references to a particular Person include such Person’s successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (n) the use of any gender herein will be deemed to encompass references to either or both genders, and the use of the singular will be deemed to include the plural (and vice versa); (o) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (p) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (q) the words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby” and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Exhibits or Schedules); (r) neither Party or its Affiliates or Affiliated Entities will be deemed to be acting “on behalf of” the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (s) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder “agree”, “consent” or “approve” or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (t) the word “will” will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “shall”.

Section 14.13. Further Assurances. Each Party will duly execute and deliver, or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents, and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with this Agreement or to carry out more effectively the provisions and purposes hereof, or to better assure and confirm unto such other Party its rights and remedies under this Agreement (including working collaboratively to correct and clerical, typographical, or other similar errors in this Agreement).

Section 14.14. Ambiguities; No Presumption. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement has been diligently reviewed by and negotiated by and between them, that in such negotiations each of them has been represented by competent counsel and that the final agreement contained herein, including the language whereby it has been expressed, represents the joint efforts of the Parties hereto and their counsel. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement or any provision hereof, no presumption will apply against any Party as being responsible for the wording or drafting of this Agreement or any such provision, and ambiguities, if any, in this Agreement will not be construed against any Party under the rule of construction, irrespective of which Party may be deemed to have authored the ambiguous provision.

Section 14.15. Execution in Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if both Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

Section 14.16. Export Control. This Agreement is made subject to any restrictions required by applicable Laws concerning the export of products or technical information from the U.S. or other countries which may be imposed upon or related to the Parties from time to time. Each Party agrees that it will not export, directly or indirectly, any technology licensed to it or other technical information acquired from the other Party under this Agreement or any products using such technical information to a location or in a manner that at the time of export requires an export license or other governmental approval, except in compliance with U.S. export Laws and regulations.

1. If the Parties cannot agree upon [] of the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement, then either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with this Exhibit F.
2. The Parties shall select and agree upon a mutually acceptable independent Third Party expert who is neutral, disinterested and impartial, and has significant relevant experience in the development and commercialization of pharmaceutical products (the “Expert”). If the Parties are unable to mutually agree upon an Expert within [] following the delivery of notice by one Party to the other of a request for resolution under this Exhibit F, then upon request by either Party, the Expert shall be an arbitrator appointed by the Judicial and Mediation Services (“JAMS”). The date on which the Expert is selected or appointed, as applicable, will be the “Arbitration Commencement Date.” Each Party shall, within [] following the Arbitration Commencement Date, prepare and deliver to both the Expert and the other Party its proposed terms to resolve the disputed matter (i.e., [] for the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement) and a memorandum (the “Supporting Memorandum”) in support thereof. Within [] after receipt of the other Party’s Supporting Memorandum, each Party may submit to the Expert (with a copy to the other Party) a rebuttal to the other Party’s Supporting Memorandum (a “Rebuttal”), which may include a revision, marked to show changes, of either Party’s proposed terms. Neither Party may have communications (either written or oral) with the Expert other than (a) prior to the Arbitration Commencement Date, for the sole purpose of engaging the Expert, and (b) upon or following the Arbitration Commencement Date, solely as expressly permitted in this Exhibit F.
3. Within [] after the Expert’s receipt of each Party’s Rebuttal (or the expiration of the period for the Parties to submit a Rebuttal, if earlier), the Expert will select, between the proposals provided by the Parties, the proposal that the Expert believes most accurately reflects [] for the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement (the “Selected Agreement”). The Expert shall not have the authority to modify a proposal initially submitted by a Party. The decision of the Expert shall be the sole, exclusive, binding and unappealable remedy for the dispute at issue, and the Selected Agreement shall become a binding and enforceable agreement between the Parties, effective as of the date of the Expert’s selection thereof.
4. The Expert will have reasonable discretion to request additional information, hold a hearing, and extend the timeframe for reaching a decision regarding the dispute at issue. The Expert’s fees and expenses will be paid by the Party whose proposal is not selected by the Expert. Each Party will otherwise bear and pay its own expenses incurred in connection with any proceedings under this Exhibit F.

AMENDMENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This AMENDMENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”), entered into as of 2020 (the “Amendment Effective Date”), is entered into by and between LianBio, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Licensee”), and QED Therapeutics, Inc. a Delaware corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Company”). Licensee and Company are each referred to herein individually as a “Party”, and collectively as the “Parties.”

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, Licensee and QED entered into an Exclusive License Agreement, dated October 16, 2019 (the “License Agreement”) for the Development, Manufacture, and Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, which includes the territories of the PRC, Macau, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Thailand, Singapore, and South Korea; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to amend the License Agreement to (a) retain all of Licensee’s rights and licenses to the Licensed Technology, the Compound, and Licensed Products under the License Agreement with respect to the territories of the PRC, Macau, and Hong Kong, (b) revert back to Company all of Licensee’s rights and licenses to the Licensed Technology, the Compound, and Licensed Products under the License Agreement with respect to the territories of Taiwan, Thailand, Singapore, and South Korea, and (c) amend certain of Licensee’s Development commitments under the License Agreement, each as provided herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Any capitalized term used in this Amendment but not otherwise defined will have the meaning as defined in the License Agreement.
2. Definitions. In Article 1 of the License Agreement:
 - a. The term and definition of “Bladder Cancer Trials” is hereby deleted in its entirety.
 - b. The definition of “Territory” is hereby amended and replaced in its entirety as follows:
 “Territory” means the PRC, Macau, and Hong Kong.
3. Effect of Amendment to Territory. The Parties hereby agree that as a result of and in accordance with the amendment set forth above in Section 2(b), (a) Licensee shall retain all its rights and licenses to the Licensed Technology, the Compound, and Licensed Products under the License Agreement with respect to the territories of the PRC, Macau, and Hong Kong, and (b) all of Licensee’s rights and licenses to the Licensed Technology, the Compound, and Licensed Products under the License Agreement with respect to the territories of Taiwan, Thailand, Singapore, and South Korea shall revert back to Company.
4. Specific Clinical Studies. Section 3.2(a) of the License Agreement is hereby amended and replaced in its entirety as follows:

Specific Clinical Studies. The Development Plan shall provide that, among other things, Licensee will (i) commit [] to (A) fund Clinical Studies in the Field in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [] (“[] Trials”) and (B) reimburse Company for []; (ii) enroll [] patients in the Territory in [] Trials and [] patients in Clinical Studies in the Field in the Territory of the Licensed Product; (iii) initiate a proof of concept Phase 2 Study in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [] in accordance with the Development Plan (“[] Phase 2 Trial”); and (iv) upon successful completion of the [] Phase 2 Trial, subject to the approval of the JSC, lead a global registrational Clinical Study in the Territory of the Licensed Product for [].

5. Cost of [] Patients. A new Section 3.8 is hereby added to the License Agreement as follows:

Section 3.8. Cost of [] Patients in the Territory. Licensee will be responsible for all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of it or its Affiliates in relation to patients enrolled by Licensee or its Affiliates in the Clinical Studies of the Licensed Product in the Territory for any [] indications. Company will be responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of it or its Affiliates to support or otherwise in relation to the Development of the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.

6. Development Milestone Payment. The table in Section 6.1(c) of the License Agreement is hereby deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following table:

Development Milestone Event		Development Milestone Payment (in Dollars)
1.	[]	[]
2.	[]	[]
3.	[]	[]
Total		[]

7. Exhibit C. Exhibit C of the License Agreement is hereby deleted and replaced in its entirety by Attachment A to this Amendment.

8. Costs Incurred With Respect to [] Prior to the Amendment Effective Date. Licensee and Company have settled all amounts owed to each other under the License Agreement for costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of either Party or any of its Affiliates as of the Amendment Effective Date in the performance of their activities under the License Agreement. Starting from the Amendment Effective Date, Licensee will not be responsible, and Company will be solely responsible, for any and all costs and expenses in relation to any Clinical Studies, Development, Commercialization, or other exploitation of the Licensed Product with respect to any of [].

9. Waiver and Release. In connection with this Amendment, Company, for itself and its Affiliates, predecessors, successors, representatives, stockholders, directors, trustees, officers, employees, assigns and anyone claiming by, through or under the foregoing (each, a “Company Releasing Party”), hereby irrevocably, unconditionally and completely releases, acquits and forever discharges Licensee, and its respective Affiliates, predecessors, successors, representatives, stockholders, directors, officers, employees and assigns (each, a “Licensee Released Party”), from and against all past, present and future disputes, claims, controversies, demands, rights, obligations, liabilities, actions and causes of action of every kind and nature that a Company Releasing Party may have had in the past, may now have or may have in the future, whether directly or indirectly, against any Licensee Released Party for any breach or failure to perform any of its obligations under the License Agreement with respect of [], including without limitation, Licensee’s obligation to (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) use [] to Develop the Licensed Products in the Field in [] under Section 3.1 of the License Agreement.
10. No Other Changes. All other original terms and conditions of the License Agreement, except as specifically amended herein, shall remain in full force and effect. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Amendment, Licensee shall retain all its rights and licenses to the Licensed Technology, the Compound, and Licensed Products under the License Agreement with respect to the territories of the PRC, Macau, and Hong Kong. To the extent there is a conflict between this Amendment and the License Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment shall control.
11. Execution in Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if both Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

NOVATION AGREEMENT

THIS NOVATION AGREEMENT (this “Novation Agreement”) is made and entered into as of October 11, 2020 (the “Novation Effective Date”) by and among LianBio, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”), LianBio Licensing LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware and a wholly-owned subsidiary of LianBio (“LBL”), and QED Therapeutics, Inc. a Delaware corporation (“QED”). Each of LianBio, LBL and QED is referred to herein as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties”.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, LianBio and QED entered into a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated October 16, 2019 and amended on September 26, 2020 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to which QED (as Company) has granted to LianBio (as Licensee) certain rights and licenses under intellectual property owned or controlled by QED to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement;

WHEREAS, LianBio and QED each desire that LBL be substituted for LianBio under the License Agreement; and

WHEREAS, (A) LianBio desires to transfer by novation, and effect a novation of, the License Agreement to LBL such that LBL is substituted for LianBio as a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio, LBL enjoys all rights, title, interest, liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio under and in respect of the License Agreement as if the original party thereto in place of LianBio, and LianBio is released from its performance, liabilities, duties, and obligations under the License Agreement, (B) LBL desires to accept and agree to such novation, and (C) QED desires to consent and agree to such novation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Novation and Assumption.
 - 1.1. LianBio irrevocably novates and transfers to LBL all rights, title, interest, liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio under the License Agreement (the “Novation”).
 - 1.2. LBL hereby irrevocably accepts the Novation, agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms as if LBL had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio, and assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations, and acquires all rights, title, and interest, of LianBio under the License Agreement as if LBL had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio.
 - 1.3. LBL shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by LianBio to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by LianBio under the License Agreement, irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.

2. Except with respect to Section 3 below, QED and LBL each hereby irrevocably releases, relieves, and forever discharges LianBio from all performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations under the License Agreement and from all claims and demands of any kind, whether in law or at equity, which QED or LBL, or any of their respective successors or assigns now have or may in the future have, against LianBio arising out of or related to the License Agreement. LianBio shall be fully relieved of any liability to any other party to this Novation Agreement arising out of the License Agreement. All previous actions taken by LianBio in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of LianBio's obligations and duties under the License Agreement. Subject to Section 3, all payments, obligations and duties of LianBio under the License Agreement due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Novation Effective Date shall be paid or performed by LBL in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
3. Guaranty. LianBio hereby [] guarantees, [], the due and punctual payment of all fees, and any and all other sums and charges payable by LBL (as Licensee) under the License Agreement. The obligations of LianBio under this Section 3 will not be affected by the failure of QED (as Company) to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against LBL (as Licensee) under the provisions of the License Agreement or otherwise. LianBio further agrees that its guarantee constitutes a guarantee of payment when due and not of collection. []
4. Acceptance of Novation. QED hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Novation, assumption, and release described in Section 1 and Section 2 above, and accepts the performance and liability of LBL under the License Agreement in place of the performance and liability of LianBio arising out of or related to the License Agreement and grants to LBL the same rights, title and interest under or arising out of or related to the License Agreement as were granted to LianBio in all respects as if LBL had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio.
5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such novation, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Novation Agreement.
6. Interpretation; successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Novation will be interpreted as a novation and not an assignment. This Novation Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall not be construed as conferring any rights on any other person.
7. Governing Law. Construction and interpretation of this Novation Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Novation Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.
8. Dispute Resolution.
 - 8.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Novation Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Novation Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, the Parties will first attempt to resolve any and all disputes amongst the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Novation Agreement through good faith discussions. Should the Parties not be able to reach agreement within [] after the date on which the Parties commenced discussions, then any Party may refer such matter to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party for resolution and the Chief Executive Officers of each Party will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Chief Executive Officers of each Party fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, any Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 8.2.

- 8.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in this Section 8.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Novation Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 8.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (the “Rules”) by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with LianBio and LBL, acting together, and QED each appointing one (1) arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with ICC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by any Party by notice to the other Parties. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings commenced [] will be held in []; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney’s fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Novation Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of any Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 8.2. The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 8.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of all Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Novation Agreement, no Party may terminate this Novation Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will preclude any Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding.

- 8.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOVATION AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN Section 8.2 (ARBITRATION). THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.
9. Counterparts. This Novation Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if all Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (pdf) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT

THIS EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), entered into as of August 9, 2020 (the “Effective Date”), is entered into by and between LianBio, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”) (for the purposes of Section 2.9(a) and Section 14.17), LianBio Licensing LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lian Bio (“Licensee”), and Navire Pharma, Inc. (formerly known as PTP Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), a Delaware corporation (“Company”).

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, Licensee wishes to obtain from Company and Company wishes to grant to Licensee certain rights and licenses under intellectual property owned or controlled by Company to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined below), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms used in this Agreement will have the meanings set forth in this ARTICLE I:

Section 1.1. “Accounting Standards” means, with respect to a Person, generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) as practiced in the United States or applicable international standards followed by such Person.

Section 1.2. “Acquired Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.9(c).

Section 1.3. “Acquirer” means, collectively, the Third Party referenced in the definition of Change of Control and such Third Party’s Affiliates, other than the applicable Party in the definition of Change of Control and such Party’s Affiliates, determined as of immediately prior to the closing of such Change of Control.

Section 1.4. “Action” means any claim, action, cause of action or suit (whether in contract or tort or otherwise), litigation (whether at law or in equity, whether civil or criminal), assessment, arbitration, investigation, hearing, charge, complaint, demand, notice or proceeding of, to, from, by or before any Governmental Authority.

Section 1.5. “Active Ingredient” means those active materials that provide pharmacological activity in a pharmaceutical or biologic product (excluding formulation components such as coatings, stabilizers, excipients or solvents, adjuvants or controlled release technologies). Drug delivery vehicles, adjuvants and excipients will not be deemed to be Active Ingredients.

Section 1.6. “Addendum” means that certain addendum to this Agreement by and between Licensee and [] pursuant to which [] causes its [] Affiliates to grant the [] Affiliate Compound IP License and comply with the exclusivity obligations under Section 2.9.

Section 1.7. “Additional Compound” means any compounds Controlled by the Company or its Affiliates other than the Compound.

Section 1.8. “Adverse Event” or “AE” has the meaning set forth in the PRC Measures for the Administration of Reporting and Surveillance of Drug Adverse Events (effective as of July 1, 2011) or the equivalent applicable Laws in any relevant Region, and generally means any untoward medical occurrence associated with the use of a product in human subjects, whether or not considered related to such product. An AE does not necessarily have a causal relationship with a product, that is, an AE can be any unfavorable and unintended sign (including an abnormal laboratory finding), symptom, or disease temporally associated with the use of such product.

Section 1.9. “Affiliate” means, (a) with respect to Licensee, Lian Oncology and any directly or indirectly controlled subsidiary of Licensee or Lian Oncology, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists, and, including LianBio Affiliates (b) with respect to Company, any directly or indirectly controlled subsidiary of Company, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists, but excluding any [] Affiliate, and (c) with respect to any other Person, any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with such first Person, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition, “control” means (i) direct or indirect ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the stock or shares having the right to vote for the election of directors of such Person (or if the jurisdiction where such Person is domiciled prohibits foreign ownership of such entity, the maximum foreign ownership interest permitted under such Laws; provided, however, that such ownership interest provides actual control over such Person), (ii) status as a general partner in any partnership, or (iii) the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct, or cause the direction of, the management or policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. Affiliates of a Party exclude Persons who are financial investors of such Party or under common control of such financial investors other than such Party and its subsidiary entities.

Section 1.10. “Agreement” has the meaning set forth in the Preamble.

Section 1.11. “Alliance Manager” has the meaning set forth in Section 5.6(a).

Section 1.12. “Arbitration Commencement Date” has the meaning set forth in Exhibit F.

Section 1.13. “Auditor” has the meaning set forth in Section 6.5(a).

Section 1.14. “Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property Costs” means any [] paid by or on behalf of Licensee, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees to a Third Party in consideration for a grant of rights under any Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property Rights, []; provided, however, [].

Section 1.15. “Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property Rights” means, with respect to the Licensed Product in any Region in the Field in the Territory, any [] Controlled by a Third Party that, absent a license thereunder, would be infringed by the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of such Licensed Product in such Region.

Section 1.16. “Breaching Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 12.3(a).

Section 1.17. “[] Affiliate” means  and any entity in which [] directly or indirectly holds a majority of the voting equity or has the right to appoint a majority of the members of the board of directors, excluding (a) the Company and any directly or indirectly controlled subsidiary of the Company, (b) any entity in which [] directly or indirectly holds any class of stock, which entity is or becomes traded on a public stock exchange, and (c) any other entity in which [] directly or indirectly holds equity that the Company cannot bind (either as a result of Third Party consent rights or contractual restrictions) to any grant of rights, obligation or covenant contained herein that would otherwise apply to such entity. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) in no event will any entity continue to be a [] Affiliate if [] no longer directly or indirectly holds a majority of the voting equity of such entity or has the right to appoint a majority of the members of the board of directors of such entity, as applicable and (ii) in no event will any acquiror or successor of [] (or any Affiliate thereof) be considered a [] Affiliate.

Section 1.18. “[] Affiliate Compound IP” means any Patent Rights or Know-How Controlled by a [] Affiliate that is necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, but excluding any Combination Specific IP.

Section 1.19. “[] Affiliate Compound IP License” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.1(c)(i).

Section 1.20. “Business Day” means any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which the banks in [] are open for business.

Section 1.21. “Calendar Quarter” means each of the three month periods ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of any Calendar Year; provided, however: (a) the first Calendar Quarter of the Term will extend from the Effective Date to the end of the Calendar Quarter in which the Effective Date occurs; and (b) the last Calendar Quarter will extend from the beginning of the Calendar Quarter in which this Agreement expires or terminates until the effective date of such expiration or termination.

Section 1.22. “Calendar Year” means, for the first Calendar Year, the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on December 31, 2020, and for each Calendar Year thereafter each twelve (12)-month period commencing on January 1, and ending on December 31, except that the last Calendar Year will commence on January 1 of the year in which this Agreement expires or terminates and end on the effective date of such expiration or termination.

Section 1.23. “Change of Control” means, with respect to a Party, (a) a merger or consolidation of such Party with a Third Party that results in the voting securities of such Party outstanding immediately prior thereto, or any securities into which such voting securities have been converted or exchanged, ceasing to represent more than fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the surviving entity or the parent of the surviving entity immediately after such merger or consolidation, (b) a transaction or series of related transactions in which a Third Party, together with its Affiliates, becomes the direct or indirect beneficial owner of more than fifty percent (50%) of the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such Party, or (c) the sale or other transfer to a Third Party of all or substantially all of such Party’s and its controlled Affiliates’ assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transaction or series of transactions effected for the primary purpose of financing the operations of the applicable Party (including the issuance or sale of securities for financing purposes) or changing the form or jurisdiction of organization of such Party will not be deemed a “Change of Control” for purposes of this Agreement.

Section 1.24. “Clinical Study” means a study in which human subjects or patients are dosed with a drug, whether approved or investigational.

Section 1.25. “Clinical Supply Agreement” has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1.

Section 1.26. “CMC” means the Chemistry, Manufacturing and Controls portion of any Regulatory Filing.

Section 1.27. “CMC Data” means any data included in the CMC portion of a Regulatory Filing or in any supporting development reports thereto, in each case, with respect to any Licensed Product in any country in the world.

Section 1.28. “Code” means Title 11 of the U.S. Code.

Section 1.29. “Combination” means any Combination Product or Combination Therapy.

Section 1.30. “Combination Product” means a product that (a) includes a Licensed Product and at least one (1) additional Active Ingredient other than a Compound and that is either co-formulated or administered through a single formulation and sold for a single price; or (b) is defined as a “combination product” by the FDA pursuant to 21 C.F.R. §3.2(e) or its foreign equivalent.

Section 1.31. “Combination Specific IP” means any Patent Rights or Know-How Controlled by a [] Affiliate that specifically relates to (a) any compound that is not a SHP2 Inhibitor, or (b) a Combination.

Section 1.32. “Combination Therapy” means any therapy or treatment regimen that comprises, or is a combination of (a) a Licensed Product, and (b) at least one (1) additional Active Ingredient, other than a Compound, where (a) and (b) are approved and labeled for use together either simultaneously or in a separate or sequential administration, whether or not sold for a single price.

Section 1.33. “Commercial Supply Agreement” has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1.

Section 1.34. “Commercialization”, “Commercializing” or “Commercialize” means any and all activities related to the pre-marketing, launching, marketing, promotion (including advertising and detailing), labeling, bidding and listing, pricing and reimbursement, distribution, storage, handling, offering for sale, selling, having sold, importing and exporting for sale, having imported and exported for sale, distribution, having distributed, customer service and support, and post-marketing safety surveillance and reporting of a product (including the Licensed Product), but not including Development activities or Manufacturing.

Section 1.35. “Commercially Reasonable Efforts” means, in respect of a Party, the level of efforts and resources (measured as of the time that such efforts and resources are required to be used under this Agreement) that are commonly used by a [] of a similar size and profile as such Party to Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize, as the case may be, a product owned by such company or to which it has [], which product is at a similar stage in its development or product life and is of a similar market and profitability potential to the Licensed Product and taking into account all relevant factors, including the intellectual property protection of the product, product labeling or anticipated labeling, market potential, financial return, medical and clinical considerations, regulatory environments and competitive market conditions, market exclusivity, and other technical legal, scientific, medical or commercial factors that such a company would reasonably deem to be relevant.

Section 1.36. “Company” has the meaning set forth in the Preamble.

Section 1.37. “Company Indemnified Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 10.1.

Section 1.38. “Company Combination Asset” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.10(a).

Section 1.39. “Company Combination Asset Notice” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.10(a).

Section 1.40. “Company Combination Asset ROFN” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.10(a).

Section 1.41. “Company Combination Asset Transaction” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.10(a).

Section 1.42. “Company Indemnified Party.” has the meaning set forth in Section 10.2.

Section 1.43. “Competitive Product” means any pharmaceutical product that is not a Compound or Licensed Product containing or comprising a SHP2 Inhibitor.

Section 1.44. “Compound” means (a) the Company’s proprietary SHP2 inhibitor commonly referred to as IACS-15509, the chemical structure of which is set forth on Exhibit A, and (b) all other compounds owned or otherwise Controlled by Company or its Affiliates that selectively bind and modulate SHP2, including all backup compounds or derivatives thereof developed by Company or its Affiliates.

Section 1.45. “Confidential Information” means (a) all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information (including any tangible materials embodying any of the foregoing) of the disclosing Party or its Affiliates provided or disclosed to the other Party or any of its Affiliates or [] Affiliates (with respect to Company) or LianBio Affiliates (with respect to Licensee) in connection with this Agreement or disclosed in connection with the Term Sheet, and (b) the terms and conditions of this Agreement, which are the Confidential Information of each Party; provided, however, that Confidential Information will not include information that:

(i) is published by a Third Party or otherwise is or hereafter becomes part of the public domain by public use, publication, general knowledge or the like through no breach of this Agreement on the part of the receiving Party;

(ii) is in the receiving Party’s possession prior to disclosure by the disclosing Party hereunder, and not through a prior disclosure by the disclosing Party, without any obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information (as evidenced by the receiving Party’s or such Affiliate’s or [] Affiliate’s (with respect to Company) or LianBio Affiliate’s (with respect to Licensee) written records or other competent evidence);

(iii) is subsequently received by the receiving Party from a Third Party who is not known by the receiving Party to be under an obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing Party under any agreement between such Third Party and the disclosing Party; or provided, further, that clauses (ii) through (iv) above will not apply to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(iv) is independently developed by or for the receiving Party without reference to, or use or disclosure of, the disclosing Party’s Confidential Information (as evidenced by the receiving Party’s or such Affiliate’s or [] Affiliate’s (with respect to Company) or LianBio Affiliate’s (with respect to Licensee) written records or other competent evidence);

Section 1.46. “Contract Manufacturing Organization” or “CMO” means any Third Party contract manufacturing organization.

Section 1.47. “Control” or “Controlled” means, with respect to any Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right, the legal authority or right (whether by ownership, license (other than a license granted pursuant to this Agreement) or otherwise) of a Party or its Affiliate, to grant access, a license or a sublicense of or under such Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right, without [] breaching the terms of any agreement with a Third Party []. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, a Party will be deemed not to Control any Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, materials, compounds, products, or other property right that are [].

Section 1.48. “Cover,” “Covering” or “Covered” means, when referring to the Licensed Product: (a) with respect to an issued Patent Right, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under an issued claim included in such Patent Right, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of a specified activity with respect to such Licensed Product would infringe such claim, or (b) with respect to an application for Patent Rights, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under a claim included in such application, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of such Licensed Product would infringe such claim if such patent application were to issue as a patent.

ARTICLE II LICENSE GRANTS

Section 2.1. License Grants; Right of Reference.

(a) License Grants. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Company hereby grants to Licensee:

(i) an exclusive (even with respect to Company and its Affiliates, subject to this Section 2.1(a) and Section 2.5, sublicensable (solely as permitted under Section 2.2(a)), non-transferable (except as provided Section 14.1), royalty-bearing license under the Licensed Technology to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; and

(ii) a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as provided Section 14.1), non-sublicensable (except to one or more CMOs []) license under the Licensed Technology to Manufacture Compounds and Licensed Products outside the Territory solely for (A) Development solely for purposes of obtaining Regulatory Approval of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; and (B) Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, with respect to any Licensed Product that is a Combination, the license grant to Licensee under this Section 2.1(a) includes a license to practice the Licensed Technology that relates to (with respect to Know-How) or Covers (with respect to Patent Rights) the Combination, provided that such license does not grant to Licensee any rights with respect to any Additional Compound, or any other Active Ingredient included in such Combination other than the Compound.

(b) Licensee Right of Access and Reference. Company hereby grants Licensee, its Affiliates and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (i) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Company or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (ii) all data generated by or on behalf of Company or its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Products (including all Combinations), including clinical and preclinical data (including any such data generated from any Clinical Study performed by or be on behalf of Company or its Affiliates), Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Company or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, in each case ((i) and (ii)), for the sole purpose of, and to the extent reasonably useful or necessary (in Company's reasonable discretion) for, Developing, seeking and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Licensee and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.1(b). Company will as soon as reasonably practicable provide to Licensee all data generated by or on behalf of its or its Affiliates from any Phase 1b Monotherapy Study, Phase 1b Combination Study, and Global Study that is necessary or reasonably useful to Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees for securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in Field and in the Territory.

(c) License to [] Affiliate Compound IP.

(i) In the event that (A) Company, its Affiliates or any of its or their licensees of any Patent Rights or Know-How that Cover (with respect to Patent Rights) or related to (with respect to Know-How) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of a Compound or Licensed Product outside the Territory obtains a license from any [] Affiliate under any [] Affiliate Compound IP, (B) any [] Affiliate seeks to assert or asserts any [] Affiliate Compound IP against Licensee, its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees in connection with the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products pursuant to this Agreement or (C) in the opinion of Licensee's patent counsel, as evidenced by a written opinion, the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory would infringe or misappropriate (as applicable) any [] Affiliate Compound IP, then, in each case of (A) through (C), to the extent that such [] Affiliate Controls such [] Affiliate Compound IP and has the right to grant to Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees a [] license under such [] Affiliate Compound IP to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (a "[] Affiliate Compound IP License"), then upon written notice by Licensee to Company, Company will grant, or cause to be granted, to Licensee or its Affiliates such [] Affiliate Compound IP License in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Addendum.

(ii) Company will [] grant the [] Affiliate Compound IP License to Licensee directly or indirectly via sublicense, or cause the applicable [] Affiliate to grant such license to Licensee. Any [] Affiliate Compound IP License granted to Licensee or its Affiliates pursuant to this Section 2.1(c) will be granted on no less favorable terms than the terms of any license of such rights that is or may in the future be granted by any [] Affiliate to Company, its Affiliates or any of its or their licensees outside the Territory, including with respect to the responsibility for any payments owed by such [] Affiliate to a Third Party. While Company remains an affiliate of any [] Affiliate, Licensee or its Affiliates, except as otherwise provided in this Section 2.1(c)(ii), will not be required to make any payments to any [] Affiliate (whether directly to such [] Affiliate or indirectly through Company) in consideration for the grant of rights under such [] Affiliate Compound IP License, unless (A) Company or its Affiliates is granted a license under any [] Affiliate Compound IP for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products outside the Territory, and (B) Company or its Affiliates actually makes all payments to such [] Affiliate that are required to be made on account of Company's or its Affiliates' or any Sublicensees' Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products outside the Territory. For clarity, to the extent such [] Affiliate is required to make any payments to a Third Party as a result of Licensee or its Affiliates or any of its or their Sublicensees' exercise of such [] Affiliate Compound IP License, Licensee will reimburse such [] Affiliate for any such payments within [] after receipt of an invoice from Company or such [] Affiliate. Company shall use reasonable efforts to negotiate with the applicable Third Party that any such Third Party payments required to be paid by Licensee in respect of its activities in the Territory are no less favorable than any corresponding payments required to be paid by Company or any of its Affiliates or any [] Affiliate in respect of any of its or their similar activities outside the Territory (as of the Effective Date or anytime thereafter).

(iii) The foregoing obligations and covenants will no longer apply to any [] Affiliate if Company is no longer an affiliate of any [] Affiliate.

Section 2.2. Sublicensing and Subcontracting.

(a) Licensee Right to Sublicense. Licensee will have the right to grant Sublicenses (through multiple tiers) to its Affiliates and to Third Parties, in each case, of any and all rights granted to Licensee by Company pursuant to Section 2.1 [] subject to the requirements of Section 2.2(b).

(b) Sublicense Requirements. Each Sublicense granted by Licensee to a Third Party pursuant to Section 2.2(a) will be in writing and will be consistent with the relevant restrictions and limitations set forth in this Agreement. No Sublicense will diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of either Party under this Agreement. Licensee will be liable for any act or omission of its Sublicensees as if such Sublicensees were Licensee hereunder, and Company will have the right to proceed directly against Licensee without any obligation to first proceed against such Sublicensee. Each Sublicense granted by Licensee or its Affiliates to a Sublicensee will contain the following provisions: (i) a requirement that the Sublicensee comply with the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1 with respect to Company's Confidential Information, (ii) [], and (iii) provisions whereby Licensee obtains (A) ownership of, or a fully sublicensable exclusive license (or an option to obtain such license) under and to, any Know-How and Patent Rights that are developed by the Sublicensee in the performance of such agreement and are reasonably necessary or useful to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, and (B) []. Licensee will provide Company with a copy of any such Sublicense agreement it enters into with a Third Party, within [] after the execution thereof, which copy may be disclosed to Upstream Licensors, provided that (x) such copy may be subject to redaction as Licensee reasonably believes appropriate to protect confidential business information, including financial provisions and other sensitive information as applicable, and (y) Licensee will have no obligation to provide Company with a copy of any Sublicense agreement to Third Party subcontractors. Each such Sublicense agreement will be considered the Confidential Information of Licensee.

(c) Sublicense Survival. Upon the termination of this Agreement, at the written request of any Sublicensee who is not then in breach of its sublicense agreement, Company agrees to enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee under the same terms and conditions of this Agreement (except for Section 6.1(a), effective upon the date that notice of such written request.

Section 2.3. Performance by Independent Contractors. Licensee may contract or delegate any portion of its obligations hereunder to a contractor subject to the terms and condition of Section 14.8.

Section 2.4. Company Right of Access and Reference. Licensee hereby grants Company, its Affiliates, Sublicensees and licensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (i) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Licensee, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (ii) subject to Company's exercise of its Local Combination Study Option in Section 3.3(f), all data generated by Licensee or its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Products, including clinical and preclinical data, Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term; provided that (and without limiting Company's rights to Local Combination Study Data under any Reversion License granted under Section 12.4(c)) unless and until Company exercises its Local Combination Study Option, the Company's right of reference as set forth in this Section 2.4 will not include any rights to the Local Combination Study Data, in each case ((i) and (ii)), for the sole purpose of, and to the extent reasonably useful or necessary for, Developing, seeking and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of the Licensed Products outside the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Company and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates, Sublicensees and licensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.4. Licensee will as soon as reasonably practicable provide to Company all data generated by or on behalf of its or its Affiliates from any Phase 1b Monotherapy Study, Phase 1b Combination Study, and Global Study that is necessary or reasonably useful to Company, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or licensees for securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in Field outside the Territory.

Section 2.5. Reservation of Rights. No rights, other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, are granted to either Party under this Agreement, and no additional rights will be deemed granted to either Party by implication, estoppel or otherwise, with respect to any intellectual property rights. All rights not expressly granted by either Party, or its Affiliates to the other Party under this Agreement are reserved. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Company retains the right (on behalf of itself, its Affiliates and its licensees, other than Licensee, and Sublicensees) under the Licensed Technology, with the right to grant licenses and sublicenses through multiple tiers, solely to (i) Manufacture and have Manufactured the Compounds and Licensed Products anywhere in the world for obtaining Regulatory Approval of Licensed Products in any indications outside the Territory and Commercializing Licensed Products in any indications outside the Territory, and (ii) perform, and have performed, its obligations under any Development Plan. Neither Party nor any of its Affiliates will use or practice any Know-How or Patent Rights licensed or provided to such Party or any of its Affiliates outside the scope of or otherwise not in compliance with the rights and licenses granted to such Party and its Affiliates under this Agreement.

Section 2.6. No Inconsistent Third Party Agreements. During the Term, each Party will not, and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees not to, sell, license or engage in any other transaction or action relating to any (a) intellectual property or (b) any Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, Marketing Authorization and all corresponding documentation, in each case ((a) and (b)), in any way that would contravene, adversely affect or be inconsistent or in conflict with the rights of the other Party or the obligations of the other Party under this Agreement, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Section 2.7. Transfer of Licensed Know-How. [] after the Effective Date, Company will disclose and make available to Licensee the Licensed Know-How that exists as of the Effective Date that is necessary or useful for Licensee's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Compound or Licensed Product in accordance with this Agreement. Company may make such Licensed Know-How available in such reasonable form as Company determines, including, if Company so elects, in the form such Licensed Know-How is maintained by Company. In addition, Company will provide updates throughout the Term to Licensee of any Know-How that Company or its Affiliates comes to Control that constitutes Licensed Know-How (such updates to be made reasonably promptly after any Calendar Quarter in which such Know-How comes into Control of Company or its Affiliates), and Company will (a) promptly after Licensee's request, make available to Licensee all such Know-How in Company's Control and not previously provided to Licensee hereunder and that is necessary or useful for Licensee's Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of any Licensed Product in accordance with this Agreement, and (b) [] after the initial Licensed Know-How transfer, provide Licensee with reasonable access to Company personnel involved in the Development or Manufacture of such Compound and Licensed Product, either in-person at Company's facility or by teleconference; provided that []. Licensee may only use the Licensed Know-How to perform its obligations or exercise its rights under this Agreement and in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 2.8. Compliance with Upstream Licenses. All licenses and other rights granted to Licensee under this ARTICLE II are subject to the rights and obligations of Company under the Upstream Licenses. Licensee, its Affiliates and their respective Sublicensees will comply with all applicable provisions of the Upstream Licenses, and will perform and take such actions as may be reasonably required to allow Company to comply with its obligations thereunder, including obligations relating to sublicensing, patent matters, confidentiality, reporting, audit rights, indemnification and diligence, in each case, to the extent that Company is provided a copy of such Upstream Licenses.

Section 2.9. Exclusivity.

(a) Licensee Exclusivity. During the Term and subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither Licensee nor any of its Affiliates or LianBio Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory, nor collaborate with, enable or otherwise authorize, license or grant any right to any Third Party to Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any LianBio Affiliate, this Section 2.9(a) will not restrict any LianBio Affiliate, directly or indirectly, by itself or for or with any Third Party, from Developing, Manufacturing, or Commercializing any compound or product that is not a SHP2 Inhibitor as a Combination with any SHP2 Inhibitor owned or controlled by a Third Party.

(b) Company Exclusivity. During the Term of this Agreement and subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither Company will, nor any of its Affiliates or [] Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory nor collaborate with, enable or otherwise authorize, license or grant any right to any Third Party to Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any [] Affiliate, this Section 2.9(b) will not restrict any [] Affiliate, directly or indirectly, by itself or for or with any Third Party, from Developing, Manufacturing, or Commercializing any compound or product that is not a SHP2 Inhibitor as a Combination with any SHP2 Inhibitor owned or controlled by a Third Party.

(c) []. Neither Company, Licensee, nor any [] Affiliate or LianBio Affiliate will be in breach of the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.9 if such Person []; as long as (i) no Licensed Technology or Licensee Technology is used by or on behalf of such [] Party or its Affiliates in more than a de minimis fashion in connection with any subsequent Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of such Competitive Products, and (ii) such [] Party institutes commercially reasonable technical and administrative safeguards to ensure the requirements set forth in the foregoing clause (i) are met, including by creating "firewalls" between the personnel working on such Competitive Products and the personnel teams charged with working on any Compound or Licensed Product or having access to data from activities performed under this Agreement or Confidential Information of the Parties.

(d) []. Neither Company nor Licensee will in breach of the restrictions set forth in this Section 2.9 if such Party or any of its Affiliates [], so long as such Party (or its Affiliate) enters into a definitive agreement with a Third Party to divest such Competitive Product within twelve (12) months after [] or terminate the further Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of such Competitive Product within [] after [] as long as, until the completion of [], (i) no Licensed Technology or Licensee Technology is used by or on behalf of such Party or its Affiliates in more than a de minimis fashion in connection with any subsequent Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of such Competitive Products, and (ii) such Party institutes commercially reasonable technical and administrative safeguards to ensure the requirements set forth in the foregoing clause (i) are met, including by creating “firewalls” between the personnel working on such Competitive Products and the personnel teams charged with working on any Compound or Licensed Product or having access to data from activities performed under this Agreement or Confidential Information of the Parties.

Section 2.10. Licensee Rights to Company Combination Assets.

(a) Right of First Negotiation. If, during the Term, Company or its Affiliates obtains Control of any compound or product that Licensee or its Affiliates (or its or their respective Sublicensees) reasonably believes is necessary or useful to Develop, Manufacture or Commercialize in a Combination (a “Company Combination Asset”), then Licensee will notify Company of same, and Company will provide to Licensee a description of such Company Combination Asset together any other materials terms or information in Company’s possession regarding such Company Combination Asset that would be reasonably useful for Licensee to determine its interest therein (the “Company Combination Asset Notice”). Upon Licensee’s written request, Company shall promptly, and in any case within [] of receipt of such request, provide any additional information in Company’s possession with respect to the Company Combination Asset reasonably requested by Licensee that is reasonably necessary to assist Licensee in making a decision as to whether it desires to exercise its rights under this Section 2.10. Licensee will have the first right to exclusively negotiate an exclusive license to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize such Company Combination Asset in combination with the Compound and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, subject to the terms of this Section 2.10 (the “Company Combination Asset Transaction,” and such right, the “Company Combination Asset ROFN”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, “Company Combination Asset” excludes any compound or product that is Controlled by an Acquirer of Company or its Affiliates at any time during the Term.

(b) ROFN Exercise Period and Notice. Licensee will have the right, but not the obligation, for a period of [] after receipt by Licensee of a Company Combination Asset Notice (the “ROFN Exercise Period”) to provide to Company with written notice that Licensee, or an Affiliate of Licensee, would like to enter into negotiations regarding the Company Combination Asset Transaction (a “ROFN Exercise Notice”).

(c) ROFN Negotiation Period. Upon Company’s timely receipt of the ROFN Exercise Notice, Licensee and Company will have a period of [], unless such negotiations are earlier terminated by Licensee, to negotiate, on an exclusive basis and in good faith, the terms and conditions of such Company Combination Asset Transaction, and to enter into such a Company Combination Asset Transaction (“ROFN Negotiation Period”).

(d) ROFN Expiration. If (i) Licensee notifies Company prior to the expiration of the ROFN Exercise Period that Licensee elects not to exercise its ROFN, (ii) Licensee does not provide Company with a ROFN Exercise Notice prior to the expiration of the ROFN Exercise Period or (iii) Licensee provides Company with a ROFN Exercise Notice prior to the expiration of the ROFN Exercise Period but the Parties fail to reach a definitive agreement on the terms of the Company Combination Asset Transaction during the ROFN Negotiation Period, the ROFN will expire on the applicable expiration date (“ROFN Expiration”, with respect to (i), on the date on which Licensee notifies Company of its intent not to exercise the ROFN; with respect to (ii), on the expiration date of the ROFN Exercise Period; and with respect to (iii), on the expiration date of the ROFN Negotiation Period), and Company shall be free to pursue a Transaction with any Third Party with respect to such Company Combination Asset, provided that the terms of such Transaction will not be, taken as a whole, more favorable to such Third Party than the last written offer proposed by Licensee during the ROFN Negotiation Period. No less than [] prior to entering into a definitive agreement for any such Transaction with the Third Party, Company shall provide a written notice to the Licensee describing such Transaction in reasonable detail, including (A) the identity of the Third Party, and (B) a description of the financial and other material terms proposed by the Third Party. Licensee may, at its sole discretion, pursue a Company Combination Asset Transaction with respect to such Company Combination Asset in competition with the Third Party, and, in such event, Company shall negotiate with Licensee in good faith unless and until Company or its Affiliates have entered into definitive agreements with such Third Party.

(e) ROFN Renewal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Parties agree that the ROFN shall automatically renew if Company does not enter into a definitive agreement for the Transaction with a Third Party as described in Section 2.10(d) above within [] after the then most-recent ROFN Expiration; provided, however, that in no event shall the ROFN extend beyond the Term.

(f) Right of First Refusal. Company hereby grants to Licensee a right of first refusal during the Term (“ROFR”) with respect to any proposed Company Combination Asset Transaction as set forth in this Section 2.10(f). If, at any time during the Term, Company receives a bona fide offer from a Third Party for, or desires itself to enter into, a Transaction (each, a “ROFR Offer”), Company will not enter into any Transaction with such Third Party without first promptly giving Licensee written notice of such ROFR Offer detailing the terms of such ROFR Offer, including (i) the identity of the Third Party offeror, (ii) a description of the financial and other material terms proposed by the Third Party offeror, including a description of the Company Combination Asset(s) subject to such ROFR Offer, and (iii) such other material terms and information regarding the ROFR Offer or Company Combination Asset(s) generated by, or on behalf of, Company and in its possession that would be reasonably useful for Licensee to determine its interest in entering into a Company Combination Asset Transaction with respect to such Company Combination Asset(s) (the “ROFR Notice”), and offer Licensee the right to step in and consummate a Company Combination Asset Transaction on substantially the same terms as the Transaction as set forth in the ROFR Offer. Upon Licensee’s written request, Company shall promptly, and in any case within [] after receipt of such request, provide any additional information with respect to the ROFR Offer or applicable Company Combination Asset(s) reasonably requested by Licensee that would assist Licensee in making a decision as to whether it desires to exercise its rights under this Section 2.10(f). Within [] from the receipt of the ROFR Notice (“ROFR Exercise Period”), the Licensee may exercise its ROFR by providing Company with a written notice of its intent with respect thereto (the “ROFR Exercise Notice”). Upon Licensee’s receipt of such ROFR Exercise Notice, Company shall, or shall cause its Affiliate to negotiate in good faith with the Licensee or its Affiliate(s) for a period no more than [] from the date of the ROFR Exercise Notice, unless such negotiations are earlier terminated by Licensee (the “ROFR Negotiation Period”), the terms of a definitive agreement for such Company Combination Asset Transaction, and the Parties shall enter into the definitive agreement based on substantially the same terms as the ROFR Offer.

(g) ROFR Expiration. If (i) Licensee notifies Company prior to the expiration of the ROFR Exercise Period that Licensee elects not to exercise its ROFR, (ii) Licensee does not provide Company with a ROFR Exercise Notice within the ROFR Exercise Period or (iii) Licensee provides Company with a ROFR Exercise Notice within the ROFR Exercise Period but the Parties fail to reach a definitive agreement on the terms of the Company Combination Asset Transaction during the ROFR Negotiation Period, then the ROFR will expire on the applicable expiration date (“ROFR Expiration”, with respect to (i), on the date on which Licensee notifies Company of its intention not to exercise the ROFR; with respect to (ii), the expiration of the ROFR Exercise Period; and with respect to (iii), on the expiration date of the ROFR Negotiation Period), Company shall be free to pursue a Transaction for the Company Combination Asset with any Third Party, provided, that the terms of such Transaction with the Third Party shall not be, taken as a whole, more favorable to such Third Party than any offer from Licensee.

(h) ROFR Renewal. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Parties agree that the ROFR shall automatically renew if Company does not enter into a definitive agreement for the Company Combination Asset with a Third Party as described in Section 2.10(g) above within [] after the then most-recent ROFR Expiration; provided, however, that in no event shall the ROFR shall extend beyond the Term.

(i) No Definitive Obligation. The Parties agree that no contract, agreement or commitment with respect to a Company Combination Asset Transaction or any other transaction shall exist or be deemed to exist by virtue of this Section 2.10, or any other written or oral expression with respect to a Company Combination Asset Transaction or otherwise unless and until a definitive agreement related thereto has been duly executed and delivered. The Parties also agree that, unless and until such a definitive agreement has been duly executed and delivered, none of the Parties or its Affiliates or its or their respective representatives shall have any liability or obligation with respect to a Company Combination Asset Transaction or any other transaction, whether by virtue of this Section 2.10, any other written or oral expression with respect to a Company Combination Asset Transaction or otherwise, except for the obligations of the Parties expressly set forth in this Section 2.10. For purposes of this Section 2.10, the term “definitive agreement” shall not include any written or oral acceptance of any offer or bid, any term sheet or any letter of intent or other written expression of either Party’s intention to negotiate or enter into a definitive agreement.

ARTICLE III DEVELOPMENT

Section 3.1. Development Responsibilities in General.

(a) Development Diligence. Licensee (directly, or through its respective Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and Commercialize the Compounds and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Without limiting the foregoing, Licensee and Company (directly, or through its respective Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to carry out any Development activities in the Field in the Territory assigned to such Party in accordance with the Development Plans.

(b) Development Responsibilities. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this ARTICLE III and Section 5.5, Licensee will have sole authority to, at its own expense, Develop the Licensed Product for the purpose of obtaining Regulatory Approval in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation of any Development activities for which it (or any of its Affiliates) is assigned responsibility under this Agreement (including the Development Plans) and will keep Company reasonably informed as to the progress of such activities.

Section 3.2. Development Plans.

(a) Territory-Specific Development Plan. Except for the activities allocated to Licensee under a Global Development Plan, all Development of Licensed Products in the Field for use in the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written a development and regulatory plan (the “Territory-Specific Development Plan”), an initial draft of which is attached hereto as Exhibit E. The Territory-Specific Development Plan will contain in reasonable detail []. Licensee will update the Territory-Specific Development Plan not less than [], and either Party may propose modifications to the Territory-Specific Development Plan at any time, subject in each case to approval by the JSC pursuant to Section 5.2, and the decision-making and escalation procedures set forth in Section 5.5. Once approved by the JSC, each update to the Territory-Specific Development Plan will become effective and supersede the then-current Territory-Specific Development Plan. In the event of any proposed change to the Development Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, the JSC will meet as promptly as practicable to review and discuss any such proposed changes and determine an appropriate revision (if any) to the Territory-Specific Development Plan. If Licensee is delayed in performing (or fails to perform) an obligation assigned to Licensee in the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of Company's failure to timely perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or the Development Plan, then the deadlines for the performance of Licensee's obligations under the Territory-Specific Development Plan will be extended commensurate with the delay caused by Company.

(b) Global Development Plan. Company's global Development of the Compound and Licensed Products inside and outside of the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written global development plan (the "Global Development Plan"). Prior to[], Company will provide to the JSC for its review and discussion the initial Global Development Plan. The Global Development Plan will include []. From time to time, Company may make and implement updates to the then-current Global Development Plan for the Licensed Products. To the extent such amendments (A) are material, or (B) include activities conducted in the Territory, Company will submit such proposed updates to the JSC for review and discussion before adopting such updates.

Section 3.3. Clinical Study Participation Rights.

(a) Licensee's Phase 1b Monotherapy Option. In the event Company decides to conduct a Phase 1b Clinical Study of a Licensed Product administered as a monotherapy outside the Territory that is primarily intended to support the Development and Regulatory Approval of such Licensed Product outside the Territory (a "Phase 1b Monotherapy Study"), Licensee will have the right to request to participate in such Phase 1b Monotherapy Study by including Clinical Study sites in the Territory (with Licensee having the right to determine after considering in good faith Company's suggestions for the Regions where such sites will be located, provided that such sites proposed by Licensee for the Regions do not materially adversely affect the overall study subject population of the Phase 1b Monotherapy Study). In the event that Licensee participates in such Phase 1b Monotherapy Study, subject to this Section 3.3(a) and Section 3.3(d), such activities to be conducted by Licensee in the Territory will be included in the Global Development Plan and the number of study subjects in the Territory that Licensee contributes to the overall enrollment of such Phase 1b Monotherapy Study shall be mutually agreed by the Parties and will reduce Licensee's patient commitment with respect to any Phase 1b Combination Study by the actual number of study subjects that Licensee contributes to such Phase 1b Monotherapy Study.

(b) Licensee's Phase 1b Combination Study Option. In the event Company decides to conduct a Phase 1b Clinical Study of a Licensed Product as a Combination outside the Territory that is primarily intended to support the Development and Regulatory Approval of such Licensed Product outside the Territory (each, a "Phase 1b Combination Study"), Licensee will have the right to request to participate and include Clinical Study sites in the Territory in such Phase 1b Combination Study, subject to Licensee obtaining all necessary Third Party licenses to such other Active Ingredient included in such Combination (e.g., to [], [], or []) in the Territory and Licensee's agreement to the study design and study protocol for such Phase 1b Combination Study. In the event that Licensee participates in such Phase 1b Combination Study, subject to this Section 3.3(b) and Section 3.3(d), such activities to be conducted by Licensee in the Territory will be included in the Global Development Plan, and Licensee will support Company on such global Development for such Phase 1b Combination Study by (i) including Clinical Study sites in the Territory (with Licensee having the right to determine after considering in good faith Company's suggestions the Regions in the Territory where the Clinical Study sites will be located, provided that []), (ii) being responsible for [] and (iii) committing to enroll study subjects in the Territory as follows, unless otherwise mutually agreed:

- (A) For any Phase 1b Combination Study with respect to a Licensed Product in combination with [], [] or [] (“[]”): [] of the total number of study subjects for such Phase 1b Combination Study for each of [], [] and [], such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee’s Local Combination Study; and
- (B) For any Phase 1b Combination Study other than the Phase 1b Combination Studies referred to in sub-clause (A) above (i.e., for other Combination Therapies): [] of the total number of study subjects for such Phase 1b Combination Study, such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee’s Local Combination Study.

(c) Licensee’s Global Study Option. In the event Company decides to conduct a Phase 2 Study or Phase 3 Study that is intended to be sufficient for filing an application for Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field outside the Territory (each, a “Global Study”), Licensee will have the right to participate in such Global Study and include Clinical Study sites in the Territory, subject to Licensee obtaining the necessary Third Party licenses (e.g., to [], [], and [], as applicable) and Licensee’s agreement to the study design and study protocol for such Global Study. In the event that Licensee participates in such Global Study, subject to this Section 3.3(c) and Section 3.3(d), such activities will be included in the Global Development Plan, and Licensee will support Company on such global development for such Global Study by (i) including Clinical Study sites in the Territory (with Licensee having the right to determine after considering in good faith Company’s suggestions the Regions in the Territory where the Clinical Study sites will be located), (ii) being responsible for [], and (iii) committing to enroll study subjects in the Territory as follows, unless otherwise mutually agreed:

- (A) For a Global Study that is a Phase 2 Study of a Licensed Product as a Combination Therapy (a “Phase 2 Combination Global Study”) with [] for the treatment of []: [] of the total study subjects enrolled in such Phase 2 Combination Global Study, such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee’s Local Combination Study;
- (B) For a Phase 2 Combination Global Study with [] for the treatment of []: [] the total study subjects enrolled in such Phase 2 Combination Global Study, such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee’s Local Combination Study;
- (C) For a Phase 2 Combination Global Study with [] for the treatment of []: up to [] the total study subjects enrolled in such Phase 2 Combination Global Study, such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee’s Local Combination Study;

- (D) For a Global Study that is a Phase 3 Study of a Licensed Product as a Combination Therapy with [], [], or [] for the treatment of []: [] of the total study subjects enrolled with respect to each of [], [], and [], such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that the number of study subjects Licensee contributes will in no event be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee's Local Combination Study; and
- (E) For any Global Study other than the Global Studies referred to in sub-clauses (A) – (D) above (i.e., for other indications or for other Combination Therapies): [] of the total study subjects enrolled in a Global Study that is a Phase 2 Study, and up to [] of the total study subjects enrolled in a Global Study that is a Phase 3 Study, such exact number of study subjects to be mutually agreed, provided that such number will not be less than the minimum required by the applicable Regulatory Authority for Licensee's Local Combination Study.

(d) Ex-Territory Partnership. In each case of a Phase 1b Monotherapy Study, Phase 1b Combination Study or any Global Study, upon Licensee's request to participate in such study, Company and Licensee will meet and discuss in good faith Licensee's participation and following such discussion, Licensee will be permitted to participate in such study; provided that, if at any time prior to the initiation of such study, Company (i) [], or (ii) enters into a license, collaboration or other similar arrangement with a Third Party (an "Ex-Territory Partner") for the Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of the Compound and Licensed Product in any of (A) [], (B) [] or (C) [], then, in each case of (i) or (ii), Licensee's right to participate in such study will be subject to []; provided, however, [].

(e) Study Design and Protocol. Company will determine the study design and study protocol for any Phase 1b Combination Study and Global Study, provided that, to the extent that Licensee participates in any such Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study, the Parties will agree on such study design and study protocol; provided further, that Licensee will have the right to determine which patient types to enroll in the Territory for such Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study in which Licensee participates. In the event Licensee and Company mutually agree that for any Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study, Licensee's participation in any such Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study will exceed the maximum percentage of total study subjects for such Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study as set forth in this Section 3.3 (the "Study Subject Cap"), Company will reimburse Licensee for [], in each case, [] in excess of the Study Subject Cap for such Phase 1b Combination Study or Global Study in the Territory.

(f) Company's Local Combination Study Option.

(i) In the event Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees intends to conduct Clinical Studies that are primarily intended to support the Development or Regulatory Approval of the Compound and Licensed Products as a Combination in the Territory (each, a "Local Combination Study"), Licensee will notify Company reasonably in advance of (and in no event less than [] prior to) the initiation of such Local Combination Study and provide Company with the study design, study protocol, study budget, and anticipated study initiation date (such notice, a "Local Combination Study Notice"). Upon Company's receipt of such Local Combination Study Notice, Company will have the option (the "Local Combination Study Option") to, exercisable prior to the anticipated study initiation date, obtain a sublicensable (through multiple tiers) license and right of reference to Local Combination Study data and Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals containing such Local Combination Study data (the “Local Combination Study Data”) for use in Developing, Manufacturing or Commercializing the Compound and Licensed Products in the Field outside the Territory by agreeing to be responsible for [] for such Local Combination Study, which costs Company will pay to Licensee quarterly in arrears within [] of receipt of invoice therefor by Company.

(ii) If Company did not elect or elected not to participate in a Local Combination Study prior to initiation of such Local Combination Study, but Company later desires to obtain such license and right of reference to the Local Combination Study Data, then Company will have the option to obtain such license and right of reference to such Local Combination Study Data subject to Company (A) reimbursing Licensee for [] for such Local Combination Study [] and (B) paying Licensee a royalty equal to [] of the Net Sales of any Combination for which Company, its Affiliates, licensees or Sublicensees receives Regulatory Approval outside the Territory relying on such Local Combination Study Data in accordance with Section 6.2(b), Section 6.2(c) and Section 6.4 through Section 6.8, mutatis mutandis. Licensee will provide to Company a summary of the results of such Local Combination Study Data reasonably requested by Company solely to help Company determine whether or not it wants to pay for such license and right of reference to such Local Combination Study Data.

(g) Clinical Trial Audit Rights.

(i) Upon reasonable notification by Company and at Company’s cost and expense, and based on an audit scope agreed upon by the Parties, Company or its representatives may conduct an audit of Licensee, its Affiliates, or, to the extent permitted under the Licensee’s applicable agreements, Licensee’s Sublicensees, subcontractors and all Clinical Study sites engaged by Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees to perform Licensee’s obligations under any Global Development Plan to ensure that the applicable global Clinical Studies are conducted in compliance with the Global Development Plan, GCP, and applicable Law and meet Company’s global Clinical Study standards provided by Company from time to time during the Term. []. No later than [] after preparing or receiving the audit report, Company will provide Licensee with a written summary of Company’s findings of any deficiencies or other areas of remediation that Company identifies during any such audit. Licensee will use reasonable efforts to remediate any deficiencies identified in an audit report (whether the audit is conducted by Company or Licensee) within [] (or a reasonably longer, mutually agreed period (not to exceed []) depending upon the deficiencies) following Licensee’s receipt of such report, at Licensee’s cost and expense. Without limiting the foregoing, Licensee will have the right to be present at any such audit conducted by Company pursuant to this Section 3.3(g) of any Sublicensees, subcontractors, or Clinical Study sites.

(ii) With respect to any global Clinical Study, if either Party reasonably determines that any deficiencies with respect to a Clinical Study site identified pursuant to Section 3.3(g) (each, a “Deficient Site”) may cause a Regulatory Authority to reject or otherwise deem deficient the Clinical Study data from the conduct of any such global Clinical Study at such Deficient Site, or if the any such deficiencies are not remediated within the time period for remediation specified in Section 3.3(g)(i), then such Party will notify the other Party of such Deficient Site and the Parties will discuss, attempt to agree upon, and implement a remediation plan for such Deficient Site. If the Parties do not agree to such a remediation plan for a Deficient Site that is participating in a global Clinical Study, then [].

(iii) Licensee will provide Company with copies of all quality oversight or audit reports prepared in connection with any audit that Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees conduct of any Sublicensee, subcontractor or Clinical Study site that Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees have engaged or are evaluating to potentially engage to fulfill Licensee’s obligations under a Global Development Plan no later than [] after receiving or preparing any such report (as applicable). If Company believes in good faith that any such quality oversight or audit report may be necessary in connection with obtaining, supporting or maintaining one or more Regulatory Approvals for a Licensed Product or for other communications with Regulatory Authorities outside of the Territory, then upon Company’s request, Licensee will provide a certified translation thereof [].

Section 3.4. Development Records and Reporting.

(a) Records. Licensee will maintain complete and accurate records of all work conducted by Licensee in furtherance of seeking Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Such records will be maintained in sufficient detail and in good scientific manner appropriate for patent and regulatory purposes and in accordance with applicable Laws.

(b) Reporting. Licensee will provide to Company a written report at least [], in English, describing in reasonable detail Licensee's activities and progress related to the pursuit of Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will respond to Company's reasonable questions or requests for additional information relating to such activities in a timely manner.

Section 3.5. Development Costs. Except as set forth in Section 3.3 and this Section 3.5, [] []. Promptly after [], the Parties will conduct an accounting and reconciliation of all expenses incurred by both Parties in relation to such Development activities and each Party will only be obligated to reimburse the other Party for any costs or expenses it incurs in connection with CMC activities solely to the extent within [] of the amounts for the performance of such activities set forth in the Territory-Specific Development Plan and the budget provided by Company with respect to such CMC activities. The Parties will make a balancing payment to reflect the foregoing cost-sharing principles no later than [] following receipt of invoice from the applicable Party.

Section 3.6. Regulatory Submissions and Approvals; Communications; Meetings.

(a) Regulatory Filings and Approvals. Licensee, or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees, will have the sole and exclusive right to file and hold all Regulatory Filings, and to apply for and maintain all Regulatory Approvals and Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, in each case for all Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory at Licensee's cost and expense in the name of Licensee or any of its Affiliates and Sublicensees; provided that (i) the Parties will use good faith efforts to cooperate to effectuate this Section 3.6(a), and (ii) in the event that after the Parties' use of good faith efforts, Licensee, its Affiliate, or Sublicensee is unable to become the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory in order to exercise its rights and perform its obligations under this Agreement, (A) Company will be the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (B) Company hereby designates Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees as Company's regulatory agent and exclusive general distributor for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and (C) to the extent later permitted by applicable Laws, Company will promptly cooperate with Licensee and its Affiliates and Sublicensees, including transferring and assigning all Regulatory Approvals and Regulatory Filings to Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, to allow Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees to be the legal and beneficial owner of all Regulatory Approvals for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee will be responsible, at its sole cost and expense, for all regulatory activities leading up to and including the obtaining of Regulatory Approvals and any pricing or reimbursement approvals, as applicable, for Licensed Products in the Field from Regulatory Authorities or Governmental Authorities in the Territory, provided that, Licensee will conduct such activities (and any and all regulatory activities delegated to Licensee in this Agreement) (1) in its own name, if Licensee is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or (2) as the express and authorized regulatory agent of record for Company in the Field in the Territory, if Company is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, under which situation such actions will be taken on behalf of Company and for the benefit of Licensee in the Field in the Territory.

(b) Regulatory Communications. Subject to applicable Laws and this Section 3.5, Licensee will oversee, monitor and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Licensee will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities in the Field in the Territory, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings for Licensed Products, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Licensee will promptly notify Company of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory that are received by Licensee from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by Licensee to any Regulatory Authority.

(c) Regulatory Meetings. Until such time as Licensee obtains Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, to the extent legally permissible and practicable, Licensee will provide Company with reasonable prior written notice of all material meetings with Regulatory Authorities (including advisory committee meetings and any other meeting of experts convened by a Regulatory Authority) regarding the Licensed Product if permitted by applicable Laws or the Regulatory Authority. Company will have the right to request to be present at (but not to participate in, unless requested by Licensee or the Regulatory Authority) all such meetings with Regulatory Authorities to the extent permitted under applicable Laws, at Company's sole cost and expense, and Licensee will consider any such request in good faith.

(d) Termination or Suspension of Clinical Studies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, the Parties hereby agree that Licensee may terminate or suspend any Clinical Study relating to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and Company may terminate or suspend any Global Study, without the approval or consent of the JSC or the other Party, if (i) a Regulatory Authority, institutional review board or safety data review board for such Clinical Study has required or recommended such termination or suspension or (ii) following review and discussion with the JSC, the Party seeking such termination believes in good faith that such termination or suspension is warranted because of observed safety risks to the study subjects. In either case, such Party will promptly notify Company in writing of such termination or suspension.

(e) Regulatory Investigation or Inquiry. If any Regulatory Authority (i) contacts Licensee or its Affiliate with respect to the alleged improper Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of any Licensed Product, (ii) conducts, or gives notice of its intent to conduct, an inspection at Licensee's or its Affiliate's facilities used in the Development of the Licensed Product, or (iii) takes, or gives notice of its intent to take, any other regulatory action with respect to any activity of Licensee or its Affiliate that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect any Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Product outside of the Territory, then Licensee will promptly notify Company in writing of such contact, inspection or notice.

Section 3.7. Delivery of Documentation. From time-to-time during the Term, upon a Party's reasonable request, the other Party will promptly provide requesting Party with copies of all data and information (including communications with Regulatory Authorities, existing Regulatory Filings, and clinical and pre-clinical data and supporting documentation, in each case, in the form such data and information is maintained) relating to Licensed Products that are (i) Controlled by and in the possession of the other Party, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees and (ii) necessary or reasonably useful to support the requesting Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of, or Regulatory Approval or Marketing Authorization for, Licensed Products, in the case that Licensee is the requesting Party, in Field and the Territory, and in the case that Company is the requesting Party, outside the Territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else herein, Company may only use the Local Combination Study Data if Company has exercised its Local Combination Study Option.

Section 3.8. Development of the Licensed Products outside the Territory. Company retains the exclusive right and will be solely responsible and have sole discretion and control over the Development activities (including regulatory activities) of the Licensed Products anywhere in the world, other than in Territory. Company will, in its sole discretion, oversee, monitor and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to such Licensed Products outside of the Territory. Company will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings with respect to such Licensed Products outside of the Territory.

Section 3.9. No Harmful Actions. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Product in such Party's territory that are (a) received by such Party, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or other licensees (to the extent that such Party has the right to disclose such material communications or correspondence of other licensees and provided that such Party uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such right from such other licensees) from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by such Party, its Affiliates or other licensees to any Regulatory Authority and (b) would reasonably be expected to impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the other Party's territory. In the event either Party or its Affiliates' or Sublicensees or other licensees' Development activities (including regulatory activities) of the Licensed Product such Party's territory would reasonable be expected to materially adversely impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the other Party's territory, to the extent such Party has knowledge of such Development activities, such Party will give the other Party reasonable advance notice of any such activities prior to undertaking such activities.

Section 3.10. Pharmacovigilance. Within [] after the Effective Date, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and finalize the actions that the Parties will employ with respect to the Licensed Product to protect patients and promote their well-being in a written pharmacovigilance agreement (the "Pharmacovigilance Agreement"). These responsibilities will include mutually acceptable guidelines and procedures for the receipt, investigation, recordation, communication, and exchange (as between the Parties) of Adverse Event reports and any other information concerning the safety of any Licensed Product, including recall and withdrawal responsibilities, processes and procedures. Such guidelines and procedures will be in accordance with, and enable the Parties to fulfill, local and national regulatory reporting obligations under applicable Laws. Furthermore, such agreed procedure will be consistent with relevant ICH guidelines, except where said guidelines may conflict with existing local regulatory reporting safety reporting requirements, in which case local reporting requirement will prevail. Licensee will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events and safety data related to the Licensed Product in the Field to applicable Regulatory Authorities in the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Company will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events and safety data related to Licensed Product to applicable Regulatory Authorities outside the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Product outside the Territory. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement will also provide for a worldwide safety database to be maintained by Company at its sole cost and expense, which worldwide safety database will be accessible by Licensee and its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors to the full extent necessary for Licensee to exercise its rights under this Agreement, comply with its obligations under this Agreement and comply with all applicable Laws. Each Party hereby agrees to comply with its respective obligations under such Pharmacovigilance Agreement and to cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to comply with such obligations.

ARTICLE IV MANUFACTURE, SUPPLY AND COMMERCIALIZATION

Section 4.1. Supply Agreement. Within [] following the JSC's adoption of the Development Plan, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and enter into a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of clinical quantities of Licensed Products by Company to Licensee for use solely in connection with Clinical Studies of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the “Clinical Supply Agreement”) and, within [] prior to the date Licensee anticipates its First Commercial Sale in the Territory, a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of commercial quantities of Licensed Products by Company to Licensee for the commercial sale and distribution of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the “Commercial Supply Agreement” and, together with the Clinical Supply Agreement, the “Supply Agreements”). Unless otherwise agreed or required by applicable Laws, the Supply Agreements will specify that (a) Company will (or will cause its Affiliates to) Manufacture and supply, and Licensee will exclusively purchase from Company, all of Licensee’s, its Affiliates’ and Sublicensees’ needs for the Licensed Products for the Development or Commercialization (as applicable) in the Field in the Territory in their finished form and at a price equal to (a) under the Clinical Supply Agreement, [] of the Company’s Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost and (b) under the Commercial Supply Agreement, [] of the Company’s Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost. The Supply Agreements will include (i) an obligation for the Company to supply Licensed Products that (A) are compliant with all requirements of the applicable Regulatory Authority(ies) and applicable Laws and (B), for a given vial, will come from the drug substance Manufactured by or on behalf of Company; and (ii) other mutually acceptable, customary supply terms consistent with supply agreements between collaboration partners, including []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Supply Agreement will further specify that if Company or its Affiliate engages a CMO for the Manufacture and supply of the Licensed Products and the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost for such CMO to Manufacture and supply the Licensed Products is lower than the price charged by Company to Manufacture and supply Licensed Products under the Supply Agreement, or Company or its Affiliate is not then Manufacturing Licensed Products in clinical or commercial quantities (as applicable), then (x) Company will inform Company of such CMO, and (y), at Company’s election, Company will either (i) reduce the price to Manufacture and supply Licensed Products under the Supply Agreement to match such CMO’s Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost, or (ii) use [] to provide, or cause such CMO to provide, an opportunity to engage such CMO for the Manufacture and supply of Licensed Products to Licensee on substantially the same terms as those provided or proposed to be provided to Company or its Affiliates (in which case the exclusivity obligations described in the foregoing clause (a) will not apply with respect to such CMO); provided, if Licensee fails to secure such Manufacture and supply from such CMO, then Company will use [] to purchase the applicable Manufacturing services from such CMO and will supply such Licensed Products to Licensee on substantially the same terms as those provided by such CMO to Company or its Affiliate, as applicable.

Section 4.2. Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Licensee nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then, the Parties will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to discuss in good faith alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of the Parties as agreed under this Agreement.

Section 4.3. Audit by Licensee. Company will keep any and all records, materials and documents relating to the Manufacture of the Compound and Licensed Products during the Term and [] thereafter. During the Term, Licensee will have the right [] to have an independent, certified public accountant, selected by Licensee and reasonably acceptable to Company to inspect such records, materials and documents for the purpose of determining the accuracy of the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost due within the prior [] period. Such audit may not be conducted more than [] and will take place at the location(s) where such records, materials, documents are maintained by Company upon reasonable prior written notice, during regular business hours and under obligations of confidentiality. If it is determined that any amounts were overpaid or underpaid during such period, Company will pay Licensee such overpaid amounts, or Licensee will pay Company the overpaid amounts within [] of the date the independent certified public accountant’s written report is received by the paying Party. The fees charged by such independent certified public accountant will be paid by Licensee, unless it is determined that any overpaid amounts exceed [] of the total amount payable by Licensee to Company for the period then being audited, in which case Company will be responsible for the fees charged by such independent certified public accountant.

Section 4.4. Manufacture Technology Transfer Option. At any time after the Effective Date, upon Licensee's written notice to Company, (a) the license granted to Licensee by Company under Section 2.1(a) will include the right for Licensee to Manufacture the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, solely for use and sale by Licensee, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (b) the Parties will discuss in good faith modifications to this Agreement to cover Licensee's Manufacturing of the Compound and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, (c) the Parties will discuss in good faith and prepare a technology transfer plan pursuant to which Company will (i) provide access, and transfer, to Licensee the Licensed Know-How Controlled by Company or its Affiliates that is necessary or reasonably useful for Licensee to Manufacture the Compound and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and (ii) provide all other reasonably necessary assistance and services to Licensee (at Licensee's sole cost) to enable Licensee to Manufacture the Compound and Licensed Products in substantially the same manner as Company or its Affiliates or CMOs (as applicable) Manufactures the Compound and the Licensed Product for Licensee; and (d) following agreement on such plan, Company will perform and execute the technology transfer plan in accordance with its terms.

Section 4.5. Commercialization.

(a) Commercialization Diligence. Upon receipt of the Marketing Authorization for a Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, Licensee (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors) will [] Commercialize such Licensed Product in the Field in such Region in the Territory. Licensee will be solely responsible for, at its expense, and will have sole discretion with respect to, Commercializing the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory.

(b) Reporting Obligations. Licensee will report to Company in writing, on a [], beginning with the Calendar Year following the first Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (for the period ending December 31 of the prior Calendar Year), summarizing in reasonable detail Licensee's Commercialization activities for such Licensed Product performed to date (or updating such report for activities performed since the last such report was given hereunder, as applicable). In addition, Licensee will provide Company with written notice of the First Commercial Sale of each Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory as soon as reasonably practicable after such event; provided, however, that, Licensee will inform Company of such event prior to public disclosure of such event by Licensee.

(c) Trademarks.

(i) Licensee will have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory using Licensee related Trademarks and any other Trademarks and trade names it determines appropriate for the Licensed Products, which branding may vary by Region or within a Region. Licensee will own all rights in such Trademarks and register and maintain such Trademarks in the countries and regions within the Territory, where and how it determines appropriate.

(ii) Licensee will also have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory using the Licensed Marks, and Licensee will comply with Company's reasonable trademark usage guidelines in effect from time to time as provided by Company. Company will own and retain all rights to the Licensed Marks (together with all goodwill associated therewith) in the Territory, and will prepare, file, prosecute and maintain all Licensed Marks in the Territory at its own expense; provided, however, Company will provide to Licensee copies of all applications, submissions, communications, and correspondence intended to be sent to, sent to or received by Governmental Authorities or Third Parties in connection with such filing, prosecution, and maintenance of the Licensed Marks in the Territory so that Licensee may review and comment thereon (which will be provided with sufficient advanced notice so that Licensee may meaningfully review and comment, to the extent practicable), and will incorporate any reasonable comments provided by Licensee with respect to such applications, submissions, communications, or correspondence. Subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, Company will grant and hereby grants a non-exclusive, sublicensable (subject to Section 2.2), fully paid-up, royalty free, non-transferrable (subject to Section 14.1\(a\)) license under the Licensed Marks for Licensee to Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Licensee shall comply with Company's guidelines on the use and display of the Licensed Marks and quality control instructions.

(iii) Diversion. Subject to applicable Law, each Party hereby covenants and agrees that (A) it and its Affiliates will not, and it will contractually obligate (and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enforce such contractual obligation) its licensees, Sublicensees and contractors not to, directly or indirectly, actively promote, market, distribute, import, sell or have sold any Licensed Product, including via the Internet or mail order, to any Third Party or to any address or Internet Protocol address or the like, in the other Party's territory, and (B) neither Party will engage, nor permit its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors to engage, in any advertising or promotional activities relating to any Licensed Product for use directed primarily to customers or other buyers or users of such product located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, or solicit orders from any prospective purchaser located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 4.5\(c\)\(ii\), will prevent Company, its Affiliates and licensees from undertaking, or having undertaken, any of the foregoing activities with respect to any Licensed Product outside of the Field in the Territory.

(d) No Violation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Licensee (including its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will not be obligated to undertake or continue any Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products if Licensee (or its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, as applicable) reasonably determines that performance of such Commercialization activity would violate applicable Laws or infringe any Third Party Patent Rights.

ARTICLE V

GOVERNANCE; JOINT STEERING COMMITTEE

Section 5.1. Formation; Purposes and Principles. As soon as practicable following the Effective Date (but in no event later than [] after the Effective Date), Company and Licensee will form a joint steering committee (the "JSC") to provide oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement.

Section 5.2. Specific Responsibilities. In addition to its overall responsibility to provide strategic oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement, the JSC will:

- (a) coordinate and share information with respect to the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Product by Licensee in the Territory;
- (b) keep each Party reasonably informed of the other Party's Development and Commercialization activities and interactions with Regulatory Authorities in the other Party's territory, by receiving updates from the Party conducting such activities []; attempt to resolve in the first instance all matters between the Parties that are in dispute, in accordance with Section 5.5 and Section 13.1;
- (c) review and approve the Territory-Specific Development Plan and any proposed amendments thereto

(d) review and discuss the initial Global Development Plan, and each update thereto;

(e) review and discuss whether to allocate to Licensee any activities under the Global Development Plan and the allocation thereof;

(f) review, discuss and determine matters that may have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of the Licensed Products pursuant to Section 3.9;

(g) review and approve of any proposed publication of the results of Development or Commercialization carried out on the Licensed Product by either Party; and

(h) perform such other functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as appropriate to further the purposes of this Agreement to the extent agreed to in writing by the Parties.

Section 5.3. Membership. The JSC will be composed of a total of [] representatives of each Party, which will be appointed by each of Company and Licensee, respectively. Each individual appointed by a Party as a representative to the JSC will be an employee of such Party with sufficient seniority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of compounds and products similar to the Compound and Licensed Products under this Agreement. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JSC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which notice may be given by e-mail, sent to the other Party's co-chairperson. The JSC will be co-chaired by one designated representative of each Party. The co-chairperson of the JSC will cast its Party's vote on the JSC and such designee will have the authority to make decisions on behalf of such Party. Each co-chairperson will alternate being responsible for each meeting for (a) calling and conducting meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the applicable co-chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material decisions made and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within [] after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes issued in accordance with clause (d) of this Section 5.3 will be deemed approved unless one or more members of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes within [] of receipt. The Alliance Managers will work with the chairpersons to prepare and circulate agendas and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those in ARTICLE VIII.

Section 5.4. Meetings; Reports. The JSC will hold meetings at least [] during the Term for so long as the JSC exists, unless the Parties mutually agree in writing to a different frequency. No later than [] prior to any meeting of the JSC (or such shorter time period as the Parties may agree), the applicable co-chairperson will prepare and circulate an agenda for such meeting. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] prior written notice to the other Party if such Party reasonably believes that a significant matter must be addressed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the applicable co-chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC no later than [] prior to the special meeting with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed decision on the matters to be considered. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may mutually agree. Other representatives of the Parties, their Affiliates, or Third Parties involved in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products may be invited by the members of the JSC to attend meetings as non-voting observers; provided, however, that such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in ARTICLE VIII. No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least [] representative of each Party (which representative is not such Party's Alliance Manager) is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided.

Section 5.5. Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers. The Parties will endeavor in good faith and in compliance with this Agreement to reach unanimous agreement with respect to all matters within the JSC's authority. Each Party's representatives on the JSC will collectively have one vote, (the "Party Vote") and no action or decision will be taken by the JSC without unanimous Party Vote (i.e., the affirmative Party Vote of each Party), which will be documented by a written consent signed by each Party's co-chairperson. Should the JSC not be able to reach agreement with respect to a matter at a duly called meeting of the JSC, either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution, and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, []. The status quo with respect to any matter that is not subject to a Party's final decision-making authority, and is not resolved at the JSC or by escalation to the Senior Officers as described above, will remain in effect until the Parties mutually otherwise agree or exercise their respective right to submit the dispute for final resolution in accordance with Section 13.1. Notwithstanding any provision of this ARTICLE V to the contrary, the JSC will not have the authority to amend the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

Section 5.6. Alliance Managers.

(a) Appointment. Each Party will appoint a person to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the Development and Commercialization of Licensed Products between meetings of the JSC (each, an "Alliance Manager"). The Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the committees as non-voting participants and may bring to the attention of the JSC any matters or issues either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may mutually agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time or may designate different Alliance Managers with respect to Development and Commercialization matters, respectively, by notice in writing to the other Party.

(b) Responsibility. The Alliance Managers, if appointed, will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JSC and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will:

- (i) provide a single point of communication within the Parties' respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement;
- (ii) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and
- (iii) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JSC occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

ARTICLE VI
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Section 6.1. Upfront Payment; Milestone Payments.

(a) Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee will pay Company a non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off payment in the amount of Eight Million U.S. Dollars (US$ 8,000,000), which upfront payment will be due and payable to Company within [] following the Effective Date.

(b) Development Milestone Payment. During the Term, Licensee will notify Company in writing of the achievement by or on behalf of Licensee, its Affiliates or Sublicensees of any milestone event set forth in this Section 6.1(b) (each, a “Development Milestone Event”) promptly after the occurrence thereof, and Licensee will pay Company a non-refundable, non-creditable milestone payment set forth in the tables below (each, a “Development Milestone Payment”) within [] of the achievement of such milestone event by Licensee, its Affiliates or any Sublicensees. Each of the milestone payments set forth in this Section 6.1(b) is payable only upon the first achievement of such milestone by the first Licensed Product to achieve such Development Milestone Event, and none of the Development Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Development Milestone Event is achieved.

(c) Sales Milestone Payments. During the Term, Licensee will notify Company in writing of its achievement of each of the sales milestones below within [] after the end of the calendar quarter in which the cumulative Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory first exceed the indicated Dollar value (each, a “Sales Milestone Event”). Licensee will pay to Company each of the milestone payments set forth below within [] of providing notice of each Sales Milestone Event (each, a “Sales Milestone Payment”). Each of the milestone payments set forth in this Section 6.1(c) is payable only upon the first achievement of such milestone by the first Licensed Product to achieve such Sales Milestone Event and none of the Sales Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Sales Milestone Event is achieved.

Section 6.2. Royalties.

(a) Royalty Rate. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, during the Royalty Term, Licensee will pay to Company a royalty on the Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory that is the product of the aggregate annual Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory and the applicable royalty rate in the following table, subject to the provisions of Section 6.4.

Portion of the Annual Net Sales of the Licensed Products	Royalty Rate
1. []	[]
2. []	[]
3. []	[]
4. []	[]
5. []	[]

(b) Royalty Term. Royalties will be due under this Section 6.2 with respect to a given Licensed Product in a given Region in the Territory during the period commencing upon the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in a specified Region and ending upon the latest of (i) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim of a Licensed Patent Covering [] such Licensed Product in such Region, (ii) the expiry of the applicable Regulatory Exclusivity for such Licensed Product in such Region; or (iii) the [] anniversary of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region (such period, the “Royalty Term”).

(c) Royalty Payments and Reports.

(i) Prior to the First Commercial Sale of any Licensed Product, Licensee shall deliver reports to Company annually, within [] after the end of each Calendar Year, containing information described in Section 6.3(c) concerning the immediately preceding Calendar Year as further.

(ii) Licensee shall report to Company the date of First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product within [] of occurrence in each country.

(iii) Within [] following the end of each Calendar Quarter, following the First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product, Licensee shall furnish to Company a written report for the Calendar Quarter showing the Net Sales of Licensed Product sold by Licensee, its Affiliates and Sublicensees in the Territory during such Calendar Quarter and the royalties payable under this Agreement for such Calendar Quarter. Such written report shall include the number of Licensed Products sold by Licensee, its Affiliates and Sublicensees in each country, the gross sales of Licensed Product on a country-by-country and Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product basis, an itemized calculation of any deductions taken from such gross sales to arrive at Net Sales for the applicable Calendar Quarter and the calculation of the amount of royalty payment due on such Net Sales. Licensee shall pay Company the royalty due for such Calendar Quarter calculated in accordance with this Agreement within [] of delivery of the written report to Company.

Section 6.3. Upstream License Fees. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereunder, Company will be solely responsible for any and all payments Company owes to the Upstream Licensors under the applicable Upstream Licenses and in no event will Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors be directly liable for any of such payments, except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Section 6.4. Royalty Payment Reductions. The following will only apply if royalties are being paid pursuant to Section 6.2(a):

(a) Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property. With respect to a particular Region in the Territory, Licensee will be entitled to deduct from royalty payments under Section 6.2(a) otherwise payable to Company in such Region [] of any Blocking Third Party Intellectual Property Costs applicable to such Region.

(b) Generic Entry. If at any time during the Royalty Term there is a Generic Product in the Field sold in any Region in the Territory in which a Licensed Product is then being sold by Licensee or an Affiliate or Sublicensee, then the applicable royalties in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) will be reduced by [].

(c) Lack of Patent Protection. If at any time during the Royalty Term the last-to-expire Licensed Patent in a particular Region in the Territory having a Valid Claim covering [] such Licensed Product expires, then the applicable royalties in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) will be reduced by [].

(d) Cumulative Deductions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the deductions set forth in Section 6.4(a) through Section 6.4(c) reduce the royalties otherwise payable to Company as specified in Section 6.2(a) by more than []; provided that, to the extent the foregoing limitation limits the reduction Licensee is permitted to take during a Calendar Quarter, Licensee will be entitled to carryforward the amount of the reduction Licensee was unable to take during such Calendar Quarter and apply such amounts to royalties payable to Company in future Calendar Quarters until used and applied by Licensee in full.

Section 6.5. Financial Audits.

(a) Record Keeping. Licensee and its Affiliates will, and will cause their respective Sublicensees to, keep complete, true and accurate books and records in accordance with its Accounting Standards of the items underlying (i) Net Sales and (ii) royalty payments under this Agreement. Licensee and its Affiliates will, and will cause their respective Sublicensees to keep, such books and records [] following the Calendar Quarter to which they pertain. Company will have the right [], at its own expense, to have an internationally-recognized independent, certified public accountant, selected by Company and reasonably acceptable to Licensee (the "Auditor"), review any such records of Licensee in the location(s) where such records are customarily maintained by Licensee upon reasonable prior notice, during regular business hours and under obligations of confidentiality, except to the extent necessary to enforce Company's rights under this Agreement or if disclosure is required by applicable Law, for the sole purpose of verifying the basis and accuracy of payments made under this Agreement and the content of the reports described in Section 6.2(c), within the prior []. The Auditor will have the right to disclose to Company or Upstream Licensors its conclusions regarding any payment owed under this Agreement. The records covering any specific period of time may be audited no more than once.

(b) Audit Report. The report prepared by the Auditor, a copy of which will be sent or otherwise provided to each Party by such Auditor at the same time before such report is considered final, will contain the conclusions of such Auditor regarding the audit and will specify that the amounts paid pursuant thereto were correct or, if incorrect, the amount of any underpayment or overpayment, and the specific details regarding any discrepancies. No other information will be provided to Company without the prior consent of Licensee unless disclosure is required by Laws, regulation or judicial order, and if so determined by Company, it will, if permitted, give Licensee prior notice thereof to the extent possible for Licensee to seek a protective order against or limiting such disclosure. If such report shows any underpayment, then Licensee will remit to Company, within [] after receipt of such report, (i) the amount of such underpayment and (ii) if such underpayment exceeds [] of the total amount owed for the period then being audited, the actual costs incurred by Company in conducting such review. For the avoidance of doubt, []. If such report shows any overpayment, then Licensee will, at Company's election, credit the overpaid amount against future payments owed to Company or reimburse Company the amount of such overpayment. The Parties mutually agree that all information subject to review under this Section 6.5 is Confidential Information of both Parties and that the receiving Party will retain and cause the Auditor to retain all such information in confidence in accordance with confidentiality and non-use obligations no less stringent than those contained in ARTICLE VIII.

Section 6.6. Tax Withholding.

(a) In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to Company) ("Tax Withholdings") is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Licensee (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Licensee) pursuant to this Agreement under applicable Laws, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Licensee (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Licensee) will make such deduction and withholding and [], and any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Licensee (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Licensee) on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority for the account of Company and Licensee (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Licensee) will provide Company reasonable evidence of the remittance within [] thereof and for the purposes of this Agreement, Licensee will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Company with respect to such payments paid to the such Governmental Authority. Licensee may satisfy its withholding, value added or other tax obligations under this Section 6.7 through its Affiliates.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, to the extent (i) any payment due to Company under this Agreement is triggered due to the activities of Licensee's Affiliate or Licensee's or its Affiliates' Sublicensees in a Region in the Territory, and (ii) Licensee, its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees receives a payment from any of Licensee's Affiliates or Licensee's or its Affiliates' Sublicensees in relation to such activities and such payment is reduced due to Tax Withholdings required by applicable Laws to be made on such payment, then (A) [], and (B) [], and (C) [] shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to obtain any credit or refund available to avoid or minimize such Tax Withholdings, and, to pass along any such credit or refund to [], as applicable, subject to any Tax Withholdings applicable to any related payment of such credit or refund; provided that [].

Section 6.7. Currency of Payments and Bank Accounts. All amounts payable and calculations under this Agreement will be in Dollars. As applicable, Net Sales and any royalty reductions will be translated into Dollars using the average of the applicable daily foreign exchange rates published in the Wall Street Journal (or any other qualified source that is acceptable to both Parties) for the last day of each month of the Calendar Quarter in which such Net Sales occurred. All payments under this Agreement will be paid in Dollars by wire transfer to each Party's bank accounts set forth below (which account the receiving Party may update from time to time in writing):

Section 6.8. Late Payments. Without limiting any other rights or remedies available to Company hereunder, any late payment by Licensee will bear interest, to the extent permitted by Laws, at [] on the date payment was due or the highest rate permitted by applicable Law (whichever is higher), computed from the date such payment was due until the date Licensee makes the payment.

ARTICLE VII
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP,
PROTECTION AND RELATED MATTERS

Section 7.1. Ownership of Inventions.

(a) Background Technology. As between the Parties, except with respect to Product Inventions, which are addressed in Section 7.1(b), (i) Company will retain all right, title and interest in and to any Patent Rights, Know-How, and other intellectual property rights owned or in-licensed by Company or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term, subject to the license granted to Licensee in Section 2.1(a), and (ii) Licensee will retain all right, title and interest in and to any Patents, Know-How, and other intellectual property rights owned or in-licensed by Licensee or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term, subject to license granted to Company under Section 12.4(c).

(b) Ownership of Inventions; Cross License of Product Inventions. Ownership will [] for any and all inventions, Know-How, developments or discoveries, whether patentable or non-patentable, invented or otherwise developed or generated by either Party alone (including its Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors or agents) or jointly by both Parties (including jointly by their Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors or agents) in connection with a Party's performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement, but excluding all Local Combination Study Data, (collectively, "Inventions") and will be determined based []. Any Inventions that are necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in the Field shall be deemed "Product Inventions." Licensee hereby grants Company and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), royalty-free, fully paid up, perpetual and irrevocable license, under any Product Inventions [] to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field outside the Territory (during the Term) and in all territories in the world (following the Term).

(c) Assignment Obligation. Each Party will assign, and will cause its Affiliates to assign, its rights, and cause all employees of such Party or Affiliate who perform activities for such Party or Affiliate under this Agreement to be under an obligation to assign their rights, in any Patent Rights and Know-How, whether or not patentable, resulting therefrom to such Party or Affiliate to effectuate the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.1(b). With respect to any activities of a Party or its Affiliate or exercise of its or their rights under this Agreement that are subcontracted to a Person that is not an employee, the Party or such Affiliate retaining such subcontractor will include in the applicable subcontract an assignment to such Party or such Affiliate of all rights in Patent Rights and Know-How made by such subcontractor resulting from such activities or exercise of its rights, and in any event will include in the applicable subcontract a license to such Party or Affiliate that is sublicensable (through multiple tiers) to the other Party under this Agreement, of any Patent Rights and Know-How made by such contractor or subcontractor resulting from such activities.

Section 7.2. Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents.

(a) In the Territory. As between the Parties, [] will have the first right, at its expense, to prepare, file, prosecute and maintain the Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents in the Field in all Regions in the Territory, at []'s sole cost and expense. [] will keep [] reasonably informed of all steps with regard to and the status of such preparation, filing, prosecution, and maintenance of such Patent Rights, including by providing [] with (i) copies of all correspondence and material communications it sends to or receives from any patent office or agency in the Territory relating to such Patent Rights, (ii) a draft copy of all applications sufficiently in advance of filing to permit reasonable review and comment by [] and giving due consideration to such comments, and (iii) a copy of applications as filed, together with notice of its filing date and serial number. Before [] submits any material filing, including a new patent application, or response to such patent authorities with respect to any Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents, [] will provide [] with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such filing or response and will take into account and consider in good faith []'s reasonable and timely requests and suggestions regarding the filing, prosecution and maintenance of such Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents under this Section 7.2(a).

(b) Step-In Right. If [] elects not to continue to prosecute or maintain a given Patent Right within the Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents in the Field in the Territory pursuant to Section 7.2(a), then [] will give [] notice thereof within a reasonable period (but not less than [] prior to allowing such Patent Rights to lapse or become abandoned or unenforceable, and [] will have the right to prosecute or maintain such Patent Right. [] will have the right, but not the obligation, to assume responsibility for continuing the prosecution of such Patent Rights in the Field in such Region and paying any required fees to maintain such Patent Rights in the Field in such Region or defending such Patent Rights, all at []'s sole expense, through patent counsel or agents of its choice. [] will not become an assignee of any such Patent Rights as a result of its assumption of any such responsibility. Upon transfer of []'s responsibility for filing, prosecuting and maintaining any of the Patent Rights to [] under this Section 7.2(b), (i) [] will promptly deliver to [] copies of all necessary files related to the Patent Rights with respect to which responsibility has been transferred and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for [] to assume such prosecution, maintenance and defense, (ii) [], and (iii) [].

(c) Cooperation. Each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate, with the other Party with respect to the preparation, filing, prosecution and maintenance of Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents pursuant to this Section 7.2, including with respect to obtaining patent term restoration, supplemental protection certificates or their equivalents, and patent terms extension with respect to the Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents in any Region where applicable.

Section 7.3. Third Party Infringement.

(a) Notice. Each Party will promptly notify the other in writing of any (i) apparent, threatened or actual infringement by a Third Party of any Licensed Patent or Jointly-Invented Patent, or (ii) unauthorized use or misappropriation of any Licensed Know-How that is necessary or useful for Development, Manufacture and Commercialization of any Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory by a Third Party of which it becomes aware, and, in each case, will provide the other Party with all evidence in such Party's possession or control supporting such infringement or unauthorized use or misappropriation (each, an "Infringement").

(b) First Right. As between the Parties, [] will have the first right, but not the obligation, using counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense, to institute any Action alleging Infringement of, subject to last sentence of Section 7.2(b), the Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents (any such Action, an “Infringement Action”) in the Field in the Territory. [] shall have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any Infringement Action by counsel of its own choice. [] will notify [] of its decision to commence an Infringement Action and will keep [] apprised in writing of any such Infringement Action and will consider []’s reasonable interests and requests regarding such Infringement Action.

(c) Right. If [] fails to commence a suit to enforce the Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents against such Infringement Action (or to settle or otherwise secure the abatement of such Infringement Action) within (i) [] after its receipt or delivery of notice under Section 7.3, or (ii) []s before the time limit, if any, set forth in the appropriate Laws for the filing of such actions, whichever comes first, or ceases to diligently pursue such Infringement Action, [] will have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense to institute such Infringement Action against the applicable Third Party infringer(s).

(d) Cooperation. In any Infringement Action brought under the Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents pursuant to Section 7.3(b) and Section 7.3(c), each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate with each other, in good faith, relative to the other Party’s efforts to protect the Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents, and will join such suit as a party, if requested by the other Party. Furthermore, the Party initiating any Infringement Action pursuant to Section 7.3(b) or Section 7.3(c) will consider in good faith all reasonable and timely comments from the other Party on any proposed arguments asserted or to be asserted in litigation related to the enforcement or defense of any such Patent Rights. Neither Party will have the right to settle any patent infringement litigation with respect to any Licensed Patent or Jointly-Invented Patents under this Section 7.3 in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party without the consent of such other Party (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

(e) Allocation of Recoveries. Any settlements, damages or monetary awards recovered by either Party pursuant to any Infringement Action with respect to the Licensed Patents or Jointly-Invented Patents will, after reimbursing the Parties for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in making such recovery [], be allocated as follows: [].

Section 7.4. Claimed Infringement. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party if a Third Party brings any Action alleging patent infringement by Licensee or Company or any of their respective Affiliates or Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Product or Jointly-Invented Patents (any such Action, an “Infringement Claim”) in the Field in the Territory. [] will have the right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory with respect to []’s activities, at []’s sole cost and expense, and [] will have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory by counsel of its own choice. Company will have the sole right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim with respect to Company’s activities, including any such Infringement Claim in the Territory or outside of the Territory. Upon the request of the Party controlling the response to the Infringement Claim, the other Party will reasonably cooperate with the controlling Party in the reasonable defense of such Infringement Claim. The other Party will have the right to consult with the controlling Party concerning any Infringement Claim and to participate in and be represented by independent counsel in any associated litigation. If the Infringement Claim is brought against both Parties, then each Party will have the right to defend against the Infringement Claim. The Party defending an Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 will (a) consult with the other Party as to the strategy for the prosecution of such defense, (b) consider in good faith any comments from the other Party with respect thereto and (c) keep the other Party reasonably informed of any material steps taken and provide copies of all material documents filed, in connection with such defense. The Party controlling the defense against an Infringement Claim will have the right to settle such Infringement Claim on terms deemed reasonably appropriate by such Party, provided, that, unless any such settlement includes a full and unconditional release from all liability of the other Party and does not adversely affect the rights of the other Party, any such settlement will be subject to the other Party's prior written consent.

Section 7.5. Upstream Licenses. To the extent that an Upstream Licensor of Company has retained any right to prosecute or enforce any Licensed Patents or otherwise be involved in such activities pursuant to the Upstream Agreements granting Company a license thereto, Company will use reasonable efforts to cause such Third Party licensor to take the actions (or refrain from taking action, as applicable) consistent with this ARTICLE VII. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company will not be deemed to be in breach of its obligations under this ARTICLE VII if []. Furthermore, [].

Section 7.6. Common Interest. All information exchanged between the Parties regarding the prosecution and maintenance, and enforcement and defense, of Licensed Patents and Jointly-Invented Patents under this ARTICLE VII will be deemed Confidential Information of the disclosing Party. In addition, the Parties acknowledge and agree that, with regard to such prosecution and maintenance, and enforcement and defense, the interests of the Parties as collaborators and licensor and licensee are to obtain the strongest patent protection possible, and as such, are aligned and are legal in nature. The Parties agree and acknowledge that they have not waived, and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a waiver of, any legal privilege concerning the Patent Rights under this ARTICLE VII, including privilege under the common interest doctrine and similar or related doctrines. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, to the extent a Party has a good faith belief that any information required to be disclosed by such Party to the other Party under this ARTICLE VII is protected by attorney-client privilege or any other applicable legal privilege or immunity, such Party will not be required to disclose such information, and the Parties will in good faith cooperate to agree upon a procedure (including entering into a specific common interest agreement, disclosing such information on a "for counsel eyes only" basis or similar procedure) under which such information may be disclosed without waiving or breaching such privilege or immunity.

ARTICLE VIII CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY

Section 8.1. Confidential Information.

(a) Confidentiality Obligation. During the Term and for a period of [] after any termination or expiration of this Agreement, each Party agrees to, and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to, keep in confidence and not to disclose to any Third Party, or use for any purpose, except to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Party, without the prior written consent of such disclosing Party. The existence and terms of this Agreement are the Confidential Information of each Party.

(b) Permitted Disclosures. Each Party agrees that it and its Affiliates will provide or permit access to the other Party's Confidential Information only to the receiving Party's employees, consultants, advisors, licensees and Sublicensees, and to the employees, consultants and advisors of the receiving Party's Affiliates, and to, with respect to Company, Upstream Licensors, in each case on a need to know basis who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information no less stringent than the obligations of confidentiality and non-use of the receiving Party pursuant to this Section 8.1; provided, however, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates, licensees or Sublicensees, and its and its Affiliates' respective employees, consultants and advisors, to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 8.1 as if such Affiliates, employees, consultants, advisors, licensees and Sublicensees were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1.

(c) Confidentiality Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Party may use and disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as follows: (i) under appropriate written confidentiality and non-use obligations no less stringent than those in this Agreement, to its Affiliates, bona fide potential or actual collaborators, licensors, Sublicensees, licensees, or strategic partners and to employees, directors, agents, consultants, and advisers of any other Third Parties, (ii) to its financial advisors, attorneys and accountants, bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors and underwriters on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement; provided, however, that each Party may disclose the terms of this Agreement (but not any other Confidential Information) to bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement and of duration customary in confidentiality agreements entered into for a similar purpose; provided, further, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by any of the foregoing individuals to treat such Confidential Information as required under Section 8.1 as if such individuals were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1, or (iii) as required by any court or other governmental body or as otherwise required by applicable Laws (including any such disclosures as are required by a Regulatory Authority in connection with seeking Regulatory Approval, Pricing and Reimbursement Approval, import authorization for any Licensed Product in the Territory, or the rules or regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States or of any stock exchange or listing entity (including in connection with the public sale of securities)); provided, that, notice is promptly given to the other Party and the disclosing Party cooperates with reasonable requests from the other Party to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to protect the Confidential Information. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this ARTICLE VIII, Confidential Information that is permitted or required to be disclosed will remain otherwise subject to the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1(b) and this Section 8.1(c). If either Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Party with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Party with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to have terms identified by such other Party afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Regulatory Authority.

(d) Secrecy of Licensed Know-How. Without limiting the generality of Section 8.1(a), during the Term the receiving Party will protect, and will cause, to the extent applicable, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents to protect, the secrecy and confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How and unpublished Patent Rights using at least the same degree of care as it uses to prevent the disclosure of its own other confidential information of like importance and in any event a reasonable duty of care.

Section 8.2. Publicity. The Parties acknowledge the importance of supporting each other's efforts to publicly disclose results and significant developments regarding the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and each Party may make such disclosures from time to time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 8.2. Such disclosures may include achievement of milestones, significant events in the Development process with respect to Licensed Products, or Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products.

(a) On a date to be mutually agreed by the Parties, the Parties will jointly issue a press release regarding the signing of this Agreement. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence and for disclosures permitted in accordance with Section 8.1(b), whenever either Party elects to make any public disclosure regarding milestones, significant events in the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, it will first notify the other Party of such planned press release or public announcement and provide a draft for review no less than [] in advance of issuing such press release or making such public announcement (or, with respect to press releases and public announcements that are required by applicable Laws, with as much advance notice as possible under the circumstances if it is not possible to provide notice no less than [] in advance). Each Party will have the right to review and approve any such planned press release or public announcement proposed by the other Party with respect to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or that includes Confidential Information of the other Party; provided, however, that (A) the reviewing Party will attempt to provide such approval as soon as reasonably possible and will not unreasonably withhold such approval; (B) the reviewing Party will provide explanations of its disapproval of such press release; and (C) a Party desiring to make such public disclosure may issue such press release or public announcement without such prior review by the other Party if (1) the contents of such press release or public announcement have previously been made public other than through a breach of this Agreement by such Party, and (2) such press release or public announcement is consistent with the previously issued press release or other publicly available information; and provided, further, that the other Party will have the right to review, but not approve, any press release or public announcement that the proposing Party determines is required by applicable Laws based on the advice of counsel, which public disclosures are subject to Section 8.2. The Party reviewing a press release provided under this clause (A) of this Section 8.2(a) will review and approve or disapprove such press release within [] after its receipt thereof.

(b) The principles to be observed in such disclosures will include accuracy, compliance with applicable Laws and regulatory guidance documents, reasonable sensitivity to potential negative reactions of Regulatory Authorities and the need to keep investors informed regarding the business of the Party making such public disclosure.

(c) In the event that either Party proposes to publish or present the results of Development or Commercialization carried out on the Licensed Product, including any oral presentation or abstract that contain clinical data or pertain to results of Clinical Studies or other studies, such publication or presentation will be subject to the prior review by the JSC for patentability and protection of the Parties' Confidential Information. Each Party will provide to the JSC the opportunity to review any proposed abstracts, manuscripts or summaries of presentations that cover the results of Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products during the Term. The JSC will review such proposed material at the next meeting of the JSC, with either approval of the proposed material or a specific statement of concern, based upon either the need to seek patent protection or concern regarding competitive disadvantage arising from the proposal. In the event that the JSC provides such a statement of concern, the submitting Party will not submit such publication that contains such information until the other Party is given a reasonable period of time to seek patent protection for any material in such publication or presentation that it believes is patentable or to resolve any other issues, and the submitting Party will remove from such proposed publication any Confidential Information of the other Party as requested by the other Party.

(d) In addition to the foregoing, with respect to any disclosures by Licensee, such disclosures will be subject at all times to any publicity or publication requirements set forth in any Upstream License. Licensee will not submit or publish any article or other publication to or with any scientific journal or other publisher that requires, as a condition of publication, that Licensee agrees to make available to the publisher or Third Parties any materials that are the subject of the publication. All publications made by Licensee relating to any Compound or Licensed Product will be prepared, presented, and published in accordance with pharmaceutical industry accepted guidelines.

ARTICLE IX
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; CERTAIN COVENANTS

Section 9.1. Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that, as of the Effective Date:

(a) Organization. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.

(b) Authority. It has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, it has the right to grant to the other the licenses and sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement, and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents.

(c) Consents. Except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, Manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained.

(d) No Conflict. It is not under any obligation, contractual or otherwise, to any Person that would materially affect the diligent and complete fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) and the licenses and sublicenses to be granted by such Party pursuant to this Agreement (i) do not conflict with or violate any requirement of Laws applicable to such Party, (ii) do not conflict with or violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award of any court or governmental agency presently in effect applicable to such Party, and (iii) do not conflict with, violate, breach or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any contractual obligations of such Party or any of its Affiliates.

(e) Enforceability. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon it and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the general principles of equity and subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

(f) Compliance with Laws. The Parties will, and will ensure that their respective Affiliates and Sublicensees will, comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws in exercising their rights and fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will conduct all Development, and Commercialization activities relating to the Compound or Licensed Product(s) in accordance with applicable Laws (including data privacy Laws, current international regulatory standards, including, as applicable, GMP, GLP, GCP, and other rules, regulations and requirements), and will cause all permitted collaborators and Sublicensees hereunder to comply with such applicable Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will comply with all applicable Laws concerning bribery, money laundering, or corrupt practices or which in any manner prohibit the giving of anything of value to any official, agent, or employee of any government, political party, or public international organization, candidate for public office, health care professional, or to any officer, director, employee, or representative of any other organization specifically including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and the UK Bribery Act, in each case, in connection with the activities conducted pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties will require any contractors, subcontractors, Sublicensees, or other Persons that provide services to such Party in connection with this Agreement to comply with such Party's obligations under this Section 9.1(f).

Section 9.2. Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Company. Company represents, warrants and covenants to Licensee that, as of the Effective Date:

(a) Licensed Patents. All Licensed Patents as of the Effective Date are listed in Exhibit C. Except as otherwise noted in Exhibit C, Company is the sole and exclusive owner of the Licensed Patents, all of which are free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances. With respect to Licensed Patents not solely owned by Company, Company licenses such Licensed Patents in a manner that permits exclusive sublicenses as provided in this Agreement. All Licensed Patents owned by Company and, [], all other Licensed Patents, have been filed and prosecuted in good faith in the patent offices in accordance with applicable Laws, and all applicable fees have been paid on or before the due date for payment. [], all issued Licensed Patents are valid and enforceable.

(i) Licensed Patents [], each disclose and claim the Compound Company has referred to as [], for which an IND has been filed with the FDA as of the Effective Date. Each of these Licensed Patents is solely and exclusively owned by Company.

(b) Licensed Know-How. Company owns or Controls the Licensed Know-How, and has the right to grant the licenses under the Licensed Know-How to Licensee on and the terms set forth in this Agreement. Company has the right to use and disclose (in each case, under appropriate circumstances of confidentiality) the Licensed Know-How free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances.

(c) Licensed Technology. Company has not granted to any Third Party, including any academic organization or agency, any license, option or other rights to research, Develop, Manufacture, use or Commercialize the Compound or the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory other than any rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement. Except for the Upstream Licenses, no Third Party has any license, option or other rights or interest in or to the Licensed Technology other than the rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement. No [] Affiliate owns or Controls any Patent Rights, Know-How or other intellectual property rights that are necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products other than Combination Specific IP.

(d) Licensed Marks. Neither Company nor its Affiliates own or otherwise hold rights to, or have sought to register, any Licensed Marks.

(e) Compounds. Neither Company nor any of its Affiliates have granted any rights to any Third Party to Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize any compounds that selectively bind and modulate SHP2 in the Territory, other than customary non-exclusive licenses granted to service providers performing services on Company's behalf. Neither Company nor any of its Affiliates hold any rights from a Third Party to any compounds that selectively bind and modulate SHP2 other than pursuant to the [] Agreement.

(f) Delivery of Documentation. True, complete, and correct copies of: (i) all existing material Regulatory Filings in its possession and control relating to Licensed Products, (ii) all material adverse information with respect to the safety and efficacy of the Licensed Products in Company's or its Affiliates' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) possession and control, and (iii) all material data in Company's or its Affiliates' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) possession and control needed to support Regulatory Filings in the Territory, in each case ((i), (ii) and (iii)) have been provided or made available to Licensee prior to the Effective Date.

(g) Third Party Challenges. There are no claims, judgments, or settlements against, or amounts with respect thereto, made against Company or any of its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Patents or the Licensed Know-How. [], [], no claim or litigation has been received by Company or its Affiliates or, [], threatened by any Person (i) alleging that the Licensed Patents are invalid or unenforceable, (ii) asserting the misuse of any of the Licensed Patents, (iii) challenging Company's Control of the Licensed Patents (i.e., alleging that a Third Party has a right or interest in or to the Licensed Technology) or (iv) alleging misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party used in the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products by or on behalf of Company prior to the Effective Date.

(h) Non-Infringement of Third Party IP. [], the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product, as conducted by Company, its Affiliates, or its or their Sublicensees prior to the Effective Date did not infringe any Patent Right or misappropriate or otherwise violate or misappropriate any Know-How of any Person (in the case of pending Patent Rights, evaluating them as if issued). No claim of infringement of the Patent Rights or misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party has been received by the Company, or [], threatened, against Company, any of its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products. [], the Manufacture or Commercialization of the Compound Company has referred to as [] would not infringe, if Manufactured or Commercialized as of the data hereof, any Patent Right or misappropriate or otherwise violate any Know-How of any Person in the Territory (in the case of pending Patent Rights, evaluating them as if issued).

(i) Absence of Litigation. There are no judgments or settlements against or owed by Company, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees, or, [], pending litigation against Company, its Affiliates, or its Sublicensees, or litigation threatened against Company, its Affiliates, or its Sublicensees, in each case related to Licensed Products, including any such litigation any relating to any Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals or Marketing Authorizations Controlled by Company, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees as of the Effective Date.

(j) Maintenance of Regulatory Filings, Good Laboratory and Clinical Practices. Company, its Affiliates, and its Sublicensees have generated, prepared, maintained, and retained all Regulatory Filings and Marketing Authorizations in its control that are required to be maintained or retained pursuant to and in material compliance with applicable Laws, and have conducted in material compliance with applicable Laws, including GLP and GCP all Development of Licensed Products in the Field conducted prior to the Effective Date.

(k) Confidentiality of Know-How. Company has taken precautions, consistent with its usual business practice, to preserve the confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How.

(l) Assignment of Third Party Rights; Third Party Consents.

(i) Company has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities under the Development Plan for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Licensee will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Company, without payments beyond those required by ARTICLE VI, the licenses and other rights granted to Licensee under this Agreement.

(ii) Each Person who has or has had any ownership rights in or to any Licensed Patents purported to be owned solely by Company, has assigned and has executed an agreement assigning its entire right, title, and interest in and to such Licensed Patents to Company; [], no current officer, employee, agent, or consultant of Company or any of its Affiliates is in violation of any term of any assignment or other agreement, in each case, regarding the protection of the Licensed Patents.

(iii) Prior to the Effective Date, Company has obtained all consents from Third Parties necessary to grant Licensee the licenses and rights Company purports to grant to Licensee under this Agreement.

(m) Statements to Regulatory Authorities. Neither Company nor any of its Affiliates, nor, [], its Sublicensees nor any of its or their respective officers, employees, or agents has made an untrue statement of material fact or fraudulent statement to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products, or failed to disclose a material fact required under applicable Laws to be disclosed to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products.

(n) Compliance with Laws. Company has used reasonable efforts to ensure that all of the studies, tests and pre-clinical and Clinical Studies of Licensed Products conducted prior to, or being conducted as of, the Effective Date by or on behalf of Company have been and are being conducted in all material respects in accordance with applicable Laws.

(o) Upstream Licenses.

(i) All Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date are listed in Exhibit D. Company (A) has not breached or defaulted under any of its obligations under the terms and conditions of the Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date in a manner that could result in the termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder, and all Upstream Licenses as of the Effective Date are in full force and effect; (B) has not received any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company of, requests a material amendment of, termination of any Upstream License; and (C) is not aware of any potential breach, default, or potential default of any Upstream License; and

(ii) During the Term, Company and its Affiliates (A) will not breach or default under the terms and conditions of each Upstream License in a manner that could result in termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder, (subject to any applicable cure period under such Upstream License); (B) will ensure that the Upstream Licenses are in full force and effect for so long as any Licensed Technology licensed to Company under such Upstream Licenses are necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; (C) will provide prompt notice to Licensee of its receipt of any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company of, requests a material amendment of, or termination of any Upstream License in a manner that could result in termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder; and (D) will not amend, modify or terminate any Upstream Licenses in a manner that would terminate rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of the licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder.

(p) [], (i) all Development activities conducted by [] as of the Effective Date under the [] Agreement have only been performed by [] employees who are members of [], and (ii) all subsequent Development activities conducted by [] will be only be performed employees who are members of [].

(q) No Conflict. During the Term, Company and its Affiliates will not grant any interest in the Licensed Technology that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(r) Other Agreements of Company and its Affiliates.

(i) Neither Company nor [] has breached or defaulted, in whole or in part, any agreement by and between Company and [], including that certain Series A Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of [] (“PSPA”), in a manner that could result in the termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder. During the Term, (A) there will be no breach or default by Company or [] under the terms and conditions of any agreement by and between Company and [] including the PSPA in a manner that could result in termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder, provided that such breach will be subject to applicable cure period under such agreement; and (B) Company will provide prompt notice to Licensee upon becoming aware of any breach by [] of any agreement between Company and [], including the PSPA.

(ii) Company (A) has not breached or defaulted under any of its obligations under the terms and conditions of the [] SPA as of the Effective Date in a manner that could result in the termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder, and the [] SPA, as of the Effective Date, is in full force and effect; (B) has not received any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company, or requests termination, of the [] SPA; and (C) is not aware of any potential breach, default, or potential default of the [] SPA.

(iii) During the Term, Company and its Affiliates (A) will not breach or default under the terms and conditions of the [] SPA in a manner that could result in the termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder, provided that such breach will be subject to applicable cure period under the [] SPA; (B) will ensure that the [] SPA is in full force and effect for so long as any Licensed Technology licensed to Company under the [] Agreement are necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; (C) will provide prompt notice to Licensee of its receipt of any written notice that alleges breach or default by Company of the [] SPA, or that exercises (or threatens to exercise) any right to terminate, the [] SPA, in either case, in a manner that could result in termination of any rights that are sublicensed to Licensee hereunder or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of any licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee hereunder; and (D) will not terminate the [] SPA in a manner that would terminate rights that are sublicensed to Licensee pursuant to the [] Agreement or otherwise diminish the scope or exclusivity of the licenses granted to Licensee under the technology licensed to Licensee pursuant to the [] SPA.

Section 9.3. Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Licensee.

(a) Licensee represents, warrants and covenants to Company that, as of the Effective Date, no claim or demand of any Person has been asserted in writing to Licensee arising out of, and [], no investigations are pending or threatened in writing with respect to, Licensee’s Development, regulatory or Commercialization activities, in each case that would reasonably be expected to materially adversely affect Licensee’s ability to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Licensee represents, warrants and covenants to Company that, as of the Effective Date, Licensee has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities under the Development Plan for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Company will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Licensee, without payments beyond those required by Section 3.3(f) or Section 12.4(c)(ii), the licenses and other rights granted to Company under this Agreement.

(c) Licensee and its Affiliates and Sublicensees shall not use the name of [] (the “System”), [], or any variation, adaptation, or abbreviation thereof, or of any of its trustees, officers, faculty, students, employees, or agents, or any trademark owned by Board, System, or [], or any terms of this Agreement in any promotional material or other public announcement or disclosure without the prior written consent of []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent of [], Licensee may use the name of (or name of employee of) [], System or Board in routine business correspondence, or as needed in appropriate regulatory submissions without express written consent.

Section 9.4. No Debarment. Each Party represents and warrants that neither it nor any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement has ever been, or is currently: (a) debarred under 21 U.S.C. § 335a or by any Regulatory Authority; (b) excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise ineligible to participate in federal health care programs or in federal procurement or non-procurement programs; (c) listed on the FDA's Disqualified and Restricted Lists for clinical investigators; or (d) convicted of a criminal offense that falls within the scope of 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7(a), but has not yet been excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise declared ineligible. Each Party further covenants that if, during the Term of this Agreement, it becomes aware that it or any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement is the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could lead to that Party becoming a debarred entity or individual, an excluded entity or individual or a convicted entity or individual, such Party will promptly notify the other Party.

Section 9.5. No Other Warranties. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTION 9.1, SECTION 9.2, SECTION 9.3 OR SECTION 9.4, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED PRODUCT, VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION; DAMAGES

Section 10.1. Indemnification by Company. Company will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Licensee, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Licensee Indemnified Party"), from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Licensee Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Company in this Agreement, or any breach by Company of any obligation, covenant or agreement in this Agreement; (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Company or any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing Company's obligations or exercising Company's rights under this Agreement; (c) activities conducted by or on behalf of Company, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees or contractors related to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products anywhere in the world prior to the Effective Date; (d) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products by or on behalf of Company, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees (other than Licensee) or contractors outside the Territory; and (e) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory sold by or on behalf of Company, any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees (other than Licensee) following any termination of this Agreement; provided, however, that Company's obligations pursuant to this Section 10.1 will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Licensee has an obligation to indemnify Company pursuant to Section 10.2.

Section 10.2. Indemnification by Licensee. Licensee will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company, its Affiliates, and [] Affiliates, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Company Indemnified Party") from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Company Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Licensee in this Agreement, or any breach by Licensee of any covenant or agreement in this Agreement, (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of, or violation of Laws by, Licensee, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing Licensee's obligations or exercising Licensee's rights under this Agreement, or (c) the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees (other than Company) or contractors; provided, however, that Licensee's obligations pursuant to this Section 10.2 will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Company has an obligation to indemnify Licensee pursuant to Section 10.1.

Section 10.3. Claims for Indemnification.

(a) Notice. An Indemnified Party entitled to indemnification under Section 10.1 or Section 10.2 will give prompt written notification to the Indemnifying Party from whom indemnification is sought of the commencement of any Action by a Third Party for which indemnification may be sought (a "Third Party Claim") or, if earlier, upon the assertion of such Third Party Claim by a Third Party; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 10.3(a) will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.

(b) Defense. Within [] after delivery of a notice of any Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 10.3(a), the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of such defense, the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Party not controlling such defense may participate therein at its own expense.

(c) Cooperation. The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.

(d) Settlement. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Indemnifying Party will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which will not be unreasonably withheld (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)), agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party).

(e) Mitigation of Loss. Each Indemnified Party will take and will procure that its Affiliates and Sublicensees take all such reasonable steps and actions as are necessary or as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require in order to mitigate any Third Party Claims (or potential losses or damages) under this ARTICLE XIV. Nothing in this Agreement will or will be deemed to relieve any Party of any common law or other duty to mitigate any losses incurred by it.

Section 10.4. Insurance. Each Party, at its own expense, will maintain liability insurance (or self-insure) with respect to its activities under this Agreement in an amount consistent with industry standards. Each Party will provide a certificate of insurance (or evidence of self-insurance) evidencing such coverage to the other Party upon request. Without limiting the foregoing, during the Term and thereafter for the period of time required below, each Party will maintain on an ongoing basis comprehensive general liability insurance policies which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similar situated in such Party's territory. Not later than [] following receipt of written request from a Party, the other Party will provide to the requesting Party a certificate of insurance evidencing such insurance policies. Each Party will maintain such insurance or self-insurance coverage without interruption during the Term and for a period of [] thereafter, and, if applicable, will provide certificates or letters evidencing such insurance coverage without interruption as reasonably requested during the period of time for which such coverage must be maintained. Each Party will be provided at least [] prior written notice of any cancellation or material decrease in the other Party's insurance coverage limits described above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party's failure to maintain adequate insurance will not relieve that Party of its obligations set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Section 11.1. No Consequential or Punitive Damages. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN Section 11.2, NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES OR AFFILIATED ENTITIES WILL BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXERCISE OF ITS RIGHTS OR THE PERFORMANCE OF ITS OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, INCLUDING ANY LOST PROFITS ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, IN EACH CASE HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF ANY NOTICE OF SUCH DAMAGES.

Section 11.2. EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION. THE LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMER SET FORTH IN Section 11.1 WILL NOT APPLY TO A CLAIM: (A) FOR GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT; (B) FOR A BREACH OF ARTICLE VIII; OR (C) FOR INDEMNIFIABLE LOSSES PURSUANT TO Section 10.1 OR Section 10.2, AS APPLICABLE.

ARTICLE XII TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 12.1. Term. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this ARTICLE XII, this Agreement will become effective as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force until the last to expire Royalty Term in the Field in the Territory for all Licensed Products (the "Term").

Section 12.2. Paid-Up License Upon End of Royalty Term. Upon the expiration of the Royalty Term for a given Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, the licenses and rights of reference granted to Licensee pursuant to Section 2.1 will become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, and royalty free with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region.

Section 12.3. Early Termination.

(a) Termination for Material Breach. Upon (i) any material breach of this Agreement by Company or (ii) any material breach of this Agreement by Licensee (the Party so allegedly breaching being the "Breaching Party"), the other Party (the "Non-Breaching Party") will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement in its entirety by providing written notice to the Breaching Party within [] in the case of a payment breach, or [] in the case of any other material breach, which notice will, in each case (A) expressly reference this Section 12.3(a), (B) reasonably describe the alleged breach which is the basis of such termination, and (C) clearly state the Non-Breaching Party's intent to terminate this Agreement if the alleged breach is not cured within the applicable cure period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended if the Breaching Party provides a written plan for curing such breach to the Non-Breaching Party and uses Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan; provided, however, that no such extension will exceed [] without the written consent of the Non-Breaching Party; and (2) if the Breaching Party disputes (x) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, (y) whether such material breach is reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, or (z) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, the dispute will be resolved pursuant to ARTICLE XIII, and this Agreement may not be terminated during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure. The termination will become effective at the end of the notice period unless the Breaching Party cures such breach during such notice period; provided, however, that the Non-Breaching Party may, by notice to the Breaching Party, designate a later date for such termination in order to facilitate an orderly transition of activities relating to Licensed Products.

(b) Termination by Licensee for Convenience. Licensee may, upon [] prior written notice to Company, terminate this Agreement for convenience, without cause, and for any or no reason, on a Region-by-Region basis.

(c) Termination for Bankruptcy. This Agreement may be terminated, to the extent permitted by applicable Laws, by either Party upon the filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by the other Party; provided, however, that in the case of any involuntary bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceeding such right to terminate will only become effective if the Party subject to such proceeding consents to the involuntary bankruptcy or such proceeding is not dismissed within [] after the filing thereof.

(d) Patent Challenge. Company has the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Licensee in the event that Licensee or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees directly or indirectly challenges in a legal or administrative proceeding the patentability, enforceability or validity of any Patent Rights within the Licensed Technology (a "Patent Challenge") and does not withdraw such Patent Challenge within [] of written notice from Company, provided that, if such Patent Challenge is brought by Licensee or its Affiliates and it is withdrawn within such [] period, Licensee shall promptly reimburse Company for all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of Company in defending and responding to such Patent Challenge; provided further that this Section 12.3(d) will not apply to any Patent Challenge that (i) is first made by Licensee or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees in defense of a claim of patent infringement brought by the Company under the applicable Patent Rights or any Patent Challenge, (ii) was brought by an Acquirer prior to the effective date of such Change of Control, or (iii) is brought by any non-Affiliate Sublicensee if Licensee (A) causes such Patent Challenge to be terminated or dismissed (or in the case of ex-parte proceedings, multi-party proceedings, or other Patent Challenges in which the challenging party does not have the power to unilaterally cause the Patent Challenge to be withdrawn, causes such Sublicensee to withdraw as a party from such Patent Challenge and to cease actively assisting any other party to such Patent Challenge), or (B) terminates such Sublicensee's sublicense to the Patent Rights being challenged by the Sublicensee, in each case, within [] after the Company's notice to Licensee under this Section 12.3(d).

Section 12.4. Effects of Termination.

(a) Effects of Termination Generally. Upon termination of this Agreement in its entirety pursuant to Section 12.3, the JSC will cease to exist, the Parties' rights, licenses and obligations under this Agreement will terminate and neither Party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement from and after the effective date of termination, except as set forth in this Section 12.4; provided, however, that, if this Agreement is terminated with respect to a particular Region only, then such rights and obligations will terminate only to the extent they relate solely to the terminated Region and the JSC will continue with respect to such non-terminated Regions.

(b) Winding Down of Activities. If there are any on-going Development or Commercialization activities at termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and adopt a plan to wind-down such activities in an orderly fashion or, at Company's election, promptly transition such activities from Licensee to Company or its designee, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any Clinical Studies of the Licensed Products, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems and in compliance with all applicable Laws.

(c) License Grant to Company.

(i) Upon termination of this Agreement, Licensee, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates hereby grants (effective on delivery of the notice of termination) to Company a royalty-free, fully-paid up, worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual, transferable, exclusive license, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers under the Licensee Technology to enable Company, its Affiliates, licensees and Sublicensees to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Reversion License"); provided that, with respect to any Licensee Technology that is Controlled by Licensee and its Affiliates and Sublicensees pursuant to an agreement with a Third Party, Company will pay all amounts due under any such agreement to the extent reasonably allocable to Company's exercise of the rights granted thereunder. The foregoing Reversion License will include rights to any Local Combination Study Data so long as Company exercised its Local Combination Study Option set forth in Section 3.3(f)(i), and if Company did not exercise its Local Combination Study Option, then the foregoing Reversion License will only include rights to Local Combination Study Data if Company pays Licensee [] for the Local Combination Study within [] of receipt of invoice therefor by Company.

(ii) If Company or its or their Affiliates or Sublicensees exercises the Reversion License or the rights granted pursuant to Section 12.4(g) and this Agreement has been terminated by Licensee pursuant to Section 12.3(a), Section 12.3(b), or Section 12.3(c), Company will pay to Licensee, in consideration of the rights granted to Company, []; provided, however, that if the Parties cannot agree upon [] within [] after the effective date of such termination, then, notwithstanding Section 13.2, the matter will be resolved in accordance with Exhibit F.

(d) Accrued Obligations. Expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason will not release either Party from any obligation or liability which, on the effective date of such expiration or termination, has already accrued to the other Party or which is attributable to a period prior to such expiration or termination.

(e) Survival. This Section 12.4(e), the provisions set forth in the following Sections, as well as, to the extent applicable, any other Sections or defined terms referred to in such Sections or Articles or necessary to give them effect, will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety: Section 2.2(c), Section 3.3(g)(iii), Section 4.3 (for the [] period specified therein), Section 7.1, Section 7.6, Section 9.5, Section 12.4 and ARTICLE VI, ARTICLE VIII (for the [] period specified therein), ARTICLE X, ARTICLE XI, ARTICLE XIII and ARTICLE XIV. Furthermore, any other provisions required to interpret the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement, including applicable definitions in ARTICLE I, will survive to the extent required. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, including this all rights and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement, including this Section 12.4(e), any licenses granted under this Agreement, will terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety or solely with respect to the terminated Region, as the case may be, for any reason.

(f) Inventory.

(i) Sell-Off Period. Licensee will have the right, for a period of [] following termination of this Agreement in any Region, except in the event this Agreement is terminated by Company pursuant to Section 12.3(a), Section 12.3(c), or Section 12.3(d), to sell or otherwise dispose of any Licensed Products in such terminated Regions, as applicable, on hand at the time of such termination or in the process of Manufacturing (the “Sell-Off Period”).

(ii) Company Buy-Back. Upon expiration of any Sell-Off Period in any Region, Company will have the right to purchase all of Licensee’s and its Affiliates’ remaining inventory of Licensed Products held as of the effective date of expiration of such Sell-Off Period at a price equal to [], with such cost calculated as described in the definition of “Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost set forth in Section 1.64 (mutatis mutandis), provided that in no event will such price be less than [].

(g) Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Following the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3, as promptly as practicable after Company’s written request, Licensee will, to the extent permitted under applicable Laws and not commercially infeasible, and at Company’s sole cost and expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Company’s rights under this Section 12.4(g) was for Licensee’s material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a), in which case such transfer will be at Licensee’s sole cost and expense), assign and transfer to Company all Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products that are held by or owned by Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the effective date of termination, with respect to the terminated Region, as the case may be, and will take such actions and execute such other instruments, assignments and documents as may be necessary to effect the transfer of rights under such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Company. If applicable Laws or relevant Regulatory Authorities prevent or delay the transfer of ownership of any such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Company or if it is commercially infeasible for Licensee to do so, then Licensee will grant, and hereby does grant, to Company, its Affiliates, Sublicensees and licensees an exclusive and irrevocable right of access and right of reference to such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory or the terminated Region, as the case may be, and will reasonably cooperate with Company, at Company’s expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Company’s rights under this Section 12.4(g) was for Licensee’s material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a), in which case such transfer will be at Licensee’s sole cost and expense), to make the benefits of such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations available to Company or its designee(s). Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else herein, Company will have no rights to any Local Combination Study Data included within any such Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals unless Company’s Reversion License includes rights to such Local Combination Study Data as set forth in Section 12.4(c)(i).

(h) Return of Confidential Information. Within [] after the effective date of termination (but not expiration) of this Agreement in its entirety, each Party will, and cause its Affiliates to (i) destroy, all tangible items solely comprising, bearing or containing any Confidential Information of the other Party that are in such first Party’s or its Affiliates’ possession or Control, and provide written certification of such destruction, or (ii) prepare such tangible items of the other Party’s Confidential Information for shipment to such other Party, as such other Party may direct, at the first Party’s expense; provided, however, that, in any event, (A) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights that survive expiration or termination of this Agreement; and (B) each Party may retain one copy of the Confidential Information of the other Party for its legal archives.

(i) Rights in Bankruptcy. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement constitutes an executory contract under Section 365 of the Code for the license of “intellectual property” as defined under Section 101 of the Code and constitutes a license of “intellectual property” for purposes of any similar laws in any other country. The Parties further acknowledge that Licensee, as licensee of such rights under this Agreement, will retain and may fully exercise all of its protections, rights and elections under the Code, including, but not limited to, Section 365(n) of the Code, and any similar laws in any other country. In the event of the commencement of a bankruptcy proceeding by or against Company under the Code and any similar laws in any other country, Licensee will be entitled to a complete duplicate of (or complete access to, as appropriate) any such intellectual property and all embodiments of such intellectual property, and the same, if not already in its possession, will be promptly delivered to it (a) upon any such commencement of a bankruptcy proceeding upon its written request therefor, unless Company elects to continue to perform all of its obligations under this Agreement, or (b) if not delivered under (a) above, following the rejection of this Agreement by or on behalf of Company upon written request therefor by Licensee. All rights, powers and remedies of Licensee provided for in this Section 12.4(i) are in addition to and not in substitution for any and all other rights, powers and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including, without limitation, under the Code and any similar laws in any other country).

(j) Cooperation. Each Party will cause its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors to comply with the obligations in this Section 12.4.

ARTICLE XIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Section 13.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, any and all disputes between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will first be referred to the JSC for resolution. Should the JSC not be able to reach agreement at a duly called meeting of the JSC within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the JSC, then either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, subject to Section 5.5 with respect to the Company’s final decision-making authority on all matters to within the purview of the JSC relating to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory, either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 13.2.

Section 13.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 12.4(c) and this Section 13.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 13.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (the “Rules”) by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with each Party appointing one (1) arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within [], the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with ICC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by either Party by notice to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings [] will be held in []; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney’s fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of either Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 13.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 13.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by Laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of both Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, neither Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 13.2 will preclude either Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding. Notwithstanding the Parties' agreement to arbitrate, unless the Parties agree in writing in any particular case, claims and disputes between the Parties relating to or arising out of, or for which resolution depends in whole or in part on a determination of the interpretation, scope, validity, enforceability or infringement of, Patent Rights or of any Trademark rights relating to any Licensed Products will not be subject to arbitration under this Agreement, and the Parties may pursue whatever rights and remedies may be available to them under law or equity, including litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction, with respect to such claims and disputes.

Section 13.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN Section 13.2 (ARBITRATION). THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

ARTICLE XIV MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Assignment; Successors.

(a) Assignment.

(i) General. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of each Party under this Agreement will not be assignable, delegable, transferable, pledged or otherwise disposed of by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that either Party may assign or transfer this Agreement together with all of its rights and obligations hereunder, without such consent (but with written notice to the other Party), (A) to an Affiliate or (B) [], or in the event of its merger or consolidation, reorganization or similar transaction, subject to the assignee agreeing in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.1(a)(i) will be null and void.

(ii) Securitization. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 14.1(a)(i) or elsewhere in this Agreement, Company may assign to a Third Party its right to receive the milestone payments and the royalty payments owed under ARTICLE VI (such assignment, a "Securitization Transaction") without the prior written consent of Licensee. Further, in connection with a contemplated Securitization Transaction, Company may disclose to such Third Party the Confidential Information of Licensee (including the royalty reports contemplated under Section 6.2(c)), without the prior written consent of Licensee, to the extent reasonably necessary to enable such Third Party to evaluate the Securitization Transaction opportunity (provided that such Third Party is under obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information that are no less stringent than the terms of ARTICLE VIII), and to allow such Third Party to exercise its rights under this Section 14.1(a)(ii). As part of any consummated Securitization Transaction, Company may assign, without the prior written consent of Licensee, its right to receive the royalty reports and to conduct audits under Section 6.2(c) and Section 6.5 to the counterparty in such Securitization Transaction, and to allow such counterparty to exercise its rights under such Sections.

(b) Successors. Any permitted assignment of the rights and obligations of a Party under this Agreement will be binding on, and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against, the successors and permitted assigns of the assigning Party. The permitted assignee or transferee will assume all obligations of its assignor or transferor under this Agreement. Any assignment or attempted assignment by either Party in violation of the terms of this Section 14.1(b) will be null, void and of no legal effect.

Section 14.2. Choice of Laws. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted under the Laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Any dispute, controversy, claim or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in accordance with Section 13.2; provided, however, that all questions concerning (a) inventorship of Patent Rights under this Agreement will be determined in accordance with Section 7.1 and (b) the construction or effect of Patent Rights will be determined in accordance with the Laws of the country, Region or other jurisdiction in which the particular patent within such Patent Rights has been filed or granted, as the case may be. Any communication or proceedings resulting from disputes under this Agreement will be in English language. The Parties agree to exclude the application to this Agreement of the United Nations Conventions on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980).

Section 14.3. Notices. Any notice or report required or permitted to be given or made under this Agreement by one Party to the other will be in writing and will be deemed to have been delivered (a) upon personal delivery (upon written confirmation of receipt), (b) when received by the addressee, if sent by a reputable internationally recognized overnight courier that maintains records of delivery, or registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested and (c) in the case of notices provided by telecopy (which notice will be followed immediately by an additional notice pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above if the notice is of a default under this Agreement), upon completion of transmission, with transmission confirmed, to the addressee's facsimile machine, as follows (or at such other addresses or facsimile numbers as may have been furnished in writing by a Party to the other as provided in this Section 14.3). This Section 14.3 is not intended to govern the day-to-day business communications necessary between the Parties in performing their obligations under the terms of this Agreement.

Section 14.4. Severability. In the event that one or more provisions of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, then such provision will not render any other provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, and all other provisions will remain in full force and effect and will be enforceable, unless the provisions that have been found to be invalid or unenforceable will substantially affect the remaining rights or obligations granted or undertaken by either Party. The Parties agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision.

Section 14.5. Integration. This Agreement, the Addendum, together with all schedules and exhibits attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, whether written or oral, including, effective as of the Effective Date, the Term Sheet (provided that all information disclosed or exchanged under such agreement will be treated as Confidential Information hereunder). In the event of a conflict between the Development Plan or any schedules or attachments to this Agreement, on the one hand, and this Agreement, on the other hand, the terms of this Agreement will govern. Each Party confirms that it is not relying on any representations or warranties of the other Party except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

Section 14.6. Waivers and Amendments. The failure of any Party to assert a right under this Agreement or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition by the other Party. The exercise by any Party of any right or election under the terms or covenants herein will not preclude or prejudice any Party from exercising the same or any other right it may have under this Agreement, irrespective of any previous action or proceeding taken by the Parties hereunder. Notwithstanding the authority granted to the JSC under this Agreement, (a) no waiver will be effective unless it has been given in writing and signed by the Party giving such waiver, and (b) no provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified other than by a written document signed by authorized representatives of each Party.

Section 14.7. Independent Contractors; No Agency. Neither Party will have any responsibility for the hiring, firing or compensation of the other Party's or such other Party's Affiliates' employees or for any employee benefits with respect thereto. No employee or representative of a Party or its Affiliates will have any authority to bind or obligate the other Party for any sum or in any manner whatsoever, or to create or impose any contractual or other liability on such other Party, without such other Party's written approval. For all purposes, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, each Party's legal relationship under this Agreement to the other Party will be that of independent contractor, and the relationship between the two Parties will not constitute a partnership, joint venture, or agency, including for all tax purposes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.

Section 14.8. Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors. To the extent that this Agreement imposes obligations on Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors of a Party, such Party will cause its Affiliates and its Sublicensees and contractors to perform such obligations, as applicable. Either Party may use one or more of its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors to perform its obligations and duties or exercise its rights under this Agreement, solely to the extent permitted and as specified in this Agreement; provided, however, that (a) each such Affiliate, Sublicensees or contractor will perform any such obligations delegated to it in compliance with the applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement as if such Affiliate, Sublicensees or contractor were a party hereto, (b) the performance of any obligations of a Party's by its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors will not diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of such Party under this Agreement, and (c) subject to such Party's assignment to an Affiliate pursuant to Section 14.1, such Party will remain liable under this Agreement for the prompt payment and performance of all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to this Section 14.8, if a Party exercises its rights and performs its obligations under this Agreement through one or more of its Affiliates, "Company" will be interpreted to mean "Company or its Affiliates" and "Licensee" will be interpreted to mean "Licensee or its Affiliates" where necessary to give each Party's Affiliates the benefit of the rights provided to such Party in this Agreement and the ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 14.9. Force Majeure. Neither Party will be held liable to the other Party nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement for failure or delay performing any obligation under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts of God, embargoes, war, acts of war (whether war be declared or not), terrorism, insurrections, riots, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, or other labor disturbances (other than strikes, lockouts, or labor disturbances involving a Party's own employees), government actions, fire, earthquakes, floods, epidemics, pandemics or quarantines (a "Force Majeure Event") and for so long as such failure or delay continues to be caused by or result from such Force Majeure Event. The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date may be invoked as a Force Majeure Event for the purposes of this Agreement even though the pandemic is ongoing to the extent those effects are not reasonably foreseeable by the Parties as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party will not be excused from making payments owed hereunder due to any such Force Majeure Event affecting such Party. The affected Party will notify the other Party in writing of any Force Majeure Event that may affect its performance under this Agreement as soon as reasonably practical, will provide a good faith estimate of the period for which its failure or delay in performance under this Agreement is expected to continue based on currently available information, and will undertake reasonable efforts necessary to mitigate and overcome such Force Majeure Event and resume normal performance of its obligations hereunder as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. If the Force Majeure Event continues, then the affected Party will update such notice to the other Party on a weekly basis to provide updated summaries of its mitigation efforts and its estimates of when normal performance under this Agreement will be able to resume.

Section 14.10. No Third Party Beneficiary Rights. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and they will not be construed as conferring any rights on any other Third Party. This Agreement is not intended to and will not be construed to give any Third Party any interest or rights (including any Third Party beneficiary rights) with respect to or in connection with any agreement or provision contained herein or contemplated hereby, other than, to the extent provided in ARTICLE X, the Indemnified Parties.

Section 14.11. Non-exclusive Remedy. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and each Party retains all remedies at law or in equity, including the Parties' ability to receive legal damages or equitable relief, with respect to any breach of this Agreement. Neither Party will be required (but, for clarity, will have the right as specified in this Agreement) to terminate this Agreement due to a breach of this Agreement by the other Party.

Section 14.12. Interpretation. The Article and Section headings used herein are for reference and convenience only, and will not enter into the interpretation of this Agreement. Except as otherwise explicitly specified to the contrary, (a) references to an Article, Section or Exhibit means an Article or Section of, or a Schedule or Exhibit to this Agreement and all subsections thereof, unless another agreement is specified; (b) references in any Section to any clause are references to such clause of such Section; (c) references to any agreement, instrument, or other document in this Agreement refer to such agreement, instrument, or other document as originally executed or, if subsequently amended, replaced, or supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; (d) references to a particular Laws mean such Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto; (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively; (f) unless the context requires a different interpretation, the word "or" has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase "and/or"; (g) the terms "including," "include(s)," "such as," "e.g." and "for example" mean including the generality of any description preceding such term and will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; (h) whenever this Agreement refers to a number of days, such number will refer to calendar days unless Business Days are specified, and if a period of time is specified and dates from a given day or Business Day, or the day or Business Day of an act or event, it is to be calculated exclusive of that day or Business Day; (i) "monthly" means on a calendar month basis, (j) "quarter" or "quarterly" means on a Calendar Quarter basis; (k) "annual" or "annually" means on a Calendar Year basis; (l) "year" means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (m) references to a particular Person include such Person's successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (n) the use of any gender herein will be deemed to encompass references to either or both genders, and the use of the singular will be deemed to include the plural (and vice versa); (o) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (p) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (q) the words "hereof," "herein," "hereby" and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Exhibits or Schedules); (r) neither Party or its Affiliates will be deemed to be acting "on behalf of" the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (s) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder "agree," "consent" or "approve" or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (t) the word "will" will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "will".

Section 14.13. Further Assurances. Each Party will duly execute and deliver, or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents, and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with this Agreement or to carry out more effectively the provisions and purposes hereof, or to better assure and confirm unto such other Party its rights and remedies under this Agreement (including working collaboratively to correct and clerical, typographical, or other similar errors in this Agreement).

Section 14.14. Ambiguities; No Presumption. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement has been diligently reviewed by and negotiated by and between them, that in such negotiations each of them has been represented by competent counsel and that the final agreement contained herein, including the language whereby it has been expressed, represents the joint efforts of the Parties hereto and their counsel. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement or any provision hereof, no presumption will apply against any Party as being responsible for the wording or drafting of this Agreement or any such provision, and ambiguities, if any, in this Agreement will not be construed against any Party under the rule of construction, irrespective of which Party may be deemed to have authored the ambiguous provision.

Section 14.15. Execution in Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if both Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

Section 14.16. Export Control. This Agreement is made subject to any restrictions required by applicable Laws concerning the export of products or technical information from the U.S. or other countries which may be imposed upon or related to the Parties from time to time. Each Party agrees that it will not export, directly or indirectly, any technology licensed to it or other technical information acquired from the other Party under this Agreement or any products using such technical information to a location or in a manner that at the time of export requires an export license or other governmental approval, except in compliance with U.S. export Laws and regulations.

Section 14.17. LianBio Guaranty.

(a) Payment Guaranty. LianBio hereby [] guarantees [] the due and punctual payment of all fees, and any and all other sums and charges payable by Licensee under this Agreement. The obligations of LianBio under this Section 14.17 (LianBio Guaranty) will not be affected by the failure of Company to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against Licensee under the provisions of this Agreement or otherwise. LianBio further agrees that its guarantee constitutes a guarantee of payment when due and not of collection. []

(b) Exclusivity Guaranty. For so long as an entity is a LianBio Affiliate and is subject to certain obligations under Section 2.9(a), LianBio agrees to direct, and agrees to cause (whether directly or indirectly) such LianBio Affiliate to, vote its equity (whether directly or indirectly) in such LianBio Affiliate and to cause (whether directly or indirectly) any director it has a right to designate in such LianBio Affiliate to cause such LianBio Affiliate to, comply with, and not breach or otherwise default under, any such obligation under Section 2.9(a).

[Remainder of this page intentionally blank.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each Party has caused this Agreement to be duly executed by its authorized representative under seal, in duplicate on the Effective Date.

1. If the Parties cannot agree upon [] of the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement, then either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with this Exhibit F.
2. The Parties will select and agree upon a mutually acceptable independent Third Party expert who is neutral, disinterested and impartial, and has significant relevant experience in the Development and Commercialization of pharmaceutical products (the “Expert”). If the Parties are unable to mutually agree upon an Expert within [] following the delivery of notice by one Party to the other of a request for resolution under this Exhibit F, then upon request by either Party, the Expert will be an arbitrator appointed by the Judicial and Mediation Services. The date on which the Expert is selected or appointed, as applicable, will be the “Arbitration Commencement Date.” Each Party will, within [] following the Arbitration Commencement Date, prepare and deliver to both the Expert and the other Party its proposed terms to resolve the disputed matter (i.e., [] for the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement) and a memorandum (the “Supporting Memorandum”) in support thereof. The Party that submitted the dispute for arbitration will also provide the Expert and the other Party with a copy of this Agreement. Within [] after receipt of the other Party’s Supporting Memorandum, each Party may submit to the Expert (with a copy to the other Party) a rebuttal to the other Party’s Supporting Memorandum (a “Rebuttal”), which may include a revision, marked to show changes, of either Party’s proposed terms. Neither Party may have communications (either written or oral) with the Expert other than (a) prior to the Arbitration Commencement Date, for the sole purpose of engaging the Expert, and (b) upon or following the Arbitration Commencement Date, solely as expressly permitted in this Exhibit F.
3. Within [] after the Expert’s receipt of each Party’s Rebuttal (or the expiration of the period for the Parties to submit a Rebuttal, if earlier), the Expert will select, between the proposals provided by the Parties, the proposal that the Expert believes most accurately reflects [] for the Reversion License pursuant to Section 12.4(c) of the Agreement (the “Selected Agreement”). The Expert will not have the authority to modify a proposal initially submitted by a Party. The decision of the Expert will be the sole, exclusive, binding and unappealable remedy for the dispute at issue, and the Selected Agreement will become a binding and enforceable agreement between the Parties, effective as of the date of the Expert’s selection thereof.
4. The Expert will have reasonable discretion to request additional information, hold a hearing, and extend the timeframe for reaching a decision regarding the dispute at issue. The Expert’s fees and expenses will be paid by the Party whose proposal is not selected by the Expert. Each Party will otherwise bear and pay its own expenses incurred in connection with any proceedings under this Exhibit F.

AMENDMENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT

This AMENDMENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”), entered into as of September 23, 2020 (the “Amendment Effective Date”), is entered into by and among LianBio, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”), LianBio Licensing LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware and a wholly-owned subsidiary of LianBio (“Licensee”), and Navire Pharma, Inc. (formerly known as PTP Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), a Delaware corporation (“Company”). LianBio, Licensee, and Company are each referred to herein individually as a “Party”, and collectively as the “Parties.”

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, the Parties entered into an Exclusive License Agreement, dated August 9th, 2020 (the “License Agreement”) for the Development, Manufacture, and Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory;

WHEREAS, LianBio is undergoing a financing involving the sale of preferred shares of LianBio (the “Financing”); and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to amend the License Agreement to defer the due date of the upfront payment payable by Licensee to Company thereunder until after the closing of the Financing;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used in this Amendment but not otherwise defined will have the meaning as defined in the License Agreement.

2. Upfront Payment. Section 6.1(a) of the License Agreement is hereby amended and replaced in its entirety as follows:

Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee will pay Company a non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off payment in the amount of [], which upfront payment will be due and payable to Company upon the earlier to occur of (i) within [] following the consummation of the [] preferred equity financing of LianBio after the Effective Date, in a single transaction or series of related transactions, which raises gross proceeds to LianBio of at least [], and (ii) []. Licensee shall promptly notify Company of the occurrence of the consummation of [] such financing.

3. No Breach and No Late Payment Interest. For clarity, if licensee makes the upfront payment to Company in the amount and within the time frame provided in Section 2 of this Amendment, Licensee shall be deemed to have timely fulfilled its obligations in relation to the upfront payment under the License Agreement, and Licensee will not be required to pay any late payment interest on such upfront payment.

4. No Other Changes. All other original terms and conditions of the License Agreement, except as specifically amended herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

5. Execution in Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if the Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (pdf) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

This SECOND AMENDMENT TO THE EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT (this “Amendment”), entered into as of September 28, 2020 (the “Amendment Effective Date”), is entered into by and among LianBio, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”), LianBio Licensing LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware and a wholly-owned subsidiary of LianBio (“Licensee”), and Navire Pharma, Inc. (formerly known as PTP Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), a Delaware corporation (“Company”). LianBio, Licensee, and Company are each referred to herein individually as a “Party”, and collectively as the “Parties.”

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, the Parties entered into an Exclusive License Agreement, dated August 9th, 2020 as amended by the Amendment to the Exclusive License Agreement dated September 28, 2020, (together, the “License Agreement”) for the Development, Manufacture, and Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to amend the License Agreement to replace Exhibit A to the License Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms. Capitalized terms used in this Amendment but not otherwise defined will have the meaning as defined in the License Agreement.
2. New Exhibit A. Exhibit A of the License Agreement is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the attached Exhibit A.
3. No Other Changes. All other original terms and conditions of the License Agreement, except as specifically amended herein, shall remain in full force and effect.
4. Execution in Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if the Parties have not executed the same counterpart. STRATEGIC COLLABORATION AGREEMENT

This STRATEGIC COLLABORATION AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is entered into as of November 17, 2020 (the “Effective Date”), by and between LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Company”) and Pfizer Inc., a Delaware corporation, having an address of 235 East 42nd Street, New York, New York 10017 (“Pfizer”). The Company and Pfizer each may be referred to herein individually as a “Party” or collectively as the “Parties.” All attached appendices and exhibits are a part of this Agreement.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Company is an innovative biopharmaceutical company specialized in the in-license, research, Development and Commercialization of pharmaceutical and biological products in the Territory;

WHEREAS, Pfizer is one of the world’s premier biopharmaceutical companies and has extensive expertise and experience in the Development and Commercialization of pharmaceutical and biological products; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to enter into a strategic collaborative arrangement in the in-license, Development and Commercialization of certain pharmaceutical and biological products in the Territory.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this Agreement, the following capitalized terms will have the following meanings:

“Action” means any claim, action, cause of action or suit (whether in contract or tort or otherwise), litigation (whether at law or in equity, whether civil or criminal), assessment, arbitration, investigation, hearing, charge, complaint, demand, notice or proceeding of, to, from, by or before any Governmental Authority.

“Aggregate Contingent Payment Cap” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.5.2(c).

“Agreement” has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

“Affiliate” means, with respect to any Person, any Person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such first Person, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition, “control” means (a) direct or indirect ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the stock or shares having the right to vote for the election of directors of such Person (or if the jurisdiction where such Person is domiciled prohibits foreign ownership of such entity, the maximum foreign ownership interest permitted under such Laws; provided, however, that such ownership interest provides actual control over such Person), (b) status as a general partner in any partnership, or (c) the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct, or cause the direction of, the management or policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. Affiliates of a Party shall exclude Persons who are financial investors of such Party or under common control of such financial investors other than such Party and its subsidiary entities.

“Alliance Manager” has the meaning set forth in Section 5.2.1.

“Anti-Corruption Laws” include all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations, including the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (the “FCPA”), the United Kingdom Bribery Act 2010 (the “U.K. Bribery Act”), the Criminal Law and Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the PRC, the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance of Hong Kong, and laws implementing the Convention on Combating Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions, and the local laws and regulations of any countries in which payments will be provided or Development will be conducted under this Agreement.

“Breaching Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 9.2.1.

“Business Day” means any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which the banks in New York, Beijing, Hong Kong or Cayman Islands are open for business.

“Calendar Quarter” means each of the three month periods ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of any Calendar Year; provided, however: (a) the first Calendar Quarter of the Term will extend from the Effective Date to the end of the Calendar Quarter in which the Effective Date occurs; and (b) the last Calendar Quarter will extend from the beginning of the Calendar Quarter in which this Agreement expires or terminates until the effective date of such expiration or termination.

“Calendar Year” means, each twelve (12)-month period commencing on January 1 and ending on December 31.

“Cessation Event” has the meaning set forth in Section 3.2.4.

“Clinical Study” means a study in which human subjects or patients are dosed with a drug, whether approved or investigational.

“Commercialization”, “Commercializing” or “Commercialize” means any and all activities related to the pre-marketing, launching, marketing, promotion (including advertising and detailing), labeling, bidding and listing, pricing and reimbursement, distribution, storage, handling, offering for sale, selling, having sold, importing and exporting for sale, having imported and exported for sale, distribution, having distributed, customer service and support, and post-marketing safety surveillance and reporting of a product, but not including Manufacturing.

“Commercialization Agreement” has the meaning set forth in Section 3.2.3.

“Commercialization Transaction” has the meaning set forth in Section 3.1.

“Commercially Reasonable Efforts” means, (a) with respect to Pfizer, those reasonable, good faith efforts to accomplish any objective as Pfizer would normally use to accomplish a similar objective under similar circumstances, and (b) with respect to Company, those reasonable, good faith efforts to accomplish any objective that are commonly used by a company in the industry of a similar size and profile as Company to accomplish a similar objective under similar circumstances. With respect to any efforts by Company to Develop or Manufacture a Product, Company will exercise efforts commensurate with those used by a company in the industry of a similar size and profile as Company with respect to a product at a similar stage in its development or product life and of a similar market and profitability potential to the applicable Product and taking into account all relevant factors including the intellectual property protection of the product, product labeling or anticipated labeling, market potential, financial return, medical and clinical considerations, regulatory environments and competitive market conditions, market exclusivity, and other technical legal, scientific, medical or commercial factors that such a company would reasonably deem to be relevant.

“Company” has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

“Company Bank Account” means a bank account designated in writing by the Company, as may be updated from time to time by one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice from the Company to Pfizer.

“Confidential Information” means all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information (including any tangible materials embodying any of the foregoing) of the disclosing Party, its Affiliates or any third parties that the disclosing Party has a business or strategic relationship with provided or disclosed to the other Party or any of its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement; provided, however, that Confidential Information will not include information that:

(i) has been published by a Third Party or otherwise is or hereafter becomes part of the public domain by public use, publication, general knowledge or the like through no breach of this Agreement on the part of the receiving Party;

(ii) has been in the receiving Party’s possession prior to disclosure by the disclosing Party hereunder, and not through a prior disclosure by the disclosing Party, without any obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information (as evidenced by the receiving Party’s or such Affiliate’s written records or other competent evidence);

(iii) is subsequently received by the receiving Party from a Third Party who is not known by the receiving Party to be under an obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing Party under any agreement between such Third Party and the disclosing Party; or

(iv) has been independently developed by or for the receiving Party without reference to, or use or disclosure of, the disclosing Party’s Confidential Information (as evidenced by the receiving Party’s or such Affiliate’s written records or other competent evidence).

“Company Indemnified Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 8.2.

“Contingent Payments” has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1.3.

“Control” or “Controlled” means, with respect to any Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right, the legal authority or right (whether by ownership, license (other than a license granted pursuant to this Agreement) or otherwise) of a Person or its Affiliate, to grant access, a license or a sublicense of or under such Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right, without (a) breaching the terms of any agreement with a Third Party and (b) paying any consideration to any Third Party, except for that which a Party in-licenses and under which the other Party elects to take a sublicense and agrees to make the associated payments, which will be considered under the Control of such Party.

“Debarred/Excluded” means any Person becoming debarred or suspended under 21 U.S.C. §335(a) or (b), the subject of a conviction described in Section 306 of the FFDCA, excluded, or having previously been excluded, from a federal or Governmental health care program, debarred from federal contracting, convicted of or pled nolo contendere to any felony, or to any federal or state legal violation (including misdemeanors) relating to prescription drug products or fraud, the subject to OFAC sanctions or on the OFAC list of specially designated nationals, or the subject of any similar sanction of any Regulatory Authority in the Territory.

ARTICLE 2 OPTED-IN PRODUCTS

2.1 Product Sourcing.

2.1.1 Until the date on which [], the Company will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to identify and acquire rights to Develop and Commercialize Products in the Territory (such efforts, the “Sourcing Activities”).

2.1.2 On a Product-by-Product basis, in the event that the Company, in its sole discretion, desires to seek a Third Party partner for the Commercialization in the Territory of any existing or potential Product, Pfizer shall have an option to opt-in to a collaboration with respect to such Product subject to the terms and conditions of this Article 2.

2.2 Opt-In Exercise Mechanism; Disclosure of Information.

2.2.1 Opt-In Notice. The Company may, in its sole discretion, provide written notice to Pfizer with respect any Product (an “Opt-In Notice”) provided that the Company must provide an Opt-In Notice prior to engaging in any outreach to a Third Party regarding any potential Development or Commercialization opportunity with respect to any Product. Such Opt-In Notice shall be accompanied by information with respect to: [] (collectively, the “Opt-In Data Package”), provided that the Opt-In Data Package shall not include any Excluded Information. Exhibit A hereto shall include a list of all Opt-In Notices provided and the date of such Opt-In Notices, and shall be updated from time to time by the chairperson of the JCC in accordance with Section 5.1.2.

2.2.2 Opt-In Confirmation. Within [] after Pfizer’s receipt of the relevant Opt-In Notice and the Opt-In Data Package, Pfizer shall have an option to opt-in to a collaboration (“Opt In”) with respect to such Product by providing written notice to the Company (an “Opt-In Confirmation”). Upon the Company’s receipt of an Opt-In Confirmation, such opted-in Product shall thereafter be an “Opted-In Product” and subject to Pfizer’s confidentiality and non-use obligations as set forth in Article 10, the Company shall make available to Pfizer the Excluded Information (and other such information as Pfizer may reasonably request) with respect to such Opted-In Product. Exhibit A hereto shall include a list of all Opted-In Products and the date of the relevant Opt-In Confirmation and shall be updated from time to time by the chairperson of the JCC in accordance with Section 5.1.2.

2.2.3 Expiration of Opt-In. In the event Pfizer does not Opt In in accordance with Section 2.2.2, the Company shall be free to pursue such Product on its own or with a Third Party.

2.3 Pfizer Proposed Product.

2.3.1 Pfizer Proposal Notice. Pfizer may, in its sole discretion, identify and propose to the Company in writing potential assets of interest to Pfizer for the Company to pursue and acquire rights to Develop and Commercialize such potential asset (such written notice, a “Pfizer Proposal Notice”). The Pfizer Proposal Notice or any communication, proposal or notice by Pfizer to the Company regarding such potential assets of interest shall not include any Excluded Information and Pfizer shall not disclose any additional information to the Company unless and until the Company requests such additional information in writing. The Company may, in its sole discretion, in conjunction with Pfizer (subject to Pfizer’s agreement) or on its own, pursue the acquisition of rights to Develop and Commercialize such Pfizer Proposed Product, in which case the Company shall provide a written notice thereof to Pfizer (“Pfizer Proposed Product Confirmation”) within [] of receipt of the Pfizer Proposal Notice and such asset(s) of interest shall thereafter be a “Pfizer Proposed Product”. Exhibit A hereto shall include a list of all Pfizer Proposed Products and the date of the relevant Pfizer Proposal Notice, and shall be updated from time to time by the chairperson of the JCC in accordance with Section 5.1.2.

2.3.2 Pfizer Proposed Product Deadline. In the event the Company has not acquired the rights to research, Develop and Commercialize a Pfizer Proposed Product in the Territory within [] of Pfizer’s receipt of the Proposed Product Confirmation (the “Pfizer Proposed Product Deadline”), the asset will no longer be a Pfizer Proposed Product, provided that, if Company is in active negotiations related to the Pfizer Proposed Product at any point within the [] preceding the Pfizer Proposed Product Deadline, the Company may, in its sole discretion, extend the Pfizer Proposed Product Deadline for up to [] by sending written notice of such extension to Pfizer. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties may mutually agree to extend the Pfizer Proposed Product Deadline at any time.

2.3.3 Opted-In Product. In the event Pfizer provides a Pfizer Proposal Notice and the Company subsequently acquires the rights to research, Develop and Commercialize such Pfizer Proposed Product in the Territory, such Pfizer Proposed Product shall be an Opted-In Product immediately and without further action by the Parties on the date when the Company acquires the rights to research, Develop and Commercialize such Pre-Transacted Product, and Sections 2.4, 2.5 and 2.6 shall apply in all respects from and after such date.

2.4 Development of Opt-In Product. With respect to each Opted-In Product, the Company will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to conduct the Development of each Opted-In Product through the completion of Registration Trials in the PRC and any Region to the extent Company, in its sole discretion, has decided to Develop the Opted-In Product in such Region.

2.5 Use of Cash; Reimbursement Obligations

2.5.1 First Opted-In Product. In connection with the confirmation of the first Opted-In Product,

(a) the Company shall provide Pfizer with a written invoice of Eligible Costs incurred with respect to such Opted-In Product to date;

(b) upon the Company’s delivery of such invoice, [] of the Upfront Payment (as defined below) as is equal to [], become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such Upfront Payment as it so chooses;

(c) within [] of its receipt of the Company’s invoice, Pfizer will pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds the remaining [] of the Eligible Costs incurred to date with respect to such Opted-In Product, up to an amount of [] (the “First Opt-In Contingent Payment Cap”);

(d) on a [] basis thereafter, the Company shall invoice Pfizer [] for any additional Eligible Costs incurred with respect to such Opted-In Product during such [] and (i) to the extent any portion of the Upfront Payment remains restricted, [] shall immediately, and with no further action required from either Party, become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such Upfront Payment as it so chooses and (ii) Pfizer shall, within [] of its receipt of such invoice, pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds an amount equal to the remaining [] of such Eligible Costs, provided, however, that the amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.5.1(c) and this Section 2.5.1(d)(ii) shall in no event exceed the First Opt-In Contingent Payment Cap.

2.5.2 Second Opted-In Product. In connection with the confirmation of the second Opted-In Product,

(a) the Company shall provide Pfizer with a written invoice of Eligible Costs incurred with respect to such Opted-In Product to date;

(b) within [] of its receipt of the Company's invoice, Pfizer shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds the Second Opt-In Payment, and [] the Second Opt-In Payment equal to [], become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such Second Opt-In Payment as it so chooses;

(c) within [] days of its receipt of the Company's invoice, Pfizer will pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds [] of the Eligible Costs incurred to date with respect to such Opted-In Product, up to an amount of [] (the "Second Opt-In Contingent Payment Cap") and, together with the First Opt-In Contingent Payment Cap, the "Aggregate Contingent Payment Cap");

(d) on a [] basis thereafter, the Company shall invoice Pfizer [] for any additional Eligible Costs incurred with respect to such Opted-In Product during such [] and (i) to the extent any portion of the Second Opt-In Payment remains restricted, [] shall immediately, and with no further action required from either Party, become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such Second Opt-In Payment as it so chooses and (ii) Pfizer shall, within sixty [] of its receipt of such invoice, pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds an amount equal to [] of such Eligible Costs, provided, however, that the amounts paid pursuant to Section 2.5.2(c) and this Section 2.5.2(d)(ii) shall in no event exceed the Second Opt-In Contingent Payment Cap.

2.5.3 Future Opted-In Products. With respect to any Opted-In Products after the second Opted-In Product, to the extent and for so long as any portion of the Upfront Payment or the Second Opted-In Payment remains restricted or to the extent that Contingent Payments made to date pursuant to Sections 2.5.1(c), 2.5.1(d)(ii), 2.5.2(c) and 2.5.2(d)(ii) fall below the Aggregate Contingent Payment Cap:

(a) the Company shall invoice Pfizer in arrears for any additional Eligible Costs incurred to date with respect to such Opted-In Product and (i) [] the Upfront Payment or the Second Opt-In Payment equal to [], become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such funds as it so chooses and (ii) Pfizer shall, within [] days of its receipt of such invoice, pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds an amount equal to the [] of such Eligible Costs; and

(b) on a [] basis thereafter, the Company shall invoice Pfizer [] for any additional Eligible Costs incurred with respect to such Opted-In Product during such Calendar Quarter and (i) [] shall immediately, and with no further action required from either Party, become unrestricted and the Company shall thereafter be free to use the unrestricted portion of such funds as it so chooses and (ii) Pfizer shall, within [] of its receipt of such invoice, pay to the Company by wire transfer of immediately available funds an amount equal to the remaining [] of such Eligible Costs.

2.5.4 Termination. This Section 2.5 shall terminate with respect to each Opted-In Product when and if the Company consummates a Third Party Commercialization Agreement.

2.6 Joint Steering Committees

2.6.1 Overview. As soon as practicable, but no later than thirty [] after the Company's receipt of an Opt-In Confirmation or, if applicable, a Pfizer Proposed Product Confirmation, the Parties shall form a joint steering committee for such Opted-In Product (each, a "Joint Steering Committee" or "JSC") to serve as a forum for communication and discussions with regards to the strategies and plans for the Development and Commercialization of such Opted-In Product. Such JSC shall terminate at the end of the Term or, if earlier, upon the execution of a Collaboration Agreement for such Opted-In Product. For clarity, the JSC shall be an advisory body only and shall have no decision-making authority.

2.6.2 Specific Responsibilities. In addition to its overall responsibility to provide non-binding, advisory services to the Company and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to their respective activities under this Agreement, the JSC will:

- (a) provide support and guidance with respect to, and share relevant updates and information regarding, the Company's Development and Commercialization of the applicable Opted-In Product in the Territory;
- (b) review and discuss proposed changes to the Development plan and budget in accordance with Section 3.5.2(c); and
- (c) perform such other advisory functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as mutually agreed between the Parties.

2.6.3 Composition

(a) Each JSC will be comprised []. Each representative shall be an employee of the Party that appointed him or her (or an employee of an Affiliate of such Party), shall have sufficient seniority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and shall have knowledge and expertise that are relevant to the applicable Opted-In Product. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that [] otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which written notice may be provided by email to the other Party's Alliance Manager. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 10.

(b) []. The chairperson will be responsible for (a) calling meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing and issuing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material discussions had and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within thirty (30) days after each JSC meeting.

(c) Either Party may, [], invite other representatives of the Company or Pfizer, or their respective Affiliates, or relevant Third Parties to attend meetings as non-voting observers; provided, however, that such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 10 of this Agreement.

2.6.4 Meeting; Reports.

(a) Each JSC will hold meetings at least [] during the Term for so long as such JSC exists, unless the Parties mutually agree in writing to a different frequency. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] prior written notice to the other Party if such Party [] that a significant matter must be discussed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed discussion on the matters to be discussed no later than [] prior to the special meeting. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may mutually agree.

(b) The Alliance Managers will work with the chairperson of the JSC to prepare and circulate agendas at least [] prior to each JSC meeting and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes circulated in accordance with Section 2.6.4(b) will be deemed approved unless one or more member of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes [].

2.6.5 Decision-making. The Parties will endeavor in good faith and in accordance with this Agreement to reach consensus with respect to all matters within the JSC's remit. No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least one representative of each Party on the JSC is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided. For clarity, because the JSC shall be an advisory body only and shall have no decision-making authority, any and all decisions made by the JSC shall be advisory only and shall not be binding on the Parties.

2.7 Pfizer Services. The Parties will discuss at the first meeting of the JCC the potential for Pfizer to perform, at no additional cost to the Company, certain services in support of the Company's Sourcing Activities and Development activities, including without limitation advising the Company on regulatory strategy, commercial, pricing, payer, and market access matters related to the Products. The Parties may thereafter mutually agree to negotiate and enter into (between themselves or their designated Affiliates) a Pfizer Services Agreement (the "Pfizer Services Agreement") setting forth the specific terms and conditions relating to the services to be provided by Pfizer (the "Pfizer Services"), provided that [].

ARTICLE 3 RIGHT OF FIRST NEGOTIATION

3.1 Overview. On an Opted-In Product-by-Opted-In Product basis and for [], at any time after Pfizer Opts In to a Product and prior to the ROFN Exercise Deadline (the "Exercise Period"), Pfizer shall have a right of first negotiation (a "ROFN") with respect to (a) the exclusive rights to Develop and Commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory or (b) in the event that the relevant upstream license for any Opted-In Product grants to the Company non-exclusive rights to Develop and Commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory, such non-exclusive rights to Develop and Commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory (such transaction, a "Commercialization Transaction"), provided that, in either case, any such ROFN shall be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions of the relevant contractual arrangements between the Company and the relevant upstream licensor of such Opted-In Product.

3.2 Exercise Mechanism.

3.2.1 ROFN Trigger. In the event the Company desires to sell, license, sublicense or otherwise enter into a co-promotion/co-commercialization, profit share, joint venture or asset sale arrangement with respect to the Development and/or Commercialization rights in the Territory for any Opted-In Product for which Pfizer has not exercised its ROFN, prior to [], the Company shall provide a written notice to Pfizer (the “ROFN Deadline Notice”). Upon receipt of the ROFN Deadline Notice, Pfizer will have [] to provide the Company with the ROFN Exercise Notice for the Opted-In Product (the end of such [] period, the “ROFN Exercise Deadline”).

3.2.2 Exercise Mechanism. During the Exercise Period, Pfizer may request additional information about the Company and the Opted-In Product for Pfizer to evaluate whether it desires to exercise the ROFN Option and enter into a Commercialization Agreement, and Company will consider such requests [], provided that the Company shall have the sole discretion in determining what information to provide to Pfizer. Pfizer may exercise its ROFN Option with respect to any Opted-In Product by providing written notice to the Company (a “ROFN Exercise Notice”) at any time during the Exercise Period.

3.2.3 Exclusive Negotiation Period. If Pfizer exercises its ROFN Option during the Exercise Period, then following the date of Company’s receipt of the ROFN Exercise Notice, the Parties shall exclusively and diligently negotiate (a) for a period of [] the terms of a non-binding term sheet and (b) for a further [] following the execution of a non-binding term sheet, the terms of a definitive agreement for Pfizer to obtain the rights to Develop and Commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory (such agreement, a “Commercialization Agreement”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties may mutually agree in writing to waive the execution of a non-binding term sheet, in which case the [] exclusive negotiation period for the Commercialization Agreement shall commence from such date.

3.2.4 Cessation Event. If (a) Pfizer does not timely exercise its ROFN Option, (b) a non-binding term sheet is not executed by the Parties prior to the expiration of the [] negotiation period (unless the Parties have mutually agreed to waive this requirement), or (c) the Parties do not negotiate and execute a Commercialization Agreement for the Opted-In Product prior to the expiration of the [] negotiation period, the Company will, subject to the following provisions of this section, be free to pursue any transaction with a Third Party with respect to the relevant Opted-In Product(s) (each of the above, a “Cessation Event” and such transaction with a Third Party, a “Third Party Commercialization Agreement”).

3.3 Right of Last Refusal.

3.3.1 ROLR. If, following a Cessation Event, the Company obtains a written, bona fide offer from a Third Party with respect to any rights to Develop and Commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory whether by way of license, sub-license, co-promotion/co-commercialization agreement, profit share, joint venture or asset sale, the Company shall provide Pfizer with a written notice (the “ROLR Trigger Notice”) containing the material terms of such bona fide offer and Pfizer shall have a right of last refusal (“ROLR”) to enter into a Commercialization Transaction for the Opted-In Product on terms no less favorable than the terms set forth in a bona fide offer by the Third Party, taken as a whole.

3.3.2 ROLR Exercise. Pfizer may exercise its ROLR by providing written notice to the Company within [] of its receipt of the ROLR Trigger Notice.

3.3.3 Consummation of Commercialization Transaction. If Pfizer exercises its ROLR within [] of its receipt of the ROLR Exercise Notice, the Parties (or their designated Affiliates) shall negotiate exclusively in good faith to reach agreement on any other terms necessary to execute and consummate a Commercialization Transaction on terms no less favorable than the terms set forth in a bona fide offer by the Third Party within thirty (30) days of the ROLR Exercise Notice.

3.4 Third Party Transaction.

3.4.1 If within [] after the Cessation Event, the Company has not entered into a transaction with a Third Party with respect to an Opted-In Product or if the Company is unable to secure a bona fide offer from a Third Party with terms more favorable than the terms set forth in the best offer from Pfizer, as determined by an independent committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, prior to the Cessation Event for such Opted-In Product (the “Pfizer’s Best Offer”), Pfizer shall have the right to restore the ROFN Option for the Opted-In Product or enter into a Commercialization Transaction for such Opted-In Product on terms as set forth in Pfizer’s Best Offer. In the event Pfizer restores the ROFN Option, Section 3.2.3 shall apply.

3.4.2 If, following a Cessation Event, the Company enters into a Third Party Commercialization Agreement with respect to any rights to develop and commercialize such Opted-In Product in the Territory whether by way of license, sub-license, co-promotion/co-commercialization agreement, profit share, joint venture or asset sale, such Product shall no longer be an Opted-In Product and the Company shall not be permitted to invoice pursuant to Section 2.5 with respect to such Opted-In Product following the date of such Third Party Commercialization Agreement.

3.5 Commercialization Agreement. Each Commercialization Agreement shall be negotiated by the Parties on a Product-by-Product basis and shall include the following terms:

3.5.1 Financial Consideration. Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties, financial consideration to be paid by Pfizer to the Company under each Commercialization Agreement shall include (a) an upfront payment, (b) milestone payments and (c) royalty payments.

3.5.2 Development.

(a) the Company shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to complete all Development necessary to support regulatory approval of the relevant Opted-In Product in the Territory;

(b) the Parties shall mutually agree on an initial Development plan and budget to be appended to each Commercialization Agreement;

(c) the Parties may review and discuss proposed changes to the Development plan and budget via the JSC, but in the event of a disagreement between the Parties, the Company shall have final decision-making authority, subject to certain matters that will require consensus of the parties, including any material deviations from the mutually agreed Development plan and budget and other matters to be defined in the Commercialization Agreement; and

(d) Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties, the Company shall be responsible for [] costs associated with the Development of the relevant Opted-In Product and Pfizer shall not be obligated to incur [] costs in connection with the Development of such Opted-In Product, other than the Upfront Payment, the Second Opt-In Payment and the Contingent Payments as set forth in Section 2.5 and 4.1 hereto.

3.5.3 Regulatory Matters. Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties, Pfizer will be responsible, at its cost, for preparing and submitting, with the reasonable assistance of the Company, the application for regulatory approval of the relevant Opted-In Product in the Territory.

3.5.4 Commercialization. Unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties, Pfizer will be responsible for Commercialization activities in the Territory.

3.5.5 Others. The Parties will further discuss and mutually agree on (a) which Party will be responsible for the manufacture and supply of the Opted-In Product, (b) the Parties’ respective responsibilities with respect to preparation and submission of the application for regulatory approval of the Opted-In Product in the Territory and (c) all matters relating to ownership and control of intellectual property relating to the Opted-In Product.

3.6 Termination. This Article 3 shall irrevocably terminate on [].

ARTICLE 4

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

4.1 Consideration.

4.1.1 After January 1, 2021 but on or before January 15, 2021, Pfizer shall pay to the Company by wire transfer of freely available funds Twenty Million U.S. Dollars ($20,000,000) (the “Upfront Payment”) to the Company Bank Account. The Company may not use the Upfront Payment until it becomes unrestricted pursuant to Section 2.5.

4.1.2 Pfizer shall pay to the Company [] in accordance with Section 2.5.2(b) (the “Second Opt-In Payment”) by wire transfer of freely available funds to the Company Bank Account. The Company may not use the Second Opt-In Payment until it becomes unrestricted pursuant to Section 2.5.

4.1.3 Subject to the Aggregate Contingent Payment Cap, Pfizer shall make payments to the Company in accordance with Sections 2.5.1(c), 2.5.1(d)(ii), 2.5.2(c), 2.5.2(d)(ii) and 2.5.3 (the “Contingent Payments”) by wire transfer of freely available funds to the Company Bank Account.

4.2 Withholding Taxes.

4.2.1 Withholding Amounts. Where any sum due to be paid to Company hereunder is subject to any withholding or similar tax, the Parties shall use their Commercially Reasonable Efforts to do all such acts and things and to sign all such documents as will enable them to take advantage of any applicable double taxation agreement or treaty. If there is no applicable double taxation agreement or treaty, or if an applicable double taxation agreement or treaty reduces but does not eliminate such withholding or similar tax, Pfizer shall [].

4.2.2 Withholding Actions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge and agree that if Pfizer (or its assignee pursuant to Section 11.4) is required by Law to withhold taxes in respect of any amount payable under this Agreement, and if such withholding obligation arises as a result of any action taken by Pfizer or its Affiliate or successor or assignee, including without limitation an assignment of this Agreement as permitted under Section 11.4, a change in tax residency of Pfizer, or payments arise or are deemed to arise through a branch of Pfizer and such withholding taxes exceed the amount of withholding taxes that would have been applicable if such action had not occurred (each a “Pfizer Withholding Tax Action”), then, any such amount payable shall be increased to take into account such increased withholding taxes as may be necessary so that, after making all required withholdings Company (or its assignee pursuant to Section 11.4) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such Pfizer Withholding Tax Action occurred. Company shall (a) use its Commercially Reasonable Efforts to obtain an exemption of such withheld amounts to the extent practicable under Law and (b) cooperate with Pfizer to obtain a reduction or refund of such withheld amounts.

4.3 VAT. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all payments due under this Agreement are exclusive of value added taxes (the “VAT”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Pfizer shall be responsible for all VAT and shall pay the same to Company along with the corresponding payment.

4.4 Other Taxes. Unless explicitly stated otherwise in this Agreement, each Party shall be responsible for its own tax liabilities under Laws arising from or in relation to the execution and performance of this Agreement (including any sales taxes, consumption taxes, transfer taxes, use taxes, stamp duty, local surcharges, documentary, registration and other similar taxes that are imposed with respect to the payments or the related transfer of rights or other property pursuant to this Agreement if applicable).

4.5 Delay Due to SAFE Restriction. To the extent that any payment due to Company is delayed by the State Foreign Exchange Administration of the PRC or its authorized banks in the PRC (“SAFE”) as a result of applying the PRC foreign exchange control rules, each of Company and Pfizer shall use its Commercially Reasonable Efforts to obtain approval or clearance from SAFE for such payment as soon as practicable.

4.6 Additional Tax or VAT Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) if an action (including but not limited to any assignment or sublicense of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, or any failure to comply with applicable Laws or filing or record retention requirements) by a Party leads to the imposition of withholding tax liability or VAT on the other Party that would not have been imposed in the absence of such action or in an increase in such liability above the liability that would have been imposed in the absence of such action, then the sum payable by that Party (in respect of which such deduction or withholding is required to be made) shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that the other Party receives a sum equal to the sum which it would have received had no such action occurred, (ii) otherwise, the sum payable by that Party (in respect of which such deduction or withholding is required to be made) shall be made to the other Party after deduction of the amount required to be so deducted or withheld, which deducted or withheld amount shall be remitted in accordance with applicable law.

JOINT COLLABORATION COMMITTEE; ALLIANCE MANAGER

5.1 Joint Collaboration Committee.

5.1.1 Overview. As soon as practicable following the Effective Date, but in no event later than [] after the Effective Date, the Parties shall form a joint collaboration committee (the “Joint Collaboration Committee” or “JCC”) to provide non-binding, advisory services and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to their respective activities under this Agreement. The JCC shall be an advisory body only and shall have no decision-making authority.

5.1.2 Specific Responsibilities.

(a) In support of its overall responsibilities to provide non-binding, advisory services to the Company and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to their respective activities under this Agreement, the JCC will:

(i) discuss and provide support and guidance with respect to areas of strategic interest to Pfizer to guide the Company’s Sourcing Activities ;

(ii) provide support and guidance with respect to, and share relevant updates and information regarding, the Company’s Sourcing Activities , including with respect to negotiations for the Company to obtain the rights thereto;

(iii) discuss the Pfizer Services, including making a recommendation to the Parties on the scope, amount, duration, and output of the Pfizer Services and any amendments required to the Pfizer Services Agreement, and presenting any decisions relating thereto to the Parties for further consideration;

(iv) discuss and attempt to resolve disputes in accordance with Section 11.1; and

(v) perform such other advisory functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as mutually agreed between the Parties.

(b) The chairperson of the JCC shall be responsible for updating Exhibit A from time to time and circulating such updated Exhibit A to each Party for review and sign-off. Each Party agrees that it will promptly and in no event later than [] following the receipt of an updated Exhibit A, provide any comments thereto in writing to the chairperson of the JCC.

5.1.3 Composition.

(a) The JCC will be comprised of []. Each representative shall be an employee of the Party that appointed him or her (or an employee of an Affiliate of such Party), shall have sufficient seniority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JCC's responsibilities, and shall have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of the Products. The JCC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JCC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JCC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which written notice may be provided by email to the other Party's Alliance Manager. Each JCC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 10.

(b) []. The chairperson will be responsible for (a) calling meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the chairperson shall include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing and issuing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material discussions had and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JCC for review and approval within thirty (30) days after each JCC meeting.

(c) Either Party may, [], invite other representatives of the Company or Pfizer, or their respective Affiliates, or relevant Third Parties to attend meetings as non-voting observers; provided, however, that such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 10 of this Agreement.

5.1.4 Meeting; Reports.

(a) The JCC will hold meetings at least [] during the Term for so long as the JCC exists, unless the Parties mutually agree in writing to a different frequency. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JCC by providing at least [] prior written notice to the other Party if such Party [] that a significant matter must be discussed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the chairperson of the JCC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JCC with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed discussion on the matters to be discussed no later than [] prior to the special meeting. The JCC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may mutually agree.

(b) The Alliance Managers will work with the chairperson of the JCC to prepare and circulate agendas at least [] prior to each JCC meeting and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes after each JCC meeting. Meeting minutes circulated in accordance with Section 5.1.4(b) will be deemed approved unless one or more member of the JCC objects to the accuracy of such minutes [].

5.1.5 Decision-making. The Parties will endeavor in good faith and in accordance with this Agreement to reach consensus with respect to all matters within the JCC's remit. No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least one representative of each Party on the JCC is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JCC for which reasonable advance notice was provided. For clarity, because the JCC shall be an advisory body only and shall have no decision-making authority, any and all decisions made by the JCC shall be advisory only and shall not be binding on the Parties.

5.2 Alliance Managers

5.2.1 Appointment. Each Party will appoint one of its JCC representatives to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the activities arising in connection with this Agreement (each, an "Alliance Manager"). The Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the JCC and each JSC as non-voting participants and may bring to the attention of the JCC and the JSCs any matters or issues that either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed, and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may mutually agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time by notice in writing to the other Party.

5.2.2 Responsibility. The Alliance Managers, if appointed, will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JCC, the JSCs and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will:

(a) provide a single point of communication within the Company's and Pfizer's respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement;

(b) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and

(c) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JCC and the JSCs occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

ARTICLE 6 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

6.1 Ownership of Inventions

6.1.1 Ownership of Product Inventions. Any and all Inventions invented or otherwise developed or generated jointly by both Parties through the JSC (including jointly by their Affiliates or any of its or their employees, independent contractors or agents) during the Term to the extent relating to any Product, including the Patent Rights claiming the composition of matter, use, formulation or manufacture of such Products will be solely owned by the Company.

6.1.2 Assignment Obligation. Pfizer will assign its rights, and cause all employees of Pfizer who perform activities under this Agreement to be under an obligation to assign their rights, in any Patent Rights and Know-How, whether or not patentable, resulting therefrom to the Company to effectuate the terms and conditions set forth in Section 6.1.1.

6.1.3 Non-Exclusive License to Pfizer. The Company hereby grants to Pfizer a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide license, with the right to sublicense to Pfizer Affiliates, to use for any purpose all Inventions invented or otherwise developed or generated jointly by both Parties under Section 6.1.1 (including jointly by their Affiliates or any of its or their employees, independent contractors or agents) during the Term, and any Patent Rights resulting therefrom.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

7.1 Representations and Warranties. Each Party hereby represents to the other Party, as of the Effective Date, that:

7.1.1 Organization. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement;

7.1.2 Authority. It has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents;

7.1.3 Consents. Except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Opted-In Products, all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained;

7.1.4 No Conflict. It is not under any obligation, contractual or otherwise, to any Person that would materially affect the diligent and complete fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) pursuant to this Agreement (i) do not conflict with or violate any requirement of Laws applicable to such Party, (ii) do not conflict with or violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award of any court or governmental agency presently in effect applicable to such Party, and (iii) do not conflict with, violate, breach or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any contractual obligations of such Party or any of its Affiliates;

7.1.5 Enforceability. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon it and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the general principles of equity and subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally; and

7.1.6 Compliance with Laws. The Parties will, and will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to ensure that their respective Affiliates shall, comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws and Anti-Corruption Laws in exercising their rights and fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will comply with all applicable Laws concerning bribery, money laundering, or corrupt practices or which in any manner prohibit the giving of anything of value to any official, agent, or employee of any Government, political party, or public international organization, candidate for public office, health care professional, or to any officer, director, employee, or representative of any other organization specifically including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and the UK Bribery Act, in each case, in connection with the activities conducted pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties will maintain in all material respect books, records, and accounts which, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the Company's assets and systems or internal controls (including, but not limited to, accounting systems, purchasing systems and billing systems) to ensure compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws.

7.1.7 Compliance with GxP Standards. In the course of performing its obligations or exercising its rights under this Agreement, the Company will comply with all applicable Laws, including, as applicable, GxP standards, and to the Company's knowledge, has not employed or engaged any Person who has been Debarred/Excluded. In the event the Company becomes aware that any Person employed or engaged by the Company is the subject of any proceedings that could result in such Person being Debarred/Excluded, the Company will place such Person on administrative leave until such proceeding is adjudicated and take appropriate actions with respect to such Person thereupon.

7.2 No Other Warranties. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTION 8.1, SECTION 8.2 AND SECTION 8.3, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WITH RESPECT TO THE OPTED-IN PRODUCT, VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

ARTICLE 8 INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Indemnification by the Company. The Company will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Pfizer, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Pfizer Indemnified Party"), from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Pfizer Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by the Company in this Agreement, or any material breach by the Company of any obligation, covenant or agreement in this Agreement and (b) the [] or [] of the Company or any of its Affiliates or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing the Company's obligations or exercising the Company's rights under this Agreement.

8.2 Indemnification by Pfizer. Pfizer will defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Company, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Company Indemnified Party") from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Company Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Pfizer in this Agreement, or any material breach by Pfizer of any obligation, covenant or agreement in this Agreement and (b) the [] of, or violation of Laws by, Pfizer, any of its Affiliates or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, in performing Pfizer's obligations or exercising Pfizer's rights under this Agreement.

8.3 Claim for Indemnification.

8.3.1 Notice. An Indemnified Party entitled to indemnification under Section 9.1 or Section 9.2 will give prompt written notification to the Indemnifying Party from whom indemnification is sought of the commencement of any Action by a Third Party for which indemnification may be sought (a "Third Party Claim") or, if earlier, upon the assertion of such Third Party Claim by a Third Party; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 8.3.1 will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.

8.3.2 Defense. [] Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 9.3.1, the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of such defense, the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Party not controlling such defense may participate therein at its own expense.

8.3.3 Cooperation. The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.

8.3.4 Settlement. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Indemnifying Party will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which will not be unreasonably withheld (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)), agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party).

8.3.5 Mitigation of Loss. Each Indemnified Party will take and will procure that its Affiliates take all such reasonable steps and actions as are necessary or as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require in order to mitigate any Third Party Claims (or potential losses or damages) under this Article 8. Nothing in this Agreement will or will be deemed to relieve any Party of any common law or other duty to mitigate any losses incurred by it.

8.3.6 Special, Indirect, and Other Losses. EXCEPT (A) FOR FRAUD OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, (B) FOR A PARTY'S BREACH OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER ARTICLE 10, AND (C) TO THE EXTENT ANY SUCH DAMAGES ARE REQUIRED TO BE PAID TO A THIRD PARTY AS PART OF A CLAIM FOR WHICH A PARTY PROVIDES INDEMNIFICATION UNDER THIS ARTICLE 8, NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOSS OF PROFITS OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION, UNEARNED CONSIDERATION UNDER SECTION 4.1, AND ANY DAMAGES THAT ARE SPECULATIVE OR NOT REASONABLY FORESEEABLE, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY OR OTHERWISE IN CONNECTION WITH OR ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

TERM; TERMINATION

9.1 Term. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Article 9, this Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in full force until later [] (the "Term").

9.2 Early Termination of the Agreement.

9.2.1 Termination for Material Breach. Upon (a) any material breach of this Agreement by the Company or (b) any material breach of this Agreement by Pfizer (the Party so allegedly breaching being the “Breaching Party”), the other Party (the “Non-Breaching Party”) will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement in its entirety by providing [] written notice to the Breaching Party in the case of any other material breach, which notice will, in each case (i) expressly reference this Section 9.2.1, (ii) reasonably describe the alleged breach which is the basis of such termination, and (iii) clearly state the Non-Breaching Party’s intent to terminate this Agreement if the alleged breach is not cured within the applicable cure period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended if the Breaching Party provides a written plan for curing such breach to the Non-Breaching Party and uses Commercially Reasonable Efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan; provided, however, that no such extension will exceed [] without the written consent of the Non-Breaching Party; and (2) if the Breaching Party disputes (x) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, (y) whether such material breach is reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, or (z) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, the dispute will be resolved pursuant to Article 11, and this Agreement may not be terminated during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure. The termination will become effective at the end of the notice period unless the Breaching Party cures such breach during such notice period; provided, however, that the Non-Breaching Party may, by notice to the Breaching Party, designate a later date for such termination in order to facilitate an orderly transition of activities relating to Opted-In Products.

9.2.2 Termination for Convenience. Pfizer may terminate this Agreement for any or no reason upon [] prior written notice to Company.

9.3 Effects of Termination.

9.3.1 Effects of Termination by Pfizer.

(a) In the event that Pfizer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.2.1, if there are one or more Opted-In Products under this Agreement, Pfizer shall have the right to, in its sole discretion, by a written confirmation to the Company:

(i) maintain the ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product, in which case the terms of Sections 2.4 (Development of Opt-In Product), 2.5 (Use of Cash; Reimbursement Obligations), 2.6 (Joint Steering Committees), Article 3 (Right of First Negotiation) and Article 4 (Financial Considerations) shall survive termination; or

(ii) terminate the ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product.

(b) In the event that Pfizer terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.2.2, if there are one or more Opted-In Products under this Agreement, Pfizer shall have the right to, in its sole discretion, by a written confirmation to the Company:

(i) maintain the ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product, in which case the terms of Sections 2.4 (Development of Opt-In Product), 2.5 (Use of Cash; Reimbursement Obligations), 2.6 (Joint Steering Committees), Article 3 (Right of First Negotiation) and Article 4 (Financial Considerations) shall survive termination; or

(ii) terminate the ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product, in which case Pfizer’s obligation, if any, to pay Contingent Payments with respect to such Opted-In Product pursuant to Section 2.5, and the terms of Sections 4.2 through 4.6, shall survive with respect to Development Costs actually incurred within [] after the effective date of termination, provided that such Development Costs are related to Registration Trials that commenced prior to the effective date of termination.

(c) Pfizer's determination whether to retain or terminate its ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product shall be final and binding, except that, following such determination, Pfizer may, in its sole discretion, terminate its ROFN Option with respect to an Opted-In Product by written notice to the Company in the event that Pfizer has completed its obligation to pay Contingent Payments with respect to such Opted-In Product.

9.3.2 Effects of Termination by Company. In the event that the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.2.1, (i) Pfizer's ROFN Option with respect to any Opted-In Product shall terminate, and (ii) Pfizer's obligation, if any, to pay Contingent Payments with respect to such Opted-In Product pursuant to Section 2.5, and the terms of Sections 4.2 through 4.6, shall survive with respect to Development Costs actually incurred within [] after the effective date of termination, provided that such Development Costs are related to Registration Trials that commenced prior to the effective date of termination.

9.3.3 Survival. In addition to any provisions specified in Section 9.3.1 or 9.3.2, as applicable, the following provisions shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement: Article 6 (Intellectual Property), Article 8 (Indemnification), this Section 9.3, Article 10 (Confidentiality; Non-Use) and Article 11 (Miscellaneous).

9.3.4 Accrued Obligations. Expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason will not release either Party from any obligation or liability which, on the effective date of such expiration or termination, has already accrued to the other Party or which is attributable to a period prior to such expiration or termination.

9.3.5 Return of Confidential Information. Within [] after the effective date of termination (but not expiration) of this Agreement in its entirety, each Party will, and cause its Affiliates to (a) destroy, all tangible items solely comprising, bearing or containing any Confidential Information of the other Party that are in such first Party's or its Affiliates' possession or Control, and provide written certification of such destruction, or (b) prepare such tangible items of the other Party's Confidential Information for shipment to such other Party, as such other Party may direct, at the first Party's expense; provided, however, that, in any event, (i) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights that survive expiration or termination of this Agreement; and (ii) each Party may retain one copy of the Confidential Information of the other Party for its legal archives.

9.3.6 Cooperation. Each Party will cause its Affiliates and contractors to comply with the obligations in this Section 9.3.

ARTICLE 10 CONFIDENTIALITY; NON-USE

10.1 Confidential Information

10.1.1 Confidentiality Obligation. During the Term and for a period of [], each Party agrees to, and will cause its Affiliates and contractors to, keep in confidence and not to disclose to any Third Party, or use for any purpose, except to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Parties.

10.1.2 Permitted Disclosures. Each Party agrees that it and its Affiliates will provide or permit access to the other Parties' Confidential Information only to the receiving Party's officers, directors, employees, [] ("Representatives"), and to the Representatives of the receiving Party's Affiliates, in each case, on a need to know basis who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information no less stringent than the obligations of confidentiality and non-use of the receiving Party pursuant to this Section 10.1; provided, however, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates or its or their officers, directors, employees, [] to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 10.1 as if such Affiliates, officers, directors, employees, [] were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 10.1.

10.1.3 Confidentiality Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each Party may use and disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as required by any court or other governmental body or as otherwise required by applicable Laws; provided that, notice is promptly given to the other Party and the disclosing Party cooperates with reasonable requests from the other Party to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to protect the Confidential Information. Confidential Information that is permitted or required to be disclosed will remain otherwise subject to the provisions of this Section 10.1. If any Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, within a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Parties with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Parties with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to have terms identified by such other Parties afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Regulatory Authority.

10.2 Excluded Information. Neither Party shall share any Excluded Information with respect to any Product unless and until such receiving Party requests such Excluded Information in writing.

10.3 Terms of the Agreement. The terms of this Agreement will be the Confidential Information of both Parties. Except as provided in Section 10.1, neither Party nor its Affiliates may disclose the existence or the terms of this Agreement.

10.4 Publicity; Use of Names.

10.4.1 Press Release. The Parties have mutually agreed on a joint press release announcing this Agreement, set forth on Exhibit B, to be issued by the Parties on such date and time as may be mutually agreed by the Parties. Other than the press release set forth on Exhibit B, the Parties agree that the portions of any other news release or other public announcement relating to this Agreement or the performance hereunder that would disclose information other than that already in the public domain will first be reviewed and approved by both Parties (with such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed).

10.4.2 Use of Names. Each Party and its Affiliates will retain all right, title and interest in and to its and their respective house marks, corporate names and corporate logos. Except with the prior express written permission of the other Party, neither Party will use the name, trademark, trade name, or logo of the other Party or its Affiliates or their respective employees in any publicity, promotion, news release, or disclosure relating to this Agreement or its subject matter except as may be required by Law.

ARTICLE 11 MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, any and all disputes between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will first be referred to the JCC for resolution. Should the JCC not be able to reach agreement at a duly called meeting of the JCC within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the JCC, then either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is mutually agreed to by the Parties), then either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 11.2.

11.2 Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 9.3 and this Section 11.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof (each, a “Dispute”) that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 11.1 will be referred to and finally resolved exclusively by arbitration administered by Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (“HKIAC”) in Hong Kong, which will be conducted in accordance with the then effective HKIAC Administered Arbitration Rules. The Dispute shall be resolved by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with each Party appointing one (1) arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with HKIAC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by either Party by notice to the other Party. All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney’s fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of either Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 11.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 11.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by Laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of both Parties.

11.3 Governing Law; Jurisdiction and Venue. This Agreement and any Dispute will be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of State of New York, United States, without reference to conflicts of laws principles.

11.4 Assignment and Successors. Neither this Agreement nor any obligation of a Party hereunder may be assigned by either Party without the prior written consent of the other, which will not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned, provided that either Party may make such an assignment without the other Party’s consent to its Affiliate or to a successor, whether in a merger, sale of stock, sale of assets or any other transaction, of the business to which this Agreement relates. With respect to an assignment to an Affiliate, the assigning Party shall remain responsible for performance by such Affiliate of the rights and obligations hereunder. Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party of any assignment or transfer under the provisions of this Section 11.4. The terms of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any assignment not in accordance with this Section 11.4 shall be void.

11.6 Notices. Any notice or request required or permitted to be given under or in connection with this Agreement will be deemed to have been sufficiently given if in writing and personally delivered or sent by certified mail (return receipt requested), facsimile transmission (receipt verified), or overnight express courier service (signature required), prepaid, to the Party for which such notice is intended, at the address set forth for such Party below:

If to Pfizer:

or to such other address for such Party as it will have specified by like notice to the other Party; provided that notices of a change of address will be effective only upon receipt thereof. If delivered personally or by facsimile transmission, the date of delivery will be deemed to be the date on which such notice or request was given. If sent by overnight express courier service, the date of delivery will be deemed to be the next Business Day after such notice or request was deposited with such service. If sent by certified mail, the date of delivery will be deemed to be the third (3rd) Business Day after such notice or request was deposited with the U.S. Postal Service.

11.7 Waiver. Neither Party may waive or release any of its rights or interests in this Agreement except in writing. The failure of either Party to assert a right hereunder or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition. No waiver by either Party of any condition or term in any one or more instances will be construed as a continuing waiver or subsequent waiver of such condition or term or of another condition or term.

11.8 Severability. If any provision hereof should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the Parties will negotiate in good faith a valid, legal and enforceable substitute provision that most nearly reflects the original intent of the Parties and all other provisions hereof will remain in full force and effect in such jurisdiction and will be liberally construed in order to carry out the intentions of the Parties hereto as nearly as may be possible. Such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Appendices and Exhibits hereto, sets forth all the covenants, promises, agreements, warranties, representations, conditions and understandings between the Parties and supersedes and terminates all prior agreements and understanding between the Parties. There are no covenants, promises, agreements, warranties, representations, conditions or understandings, either oral or written, between the Parties other than as set forth herein and therein. No subsequent alteration, amendment, change or addition to this Agreement will be binding upon the Parties hereto unless reduced to writing and signed by the respective authorized officers of the Parties.

11.10 Independent Contractors. Nothing herein will be construed to create any relationship of employer and employee, agent and principal, partnership or joint venture between the Parties. Each Party is an independent contractor. Neither Party will assume, either directly or indirectly, any liability of or for the other Party. Neither Party will have the authority to bind or obligate the other Party, and neither Party will represent that it has such authority.

11.11 Interpretation. Except as otherwise explicitly specified to the contrary, (a) references to a clause, section, appendix, or exhibit means a clause of, section of, appendix to, or exhibit to this Agreement, unless another agreement is specified, (b) the word “including” (in its various forms) means “including without limitation,” (c) the words “shall” and “will” have the same meaning, (d) references to a particular statute or regulation include all rules and regulations thereunder and any predecessor or successor statute, rules or regulation, in each case as amended or otherwise modified from time to time, (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively, (f) references to a particular Person include such Person’s successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement, (g) unless otherwise specified, “$,” “USD,” “US Dollars” and “dollars” are in reference to United States dollars, (h) the headings contained in this Agreement, in any appendix or exhibit to this Agreement and in the table of contents to this Agreement are for convenience only and will not in any way affect the construction of or be taken into consideration in interpreting this Agreement, (i) the word “notice” means notice in writing (whether or not specifically stated) and shall include notices, consents, approvals and other written communications contemplated under this Agreement, and (j) provisions that require that a Party, the Parties or any Committee hereunder “agree,” “consent,” or “approve” or the like shall require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing, whether by written agreement, letter, approved minutes or otherwise (but excluding e-mail and instant messaging).

11.12 Further Actions. Each Party will execute, acknowledge and deliver such further instruments, and do all such other acts, as may be necessary or appropriate in order to carry out the expressly stated purposes and the clear intent of this Agreement.

11.13 Construction of Agreement. The terms and provisions of this Agreement represent the results of negotiations between the Parties and their representatives, each of which has been represented by counsel of its own choosing, and neither of which has acted under duress or compulsion, whether legal, economic or otherwise. Accordingly, the terms and provisions of this Agreement will be interpreted and construed in accordance with their usual and customary meanings, and each of the Parties hereto hereby waives the application in connection with the interpretation and construction of this Agreement of any rule of law to the effect that ambiguous or conflicting terms or provisions contained in this Agreement will be interpreted or construed against the Party whose attorney prepared the executed draft or any earlier draft of this Agreement.

11.14 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. The Parties agree that execution of this Agreement by industry standard electronic signature software and/or by exchanging executed signature pages in .pdf format via e-mail shall have the same legal force and effect as the exchange of original signatures, and that in any proceeding arising under or related to this Agreement, each Party hereby waives any right to raise any defense or waiver based upon execution of this Agreement by means of such electronic signatures or maintenance of the executed agreement electronically.

11.15 Compliance with Laws. Each Party will, and will ensure that its Affiliates will, comply with all relevant laws and regulations in exercising its rights and fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement.

11.16 Performance by Affiliates. Pfizer may use one (1) or more of its Affiliates to perform its obligations and duties hereunder and such Pfizer Affiliates are expressly granted certain rights herein; provided that each such Affiliate shall be bound by the corresponding obligations of Pfizer and, subject to an assignment to such Affiliate pursuant to Section 11.4, Pfizer shall remain liable hereunder for the prompt payment and performance of all their respective obligations hereunder.

DEVELOPMENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT

This DEVELOPMENT AND LICENSE AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) effective as of March 26, 2021 (“Effective Date”), is entered into by and between Tarsus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (“Tarsus”), a Delaware Corporation, with offices at 15440 Laguna Canyon Rd., Suite 160, Irvine, CA 92618, and LianBio Ophthalmology Limited, a Hong Kong entity (“Lian”), with offices at Room 1902, 19/F, Lee Garden One, 33 Hysan Avenue, Causeway Bay, Hong Kong. Tarsus and Lian may each be referred to as a “Party” or together as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Tarsus owns or controls certain intellectual property assets, including, but not limited to, Patents, proprietary know-how, and scientific and technical information relating to the Compound (defined below);

WHEREAS, Lian possesses expertise and resources relating to the development, manufacture and commercialization of pharmaceutical products and wishes to obtain a license under Tarsus’s Patents, proprietary know-how and scientific and technical information relating to the Compound to develop, manufacture and commercialize certain products for certain countries;

WHEREAS, Tarsus and Lian desire to enter into a collaboration for the development and commercialization of such products as set forth in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, the Parties have executed a separate Warrant Agreement of even date herewith (“Warrant”) pursuant to which Lian shall issue the Warrant to Tarsus.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the representations, warranties and covenants contained herein, Tarsus and Lian, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. CERTAIN DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Agreement, the following capitalized terms, whether used in the singular or plural, shall have the following meanings:

1.1 “Acquirer IP” means all Know-How and Patents Controlled by an Acquiring Organization of Tarsus, except for: (a) Know-How and Patents that are included in the definitions of Licensed Know-How and Licensed Patents, respectively, immediately prior to the closing of the Acquisition of Tarsus; and (b) [].

1.2 “Acquiring Organization” means the Acquiror (defined in Section 1.4) in an Acquisition (defined in Section 1.4), together with its Affiliates (other than the Target Entity and the Target Entity’s Affiliates immediately prior to the closing of the Acquisition).

1.3 “Acquiring Organization Competing Product Reduction” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 3.3.

1.4 “Acquisition” of an entity (a “Target Entity”) means a transaction or series of related transactions pursuant to which an entity (an “Acquiror”) directly or indirectly (a) obtains ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting securities of such Target Entity, or (b) succeeds to substantially all the assets and business of such Target Entity (whether via merger, sale of assets, or otherwise). Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transaction or series of related transactions effected for the primary purpose of financing the operations of the applicable entity (including the issuance or sale of securities for financing purposes, whether through a private placement or a registered offering), or changing the form or jurisdiction of organization of such entity will not be deemed an Acquisition.

1.5 “Action” means any claim, action, cause of action or suit (whether in contract or tort or otherwise), litigation (whether at law or in equity, whether civil or criminal), assessment, arbitration, investigation, hearing, charge, complaint, demand, notice or proceeding of, to, from, by or before any Governmental Authority.

1.6 “Adverse Event” means any untoward medical occurrence associated with the use of a drug in humans, whether or not considered drug related.

1.7 “Affiliate” means, with respect to a Party, any Person that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with that Party, but only for so long as such control exists. For the purpose of this definition, “control” means, direct or indirect, ownership of more than fifty percent (50%) of the shares of stock entitled to vote for the election of directors, in the case of a corporation, or more than fifty percent (50%) of the equity interest in the case of any other type of legal entity, status as a general partner in any partnership, or any other arrangement whereby the entity or person controls or has the right to control the board of directors or equivalent governing body of a corporation or other entity, or the ability to cause the direction of the management or policies of a corporation or other entity. In the case of entities organized under the laws of certain countries, the maximum percentage ownership permitted by law for a foreign investor may be less than fifty percent (50%), and in such case such lower percentage shall be substituted in the preceding sentence, provided that such foreign investor has the power to direct the management and policies of such entity.

1.8 “Aggregate Annual Net Sales” for a Calendar Year means the aggregate Net Sales of all of Lian, Lian Affiliates, and Sublicensees for all Licensed Products in all Regions within the Territory in such Calendar Year.

1.9 “Anti-Corruption Laws” means the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and any other applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery Laws, in each case as amended.

1.10 []

1.11 “Business Day” means any day other than (a) Saturday or Sunday or (b) any other day on which banks in New York, New York, United States are permitted or required to be closed.

1.12 “Calendar Quarter” means the respective periods of three (3) consecutive calendar months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31.

1.13 “Calendar Year” means a period of twelve (12) consecutive calendar months ending on December 31.

1.14 “Claim” means any charge, complaint, action, suit, proceeding, hearing, investigation, claim or demand.

1.15 “Clinical Supply Agreement” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 7.1.

1.16 “Clinical Trial” means a Phase I Clinical Trial, Phase II Clinical Trial or Phase III Clinical Trial, or any post-approval or other human clinical trial, as applicable.

1.17 “CMO” or “Contract Manufacturing Organization” means a Third Party with which a Party has contracted to conduct manufacturing (including process development and scale-up) of the Licensed Products on behalf of such Party.

1.18 “Combination Product” means a Licensed Product(s) and Other Product(s) sold in combination for a single price, in the same package, including as a co-formulation, or under the same label.

1.19 “Commercial Milestone Event” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.4.1.

1.20 “Commercial Milestone Payment” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.4.1.

1.21 “Commercial Supply Agreement” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 7.1.

1.22 “Commercialization,” “Commercialize” or “Commercializing” means engaging in any and all activities directed to pre-marketing, launching, marketing, promoting (including advertising and detailing), labeling, bidding and listing, distributing, offering for sale, selling, importing, having imported, exporting, having exported, providing customer service and support, post-marketing safety surveillance and reporting of a product, or other commercialization of a product, but not including Development or manufacturing activities.

1.52 “Good Manufacturing Practices” means, with respect to the United States, the minimum then-current good manufacturing practices for methods, facilities and controls to be used for the manufacture, processing, packing or holding of a drug to assure that it meets the requirements of the FDCA for safety and has the identity and strength and meets the quality and purity characteristics, specified in 21 C.F.R. Parts 210 and 211, as may be amended, and, with respect to any other country or jurisdiction, the equivalent regulations in such other country or jurisdiction.

1.53 “Governmental Authority” means any court, tribunal, arbitrator, agency, legislative body, commission, official or other instrumentality of (a) any government of any country or jurisdiction, (b) a federal, state, province, county, city or other political subdivision thereof or (c) any supranational body, including the FDA and the NMPA.

1.55 “Indication Decision Date” means the date that is [] days after the date Tarsus first provides Lian with the final clinical study report from a Phase II Clinical Trial for a Licensed Product for Meibomian Gland Disease.

1.56 “Infringement Claim” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 14.2.3.

1.57 “Intellectual Property Rights” means any and all Patents, copyrights, trade secrets, sui generis database rights, Know-How, and all other intellectual and industrial property rights of any sort throughout the world (including any application therefor) whether now known or hereafter existing.

1.58 “Inventions” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 2.7.

1.59 “Joint Steering Committee” or “JSC” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 4.1.

1.60 “Know-How” means any proprietary know-how, data, and information, including inventions (whether patentable or not), technology, discoveries, methods, techniques, and scientific information, medical information, all manufacturing, preclinical and clinical data, materials, samples, protocols, specifications, processes, structures, trade secrets, analytical and quality control information and procedures, pharmacological, toxicological and clinical test data and results, stability data and studies and procedures.

1.61 “knowledge” of a Party means the actual knowledge of the executive officers of such Party following due inquiry of the direct reports of such executive officers, but without requiring any other investigation (including any freedom to operate search).

1.62 “Laws” means all laws, statutes, rules, regulations, ordinances and other pronouncements having the binding effect of law of any Governmental Authority.

1.63 “Lian” has the meaning assigned thereto in the Preamble.

1.64 “Lian Affiliate” means an Affiliate of Lian. For clarity and example, “Lian and Lian Affiliates” has the same meaning as “Lian and its Affiliates” and “Lian or Lian Affiliates” has the same meaning as “Lian or its Affiliates.”

1.65 “Lian Obligation” has the meaning set forth in Section 17.1.

1.66 “LianBio” means LianBio, an exempted company organized and existing under the laws of Cayman Islands.

1.67 “Lian Ophthalmology” means LianBio Ophthalmology, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands.

1.68 “License” shall have the meaning assigned thereto in Section 2.1.1.

1.69 “Licensed IP” means the Licensed Patents and Licensed Know-How.

1.70 “Licensed Know-How” means all Know-How Controlled by Tarsus or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term that is necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Licensed Know-How excludes: (a) all Know-How that relates to any active therapeutic ingredient (or product containing such active therapeutic ingredient) other than the Compound and does not relate to the Compound; and (b) [].

1.71 “Licensed Patents” means all Patents that: (a) Cover any Licensed Know-How, or (b) are otherwise necessary to make, use, sell, offer to sell, or import any Licensed Product, in each case of (a) or (b), that are Controlled by Tarsus or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Licensed Patents exclude: (i) all Patents that both: (A) Cover any active therapeutic ingredient (or product containing such active therapeutic ingredient) other than the Compound or any use thereof; and (B) do not Cover the Compound or any use thereof; and (ii) []. The Licensed Patents existing as of the Effective Date are set forth on Schedule 1.71 attached hereto.

1.72 “Licensed Products” means any eyedrop product containing the Compound, including as part of any combination.

1.73 “Manufacturing Technology” means, with respect to a Licensed Product, all Licensed Know-How necessary to manufacture such Licensed Product.

1.74 “Manufacturing Transfer Commencement” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 7.3.1.

1.75 “Materially Failed to Supply Licensed Products” means, on at least two separate occasions in a given Calendar Year, Tarsus has failed to supply or cause to be supplied to Lian (other than as caused by a Force Majeure Event) those quantities of Licensed Product forecasted and ordered in accordance with the terms of the applicable Supply Agreement, and the cumulative shortfall of Licensed Product for such Calendar Year attributable to such failures is at least [] of the aggregate amount so forecast to (or, if greater, ordered from) Tarsus for delivery in such Calendar Year. For all purposes of this definition, Licensed Product delivered within [] days of the applicable delivery date shall not be deemed Licensed Product that Tarsus has failed to supply or cause to be supplied.

1.76 “NDA” means a new drug application submitted to the FDA for purposes of obtaining Regulatory Approval for a new drug in the United States or any foreign equivalent filed with the applicable Regulatory Authority in other countries or regulatory jurisdictions in the Territory, as applicable.

1.77 “Net Sales” means, with respect to a Licensed Product and a Region, the gross amount invoiced by Lian or its Affiliates or any Sublicensee to unrelated Third Parties, for the sale of such Licensed Product in the Territory during the Royalty Term in the Region of sale, less the following items applied consistent with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (collectively, “Permitted Deductions”):

- (i) Trade, quantity and cash discounts allowed;
- (ii) Discounts, refunds, rebates, chargebacks, retroactive price adjustments, and any other allowances which effectively reduce the net selling price;
- (iii) Licensed Product returns and allowances;
- (iv) That portion of the sales value associated with drug delivery systems, where applicable;
- (v) Any tax imposed on the production, sale, delivery or use of the Licensed Product, including sales, use, excise or value added taxes;
- (vi) Wholesaler inventory management fees;
- (vii) Allowance for distribution expenses; and
- (viii) Any other similar and customary deductions which are in accordance with GAAP.

With respect to Combination Products, if Licensed Products are sold in the form of Combination Products containing one or more Other Products, then Net Sales for the Combination Product will be calculated by multiplying actual Net Sales of such Combination Product by the fraction $A/(A+B)$ where A is the invoice price of a Licensed Product as the only active therapeutic ingredient if sold separately, and B is the total invoice price of any Other Products in such Combination Product, as the only active therapeutic ingredient if sold separately. If the Other Products in the Combination Product are not sold separately, Net Sales for the purpose of determining royalties of the Combination Product shall be calculated by multiplying actual Net Sales of such Combination Product by the fraction A/C where A is the invoice price of the Licensed Product as the only active therapeutic ingredient, if sold separately, and C is the invoice price of the Combination Product. If neither such Licensed Product nor the other active therapeutic ingredient(s) of the Combination Product is sold separately, Net Sales for the purposes of determining royalties of the Combination Product shall be determined by the Parties in good faith based on the relative value of the Licensed Product and the additional active therapeutic ingredients that are included in the Combination Product (an “Unprecedented Combination Product”). Neither Lian, its Affiliates nor any Sublicensees shall sell any Unprecedented Combination Product until the Parties have made the determination required by the previous sentence.

The amounts of Net Sales shall be determined from the books and records of Lian or its Affiliates or any Sublicensee maintained in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles consistently applied. Lian further agrees in determining such amounts, it will use Lian’s then current standard procedures and methodology, including Lian’s then current standard exchange rate methodology, utilizing a reputable source such as the Wall Street Journal or Reuters, for the translation of foreign currency sales into U.S. Dollars. For purposes of determining Net Sales, (i) sales of a Licensed Product shall not include transfers, uses or dispositions for charitable, promotional, pre-clinical, clinical, regulatory or governmental purposes, and (ii) sales between or among Lian, its Affiliates and any Sublicensees for re-sale shall be excluded from the computation of Net Sales, but subsequent sales by Lian or its Affiliates or any Sublicensee to Third Parties shall be included in the computation of Net Sales.

1.78 “NMPA” means the National Medical Product Administration, formerly known as the China Food and Drug Administration, and any successor agency thereto.

1.79 “Other Product” means a product containing or comprising an active therapeutic ingredient other than the Compound, consisting of a separate and distinct molecular entity having a clearly defined therapeutic activity other than as an adjuvant, bio-availability enhancer, formulation excipient, stabilizer, antioxidant, device, carrier or the like.

1.80 “Party” or “Parties” has the meaning assigned thereto in the first paragraph of this Agreement.

1.81 “Patents” means: (a) all original (priority establishing) patent applications claiming one or more inventions filed anywhere in the world, including provisionals and nonprovisionals; and (b) any patent or patent application that claims, or is entitled to claim, direct or indirect priority to the patent applications described in clause (a), including any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions, or substitute applications, any patents issued or granted from any such patent applications, and any reissues, reexaminations, renewals or extensions (including by virtue of any supplementary protection certificates) of any such patents, and any confirmation patents or registration patents or patents of addition based on any such patents, and all foreign counterparts or equivalents of any of the foregoing.

1.82 “Person” means any natural person, corporation, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, proprietorship or other de jure entity organized under the Laws of any jurisdiction.

1.83 “Phase I Clinical Trial” means a human clinical trial, the principal purpose of which is preliminary determination of safety of a Licensed Product in healthy individuals or patients or that otherwise meets the requirements described in 21 C.F.R. §312.21(a), or similar clinical study in a country other than the United States.

1.84 “Phase II Clinical Trial” means a human clinical trial, for which the primary endpoints include a determination of dose ranges or a preliminary determination of efficacy of a Licensed Product in patients being studied or that otherwise meets the requirements described in 21 C.F.R. §312.21(b), or similar clinical study in a country other than the United States.

1.85 “Phase III Clinical Trial” means a human clinical trial, the principal purpose of which is to demonstrate clinically and statistically the efficacy and safety of a Licensed Product for one or more indications in order to obtain Regulatory Approval of such Licensed Product for such indication(s) or that otherwise meets the requirements described in 21 C.F.R. §312.21(c) or a similar clinical study in a country other than the United States.

1.86 “Post-Acquisition Clinical Product” means a Licensed Product that is the focus of a Phase II Clinical Trial or Phase III Clinical Trial in the Field after the closing of an Acquisition of Tarsus, and conducted by Tarsus, its Affiliates, or their licensee.

1.87 “Product Materials” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 16.7.2.

1.88 “Prosecution” or “Prosecute” means, with respect to a particular Patent, all activities associated with the preparation, filing, defense, prosecution and maintenance of such Patent, as well as supplemental examinations, re-examinations, reissues, applications for patent term adjustments and extensions, supplementary protection certificates and the like with respect to that Patent, together with the conduct of interferences, derivation proceedings, inter partes review, post-grant review, the defense of oppositions and other similar proceedings with respect to that Patent.

1.89 “Public Official or Entity” means (a) any officer, employee (including physicians, hospital administrators, or other healthcare professionals), agent, representative, department, agency, de facto official, representative, corporate entity, instrumentality, or subdivision of any government, military, or international organization, including any ministry or department of health or any state-owned or affiliated company or hospital, or (b) any candidate for political office, any political party, or any official of a political party.

1.90 “Regulatory Approval” means in a particular country or jurisdiction means all approvals (including any applicable governmental price and reimbursement approvals), licenses, registrations, and authorizations of any federal, national, multinational, state, provincial or local Regulatory Authority, department, bureau and other governmental entity that are necessary for the marketing and sale of a Licensed Product in a country or jurisdiction.

1.91 “Regulatory Authority” means a federal, national, multinational or other regulatory agency or governmental entity involved in the granting of Regulatory Approval for a pharmaceutical product in a country or jurisdiction (e.g., the FDA and the NMPA).

1.92 “Regulatory Exclusivity” means, with respect to a Licensed Product, any exclusive marketing rights or data exclusivity rights conferred by any Regulatory Authority with respect to such Licensed Product, other than Patent Rights, that prohibits a Third Party from (a) relying on data generated by or on behalf of the Parties with respect to such Licensed Product in an application for Regulatory Approval, or (b) commercializing a Generic Product of such Licensed Product (for example, any Data Exclusivity rules released by the NMPA).

1.93 “Regulatory Filings” means any written application, submission, notice or other filing made to an applicable Regulatory Authority in the Territory: (a) seeking approval for the commercial manufacture, use, storage, import, export, transport, distribution, marketing or sale of a Licensed Product, including any Regulatory Approval; or (b) that is required to be filed with the applicable Regulatory Authority before beginning clinical testing of a Licensed Product in human subjects, including any successor application or procedure, non-U.S. equivalents to any of the foregoing and all supplements and amendments that may be filed with respect to any of the foregoing; such as NDA, sNDA and any equivalent thereof in the United States or any other country or jurisdiction in the world.

1.94 “Region” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 1.108.

1.95 “Residual Knowledge” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 10.5.

1.96 “Royalty Term” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.6.2.

1.97 “Saturn-1” means a Tarsus United States randomized, controlled, multicenter, double-masked, parallel pivotal Clinical Trial, currently in progress, to compare the safety and efficacy of a Licensed Product to vehicle control for the treatment of Demodex Blepharitis, registered at clinicaltrials.gov as “Safety and Efficacy of TP-03 for the Treatment of Demodex Blepharitis (Saturn-1)” (<https://clinicaltrials.gov/ct2/show/NCT04475432>).

1.98 “Saturn-2” means a Tarsus United States randomized, controlled, multicenter, double-masked, parallel pivotal Clinical Trial, other than Saturn-1, to compare the safety and efficacy of a Licensed Product to vehicle control for the treatment of Demodex Blepharitis.

1.99 “Second Payment” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.2.

1.100 “Senior Officers” means the CEO of Tarsus and the CEO of Lian.

1.101 “Sublicensee” means a Third Party sublicensee to whom Lian or its Affiliates grants rights under this Agreement or any subsequent sublicensee through multiple-tiers.

1.102 “Supply Agreement” means either a Clinical Supply Agreement or a Commercial Supply Agreement, each shall have the meaning assigned thereto in Section 7.1.

1.103 “Tarsus” has the meaning assigned thereto in the Preamble.

1.104 “Tarsus Development Plan” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 5.4.

1.105 “Tarsus Global Licensed Product Trademark” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 2.8.

1.106 “Taxes” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.9.1.

1.107 “Term” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 16.1.

1.108 “Territory” means the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”), Hong Kong, Macau, and Taiwan (each a “Region” within the Territory).

1.109 “Third Party” means a Person who is not a Party or an Affiliate of a Party.

1.110 “Third Party Compensation” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 1.30.

1.111 “Transition Period” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 7.3.1.

1.112 “Two-Invoice Policy” means the policy described in “the Opinion on the Implementation of the ‘Two-Invoices’ System in the Procurement of Pharmaceutical Products by Public Medical Institutions (trial)” (Guoyigaibanfa [2016] No. 4), officially released on 9 January 2017 and in any other applicable Laws that mandates public hospitals or any other purchaser of drugs in mainland China to purchase drugs from the distributor that purchases the drugs directly from the drug manufacturer, limiting the total number of invoices to two.

1.113 “United States” means the United States of America and its territories and possessions.

1.114 “Upfront Payment” has the meaning assigned thereto in Section 9.1.

1.115 “Valid Claim” means a claim of: (a) of any issued, unexpired patent within the Licensed Patents that has not been revoked or held unenforceable or invalid by a decision of a court or Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction from which no appeal can be taken, or with respect to which an appeal is not taken within the time allowed for appeal, and that has not been disclaimed or admitted to be invalid or unenforceable through reissue, disclaimer or otherwise; or (b) of any patent application within the Licensed Patents that has not been cancelled, withdrawn or abandoned, without being re-filed in another application in the applicable jurisdiction or has not been pending or filed more than [] years from the earliest possible priority date for said application, provided that if such claim is later issued, it will from the issuance date forward, be deemed to be a Valid Claim, subject to clause (a) of this Section 1.115.

2. LICENSE GRANTS, OWNERSHIP.

2.1 License Grant.

2.1.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Tarsus grants to Lian (a) an exclusive license under the Licensed Know-How and, and to the extent held in the Territory, the Licensed Patents, to Develop, Commercialize, make (in accordance with Article 7), have made (in accordance with Article 7), use, offer for sale, sell and import Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory only for sale and use in the Field and in the Territory; and (b) a non-exclusive license, under the Licensed IP, to make (in accordance with Article 7) and have made (in accordance with Article 7), but not to Commercialize, the Licensed Products outside the Territory for exploitation in the Field and in the Territory ((a) and (b), collectively, the “License”). The License shall be non-transferable (except as expressly set forth in Section 17.10). Lian shall not (and shall not permit its Affiliates or any Sublicensees to) Develop or Commercialize Licensed Products outside the Field or outside the Territory.

2.1.2 The exclusivity granted under the License under Licensed Know-How in Section 2.1.1(a) means only that: [].

2.1.3 For clarity: (a) if Licensed Know-How relates to both the Compound and any other active therapeutic ingredient, then the License granted to Lian with respect to the Licensed Know-How excludes any right with respect to any other active therapeutic ingredient; and (b) if any Licensed Patent Covers both the Compound (or any use thereof) and any other active therapeutic ingredient (or any use thereof), then the License granted to Lian with respect to such Licensed Patent excludes any right with respect to such other active therapeutic ingredient (or any use thereof).

2.2 Field. Lian may, in its sole discretion, exclude Meibomian Gland Disease from the Field by notifying Tarsus of such exclusion prior to the Indication Decision Date (“Exclusion Indication Notice”). For clarity, Lian cannot exclude Meibomian Gland Disease from the Field after the Indication Decision Date. If Lian provides the Exclusion Indication Notice prior to the Indication Decision Date, then for all purposes of this Agreement, (including the License and the definition of Competing Product), the Field shall exclude the treatment of Meibomian Gland Disease. This exclusion shall be permanent and apply on a prospective basis after Tarsus’s receipt of the corresponding Exclusion Indication Notice.

2.3 Sublicenses. Lian shall have the right to grant sublicenses of the rights granted to Lian under the License to its Affiliates or Third Parties without consent of Tarsus; provided that (a) each such sublicense is subordinate to and consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and (b) each Sublicensee agrees to be bound by all terms of this Agreement applicable to such Sublicensee in the same manner as Lian is bound (including, to the extent applicable, Sections 2.3, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, 3.1, 4.3, 5.2, 5.6, 7.1 (the last sentence), 9.10, 13.1, 14.2.1, and 14.2.5, and Articles 6, 8, 10, and 15). Lian shall remain responsible for its Affiliates’ and each Sublicensee’s compliance with all obligations under this Agreement applicable to such Affiliates or Sublicensees. Upon the termination of this Agreement, at the written request of any Sublicensee who is not then in breach of its sublicense agreement, Tarsus will discuss in good faith with such Sublicensee whether to enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee. No grant of any sublicense to a Third Party or any Lian Affiliate shall relieve Lian of its obligations hereunder.

2.4 Transfer of Licensed Know-How. Promptly following the Effective Date, Tarsus shall provide to Lian copies of all material Licensed Know-How (other than Manufacturing Technology), including documentation and reports within the Licensed Know-How from Clinical Trials and preclinical studies for the Licensed Product that have been obtained by Tarsus, and any other Licensed Know-How reasonably requested by Lian. Upon Lian's request (no more than once in any [] period), Tarsus shall provide to Lian the Licensed Know-How (other than Manufacturing Technology) reasonably requested by Lian that has not previously been provided to Lian hereunder.

2.5 Approval of Licensed Product. Lian shall not Develop, Commercialize, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, market, promote or import any Licensed Product (including, any combination thereof) other than those Licensed Products (including, any combination thereof) approved by Tarsus in writing, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. For clarity, the foregoing restriction on Lian and approval rights of Tarsus apply to the Develop, Commercialize, making, having made, use, offering to sell, selling, marketing, promoting and importing of any combination of a Licensed Product and any other product. Without limiting the reasons that Tarsus may withhold approval, if Lian proposes to Develop, Commercialize, make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, market, promote, or import a Licensed Product as (or as part of) such combination, then it will be deemed reasonable for Tarsus to withhold its approval of such Licensed Product or combination thereof if: (a) Tarsus uses reasonable efforts to negotiate with Elanco to add customary allocations for combination products in the definition of net sales in the Elanco Agreement with respect to such Licensed Product or combination thereof; (b) Elanco does not agree to such additions; and (c) Lian does not agree to waive the application of the customary allocations for Combination Products in the definition of Net Sales for such Licensed Product or combination thereof.

2.6 Elanco Agreement. The License shall be subject to the terms under the Elanco Agreement set forth on Schedule 2.6; provided that Tarsus shall be responsible for any and all amounts payable to Elanco under the Elanco Agreement resulting from the execution of, and activities of Lian in the Field and in the Territory under, this Agreement or any Supply Agreement.

2.7 Inventions. Ownership of intellectual property first discovered, or invented through the activities of one or more Parties in the performance of activities (including, all Development and manufacturing of the Licensed Product conducted by or for Lian, its Affiliates or any Sublicensees) under this Agreement ("Inventions") will follow inventorship as determined in accordance with United States patent laws for determining inventorship, irrespective of whether such intellectual property is patentable or incorporated into a patent application. Lian and its Affiliates hereby grants to Tarsus a non-exclusive, sublicenseable (through multiple tiers), royalty-free, fully paid-up, transferable, perpetual license, under any Inventions (and all Intellectual Property Rights therein) created by or on behalf of Lian, its Affiliates, or any Sublicensees, to Develop, manufacture, or Commercialize the Compound or any product containing the Compound; provided, however, that such license does not include the right to, sell and have sold Licensed Products in the Territory until after the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement. Lian shall not (and shall ensure that neither its Affiliates nor any Sublicensees) license any Invention to any Third Party with respect to any Competing Product.

2.8 Trademark. Lian may brand the Licensed Products in the Territory using a trade name that Tarsus selects to brand the Licensed Products outside of the Territory (the "Tarsus Global Licensed Product Trademark"). If Lian elects to market the Licensed Products within the Territory under a separate brand name than the Tarsus Global Licensed Product Trademark (including a localized version of the Tarsus Global Licensed Product Trademark), then Lian shall provide such alternative brand name for the Licensed Products within the Territory to the JSC for review and approval.

2.9 No Implied Rights; Retained Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement confers or will be construed to confer any rights by implication, estoppel or otherwise under any Intellectual Property Rights, other than the rights expressly granted in this Agreement. All rights not expressly granted by a Party under this Agreement are reserved to such Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Lian's License under (and any exclusivity with respect to) Licensed Know-How shall not in any way restrict Tarsus and its Affiliates from (a) using, disclosing to any Third Party, or granting any Third Party the right to use Licensed Know-How for any purpose other than to Develop, Commercialize, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell and import the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory for sale and use in the Field and in the Territory, or (b) performing Tarsus's obligations or exercising Tarsus's rights under this Agreement.

3. EXCLUSIVITY.

3.1 Exclusivity. During the Term, except for the Compound and Licensed Products being Developed, manufactured, or Commercialized by Lian, Lian Affiliates, and Sublicensees, neither Tarsus or its Affiliates, nor Lian or its Affiliates will (by itself or with or through an Affiliate or a Third Party, directly or indirectly) Develop, make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, or Commercialize in the Territory any Competing Product. For all purposes of this Section 3.1, Affiliates of a Party shall not be deemed to include (and the foregoing shall not restrict) an Acquiring Organization after an Acquisition of such Party. The foregoing does not restrict Tarsus, or any of its Affiliates, or any of its or their sublicensees from making (or having made) a Licensed Product in the Territory solely for use outside the Territory.

3.2 Acquisition of Lian. Tarsus may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Lian at any time after (i) an Acquisition of Lian Ophthalmology or Lian that includes the assets relating to this Agreement (including an Acquisition of LianBio), or (ii) the sale of all or substantially all the assets relating to this Agreement in a transaction or series of related transactions, if both:

[].

3.3 Acquisition of Tarsus. After (a) an Acquisition of Tarsus, or (b) the sale of all or substantially all the assets of Tarsus relating to this Agreement in a transaction or series of related transactions, in either case ((a) or (b)), Lian may reduce its obligation to pay Tarsus future royalties on Net Sales of Licensed Products in the Territory to the amount of the royalty Tarsus must pay Elanco under the Elanco Agreement for such Net Sales (if any) if the Acquiring Organization of Tarsus under sub-clause (a), or the purchaser of the applicable assets under sub-clause (b), at any time after [] days following the closing of such transaction Commercially Sells a Competing Product for the treatment of Demodex Blepharitis in the Territory (an "Acquiring Organization Competing Product Reduction" for the Territory). The foregoing Acquiring Organization Competing Product Reduction shall only apply with respect to Calendar Quarters in which the Acquiring Organization of Tarsus under sub-clause (a) or the purchaser of the applicable assets under sub-clause (b) Commercially Sells a Competing Product in the Territory. For clarity, Lian may not reduce any royalties in any Calendar Quarter in which the Acquiring Organization does not Commercially Sell a Competing Product in the Territory. Additionally, Net Sales in each Calendar Quarter for which an Acquiring Organization Competing Product Reduction applies shall not be counted for the purposes of determining whether Lian must pay Tarsus further Commercial Milestone Payments (defined in Section 9.4.1). However, if Lian makes an Acquiring Organization Competing Product Reduction in the Territory, then, for each Calendar Year in which (i) Lian does not pay Tarsus a Commercial Milestone Payment, (ii) Tarsus is required under the Elanco Agreement to pay Elanco a milestone payment based on Net Sales of products in a Calendar Year, and (iii) Tarsus would not have been required to pay such milestone payment in such Calendar Year if not for the sales of Licensed Products by Lian, Lian Affiliates, and Sublicensees in the Territory in such Calendar Year, Lian shall pay Tarsus an amount equal to the product of such milestone payment to Elanco multiplied by the fraction A/B, where "A" is the Net Sales of Lian, Lian Affiliates, and Sublicensees of Licensed Products in the Territory in such Calendar Year, and "B" is the total worldwide net sales of products counted towards such milestone payment to Elanco in such Calendar Year.

4. JOINT STEERING COMMITTEE.

4.1 General. Within [] days after the Effective Date, the Parties shall establish a joint steering committee (the “Joint Steering Committee” or “JSC”) consisting of two (2) representatives from each Party. Each Party’s representatives on the JSC shall be of the seniority, experience, and decision-making authority appropriate in light of the functions, responsibilities and authority of the JSC. Each Party may replace its representatives on the JSC at any time by providing notice in writing to the other Party. If agreed by the Parties, the JSC may form subcommittees or working groups as may be necessary or desirable to facilitate the activities under this Agreement. The JSC shall serve as a forum for communication with regards to (a) the overall state of the alliance, (b) progress of Lian’s and Tarsus’s Development and Commercialization activities for the Licensed Products in their respective territories; (c) overseeing, guiding, and monitoring the Development (including the conducting of Clinical Trials) and Regulatory Approval efforts by Lian for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory by (i) reviewing and discussing the progress of the Development Activities, including any significant difficulties encountered or anticipated to be encountered in connection therewith, and (ii) reviewing and approving any amendments to the then-current Development Plan; (d) reviewing the Commercialization Plan and updates thereto; and (e) Eligible Global Studies.

4.2 JSC Decision-Making. The Parties acknowledge that one goal of the JSC’s efforts will be to harmonize Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory with the Development and Commercialization of the same or other Licensed Products outside the Territory in the Field. The JSC shall meet on a [] basis. JSC decisions shall be made by consensus, with each Party having a single vote regardless of the number of the representatives of such Party. Any disputes among representatives at the JSC will be resolved by escalation to appropriate Senior Officers of Lian and Tarsus. To the extent the Senior Officers cannot reach agreement on the matter at hand within [] days after the dispute matter is brought to them, then the following will apply:

4.2.1 Subject to Section 2.5 and except with respect to Tarsus’s exercise of its retained rights to make and have made Licensed Products inside the Territory for exploitation outside the Territory or Field, Lian shall have final decision-making authority with respect to: (a) [], and (b) [], except (in each case of sub-clause (a) and (b)) for any matter covered under Section 4.2.2 or Section 4.2.3 below.

4.2.2 Tarsus shall have final decision-making authority with respect to: (a) [], and (b) [].

4.2.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, and except with respect to Lian’s exercise of its rights under sub-clause (b) of Section 2.1.1, Tarsus shall have final decision-making authority over all (and neither the JSC nor Lian shall have any authority regarding any) matters relating to the Development, Commercialization or other exploitation of the Compound, Licensed Products, or other products containing a Compound outside the Territory.

4.3 Licensed Product Development.

4.3.1 Lian shall: (a) notify Tarsus prior to preparing the first draft of any protocol for a Clinical Trial involving a Licensed Product; (b) provide Tarsus with copies of each proposed protocol for such Clinical Trial; and (c) consider Tarsus’s comments with respect to such Clinical Trial.

4.3.2 Without the approval of the JSC, Lian shall not undertake any Development efforts (including conducting any preclinical studies or Clinical Trials) that are inconsistent with the then-current Development Plan, as approved by the JSC, for any Licensed Product.

5. DEVELOPMENT OF PRODUCTS.

5.1 Approval of Development Plan; Annual Updates. The initial Development Plan is set forth in Exhibit A hereto. Lian shall provide the JSC with updates to the Development Plan prior to January 1 of each Calendar Year in which Lian anticipates conducting Development Activities.

5.2 Lian Responsibilities. Lian shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (and, in particular, in the PRC), including by performing Development Activities assigned to Lian in accordance with the Development Plan and strategy for Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Products solely in the Territory. Lian will be responsible for its costs and expenses incurred in performing Development Activities in the Territory. Without limiting the foregoing, [].

Milestone	[]
[]	[]
[]	[]

5.3 Extension of Development Milestones.

5.3.1 Lian may extend the [] Milestone by an additional [] months by paying Tarsus USD $[] . Such payment shall be credited against the amount payable for Development Milestone Payment (iv) set forth in Section 9.4.1 if such Development Milestone Payment becomes due.

5.3.2 Lian may extend the [] Milestone by an additional [] months by paying Tarsus USD $[] . Such payment shall be credited against the amount payable for Development Milestone Payment (v) set forth in Section 9.4.1 if such Development Milestone payment becomes due.

5.4 Tarsus Development. Tarsus will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to complete the Saturn-1 Clinical Trial and Saturn-2 Clinical Trial. An initial plan for Tarsus's Development activities to be conducted outside of the Territory, including the Saturn-1 Clinical Trial and Saturn-2 Clinical Trial, is attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Tarsus Development Plan").

5.5 Global Study Notice. At each quarterly meeting of the JSC prior to receipt of the first Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, Tarsus will communicate to Lian any Eligible Global Study that Tarsus is then planning to conduct or has conducted in the past quarter. If it is reasonably possible for Lian to participate in such Eligible Global Study, then Lian may, in its sole discretion, provide Tarsus with a plan for its potential participation in such Eligible Global Study, including its share of all costs and expenses of such Eligible Global Study that directly relate to the Territory and the proposed Regions (and sub-regions) in the Territory where the clinical sites for such Eligible Global Study will be located (the "Eligible Global Study Proposal"). Tarsus will consider the Eligible Global Study Proposal in good faith. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tarsus has no obligation to involve Lian in any Eligible Global Study in any way, and may (a) commence any Eligible Global Study at any time in its sole discretion, or (b) include or exclude Lian from such Eligible Global Study in its sole discretion.

5.6 Reports and Records.

5.6.1 Lian shall keep Tarsus informed of its activities under the Development Plan through summary updates to be provided to the JSC at each regularly-scheduled meeting of the JSC. Tarsus shall keep Lian informed of its ongoing material Development activities under the Tarsus Development Plan through summary updates to be provided to the JSC at each regularly-scheduled JSC meeting.

5.6.2 During the Term and for [] years thereafter, Lian shall maintain records of all Development Activities (or cause such records to be maintained) in sufficient detail and in good scientific manner as will properly reflect all work done and results achieved by or on behalf of Lian in the performance of the Development Plan or otherwise in connection with Development Activities. Tarsus and Lian will provide each other with all reports, records, data and other information that result from Development Activities conducted by it, its respective Affiliates or any Sublicensees in its respective territory.

6. COMMERCIALIZATION.

6.1 Commercialization Plan. No later than [] months prior to Lian's estimated date of Regulatory Approval in the Territory, Lian shall provide Tarsus with a written plan for the Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Commercialization Plan"), including a corresponding budget, which shall include reasonable detail regarding the activities Lian expects to undertake, and the amounts it expects to expend in connection with such activities, in each case, over the [] year period immediately following receipt of the first Regulatory Approval in the Territory. The Commercialization Plan shall be updated annually. Lian shall provide the JSC with a reasonable opportunity to review and comments on the initial Commercialization Plan and each update thereto, and Lian shall consider all such comments in good faith. Lian shall have the sole control over and decision-making authority with respect to the Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory in accordance with the Commercialization Plan and otherwise as expressly provided under this Agreement.

6.2 Diligence. Lian shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize Licensed Products in the Territory (and in particular, in the PRC) after achieving Regulatory Approval therefor.

6.3 Progress Report. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product basis for each of Meibomian Gland Disease and Demodex Blepharitis, following the receipt of Regulatory Approval in a Region in the Territory, Lian shall provide to the JSC at each of its regularly-scheduled meetings during such period a written report summarizing Lian's progress in the Commercialization of such Licensed Product in such Region for the relevant indication or otherwise in the Field.

6.4 Samples and Labeling.

6.4.1 Markings. Lian shall, and shall require its Affiliates and any Sublicensees to, mark all Licensed Products and all associated packaging and documentation with the appropriate marking and notices associated with the applicable Licensed Patents in accordance with the applicable Laws of each country or jurisdiction in which such Licensed Products are manufactured, used or sold.

6.4.2 Statements Consistent with Labeling. Lian shall ensure that its employees, independent contractors and other agents market and sell Licensed Products consistent with the requirements of all applicable Laws in the applicable Region in the Territory. Lian shall ensure that all Licensed Products are labeled and distributed in accordance with applicable Law in the applicable Region in the Territory.

6.5 Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event that Tarsus is the holder of the Regulatory Approval for a Licensed Product in the PRC and, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Lian nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then Tarsus and Lian will use reasonable efforts to discuss in good faith and agree to alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of Tarsus and Lian as agreed under this Agreement.

7. MANUFACTURING; TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER.

7.1 Generally. Tarsus (itself or through designees) will supply Licensed Products to Lian for Development and Commercialization purposes in the Field in the Territory, in each case, in accordance with separate written agreements, one for supply in Clinical Trials (“Clinical Supply Agreement”), and another for supply for Commercialization (the “Commercial Supply Agreement”), each to be negotiated in good faith between the Parties pursuant to Section 7.2. For clarity, Lian shall not (and has no right under the License to) manufacture the Licensed Product, except in accordance with Section 7.3.

7.2 Supply by Tarsus. The Parties shall negotiate in good faith to execute a Clinical Supply Agreement and a Commercial Supply Agreement (and, in each case, related quality agreements), pursuant to which Lian will source the Licensed Product from Tarsus and Tarsus will supply (or cause a CMO designated by Tarsus supply) to Lian Licensed Products for Lian’s exercise of the rights and licenses in accordance herewith including the conduct of Clinical Trials and Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory. The Parties will commence negotiations for a Clinical Supply Agreement after Tarsus enters into all agreements with Elanco and other suppliers necessary for the supply of filled, finished and unlabeled Licensed Product to Tarsus. The Parties expect to execute such Clinical Supply Agreement within [] days after Tarsus enters all of such necessary agreements but neither Party shall be deemed in breach of this Agreement for failing to do so. If, after negotiating in good faith, the Parties fail to execute such Clinical Supply Agreement prior to the expiration of such [] day period and an Acquisition of Tarsus has occurred during the Term prior to the expiration of such [] day period or, after such period, an Acquisition of Tarsus occurs prior to the execution of a Clinical Supply Agreement, then Lian may initiate a manufacturing technology transfer pursuant to Section 7.3.1 (a “Supply Agreement Negotiation Failure”). If, as a result of a Supply Agreement Negotiation Failure, Tarsus fails to supply, or cause to be supplied, Licensed Products to Lian for Development purposes and as a direct result of such failure to supply Lian is not able to achieve the Phase III Milestone by the applicable Completion Date, then such Completion Date will be extended by the number of days from the expiration of such [] day period until such time as Tarsus is able to supply, or cause to be supplied, Licensed Products to Lian. The Clinical Supply Agreement shall include (i) payment by Lian to Tarsus of an amount equal to Tarsus’s fully burdened cost in supplying the Licensed Product for clinical use plus [] thereof, (ii) supply of sufficient quantities of the Licensed Products to enable the conduct of Clinical Trials of the Licensed Product in the Field and in each Region of the Territory, as provided by the Development Plan; and (iii) other terms customary in the pharmaceutical industry to agreements of this nature. The Commercial Supply Agreement shall include: (A) payment by Lian to Tarsus of an amount equal to Tarsus’s (either directly or through its CMO) fully burdened cost in supplying the Licensed Product for commercial use plus [] thereof, and (B) other terms customary in the pharmaceutical industry to agreements of this nature between collaboration partners. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tarsus shall have no obligation to supply (or cause supply of) Licensed Products for commercial use if both: (1) such supply could conflict with Tarsus’s own Development or Commercialization requirements for Licensed Products in any Calendar Year; and (2) Tarsus provides Lian with at least [] of the volume of Licensed Product that Tarsus procures for itself in such Calendar Year, and in such circumstance, Tarsus’s obligation to supply Licensed Product to Lian for such Calendar Year will be capped at such [] of the total volume of Licensed Product procured by Tarsus in such Calendar Year.

7.3 Manufacturing by Lian; Technology Transfer.

7.3.1 After Tarsus receives Regulatory Approval from the FDA to market a Licensed Product in the Field, if (a) (i) a Supply Agreement Negotiation Failure occurs, (ii) Tarsus has Materially Failed to Supply Licensed Products, or (iii) Lian has provided firm written purchase orders, or has provided a forecast that would be reasonably anticipated to, reach or exceed the cap on supply of Licensed Products in a given Calendar Year set forth in sub-clauses (1) and (2) of Section 7.2), (b) Lian otherwise requests and Tarsus approves, not to be unreasonably withheld, or (c) Tarsus so requests, then in each case ((a) - (c)), Lian will have the right and the obligation to manufacture or have manufactured the Licensed Product (but not the Compound) for the Territory for the supply needs of Lian, its Affiliates, and its Sublicensees and distributors in the Field and in the Territory (the commencement of the manufacturing transfer process following the occurrence of either (a), (b), or (c), as applicable, the “Manufacturing Transfer Commencement”). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Tarsus will have no obligation to continue supplying Lian with Licensed Product after a reasonable transition period (not to exceed [] months, the “Transition Period”) after Manufacturing Transfer Commencement.

7.3.2 During the Transition Period, at Lian’s request and sole cost and expense, Tarsus will provide (or cause its designee to provide) to Lian the Manufacturing Technology and transition services necessary to enable Lian (or a CMO designated by Lian) to Manufacture clinical and commercial supplies of the Licensed Product.

7.3.3 In each agreement with a CMO, Lian shall use reasonable efforts to obtain the following: (a) a right for Tarsus to inspect and audit the CMO directly for quality control/assurance; and (b) a right for Tarsus to observe the CMO during the manufacturing of the Licensed Product, in each of (a) and (b), at Tarsus’s cost and expense. At Tarsus’s request, Lian shall use reasonable efforts, at Tarsus’s cost and expense, to facilitate any inspection or audit of a CMO and permit Tarsus to observe the CMO during the manufacturing of the Licensed Product.

7.3.4 Lian acknowledges that Tarsus’s obligations in Sections 7.3.1 and 7.3.2 are conditioned on Lian providing certain documentation reasonably necessary to enable Tarsus to perform its obligations and Lian agrees to provide Tarsus with such documentation and otherwise reasonably cooperate with Tarsus in the performance of its obligations under this Section 7.3.

7.4 Interim Supply. Until Tarsus and Lian execute a Clinical Supply Agreement, as reasonably requested by Lian (and subject to Section 7.2), Tarsus shall place orders with its suppliers for the same Licensed Products for Development purposes on the same terms that Tarsus procures from such suppliers for its own account. Lian shall pay Tarsus an amount equal to the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost of such Licensed Products ordered for Lian plus an additional [] thereof. After delivery, Tarsus shall invoice Lian for the Fully Burdened Manufacturing Costs of such Licensed Product plus [] for the applicable order and Lian shall pay Tarsus within [] days after receipt of such invoice. [].

8. REGULATORY MATTERS.

8.1 Responsibility. Lian or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees shall be the exclusive holder and owner of all Regulatory Approvals in the Territory for Licensed Products in the Field during the Term, and shall have the sole and exclusive right to make all Regulatory Filings with respect to all of the foregoing; provided, however, that if applicable Laws or Regulatory Authorities in a Region in the Territory require any Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals for Licensed Products in the Field to be filed in the name of and owned by Tarsus, then Tarsus will and hereby does designate Lian (or a Lian Affiliate, Sublicensee, or a regulatory services contractor agent of Lian that agrees, for Tarsus’s benefit, to be bound by all obligations of this Agreement to which Lian is bound with respect to obtaining and maintaining Regulatory Approvals, including, without limitation, all obligations of Lian pursuant to this Article 8 (a “Qualified Regulatory Agent”) to be its sole authorized agent in such Region in the Territory for obtaining Regulatory Approval with respect to the Licensed Products for the Field, and Lian will file such Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals in Tarsus's name in such Region. In such case, if applicable Laws or Regulatory Authorities in such Region in the Territory later permit Lian to file and own such Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals in Lian's name, then Tarsus will permit such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals to be filed in the name of and exclusively owned by Lian, and Tarsus will cooperate with Lian to assign and transfer such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals to Lian. Lian shall not assign or transfer any Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals in the Territory to any Third Party without the prior written consent of Tarsus, except to a Sublicensee or in connection with a permitted assignment of this Agreement in its entirety pursuant to Section 17.10. Lian shall be liable for any Qualified Regulatory Agent's breach of its obligations to Tarsus in connection with such Regulatory Approval activities.

8.2 Communication. To the extent permissible under applicable Law and practicable, Lian shall keep Tarsus informed of all significant matters arising from such Lian's regulatory-related activities with respect to Licensed Products and shall notify Tarsus of any material correspondence that it receives from a Regulatory Authority regarding any Licensed Product or that it submits to any Regulatory Authority regarding any Licensed Product, and will provide to Tarsus a copy of such correspondence in Chinese or, to the extent available, a summary thereof in English, no later than [] days after receipt of the correspondence to which it relates. Until such time as Lian obtains Regulatory Approval for a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, to the extent permissible under applicable Law and practicable, Lian shall provide Tarsus reasonable advance notice of any material meetings, conferences or calls with Regulatory Authority(ies) in the Territory concerning Licensed Products. Tarsus will have the right to request to be present at (but not to participate in, unless requested by Lian or the applicable Regulatory Authority) any such meetings, at Tarsus's sole cost and expense, and Lian will consider any such request in good faith.

8.3 Right of Reference.

8.3.1 Lian hereby grants Tarsus a right of reference to all clinical data and information Controlled by Lian and contained or referenced in any submissions to Regulatory Authorities for the Compound and Licensed Products in the Territory to the extent necessary or reasonably useful for Tarsus to Develop, manufacture, or Commercialize any product containing the Compound outside of the Territory or Field. Lian shall provide the applicable Regulatory Authority(ies) a letter confirming this right of reference at any time within [] days after Tarsus's request and shall take such other actions and execute such other documents as Tarsus may reasonably request to further confirm and give effect to this right of reference.

8.3.2 Tarsus hereby grants Lian a right of reference to all clinical data and information Controlled by Tarsus and contained or referenced in any submissions to Regulatory Authorities for the Compound and Licensed Products outside the Territory to the extent necessary or reasonably useful for Lian to Develop, manufacture, or Commercialize Licensed Products in the Territory in the Field. Tarsus shall provide the applicable Regulatory Authority(ies) a letter confirming this right of reference at any time within [] days after Lian's request and shall take such other actions and execute such other documents as Lian may reasonably request to further confirm and give effect to this right of reference.

8.4 Drug Safety Information. Lian, as the owner of Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field throughout the Territory, shall be responsible for investigating Adverse Events and other required safety information associated with the use of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory and shall be responsible for the collection, review, assessment, tracking and filing of information related to Adverse Events in accordance with applicable Laws, provided that, if Tarsus is required by any Regulatory Authority to file in its name and own any Regulatory Approval for a Licensed Product in the Field in a Region in the Territory, then in such Region Tarsus shall be responsible for investigating Adverse Events and other required safety information associated with the use of the Licensed Product in the applicable Region and shall, at Lian's expense, be responsible for the collection, review, assessment, tracking and filing of information related to Adverse Events in accordance with applicable Laws. Lian shall comply fully with all applicable Adverse Event reporting recommendations and requirements in all Regions in the Territory where Lian intends to Commercialize the Licensed Product. Each Party agrees to exchange with the other Party such information as may be necessary for compliance with applicable Adverse Event reporting requirements and to ensure that such Party is completely informed regarding Adverse Events with respect to the Licensed Product. This includes single case reports, together with an appropriate medical evaluation, as well as aggregate data, such as Periodic Safety Update Reports (PSURs) required by authorities. Within [] days after the Effective Date, the Parties shall enter into a pharmacovigilance agreement that defines the Parties' responsibilities and obligations with respect to the procedures and timeframes for compliance with applicable Law pertaining to safety reporting for the Licensed Product.

9. UPFRONT PAYMENTS; MILESTONE PAYMENTS; ROYALTY PAYMENTS.

9.1 Upfront Payment. Lian shall pay Tarsus a non-refundable, non-creditable fee in the amount of fifteen million United States Dollars (USD $15,000,000) (the "Upfront Payment") within [] days after the Effective Date.

9.2 Second Payment. Lian shall pay Tarsus a non-refundable, non-creditable fee in the amount of ten million United States Dollars (USD $10,000,000) (the "Second Payment") within [] days after the Effective Date.

9.3 Warrant. Upon the Effective Date, Lian will issue a warrant (the "Warrant") to Tarsus exercisable for such number of ordinary shares of Lian Ophthalmology as is equal to [] of the then-fully diluted equity of Lian Ophthalmology at the time of issuance of the Warrant, at a price per share equal to the fair market value of such shares at the time of issuance. No later than [] days following the Effective Date, Lian will provide for Tarsus's review the then-current fair market valuation of Lian Ophthalmology, along with reasonable supporting documentation, and will consider in good faith any reasonable comments with respect thereto. The Warrant shall be exercisable upon the terms set forth therein.

9.4 Milestone Payments.

9.4.1 If a development or commercial milestone event specified below (each a "Development Milestone Event" or "Commercial Milestone Event", as applicable) is achieved with respect to any Licensed Product (including achievement of any milestone event by any Lian Affiliate or any Sublicensee), then Tarsus or Lian, as applicable, shall promptly (and in any event within [] days) notify the other Party in writing of such achievement. Within [] days after such achievement (or, in the case of milestones achieved by Tarsus, within [] days the date Tarsus notifies Lian), Lian shall pay to Tarsus the corresponding non-refundable, non-creditable development milestone payment (each a "Development Milestone Payment") or commercial milestone payment (each a "Commercial Milestone Payment"), as applicable, specified in the respective table below:

Development Milestone Event for a Licensed Product	Development Milestone Payment
]	USD $	***]
]	USD $	***]
]	USD $	***]
]	USD $	***]
]	USD $	***]
]	USD $	***]
Total Development Milestone Payments USD $[]

Commercial Milestone Event	Commercial Milestone Payment
(i) First achievement of greater than USD $[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
(ii) First achievement of greater than USD$[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
(iii) First achievement of greater than USD $[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
(iv) First achievement of greater than USD $[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
(v) First achievement of greater than USD$[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
(vi) First achievement of greater than USD $[] Aggregate Annual Net Sales	USD $	***]
Total Commercial Milestone Payments USD $[]

9.4.2 Certain Milestone Rules.

(a) For clarity, Development Milestone Payments for each of Development Milestone Events (iv) - (vi) will be payable only once per Development Milestone Event, upon the achievement of such event by Lian, its Affiliates, or any Sublicensees.

(b) Each Development Milestone Payment shall be payable only on the first occurrence of the corresponding Development Milestone Event and the total amount of Development Milestone Payments shall not exceed USD $[] .

(c) Each Commercial Milestone Payment shall be payable only on the first occurrence of the corresponding Commercial Milestone Event and the total amount of Commercial Milestone Payments shall not exceed USD $[] .

(d) Each of Development Milestones Events (i) - (iii) shall be deemed achieved upon [], if not achieved earlier.

(e) Development Milestone Event (iv) shall be deemed achieved upon the achievement of Development Milestone Event (v) or (vi) (whichever is first), if not achieved earlier.

(f) Lian shall pay Tarsus Commercial Milestone Payments corresponding to each Commercial Milestone Event first achieved in each Calendar Year, regardless of how many Commercial Milestone Events are achieved in such Calendar Year.

9.5 Consideration. Tarsus acknowledges that the Upfront Payment, Second Payment and payments for achievement of certain Development Milestone Events are made in consideration of the contributions and activities of Tarsus under this Agreement (including, the corresponding Development that Tarsus agrees to undertake in connection with the Licensed Products outside the Territory) in addition the rights granted by Tarsus to Lian hereunder.

9.6 Royalties.

9.6.1 Net Sales Royalties. In each Calendar Year, Lian shall pay Tarsus royalties equal to the percentage of Aggregate Annual Net Sales in such Calendar Year according to the table below. After each Calendar Quarter, royalty payments for such Calendar Quarter shall be payable based on Estimated Quarterly Net Sales (defined in Section 9.7) for such Calendar Quarter and then trued up in the subsequent Calendar Quarter, as further set forth in Section 9.7.

Aggregate Annual Net Sales	Royalty Rate
For that portion of Aggregate Annual Net Sales in such Calendar Year less than or equal to USD $[]	[]
For that portion of Aggregate Annual Net Sales in such Calendar Year greater than USD $ [] and less than or equal to USD $[]	[]
For that portion of Aggregate Annual Net Sales in such Calendar Year greater than USD $[]	[]

9.6.2 Royalty Term. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region-by-Region basis, Lian's obligation to pay royalties set forth in Section 9.6.1 with respect to sales of a Licensed Product in a Region will commence upon the date of First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region by or under the authority of Lian, its Affiliates, or any Sublicensees, and expire upon the later to occur of (i) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim Covering such Licensed Product or use thereof that would be infringed by the sale of such Licensed Product in such Region, (ii) the expiry of Regulatory Exclusivity for such Licensed Product in such Region; and (iii) the [] anniversary of the date of First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region (the "Royalty Term" for such Licensed Product in such Region).

9.6.3 Royalty Reduction; Royalty Floor. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region-by-Region basis, Lian's obligation to pay royalties set forth in Section 9.6.1 with respect to Net Sales of a Licensed Product in a Region will be subject to royalty reduction for (i) [] of amounts paid by Lian as royalties on Net Sales in respect of any Third Party licenses to Patents (or Patents together with Know-How) that are necessary to manufacture or sell such Licensed Product in such Region, (ii) (A) lack of any, or expiration of all, Valid Claims of the Licensed Patents in such Region Covering the Compound or such Licensed Product or (B) [], in either case of (A) or (B), royalty payments for such Licensed Product in such Region shall be reduced by [], and further, with respect to (B) only, []. []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no royalty payment for any Licensed Product in a Calendar Quarter in a Region shall be reduced below []. [].

9.7 Net Sales Reports; Royalty Estimates and True-up. Within [] days following the end of each Calendar Quarter, Lian shall submit to Tarsus a written statement reporting a good faith estimate of Aggregate Annual Net Sales attributable to such Calendar Quarter (“Estimated Quarterly Net Sales”) as broken down on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region-by-Region basis, together with the amount of the total royalty payments due Tarsus in respect of such Net Sales [] (“Net Sales Details”). Tarsus will issue an invoice within [] days following its receipt of such Estimated Quarterly Net Sales. Lian shall pay royalties based on Estimated Quarterly Net Sales within [] days after its receipt of such invoice. Lian shall provide Tarsus with the true Net Sales for such Calendar Quarter and related Net Sales Details at the time it provides the Estimated Quarterly Net Sales for the following Calendar Quarter and shall reconcile and true-up the payments of royalties for each Calendar Quarter at the time it makes payments on the Estimated Quarterly Net Sales for the next Calendar Quarter.

For example only: If the Estimated Quarterly Net Sales for the first Calendar Quarter of a Calendar Year (“Q1”) are $[], then Lian would pay Tarsus a royalty payment of $[] for Q1. If after the second Calendar Quarter of such Calendar Year (“Q2”), the true amount of Aggregate Annual Net Sales attributable to Q1 are $[] and the Estimated Quarterly Net Sales attributable to Q2 are $[], then Lian would pay Tarsus a royalty payment of $[] after Q2 (i.e., [] of the first $[] of the estimate for Q2 plus [] of the next $[] of the estimate for Q2 plus [] of the $[] increase from the estimated Aggregate Annual Net Sales attributable to Q1 to the actual Aggregate Annual Net Sales attributable to Q1).

9.8 Payment Terms.

9.8.1 All sums due to Tarsus shall be payable in United States dollars by bank wire transfer in immediately available funds to such bank account(s) as Tarsus shall designate.

9.8.2 When Licensed Products are sold for monies other than United States dollars, the Net Sales of such Licensed Products will first be determined in the foreign currency of the Region in which such Licensed Products were sold and then converted into equivalent United States funds. The exchange rate will be the applicable rate published by the Wall Street Journal on the last Business Day of the Calendar Quarter in which such royalties accrued.

9.8.3 Interest on any the overdue payment shall accrue at an annual interest rate, compounded monthly, equal to [] , or if lower, the maximum rate allowed by applicable Laws, assessed from the day payment was initially due. Each day that Lian fails to deliver information necessary to allow Tarsus to provide an invoice under this Agreement shall be deemed a day of late payment for the corresponding payment.

9.9 Tax Withholding.

9.9.1 Lian shall pay the Upfront Payment, Second Payment, and Development Milestone Payments (including, any pre-payment pursuant to Section 5.3) to Tarsus from a legal entity based in the United States in good standing and from a bank in the United States; provided that if Lian pays the Upfront Payment, Second Payment, and Development Milestone Payments from a legal entity based outside the United States and if any taxes, levies, duties, or other governmental assessments (“Taxes”) are paid or required to be withheld under any applicable Laws, then Lian shall pay to Tarsus an additional amount equal to the amount that is required to be paid or withheld to the relevant Government Authority such that Tarsus receives the full amount of the Upfront Payment, Second Payment, and Development Milestone Payments (i.e. all Upfront Payment, Second Payment, and Development Milestone Payments to Tarsus under this Agreement are net of any Taxes and withholding required).

9.9.2 Subject to Section 9.9.1, each Party shall be solely responsible for the payment of the Taxes imposed on its share of income arising from its activities or receipt of payments under this Agreement. Subject to Section 9.9.1, in the event any Tax based on income to Tarsus is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Lian pursuant to this Agreement under applicable Laws, Lian will make such deduction and withholding and will pay the remainder to Tarsus, any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Lian on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority, and Lian will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Tarsus with respect to such payments. Official receipts of payment of any withholding tax shall be secured and sent to Tarsus as evidence of such payment.

9.9.3 Tarsus and Lian agree to reasonably assist the other Party in claiming exemption from Tax deductions or withholdings under double taxation or similar agreements or treaties from time to time in force and in minimizing the amount required to be so withheld or deducted.

9.10 Financial Audits. Lian shall keep or cause to be kept books of account containing all information that may be necessary for the purpose of calculating amounts payable by Lian in connection with this Agreement for a period of [] Calendar Years following the end of the Calendar Year during which such amounts were payable. Tarsus may appoint an independent public accountant (on a non-contingency basis and reasonably acceptable to Lian; any “Big 4” accountant shall be deemed acceptable to Lian), at Tarsus’s expense and subject to such accountant entering into a confidentiality agreement with Lian, to inspect such books of account in order to verify the calculation of any amounts payable to Tarsus hereunder. Such inspections shall be performed not more frequently than once in any [] month period and upon reasonable prior notice, and shall be conducted during regular business hours in such a manner as to not unreasonably interfere with Lian’s normal business activities. Tarsus’s accountant may only share with Tarsus the report containing the summary results of its inspection, but not the books of account reviewed by the accountant during the audit, and such report shall constitute Lian’s Confidential Information. If any such inspection reveals that any payment (a) that should have been paid by Lian is greater than those that were actually paid by Lian, then Lian shall promptly pay the underpaid amount to Tarsus or (b) that was actually paid by Lian is greater than those that should have paid by Lian, then Lian shall credit the overpaid amount against future royalty payments to Tarsus. If the payments that should have been paid by Lian are at least [] greater than those that were actually paid by Lian, then Lian shall also reimburse Tarsus for the reasonable out-of-pocket costs of such inspection.

10. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

10.1 Definition. “Confidential Information” means confidential or proprietary information, data or Know-How, whether provided in written, oral, visual or other form, provided by one Party (the “Disclosing Party”) to the other Party (the “Receiving Party”) in connection with this Agreement, including the Licensed Know-How and other information relating to the Disclosing Party’s existing or proposed research, development efforts, patent applications, business or products. Confidential Information shall not include any such information that: (a) is already rightfully known to the Receiving Party or its Affiliates (other than under an obligation of confidentiality at least as stringent as required in this Agreement) at the time of disclosure (as evidenced by written records of the Receiving Party); (b) is or becomes generally available to the public other than through any act or omission of the Receiving Party or its Affiliates in breach of this Agreement; (c) is disclosed to the Receiving Party or its Affiliates without an obligation of confidentiality by a Third Party who had no separate nondisclosure obligation in respect of such information; or (d) is independently discovered or developed by or on behalf of the Receiving Party or its Affiliates without the use of or reference to the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party (as evidenced by written records of the Receiving Party). The Parties agree that with respect to Licensed Know-How, Tarsus shall be deemed the Disclosing Party.

10.2 Confidentiality. The Receiving Party shall, during the Term and for a period of [] years thereafter (except that with respect to any Confidential Information that could qualify as a trade secret, until such Confidential Information otherwise ceases to be deemed Confidential Information in accordance with any of clauses (a)-(d) of Section 10.1), keep in confidence all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party with the same degree of care it employs to maintain the confidentiality of its own Confidential Information, but no less than a reasonable degree of care. The Receiving Party shall not use such Confidential Information for any purpose other than for the purposes contemplated by this Agreement or disclose the same to any other Person other than to such of its Affiliates, its sublicensees, and its and their employees, agents and subcontractors who have a need to know such Confidential Information for the purposes of exercising the rights or performing the obligations of the Receiving Party under this Agreement. A Receiving Party shall advise any such Affiliate, employee, agent, and subcontractor who receives Confidential Information of such obligations, and the Receiving Party shall ensure (through enforcement of written agreements or otherwise) that all such Affiliates, employees, agents, and subcontractors comply with such obligations as if they had been a Party hereto. The Receiving Party will be liable for breach of confidentiality by any of its Affiliates and its and their employees, agents, or subcontractors.

10.3 Permitted Disclosure and Use. The Receiving Party shall have the right to disclose Confidential Information if, (a) in the reasonable opinion of the Receiving Party's legal counsel, such disclosure is required by any applicable Laws (including, but not limited to, the rules of any stock exchange), provided that, to the extent practicable, the Receiving Party gives adequate prior notice of such disclosure to the Disclosing Party and the Receiving Party seeks confidential treatment of such Confidential Information to the maximum extent permitted by the relevant Governmental Authority; or (b) a court, tribunal, administrative agency or other Governmental Authority orders such disclosure, provided that the Receiving Party gives adequate prior notice of such disclosure to the Disclosing Party to permit the Disclosing Party to intervene and to request protective orders or other confidential treatment. The Receiving Party will cooperate reasonably with any such efforts by the Disclosing Party. In addition to the exceptions contained in Section 10.2, each Party may use such Confidential Information and disclose Confidential Information of the other Party to Third Parties under appropriate terms and conditions (including confidentiality provisions substantially similar to these in this Agreement) to the extent (and solely to the extent) that such use and disclosure is reasonably necessary in the following instances: []. The disclosing Party shall be responsible for any breaches of confidentiality by such Third Parties to whom it has disclosed the other Party's Confidential Information. The Parties shall also be permitted to make disclosures consistent with, and pursuant to, Sections 17.1 and 17.4.

10.5 Remedies. Money damages may not be an adequate remedy if this Article 10 is breached and, therefore, either Party may, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies, seek an injunction or other equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction against such breach or threatened breach without the necessity of posting any bond or surety.

11. NON-AMENDMENT OF ELANCO AGREEMENT. Tarsus shall not modify or amend the Elanco Agreement in any way that would materially and adversely affect Lian's rights under this Agreement. Tarsus shall not prematurely terminate the Elanco Agreement. Tarsus shall promptly notify Lian of any material breach by Tarsus of which Elanco notifies Tarsus or any material breach by Elanco of the Elanco Agreement, and in the event of a breach by Tarsus and failure by Tarsus to cure such breach in a timely manner, will permit Lian to cure such breach on Tarsus's behalf upon Lian's reasonable written request.

12. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

12.1 Mutual Representations and Warranties. Tarsus and Lian each represents and warrants to the other as of the Effective Date:

12.1.1 Such Party: (a) is a company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization; and (b) has the requisite corporate power and authority and the legal right to conduct its business as now conducted and hereafter contemplated to be conducted;

12.1.2 The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by such Party: (a) are within the corporate power of such Party; (b) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate action; (c) do not conflict with any provision of the organizational documents of such Party; (d) will not, to the Party's knowledge, violate any Laws or any order or decree of any court or Governmental Authority; and (e) will not violate or conflict with any terms of any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement or other instrument to which such Party is a party, or by which such Party is bound;

12.1.3 This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such Party and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Party, enforceable against such Party in accordance with its terms;

12.1.4 No governmental authorization, consent, approval (except Regulatory Approvals), license, registration, filing or exemption therefrom with any court or other Governmental Authority is or will be necessary for, or in connection with, the performance of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement or any other agreement or instrument executed in connection therewith;

12.1.5 Neither such Party nor, to either Party's knowledge, any of its employees has been debarred by the FDA (or similar action by any other Regulatory Authority), or subject to an FDA debarment investigation or proceeding (or similar investigation or proceeding by any other Regulatory Authority) for any reason.

12.2 Tarsus Representations and Warranties. Tarsus represents and warrants to Lian as of the Effective Date:

12.2.1 Tarsus is the sole and exclusive owner of the entire right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Patents (excluding the Elanco Patents, which Tarsus Controls).

12.2.2 Tarsus has not previously entered into any agreement with respect to, or otherwise assigned, licensed, transferred, conveyed, or otherwise encumbered its rights, title, and interest in or to the Licensed IP in the Field in the Territory in any manner that would conflict with the License granted to Lian herein.

12.2.3 Schedule 1.71 sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Patents existing as of the Effective Date that are owned, Controlled, or held for use by Tarsus relating to the Compound or Licensed Product in the Territory that, as of the Effective Date, (a) Cover any Licensed Know-How, or (b) are otherwise necessary for Lian to make, use, sell, offer to sell, or import any Licensed Product in the Field and in the Territory, excluding all Patents that both: (i) Cover any active therapeutic ingredient (or product containing such active therapeutic ingredient) other than the Compound or any use thereof; and (ii) do not Cover the Compound or any use thereof.

12.2.4 (a) the inventorship of the Licensed Patents in the Territory that are not Elanco Patents is properly identified on each issued patent or patent application in such Licensed Patents; (b) to Tarsus's knowledge, the inventorship of all Elanco Patents in the Territory is properly identified on each issued patent or patent application in such Licensed Patents; and (c) all fees required to be paid by Tarsus in any jurisdiction in the Territory in order to maintain the Licensed Patents have been timely paid.

12.2.5 Except for office actions or other communications from the USPTO or similar patent offices in foreign jurisdictions (and with respect to the USPTO, only to the extent disclosed in writing to Lian (including in a data room) prior to the Effective Date), Tarsus has not been notified of any action, lawsuit, claim or arbitration proceeding contesting the validity, ownership or enforceability of the Licensed Patents, and no such action, lawsuit, claim, or arbitration proceeding has been brought or threatened in writing, or, to Tarsus's knowledge otherwise threatened.

12.2.6 There is no pending litigation, or litigation that has been threatened in a writing received by Tarsus, that alleges, or any written communication received by Tarsus alleging, that Tarsus's practice of the Licensed IP prior to the Effective Date has infringed, misappropriated, or otherwise violated the Intellectual Property Rights of any Third Party.

12.2.7 To Tarsus's knowledge, the practice by Lian under the Licensed IP or the exploitation by Lian (or its Affiliates or any Sublicensees) of any Licensed Product, in each case, as contemplated under this Agreement in the Field and in the Territory, will not infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate any intellectual property of any Third Party.

12.2.8 Tarsus has taken reasonable efforts consistent with industry practices to protect the secrecy and confidentiality of all Licensed Know How that both: (a) constitutes trade secrets of Tarsus under applicable Law; and (b) Tarsus intends to maintain as confidential. To its knowledge, such Licensed Know How existing at the Effective Date has been kept confidential or has been disclosed to Third Parties only under terms of confidentiality.

12.2.9 Tarsus and its Affiliates have conducted all Development of Compounds and Licensed Products in accordance with all applicable Law in all material respects.

12.2.10 Tarsus has furnished or made available to Lian or its agents or representatives (a) all material (as determined by Tarsus in its reasonable discretion) safety and efficacy data existing as of the Effective Date in Tarsus's Control, and (b) all material (as determined by Tarsus in its reasonable discretion) Regulatory Filings and other material correspondence with Regulatory Authorities in Tarsus's control, in each case ((a) and (b)), concerning the Licensed Product (in each case in the form being Developed by Tarsus or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date) for use in the Field.

12.2.11 To Tarsus's knowledge, there is no material information, including regarding any safety, efficacy, or regulatory issues, within Tarsus's Control that has not been disclosed to Lian and that would materially adversely affect the acceptance, or the subsequent approval, by any Regulatory Authority of any Regulatory Filing for the Licensed Product in the Field and in the Territory.

12.3 Mutual Covenants. Each Party hereby covenants and agrees that:

12.3.1 it will not utilize in connection with the Development or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Product any person or entities that are debarred by the FDA pursuant to the provisions of the Generic Drug Enforcement Act of 1992 (21 U.S.C. § 335) or any similar legislation in the Territory; and

12.3.2 if, during the Term of this Agreement, it becomes aware that it or any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement is the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could lead to that Party becoming an entity or individual debarred by the FDA pursuant to the provisions of the Generic Drug Enforcement Act of 1992 (21 U.S.C. § 335) or any similar legislation in the Territory, or an excluded entity or individual or a convicted entity or individual with respect to such legislation, such Party will promptly notify the other Party.

12.3.3 to the extent permissible under applicable Law, (a) all employees, agents, advisors, consultants, contractors or other representatives of each Party or its Affiliates performing activities under this Agreement are and will be under an obligation to assign all rights, title, and interests in and to their Inventions, whether or not patentable, and Intellectual Property Rights therein, to such Party or its Affiliate as the sole owner thereof; (b) a Party will have no obligation to contribute to any remuneration of any inventor employed or previously employed by the other Party or any of its Affiliates in respect of any such Inventions and other Know-How and Intellectual Property Rights therein that are so assigned to a Party or its Affiliate(s); and (c) the Party employing such inventor will pay all such remuneration due for such Inventions and other Know-How and Intellectual Property Rights therein.

12.4 Disclaimer of Warranty. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN ARTICLE 12, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, TO THE OTHER PARTY, AND EACH PARTY HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. EACH PARTY HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT THE DEVELOPMENT, MANUFACTURE AND COMMERCIALIZATION OF THE PRODUCTS PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE SUCCESSFUL.

12.5 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES RESULTING FROM BREACHES OF ARTICLE 3, ARTICLE 10, SECTION 2.5, SECTION 2.6 [], OR THE PRACTICE OF THE LICENSED IP BY OR ON BEHALF OF LIAN OR ITS AFFILIATES OUTSIDE OF THE SCOPE OF THE LICENSES GRANTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, AND WITHOUT LIMITING EITHER PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS IN RESPECT OF INDEMNIFIABLE THIRD PARTY CLAIMS UNDER ARTICLE 13, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY HAVE ANY CLAIMS AGAINST OR LIABILITY TO THE OTHER PARTY WITH RESPECT TO ANY INDIRECT, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING ANY CLAIMS FOR LOST PROFITS OR REVENUES) ARISING UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INFORMED OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

13.1 Indemnification by Lian. Subject to Section 13.3, Lian shall indemnify and defend Tarsus and its Affiliates and each of their officers, directors, employees, successors and assigns from and against any and all liabilities, damages, settlements, penalties, fines, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses of litigation) (collectively, "Loss" or "Losses") resulting from any Claims of Third Parties to the extent arising out of (a) Lian's gross negligence or willful misconduct in performing any of its obligations or exercising its rights under this Agreement, (b) breach by Lian of any of its representations or warranties under this Agreement or any obligation, covenant, or agreement in this Agreement, or (c) solely relating to activities directed to the Development or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products within the Territory by Lian, Lian Affiliates, Sublicensees, agents or subcontractors (including any use, handling, storage, marketing, sale, distribution or other disposition of the Compound or Licensed Products by such persons in performance of such Development or Commercialization), except to the extent any such Losses are Losses for which Tarsus is obligated to indemnify Lian pursuant to Section 13.2.

13.2 Indemnification by Tarsus. Subject to Section 13.3, Tarsus shall indemnify and defend Lian and its Affiliates and each of their officers, directors, employees, successors and assigns from and against any and all Losses resulting from all Claims of Third Parties to the extent arising out of (a) [].

13.3 Procedure for Indemnification.

13.3.1 Notice. Each Party (the “Indemnified Party”) will notify promptly the other Party (the “Indemnifying Party”) in writing if it becomes aware of a Claim (actual or potential) by any Third Party or any proceeding (including, but not limited to, any investigation by a Governmental Authority) for which indemnification may be sought and will give such related information as the Indemnifying Party shall reasonably request; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Claim as provided in this Section 13.3.1 will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.

13.3.2 Defense of Claim. The Indemnifying Party shall have sole control over the defense and settlement of any such Claims and shall be responsible for satisfying and discharging any award made to or settlement reached with the Third Party pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The Indemnifying Party shall use counsel reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party and shall be responsible for the fees and expenses of such counsel related to such proceeding. In any such proceeding, the Indemnified Party, at its sole expense, shall have the right to retain its own counsel at its own expense. If the Indemnifying Party fails to assume control over the defense of any such Claims, then the Indemnified Party may control such defense using counsel of its choosing, and the Indemnifying Party will be responsible for the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel related to such proceeding. The Party controlling the defense of any Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Indemnifying Party.

13.3.3 Settlement. The Indemnifying Party shall not, without the written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, refused, conditioned or delayed), effect any settlement of any such Third Party Claim, unless such settlement includes an unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability on such Claims or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof unless such settlement or judgment includes a full and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto, that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party, or that adversely affects the rights of the Indemnified Party.

14. PROSECUTION; LITIGATION.

14.1 Prosecution and Maintenance of Patents.

14.1.1 Tarsus shall have the first right (but not the obligation) to Prosecute the Licensed Patents at its own expense. Tarsus shall keep Lian reasonably updated with regard to the Prosecution of the Licensed Patents in the Territory and shall provide Lian with copies of all applications, filings, and official correspondence (including, applications, office actions and responses) relating thereto. Tarsus will provide Lian a reasonable opportunity to provide comments on drafts of all material filings and correspondence related to Prosecution of the Licensed Patents in the Territory (which comments Tarsus shall consider in good faith but may accept or reject in its sole discretion). Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any Licensed Patent that is licensed to Tarsus from a Third Party, the foregoing review and comment rights will only apply to the extent that Tarsus has such rights.

14.1.2 Tarsus may abandon the Prosecution of any Licensed Patents in its sole discretion. Tarsus will provide Lian at least [] days' notice of its intention to abandon such Prosecution and provide Lian with reasonable opportunity, but not the obligation, to assume responsibility for the Prosecution of such Licensed Patents as set forth below. In the event that Tarsus abandons the Prosecution of Licensed Patents in the Territory at any time during the Term, Lian may assume the Prosecution responsibility therefor in the name of Tarsus, and the costs associated with such prosecution shall be paid by Lian at its sole discretion. No such action by Lian will change the ownership or license provisions with respect to the applicable Licensed Patent unless agreed by the Parties in writing. Tarsus will execute all documents that Lian may reasonably request for such purposes. Lian shall have no further obligations to Tarsus with respect to any such Licensed Patents and such Licensed Patent shall be deemed expired for all purposes of Section 9.6.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any Licensed Patent that is licensed to Tarsus from a Third Party, the foregoing will only apply to the extent that Tarsus has such rights.

14.2 Enforcement and Defense.

14.2.1 Notice of Infringement. Each Party shall promptly notify the other in writing (a) of any actual or suspected infringement or misappropriation by a Third Party of any Licensed IP in the Territory (including unauthorized importation into the Territory for sale in the Territory), of which it becomes aware, or (b) upon receiving notification that a Licensed Patent is subject to a declaratory judgment action, opposition, nullity action, interference, ex parte and inter partes reexaminations, ex parte and inter partes review, post-grant review, derivation proceeding, or similar action alleging non-infringement, invalidity or unenforceability in the Territory, which notification shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of such actual or suspected infringement or judicial action.

14.2.2 Right to Enforce. As between the Parties (and, with respect to the Elanco Patents, subject to Elanco's approval), Lian shall have the first right, using counsel of its choice, to enforce the applicable Licensed Patent(s) in the Territory with respect to infringement in the Field (a "Third Party Infringement Action"), at its expense, and Tarsus shall reasonably cooperate, in good faith, with Lian in such Action, at Lian's expense. Lian shall provide Tarsus with an opportunity to make suggestions and comments regarding such enforcement, and Lian shall consider all such suggestions and comments in good faith. Lian shall keep Tarsus reasonably informed of the status and progress of the litigation. Without limiting the foregoing, if Lian is authorized hereunder to initiate an Action against a Third Party under this Section 14.2.2, but Lian is not recognized by the applicable court or other relevant body as having the requisite standing to pursue such action, then at Lian's request, Tarsus shall join in as party-plaintiff or commence such Action in its own name and, in either event, cooperate with Lian, at Lian's expense. If Lian does not elect to enforce the Licensed Patents against a Third Party Infringement Action within [] days after one Party informs the other of such Third Party Infringement Action, then Tarsus may enforce the Licensed Patents against such Third Party.

14.2.3 Defense. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party if a Third Party brings any Action alleging patent infringement by Lian or Tarsus or any of their respective Affiliates or Sublicensees with respect to the Development, manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (any such Action, an "Infringement Claim"). Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory with respect to Lian's activities, at Lian's sole cost and expense, and Tarsus will have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory by counsel of its own choice. Tarsus will have the sole right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim with respect to Tarsus's activities, including any such Infringement Claim outside of the Field or outside of the Territory. Upon the request of the Party controlling the response to the Infringement Claim, the other Party will reasonably cooperate with the controlling Party in the reasonable defense of such Infringement Claim. The other Party will have the right to consult with the controlling Party concerning any Infringement Claim and to participate in and be represented by independent counsel in any associated litigation. If the Infringement Claim is brought against both Parties, then each Party will have the right to defend against the Infringement Claim. The Party defending an Infringement Claim under this Section 14.2.3 will (a) consult with the other Party as to the strategy for the prosecution of such defense, (b) consider in good faith any comments from the other Party with respect thereto, and (c) keep the other Party reasonably informed of any material steps taken and provide copies of all material documents filed, in connection with such defense. The Party controlling the defense against an Infringement Claim will have the right to settle such Infringement Claim on terms deemed reasonably appropriate by such Party, provided that, unless any such settlement includes a full and unconditional release from all liability of the other Party and does not adversely affect the rights of the other Party, any such settlement will be subject to the other Party's prior written consent.

14.2.4 Distribution of Recoveries. Any damages obtained (whether in judgment or settlement) in a Third Party Infringement Action to the extent attributable to infringement of Licensed Patents in the Field in the Territory shall be distributed as follows: (a) first, each Party and Elanco shall be reimbursed for its reasonable out-of-pocket costs (if any) paid in connection with the proceeding, and Tarsus shall be reimbursed for such amounts as necessary to reimburse Elanco in connection with the proceeding as required under the Elanco Agreement; (b) second, Lian shall retain [] of such amounts if it was the Party to enforce such Third Party Infringement Action, provided that such recoveries shall be []; and (c) finally, if Tarsus was the Party to enforce such Third Party Infringement Action, then Tarsus shall retain [] of the remaining amount and pay the remaining [] to Lian.

14.2.5 Settlement. In no case may Lian enter into any settlement or consent judgment or other voluntary final disposition with respect to any infringement Action referenced in this Section 14.2 that: (a) extends, or purports to exercise, Lian's rights under the Licensed IP beyond the rights granted pursuant to this Agreement; (b) makes any admission regarding wrongdoing by Tarsus or the invalidity, unenforceability or absence of infringement of any Licensed Patents; (c) subjects Tarsus to an injunction or other equitable relief; or (d) obligates Tarsus to make a monetary payment; in all cases without the prior written consent of Tarsus, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Similarly, in no case may Tarsus enter into any settlement or consent judgment or other voluntary final disposition with respect to any infringement Action referenced in this Section 14.2 that: (i) limits Lian's rights or interests under the Licensed IP under this Agreement; (ii) makes any admission regarding wrongdoing by Lian; (iii) subjects Lian to an injunction or other equitable relief; or (iv) obligates Lian to make a monetary payment; in all cases without the prior written consent of Lian, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

14.2.6 In-Licensed Patents. With respect to any Licensed Patent that is licensed to Tarsus from a Third Party, to the extent Tarsus has the right to do so, Tarsus will cooperate with Lian to enforce, such Licensed Patents in the Field and in the Territory in the same manner as set forth in this Section 14.2. As between Tarsus and Lian, any recoveries from enforcement of such Licensed Patents owned by a Third Party shall be shared in accordance with Section 14.2.4, after deducting from such recoveries any amounts owed to the Third Party licensor for such enforcement.

15. ANTI-CORRUPTION.

15.1 In the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, each Party shall comply and shall cause its and its Affiliates' employees, licensees, sublicensees, and contractors (collectively with respect to Lian, "Lian Personnel") to comply with all applicable Laws.

15.2 Lian and Lian Personnel shall not, in connection with the performance of their respective obligations under this Agreement, directly or indirectly through Third Parties, pay, promise, or offer to pay, or authorize the payment of, any money or give any promise or offer to give, or authorize the giving of anything of value to a Public Official or Entity or other person for purpose of obtaining or retaining business for or with, or directing business to, any person, including, Lian (and Lian represents and warrants that as of the Effective Date, Lian and Lian Personnel have not directly or indirectly promised, offered, or provided any corrupt payment, gratuity, emolument, bribe, kickback, illicit gift, or hospitality or other illegal or unethical benefit to a Public Official or Entity or any other person in connection with the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement, and Lian covenants that Lian and Lian Personnel shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any of the foregoing).

15.3 Lian and Lian Personnel, in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, shall not violate or cause the violation of the Anti-Corruption Laws, Export Control Laws, or any other applicable Laws, or otherwise cause any reputational harm to Tarsus.

15.4 Lian shall promptly notify Tarsus if it has any knowledge of or reasonably believes that there may be a violation of the Anti-Corruption Laws, Export Control Laws, or any other applicable Laws in connection with the performance of this Agreement or the Development or Commercialization of any Licensed Product.

15.5 In the event that Lian has violated or been suspected of violating any of the representations, warranties, or covenants in this Article 15, Lian will cause Lian Personnel or others working under its direction or control to submit to periodic training that it will provide on Anti-Corruption Law compliance or other relevant compliance.

15.6 Lian will, at Tarsus's request (not more than once per Calendar Year), provide reasonable documentation evidencing its compliance, in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, with the representations, warranties, or covenants in Article 15.

16. TERM AND TERMINATION.

16.1 Term. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall expire upon the expiration of the Royalty Term in the Territory for all Licensed Products, unless earlier terminated as provided in this Article 16 (the "Term").

16.2 Termination of this Agreement by Lian for Convenience. Lian may terminate this Agreement for any reason upon [] days' prior notice to Tarsus.

16.3 Termination for Breach.

16.3.1 Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon notice to the other Party for any material breach of this Agreement by the other Party, if such material breach is not cured within [] days (or [] days for payment breaches) after the breaching Party receives notice of such breach from the non-breaching Party, or, if such breach can be cured but cannot be cured within [] days and if the breaching Party prepares and uses reasonable efforts to follow a cure plan, up to [] days. The written notice describing the alleged material breach will provide sufficient detail to put the breaching Party on notice of such material breach. [].

16.3.2 [] may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Lian if [] and fails to cure such breach within [] days. For clarity, such termination is not subject to any tolling or opportunity to cure following such then [] day period. Additionally, Section 17.6 shall not apply with respect to any breach of Section 9.1.

16.4 Termination for Patent Challenge. Tarsus shall have the right to terminate this Agreement in its entirety, immediately upon the issuance of notice to Lian, if at any time Lian or any of its Affiliates or any Sublicensee challenges, or causes to be challenged, in any way, the validity, enforceability or scope of the Licensed Patents in any court or before any Governmental Authority with authority to determine the validity, enforceability or scope of such Licensed Patents (a “Patent Challenge”), or cause or request, without the prior written approval of Tarsus, a review by any such court or Governmental Authority of the same. For clarity, a Patent Challenge includes Lian or any of its Affiliates or any Sublicensee, directly or indirectly: (i) initiating or requesting an interference or opposition proceeding with respect to any Licensed Patents; (ii) making, filing or maintaining any claim, demand, lawsuit, or cause of action to challenge the validity or enforceability of any Licensed Patents; or (iii) opposing any extension of, or the grant of a supplementary protection certificate with respect to, any Licensed Patents. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, Tarsus’s right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 16.4 will not apply to any Patent Challenge that (a) (i) is a Patent Challenge of Licensed Patent(s) held in the Territory (and not any other Licensed Patent(s)) first made by Lian or any of its Affiliates or any Sublicensee in defense of a claim of patent infringement brought by Tarsus under the applicable Licensed Patents held in the Territory, or (ii) is brought by any Sublicensee if Lian terminates such Sublicensee’s sublicense to all Licensed IP within [] days after Tarsus’s notice to Lian under this Section 16.4; and (b) is not a Patent Challenge of any Elanco Patent.

16.5 Termination for Bankruptcy. Either Party hereto shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable Laws, forthwith upon notice to the other Party (a) if the other Party is declared insolvent or bankrupt by a court of competent jurisdiction, (b) if a voluntary or involuntary petition of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation, or receivership is filed in any court of competent jurisdiction against the other Party and such petition is not dismissed or stayed within [] days after filing or (c) if the other Party shall make or execute an assignment of substantially all of its assets for the benefit of creditors.

16.6 Rights in Bankruptcy.

16.6.1 All rights and licenses now or hereafter granted by either Party to the other Party under or pursuant to this Agreement are, for all purposes of Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, licenses of rights to “intellectual property” as defined in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Upon the filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, upon the appointment of a receiver or trustee over all or substantially all property, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by either Party, such Party agrees that the other Party, as licensee of such rights under this Agreement, will retain and may fully exercise all of its rights and elections under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Each Party will, during the Term, create and maintain current copies or, if not amenable to copying, detailed descriptions or other appropriate embodiments, to the extent feasible, of all Intellectual Property Rights licensed by such Party under this Agreement. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that “embodiments” of Intellectual Property Rights within the meaning of Section 365(n) include laboratory notebooks, cell lines, product samples and inventory, research studies and data, all Regulatory Approvals (and all applications for Regulatory Approval) and rights of reference therein, the Licensed Know-How, Licensed Patents, and all information related to the Licensed Know-How or Licensed Patents. If (A) a case under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code is commenced by or against either Party, (B) this Agreement is rejected as provided in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and (C) the other Party elects to retain its rights hereunder as provided in Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the Party subject to such case (in any capacity, including debtor-in-possession) and its successors and assigns (including a trustee) will:

(a) provide the non-subject Party with all such Intellectual Property Rights (including all embodiments thereof) held by the subject Party and such successors and assigns, or otherwise available to them, immediately upon the non-subject Party's written request. Whenever the subject Party or any of its successors or assigns provides to the non-subject Party any of the Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder (or any embodiment thereof) pursuant to this Section 16.6, the non-subject Party will have the right to perform the subject Party's obligations hereunder with respect to such Intellectual Property Rights, but neither such provision nor such performance by the non-subject Party will release the subject Party from liability resulting from rejection of the license or the failure to perform such obligations; and

(b) not interfere with the non-subject Party's rights under this Agreement, or any agreement supplemental hereto, to such Intellectual Property Rights (including such embodiments), including any right to obtain such Intellectual Property Rights (or such embodiments) from another entity, to the extent provided in Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

16.6.2 All rights, powers and remedies of the non-subject Party provided in this Section 16.6 are in addition to and not in substitution for any other rights, powers, and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including the U.S. Bankruptcy Code) in the event of the commencement of a case under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code with respect to the subject Party. The Parties intend the following rights to extend to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, and to be enforceable under U.S. Bankruptcy Code Section 365(n):

(a) the right of access to any Intellectual Property Rights (and all embodiments thereof) of the subject Party or any Third Party that is licensed or sublicensed to the non-subject Party under this Agreement; and

(b) the right to contract directly with any Third Party to complete the contracted work.

16.7 Effects of Termination.

16.7.1 Upon expiration of the Royalty Term of each Licensed Product in each Region, the License will become non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, royalty-free, fully sublicenseable, and transferable in the Field and in the Territory for such Licensed Product in such Region.

16.7.2 Upon the early termination of this Agreement: (a) all rights and licenses granted to Lian herein shall terminate and revert to Tarsus; (b) at Tarsus's request, Lian shall either promptly transition to Tarsus any on-going Clinical Trials with respect to the applicable Licensed Product or wind down such Clinical Trials; (c) Lian shall promptly provide Tarsus with all data and results in its possession relating to Licensed Products; (d) Lian will promptly assign or transfer, or cause to be assigned and transferred to Tarsus (or if not so assignable, Lian shall take all reasonable actions to make available to Tarsus the benefits of), all Regulatory Filings, Manufacturing Technology, Know-How, Regulatory Approvals, and trademarks (including all trademark applications and registration and associated goodwill) to the extent solely related to the Licensed Products (collectively, "Product Materials"); and (e) all rights granted by Lian to Tarsus under this Agreement will survive. Lian will perform the foregoing activities (b) through (d)) at its sole cost and expense, provided that, if this Agreement is terminated by Lian pursuant to Section 16.3 or Section 16.5, then Tarsus will reimburse Lian's reasonable costs and expenses for such activities. Lian shall, at Tarsus's expense, provide to Tarsus the necessary information to permit Tarsus to effect and perfect the transfer of all the Product Materials, and shall reasonably cooperate with Tarsus in executing appropriate documents to effectuate the transfer or assignment for the relevant Product Materials (including the Regulatory Approvals and trademarks) that are in the name of Lian or any of its Affiliates. Lian will have the right, for a period of [] days following termination of this Agreement, to sell or otherwise dispose of any Licensed Products on hand or in the process of being manufactured at the time of such termination.

16.7.3 Except as otherwise provided herein, upon termination of this Agreement, all remaining records, documents, materials, or other media in each Receiving Party's possession or control containing the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information and to which such Receiving Party does not retain rights hereunder, shall promptly be returned or destroyed at the request of the Disclosing Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, copies of such records may be retained by legal counsel for such Receiving Party solely for archival purposes. For clarity, Tarsus has no obligation to return or destroy records, documents, materials, or other media relating to any Licensed Products.

16.8 Survival. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not relieve the Parties of any liability accruing prior to such termination, and any such termination shall be without prejudice to the rights of either Party against the other. The provisions of Articles 1, 10, 13, and 17 and Sections 2.7, 5.6.2 (with respect to Lian's obligations for the period set forth therein), 8.2, 8.3.1, 9.10, 12.4, 12.5, 16.6, 16.7, and 16.8 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

17.1 LianBio Guarantee. LianBio hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees, as a primary obligor and not merely as surety, the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations of Lian under this Agreement (the "Lian Obligations"). LianBio agrees that the Lian Obligations may be extended, modified, or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, modification, or renewal of any Lian Obligation. The obligations of LianBio under this Section 17.1 will not be affected by the failure of Tarsus to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against Lian under the provisions of this Agreement or otherwise. LianBio further agrees that its guarantee constitutes a guarantee of payment and performance when due and not of collection. However, prior to seeking satisfaction of any Lian Obligation by LianBio, Tarsus will first direct any requests with respect to the satisfactions of any outstanding or overdue Lian Obligations to Lian.

17.2 Affiliates. Each Party may discharge any obligations and, to the extent applicable, subject to the provisions concerning sublicenses, exercise any rights hereunder through delegation of its obligations or rights to any of its Affiliates, provided that each Party hereby guarantees the performance by its Affiliates of such Party's obligations under this Agreement and will cause its Affiliates to comply with the provisions of this Agreement in connection with such performance.

17.3 Publications. Lian will notify Tarsus of any planned abstracts, oral presentations and manuscripts relating to the publication of clinical data and other scientific data generated in the course of Development of the relevant Licensed Product by Lian. Lian shall provide a draft of the planned submission or presentation at least [] days prior to publication or presentation (as the case may be) and will incorporate in good faith all comments of Tarsus to prevent the disclosure of any Confidential Information of Tarsus contained therein, and will allow for the filing of patent applications as necessary to preserve proprietary rights in the information in the material being submitted for publication or presentation. The review period may be extended for an additional [] days if Tarsus can demonstrate a reasonable need for such extension for purposes of the preparation and filing of patent applications. The Parties will each comply with standard academic practice regarding authorship of scientific publications and recognition of contribution of other parties in any such publications or presentations.

17.4 Public Announcements. Lian and Tarsus have agreed on language of a joint press release announcing this Agreement, which, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, will be issued by the Parties promptly after the Effective Date substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule 17.4. Except as may be expressly permitted under this Section 17.4 or mandated by applicable Laws or the rules of any stock exchange, neither Party will make any public announcement of any information regarding this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party. Once any statement is approved for disclosure by the Parties, either Party may make a subsequent public disclosure containing the same information disclosed in such prior public announcement without further approval of the other Party.

17.5 Relationship of the Parties. This Agreement is not a partnership agreement and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to establish a relationship of partners or joint venturers between the Parties.

17.6 Force Majeure. The occurrence of an event that materially interferes with the ability of a Party to perform its obligations or duties hereunder which is not within the reasonable control of the Party affected, and which could not with the exercise of Commercially Reasonable Efforts have been avoided ("Force Majeure Event"), including, but not limited to, war, rebellion, earthquake, fire, accident, strike, riot, civil commotion, act of God, epidemic, pandemic, quarantine, inability to obtain raw materials, delay or errors by shipping companies or change in Law, shall not excuse such Party from the performance of its obligations or duties under this Agreement, but shall merely suspend such performance (other than performance of payment obligations) during the Force Majeure Event. The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date may be invoked as a Force Majeure Event for the purposes of this Agreement even though the pandemic is ongoing to the extent those effects are not reasonably foreseeable by the Parties as of the Effective Date. The Party subject to a Force Majeure Event shall promptly notify the other Party of the occurrence and particulars of such Force Majeure Event and shall provide the other Party, from time to time, with its best estimate of the duration of such Force Majeure Event and with notice of the termination thereof. The Party so affected shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance as soon as is reasonably practicable. Upon termination of the Force Majeure Event, the performance of any suspended obligation or duty shall without delay recommence. The Party subject to the Force Majeure Event shall not be liable to the other Party for any damages arising out of or relating to the suspension or termination of any of its obligations or duties under this Agreement by reason of the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, provided that such Party complies in all material respects with its obligations under this Section 17.6.

17.7 Dispute Resolution. Subject to the dispute escalation and decision-making provisions of Article 4, in the event of any dispute, controversy or claim hereunder arising out of or relating to this Agreement either Party may, on [] days notice to the other Party, initiate binding arbitration in accordance with the then-current Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (the "ICC"). The Parties shall select a mutually acceptable arbitrator within [] days of the request of the Party invoking this dispute resolution procedure. If the Parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator, then the ICC shall select a qualified, independent arbitrator. Such arbitration will be held in New York City, New York and conducted in the English language. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding on the Parties. The prevailing Party may enforce any arbitration decision or award, and either Party may seek injunctive, equitable or similar relief (without the requirement of arbitration), in any court having competent jurisdiction.

17.8 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed, and the respective rights of the Parties determined, according to the substantive law of the State of New York without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof. The United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this Agreement.

17.9 Attorneys' Fees and Related Costs. The prevailing Party, as determined by the arbitrators, shall be entitled to (a) its share of fees and expenses of the arbitrators and (b) its attorneys' fees and any and all associated costs and expenses. In determining which Party "prevailed," the arbitrators shall consider (i) the significance, including the financial impact, of the claims prevailed upon and (ii) the scope of claims prevailed upon, in comparison to the total scope of the claims at issue. If the arbitrators determine that, given the scope of the arbitration, neither Party "prevailed," the arbitrators shall order that the Parties (1) share equally the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and (2) bear their own attorneys' fees and associated costs and expenses.

17.10 Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either Party, in whole or in part, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided that, without prior written consent, either Party may assign this Agreement, in whole or in part, to any of its Affiliates if such Party guarantees the performance of this Agreement by such Affiliate, or to a successor to all or substantially all of the assets or business of such Party to which this Agreement relates, whether by merger, sale of stock, sale of assets or other similar transaction. Any assignment in violation of this provision is void and without effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto, their permitted successors, legal representatives and assigns.

17.11 Notices. All demands, notices, consents, approvals, reports, requests and other communications hereunder must be in writing, in English, and will be deemed to have been duly given only if delivered personally, by mail (first class, postage prepaid), or by overnight delivery using a globally-recognized carrier, to the Parties at the following addresses:

supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; (d) references to a particular Laws mean such Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto; (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively; (f) unless the context requires a different interpretation, the word “or” has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase “and/or”; (g) the terms “including,” “include(s),” “such as,” “e.g.” and “for example” mean including the generality of any description preceding such term and will be deemed to be followed by “without limitation”; (h) whenever this Agreement refers to a number of days, such number will refer to calendar days unless Business Days are specified, and if a period of time is specified and dates from a given day or Business Day, or the day or Business Day of an act or event, it is to be calculated exclusive of that day or Business Day; (i) “monthly” means on a calendar month basis, (j) “quarter” or “quarterly” means on a Calendar Quarter basis; (k) “annual” or “annually” means on a Calendar Year basis; (l) “year” means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (m) references to a particular Person include such Person’s successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (n) the use of any gender herein will be deemed to encompass references to either or both genders, and the use of the singular will be deemed to include the plural (and vice versa); (o) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (p) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (q) the words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby” and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Exhibits or Schedules); (r) neither Party or its Affiliates will be deemed to be acting “on behalf of” the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (s) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder “agree”, “consent” or “approve” or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (t) the word “shall” will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “will”.

17.14 Waiver. No waiver of any term or condition of this Agreement shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by or on behalf of the waiving Party. No waiver by any Party of any term or condition of this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of the same or any other term or condition of this Agreement on any prior, concurrent or future occasion. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, all rights and remedies available to a Party, whether under this Agreement or afforded by Law or otherwise, will be cumulative and not in the alternative to any other rights or remedies that may be available to such Party.

17.15 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the exhibits and schedules hereto) constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements and understandings between the Parties, whether written or oral, including to all proposals, negotiations, conversations, letters of intent, memoranda of understanding or discussions, between Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and all past dealing or industry custom.

17.16 Modification. This Agreement may be altered, amended or changed only by a writing making specific reference to this Agreement and the clause to be modified, which amendment is signed by duly authorized representatives of Tarsus and Lian.

17.17 No Third Party Beneficiaries. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any Third Party, including any creditor of either Party hereto.

17.18 Ambiguities. This Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted jointly by both Parties; and ambiguities, if any, shall not be construed against either Party, irrespective of which Party may have actually drafted the ambiguous provision.

17.19 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which, when executed, shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same document.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Tarsus and Lian, by their duly authorized officers, have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date.

This License, Development and Commercialization Agreement (this “Agreement”) is entered into and effective as of May 11, 2021 (the “Effective Date”), by and between Nanobiotix S.A., a French société anonyme having its registered office located at 60 Rue de Wattignies, 75012, Paris, France, registered under number 447 521 600 (RCS Paris) (“Nanobiotix”), and LianBio Oncology Limited, a Hong Kong company limited by shares, having its principal place of business located at Room 1902, 19/F, Lee Garden One, 33 Hysan Avenue, Causeway Bay, Hong Kong (“Lian”). Nanobiotix and Lian are sometimes referred to herein individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

In presence of LianBio, an exempted company organized and existing under the laws of Cayman Islands having its registered office located at c/o Ogier Global (Cayman) Limited, 89 Nexus Way, Camana Bay, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands KY1-9009 (“LianBio Cayman”), who is entering into this Agreement for the purposes of acknowledging and accepting the obligations imposed on it pursuant to Section 15.13 of this Agreement.

Recitals

WHEREAS, Nanobiotix is a biotechnology company that uses nanomedicine to develop new radiotherapy techniques for cancer patients.

WHEREAS, Nanobiotix owns or controls data, know-how and other intellectual property relating to such products;

WHEREAS, Lian is a biotechnology company focused on bringing paradigm-shifting medicines to patients;

WHEREAS, Lian desires to obtain from Nanobiotix certain rights and licenses to develop and commercialize such nanomedicine product in certain Asian countries, and Nanobiotix is willing to supply such product and to grant Lian such rights and licenses in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual covenants herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Nanobiotix and Lian hereby agree as follows:

DEFINITIONS AND USAGE

1.1 Definitions. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in Schedule 1.1, or, only to the extent not defined in Schedule 1.1, as otherwise defined herein.

1.2 Headings, Gender and Number. All section and article titles or captions contained in this Agreement and in any exhibit, schedule or certificate referred to herein or annexed to this Agreement are for convenience only, shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Words used herein, regardless of the number and gender specifically used, shall be deemed and construed to include any other number, singular or plural, and other gender, masculine, feminine, or neuter, as the context requires.

1.3 References. Unless explicitly provided for, references to articles, sections, schedules or exhibits are references to articles, sections, schedules or exhibits of this Agreement.

1.4 Usage. Unless otherwise indicated to the contrary herein by context or use hereof, (a) words importing the singular shall also include the plural, and vice versa; (b) all references to days in this Agreement shall mean calendar days, unless otherwise specified; (c) the words “include,” “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “but not limited to” unless expressly stated otherwise; (d) the word “or” has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase “and/or”, unless otherwise specified; (f) “monthly” means on a calendar month basis, (g) “quarter” or “quarterly” means on a calendar quarter basis; (h) “annual” or “annually” means on a Calendar Year basis; (i) “year” means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (j) references to a particular Person include such Person’s successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (k) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (l) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (m) the words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby” and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Schedules); (n) neither Party or its Affiliates will be deemed to be acting “on behalf of” the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (o) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder “agree”, “consent” or “approve” or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (p) the word “will” will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “shall”; (q) references to any agreement, instrument, or other document in this Agreement refer to such agreement, instrument, or other document as originally executed or, if subsequently amended, replaced, or supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; and (r) references to particular Applicable Laws mean such Applicable Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Applicable Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto.

GRANT OF LICENSE

2.1 License Grant.

(a) Licensed IP. Subject to Section 3.3(b), Nanobiotix hereby grants to Lian, and Lian accepts, an exclusive (even as to Nanobiotix), sublicensable (subject to Section 2.2), royalty-bearing license under the Nanobiotix IP to Develop and Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, provided that Nanobiotix shall be entitled to continue and conclude, directly or indirectly, the following Development for the Licensed Products in the Territory that is on-going as of the Effective Date of the Agreement: (i) the clinical study known as “Rectal PEP503-RC-1001”, (ii) the clinical study known as the “NBTXR3 301 Study” and (iii) the clinical study known as “HNSCC PEP503-RC-1002”. Manufacturing of Licensed Product for the Territory is reserved to Nanobiotix, provided that Lian shall label and package the vials of Licensed Product supplied by Nanobiotix as further set out herein and in the Supply Agreement.

(b) Non Development. The Parties shall not Develop or Commercialize the Licensed Product outside the Field in the Territory.

(c) Brand Name. Lian may Commercialize the Licensed Products under the Nanobiotix Trademarks. If (i) Regulatory Authorities in the Territory require or (ii) Lian elects to market the Licensed Products within the Territory under a separate brand name than the Nanobiotix Trademarks (including a localized version of any Nanobiotix Trademark), then Lian shall provide such alternative brand name for the Licensed Products within the Territory to the JSC for review and approval and any Trademark composed of such alternative brand name shall be filed and owned by Nanobiotix, unless otherwise agreed in writing or set forth in this Section 2.1(c), and shall accordingly become a part of the Nanobiotix Trademarks. Nanobiotix will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to diligently file and maintain such Trademarks for the Licensed Products within the Territory, at Nanobiotix’s sole cost and expense, provided that Nanobiotix may elect, upon written notice to Lian, to transfer to Lian the responsibility for filing and maintaining such Trademarks in the Territory. Upon transfer of Nanobiotix’s responsibility for filing and maintaining Trademarks in the Territory, Nanobiotix will promptly deliver to Lian copies of all necessary files related to such Trademarks and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for Lian to assume control of such filing and maintenance. In addition, at any time prior to First Commercial Sale in the Territory, Nanobiotix may elect to Commercialize the Licensed Products outside the Territory under a Trademark other than the Nanobiotix Trademarks, in which case, Nanobiotix will notify Lian about the change, the new brand name or Trademark shall become part of the Nanobiotix Trademarks, and Lian may Commercialize the Licensed Product under such new brand name or Trademark.

(d) Combination Product. The Development or Commercialization of a Combination Product in the Field in the Territory is subject to [].

2.2 Sublicense to Affiliates or Third Parties. Lian will have a right to grant sublicenses to Affiliates of Lian, solely as long as they are Affiliates of Lian, and which shall terminate, if and when a sublicensed entity is no longer an Affiliate of Lian. Lian will have a right to grant sublicenses to Third Party subcontractors involved in the Development of the Licensed Products, []. Any sublicense or other contractual delegation to a Person other than (a) an Affiliate of Lian or (b) any such Third Party subcontractors involved in the Development of the Licensed Products (i) shall be pursuant to a written agreement that imposes on such Sublicensee obligations that are at least as protective of Nanobiotix’s rights as the relevant restrictions and limitations set forth in this Agreement, and (ii) [], provided that any proposed sublicense or other contractual delegation to a Competitor shall be at Nanobiotix’s sole discretion. For the avoidance of doubt, any Third Party to which Lian delegates substantially all of the Commercialization of Licensed Products in a given country in the Territory shall be deemed a Sublicensee of Lian. Lian shall remain responsible for its Affiliates’ and each Sublicensee's compliance with all obligations under this Agreement applicable to such Affiliates or Sublicensees. Upon the termination of this Agreement, any sublicense shall terminate with this Agreement, provided that at the written request of any Sublicensee who is (a) [] and (b) [], Nanobiotix agrees to negotiate in good faith [] a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee, [].

2.3 No Implied Licenses. No rights or licenses, other than as expressly set forth in this Agreement, are granted to either Party under this Agreement, and no additional rights will be deemed granted to either Party by implication, estoppel, or otherwise. All rights not expressly granted by either Party, or its Affiliates to the other Party under this Agreement are reserved. Nanobiotix retains the right to directly or indirectly Develop, Manufacture and otherwise Commercialize the Licensed Products anywhere in the world excluding the Territory.

2.4 Transfer of Nanobiotix Know-How. Promptly as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, Nanobiotix will disclose and make available to Licensee the Nanobiotix Know-How that exists as of the Effective Date that is necessary or reasonably useful for Lian's Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in accordance with this Agreement. Nanobiotix may make such Nanobiotix Know-How available in such reasonable form as Nanobiotix determines, including, if Nanobiotix so elects, in the form such Nanobiotix Know-How is maintained by Nanobiotix. In addition, Nanobiotix will provide updates throughout the Term to Lian of any Know-How that Nanobiotix or its Affiliates comes to Control that constitutes Nanobiotix Know-How (such updates to be made reasonably promptly after any calendar quarter in which such Know-How comes into Control of Nanobiotix or its Affiliates), and Nanobiotix will (a) promptly after Lian's request, make available to Lian all such Know-How in Nanobiotix's Control and not previously provided to Lian hereunder, and (b) for a period of [] months after the initial Nanobiotix Know-How transfer, provide Lian with reasonable access to Nanobiotix personnel involved in the Development of such Licensed Product, either in-person at Nanobiotix's facility or by teleconference; provided that such support will not exceed [], unless the Parties otherwise agree.

2.5 Exclusivity.

(a) Generally. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither Nanobiotix or its Affiliates, nor Lian or any of its Affiliates will (by itself or with or through an Affiliate, a Sublicensee or a Third Party) Develop, Manufacture, or otherwise Commercialize any Competing Product in the Field in the Territory. Lian shall not Develop or Commercialize a Licensed Product other than licensed hereunder.

(b) [].

3.1 Development Plans.

(a) Territory-Specific Development Plan. Lian (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Third Party subcontractors) shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Lian will conduct the Development for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory in accordance with a development and regulatory plan and regulatory strategy for Development and Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Products solely in the Field in the Territory (the “Territory-Specific Development Plan”, as set forth in Exhibit A). Lian will update the Territory-Specific Development Plan not less than once per Calendar Year, and either Party may propose modifications to the Territory-Specific Development Plan at any time, subject in each case to approval by the JSC. Once approved by the JSC, each update to the Territory-Specific Development Plan will become effective and supersede the then-current Territory-Specific Development Plan. In the event of any proposed change to the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, the JSC will meet as promptly as practicable to review and discuss any such proposed changes and determine an appropriate revision (if any) to the Territory-Specific Development Plan. If Lian is delayed in performing (or fails to perform) an obligation assigned to Lian in the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of Nanobiotix’s failure to timely perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, then the timelines for the performance of Lian’s obligations under the Territory-Specific Development Plan will be extended commensurate with the delay caused by Nanobiotix. Except as expressly provided for otherwise herein, each Party will be responsible for its costs and expenses incurred in performing Development activities pursuant to the Territory-Specific Development Plan.

(b) Global Development Plan. Nanobiotix’s global Development of the Licensed Product outside of the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written plan (the “Global Development Plan”). Prior to the first Phase III Trial for any Licensed Product, Nanobiotix will provide the initial Global Development Plan to the JSC for its review, discussion, and [] regarding activities to be conducted in the Territory, approval. The Global Development Plan will include an outline of all major Development activities for the Licensed Product to be conducted throughout the world by Nanobiotix. From time to time, Nanobiotix may propose updates to the then-current Global Development Plan for the Licensed Products, to the JSC to review and discuss and [] regarding activities to be conducted in the Territory, approval.

(c) Development Plan Undertaking. []. If the NMPA provides guidance that the Licensed Product will be classified as a drug, then Lian shall participate in the global registrational Phase III Trials conducted by Nanobiotix pursuant to the Global Development Plan (the “Global Trials”). Subject further to NMPA’s acceptance of Lian’s or its Affiliate’s participation in the Global Trial for the following Indications, Lian undertakes to have:

(i) enrolled at least [] of the total number of patients (the “Enrollment Commitment”) in the following Global Trials, provided that such Global Trial may serve as a registrational study in the Territory:

– “HNSCC 312 registration trial starting Q3 2021, n= 500”;

– “[], n ~300 []”;

– the following three Global Trials (each, an “Additional Global Trial”): (1) “[] Ph III (n »500)*”, (2) “[] (n »500)*” and (3) “[] PhIII (n »500)*” (each, as listed on page 2 of Exhibit B attached hereto); provided that one or more of the foregoing three such Additional Global Trials may be substituted with one or more of the following Global Trials by decision of the JSC: (I) “[] (Ph III—n »500)*”, (II) “[] III (n »500)*”, (III) “[]—Ph III (n »500)*”, (IV) “[] Ph III (n »500)*” or (V) “[]—Ph III (n= 500)—[]”/[]—Ph III (n= 300) - []” (each, as listed on page 3 of Exhibit B attached hereto);

provided that, in each case, patient enrollment will be performed on an open and competitive recruitment basis, where (A) patients will be enrolled on a first-presented, first-enrolled basis among all trial centers, (B) to the extent Lian has not met the Enrollment Commitment by the time the full complement of the study population has been reached globally, Lian shall pay to Nanobiotix the difference between Nanobiotix’s costs for the trial and Nanobiotix’s costs for such trial had Lian fulfilled the Enrollment Commitment,

(ii) []:

(A) [], and

(B) [].

(d) Development Plan Incentive. For each Global Trial (excluding []) meeting the Enrollment Commitment, the Royalty Rates shall be reduced by [], provided that in no event will the applicable Royalty Rate be less than [] (the “Development Plan Incentive”).

3.2 Local Studies.

(a) Non-registrational Studies. For any non-registrational Clinical Trial (e.g., a Phase I Trial or Phase II Trial) conducted by Lian that is intended to support the Development or Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, Lian will provide Nanobiotix with access, and license and right of reference, to all clinical data and Regulatory Filings relating to such non-registrational Clinical Trial for use outside the Territory.

(b) Local Registrational Studies. In the event that Lian intends to conduct a Pivotal Trial for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (each, a “Local Registrational Study”), Lian will notify Nanobiotix reasonably in advance of the initiation of such Local Registrational Study and provide Nanobiotix with the study design, study protocol, study budget, and anticipated study initiation date (such notice, a “Local Registrational Study Notice”). Upon Nanobiotix’s receipt of a Local Registrational Study Notice, Nanobiotix will have the option to obtain a license and right of reference to the Local Registrational Study efficacy data and Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals containing such Local Registrational Study data (the “Territory-Specific Data”) for use in Developing, Manufacturing, and Commercializing the Licensed Products outside the Territory (the “Territory-Specific Data Option”):

(i) by exercising the Territory-Specific Data Option prior to the anticipated study initiation date, subject to Nanobiotix agreeing to be responsible for [] of the study costs for such Local Registrational Study incurred by or on behalf of Lian for such Local Registrational Study; or

(ii) by exercising the Territory-Specific Data Option after the anticipated study initiation date, subject to Nanobiotix agreeing to be responsible for [] of the study costs incurred by or on behalf of Lian for such Local Registrational Study (in which case Lian will provide to Nanobiotix a summary of the results of such Territory-Specific Data reasonably requested by Nanobiotix to help Nanobiotix determine whether or not it wants to exercise the option).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Lian shall provide to Nanobiotix at no cost the safety data resulting from any Local Registrational Study, which Nanobiotix may use as it deems required.

3.3 Global Studies.

(a) Non-registrational Studies. For any non-registrational Clinical Trial (e.g., a Phase I Trial or Phase II Trial) conducted by Nanobiotix that is intended to support the Development or Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the Field outside of the Territory, Nanobiotix will provide Lian with access, and license and right of reference, to all clinical data and Regulatory Filings relating to such non-registrational clinical Trial for use in the Territory.

(b) Global Registrational Studies. Without prejudice to Section 3.1(c) Nanobiotix will notify Lian reasonably in advance of the initiation of a Pivotal Trial for the Licensed Product (each, a “Global Registrational Study”) and may propose to Lian to participate in any such Global Registrational Study (such notice, a “Global Registrational Study Notice”). Upon Lian’s receipt of a Global Registrational Study Notice, Lian will have the option to obtain a license and right of reference to the Global Registrational Study efficacy data and Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals containing such Global Registrational Study data (the “Global Registrational Study Data”) for use in Developing and Commercializing the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory (the “Global Registrational Study Option”), subject to using Lian Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enroll study patients in the Territory equal to a minimum of [] of the total study patients in such Global Registrational Study, but in any event no more than [] patients in total per trial (the “Global Registrational Study Commitment”). Lian may exercise the Global Registrational Study Option:

(i) prior to the anticipated study initiation date, in which case if Lian fails to meet the Global Registrational Study Commitment, then Lian will reimburse Nanobiotix []; or

(ii) after the anticipated study initiation date, in which case Lian agrees to be responsible for [] of the total costs incurred by Nanobiotix to conduct such Global Registrational Study in which Lian did not participate.

The Parties shall discuss and agree in good faith any Post-Approval Commitment mandated by a Regulatory Authority upon the Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the Territory, including the inclusion of such mandated Post-Approval Commitment in a Global Registrational Study. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Nanobiotix shall provide to Lian at no cost the safety data resulting from any Global Registrational Study, which Lian may use as it deems required.

3.4 Study Cost Reimbursement. In the event that (a) Nanobiotix exercises any Territory-Specific Data Option pursuant to Section 3.2(b) or (b) Lian exercises any Global Registrational Study Option after the anticipated study initiation date pursuant to Section 3.3(b)(ii), then, in each case ((a) and (b)), following the exercise of the applicable option, within [] days following the conclusion of each calendar quarter during which Lian performs any activities in support of the applicable Local Registrational Study or Nanobiotix performs any activities in support of the applicable Global Registrational Study, the performing Party will provide to the other Party a written report of all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of such Party during the applicable calendar quarter, or, to the extent the applicable option is being exercised after the applicable study has already been commenced or terminated, also of all costs incurred before such calendar quarter, together with an invoice for the applicable percentage (pursuant to Section 3.2(b), if Lian is the performing Party, or Section 3.1(c)(i) or 3.3(b)(ii), if Nanobiotix is the performing Party) of such costs and expenses, and the other Party will pay the undisputed invoiced amounts within [] days after the date of such invoice. Payments due by Lian according to Section 3.1(c)(i) or 3.2(b)(i) shall be invoiced by Nanobiotix after the completion of the respective Global Trial and Lian will pay the undisputed invoiced amounts within [] days after the date of such invoice.

3.5 Compliance. Lian shall conduct, and shall ensure that all of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and other Third Party subcontractors conduct, Development of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory in compliance with Applicable Laws and, with respect to any such Development activities conducted as part of a Global Trial or as part of a Local Registrational Study for which Nanobiotix has exercised the Territory-Specific Data Option pursuant to Section 3.2(b)(i), in compliance with applicable FDA and EU Medical Device requirements to the extent necessary for the submission of data generated from such activities in Regulatory Filings.

COMMERCIALIZATION AND MARKETING

4.1 Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Territory. Unless explicitly provided for differently elsewhere in this Agreement, Lian shall have sole control over and decision-making authority with respect to the Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including marketing, strategy, pricing, promotion, physician targeting, reimbursement, branding, distribution, and sales. All costs and expenses of Commercialization, including for distribution, marketing and selling, of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory shall be for Lian's account.

4.2 Lian's Commercialization Diligence. Lian shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory.

4.3 Commercialization Coordination.

(a) Commercialization Plan. No later than [] months before the expected Launch Date Lian shall prepare and submit to the JSC a written plan for the Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the “Commercialization Plan”), which shall include reasonable detail regarding the activities Lian expects to undertake [] period immediately following receipt of the first Regulatory Approval in the Territory, including: (i) []; (iii) []; (iv) []; and (v) []. The Commercialization Plan shall be updated []. The Parties shall discuss, through the JSC, the Commercialization Plan (including the timing of Launch the Licensed Product in the countries in the Territory).

(b) Commercial Updates. Lian shall provide to the JSC at each of its regularly-scheduled meetings a written summary of material Commercialization activities conducted during the applicable period in the Field in the Territory (“Commercialization Updates”).

(c) Commercialization Records. In connection with its Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory pursuant to the Commercialization Plan, Lian shall retain, for a period of [] from the date of creation, any and all training records related to the Licensed Products.

4.4 Compliance. Lian shall conduct, and shall ensure that all of its Affiliates, Sublicensees and other Third Party subcontractors conduct, all Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory in compliance with Applicable Laws and all ethics policies agreed upon by the Parties in good faith. Lian shall make all related disclosures with respect to and record all transfers of value to health care providers in the Territory to the extent required by Applicable Laws.

4.5 Medical Affairs. Lian shall provide medical and scientific support for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory in order to ensure physicians are familiar on how to inject the product. Lian shall, subject to Applicable Laws, conduct such activities in compliance with its internal policies on engaging and sponsoring healthcare providers.

4.6 Promotional Materials. Lian shall have the right to develop all written, printed, electronic or graphic material intended for use by sales representatives in promoting the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including visual aids, file cards, premium items, clinical study reports, reprints, drug information updates, and any other promotional support items (collectively, the “Promotional Materials”); provided that (a) all Promotional Materials shall comply with Applicable Laws; (b) Lian shall provide the JSC with an annual summary of its planned promotional activities for the Licensed Product, together with digital copies of material newly-generated material (as determined by Lian in good faith) Promotional Materials that Lian intends to use, in the upcoming [] in the Field in the Territory. In addition, Lian shall provide to Nanobiotix an English translation of those selected Promotional Materials reasonably requested by Nanobiotix for its review and, as applicable, discussion with Lian; (c) all Promotional Materials shall be consistent with the Core Dossier for the Licensed Product; and (d) []. Prior to Launch, Nanobiotix shall provide Lian, at Nanobiotix’s cost and expense, existing marketing and Promotional Materials Controlled by Nanobiotix (including website and digital content) regarding the Licensed Product, whether electronic (including source code thereof, if applicable) or physical copies, provided that Nanobiotix shall have no obligations under this Agreement to assist with the technical aspects of the creation and maintenance of such website or to provide such digital content in any particular format.

4.7 Territory Compliance. Lian shall not, and shall ensure its Affiliates and Sublicensees do not, directly or indirectly: (i) promote, sell or distribute the Licensed Product outside the Field in the Territory, or (ii) actively promote, sell or distribute the Licensed Product for any use outside the Territory, which other territories are exclusively reserved to Nanobiotix, its Affiliates or its licensees. Nanobiotix shall not, and shall ensure its Affiliates and Sublicensees (other than Lian) do not, directly or indirectly, actively promote, sell or distribute the Licensed Product for any use within the Territory (other than to Lian, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or other designees).

REGULATORY

5.1 Regulatory Interaction.

(a) Lian, or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees, will be solely responsible for all communications, filings with, and approvals sought from the Regulatory Authorities to obtain all Marketing Authorizations in relation to the Licensed Product in the Field throughout the Territory, and will have the sole and exclusive right to file and hold all Regulatory Filings in the Field in the Territory, and all such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals in the Field in the Territory will be made in the name of Lian, provided, however, that, [].

(b) Regulatory Communications. Subject to Applicable Law and this Section 5.1, Lian will oversee, monitor, and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Unless explicitly provided for differently elsewhere in this Agreement, Lian will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings for Licensed Products.

5.2 Global Dossier. As between the Parties and notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in this Agreement, Nanobiotix shall retain the full unfettered ownership of the Core Dossier.

ARTICLE 6

MANUFACTURE AND SUPPLY

6.1 Supply and Purchase of the Licensed Product.

(a) Responsibility for Manufacturing. Nanobiotix shall be responsible for Manufacturing the Licensed Product. [].

(b) Effects of Supply Failure. Should Nanobiotix, at any time following a Change of Control of Nanobiotix, fail to supply at least [] of the binding forecast of Lian's requirements of Licensed Products for a given [], then Lian may request the appointment of a Third Party contract manufacturer mutually agreeable to both Parties (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld by Nanobiotix), who shall Manufacture Licensed Products for priority supply to Lian. Nanobiotix will provide (or cause its designee to provide) to such Third Party all Know-How and transition services necessary to enable such Third Party to Manufacture clinical and commercial supplies of the Licensed Product.

(c) Development and Commercial Supply. Nanobiotix shall supply to Lian, and Lian shall exclusively purchase from Nanobiotix, all requirements of Licensed Product for Development and Commercialization by Lian in the Territory. Within [] days following the Effective Date, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and enter into a supply agreement (the "Supply Agreement") on reasonable and customary terms, which shall at the minimum contain the following terms:

(i) Nanobiotix shall supply Licensed Product in unlabeled vials to Lian, or such other form as the Parties may agree as appropriate for use for Development purposes;

(ii) Lian shall provide non-binding and binding forecasts on a rolling basis;

(iii) [];

(iv) [];

(v) []; and

(vi) [].

6.2 Interim Supply. Until such time as Nanobiotix and Lian execute a Supply Agreement, at Lian's request, Nanobiotix will, on Lian's behalf, place orders with its suppliers for Licensed Products for use by Lian for Development purposes, []. After delivery, Nanobiotix will invoice Lian for the Transfer Price for such Licensed Product and Lian will pay Nanobiotix within [] days after receipt of such invoice. Nanobiotix will provide all Licensed Products provided pursuant to this Section 6.2 with those product warranties and corresponding remedies that Nanobiotix receives from its supplier.

6.3 Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and Applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Lian nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then, the Parties will use reasonable efforts to discuss in good faith alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of the Parties as agreed under this Agreement.

QUALITY AND PHARMACOVIGILANCE

7.1 Quality Agreement. The Parties shall negotiate in good faith and, no later than [] days after the Effective Date (and in any event prior to the commencement of the supply of Licensed Products to Lian for Development purposes), enter into a quality agreement (the “Quality Agreement”) to comply with the requirements of Regulatory Authorities in the Territory affecting each Party, and, to the extent necessary, each country within the Territory hereunder, as soon as possible. The Quality Agreement shall set forth in detail the quality assurance arrangements and procedures with respect to the Manufacturing and supply of the Licensed Product, reporting customer complaints, conducting timely investigations, Recalls, logistics (including warehousing and shipping requirements) and testing requirements, which Quality Agreement shall be incorporated herein by reference following execution by both Parties. In the event of a conflict between any of the provisions of this Agreement or the Supply Agreement and the Quality Agreement, this Agreement or the Supply Agreement, as applicable, shall govern.

7.2 Record Retention. Lian shall establish and maintain a written records retention policy with respect to the Licensed Products, including maintaining quality system documents in a central, controlled location and using reasonable efforts to prevent any loss, destruction, deterioration or unauthorized access to such documents. Lian shall, for a period of the Term and [] years thereafter (or such longer period as required by Applicable Laws) retain original documents with original signatures in a central file within Lian’s quality assurance or document control records.

7.3 Pharmacovigilance; Safety Data.

(a) Pharmacovigilance. Upon execution of the Agreement, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith and, no later than [] after the Effective Date, enter into a pharmacovigilance agreement (the “Pharmacovigilance Agreement”) to comply with the requirements of Regulatory Authorities in the Territory affecting each Party, and, to the extent necessary, each country within the Territory hereunder, as soon as possible. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement shall set forth the specific details and processes pursuant to which the Parties shall share adverse event, device incident and other safety data.

(b) Global Safety Database. Nanobiotix shall maintain the global reference safety database for the Licensed Product. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement will set forth the terms and conditions under which the Parties will share information pertaining to, and each will receive access to, the global reference safety database for the Licensed Product. Lian shall be responsible for safety review (as further described in the Pharmacovigilance Agreement), collection and timely transfer to Nanobiotix of safety data for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Lian shall transfer such safety data to Nanobiotix in a timely manner according to the Applicable Laws in an electronic format requested by Nanobiotix as further set out in the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, at Lian’s sole cost and expense. Lian shall not be responsible for any costs associated with the global reference safety database.

7.4 Complaints Handling and Reporting. Notifications, communications, handling and reporting of the Licensed Product complaints and adverse events shall be addressed under the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, provided that such Pharmacovigilance Agreement shall provide that Lian must (i) investigate any complaints or issues relating to the Licensed Products in the Territory and notify Nanobiotix thereof; (ii) not admit liability or settle any dispute or complaint that imposes any liability on or admits any fault of Nanobiotix without Nanobiotix's prior written consent; and (iii) [].

7.5 Returns and Recalls.

(a) Returns. Lian shall handle all returns in the Territory, at its sole cost and expense, as needed. Further processing of returns by Lian shall be governed by the Quality Agreement.

(b) Recalls. Each Party agrees to notify the other Party within [] hours if it discovers any issue that it reasonably believes could lead to a Recall. If practicable, the Parties shall promptly, following notification, discuss the plans for a Recall, provided that the Parties shall have joint responsibility for determining whether a Recall in the Territory is necessary. If the Parties, through the JSC, decide that a Recall is necessary, then the Parties shall work together to develop and implement a Recall plan, which, unless agreed otherwise, shall be implemented by Lian. All costs and expenses associated with implementing a Recall in the Territory shall be borne by Lian, except to the extent it arises from Nanobiotix's (a) [] (b) []. The Parties shall jointly determine the cause of a Recall, or in the event of disagreement between the Parties regarding such cause, an independent laboratory agreed upon by the Parties shall determine such cause.

GOVERNANCE

8.1 Joint Steering Committee. [] following the Effective Date [], a joint steering committee (the "JSC") will be established by the Parties to provide oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities under this Agreement.

8.2 Specific Responsibilities. The JSC will provide strategic oversight and serve as forum for communication on the Licensed Product in the Territory, and will:

(a) monitor the overall state of the alliance;

(b) discuss the progress of Lian's and Nanobiotix's Development and Commercialization activities, including, optimal Launch timing and the value of the clinical benefit provided by the Licensed Product in each Indication and to the extent permitted under Applicable Law, to discuss the prices of the Licensed Product in the Territory;

(c) review and discuss the Territory-Specific Development Plan, the Global Trials, and any Global Registrational Study;

- (d) review and discuss any additional Indications for any Licensed Product to be Developed and Commercialized;
- (e) review, discuss, and approve any Territory-specific brand name for the Licensed Product, as described in Section 2.1(c);
- (f) review, discuss, and approve any update to the Territory-Specific Development Plan, as described in Section 3.1(a);
- (g) review, discuss, and, to the extent relating to any activities to be conducted in the Territory, approve the initial Global Development Plan or any update thereto, as described in Section 3.1(b);
- (h) determine whether to substitute any Global Trial as an Additional Global Trial, as described in Section 3.1(c)(i);
- (i) review and discuss the initial Commercialization Plan, and any updates thereto, as described in Section 4.3(a);
- (j) review and discuss the Commercialization Updates, as described in Section 4.3(b);
- (k) review and discuss the annual promotional activities summary for the Territory, as described in Section 4.6;
- (l) determine whether to conduct any Recall for the Territory, as described in Section 7.5(b);
- (m) perform such other functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as appropriate to further the purposes of this Agreement to the extent agreed to in writing by the Parties;
- (n) review and discuss any amendment or modification to the Licensed Products as described in Section 10.4;
- (o) review and discuss medical affairs, as described in Section 4.5; and
- (p) perform such other functions expressly allocated to the JSC in this Agreement or by the written agreement of the Parties.

8.3 Membership. The JSC will be composed of a total of [] representatives of each Party, which will be appointed by each of Nanobiotix and Lian, respectively, including at least one (1) senior leadership member for each Party. Each individual appointed by a Party as a representative to the JSC will be an employee of such Party with sufficient seniority and decision-making authority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of products similar to the Licensed Products under this Agreement. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JSC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which notice may be given by e-mail, sent to the other Party's co-chairperson. The JSC will be co-chaired by one designated representative of each Party. The co-chairperson of the JSC will cast its Party's vote on the JSC and such designee will have the authority to make decisions on behalf of such Party. Each co-chairperson will alternate being responsible for each meeting for (a) calling and conducting meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the applicable co-chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material decisions made and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within [] days after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes issued in accordance with clause (d) of this Section 8.3 will be deemed approved unless one or more members of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes within [] Business Days of receipt. The Alliance Managers will work with the chairpersons to prepare and circulate agendas and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those in Article 11.

8.4 Meetings; Reports. The JSC will hold meetings at least [] during the Term for so long as the JSC exists, unless the Parties agree in writing to a different frequency. No later than [] Business Days prior to any meeting of the JSC (or such shorter time period as the Parties may agree), the applicable co-chairperson will prepare and circulate an agenda for such meeting. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] Business Days prior written notice to the other Party if such Party reasonably believes that a significant matter must be addressed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the applicable co-chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC no later than [] Business Days prior to the special meeting with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed decision on the matters to be considered. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may agree, provided that at least [] JSC meeting per [] shall be held in person, unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing. Other representatives of the Parties, their Affiliates, or Third Parties involved in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products may be invited by the members of the JSC to attend meetings as non-voting observers if such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 11. No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least [] of each Party [] is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least [] of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided.

8.5 Dispute Resolution. Any disputes among representatives at the JSC will be resolved by escalation to appropriate senior officers of Lian and Nanobiotix (the "Senior Officers"). To the extent the Senior Officers cannot reach agreement on the matter at hand within [] days, then, without prejudice to any contractual obligations or commitment set out herein, which remain unaffected, Lian will have final decision-making authority over: (i) [], and (ii) [], provided that, with respect to sub-clause (ii) only, for any matter that (A) [], (B) [], (C) [] or (D) []. For the avoidance of doubt, Nanobiotix at all times has the final decision-making authority over all matters relating to [].

8.6 Alliance Managers. Each Party will appoint a person to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the Development and Commercialization of Licensed Products between meetings of the JSC (each, an “Alliance Manager”). If the Alliance Manager is not an appointed member of the JSC, then the Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the JSC and may bring to the attention of the JSC any matters or issues either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time or may designate different Alliance Managers with respect to Development and Commercialization matters, respectively, by notice in writing to the other Party. The Alliance Managers will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JSC and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will: (a) provide a single point of communication within the Parties’ respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; (b) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and (c) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JSC occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

CONSIDERATION, PAYMENTS AND RECORDS

9.1 In consideration of the rights and licenses granted to Lian by Nanobiotix hereunder, Lian shall pay to Nanobiotix (in USD) the amounts set forth in this Article 9.

9.2 Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will pay Nanobiotix a payment in the amount of twenty million Dollars ($20,000,000), which upfront payment will be due and payable to Nanobiotix within [] days following the Effective Date.

9.3 Development Milestone Payments. During the Term, upon the achievement by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees of any milestone event set forth in Table 9.3 for the Licensed Product, Lian will notify Nanobiotix promptly after the occurrence thereof, and Lian will pay Nanobiotix the corresponding milestone payment set forth in Table 9.3 no later than [] days after its achievement of such milestone event.

9.4 Sales Milestones. During the Term, upon the achievement of any milestone event set forth in Table 9.4 (each, a “Sales Milestone Event”), Lian will notify Nanobiotix within [] days after [] in which such Sales Milestone Event was achieved, and Lian will pay Nanobiotix the corresponding milestone payment set forth in Table 9.4, no later than [] days after [] (each, a “Sales Milestone Payment”). Each of the Sales Milestone Payments set forth in Table 9.4 is payable only upon the first achievement of such Sales Milestone Event and none of the Sales Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Sales Milestone Event is achieved.

9.6 Reductions.

(a) Expiration of Valid Claims and Generic Entry. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and country-by-country basis, if at any time during the Royalty Term in a given country in the Territory, there is no Valid Claim of a Nanobiotix Patent [], then the applicable Royalty Rate in effect for such Licensed Product in such country shall be reduced by [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such country. If one or more Competitor(s) launch(es) a Competing Product in a country in the Territory, resulting in a decrease in Lian’s revenue from the Licensed Product of [] in such country, then the applicable Royalty Rate in effect for such Licensed Product in such country shall be reduced by [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such country, provided that the maximum allowable reduction for a given Licensed Product and a given country in the Territory under this Section 9.6(a) will be [] of the applicable Royalty Rate for such Licensed Product in such country.

(b) Third Party Payments. If Lian makes a payment under any agreement with a Third Party pursuant to which Lian obtains a license or other rights under Patent(s) (or Patent(s) and Know-How associated with such Patents) owned or controlled by such Third Party in a given country in the Territory (whether by acquisition or license) that is necessary or reasonably useful to Develop or Commercialize one or more Licensed Products in such country, then Lian may offset against the sales milestones (Section 9.4) and sales royalties (Section 9.5) payable to Nanobiotix an amount equal to [] of the payments made by Lian to such Third Party under such agreement (including any upfront payments, milestone payments, and royalties), subject to [], provided that, to the extent the foregoing limitation limits the reduction Lian is permitted to take during [], Lian will be entitled to carry forward the amount of the reduction Lian was unable to take during such calendar quarter and apply such amounts to future royalties or milestone payments (reductions set forth in this Section 9.6 are referred to collectively as the “Reductions”).

9.7 Royalty Term. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and country-by- country basis, Lian’s obligation to pay sales royalties will commence on the date of First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in the Field in such country in the Territory and will expire on the latest to occur of (the “Royalty Term”):

- (a) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim of a Nanobiotix Patent Covering such Licensed Product;

(b) the expiry of Regulatory Exclusivity in such country in the Territory; or

(c) the ten (10)-year anniversary of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such country in the Territory;

[].

9.8 Royalty Payments and Reports. Within [] days following the end of each calendar quarter following the First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product, Lian shall furnish to Nanobiotix a written report for the calendar quarter showing the Net Sales of Licensed Product sold by Lian and its Affiliates and Sublicensees in the Territory during such calendar quarter and the royalties payable under this Agreement for such calendar quarter. Lian shall pay Nanobiotix the royalty due for such calendar quarter calculated in accordance with this Agreement within [] days following the end of that calendar quarter.

9.9 Mode of Payment. All payments under the Agreement shall be made in Dollars by bank wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account in the name of Nanobiotix as Nanobiotix may designate from time to time by written notice to Lian. If any currency conversion shall be required in connection with the amounts hereunder, such conversion shall be made by using the average of the applicable daily foreign exchange rates published in the Wall Street Journal (or any other qualified source that is acceptable to and agreed by both Parties) [].

9.10 Taxes. All amounts set forth herein are exclusive of any applicable taxes, including withholding taxes and value-added taxes. In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to Nanobiotix) is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Lian pursuant to the Agreement under Applicable Laws, Lian will make such deduction and withholding and will pay the remainder to Nanobiotix, any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Lian on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority, and Lian will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Nanobiotix with respect to such payments. Lian shall provide all documentation reasonably required and provide all reasonably necessary assistance to Nanobiotix to enable Nanobiotix to obtain a tax credit for such amounts withheld.

9.11 Records. Lian shall keep, and require its Affiliates and Sublicensees to keep, complete, true and accurate books of accounts and records for the purpose of determining the amounts payable to Nanobiotix pursuant to this Agreement. Such books and records shall be kept for such period of time as required by law, but no less than [] years following the end of the calendar quarter to which they pertain. Such records shall be subject to audit by Nanobiotix in accordance with Section 9.12.

9.12 Audits. Nanobiotix, at its expense, through an independent, internationally recognized certified public accountant reasonably acceptable to Lian, shall have the right to access Lian's, its Affiliates' or Sublicensees' relevant books and records in relation to the sales of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory for the purpose of verifying Lian's royalty and sales milestone payments to Nanobiotix hereunder during any portion of the Term; such access shall be conducted after [] prior written notice by Nanobiotix to Lian, its Affiliates' or Sublicensees' during ordinary business hours, shall not be more frequent than [] and shall not include any books and records that were previously accessed pursuant to this Section 9.12. Such accountant shall execute a confidentiality agreement with Lian, its Affiliate or Sublicensee as applicable in customary form and shall only disclose to Nanobiotix whether Lian paid Nanobiotix the correct amounts during the audit period and if not, any information necessary to explain the source of the discrepancy. If such audit determines that Lian paid Nanobiotix less than the amount properly due, then Lian shall pay Nanobiotix within [] days after conclusion of the audit an amount equal to such underpayment, along with interest under Section 9.13, [], of the amount due over the audited period, Lian shall also reimburse Nanobiotix for the reasonable costs of such audit (including the fees and expenses of the certified public accountant). If such audit determines that Lian paid Nanobiotix more than the amount properly due, then Lian shall be entitled to credit such overpayment against future payments due to Nanobiotix; provided, however, that if no future payments to Nanobiotix hereunder are reasonably anticipated, then Nanobiotix shall promptly issue a refund to Lian of such overpayment.

9.13 Late Payment. Any amounts not paid by the date due under the Agreement shall be subject to interest at an annual rate of [], except that if the highest rate permitted under Applicable Law is lower, it shall be such highest permitted rate, computed from the due date through and including the date upon which payment is received.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

10.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property.

(a) Inventions. Each Party shall at all times remain the exclusive owner of its pre-existing Intellectual Property and all Inventions relating to the Licensed Products made solely by or on behalf of such Party or its Affiliates in connection with the performance of such Party's activities under this Agreement (each a "Party-Invention"), and any and all Patents claiming any such Party-Invention. To the extent an Invention relating to the Licensed Products is made by both Parties ("Co-Invention"), then such Co-Invention, together with any and all Patents claiming any such Co-Invention ("Co-Invention Patents"), will be jointly owned by the Parties. The Parties' rights to file, prosecute, and enforce Co-Invention Patents shall be agreed in good faith between the Parties through the JSC. Each Party will grant and hereby does grant to the other Party all further permissions, consents, and waivers with respect to, and all fully paid-up licenses under, the Co-Inventions and any Co-Invention Patents, throughout the world, necessary to provide the other Party with full rights of use and exploitation of the Co-Inventions, subject to the licenses granted herein. Lian grants to Nanobiotix a worldwide, non-exclusive, sublicenseable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, perpetual and irrevocable license to any Lian Party-Invention and any Patents claiming such Lian Party-Inventions that is reasonably useful or necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product outside of the Territory.

10.2 Prosecution and Maintenance.

(a) In the Territory. As between the Parties, Nanobiotix shall have the first right, at its expense, to prosecute and maintain the Nanobiotix Patents in the Territory, using counsel of its choice. Nanobiotix shall keep Lian reasonably informed of all steps with regard to and the status of the preparation, filing, prosecution and maintenance of the Nanobiotix Patents in the Territory, including by providing Lian with (i) copies of all correspondence and material communications it sends to or receives from any patent office or agency in the Territory relating to such Patents, (ii) a draft copy of all applications, in each case ((i) and (ii)), sufficiently in advance of filing or response to permit reasonable review and comment by Lian, and (iii) a copy of applications as filed, together with notice of its filing date and serial number. Before Nanobiotix submits any filing, including a new patent application, or response to such patent authorities with respect to any Nanobiotix Patents, Nanobiotix will provide Lian with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such filing or response and will incorporate any reasonable comments or suggestions provided by Lian regarding the prosecution or maintenance of such Nanobiotix Patents under this Section 10.2(a) [].

(b) Step-In Right. Should Nanobiotix elect not to prosecute or maintain a Nanobiotix Patent in the Territory, it shall give Lian notice thereof within a reasonable period [] prior to allowing such Patent to lapse or become abandoned or unenforceable, and Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to assume such prosecution and maintenance at its expense and through patent counsel of its choice. Upon transfer of Nanobiotix's responsibility for prosecuting and maintaining any of the Nanobiotix Patents under this Section 10.2(b), (i) Nanobiotix will promptly deliver to Lian copies of all necessary files related to such Patents with respect to which responsibility has been transferred and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for Lian to assume such prosecution and maintenance, and (ii) such Patents shall no longer extend the Royalty Term pursuant to Section 9.7.

10.3 Infringement by Third Parties and Patent Protection.

(a) Monitoring. In the event that either Nanobiotix or Lian becomes aware of any infringement or threatened infringement by a Third Party of any Nanobiotix IP, it will notify the other Party in writing to that effect. Any such notice shall include evidence to support an allegation of infringement or threatened infringement by such Third Party.

(b) Defense and Enforcement of Nanobiotix IP. Nanobiotix shall have the first right to defend the Nanobiotix IP in the Territory at its cost and expense, provided that, should Nanobiotix elect not to defend a Nanobiotix Patent in the Territory, it shall give Lian notice thereof and Lian may then assume control over such defense at its expense. []. Any proceeds from such enforcement in the Field but also outside the Territory shall be allocated, after reimbursement of each Party's reasonable litigation cost therefrom, []. Otherwise, Lian shall have the first right to enforce the Nanobiotix IP against an infringement in the Field in the Territory at its expense, provided that, should Lian elect not to enforce the Nanobiotix IP against such an infringement in the Territory, it shall give Nanobiotix notice thereof and Nanobiotix will have the second right to so enforce such Nanobiotix IP in the Territory at its expense. At the request of the enforcing Party, the other Party shall lend reasonable assistance in such enforcement. Neither Party will have the right to settle any action enforcing or defending the Nanobiotix IP in the Field in the Territory under this Section 10.3(b) in a manner that imposes any liability on, or diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party under this Agreement, without the consent of such other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. To the extent Lian is enforcing the Nanobiotix IP, any proceeds from such enforcement shall be, after reimbursement of each Party's reasonable litigation cost therefrom, split between the Parties, provided that if and to the extent [], Lian shall retain []. To the extent Nanobiotix is enforcing the Nanobiotix IP where Lian renounces its first right of enforcement, any proceeds from such enforcement shall be [], provided that (i) [] and (ii) [].

10.4 Third Party Rights. Each Party shall promptly notify the other in writing of any allegation by a Third Party that the activity of either Party pursuant to this Agreement infringes or may infringe the Intellectual Property of such Third Party. In the event that the Parties determine that the Licensed Product(s) or the Nanobiotix IP may infringe a Third Party's Intellectual Property, the Parties, through the JSC, will discuss [].

CONFIDENTIALITY

11.1 Confidential Information. Except to the extent expressly authorized by this Agreement or otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties, during the Term and for [] thereafter, the receiving Party (the "Receiving Party") shall keep confidential and shall not publish or otherwise disclose or use for any purpose other than as provided for in this Agreement any trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information, and any tangible materials embodying any of the foregoing, whether patentable or otherwise, in any form (written, oral, photographic, electronic, visual or otherwise) that are provided or disclosed to it by the other Party (the "Disclosing Party"), including (a) all information disclosed by one Party to the other pursuant to the Confidentiality Agreement or the Term Sheet and (b) the terms and conditions of this Agreement (collectively, "Confidential Information").

11.2 Exceptions. Notwithstanding Section 11.1 above, Confidential Information will not include any information that the Receiving Party can demonstrate by competent evidence:

(a) was already known to the Receiving Party or any of its Affiliates, other than under an obligation of confidentiality, at the time of disclosure;

(b) was generally available to the public or was otherwise part of the public domain at the time of its disclosure to the Receiving Party;

(c) became generally available to the public or otherwise part of the public domain after its disclosure by the Disclosing Party and other than through any act or omission of the Receiving Party or any of its Affiliates in breach of this Agreement;

(d) was subsequently lawfully disclosed to the Receiving Party or any of its Affiliates by a Person other than the Disclosing Party, and who did not receive such information directly or indirectly from the Disclosing Party under an obligation of confidence; or

(e) was independently developed by the Receiving Party or any of its Affiliates without use of or reference to the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.

11.3 Permitted Disclosures. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 11.1, each Party may disclose Confidential Information belonging to the other Party as expressly permitted by this Agreement or if and to the extent such disclosure is reasonably necessary in the following instances:

(a) filing or prosecuting Patents as permitted by this Agreement;

(b) prosecuting or defending litigation as permitted by this Agreement;

(c) complying with applicable court orders or governmental regulations or as otherwise required by Applicable Laws (including any such disclosures as are required by a Regulatory Authority in connection with seeking Regulatory Approval, pricing and reimbursement approval, import authorization for any Licensed Product in the Territory, or the rules or regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States or of any stock exchange or listing entity (including in connection with the public sale of securities));

(d) disclosing to its Affiliates, employees, directors, consultants, attorneys, and other professional advisors, and in Lian's case (but, subject to Section 6.1(b), excluding any Confidential Information relating to the Manufacturing of the Licensed Products), to its Sublicensees and Third Party subcontractors, in each case who have a legitimate need to know such information, data, or materials and who are bound by written confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those set forth herein; and

(e) disclosure to Third Parties in connection with due diligence or similar investigations by or on behalf of a Third Party in connection with a potential license or sublicense to, distribution agreement with or collaboration with such Third Party (including entry into any such agreement), or a potential merger or acquisition by such Third Party, and disclosure to potential or actual Third Party investors in confidential financing documents, provided, in each case, that any such Third Party agrees to be bound by similar terms of confidentiality and non-use at least as stringent as those set forth in this Article 11 (provided that the term may be shorter as is customary for the context, but at least []).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event a Party is required to make a disclosure of the other Party's Confidential Information pursuant to Section 11.3(b) or Section 11.3(c), it shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, give reasonable advance notice to the other Party of such disclosure and use reasonable efforts to secure confidential treatment of such information at least as diligent as such Party would use to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable efforts; provided that any Confidential Information so disclosed shall still be subject to the restrictions on use set forth in this Article 11. In any event, the Parties agree to take all reasonable action to avoid disclosure of Confidential Information hereunder. If either Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Governmental Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Party with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Party with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use reasonable efforts to have terms identified by such other Party afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Governmental Authority.

11.4 Public Announcements. As soon as practicable following the Effective Date, the Parties shall issue a mutually agreed or a joint press release announcing the existence of this Agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule 11.4. Except as required by law (including disclosure requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), the Nasdaq stock market or any other stock exchange on which securities issued by a Party or its Affiliates are traded), neither Party shall make any other public announcement concerning this Agreement or the subject matter hereof without the prior written consent of the other, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that it shall not be unreasonable for a Party to withhold consent with respect to any public announcement containing any of such Party's Confidential Information. In the event of a required public announcement, to the extent practicable under the circumstances, the Party making such announcement shall provide the other Party with a copy of the proposed text of such announcement sufficiently in advance of the scheduled release to afford such other Party a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon the proposed text.

11.5 Publication of Licensed Product Information. Without limiting the foregoing, Lian shall not, and shall ensure its Affiliates and Sublicensees do not, publish or publicly present any non-public scientific or technical information with respect to the Licensed Product without Nanobiotix's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11.6 Prior Non-Disclosure Agreements. As of the Effective Date, the terms of this Article 11 shall supersede any prior non-disclosure, secrecy or confidentiality agreement between the Parties (or their Affiliates) dealing with the subject of this Agreement, including the Confidentiality Agreement and the Term Sheet; provided that the existing Confidentiality Agreement and Term Sheet between the Parties is hereby terminated and any and all Confidential Information pursuant to the Confidentiality Agreement and the Term Sheet shall be deemed "Confidential Information" of a Party pursuant to this Article 11.

11.7 Residual Knowledge. The Parties acknowledge the practical difficulty of policing the use of information inadvertently retained in the unaided memory of a receiving Party or any of its, its Affiliates', Sublicensees' or Third Party subcontractors' officers, directors, employees, and agents who have had rightful access to the Confidential Information of the disclosing Party ("Residual Knowledge"), and as such each Party agrees that the receiving Party will not be liable for the inadvertent use (without reference to any Confidential Information of the disclosing Party) by any of its or its Affiliates', Sublicensees' or Third Party subcontractors' officers, directors, employees, or agents of the Residual Knowledge that is inadvertently retained in the unaided memory of such officer, director, employee, or agent; provided that such officer, director, employee, or agent has not been directed to or otherwise intentionally memorized or retained such Residual Knowledge for use other than as explicitly permitted under this Agreement. The receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that any use made by the receiving Party of any such Residual Knowledge is on an "as is, where is" basis and at its sole risk, with all faults and all representations and warranties disclaimed by the disclosing Party.

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

12.1 Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Party, as of the Effective Date, as follows:

(a) Duly Organized. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization, and is qualified to do business and is in good standing as a foreign corporation in each jurisdiction in which the conduct of its business or the ownership of its properties requires such qualification and failure to have such would prevent it from performing its obligations under this Agreement, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.

(b) Due Authorization; Binding Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by such Party have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or organizational action. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding on such Party and enforceable in accordance with its terms. It has the right to grant to the other the licenses and sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement, and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) and the licenses and sublicenses to be granted by such Party pursuant to this Agreement do not (i) violate any law, rule, regulation, order, writ, judgment, decree, determination or award of any court, governmental body or administrative or other agency having jurisdiction over such Party, or (ii) conflict with, violate, breach, or constitute a default under, or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any agreement, instrument or understanding, oral or written, to which such Party or any of its Affiliates is a party or by which it is bound.

(c) Consents. Such Party has obtained all necessary consents, approvals, orders, and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained (except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, Manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, to be obtained in accordance with the terms of this Agreement).

(d) Debarment. Such Party is not debarred under the United States Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act or similar Applicable Laws outside the U.S. and it does not employ or use the services of any Person who is debarred, in connection with the Development, Manufacturing or Commercialization of the Licensed Products under this Agreement.

12.2 Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Nanobiotix. As used in this Section 12.2, “Knowledge” means, as applied to Nanobiotix, that []. Nanobiotix represents and warrants to Lian that as of the Effective Date:

(a) Right to Grant License. Nanobiotix exclusively owns [], and is entitled to license to Lian, all of the Nanobiotix IP, free and clear of all claims, liens, charges, or encumbrances. Nanobiotix has not previously assigned, transferred, conveyed or otherwise encumbered its right, title and interest in, nor granted any license, option or other rights to, any of the Nanobiotix IP in the Territory in any manner that could adversely affect Lian’s rights under this Agreement. No Third Party has any license, option or other rights or interest in or to the Nanobiotix IP in the Field in the Territory other than the rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement.

(b) Nanobiotix Patents and Nanobiotix Trademarks. Exhibit C sets forth all Nanobiotix Patents existing as of the Effective Date, and Exhibit D sets forth all Nanobiotix Trademarks existing as of the Effective Date. Nanobiotix does not own or hold rights to any Patents that would be necessary or reasonably useful for the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory other than the Nanobiotix Patents.

(c) Patent and Trademark Status. (i) All Nanobiotix Patents owned or Controlled by Nanobiotix have been filed and prosecuted in good faith in the patent offices in accordance with Applicable Laws, (ii) all issued Nanobiotix Patents and all issued Nanobiotix Trademarks are in full force and effect, valid, subsisting and enforceable; (iii) none of the Nanobiotix Patents and Nanobiotix Trademarks is currently involved in any interference, reissue, reexamination, or opposition proceeding; (iv) neither Nanobiotix nor any of its Affiliates has received any written notice from any Person, or has knowledge, of any such actual or threatened proceeding; and (v) all official fees, maintenance fees and annuities for the Nanobiotix Patents and the Nanobiotix Trademarks that are required to be paid to prevent abandonment or other loss of rights have been paid through the Effective Date to the extent due on or before the Effective Date.

(d) Non-Infringement by Third Parties. [] there are no activities by Third Parties that would constitute infringement of the Nanobiotix IP or misappropriation of the Nanobiotix Know-How in the Territory.

(e) Non-Infringement of Third Party Rights. [] the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product, including the use of the Nanobiotix Trademarks, does not infringe or misappropriate any Intellectual Property of a Third Party. Neither Nanobiotix nor any of its Affiliates has received any written notice from any Person, or has knowledge of, any actual or threatened claim or assertion that the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Product infringes or misappropriates the Intellectual Property of a Third Party. [] the practice by Lian under the Nanobiotix IP or the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product as contemplated under this Agreement, if it was to occur at the Effective Date, does not infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property of any Third Party.

(f) Absence of Litigation. There are no judgments or settlements against or owed by Nanobiotix or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or, [] pending litigation against Nanobiotix or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or litigation threatened against Nanobiotix or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, in each case, related to the Licensed Product, including any such litigation any relating to any Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, or Marketing Authorizations Controlled by Nanobiotix, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees.

(g) Confidentiality of Know-How. Nanobiotix has taken commercially reasonable measures consistent with industry practices to protect the secrecy, confidentiality, and value of all Nanobiotix Know-How. [] the Nanobiotix Know-How existing as of the Effective Date has been kept confidential or has been disclosed to Third Parties only under terms of confidentiality.

(h) Assignment of Third Party Rights; Third Party Consents.

(i) Nanobiotix has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Lian will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Nanobiotix, without payments beyond those required by Article 9, all licenses and other rights granted to Lian under this Agreement.

(ii) Each Person who has or has had any ownership rights in or to any Nanobiotix Patent purported to be owned solely by Nanobiotix, has assigned and has executed an agreement assigning its entire rights, title, and interests in and to such Nanobiotix Patent to Nanobiotix, and [] no current officer, employee, agent, or consultant of Nanobiotix or any of its Affiliates is in violation of any term of any assignment or other agreement, in each case, regarding the protection of the Nanobiotix Patents.

(i) Prior to the Effective Date, Nanobiotix has obtained all consents from Third Parties necessary to grant Lian the licenses and rights Nanobiotix purports to grant to Lian under this Agreement.

(j) No Other Disclosures. (i) [] there are no scientific or technical facts or circumstances that have not been disclosed to Lian, and that would adversely affect the scientific, therapeutic, or commercial potential of the Licensed Products; (ii) there is nothing within Nanobiotix's Control that has not been disclosed to Lian and that could adversely affect the acceptance, or the subsequent approval, by any Regulatory Authority of any Regulatory Filing; and (iii) [] there are no safety, efficacy, or regulatory issues that would preclude Lian from exploiting the Licensed Products in the Territory in accordance with this Agreement and applicable Law.

(k) Additional Legal Compliance.

(i) [] Nanobiotix and its Affiliates have complied [] with all Applicable Laws in conducting Development and Manufacturing of the Licensed Product prior to the Effective Date, and neither Nanobiotix nor any of its Affiliates has received any written notice from any Governmental Authority in the Territory claiming that any such activities as conducted by them are not in such compliance.

(ii) No Governmental Authority in the Territory has commenced or [] threatened to initiate any action to enjoin production of the Licensed Product at any facility, nor has Nanobiotix or any of its Affiliates or [] any of its contractor manufacturers, received any notice to such effect, nor has Nanobiotix received any order not to import the Licensed Product into the Territory.

12.3 Mutual Covenants.

(a) Compliance with Laws. The Parties will, and will ensure that their respective Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Third Party subcontractors will, comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws in exercising their rights and fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. The Parties will require any Affiliate, Sublicensee, Third Party subcontractor, or other Person that provides services to such Party in connection with this Agreement to comply with such Party's obligations under this Section 12.3(a). Lian will make no representations or warranties with respect to the Licensed Products other than those in the approved label for the Licensed Product or otherwise as specifically authorized in writing by Nanobiotix.

(b) No Debarment. Each Party covenants that if, during the Term of this Agreement, it becomes aware that it or any of its or its Affiliates', Sublicensees' or Third Party subcontractors' directors, officers, employees or agents performing under this Agreement is the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could lead to that Party or individual becoming a debarred entity or individual, an excluded entity or individual or a convicted entity or individual, such Party will promptly notify the other Party and take the necessary steps to avoid any such debarment.

12.4 No Conflict. During the Term, Nanobiotix and its Affiliates will not grant any interest in the Nanobiotix IP that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the rights and licenses granted to Lian hereunder.

DISCLAIMER, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

13.1 Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREUNDER, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR USE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, VALIDITY AND ENFORCEABILITY OF PATENTS, OR THE PROSPECTS OR LIKELIHOOD OF DEVELOPMENT OR COMMERCIAL SUCCESS OF THE LICENSED PRODUCT.

13.2 Limitation of Liability. NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE ENTITLED TO RECOVER FROM THE OTHER PARTY ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR LOST PROFITS IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY LICENSE GRANTED HEREUNDER; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THIS SECTION 13.2 SHALL NOT APPLY TO (A) EITHER PARTY'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS Article 13 (B) ANY BREACH OF Article 11, SECTION 2.5, OR SECTION 12.2(c), OR (C) A CLAIM FOR INTENTIONAL OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT [].

13.3 Indemnification of Nanobiotix. Lian shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of Nanobiotix and its Affiliates, and the directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents of such entities and the successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (the “Nanobiotix Indemnitees”), from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, penalties, fines, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and other expenses of litigation) (“Losses”) resulting from any claims, actions, suits or proceedings brought by a Third Party (a “Third Party Claim”) incurred by any Nanobiotix Indemnitee, to the extent arising from (a) the negligence or willful misconduct of any Lian Indemnitees or any Sublicensees or Third Party subcontractors of Lian; (b) the Development, regulatory and Commercialization activities relating to the Licensed Product conducted by or on behalf of Lian, its Affiliates, Sublicensees or Third Party subcontractors (other than Nanobiotix and its Affiliates and licensees) in connection with this Agreement; or (c) any breach of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenant by Lian under this Agreement or the Supply Agreement; except in each case (a)-(c) to the extent such Third Party Claims fall within the scope of the indemnification obligations of Nanobiotix set forth in Section 13.4(a) or (b).

13.4 Indemnification of Lian. Nanobiotix shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of Lian and its Affiliates, and the directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents of such entities and the successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (the “Lian Indemnitees”), from and against any and all Losses resulting from any Third Party Claims incurred by any Lian Indemnitee, to the extent arising from (a) the negligence or willful misconduct of any Nanobiotix Indemnitee; (b) the Development, regulatory and Commercialization activities relating to the Licensed Product conducted by or on behalf of Nanobiotix, its Affiliates, Sublicensees (other than Lian and its Affiliates and Sublicensees) or Third Party subcontractors, unless at Lian’s express direction or (c) any breach of any obligation, representation, warranty or covenants by Nanobiotix under this Agreement or the Supply Agreement; except in each case (a) or (b) to the extent such Third Party Claims fall within the scope of the indemnification obligations of Lian set forth in Section 13.3(a) to (c).

13.5 Procedure. A Party that intends to claim indemnification under this Article 13 shall promptly notify the indemnifying Party in writing of any Third Party Claim, in respect of which the indemnitee intends to claim such indemnification. The indemnified Party shall provide the indemnifying Party with reasonable assistance, at the indemnifying Party’s expense, in connection with the defense of the Third Party Claim for which indemnity is being sought. The indemnified Party may participate in and monitor such defense with counsel of its own choosing at its sole expense; provided, however, that the indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume and conduct the defense of the Third Party Claim with counsel of its choice. The indemnifying Party shall not agree to any settlement of any Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the indemnifying Party), without the prior written consent of the indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld unless the settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion). So long as the indemnifying Party is actively defending the Third Party Claim in good faith, the indemnified Party shall not settle any such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the indemnifying Party. If the indemnifying Party does not assume and conduct the defense of the Third Party Claim as provided above, (a) the indemnified Party may defend against, and consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement with respect to the Third Party Claim in any manner the indemnified Party may deem reasonably appropriate (and the indemnified Party need not consult with, or obtain any consent from, the indemnifying Party in connection therewith), and (b) the indemnifying Party will remain responsible to indemnify the indemnified Party as provided in this Article 13. The failure to deliver written notice to the indemnifying Party within a reasonable time after the commencement of any action with respect to a Third Party Claim shall only relieve the indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligations under this Article 13 if and to the extent the indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby.

TERM AND TERMINATION

14.1 Term. The term of the Agreement will start on the Effective Date and will continue in full force until the expiration of the last to expire Royalty Term, unless earlier terminated in accordance with this Article 14 (the “Term”). Upon the expiration of the Royalty Term for a given country in the Territory, the licenses granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 will become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, royalty-free, fully sublicenseable, and transferable for such Licensed Product in such country.

14.2 Early Termination.

(a) Termination for Cause. Each Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice if the other Party is in material breach of this Agreement (the Party so allegedly breaching being the “Breaching Party”), the other Party (the “Non-Breaching Party”) and has not cured such breach within [] after written notice from the Non-Breaching Party requesting cure of the breach, which notice will, in each case (i) expressly reference this Section 14.2(a), (ii) reasonably describe the alleged breach that is the basis of such termination. [] If a material breach relates solely to one or more countries of the Territory, then the Non-Breaching Party will have the right to terminate this Agreement solely with respect to such country(ies). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended if the Breaching Party provides a written plan for curing such breach within the objectively earliest possibility to the Non-Breaching Party and uses reasonable efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan. In addition, if the Breaching Party disputes either (A) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, or, alternatively, (B) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, then the dispute will be resolved pursuant to Section 15.16 [], and the applicable cure period will be tolled during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure, provided further that [].

(b) Termination for Insolvency. Each Party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, to the best extent permissible under Applicable Law, upon written notice upon the bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation, or insolvency of, or the filing of an action to commence insolvency proceedings against, the other Party, or the making or seeking to make or arrange an assignment for the benefit of creditors of the other Party, or the initiation of proceedings in voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy, or the appointment of a receiver or trustee of such Party's property, provided, however, that in the case of any involuntary bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or insolvency proceeding such right to terminate will only become effective if the Party subject to such proceeding consents to the involuntary bankruptcy or such proceeding is not dismissed [].

(c) Termination by Lian following Change of Control in Nanobiotix. Following a Change of Control in Nanobiotix, Lian may, [] prior written notice to Nanobiotix, terminate this Agreement [].

(d) Termination by Nanobiotix following Change of Control of Lian. [].

(e) Termination for Patent Challenge. Nanobiotix shall have the right to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to Lian if Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees bring or join any challenge to the validity or enforceability of any Nanobiotix Patent (a "Patent Challenge") and does not withdraw such Patent Challenge within [] days of written notice from Nanobiotix; provided that (i) a Patent Challenge does not include Lian's or its Affiliates' or its Sublicensees (A) responding to compulsory discovery, subpoenas or other requests for information in a judicial or arbitration proceeding or (B) complying with any Applicable Law or a court order; and (ii) the foregoing right of termination shall not apply with respect to any Patent Challenge that (I) is first made by Lian or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees in defense of a claim of patent infringement brought by Nanobiotix under the applicable Patents or any Patent Challenge, (II) was brought by an acquirer of Lian prior to the effective date of such Change of Control, or (III) is brought by any non-Affiliate Sublicensee if Lian (1) causes such Patent Challenge to be terminated or dismissed (or in the case of ex-parte proceedings, multi-party proceedings, or other Patent Challenges in which the challenging party does not have the power to unilaterally cause the Patent Challenge to be withdrawn, causes such Sublicensee to withdraw as a party from such Patent Challenge and to cease actively assisting any other party to such Patent Challenge), or (2) terminates such Sublicensee's sublicense to the Patents being challenged by the Sublicensee, in each case, within [] days after Nanobiotix's notice to Lian under this Section 14.2(d).

14.3 Alternative Remedy In Lieu of Termination. If Lian has a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 14.2(a), Lian may elect, in lieu of so terminating, to have this Agreement continue on all the terms herein save that all milestone and royalty payments owed by Lian to Nanobiotix hereunder will be reduced by [].

14.4 Accrued Obligations. The termination of this Agreement for any reason shall not release either Party from any liability which, at the time of such termination, has already accrued to such Party or which is attributable to a period prior to such termination, nor will any termination of this Agreement preclude either Party from pursuing all rights and remedies it may have under this Agreement, at law or in equity, with respect to breach of this Agreement.

14.5 Effects of Termination. Upon the termination of this Agreement as a whole or with respect to one or more countries in the Territory (a “Terminated Region”), except in the case of termination by Lian according to Section 14.2(a) or 14.2(b), the following will apply:

(a) Termination of Licenses. All rights and licenses granted to Lian with respect to Licensed Products and Nanobiotix IP, and all sublicenses granted by Lian and its Affiliates, will terminate in the Terminated Region.

(b) Winding Down of Development Activities. Without prejudice to Section Error! Reference source not found., in the event there are any on-going Clinical Trials of the Licensed Product being conducted by or on behalf of Lian in the Field in the Terminated Region, the Parties shall work together in good faith to adopt a plan to wind down such Development activities in an orderly fashion, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any clinical trials of the Licensed Product, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems, in compliance with all Applicable Laws.

(d) Inventory. Lian will have the right, for a period of [] days following any termination of this Agreement, to sell or otherwise dispose of any Licensed Products in the Terminated Region, as applicable, on hand at the time of such termination. Thereafter, Nanobiotix shall have the right to purchase from Lian, at the cost incurred by Lian for purchase, all of Lian’s and its Affiliates’ then-current inventory of Licensed Product in the Terminated Region.

(e) Re-registration of Regulatory Filings or Regulatory Approvals. To the extent permitted under Applicable Laws, Lian shall arrange for the re-registration to Nanobiotix or its designee (or to the extent not so re-registrable, Lian shall take all reasonable actions to make available to Nanobiotix or its designee the benefits thereof) of all Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region, including any such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals made by or registered to its Affiliates or Sublicensees; all such re-registration or transfer shall be at Lian’s sole cost and expense. Nanobiotix shall notify Lian before the effective date of termination, whether the foregoing should be re-registered to Nanobiotix or its designee, and if the latter, identify the designee, and provide Lian with all necessary details to enable Lian to effect the re-registration (or availability of the benefit thereof).

(f) License Grant by Lian to Nanobiotix. Lian hereby grants Nanobiotix, effective upon the effective date of such termination, a fully-paid, royalty-free, non-exclusive license, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers, under any and all Party-Inventions and Patents claiming such Party-Inventions Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates and necessary or reasonably useful for Nanobiotix to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region. If any rights granted by Lian under the foregoing license are Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees pursuant to an agreement with a Third Party, then Nanobiotix will pay all amounts due under any such agreement to the extent reasonably allocable to Nanobiotix’s exercise of the rights granted thereunder. If Nanobiotix or its or their Affiliates or Sublicensees exercises the rights or licenses granted pursuant to this Section 14.5(f) and this Agreement has been terminated by Lian pursuant to Section 14.2(a) or Section 14.2(b), then Nanobiotix will pay to Lian, in consideration of the rights granted to Nanobiotix, an amount to be negotiated by the Parties, [].

(g) Transition. Each Party shall use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the other Party to effect a smooth and orderly transition in the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Territory during the notice and wind-down periods. Lian shall provide reasonable transition support to enable Nanobiotix to assume all Development and Commercialization responsibility in the Terminated Region. Lian shall, at Nanobiotix's request, assign to Nanobiotix all Third Party contracts, to the extent solely related to the Licensed Product, and if any such contract is not assignable, and if such Third Party agrees to it, Lian shall introduce Nanobiotix to such Third Party to facilitate the discussions regarding the relationship between Nanobiotix and such Third Party after the Term of the Agreement.

(h) Ancillary Agreements. The Supply Agreement, the Quality Agreement and the Pharmacovigilance Agreement shall terminate effective upon the effective date of termination of this Agreement, except as provided otherwise in the Supply Agreement, the Quality Agreement and the Pharmacovigilance Agreement in conformity with Applicable Laws, and except as to support winding down or exit activities as contemplated in Section 14.5(b) and Error! Reference source not found..

(i) Return of Confidential Information. Except to the extent necessary or reasonably useful for a Party to exercise its rights surviving such termination or as required by Applicable Law, each Party shall promptly return to the other Party, or delete or destroy, all relevant records and materials in such Party's possession or Control containing Confidential Information of the other Party; provided that such Party may keep one copy of such materials to ensure compliance obligations of such Party are met.

14.6 Survival. All rights and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement shall terminate upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, except those described in the following Articles and Sections: []. Furthermore, any other provisions required to interpret the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement, including applicable definitions in Schedule 1.1, will survive to the extent required. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 14.6, any licenses granted under this Agreement, will terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety or solely with respect to the Terminated Region, as the case may be, for any reason.

14.7 Rights Upon Bankruptcy. All rights and licenses granted under or pursuant to this Agreement are, and shall otherwise be deemed to be, for purposes of Section 365(n) of Title 11 of the United States Code and other similar laws in any jurisdiction in the Territory or where a Party is situated (collectively, the "Bankruptcy Laws"), licenses of rights to "intellectual property" as defined under the Bankruptcy Laws. If a case is commenced during the Term by or against a Party under Bankruptcy Laws then, unless and until this Agreement is rejected as provided in such Bankruptcy Laws, such Party (in any capacity, including debtor-in-possession) and its successors and assigns (including a trustee) shall perform all of the obligations provided in this Agreement to be performed by such Party. If a case is commenced during the Term by or against a Party under the Bankruptcy Laws, this Agreement is rejected as provided in the Bankruptcy Laws and the other Party elects to retain its rights hereunder as provided in the Bankruptcy Laws, then the Party subject to such case under the Bankruptcy Laws (in any capacity, including debtor-in-possession) and its successors and assigns (including a Title 11 trustee) shall provide to the other Party copies of all information necessary for such other Party to prosecute, maintain and enjoy its rights under the terms of this Agreement promptly upon such other Party's written request therefor. All rights, powers and remedies of the non-bankrupt Party as provided herein are in addition to and not in substitution for any and all other rights, powers and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including the Bankruptcy Laws) in the event of the commencement of a case by or against a Party under the Bankruptcy Laws. In particular, it is the intention and understanding of the Parties that the rights granted to the Parties under this Section 14.7 are essential to the Parties' respective businesses and the Parties acknowledge that damages are not an adequate remedy.

MISCELLANEOUS

15.1 Force Majeure. If the performance of any part of this Agreement by either Party is prevented, restricted, interfered with or delayed by any reason or cause beyond the reasonable control of such Party (including fire, flood, embargo, power shortage or failure, acts of war, insurrection, riot, terrorism, strike, lockout or other labor disturbance, shortage of raw materials, epidemic, failure or default of public utilities or common carriers, destruction of production facilities or materials by fire, earthquake, or storm or like catastrophe, acts of God or any acts, omissions or delays in acting of the other Party) (each, a "Force Majeure Event"), the Party so affected shall, upon giving written notice to the other Party, be excused from such performance to the extent of such Force Majeure Event, provided that the affected Party shall notify the other Party in writing of any Force Majeure Event as soon as reasonably practical, and shall use its substantial efforts to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance and shall continue performance with the utmost dispatch whenever such causes are removed. The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date (including related government orders) may be invoked as a Force Majeure Event for the purposes of this Agreement even though the pandemic is ongoing and those effects may be reasonably foreseeable as of the Effective Date. In addition, a Force Majeure Event may include reasonable measures affirmatively taken by a Party or its Affiliates to respond to any epidemic, pandemic, or spread of infectious disease (including the COVID-19 pandemic), or other Force Majeure Event, such as requiring employees to stay home, closures of facilities, delays of Clinical Trials, or cessation of activities in response to an epidemic or other Force Majeure Event. A Party that is subject to a Force Majeure Event shall exert all reasonable efforts to overcome it; provided that if such Force Majeure Event continues unabated for a period of [], then the Parties shall discuss and agree on alternative solutions [], and provided further [].

15.2 Waiver of Breach. No delay or waiver by either Party of any condition or term in any one or more instances shall be construed as a further or continuing waiver of such condition or term or of another condition or term.

15.3 Further Actions. Each Party agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver such further instruments, and to perform all such other acts, as may be necessary or appropriate in order to carry out the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

15.4 Modification. No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless in a prior writing signed by both Parties hereto. No provision of this Agreement shall be varied, contradicted or explained by any oral agreement, course of dealing or performance or any other matter not set forth in an agreement in writing and signed by both Parties hereto.

15.5 Insurance. Lian shall maintain such public liability insurance (including without limitation workers compensation, employer's liability, comprehensive general liability, product liability and property damage insurance) adequate to cover its obligations hereunder and which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similarly situated at all times during the Term of the Agreement and, upon Nanobiotix's reasonable request, Lian will provide Nanobiotix with evidence of such insurance.

15.6 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith and enter into a valid, legal and enforceable substitute provision that most nearly reflects the original intent of the Parties. All other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in such jurisdiction. Such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

15.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the schedules and exhibits attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and cancels all previous express or implied agreements and understandings, negotiations, writings and commitments, either oral or written, in respect of the subject matter hereof, including the Confidentiality Agreement and the Term Sheet. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that in entering into this Agreement, and the documents referred to in it, it does not rely on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or understanding (whether negligently or innocently made) of any Person (whether party to this Agreement or not) other than as expressly set out in this Agreement. Nothing in this clause shall, however, operate to limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

15.8 Third Party Right. Each of the Parties and any of their respective Affiliates may enforce any right granted to it under this Agreement. Other than as set out in Section 15.8, no Person who is not a Party may enforce any provision of this Agreement under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise. Nanobiotix and Lian may agree to vary or terminate this Agreement in accordance with its terms without the agreement of any Third Party.

15.9 Language. The language of this Agreement and all activities to be pursued under this Agreement is English. Any and all documents proffered by one Party to the other in fulfillment of any provision of this Agreement shall only be in compliance if in English. Any translation of this Agreement in another language shall be deemed for convenience only and shall never prevail over the original English version. This Agreement is established in the English language.

15.10 Notices. Any notice, request, or other communication required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing in the English language, delivered personally, sent by facsimile (and promptly confirmed by personal delivery, registered or certified mail or overnight courier), sent by internationally-recognized courier, sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid to the following addresses of the Parties (or such other address for a Party as may be at any time thereafter specified by like notice), with a courtesy copy sent by email, which will not constitute notice:

Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given (a) when delivered if personally delivered; (b) on the next Business Day after dispatch if sent by confirmed facsimile or by internationally-recognized overnight courier; (c) on the [] Business Day following the date of mailing if sent by mail; or (d) upon confirmation of receipt if sent by email. Notices hereunder will not be deemed sufficient if provided only between or among each Party's representatives on the Joint Steering Committee.

15.11 Assignment. Subject to Section 2.5(b), this Agreement and the rights and obligations of each Party under this Agreement shall not be assignable or otherwise transferred, nor may any rights or obligations hereunder be assigned or transferred, by either Party to any Third Party without the prior written consent of the other Party, provided, however, that either Party may assign or transfer this Agreement together with all of its rights and obligations hereunder, without such consent (but with written notice to the other Party), (a) to an Affiliate or (b) to a successor in interest in connection with the transfer or sale of all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates, or in the event of its merger or consolidation, reorganization, or similar transaction. Any permitted assignment of the rights and obligations of a Party under this Agreement will be binding on, and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against, the successors and permitted assigns of the assigning Party. Any assignment of this Agreement in contravention of this Section 15.11 shall be null and void.

15.12 No Partnership or Joint Venture. Nothing in this Agreement or any action which may be taken pursuant to its terms is intended, or shall be deemed, to establish a joint venture or partnership between Lian and Nanobiotix. Except as set forth in this Agreement, neither Party to this Agreement shall have any express or implied right or authority to assume or create any obligations on behalf of, or in the name of, the other Party, or to bind the other Party to any contract, agreement or undertaking with any Third Party.

15.13 Lian Cayman Guarantee. In consideration of Nanobiotix entering into this Agreement, sufficiency of which is hereby confirmed, Lian Cayman hereby [] guarantees [] the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations of Lian under this Agreement (the “Lian Obligations”). Lian Cayman agrees that the Lian Obligations may be extended, modified, or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, modification, or renewal of any Lian Obligation. [].

15.14 Dispute Resolution Process. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters may from time to time arise during the Term that relate to (i) interpretation of a Party’s rights or obligations hereunder, (ii) any alleged breach of this Agreement, (iii) any issue that is unable to be resolved pursuant to informal channels of resolution. If the Parties cannot resolve any such dispute within [] days after written notice of a dispute from one Party to another, either Party may, by written notice to the other Party, have such dispute referred to the JSC. If the JSC cannot resolve such dispute within [] days after such dispute is referred thereto, either Party may, by written notice to the other Party, have such dispute referred to the Chief Executive Officer of Nanobiotix and the Chief Executive Officer of Lian (collectively, the “Senior Executives”). The Senior Executives shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute within []. If the Senior Executives are unable to resolve the dispute within such time period, the parties shall submit the dispute for arbitration in accordance with Section 15.16. Notwithstanding anything in this Article 15 to the contrary, Nanobiotix and Lian shall each have the right at all times to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for appropriate interim or provisional relief as necessary to protect the rights or property of that Party or to preserve the status quo pending the resolution of the dispute resolution process as set forth in Section 15.14 and Section 15.16.

15.15 Governing Law. The Agreement will be governed by English law, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Any dispute, controversy, claim or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with the Agreement will be resolved exclusively through arbitration in accordance with the then effective ICC Rules.

15.16 Arbitration. Any disputes arising in connection with this Agreement shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (“ICC”) as amended herein, and judgment on the arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Parties agree that:

(a) The arbitration shall be conducted by a panel of three (3) arbitrators, or such lesser number as the Parties may agree. Each of the Parties shall nominate an arbitrator and these two arbitrators shall endeavor to agree on the third arbitrator, who shall act as chairman of the arbitral tribunal, within [] days from the date when both Parties have received from the ICC confirmation of the second arbitrator by the ICC court. All arbitrators shall have a legal qualification. The chairman shall have at least one ICC arbitration before, and the arbitrators nominated by the Parties shall have at the minimum ten (10) years working experience in the pharmaceutical industry. The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be [], and the Parties consent to the personal jurisdiction of the [] courts for any case arising out of or otherwise related to this arbitration, its conduct and its enforcement. The language of the arbitration proceedings shall be English. The decision and award of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding on the Parties.

(b) The arbitrators shall have no authority to award punitive or any other type of damages not measured by a Party's compensatory damages. Each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses and attorneys' fees and an equal share of the arbitrators' fees and any administrative fees of arbitration.

(c) Any award shall be promptly paid, free of any tax, deduction or offset; and any costs, fees or taxes incident to enforcing the award shall, to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Laws, be charged against the Party resisting enforcement. Each Party agrees to abide by the award rendered in any arbitration conducted pursuant to this Section 15.16, and agrees that judgment may be entered upon the final award in any court of competent jurisdiction. The award shall include interest from the date of any damages incurred for breach of this Agreement, and from the date of the award until paid in full, at a rate fixed by the arbitrators.

(d) The existence and content of the arbitral proceeding, including any rulings or award, shall be kept confidential by the Parties and the arbitrator except to the extent (i) required by Applicable Laws; (ii) required to protect or pursue a legal right; (iii) required to enforce or challenge an award; or (iv) approved by written consent of the Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, either Party may disclose matters relating to the arbitration or the arbitral proceedings where necessary for the preparation or presentation of a claim or defense in such arbitration. The arbitrator shall issue appropriate protective orders to safeguard each Party's Confidential Information. Except as required by Applicable Laws, no Party shall make (or instruct the arbitrator to make) any public announcement with respect to the proceedings, rulings or award without prior written consent of the other Party.

(e) Any duty to arbitrate under this Agreement shall remain in effect and be enforceable after termination of this Agreement for any reason.

(f) [] in the event that a dispute arises specifically about the validity, scope, enforceability, inventorship or ownership of any Intellectual Property ("IP Dispute"), and such IP Dispute is not resolved in accordance with Section 15.14, either Party may initiate litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction in any country in which such right applies, provided that any dispute over the contractual implications and consequences of such IP Dispute shall remain exclusively reserved to arbitration according to Section 15.16, and provided further that if and to the extent an IP Dispute leads to a final and binding decision, such decision shall also be final and binding with respect to the Intellectual Property in the country in question for the purposes of such arbitration.

15.17 Fees and Expenses. Each Party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and fees and expenses associated with all aspects of the negotiation and diligence of the transaction contemplated hereunder.

15.18 Hardship. If any unforeseen event (e.g., an evolution of the legal or economic framework of the Agreement), while not preventing either Party from performing any of its obligations hereunder, changes the balance of the Agreement to the detriment of such Party and therefore causes inequitable hardship to such Party in the performance of such obligations, and if such Party is able to demonstrate such hardship by competent proof, then both Parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate an equitable way to adapt this Agreement to the new circumstances, provided neither Party is obligated to make any accommodation or agree to any amendment that is not expressly required by the terms of this Agreement.

15.19 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement may be signed electronically by each of the authorized representatives of the Parties. The Parties acknowledge and agree that electronic signatures via DocuSign may be used for the execution of this Agreement by such signatories. Each Party acknowledges that it has received all the information required for the electronic signature of this Agreement and that it is signing this Agreement electronically in full knowledge of the technology used and its terms and conditions, and consequently waives any claim and/or legal action challenging the reliability of this electronic signature system and/or its intention to enter into this Agreement. Furthermore, the obligation to deliver an original copy to each of the Parties is not necessary as proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement. The delivery of an electronic copy of this Agreement directly by DocuSign to each Party shall constitute sufficient and irrefutable proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement.

Definitions

“Accounting Standards” means, with respect to a Party or its Affiliates, U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) or International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), as such Party or its Affiliates uses for its financial reporting obligations, in each case.

“Acquired Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.5(b).

“Active Ingredient” means those active materials that provide pharmacological activity in a pharmaceutical or biologic product (excluding formulation components such as coatings, stabilizers, excipients or solvents, adjuvants, or controlled release technologies).

“Additional Global Trial” has the meaning set forth in Section 3.1(c)(i).

“Adjusted Transfer Price” has the meaning set forth in Section 6.1(c)(iii).

“Affiliate” means, with respect to any Person, any entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such Person, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition only, the terms “controlled,” “controlled by,” and “under common control with,” as used in this context, means (i) direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the stock or shares having the right to vote for the election of directors of such Person (or if the jurisdiction where such Person is domiciled prohibits foreign ownership of such entity, the maximum foreign ownership interest permitted under such Laws; provided, however, that such ownership interest provides actual control over such Person), (ii) status as a general partner in any partnership, or (iii) the direct or indirect ability or power to direct or cause the direction of management policies of a Person or otherwise direct the affairs of such Person, whether through ownership of equity, voting securities, beneficial interest, by contract or otherwise.

“Agreement” has the meaning set forth in the first paragraph hereof.

“Applicable Laws” means the applicable provisions of any and all national, supranational, regional, state and local laws, treaties, statutes, rules, regulations, administrative codes, guidance, ordinances, judgments, decrees, directives, injunctions, orders, permits (including Regulatory Approvals and Marketing Authorizations) of any Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over or related to the subject item.

“Bankruptcy Laws” has the meaning set forth in Section 14.7.

“Business Day” means a calendar day, other than a Saturday or Sunday or any public holiday on which the banks in France and Hong Kong are open for business.

“Calendar Year” means a period of twelve consecutive months beginning on and including January 1.

“CDE” means the Center for Drug Evaluation of the China National Medical Products Administration.

“Change of Control” means, with respect to a Party, (a) the acquisition of beneficial ownership, directly or indirectly, by any Third Party of securities or other voting interest of such Party representing more than 50% of the combined voting power of such Party’s then outstanding securities or other voting interests, (b) any merger, reorganization, consolidation or business combination involving such Party with a Third Party that results in the holders of beneficial ownership of the voting securities or other voting interests of such Party (or, if applicable, the ultimate parent of such Party) immediately prior to such merger, reorganization, consolidation or business combination ceasing to hold beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the combined voting power of the surviving entity immediately after such merger, reorganization, consolidation or business combination, or (c) any sale, lease, exchange, contribution or other transfer to a Third Party (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of such Party and its controlled Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transaction or series of transactions effected for the primary purpose of financing the operations of the applicable Party (including the issuance or sale of securities for financing purposes) or to change the form or domicile of a Party shall not constitute a Change of Control.

“Clinical Trial” means a trial in which human subjects or patients are dosed with a drug, whether approved or investigational.

“Nanobiotix IP” means the Nanobiotix Know-How, the Nanobiotix Patents, the Nanobiotix Trademarks and any and all Intellectual Property Controlled by Nanobiotix or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term that is necessary or reasonably useful for the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including Nanobiotix’s rights in any Co-Inventions and Co-Invention Patents.

“Nanobiotix Know-How” means all Know-How owned or Controlled by Nanobiotix or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term that is necessary or reasonably useful for the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory.

“Nanobiotix Patents” means all Patents owned or Controlled by Nanobiotix or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term that are necessary or reasonably useful for the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including all Patents that claim Product Improvements, including the Patents set forth in Exhibit C and Nanobiotix’s rights in any Co-Invention Patents.

“Nanobiotix Trademarks” means all “Hensify” Trademarks Controlled by Nanobiotix or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or during the Term that are necessary or reasonably useful for the Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including the Trademarks set forth in Exhibit D.

“NMPA” means the National Medical Product Administrations of the PRC, or its successor.

“Net Sales” means the gross sales recorded by or on behalf of Lian, its Affiliates or Sublicensees (for the purpose of this definition, “Sublicensees” will not include any distributors or wholesalers) (each of the foregoing Persons, a “Selling Party”) for sales of the Licensed Product to Third Parties (other than Lian’s Sublicensees), less the following deductions calculated in accordance with the Accounting Standards, applied on a consistent basis by the relevant Selling Party to the extent allocated to such Licensed Product and actually taken, paid, accrued, allowed, included, or allocated, based on good faith estimates, in the gross sales price with respect to such sales, for:

(a) [];

- (c) [];
- (d) [];
- (e) [];
- (f) []; and
- (g) [].

Net Sales will be calculated only once for the first bona fide arm's length sale of the Licensed Product to a Third Party that is not a Selling Party. Net Sales does not include (a) any sale of such Licensed Product to or between Lian, its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees for further sale by such entity (but includes the subsequent sale by such entity to a Third Party that is not a Selling Party), (b) samples of Licensed Product used to promote additional Net Sales, in amounts consistent with normal business practices of a Selling Party, or (c) any use of such Licensed Product as bona fide samples, as donations, for Clinical Trial or other Development purposes, any expanded access program, any compassionate sales or use program (including named patient program or single patient program), or any indigent program.

In the event that a Licensed Product is sold as a Combination Product, Net Sales, for the purposes of determining royalty payments on the Combination Product, shall mean the gross amount collected for the Combination Product less the deductions set forth in clauses (a)—(g) above, multiplied by a proration factor that is determined as follows:

- (i) If all Other Components of the Combination Product were sold separately during the same or immediately preceding calendar quarter, the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[A / (A+B)]$, where A is the average gross sales price of all Licensed Product components containing only NBTXR3 as its Active Ingredient during such period when sold separately from the other component(s), and B is the average gross sales price of the Other Components during such period when sold separately from NBTXR3 (as applicable);
- (ii) If the Licensed Product components containing only NBTXR3 as its Active Ingredient are sold separately from the Other Components, but the Other Components in such Combination Product are not sold separately, then the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[A / C]$, where A is the average gross sales price of all Licensed Product components containing only NBTXR3 as its Active Ingredient during such period when sold separately from the Other Components, and C is the average gross sales price of the Combination Product during such period;

- (iii) If the Licensed Product components containing only NBTXR3 as its Active Ingredient are not sold separately from the Other Components, but the Other Components in such Combination Product are sold separately, then the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[(C - B) / C]$, where B is the average gross sales price of the Other Components included in such Combination Product if sold separately from the other component(s), and C is the average gross sales price of the Combination Product during such period; or
- (iv) If neither NBTXR3 nor the Other Components included in the Combination Product were sold or provided separately during the relevant period, then the proration factor shall be determined [].

LICENSE AND COLLABORATION AGREEMENT

THIS LICENSE AND COLLABORATION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), entered into as of May 14, 2021 (the “Effective Date”), is entered into by and between LianBio Respiratory Limited, a company limited by shares organized and existing under the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China (“Lian”), and Landos BioPharma, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Landos”).

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, Lian wishes to obtain from Landos and Landos wishes to grant to Lian certain rights and licenses under intellectual property owned or controlled by Landos to Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined below), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms used in this Agreement will have the meanings set forth in this Article 1 (Definitions):

- 1.1 “Accounting Standards” means, with respect to a Person, generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) as practiced in the United States or applicable international standards followed by such Person.
- 1.2 “Acquired Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.9(c) (Business Combinations).
- 1.3 “Acquirer” means, collectively, the Third Party referenced in the definition of Change of Control and such Third Party’s Affiliates, other than the applicable Party in the definition of Change of Control and such Party’s Affiliates, determined as of immediately prior to the closing of such Change of Control.
- 1.4 “Action” means any claim, action, cause of action, or suit (whether in contract or tort or otherwise), litigation (whether at law or in equity, whether civil or criminal), assessment, arbitration, investigation, hearing, charge, complaint, demand, notice or proceeding of, to, from, by or before any Governmental Authority.
- 1.5 “Active Ingredient” means those active materials that provide pharmacological activity in a pharmaceutical or biologic product [].
- 1.6 “Additional Product” means any pharmaceutical compound or product, other than a Compound or Licensed Product, that has the same mechanism of action as any Compound and is being Developed by Landos for use outside the Territory.
- 1.7 “Additional Product License” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.10 (Right of Negotiation).

- 1.8 “Adverse Event” or “AE” means any untoward medical occurrence associated with the use of a product in human subjects, whether or not considered related to such product. An AE does not necessarily have a causal relationship with a product, that is, an AE can be any unfavorable and unintended sign (including an abnormal laboratory finding), symptom, or disease temporally associated with the use of such product.
- 1.9 “Affiliate” means, with respect to any Person, any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with such first Person, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition, “control” means (i) direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the stock or shares having the right to vote for the election of directors of such Person (or if the jurisdiction where such Person is domiciled prohibits foreign ownership of such entity, the maximum foreign ownership interest permitted under such Laws; provided, however, that such ownership interest provides actual control over such Person), (ii) status as a general partner in any partnership, or (iii) the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct, or cause the direction of, the management or policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. Affiliates of a Party exclude Persons who are financial investors of such Party or under common control of such financial investors other than such Party and its subsidiary entities.
- 1.10 “Agreement” has the meaning set forth in the Preamble.
- 1.11 “Alliance Manager” has the meaning set forth in Section 5.7(a) (Appointment).
- 1.12 “Anti-Corruption Laws” means laws, regulations, or orders prohibiting the provision of a financial or other advantage for a corrupt purpose or otherwise in connection with the improper performance of a relevant function, including, to the extent applicable, the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (CFPOA), the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), the UK Bribery Act 2010, and similar laws governing corruption and bribery, whether public, commercial or both.
- 1.13 “Average Cost Per Patient” means the [] in the Territory for a particular Global Phase III Trial, as reasonably estimated by Lian or its then-current CRO at the time of commencement of such Global Phase III Trial.
- 1.14 “Breaching Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 12.3(a) (Termination of Material Breach).
- 1.15 “Business Day” means any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which the banks in New York, Beijing, Hong Kong, and Cayman Islands are open for business.
- 1.16 “Calendar Quarter” means each of the three month periods ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of any Calendar Year.
- 1.17 “Calendar Year” means, for the first Calendar Year, the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on December 31, 2020, and for each Calendar Year thereafter each 12-month period commencing on January 1, and ending on December 31, except that the last Calendar Year will commence on January 1 of the year in which this Agreement expires or terminates and end on the effective date of such expiration or termination.
- 1.18 “CDE” means the Center for Drug Evaluation of the NMPA.
- 1.19 “Change of Control” means, with respect to a Party, (a) a merger or consolidation of such Party with a Third Party that results in the voting securities of such Party outstanding immediately prior thereto, or any securities into which such voting securities have been converted or exchanged, ceasing to represent more than 50% of the combined voting power of the surviving entity or the parent of the surviving entity immediately after such merger or consolidation, (b) a transaction or series of related transactions in which a Third Party, together with its Affiliates, becomes the direct or indirect beneficial owner of more than 50% of the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such Party, or (c) the sale or other transfer to a Third Party of all or substantially all of such Party's and its controlled Affiliates' assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transaction or series of transactions effected for the primary purpose of financing the operations of the applicable Party (including the issuance or sale of securities for financing purposes) or changing the form or jurisdiction of organization of such Party will not be deemed a "Change of Control" for purposes of this Agreement.

- 1.20 "Clinical Trial" means a trial in which human subjects or patients are dosed with a drug, whether approved or investigational.
- 1.21 "Clinical Supply Agreement" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1 (Supply Agreement).
- 1.22 "CMC" means the Chemistry, Manufacturing, and Controls portion of any Regulatory Filing.
- 1.23 "CMC Data" means any data included in the CMC portion of a Regulatory Filing or in any supporting development reports thereto, in each case, with respect to any Licensed Product in any country in the world.
- 1.24 "Combination Product" means a Licensed Product that (a) contains or comprises both (i) the Compound and (ii) at least one additional Active Ingredient other than a Compound, whether packaged together or in a single finished dosage form, (b) sold for a single invoice price together with any (i) delivery device or component therefor, (ii) companion diagnostic related to any Licensed Product, or (iii) product, process, service, or therapy other than the Licensed Product (such additional Active Ingredient and each of (i) – (iii), an "Other Component") or (c) that is defined as a "combination product" by the FDA pursuant to 21 C.F.R. §3.2(e) or its foreign equivalent.
- 1.25 "Commercial Supply Agreement" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1 (Supply Agreement).
- 1.26 "Commercialization" means any and all activities related to the pre-marketing, launching, marketing, promotion (including advertising and detailing), labeling, bidding and listing, pricing and reimbursement, distribution, storage, handling, offering for sale, selling, having sold, importing and exporting for sale, having imported and exported for sale, distribution, having distributed, customer service and support, and post-marketing safety surveillance and reporting of a product (including the Licensed Product), but not including Development activities or Manufacturing. "Commercializing" or "Commercialize" will be construed accordingly.
- 1.27 "Commercially Reasonable Efforts" means, [].
- 1.28 "Competitive Product" means [].
- 1.29 "Compound" means (a) Landos' proprietary compounds known as BT-11 and NX-13, the chemical structure of which is set forth on Schedule 1.29 (Licensed Compounds), and (b) any [].
- 1.30 "Confidential Information" means (a) all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information (including any tangible materials embodying any of the foregoing) of the disclosing Party or its Affiliates provided or disclosed to the other Party or any of its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement or disclosed in connection with the Term Sheet, and (b) the terms and conditions of this Agreement; provided, however, that Confidential Information will not include information that:

- (i) is published by a Third Party or otherwise is or hereafter becomes part of the public domain by public use, publication, general knowledge, or the like through no breach of this Agreement on the part of the receiving Party;
- (ii) is in the receiving Party's possession prior to disclosure by the disclosing Party hereunder, and not through a prior disclosure by the disclosing Party, without any obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information;
- (iii) is subsequently received by the receiving Party from a Third Party who is not known by the receiving Party to be under an obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing Party; or
- (iv) is independently developed by or for the receiving Party without reference to, or use or disclosure of, the disclosing Party's Confidential Information.

1.31 "Contract Manufacturing Organization" or "CMO" means any Third Party contract manufacturing organization.

1.32 "Control" or "Controlled" means the possession by a Party (whether by ownership, license, or otherwise other than pursuant to this Agreement) of, (a) with respect to any tangible Know-How, the legal authority or right to physical possession of such tangible Know-How, with the right to provide such tangible Know-How to the other Party on the terms set forth herein, or (b) with respect to Patent Rights, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, intangible Know-How, or other Intellectual Property, the legal authority or right to grant a license, sublicense, access, or right to use (as applicable) to the other Party under such Patent Rights, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, intangible Know-How, or other Intellectual Property on the terms set forth herein, in each case ((a) and (b)), without breaching or otherwise violating the terms of any arrangement or agreement with a Third Party in existence as of the time such Party or its Affiliates would first be required hereunder to grant the other Party such access, right to use, licenses, or sublicense. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, a Party will be deemed not to Control any Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right that are owned or in-licensed by an Acquirer except (i) with respect to any such Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right arising from active participation by employees or consultants of the Acquirer in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field after such Change of Control, or (ii) to the extent that any such Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right are included in or used in furtherance of the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field by the Acquirer after such Change of Control.

1.33 "Cover," "Covering," or "Covered" means, when referring to the Licensed Product: (a) with respect to an issued Patent Right, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under an issued claim included in such Patent Right, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of a specified activity with respect to such Licensed Product would infringe such claim, or (b) with respect to an application for Patent Rights, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under a claim included in such application, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of such Licensed Product would infringe such claim if such patent application were to issue as a patent.

1.34 "CRO" means a Third Party contract research organization.

- 1.35 “Development” means all internal and external research, development, and regulatory activities related to pharmaceutical or biologic products, including (a) research, non-clinical testing, toxicology, testing and studies, non-clinical and preclinical activities, and Clinical Trials, and (b) preparation, submission, review, and development of data or information for the purpose of submission to a Regulatory Authority to obtain authorization to conduct Clinical Trials and to obtain, support, or maintain Regulatory Approval of a pharmaceutical or biologic product and interacting with Regulatory Authorities following receipt of Regulatory Approval in the applicable country or region for such pharmaceutical or biologic product regarding the foregoing, but excluding activities directed to Manufacturing or Commercialization. Development will include development and regulatory activities for additional forms, formulations, or indications for a pharmaceutical or biologic product after receipt of Regulatory Approval of such product (including label expansion), including Clinical Trials initiated following receipt of Regulatory Approval or any Clinical Trial to be conducted after receipt of Regulatory Approval that was mandated by the applicable Regulatory Authority as a condition of such Regulatory Approval with respect to an approved formulation or indication (such as post-marketing studies, observational studies, implementation and management of registries and analysis thereof, in each case, if required by any Regulatory Authority in any region in the Territory to support or maintain Regulatory Approval for a pharmaceutical or biologic product in such region). “Develop,” “Developing,” and “Developed” will be construed accordingly.
- 1.36 “Development Milestone Event” has the meaning set forth in Section 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payment).

- (a) [];
 - (b) [];
 - (c) [];
 - (d) []; and
 - (e) [].

Net Sales will be calculated only once for the first bona fide arm’s length sale of the Licensed Product to a Third Party that is not a Selling Party. Net Sales does not include (a) any sale of such Licensed Product to or between Lian, its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees for further sale by such entity (but includes the subsequent sale by such entity to a Third Party that is not a Selling Party), (b) samples of Licensed Product used to promote additional Net Sales, in amounts consistent with normal business practices of a Selling Party, or (c) any use of such Licensed Product as bona fide samples, as donations, for Clinical Trials or other Development purposes, or for any expanded access program or compassionate sales or use program in accordance with applicable Law (provided, that, in each case such sales are at or below cost).

In the event that a Licensed Product is sold as a Combination Product, Net Sales, for the purposes of determining royalty payments on the Combination Product, shall mean the gross amount collected for the Combination Product less the deductions set forth in clauses (a)—(f) above, multiplied by a proration factor that is determined as follows:

- (i) If all Other Components of the Combination Product were sold separately during the same or immediately preceding Calendar Quarter, the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[A / (A+B)]$, where A is the average gross sales price of all Licensed Product components containing only the Compound as its Active Ingredient during such period when sold separately from the other component(s), and B is the average gross sales price of the Other Components during such period when sold separately from the Compound (as applicable);

- (ii) If the Licensed Product components containing only the Compound as its Active Ingredient are sold separately from the Other Components, but the Other Components in such Combination Product are not sold separately, then the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[A / C]$, where A is the average gross sales price of all Licensed Product components containing only the Compound as its Active Ingredient during such period when sold separately from the Other Components, and C is the average gross sales price of the Combination Product during such period;
- (iii) If the Licensed Product components containing only the Compound as its Active Ingredient are not sold separately from the Other Components, but the Other Components in such Combination Product are sold separately, then the proration factor shall be determined by the formula $[(C - B) / C]$, where B is the average gross sales price of the Other Components included in such Combination Product if sold separately from the other component(s), and C is the average gross sales price of the Combination Product during such period; or
- (iv) If neither the Compound nor the Other Components included in the Combination Product were sold or provided separately during the relevant period, then the proration factor shall be [].

ARTICLE 2 LICENSE GRANTS

2.1 License Grants; Right of Reference.

- (a) License Grants to Lian. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Landos hereby grants to Lian:
- (i) an exclusive (even with respect to Landos and its Affiliates, subject to this Section 2.1(a) (License Grants to Lian) and Section 2.5) (Landos Right of Access and Reference), sublicensable (solely as permitted under Section 2.2(a) (Lian Right to Sublicense)), non-transferable (except as provided Section 14.1 (Assignment)), royalty-bearing license under the Licensed Technology to Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; and
 - (ii) a non-exclusive, non-transferable (except as provided Section 14.1 (Assignment)), sublicensable (solely as permitted under Section 2.2(a) (Lian Right to Sublicense)) license under the Licensed Technology to Manufacture Compounds and Licensed Products outside the Territory solely for (A) Development solely for purposes of obtaining Regulatory Approval of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory; and (B) Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.
 - (iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing license grant under this Section 2.1(a) (License Grants to Lian), Landos retains the right under the Licensed Technology to Manufacture (or have Manufactured) Compounds and Licensed Products in the Territory solely for Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field outside the Territory.
- (b) Lian Right of Access and Reference. Landos hereby grants Lian and its Affiliates and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (i) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Landos or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (ii) all data generated by or on behalf of Landos or its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Products, including clinical and preclinical data (including any such data generated from any Clinical Trial performed by or be on behalf of Landos or its Affiliates), Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Landos or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, in each case ((i) and (ii)) to the extent reasonably useful or necessary for Developing, seeking, and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Lian and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.1(b) (Lian Right of Access and Reference). Landos will promptly provide to Lian all data generated by or on behalf of it or its Affiliates from any Clinical Trial for a Licensed Product that is necessary or reasonably useful to Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees for securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in Field and in the Territory.

2.2 Sublicensing and Subcontracting.

- (a) Lian Right to Sublicense. Lian will have the right to grant Sublicenses (through multiple tiers) to (i) its Affiliates and to independent contractors engaged pursuant to Section 2.3 (Performance by Independent Contractors) and to its Third Party collaboration partners, in each case, of any and all rights granted to Lian by Landos pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Right of Reference) [], and (ii) to other Third Parties [] subject to the requirements of Section 2.2(b) (Sublicense Requirements).
- (b) Sublicense Requirements. Each Sublicense granted by Lian to a Third Party pursuant to Section 2.2(a) (Lian Right to Sublicense) will be in writing and will be consistent with the relevant terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. No Sublicense will diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of either Party under this Agreement. Lian will be liable for any act or omission of its Sublicensees as if such Sublicensees were Lian hereunder. Without limiting the foregoing, each Sublicense granted by Lian or its Affiliates to a Sublicensee will contain (i) confidentiality and non-use provisions at least as restrictive or protective as those set forth in Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) with respect to Landos' Confidential Information, and (ii) invention ownership and assignment provisions consistent with those set forth in Section 7.1 (Ownership of Inventions).
- (c) Sublicense Survival. Upon the termination of this Agreement [] Landos will enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee on the same terms as this Agreement, taking into account any difference in license scope, territory and duration of sublicense grant (each a "New License Agreement"). Under any New License Agreement between Landos and a former Sublicensee, such Sublicensee will be required to pay to Landos the same amounts in consideration for such direct grant as Landos would have otherwise received from Lian pursuant to this Agreement on account of such Sublicensee's exploitation of the relevant Licensed Products had this Agreement not been terminated. Under such New License Agreement, Landos will not be bound by any grant of rights broader than, and will not be required to perform any obligation other than those rights and obligations contained in, this Agreement and all applicable rights of Landos set forth in this Agreement will be included in such New License Agreement. Each Sublicensee will be an intended Third Party beneficiary of this Section 2.2(c) with the right to enforce the same against Landos. At the request of Lian, Landos will issue a comfort letter directly to any potential Sublicensee confirming the terms of this Section 2.2(c).

2.3 Performance by Independent Contractors. Lian may contract or delegate any portion of its obligations hereunder to a contractor subject to the terms and condition of Section 14.8 (Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors).

2.4 License Grant to Landos. Lian hereby grants Landos and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), royalty-free, fully paid up, perpetual, and irrevocable license under any Product Inventions invented or otherwise developed or generated during the Term by or on behalf of Lian (including its Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) to Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field outside the Territory.

2.5 Landos Right of Access and Reference. Lian hereby grants Landos, its Affiliates, and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (a) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Lian, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term, and (b) all data generated by Lian or its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Products, including clinical and preclinical data, Safety Data and CMC Data contained or referenced in any Regulatory Filings, and all corresponding documentation Controlled by Lian, its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term. The foregoing rights include the right for Landos and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates, and Sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the purposes set forth in this Section 2.4 (License Grant to Landos). Lian will promptly provide to Landos all data generated by or on behalf of it or its Affiliates from any Clinical Trial for a Licensed Product that is necessary or reasonably useful to Landos or its Affiliates or licensees for securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Compound or Licensed Products in Field outside the Territory.

2.6 Rights in Bankruptcy.

- (a) All rights and licenses now or hereafter granted by Landos to Lian under or pursuant to this Agreement, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the licenses granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Right of Reference) are, for all purposes of Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, licenses of rights to “intellectual property” as defined in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Upon any filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, upon the appointment of a receiver or trustee over all or substantially all property, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by Landos, Landos agrees that the Lian, as licensee of such rights under this Agreement, will retain and may fully exercise all of its rights and elections under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Landos and Lian intend and agree that any sale of Landos’ assets under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be subject to Lian’s rights under Section 365(n), that Lian cannot be compelled to accept a money satisfaction of its interests in the intellectual property licensed pursuant to this Agreement, and that any such sale therefore may not be made to a purchaser “free and clear” of Lian’s rights under this Agreement and Section 365(n) without the express, contemporaneous consent of Lian. Landos acknowledges and agrees that “embodiments” of Intellectual Property within the meaning of Section 365(n) include laboratory notebooks, cell lines, product samples and inventory, research studies and data, all Regulatory Approvals (and all applications for Regulatory Approval) and rights of reference therein, the Licensed Know-How, Licensed Patent Rights, and all information related to the Licensed Know-How or Licensed Patent Rights. If (A) a case under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code is commenced by or against Landos, (B) this Agreement is rejected as provided in the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and (C) Lian elects to retain its rights hereunder as provided in Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, Landos (in any capacity, including debtor-in-possession) and its successors and assigns (including a trustee) will: (1) provide Lian with all such Intellectual Property (including all embodiments thereof) held by Landos and such successors and assigns, or otherwise available to them, immediately upon Lian’s written request. Whenever Landos or any of its successors or assigns provides to Lian any of the Intellectual Property licensed hereunder (or any embodiment thereof) pursuant to this Section 2.6(a) (Rights in Bankruptcy), Lian will have the right to perform Landos’ obligations hereunder with respect to such Intellectual Property, but neither such provision nor such performance by Lian will release Landos from liability resulting from rejection of the license or the failure to perform such obligations; and (2) not interfere with Lian’s rights under this Agreement, or any agreement supplemental hereto, to such Intellectual Property (including such embodiments), including any right to obtain such Intellectual Property (or such embodiments) from another entity, to the extent provided in Section 365(n) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

- (b) All rights, powers and remedies of Lian provided in this Section 2.6 (Rights in Bankruptcy) are in addition to and not in substitution for any other rights, powers, and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including the U.S. Bankruptcy Code) in the event of the commencement of a case under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code with respect to Landos. The Parties intend the following rights to extend to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, and to be enforceable under U.S. Bankruptcy Code Section 365(n): (A) the right of access to any Intellectual Property (and all embodiments thereof) of Landos or any Third Party that is licensed or sublicensed to Lian under this Agreement; and (B) the right to contract directly with any Third Party to complete the contracted work.
- 2.7 No Implied Licenses; Reservation of Rights. No rights, other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, are granted to either Party under this Agreement, and no additional rights will be deemed granted to either Party by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, with respect to any intellectual property rights. All rights not expressly granted by either Party, or its Affiliates to the other Party under this Agreement are reserved.
- 2.8 Transfer of Know-How. [], Landos will transfer to Lian the Licensed Know-How that exists as of the Effective Date, in the manner and pursuant to the timelines set forth in Schedule 2.8 (Know-How Transfer) attached hereto. In addition, each Party will provide updates throughout the Term, in a manner established by the JSC, to the other Party of any Know-How that such Party or its Affiliates comes to Control that is necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field (such updates to be made reasonably promptly after any Calendar Quarter in which such Know-How comes into Control of the applicable Party or its respective Affiliates). Additionally, for a period of [] after the initial Licensed Know-How transfer, Landos will provide Lian with reasonable assistance to facilitate the successful transfer of such Licensed Know-How, such assistance to be at Lian's cost and not to exceed [] hours of support per week or [] hours in the aggregate.
- 2.9 Exclusivity.
- (a) Lian Exclusivity. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither Lian will, nor any of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory, nor collaborate with, enable, or otherwise authorize, license or grant any right to any Third Party to Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory.
- (b) Landos Exclusivity. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither Landos will, nor any of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory, nor collaborate with, enable, or otherwise authorize, license or grant any right to any Third Party to Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize any Competitive Product anywhere in the Territory.
- (d) [].
- 2.10 Right of Negotiation. During the Term, Landos grants to Lian an exclusive right of negotiation to obtain an exclusive license, under the applicable Patent Rights and Know-How Controlled by Landos, to Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import Additional Products in the Field in the Territory (an "Additional Product License"), subject to the remainder of this Section 2.10 (Right of Negotiation). From time to time, Landos may present Lian with information regarding Additional Products and offer Lian an opportunity to negotiate an Additional Product License (a “Trigger Notice”). Licensee may exercise its exclusive negotiation right by submitting to Landos a written offer for the proposed terms of such Additional Product License, including the material financial terms and a high-level development plan for the development and commercialization of the applicable Additional Product in the Territory in one or more of the applicable indications (an “Offer”) within [] days after receiving the Trigger Notice (the “Offer Period”). If Lian submits an Offer to Landos during the Offer Period, then Landos and Lian shall enter into exclusive good faith negotiations regarding the terms for such Additional Product License for a period of [] days following Landos’ receipt of such Offer (the “Negotiation Period”). If the Parties agree on the terms for such Additional Products, then the Parties may amend this Agreement to include such Additional Product License or may enter in a separate written agreement with respect to such Additional Product License. If Lian does not submit an Offer for such Additional Product License during the Offer Period or the Parties are unable to agree on the terms of such Additional Product License or enter into an agreement with respect thereto during the Negotiation Period, then [].

ARTICLE 3 DEVELOPMENT

3.1 Development Responsibilities in General.

- (a) Development Diligence. Lian (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and seek Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Products in the Territory, and Landos (directly, or through its respective Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and seek Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Products outside of the Territory. Without limiting the foregoing, Lian will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to carry out any Development activities in the Territory assigned to Lian under the Territory-Specific Development Plan. [].
- (b) Development Responsibilities. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Article 3 (Development) and Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers), Lian will have sole authority to, at its own expense, Develop the Licensed Product for the purpose of obtaining Regulatory Approval in the Field in the Territory. Lian will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation of any Development activities for which it (or any of its Affiliates) is assigned responsibility under this Agreement (including the Development Plans).

3.2 Development Plans.

- (a) Territory-Specific Development Plan. Except for the activities allocated to Lian under a Global Development Plan, all Development of Compounds and Licensed Products in the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written a plan (the “Territory-Specific Development Plan”), the initial draft of which will be prepared by Lian and submitted to the JSC []. The Territory-Specific Development Plan will contain in reasonable detail (i) [], (ii) [], and (iii) []. Lian will update the Territory-Specific Development Plan not less than [], and either Party may propose modifications to the Territory-Specific Development Plan at any time, []. [], each update to the Territory-Specific Development Plan will become effective and supersede the then-current Territory-Specific Development Plan. In the event of any proposed change to the Development Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, the JSC will meet as promptly as practicable to review and discuss any such proposed changes and determine an appropriate revision (if any) to the Territory-Specific Development Plan. If Lian is delayed in performing (or fails to perform) an obligation assigned to Lian in the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of Landos’ failure to timely perform any of its obligations under this Agreement or the Development Plan, then the timelines for the performance of Lian’s obligations under the Territory-Specific Development Plan will be extended commensurate with the delay caused by Landos.

- (b) Global Development Plan. Landos' global Development of the Compounds and Licensed Products inside and outside of the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written plan (the "Global Development Plan"). Prior to [], Landos will provide to the JSC for its review and discussion the initial Global Development Plan. The Global Development Plan will include (i) [], (ii) [], and (iii) []. From time to time, Landos may propose updates to the then-current Global Development Plan for the Licensed Products to the JSC to review and discuss and, to the extent relating to activities to be conducted in the Territory, to determine whether to approve.

3.3 Global Trial Participation.

- (a) Global Phase III Trial Participation. In the event that Landos decides to conduct a Global Phase III Trial for a Licensed Product, Lian will participate in such Global Phase III Trial and include Clinical Trial sites for such Global Phase III Trial in the Territory, subject to []. In the event that Lian participates in such Global Trial, subject to this Section 3.3(a) (Global Phase III Trial Participation) and Section 3.3(c) (Study Design and Protocol), such activities to be conducted by Lian in support of such Global Phase III Trial will be included in the Global Development Plan, and Lian will support Landos on such global development for such Global Trial by (i) including Clinical Trial sites in the Territory [], (ii) being responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of Lian for its participation in such Global Trial conducted in the Territory, and (iii) using Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enroll patients in the Territory equal to a minimum of [] of the total patients in such Global Phase III Trial (the "Patient Commitment"). In the event that Lian participates in such a Global Phase III Trial and fails to enroll sufficient patients in the Territory to meet the Patient Commitment (the "Patient Shortfall"), and Landos instead enrolls patients in such Global Phase III Trial in lieu of Lian in order to meet the Patient Commitment, then Lian will reimburse Landos for the number of patients representing the Patient Shortfall that Landos so enrolls in such Global Phase III Trial (up to the Patient Commitment) based on the Average Cost Per Patient in the Territory. If Lian does not participate in a Global Phase III Trial for either of Crohn's disease or ulcerative colitis, then Lian will conduct a Clinical Trial in the Territory intended to support the Regulatory Approval for the use of the Licensed Product in the applicable disease in the Territory, and such Clinical Trial will be included in the Territory-Specific Development Plan. Additionally, in such event, Lian shall use good faith efforts to design the protocol for such Clinical Trial in a manner that would permit Landos to use clinical data generated from such Clinical Trial to support the Regulatory Approval for the use of the Licensed Product in the applicable disease in the U.S.
- (b) Other Global Trial Participation. In the event that Landos decides to conduct a Global Trial for a Licensed Product, other than a Global Phase III Trial, that is primarily intended to support the Development or Regulatory Approval of any Compound or Licensed Product in the Field outside the Territory (each, an "Other Global Trial"), to the extent the Parties agree to Lian's participation in such Other Global Trial, then Lian will participate in such Other Global Trial and include Clinical Trial sites in the Territory, subject to (i) [], (ii) [], and (iii) []. For any Other Global Trial in which Lian agrees to participate, the Parties will prepare an update to the Global Development Plan to include the Development activities to be conducted by Lian in the Territory in support of such Other Global Trial, including the Clinical Trial sites in the Territory for such Other Global Trial, to be determined by Lian after considering in good faith Landos' suggestions thereon.

- (c) Study Design and Protocol. Landos will determine the study design and study protocol for any Global Phase III Trial or Other Global Trial, and Lian will have the right to determine which patient types to enroll in the Territory for such Global Phase III Trial or Other Global Trial. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, to the extent that Lian participates in any such Global Phase III Trial or Other Global Trial, Lian's obligation to participate in such Global Phase III Trial or Other Global Trial is subject to the Parties' agreement on such study design and study protocol (such approval of Lian not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

3.4 Development Records and Reporting.

- (a) Records. Lian will maintain complete and accurate records of all work conducted by Lian in furtherance of seeking Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Such records will be maintained in sufficient detail and in good scientific manner appropriate for patent and regulatory purposes and in accordance with applicable Laws. Lian will document all non-clinical studies and Clinical Trials for Licensed Products in formal written study records according to applicable Laws, including applicable national and international guidelines such as ICH, GCP and GLP, and shall, at Landos' written request, provide Landos English translations thereof (to the extent prepared and originated in a language other than English and subject to reimbursement by Landos of any cost of translation thereof). To the extent permissible, Landos shall have the right to review and copy such records at reasonable times and to obtain access to the original to the extent necessary or useful for regulatory or patent purposes in accordance with this Agreement.
- (b) Reporting. Lian will provide a written report to the JSC for review and discussion, at least [], in English, summarizing Lian's activities and progress related to the pursuit of Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory.

3.5 Development Costs. Except as set forth in Section 3.3 (Global Trial Preparation) and this Section 3.5 (Development Costs), each Party will bear 100% of the costs and expenses it incurs in connection with the Development activities conducted under the Development Plans.

3.6 Regulatory Submissions and Approvals; Communications; Meetings.

- (a) Regulatory Filings and Approvals. Lian, or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees, will have the sole and exclusive right to file and hold all Regulatory Filings, and to apply for and maintain all Regulatory Approvals and Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, in each case, for all Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory at Lian's cost and expense in the name of Lian or any of its Affiliates and Sublicensees. The Parties will use good faith efforts to cooperate to effectuate this Section 3.6(a) (Regulatory Filings and Approvals), and if, after the Parties' use of good faith efforts, Lian, or its Affiliate or Sublicensee []. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will be responsible, at its sole cost and expense, for all regulatory activities leading up to and including the obtaining of Regulatory Approvals and any Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, as applicable, for Licensed Products in the Field from Regulatory Authorities or Governmental Authorities in the Territory. Lian will conduct such activities (and any and all regulatory activities delegated to Lian in this Agreement) (A) in its own name, if Lian is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, [].
- (b) Regulatory Communications. Subject to applicable Law and this Section 3.5 (Development Costs), Lian will oversee, monitor, and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Lian will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings for Licensed Products.
- (c) Regulatory Meetings. Until such time as Lian obtains Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, to the extent legally permissible and practicable, Lian will provide Landos with reasonable prior written notice of all substantive meetings with Regulatory Authorities regarding the Licensed Product if permitted by applicable Law or the Regulatory Authority. Landos will have the right to request to be present as an observer at (but not to participate in, unless requested by Lian or the Regulatory Authority) all such meetings with Regulatory Authorities to the extent permitted under applicable Law, at Landos' sole cost and expense, and Lian will consider any such request in good faith.

3.7 Termination or Suspension of Clinical Trials. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, the Parties hereby agree that Lian may terminate or suspend any Clinical Trial relating to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and Landos may terminate or suspend any Global Trial, without the approval or consent of the JSC or the other Party, if (i) a Regulatory Authority, institutional review board or safety data review board for such Clinical Trial has required or recommended such termination or suspension or (ii) following review and discussion with the JSC, the Party seeking such termination believes in good faith that such termination or suspension is warranted because of observed safety risks to the study subjects. In either case, such Party will promptly notify the other Party in writing of such termination or suspension.

3.8 No Harmful Actions. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to any Licensed Product in such Party's territory that are (a) received by such Party or its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or other licensees (to the extent that such Party has the right to disclose such material communications or correspondence of other licensees and provided that such Party uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such right from such other licensees) from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by such Party, its Affiliates or other licensees to any Regulatory Authority and (b) would reasonably be expected to impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the other Party's territory. If either Party believes that the other Party is taking or intends to take any action with respect to a Licensed Product in such other Party's territory that could have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of any Licensed Product in such Party's territory, then such Party will have the right to bring the matter to the attention of the JSC and the JSC will discuss in good faith a resolution to such concern.

- 3.9 Pharmacovigilance. Within [] after the Effective Date, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and finalize the actions that the Parties will employ with respect to the Licensed Products to protect patients and promote their well-being in a written pharmacovigilance agreement (the "Pharmacovigilance Agreement"). These responsibilities will include mutually acceptable guidelines and procedures for the receipt, investigation, recordation, communication, and exchange (as between the Parties) of Adverse Event reports and any other information concerning the safety of any Licensed Product, including recall and withdrawal responsibilities, processes and procedures. Such guidelines and procedures will be in accordance with, and enable the Parties to fulfill, local and national regulatory reporting obligations under applicable Law. Furthermore, such agreed procedure will be consistent with relevant ICH guidelines, except where such guidelines may conflict with existing local regulatory reporting safety reporting requirements, in which case local reporting requirement will prevail. Lian will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events, and safety data related to the Licensed Products in the Field to applicable Regulatory Authorities in the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Landos will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events, and safety data related to Licensed Product to applicable Regulatory Authorities outside the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Product outside the Territory. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement will also provide for a worldwide safety database to be maintained by Landos at its sole cost and expense, which worldwide safety database will be accessible by Lian and its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors to the full extent necessary for Lian to exercise its rights under this Agreement, comply with its obligations under this Agreement and comply with all applicable Law. Each Party will comply with its respective obligations under such Pharmacovigilance Agreement and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to comply with such obligations.

ARTICLE 4 MANUFACTURE, SUPPLY, AND COMMERCIALIZATION

- 4.1 Supply Agreement. Within [] following the JSC's approval of the Territory-Specific Development Plan, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and enter into a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of clinical quantities of Licensed Products by Landos to Lian for use solely in connection with Clinical Trials and other Development of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Clinical Supply Agreement") and, no later than [] prior to the date Lian anticipates its First Commercial Sale of the Licensed Products in the Territory, a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of commercial quantities of Licensed Products by Landos to Lian for the commercial sale and distribution of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Commercial Supply Agreement" and, together with the Clinical Supply Agreement, the "Supply Agreements"). Unless otherwise agreed or required by applicable Laws, the Supply Agreements will specify that (a) Landos will (or will cause its Affiliates to) Manufacture and supply, and Lian will purchase from Landos, all of Lian's, its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' requirements for the Licensed Products for the Development or Commercialization (as applicable) in the Field in the Territory in their finished form and at a price equal to (a) under the Clinical Supply Agreement, [] and (b) under the Commercial Supply Agreement, [].

- 4.2 Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Lian nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then, the Parties will use reasonable efforts to discuss in good faith alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of the Parties as agreed under this Agreement.
- 4.3 Manufacture Technology Transfer Option. At any time after the Effective Date, upon Lian's written request to Landos, and Landos' written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) or, in the event of a Supply Failure, upon Lian's written notice to Landos, (a) the Parties will discuss in good faith and prepare a technology transfer plan pursuant to which Landos will (i) provide access, and transfer, to Lian or its designated CMO, at Lian's sole cost (other than in the event that such transfer is following the occurrence of a Supply Failure, in which case the Parties will each bear their respective costs for such transfer) the Licensed Know-How Controlled by Landos or its Affiliates that is necessary or reasonably useful for Lian or such CMO to Manufacture the Compounds and the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and (ii) provide all other reasonably necessary assistance and services to Lian [] to enable Lian or its designated CMO to Manufacture the Compounds and Licensed Products in substantially the same manner as Landos or its Affiliates or CMOs (as applicable) Manufactures the Compounds and the Licensed Product for Lian; and (b) following agreement on such plan, Landos will perform and execute the technology transfer plan in accordance with its terms.
- 4.4 Commercialization.
- (a) Commercialization Diligence. Upon receipt of the Marketing Authorization for a Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, Lian (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize such Licensed Product in the Field in such Region in the Territory. Lian will have sole decision-making authority and discretion with respect to Commercializing the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. [].
- (b) Reporting Obligations. Lian will report to Landos in writing, on a [] basis, beginning with the Calendar Year following the first Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (for the period ending December 31 of the prior Calendar Year), a summary of Lian's material Commercialization activities for such Licensed Product performed to date (or updating such report for activities performed since the last such report was given hereunder, as applicable).
- (c) Trademarks.
- (i) Lian will have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory using Lian related Trademarks and any other Trademarks and trade names (the "Lian Trademarks") it determines appropriate for the Licensed Products, which branding may vary by Region or within a Region. Lian will own all rights in the Lian Trademarks and register and maintain such Lian Trademarks in the countries and regions within the Territory, where and how it determines appropriate.
- (ii) Lian will also have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory using the Licensed Marks, and Lian will comply with Landos' reasonable trademark usage guidelines and quality control guidelines in effect from time to time as provided by Landos. Landos will own and retain all rights to the Licensed Marks (together with all goodwill associated therewith) in the Territory, and will prepare, file, prosecute, and maintain all Licensed Marks in the Territory at its own expense; provided, however, Landos will provide to Lian copies of all applications, submissions, communications, and correspondence intended to be sent to, sent to or received by Governmental Authorities or Third Parties in connection with such filing, prosecution, and maintenance of the Licensed Marks in the Territory so that Lian may review and comment thereon (which will be provided with sufficient advanced notice so that Lian may meaningfully review and comment, to the extent practicable), and will incorporate any reasonable comments provided by Lian with respect to such applications, submissions, communications, or correspondence. Subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, Landos will grant and hereby grants an exclusive, sublicensable (subject to Section 2.2) (Sublicensing and Subcontracting), fully paid-up, royalty free, non-transferrable (subject to Section 14.1 (Assignment)) license under the Licensed Marks for Lian to Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.

- (iii) Diversion. Subject to applicable Law, each Party hereby covenants and agrees that (A) it and its Affiliates will not, and it will contractually obligate (and use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enforce such contractual obligation) its licensees, Sublicensees and contractors not to, directly or indirectly, actively promote, market, distribute, import, sell or have sold any Licensed Product, including via the Internet or mail order, to any Third Party or to any address or Internet Protocol address or the like, in the other Party's territory, and (B) neither Party will engage, nor permit its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors to engage, in any advertising or promotional activities relating to any Licensed Product for use directed primarily to customers or other buyers or users of such product located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, or solicit orders from any prospective purchaser located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory.
- (d) No Violation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Lian (including its Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will not be obligated to undertake or continue any Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products if Lian (or its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, as applicable) reasonably determines that performance of such Commercialization activity would violate applicable Laws or infringe any Third Party Patent Rights.

GOVERNANCE; JOINT STEERING COMMITTEE

- 5.1 Formation; Purposes and Principles. [], Landos and Lian will form a joint steering committee (the "JSC") to provide oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement.
- 5.2 Specific Responsibilities. In addition to its overall responsibility to provide strategic oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement, the JSC will:
 - (a) share information with respect to the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Products by Lian in the Territory and by Landos outside the Territory;
 - (b) coordinate and share information with respect to the Manufacture of the Licensed Products by Landos, for so long as Landos is supplying Licensed Products to Lian;

- (c) keep each Party reasonably informed of the other Party's Development and Commercialization activities and interactions with Regulatory Authorities in the other Party's territory, by receiving updates from the Party conducting such activities to the extent that such activities materially impact or would reasonably be expected to materially impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory; attempt to resolve in the first instance all matters between the Parties that are in dispute, in accordance with Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officer) and Section 13.1 (Dispute Resolution; Escalation);
- (d) [];
- (e) review and discuss the initial Global Development Plan, and each update thereto, as described in Section 3.2(b) (Global Development Plan);
- (f) review, discuss, and determine whether to approve any activities to be conducted by Lian in the Territory under the Global Development Plan, as described in Section 3.2(b) (Global Development Plan);
- (g) review, discuss, and determine matters that may have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of the Licensed Products, as described in Section 3.9 (Pharmacovigilance); and
- (h) perform such other functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as appropriate to further the purposes of this Agreement to the extent agreed to in writing by the Parties.

5.3 Membership. The JSC will be composed of a total of [] representatives of each Party, which will be appointed by each of Landos and Lian, respectively. Each individual appointed by a Party as a representative to the JSC will be an employee of such Party with sufficient seniority and decision-making authority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of compounds and products similar to the Compound and Licensed Products under this Agreement. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JSC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which notice may be given by e-mail, sent to the other Party's co-chairperson. The JSC will be co-chaired by one designated representative of each Party. The co-chairperson of the JSC will cast its Party's vote on the JSC and such designee will have the authority to make decisions on behalf of such Party. Each co-chairperson will alternate being responsible for each meeting for (a) calling and conducting meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the applicable co-chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material decisions made and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within [] days after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes issued in accordance with clause (d) of this Section 5.3 (Membership) will be deemed approved unless [] members of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes within [] Business Days of receipt. The Alliance Managers will work with the chairpersons to prepare and circulate agendas and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those in Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity).

- 5.4 Meetings; Reports. The JSC will hold meetings at least [] per Calendar Quarter during the Term for so long as the JSC exists, unless the Parties agree in writing to a different frequency. No later than [] Business Days prior to any meeting of the JSC (or such shorter time period as the Parties may agree), the applicable co-chairperson will prepare and circulate an agenda for such meeting. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] Business Days prior written notice to the other Party if such Party reasonably believes that a significant matter must be addressed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the applicable co-chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC no later than [] Business Day prior to the special meeting with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed decision on the matters to be considered. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may agree. Other representatives of the Parties, their Affiliates, or Third Parties involved in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products may be invited by the members of the JSC to attend meetings as non-voting observers if such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity). No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least [] of each Party (which [] not such Party's Alliance Manager) is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided.
- 5.5 Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers. The Parties will endeavor to reach unanimous agreement with respect to all matters within the JSC's authority. Each Party's representatives on the JSC will collectively have one vote, (the "Party Vote") and no action or decision will be taken by the JSC without unanimous Party Vote (i.e., the affirmative Party Vote of each Party). If the JSC is not be able to reach agreement with respect to a matter at a duly called meeting of the JSC, then either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution, and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] Business Days after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then Lian will have the final decision-making authority as to (a) [] and (b) [], except [], Landos will have the final decision-making authority with respect to such matter. Subject to the foregoing sentence, Landos will have final decision-making authority over []. The status quo with respect to any matter that is not subject to a Party's final decision-making authority, and is not resolved at the JSC or by escalation to the Senior Officers as described above, will [].
- 5.6 Limitations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, neither Party will have the final decision-making authority on amending or updating the Development Plan in any way that would materially alter the scope of the other Party's obligations hereunder, increase the other Party's financial obligations hereunder, or result in the disclosure of the Confidential Information of the other Party, in each case, without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article 5 (Governance; Joint Steering Committee) to the contrary, the JSC will not have the authority to amend the terms or conditions of this Agreement.
- 5.7 Alliance Managers.
- (a) Appointment. Each Party will appoint a person to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the Development and Commercialization of Licensed Products between meetings of the JSC (each, an "Alliance Manager"). The Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the committees as non-voting participants and may bring to the attention of the JSC any matters or issues either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time or may designate different Alliance Managers with respect to Development and Commercialization matters, respectively, by notice in writing to the other Party.

- (b) Responsibility. The Alliance Managers will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JSC and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will:
- (i) provide a single point of communication within the Parties' respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement;
 - (ii) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and
 - (iii) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JSC occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Upfront Payment; Milestone Payments.

- (a) Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will pay Landos a payment in the amount of [], which upfront payment will be due and payable to Landos within [] Business Days following the Effective Date.
- (b) Development Milestone Payment. During the Term, Lian will notify Landos in writing of the achievement by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees of any milestone event set forth in Table Section 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payment) (each, a "Development Milestone Event") for the applicable Licensed Product promptly after the occurrence thereof, and Lian will pay Landos the milestone payment set forth in the table below (each, a "Development Milestone Payment") no later than [] days after the achievement of such milestone event by Lian or its Affiliates or any Sublicensees. Each of the milestone payments set forth in Table 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payment) is payable only upon the first achievement of such milestone by the first applicable Licensed Product to achieve such Development Milestone Event, and none of the Development Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Development Milestone Event is achieved.

- (b) Royalty Term. Royalties will be due under this Section 6.2 (Royalties) with respect to a given Licensed Product in a given Region in the Territory during the period commencing upon the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in a specified Region and ending upon the latest of (i) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim of a Licensed Patent Right Covering any composition of matter (excluding formulations) of such Licensed Product that would be infringed by the sale of such Licensed Product in such Region, (ii) the expiry of the applicable Regulatory Exclusivity for such Licensed Product in such Region; or (iii) the [] anniversary of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region (such period, the “Royalty Term”).
- (c) Royalty Payments and Reports. Within [] days following the end of [] following the First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product, Lian shall furnish to Landos a written report for the [] showing []. Lian shall pay Landos the royalty due for such [] calculated in accordance with this Agreement within [] days of delivery of the written report to Landos.

6.3 Payment Adjustments. The following will apply to all royalties paid pursuant to Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate):

- (a) Expiration of Valid Claims. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region by Region basis, if at any time during the Royalty Term in a given Region in the Territory, there is no Valid Claim of a Licensed Patent Right Covering a composition of matter (excluding formulation) of such Licensed Product that would be infringed by the sale of such Licensed Product in such Region, then the applicable royalty rate in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate) will be reduced by [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such Region.
- (b) Generic Entry. If, at any time during the Royalty Term, a Generic Product of a Licensed Product [] in any Region in the Territory in which a Licensed Product is then being sold by Lian or an Affiliate or Sublicensee, then the applicable royalty rates in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate) will be reduced by [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such Region.
- (c) Third Party Payments. If Lian makes a payment under any agreement with a Third Party pursuant to which Lian obtains a license or other rights under a Patent Right or other Intellectual Property owned or controlled by such Third Party in a given Region (whether by acquisition or license) that is necessary or reasonably useful to Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize one or more Licensed Products in such Region, then Lian may offset against the Milestone Payments or royalties due to Landos for the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Products in such Region covered by such license or rights an amount equal to [] of the amounts paid to such Third Party under such agreement (including any upfront payments, milestone payments, and royalties), in all cases, subject to Section 6.4(d) (Cumulative Deductions).

- (d) Cumulative Deductions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the deductions set forth in Section 6.3(a) (Expiration of Valid Claims) through Section 6.3(c) (Third Party Payments) reduce (i) the royalties otherwise payable to Landos as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Expiration of Valid Claims) or (ii) with respect to the deductions set forth in Section 6.3(c) (Third Party Payments), the Milestone Payments otherwise payable to Landos as specified in Section 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payment) and Section 6.1(c) (Sales Milestone Payments), in each case, by more than []. To the extent the foregoing limitation limits the reduction Lian is permitted to take during a Calendar Quarter, Lian will be entitled to carryforward the amount of the reduction Lian was unable to take during such Calendar Quarter and apply such amounts to royalties or Milestone Payments, as applicable, payable to Landos in future Calendar Quarters until such amount is applied by Lian in full.
- 6.4 Audits. Each Party will maintain and will cause its Affiliates and all Sublicensees to maintain, complete and accurate records in sufficient detail to permit the other Party to confirm the accuracy of the calculation of royalties, Milestone Payments, Fully Burdened Manufacturing Cost calculations, and other payments under this Agreement. Upon reasonable prior notice, but not more than [] per Calendar Year and not more than [] with respect to any records, such records will be available during regular business hours for a period of [] years from the end of the [] to which they pertain for examination at the expense of the requesting Party by an independent certified public accountant selected by the requesting Party and reasonably acceptable to the other Party, for the sole purpose of verifying the accuracy of the financial reports and correctness of the payments furnished by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement. Any such auditor will not disclose the other Party's Confidential Information, except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to verify the accuracy of the financial reports furnished by the other Party or the amount of payments due by the other Party under this Agreement. The accountant's report will be disclosed simultaneously to both Parties, and such report will be the Confidential Information of each Party and subject to the terms of Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity). Any amounts shown to be owed but unpaid will be paid within [] days from the accountant's report. Any amounts shown to have been overpaid will be refunded within [] days from the accountant's report. The requesting Party will bear the full cost of such audit unless such audit discloses an underpayment by the other Party of more than [] of the amount due, in which case the other Party will bear the full cost of such audit. The audit rights in this Section 6.4 (Audits) will survive the Term for [] following the effective date of any termination or expiration of this Agreement.
- 6.5 Tax Withholding.
- (a) In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to Landos) ("Tax Withholdings") is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) pursuant to this Agreement under applicable Laws, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth under this Agreement, Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) will make such deduction and withholding [], and any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority for the account of Landos and Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) will provide Landos reasonable evidence of the remittance within [] days thereof and for the purposes of this Agreement, Lian will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Landos with respect to such payments paid to the such Governmental Authority. Lian may satisfy its withholding, value added or other tax obligations under this Section 6.6 (Currency of Payments) through its Affiliates.

- (b) If as a result of any assignment, transfer by operation of law or other transfer (A) of this Agreement by Lian to an Affiliate or Third Party, or (B) some or all of the rights and obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate or Third Party (in each case of (A) and (B), a “Transfer”), then the Tax Withholdings exceeds the Tax Withholdings that would have resulted in the absence of a Transfer, then [].
- (c) Without limiting Section 6.6(a), the Parties agree to cooperate with one another and use reasonable efforts to reduce or eliminate Tax Withholdings or similar obligations in respect of payments made by Lian to Landos under this Agreement. Landos shall provide Lian any tax forms that may be reasonably necessary in order for Lian or its Affiliates not to withhold tax or to withhold tax at a reduced rate under an applicable bilateral income tax treaty. Each Party shall provide the other Party and its Affiliates with reasonable assistance to enable the recovery, as permitted by applicable Laws, of withholding taxes, VAT or similar obligations resulting from payments made under this Agreement, such recovery to be for the benefit of the Party bearing such withholding tax or VAT. Specifically, in the event that any tax has been withheld upon a payment made under this Agreement and been remitted by Lian to a Governmental Authority, if requested by Landos and if, and for so long as, the Parties acting in good faith mutually agree that there is a reasonable prospect of successfully obtaining a refund of such tax, then Lian shall, at Landos’ sole cost and expense, seek a refund of such tax from the proper Governmental Authority. Landos agrees to reasonably cooperate with Lian and its Affiliates in the pursuit of such tax refund (including, if required by applicable Laws or by the applicable Governmental Authority, permitting Lian to seek such tax refund in Landos’ name and participating in any application or appeal that requires that Landos be the party applying for such tax refund, solely with Landos’ prior written consent); provided that, Landos agrees to assume responsibility for direct payment of lawyers’ and other advisors’ fees and any other costs associated with seeking such refund.
- 6.6 Manner of Payment; Currency of Payments. All payments owed by Lian under this Agreement will be made by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a bank and account designated in writing by Landos. All amounts payable and calculations under this Agreement will be in Dollars. As applicable, Net Sales and any royalty reductions will be translated into Dollars using the average of the applicable daily foreign exchange rates published in the Wall Street Journal (or any other qualified source that is acceptable to both Parties) for [] in which such Net Sales occurred.
- 6.7 Late Payments. Without limiting any other rights or remedies available to Landos hereunder, any late payment by Lian will bear interest, to the extent permitted by Laws, at an annual rate of [] or the highest rate permitted by applicable Law (whichever is lower), computed from the dated such payment was due until the date Lian makes the payment, with such interest compounded [].

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP, PROTECTION AND RELATED MATTERS

- 7.1 Ownership of Inventions.
- (a) Ownership of Inventions; Cross License of Product Inventions. Ownership will follow inventorship for any and all inventions, Know-How, developments, or discoveries, whether patentable or non-patentable, invented or otherwise developed or generated by either Party alone (including its Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) or jointly by both Parties (including jointly by their Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) in the performance of a Party’s obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement (collectively, “Inventions”) and such ownership will be determined based on the principles of inventorship in accordance with United States patent Laws.

- (b) Assignment Obligation. Each Party will assign, and will cause its Affiliates to assign, its rights, and cause all employees of such Party or Affiliate who perform activities for such Party or Affiliate under this Agreement to be under an obligation to assign their rights, in any Patent Rights and Know-How, whether or not patentable, resulting therefrom to such Party or Affiliate to effectuate the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.1(a) (Assignment Obligation). With respect to any activities of a Party or its Affiliate or exercise of its or their rights under this Agreement that are subcontracted to a Person that is not an employee, the Party or such Affiliate retaining such subcontractor will include in the applicable subcontract an assignment to such Party or such Affiliate of all rights in Patent Rights and Know-How made by such subcontractor resulting from such activities or exercise of its rights, and in any event will include in the applicable subcontract a license to such Party or Affiliate that is sublicensable (through multiple tiers) to the other Party under this Agreement, of any Patent Rights and Know-How made by such contractor or subcontractor resulting from such activities.

7.2 Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights.

- (a) In the Territory. As between the Parties, Landos will have the first right, at its expense, to Prosecute the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights in all Regions in the Territory, at Landos' sole cost and expense. Landos will keep Lian reasonably informed of all steps with regard to and the status of such Prosecution of such Patent Rights, including by providing Lian with (i) copies of all correspondence and material communications it sends to or receives from any patent office or agency in the Territory relating to such Patent Rights, (ii) a draft copy of all applications, in each case ((i) and (ii)), sufficiently in advance of filing or response to permit reasonable review and comment by Lian, and (iii) a copy of applications as filed, together with notice of its filing date and serial number. Before Landos submits any material filing, including a new patent application, or response to such patent authorities with respect to any Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights, Landos will provide Lian with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such filing or response and will incorporate any reasonable comments or suggestions provided by Lian regarding the Prosecution of such Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights under this Section 7.2(a) (In the Territory).
- (b) Step-In Right. If Landos elects not to continue to Prosecute a given Patent Right within the Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights in the Territory pursuant to Section 7.2(a) (In the Territory), then Landos will give Lian notice thereof within a reasonable period (but not less than []) prior to allowing such Patent Rights to lapse or become abandoned or unenforceable, and Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to assume the Prosecution of such Patent Rights in such Region, including paying any required fees to maintain such Patent Rights in such Region, all at Lian's sole expense and through patent counsel or agents of its choice. Upon transfer of Landos' responsibility for Prosecuting any of the Patent Rights to Lian under this Section 7.2(b) (Step-In Right), (i) Landos will promptly deliver to Lian copies of all necessary files related to the Patent Rights with respect to which responsibility has been transferred and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for Lian to assume such Prosecution, and (ii) such Patent Right shall no longer extend the Royalty Term pursuant to Section 6.2(b) (Royalty Term). Thereafter, Lian will keep Landos reasonably informed of the status of such Prosecution of such Patent Rights.

- (c) Cooperation. Each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate, with the other Party with respect to the Prosecution of Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights pursuant to this Section 7.2 (Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights), including with respect to obtaining patent term restoration, supplemental protection certificates or their equivalents, and patent terms extension with respect to the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights in any Region where applicable.

7.3 Third Party Infringement.

- (a) Notice. Each Party will promptly notify the other in writing if such Party becomes aware of any suspected, threatened or actual infringement by any Third Party of any Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Right arising from the making, using, offering to sell, selling, or importing of a product in the Field in the Territory that could be competitive with a Licensed Product, and, in each case, will provide the other Party with all evidence in such Party's possession or control supporting such infringement or unauthorized use or misappropriation (each, an "Infringement").
- (b) Lian First Right. As between the Parties, Lian will have the first right, but not the obligation, using counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense, to institute any infringement, misappropriation, or other appropriate Action against any Infringement of the Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Rights (any such Action, an "Infringement Action") in the Field in the Territory. Landos shall have the right, at its own cost and expense, to be represented in any Infringement Action by counsel of its own choice. Lian will notify Landos of its decision to commence an Infringement Action, will keep Landos apprised in writing of any such Infringement Action, and will consider Landos' reasonable interests and requests regarding such Infringement Action.
- (c) Landos Right. If Lian fails to commence a suit to enforce the Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Rights against such Infringement (or to settle or otherwise secure the abatement of such Infringement) within (i) [] after its receipt or delivery of notice under Section 7.3 (Third Party Infringement), or (ii) [] before the time limit, if any, set forth in the appropriate Laws for the filing of such actions, whichever comes first, or ceases to diligently pursue such Infringement Action, then Landos will have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense to institute such Infringement Action against the applicable Third Party infringer(s).
- (d) Cooperation. In any Infringement Action brought under the Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Rights pursuant to Section 7.3(b) (Lian First Right) and Section 7.3(c) (Landos Right), each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate with each other, in good faith, relative to the other Party's efforts to protect the Licensed Technology and Joint Patent Rights, and will join such suit as a party, if requested by the other Party. Furthermore, the Party initiating any Infringement Action pursuant to Section 7.3(b) (Lian First Right) or Section 7.3(c) (Landos Right) will consider in good faith all reasonable and timely comments from the other Party on any proposed arguments asserted or to be asserted in litigation related to the enforcement or defense of any such Patent Rights. Neither Party will have the right to settle any Infringement Action under this Section 7.3 (Third Party Infringement) in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party under this Agreement without the consent of such other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (e) Allocation of Recoveries. Any settlements, damages or monetary awards recovered by either Party pursuant to any Infringement Action will (i) first be allocated to reimbursing the Parties for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in making such recovery (which amounts will be allocated pro rata if insufficient to cover the totality of such expenses), and (ii) [].

- 7.4 Claimed Infringement. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party if a Third Party brings any Action alleging patent infringement by Lian or Landos or any of their respective Affiliates or Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Product or Joint Patent Rights (any such Action, an “Infringement Claim”) in the Territory. Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim in the Territory with respect to Lian’s activities, at Lian’s sole cost and expense, and Landos will have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Claim in the Territory by counsel of its own choice. Landos will have the sole right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim with respect to Landos’ activities, including any such Infringement Claim in the Territory or outside of the Territory. Upon the request of the Party controlling the response to the Infringement Claim, the other Party will reasonably cooperate with the controlling Party in the reasonable defense of such Infringement Claim. The other Party will have the right to consult with the controlling Party concerning any Infringement Claim and to participate in and be represented by independent counsel in any associated litigation. If the Infringement Claim is brought against both Parties, then each Party will have the right to defend against the Infringement Claim. The Party defending an Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 (Claimed Infringement) will (a) consult with the other Party as to the strategy for the prosecution of such defense, (b) consider in good faith any comments from the other Party with respect thereto and (c) keep the other Party reasonably informed of any material steps taken and provide copies of all material documents filed, in connection with such defense. The Party controlling the defense against an Infringement Claim will have the right to settle such Infringement Claim on terms deemed reasonably appropriate by such Party, provided, that, neither Party will have the right to settle any Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 (Claimed Infringement) in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party under this Agreement without the consent of such other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 7.5 Common Interest. All information exchanged between the Parties regarding the Prosecution, enforcement, and defense, of Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters) will be deemed Confidential Information of the disclosing Party. In addition, the Parties acknowledge and agree that, with regard to such Prosecution, enforcement, and defense, the interests of the Parties as collaborators and licensor and licensee are to obtain the strongest patent protection possible, and as such, are aligned and are legal in nature. The Parties agree and acknowledge that they have not waived, and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a waiver of, any legal privilege concerning the Patent Rights under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters), including privilege under the common interest doctrine and similar or related doctrines. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, to the extent a Party has a good faith belief that any information required to be disclosed by such Party to the other Party under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters) is protected by attorney-client privilege or any other applicable legal privilege or immunity, such Party will not be required to disclose such information, and the Parties will in good faith cooperate to agree upon a procedure (including entering into a specific common interest agreement, disclosing such information on a “for counsel eyes only” basis or similar procedure) under which such information may be disclosed without waiving or breaching such privilege or immunity.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY

8.1 Confidential Information.

- (a) Confidentiality Obligation. During the Term and for a period of [] years after any termination or expiration of this Agreement, each Party agrees to, and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to, keep in confidence and not to disclose to any Third Party, or use for any purpose, except to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Party, without the prior written consent of such disclosing Party. The existence and terms of this Agreement are the Confidential Information of each Party.
- (b) Permitted Disclosures. Each Party agrees that it and its Affiliates will provide or permit access to the other Party's Confidential Information only to the receiving Party's employees, consultants, advisors, licensees, collaboration partners, and Sublicensees, and to the employees, consultants and advisors of the receiving Party's Affiliates, in each case on a need to know basis who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information no less stringent than the obligations of confidentiality and non-use of the receiving Party pursuant to this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information). Each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates, licensees, collaboration partners, or Sublicensees, and its and its Affiliates' respective employees, consultants and advisors, to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) as if such Affiliates, employees, consultants, advisors, licensees, collaboration partners, and Sublicensees were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information).
- (c) Confidentiality Limitation. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each Party may use and disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as follows: (i) under appropriate written confidentiality and non-use obligations no less stringent than those in this Agreement, to its Affiliates, bona fide potential or actual collaboration partners, licensors, Sublicensees, licensees, or strategic partners and to employees, directors, agents, consultants, and advisers of any other Third Parties, (ii) to its financial advisors, attorneys and accountants, bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors and underwriters on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement; provided, however, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by any of the foregoing individuals to treat such Confidential Information as required under Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) as if such individuals were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information), or (iii) as required by any court or other governmental body or as otherwise required by applicable Laws (including any such disclosures as are required by a Regulatory Authority in connection with seeking Regulatory Approval, Pricing and Reimbursement Approval, import authorization for any Licensed Product in the Territory, or the rules or regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States or of any stock exchange or listing entity (including in connection with the public sale of securities)); provided, that, notice is promptly given to the other Party and the disclosing Party cooperates with reasonable requests from the other Party to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to protect the Confidential Information. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity), Confidential Information that is permitted or required to be disclosed will remain otherwise subject to the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1(b) (Permitted Disclosures) and this Section 8.1(c) (Confidentiality Limitation). If either Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Governmental Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Party with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Party with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use reasonable efforts to have terms identified by such other Party afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Regulatory Authority.

- (d) Secrecy of Licensed Know-How. Without limiting the generality of Section 8.1(a) (Confidentiality Obligation), during the Term the receiving Party will protect, and will cause, to the extent applicable, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents to protect, the secrecy and confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How and unpublished Patent Rights using at least the same degree of care as it uses to prevent the disclosure of its own other confidential information of like importance and in any event a reasonable duty of care.
- (e) Residual Knowledge. The Parties acknowledge the practical difficulty of policing the use of information inadvertently retained in the unaided memory of a receiving Party or its Affiliates and its and their officers, directors, employees, and agents who have had rightful access to the Confidential Information of the disclosing Party ("Residual Knowledge"), and as such each Party agrees that the receiving Party will not be liable for the inadvertent use (without reference to any Confidential Information of the disclosing Party) by any of its or its Affiliates' officers, directors, employees, or agents of the Residual Knowledge that is inadvertently retained in the unaided memory of such officer, director, employee, or agent; provided that such officer, director, employee, or agent has not been directed to or otherwise intentionally memorized or retained such Residual Knowledge for use other than as explicitly permitted under this Agreement. The receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that any use made by the receiving Party of any such Residual Knowledge is on an "as is, where is" basis and at its sole risk, with all faults and all representations and warranties disclaimed by the disclosing Party.

8.2 Publicity. The Parties acknowledge the importance of supporting each other's efforts to publicly disclose results and significant developments regarding the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and each Party may make such disclosures from time to time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 8.2 (Publicity). Such disclosures may include achievement of milestones, significant events in the Development process with respect to Licensed Products, or Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products.

- (a) On a date to be agreed by the Parties, the Parties will jointly issue a press release regarding the signing of this Agreement. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence and for disclosures permitted in accordance with Section 8.1(b) (Permitted Disclosures), whenever either Party elects to make any public disclosure regarding milestones or other significant events in the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, it will first notify the other Party of such planned press release or public announcement and provide a draft for review no less than [] in advance of issuing such press release or making such public announcement (or, with respect to press releases and public announcements that are required by applicable Laws, with as much advance notice as possible under the circumstances if it is not possible to provide notice at least [] in advance). Each Party will have the right to review and approve any such planned press release or public announcement proposed by the other Party with respect to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or that includes Confidential Information of the other Party. In such case, (i) the reviewing Party will attempt to provide such approval as soon as reasonably possible and will not unreasonably withhold such approval; (ii) the reviewing Party will provide explanations of its disapproval of such press release; and (iii) a Party desiring to make such public disclosure may issue such press release or public announcement without such prior review by the other Party if (A) the contents of such press release or public announcement have previously been made public other than through a breach of this Agreement by such Party, and (B) such press release or public announcement is consistent with the previously issued press release or other publicly available information. The Party reviewing a press release provided under this clause (i) of this Section 8.2(a) (Publicity) will review and approve or disapprove such press release within [] Business Days after its receipt thereof.

- (b) In the event that either Party proposes to publish or present the results of Development or Commercialization carried out on the Licensed Product, including any oral presentation or abstract that contain clinical data or pertain to results of Clinical Trials or other studies, such publication or presentation will be subject to the prior review by the other Party for protection of such other Party's Confidential Information. Each Party will provide to the other Party the opportunity to review a draft of any proposed publication that covers the results of Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products during the Term, and the submitting Party will remove from such proposed publication any Confidential Information of the other Party as reasonably requested by the other Party.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; CERTAIN COVENANTS

9.1 Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that, as of the Effective Date:

- (a) Organization. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.
- (b) Authority. It has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, it has the right to grant to the other the licenses and sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement, and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents.
- (c) Consents. Except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, Manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained.
- (d) No Conflict. It is not under any obligation, contractual or otherwise, to any Person that would affect the diligent and complete fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) and the licenses and sublicenses to be granted by such Party pursuant to this Agreement (i) do not conflict with or violate any requirement of Laws applicable to such Party, (ii) do not conflict with or violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award of any court or governmental agency presently in effect applicable to such Party, and (iii) do not conflict with, violate, breach or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any contractual obligations of such Party or any of its Affiliates.

- (e) Enforceability. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon it and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the general principles of equity and subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

9.2 Additional Representations and Warranties of Landos. Landos represents and warrants to Lian that, as of the Effective Date:

- (a) Licensed Patent Rights. All Licensed Patent Rights as of the Effective Date are listed in Schedule 1.76 (Licensed Patents). Landos is the sole and exclusive owner of the Licensed Patent Rights, all of which are free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances. Except as otherwise noted in Schedule 1.76 (Licensed Patents), all Licensed Patent Rights owned or Controlled by Landos have been filed and Prosecuted in good faith in the patent offices in accordance with applicable Laws, and all applicable fees have been paid on or before the due date for payment. All issued Licensed Patent Rights are valid, subsisting, and enforceable. Landos does not own or hold any Patent Rights that would be necessary or reasonably useful for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory other than the Licensed Patent Rights.
- (b) Licensed Know-How. Landos owns or Controls the Licensed Know-How, and has the right to grant the licenses under the Licensed Know-How to Lian on and the terms set forth in this Agreement. Landos has the right to use and disclose (in each case, under appropriate circumstances of confidentiality) the Licensed Know-How free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances.
- (c) Licensed Technology. Landos has not granted to any Third Party, including any academic organization or agency, any license, option or other rights to research, Develop, Manufacture, use or Commercialize the Compounds or the Licensed Products in the Territory. No Third Party has any license, option or other rights or interest in or to the Licensed Technology other than the rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement.
- (d) Licensed Marks. Landos owns or Controls the Licensed Marks, and has the right to grant the licenses under the Licensed Marks to Lian on the terms set forth in this Agreement.
- (e) Delivery of Documentation. Prior to the Effective Date, Landos has made available to Lian true, complete, and correct copies of: (i) all existing material Regulatory Filings in its possession and control relating to Licensed Products, (ii) all material adverse information with respect to the safety and efficacy of the Licensed Products in Landos' or its Affiliates' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b) (Lian Right of Access and Reference)) possession and control, and (iii) all material data and results relating to the Development of the Licensed Products in Landos' or its Affiliates' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) (Lian Right of Access and Reference).
- (f) Third Party Challenges. There are no claims, judgments, or settlements against, or amounts with respect thereto, made against Landos or any of its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Patent Rights or the Licensed Know-How, and no written claim or litigation has been received by Landos or its Affiliates or, [], threatened by any Person (i) alleging that the Licensed Patent Rights are invalid or unenforceable, (ii) asserting the misuse of any of the Licensed Patent Rights, (iii) challenging Landos' Control of the Licensed Patent Rights (i.e., alleging that a Third Party has a right or interest in or to the Licensed Technology), or (iv) alleging misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party used in the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products by or on behalf of Landos prior to the Effective Date.

- (g) Non-Infringement of Third Party IP. [], the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Territory does not infringe any Patent Right or misappropriate or otherwise violate or misappropriate any Know-How of any Person (in the case of pending Patent Rights, evaluating them as if issued). No written claim of infringement of the Patent Rights or misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party has been received by Landos, or [], threatened, against Landos, any of its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products. [], the practice by Lian under the Licensed Technology or the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Compounds or Licensed Products as contemplated under this Agreement will not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property of any Third Party.
- (h) Absence of Litigation. There are no judgments or settlements against or owed by Landos or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or, [], pending litigation against Landos or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or litigation threatened against Landos or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, in each case, related to Compounds or Licensed Products, including any such litigation any relating to any Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, or Marketing Authorizations Controlled by Landos, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees.
- (i) Maintenance of Regulatory Filings, Good Laboratory, and Clinical Practices. Landos maintains control over all Regulatory Filings pertaining to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Landos and its Affiliates and Sublicensees have generated, prepared, maintained, and retained all Regulatory Filings and Marketing Authorizations in its control that are required to be maintained or retained pursuant to and in material compliance with applicable Laws, and have conducted in material compliance with applicable Laws, including GLP and GCP all Development of Licensed Products in the Field conducted prior to the Effective Date.
- (j) Confidentiality of Know-How. Landos has taken commercially reasonable measures consistent with industry practices to protect the secrecy, confidentiality, and value of all Licensed Know-How. [], the Licensed Know-How existing as of the Effective Date has been kept confidential or has been disclosed to Third Parties only under terms of confidentiality.
- (k) Assignment of Third Party Rights; Third Party Consents.
- (i) Landos has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities under the Global Development Plan for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Lian will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Landos, without payments beyond those required by Article 6 (Financial Provisions), all licenses and other rights granted to Lian under this Agreement.
- (ii) Each Person who has or has had any ownership rights in or to any Licensed Patent Rights purported to be owned solely by Landos, has assigned and has executed an agreement assigning its entire rights, title, and interests in and to such Licensed Patent Rights to Landos, and [], no current officer, employee, agent, or consultant of Landos or any of its Affiliates is in violation of any term of any assignment or other agreement, in each case, regarding the protection of the Licensed Patent Rights.

- (iii) Prior to the Effective Date, Landos has obtained all consents from Third Parties necessary to grant Lian the licenses and rights Landos purports to grant to Lian under this Agreement.
- (l) Statements to Regulatory Authorities. Neither Landos nor any of its Affiliates, nor, [], its Sublicensees nor any of its or their respective officers, employees, or agents has made an untrue statement of material fact or fraudulent statement to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products, or failed to disclose a material fact required under applicable Laws to be disclosed to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products.
- (m) Compliance with Laws. All of the studies, tests, and pre-clinical and Clinical Trials of Licensed Products conducted prior to, or being conducted as of, the Effective Date by or on behalf of Landos have been and are being conducted in all material respects in accordance with applicable Laws.
- (n) Upstream Licenses. As of the Effective Date, Landos owns all Licensed Technology and does not Control any such Licensed Technology pursuant to any Upstream License.
- (o) No Other Disclosures. [], there is no material information, including regarding any safety, efficacy, or regulatory issues, within Landos' Control that has not been disclosed to Lian and that would materially adversely affect the acceptance, or the subsequent approval, by any Regulatory Authority of any Regulatory Filing for a Licensed Product in the Field and in the Territory.
- 9.3 No Conflict. During the Term, Landos and its Affiliates will not grant any interest in the Licensed Technology that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- (a) Additional Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Lian. Lian hereby covenants to Landos that neither Lian nor any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees, will employ or use the services of any Person who is debarred or disqualified under laws in the Territory comparable with the United States Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. §§301 et seq., or the Public Health Service Act, 42 U.S.C. §§262 et seq. in connection with activities relating to any Licensed Product; and in the event that Lian becomes aware of the debarment or disqualification or threatened debarment or disqualification of any Person providing services to Lian or any of its Affiliates with respect to any activities relating to any Licensed Product, Lian will immediately (but in any event no later than []) notify Landos in writing and Lian will cease, or cause its Affiliate to cease (as applicable), employing, contracting with, or retaining any such Person to perform any services relating to any Licensed Product.
- 9.4 Compliance with Laws. Each Party shall, and shall ensure that its Affiliates and their respective Sublicensees will, comply in all respects with all applicable Laws (including Anti-Corruption Laws), including in the Development, Manufacturing, and Commercialization of Licensed Products and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, including the ICH, GCP, GLP and any Regulatory Authority and Governmental Authority health care programs having jurisdiction in such Party's respective territory, each as may be amended from time to time.

- 9.5 NO OTHER WARRANTIES. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTION 9.1 (MUTUAL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES) AND SECTION 9.2 (ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF LANDOS), NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED PRODUCT, VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

ARTICLE 10 INDEMNIFICATION; DAMAGES

- 10.1 Indemnification by Landos. Landos will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Lian, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a “Lian Indemnified Party”), from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Lian Indemnified Party to the extent arising from or relating to: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Landos in this Agreement, or any breach by Landos of any obligation, covenant, or agreement in this Agreement; (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Landos or any of its Affiliates, (sub)licensees (other than Lian), or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, or agents, in performing Landos’ obligations or exercising Landos’ rights under this Agreement; (c) activities conducted by or on behalf of Landos or its Affiliates or Sublicensees or contractors related to the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products anywhere in the world prior to the Effective Date; and (d) the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products by or on behalf of Landos, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees (other than Lian), or contractors outside the Territory; provided, however, that Landos’ obligations pursuant to this Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Landos) will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Lian has an obligation to indemnify Landos pursuant to Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian).
- 10.2 Indemnification by Lian. Lian will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Landos, its Affiliates, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a “Landos Indemnified Party”) from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Landos Indemnified Party to the extent arising from or relating to: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Lian in this Agreement, or any breach by Lian of any obligation, covenant, or agreement in this Agreement, (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of, or violation of Laws by, Lian, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, or agents, in performing Lian’s obligations or exercising Lian’s rights under this Agreement, or (c) the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees (other than Landos) or contractors; provided, however, that Lian’s obligations pursuant to this Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian) will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Landos has an obligation to indemnify Lian pursuant to Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Landos).
- 10.3 Claims for Indemnification.
- (a) Notice. An Indemnified Party entitled to indemnification under Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Landos) or Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian) will give prompt written notification to the Indemnifying Party from whom indemnification is sought of the commencement of any Action by a Third Party for which indemnification may be sought (a “Third Party Claim”) or, if earlier, upon the assertion of such Third Party Claim by a Third Party; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 10.3(a) (Notice) will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.

- (b) Defense. Within [] days after delivery of a notice of any Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 10.3(a) (Notice), the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of such defense, then the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Party not controlling such defense may participate therein at its own expense.
 - (c) Cooperation. The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.
 - (d) Settlement. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party), without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which will not be unreasonably withheld (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)).
 - (e) Mitigation of Loss. Each Indemnified Party will take and will procure that its Affiliates and Sublicensees take all such reasonable steps and actions as are necessary or as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require in order to mitigate any Third Party Claims (or potential losses or damages) under this Article 10 (Indemnification; Damages). Nothing in this Agreement will or will be deemed to relieve any Party of any common law or other duty to mitigate any losses incurred by it.
- 10.4 Insurance. Each Party, at its own expense, will maintain liability insurance (or self-insure) with respect to its activities under this Agreement in an amount consistent with industry standards. Each Party will provide a certificate of insurance (or evidence of self-insurance) evidencing such coverage to the other Party upon request. Without limiting the foregoing, during the Term and thereafter for the period of time required below, each Party will maintain on an ongoing basis comprehensive general liability insurance policies which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similar situated in such Party's territory. Not later than [] days following receipt of written request from a Party, the other Party will provide to the requesting Party a certificate of insurance evidencing such insurance policies. Each Party will maintain such insurance or self-insurance coverage without interruption during the Term and for a period of [] thereafter, and, if applicable, will provide certificates or letters evidencing such insurance coverage without interruption as reasonably requested during the period of time for which such coverage must be maintained. Each Party will be provided at least [] days' prior written notice of any cancellation or material decrease in the other Party's insurance coverage limits described above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party's failure to maintain adequate insurance will not relieve that Party of its obligations set forth in this Agreement.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 NO CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 11.2 (EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION), NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES OR AFFILIATED ENTITIES WILL BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXERCISE OF ITS RIGHTS OR THE PERFORMANCE OF ITS OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, OR ANY LOST PROFITS ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, IN EACH CASE, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY, OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF ANY NOTICE OF SUCH DAMAGES.
- 11.2 EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION. THE LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMER SET FORTH IN SECTION 11.1 (NO CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES) WILL NOT APPLY TO A CLAIM: (A) FOR GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT; (B) FOR A BREACH OF SECTION 2.9 (EXCLUSIVITY), SECTION 9.2(a) (LICENSED PATENT RIGHTS), ARTICLE 8 (CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY); OR (C) FOR INDEMNIFIABLE LOSSES PURSUANT TO SECTION 10.1 (INDEMNIFICATION BY LANDOS) OR SECTION 10.2 (INDEMNIFICATION BY LIAN), AS APPLICABLE.

TERM AND TERMINATION

- 12.1 Term. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Article 12 (Term and Termination), this Agreement will become effective as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force, on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed and Region-by-Region basis, until the expiration of the Royalty Term applicable to such Licensed Product and such Region (the “Term”).
- 12.2 Paid-Up License Upon End of Royalty Term. Upon the expiration of the Royalty Term for a given Licensed Product in a given Region in the Territory, the licenses and rights of reference granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Rights of Reference) will become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, royalty free, fully sublicensable, and transferable with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region.
- 12.3 Early Termination.
- (a) Termination for Material Breach. Upon (i) any material breach of this Agreement by Landos or (ii) any material breach of this Agreement by Lian (the Party so allegedly breaching being the “Breaching Party”), the other Party (the “Non-Breaching Party”) will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the Breaching Party within [] days’ in the case of a payment breach, or [] days’ in the case of any other material breach, which notice will, in each case (A) expressly reference this Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), (B) reasonably describe the alleged breach that is the basis of such termination, and (C) clearly state the Non-Breaching Party’s intent to terminate this Agreement if the alleged breach is not cured within the applicable cure period. If such breach relates solely to one or more Licensed Products or Regions of the Territory, then the non-breaching Party will have the right to terminate this Agreement solely with respect to such Licensed Product(s) or Region(s), as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended by up to an additional [] days if the Breaching Party provides a reasonable written plan for curing such breach to the Non-Breaching Party and uses reasonable efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan. In addition, if the Breaching Party disputes (A) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, (B) whether such material breach is reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, or (C) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, then the dispute will be resolved pursuant to Article 13 (Dispute Resolution), and the applicable cure period will be tolled during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure.

- (b) Termination for Patent Challenge. Except to the extent the following is unenforceable under the Laws of a particular jurisdiction in the Territory or as otherwise provided in this Section 12.3(b) (Termination for Patent Challenge), Landos may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Lian if Lian, its Affiliates, or Sublicensees, individually or in association with any other person or entity, commences a legal action challenging the validity, enforceability, or scope of any Licensed Patent Rights in a court or other governmental agency of competent jurisdiction in the Territory, including a reexamination or opposition proceeding (a “Patent Challenge”); provided that, if Lian or its Affiliate or Sublicensee withdraws (or causes to be withdrawn) such Patent Challenge within [] days after being requested to do so by Landos in writing (which termination notice will be deemed a request), then Landos will have no right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 12.3(b) (Termination for Patent Challenge). In addition, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Landos may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 12.3(b) (Termination for Patent Challenge) (i) if Lian or its Affiliate or Sublicensee is required by legal process to be joined as a party in any Patent Challenge by a Third Party, or (ii) with respect to: (A) any affirmative defense or other validity, enforceability, or non-infringement challenge, whether in the same action or in any other agency or forum of competent jurisdiction, advanced by Lian, or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees in response to any claim or action brought in the first instance by, or on behalf of, Landos, (B) any Patent Challenge to the extent commenced by a Third Party that after the Effective Date acquires or is acquired by Lian or any of its Affiliates or its or their business or assets, whether by stock purchase, merger, asset purchase, or otherwise; provided that such proceeding commenced prior to the closing of such acquisition, or (C) any Patent Challenge that is commenced by a Sublicensee; provided that Lian demands that such Sublicensee withdraw such Patent Challenge promptly after Lian becomes aware of such Patent Challenge and terminates the sublicense agreement with the applicable Sublicensee if such Sublicensee does not withdraw such Patent Challenge within [] days after receipt of notice from Lian.
- (c) Termination for Insolvency. Subject to Section 2.6 (Rights in Bankruptcy), either Party may terminate this Agreement upon delivery of written notice to the other Party if (i) such other Party files in any court or agency pursuant to any statute or regulation of any jurisdiction a petition in bankruptcy or insolvency or for reorganization or similar arrangement for the benefit of creditors or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee of such other Party or its assets, (ii) such other Party is served with an involuntary petition against it in any insolvency proceeding and such involuntary petition has not been stayed or dismissed within [] days of its filing, or (iii) such other Party makes an assignment of substantially all of its assets for the benefit of its creditors.
- (d) Termination by Lian for Convenience. Lian may, upon [] days’ prior written notice to Landos, terminate this Agreement for convenience, without cause, and for any or no reason, on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product basis.

12.4 Effects of Termination.

- (a) Effects of Termination Generally. Upon any termination of this Agreement with respect to one or more Licensed Products (a “Terminated Product”) or Regions (a “Terminated Region”), then the Parties’ rights, licenses and obligations under this Agreement will terminate with respect to the applicable Terminated Product or Terminated Region and neither Party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement from and after the effective date of termination with respect to the applicable Terminated Product or Terminated Region, except as set forth in this Section 12.4 (Effects of Termination).
- (b) Winding Down of Activities. If there are any on-going Development or Commercialization activities with respect to a Terminated Product or Terminated Region at termination or expiration of this Agreement, then the Parties will negotiate in good faith and adopt a plan to wind-down such activities in an orderly fashion or, at Landos’ election and unless prohibited by any Regulatory Authority or applicable Law, promptly transition such activities from Lian to Landos or its designee, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any Clinical Trials of the Licensed Products, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems and, with respect to any Clinical Trial transitioned to Landos or its designee, to minimize any disruption to such Clinical Trial, and in compliance with all applicable Law.
- (c) License Grant to Landos.
 - (i) Upon termination of this Agreement, Lian, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates hereby grants (effective on delivery of the notice of termination) to Landos a worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual, transferable, exclusive license under the Product Inventions and Patent Rights controlled by Lian that cover any such Product Inventions, in each case, in existence as of the applicable effective date of termination, to Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize Compounds and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the “Reversion License”). If any rights granted by Lian under the Reversion License are Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees pursuant to an agreement with a Third Party, then Landos will pay all amounts due under any such agreement to the extent reasonably allocable to Landos’ exercise of the rights granted thereunder.
 - (ii) Effective upon any termination of this Agreement in all Regions of the Territory, if, as of the effective date of termination, the Terminated Product has achieved First Commercial Sale in any Region in the Territory, then Lian will assign and transfer (and if unable to assign and transfer, exclusively license) to Landos any Trademarks owned or Controlled by Lian that are specific to such Terminated Product for the purpose of Commercializing such Terminated Product, together with all goodwill associated with the specific Trademarks. If this Agreement is terminated with respect to one or more, but not all, Regions in the Territory, then Lian will grant an exclusive license to Landos under any Trademarks in the Terminated Region owned or Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates that are specific to such Terminated Product for the purpose of Commercializing such Terminated Product in the Terminated Region.
 - (iii) If Landos or its or their Affiliates or Sublicensees exercises the Reversion License or the rights granted pursuant to Section 12.4(h) (Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals) and this Agreement has been terminated by Lian pursuant to Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), then Landos will pay to Lian, in consideration of the rights granted to Landos, [].

- (d) Discontinuation of JSC. Upon termination of this Agreement in its entirety, the JSC will cease to exist; provided, however, that if this Agreement is terminated with respect to one or more Terminated Products or Terminated Regions only, then the JSC will continue with respect to the non-terminated Licensed Products or Regions only.
- (e) Accrued Obligations. Expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason will not release either Party from any obligation or liability that, on the effective date of such expiration or termination, has already accrued to the other Party or that is attributable to a period prior to such expiration or termination.
- (f) Survival. This Section 12.4(f) (Survival), the provisions set forth in the following Sections, as well as, to the extent applicable, any other Sections or defined terms referred to in such Sections or Articles or necessary to give them effect, will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety: Articles 6 (solely to the extent any payment obligations have accrued prior to expiration or termination), 8, 10, 11, 13 and 14 and Sections 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.7, 3.4(a), 7.1, 9.5, 12.2 and 12.4. Furthermore, any other provisions required to interpret the Parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement, including applicable definitions in Article 1 (Definitions), will survive to the extent required. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, including this Section 12.4(f) (Survival), any licenses granted under this Agreement will terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety or solely with respect to a Terminated Product or Terminated Region, as the case may be, for any reason.
- (g) Inventory.
- (i) Sell-Off Period. Lian will have the right, for a period of [] following termination of this Agreement in any Region, to sell or otherwise dispose of any Licensed Products in such terminated Regions, as applicable, on hand at the time of such termination or in the process of Manufacturing (the "Sell-Off Period").
- (ii) Landos Buy-Back. Upon expiration of any Sell-Off Period in any Region, Landos will have the right to purchase all of Lian's and its Affiliates' remaining inventory of Licensed Products held as of the effective date of expiration of such Sell-Off Period at a price equal to (A) [], if supplied by Landos or (B) if Manufactured by Lian, [].
- (h) Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Following the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3 (Early Termination), after Landos' written request, Lian will, to the extent permitted under applicable Laws, and at Landos' sole cost and expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Landos' rights under this Section 12.4(h) (Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals) was initiated by Landos pursuant to Section 12.3 (Early Termination), in which case such transfer will be at Lian's sole cost and expense), assign and transfer to Landos all Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products that are held by or owned by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the effective date of termination, with respect to the terminated Region, as the case may be.

- (i) Return of Confidential Information. Within [] after the effective date of termination (but not expiration) of this Agreement in its entirety, each Party will, and cause its Affiliates to (i) destroy, all tangible items solely comprising, bearing or containing any Confidential Information of the other Party that are in such first Party's or its Affiliates' possession or Control, and provide written certification of such destruction, or (ii) prepare such tangible items of the other Party's Confidential Information for shipment to such other Party, as such other Party may direct, at the first Party's expense; provided, however, that, in any event, (A) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights that survive expiration or termination of this Agreement; and (B) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party for its legal archives.

ARTICLE 13 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 13.1 Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, any and all disputes between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (other than matters within the purview of the JSC, which will be resolved in accordance with Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers)), will first be referred to the Senior Officers for resolution. The Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] Business Days after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 13.2 (Arbitration).
- 13.2 Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 12.4(c) (License Grant to Landos) and this Section 13.2 (Arbitration), each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 13.1 (Dispute Resolution; Escalation) will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (the "Rules") by an arbitral tribunal composed of three arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with each Party appointing one arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by agreement of the two arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within [] days, then the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with ICC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by either Party by notice to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings will be held in []. All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney's fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of either Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 13.2 (Arbitration). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 13.2 (Arbitration) may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by Laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of both Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, neither Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 13.2 (Arbitration) will preclude either Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding. Notwithstanding the Parties' agreement to arbitrate, unless the Parties agree in writing in any particular case, claims and disputes between the Parties relating to or arising out of, or for which resolution depends in whole or in part on a determination of the interpretation, scope, validity, enforceability or infringement of, Patent Rights or of any Trademark rights relating to any Licensed Products will not be subject to arbitration under this Agreement, and the Parties may pursue whatever rights and remedies may be available to them under law or equity, including litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction, with respect to such claims and disputes.

- 13.3 JURY WAIVER. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 13.2 (ARBITRATION). THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

ARTICLE 14 MISCELLANEOUS

- 14.1 Assignment. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of each Party under this Agreement will not be assignable, delegable, transferable, pledged or otherwise disposed of by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that either Party may assign or transfer this Agreement together with all of its rights and obligations hereunder, without such consent (but with written notice to the other Party), (A) to an Affiliate or (B) to a successor in interest in connection with the transfer or sale of all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates, or in the event of its merger or consolidation, reorganization or similar transaction. Any permitted assignment of the rights and obligations of a Party under this Agreement will be binding on, and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against, the successors and permitted assigns of the assigning Party. Any assignment in violation of this Section 14.1 (Assignment) will be null and void.
- 14.2 Choice of Laws. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted under the Laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Any dispute, controversy, claim or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in accordance with Section 13.2 (Arbitration); provided, however, that all questions concerning (a) inventorship of Patent Rights under this Agreement will be determined in accordance with Section 7.1 (Ownership of Inventions) and (b) the construction or effect of Patent Rights will be determined in accordance with the Laws of the country, Region or other jurisdiction in which the particular patent within such Patent Rights has been filed or granted, as the case may be. Any communication or proceedings resulting from disputes under this Agreement will be in English language. The Parties agree to exclude the application to this Agreement of the United Nations Conventions on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980).

- 14.3 Notices. All notices that are required or permitted hereunder will be in writing and sufficient if delivered by internationally-recognized overnight courier or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, and in each case, addressed as follows (with a courtesy copy sent by email, which will not constitute notice):

or to such other address as the Party to whom notice is to be given may have furnished to the other Party in writing in accordance herewith. Any such notice will be deemed to have been given: (a) on [] after dispatch if sent by internationally-recognized overnight courier; or (b) on the [] after dispatch if sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

- 14.4 Severability. In the event that one or more provisions of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, then such provision will not render any other provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, and all other provisions will remain in full force and effect and will be enforceable, unless the provisions that have been found to be invalid or unenforceable will substantially affect the remaining rights or obligations granted or undertaken by either Party. The Parties agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision.
- 14.5 Integration. This Agreement, together with all schedules attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, whether written or oral, including, effective as of the Effective Date, the Term Sheet (provided that all information disclosed or exchanged under such agreement will be treated as Confidential Information hereunder). In the event of a conflict between the Development Plan or any schedules or attachments to this Agreement, on the one hand, and this Agreement, on the other hand, the terms of this Agreement will govern. Each Party confirms that it is not relying on any representations or warranties of the other Party except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

- 14.6 Waivers and Amendments. The failure of any Party to assert a right under this Agreement or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition by the other Party. The exercise by any Party of any right or election under the terms or covenants herein will not preclude or prejudice any Party from exercising the same or any other right it may have under this Agreement, irrespective of any previous action or proceeding taken by the Parties hereunder. Notwithstanding the authority granted to the JSC under this Agreement, (a) no waiver will be effective unless it has been given in writing and signed by the Party giving such waiver, and (b) no provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified other than by a written document signed by authorized representatives of each Party.
- 14.7 Independent Contractors; No Agency. Neither Party will have any responsibility for the hiring, firing or compensation of the other Party's or such other Party's Affiliates' employees or for any employee benefits with respect thereto. No employee or representative of a Party or its Affiliates will have any authority to bind or obligate the other Party for any sum or in any manner whatsoever, or to create or impose any contractual or other liability on such other Party, without such other Party's written approval. For all purposes, and notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each Party's legal relationship under this Agreement to the other Party will be that of independent contractor, and the relationship between the two Parties will not constitute a partnership, joint venture, or agency, including for all tax purposes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.
- 14.8 Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors. To the extent that this Agreement imposes obligations on Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors of a Party, such Party will cause its Affiliates and its Sublicensees and contractors to perform such obligations, as applicable. Either Party may use one or more of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors to perform its obligations and duties or exercise its rights under this Agreement, solely to the extent permitted and as specified in this Agreement; provided that (a) each such Affiliate, Sublicensee, or contractor will perform any such obligations delegated to it in compliance with the applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement as if such Affiliate, Sublicensee, or contractor were a party hereto, (b) the performance of any obligations of a Party's by its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors will not diminish, reduce, or eliminate any obligation of such Party under this Agreement, and (c) subject to such Party's assignment to an Affiliate pursuant to Section 14.1 (Assignment), such Party will remain liable under this Agreement for the prompt payment and performance of all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to this Section 14.8 (Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors), if a Party exercises its rights and performs its obligations under this Agreement through one or more of its Affiliates, "Landos" will be interpreted to mean "Landos or its Affiliates" and "Lian" will be interpreted to mean "Lian or its Affiliates" where necessary to give each Party's Affiliates the benefit of the rights provided to such Party in this Agreement and the ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.
- 14.9 Force Majeure. Neither Party will be held liable to the other Party nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement for failure or delay in achieving any objective, satisfying any condition, or performing any obligation under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts or events beyond the reasonable control of such Party, including, without limitation, acts of God, embargoes, war, acts of war (whether war be declared or not), terrorism, insurrections, riots, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, or other labor disturbances, government actions, unavailability of supplies, materials or transportation, fire, earthquakes, floods, epidemics, pandemics, the spread of infectious diseases, and quarantines ("Force Majeure"). The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date (including related government orders) may be invoked as a Force Majeure for the purposes of this Agreement even though the pandemic is ongoing and those effects may be reasonably foreseeable as of the Effective Date. In addition, a Force Majeure may include reasonable measures affirmatively taken by a Party or its Affiliates to respond to any epidemic, pandemic, or spread of infectious disease (including the COVID-19 pandemic), or other Force Majeure event, such as requiring employees to stay home, closures of facilities, delays of Clinical Trials, or cessation of activities in response to an epidemic or other Force Majeure event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party will not be excused from making payments owed hereunder due to any such Force Majeure circumstances affecting such Party. The affected Party will notify the other Party in writing of any Force Majeure circumstances as soon as reasonably practical, and will provide a good faith estimate of the period for which its failure or delay in performance under the Agreement is expected to continue based on currently available information. The affected Party shall promptly undertake all reasonable efforts necessary to cure such Force Majeure circumstances.

- 14.10 No Third Party Beneficiary Rights. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and they will not be construed as conferring any rights on any other Third Party. This Agreement is not intended to and will not be construed to give any Third Party any interest or rights (including any Third Party beneficiary rights) with respect to or in connection with any agreement or provision contained herein or contemplated hereby, other than, to the extent provided in Article 10 (Indemnification; Damages), the Indemnified Parties.
- 14.11 Non-exclusive Remedy. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and each Party retains all remedies at law or in equity, including the Parties' ability to receive legal damages or equitable relief, with respect to any breach of this Agreement.
- 14.12 Interpretation. The Article and Section headings used herein are for reference and convenience only, and will not enter into the interpretation of this Agreement. Except as otherwise explicitly specified to the contrary, (a) references to an Article, Section or Schedule means an Article or Section of, or a Schedule to this Agreement and all subsections thereof, unless another agreement is specified; (b) references in any Section to any clause are references to such clause of such Section; (c) references to any agreement, instrument, or other document in this Agreement refer to such agreement, instrument, or other document as originally executed or, if subsequently amended, replaced, or supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; (d) references to particular Laws mean such Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto; (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively; (f) unless the context requires a different interpretation, the word "or" has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase "and/or"; (g) the terms "including," "include(s)," "such as," "e.g." and "for example" mean including the generality of any description preceding such term and will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; (h) whenever this Agreement refers to a number of days, such number will refer to calendar days unless Business Days are specified, and if a period of time is specified and dates from a given day or Business Day, or the day or Business Day of an act or event, it is to be calculated exclusive of that day or Business Day; (i) "monthly" means on a calendar month basis, (j) "quarter" or "quarterly" means on a Calendar Quarter basis; (k) "annual" or "annually" means on a Calendar Year basis; (l) "year" means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (m) references to a particular Person include such Person's successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (n) the use of any gender herein will be deemed to encompass references to either or both genders, and the use of the singular will be deemed to include the plural (and vice versa); (o) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (p) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (q) the words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby” and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Schedules); (r) neither Party or its Affiliates will be deemed to be acting “on behalf of” the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (s) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder “agree”, “consent” or “approve” or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (t) the word “will” will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “shall.”

- 14.13 Further Assurances. Each Party will duly execute and deliver, or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents, and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with this Agreement or to carry out more effectively the provisions and purposes hereof, or to better assure and confirm unto such other Party its rights and remedies under this Agreement (including working collaboratively to correct and clerical, typographical, or other similar errors in this Agreement).
- 14.14 Ambiguities; No Presumption. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement has been diligently reviewed by and negotiated by and between them, that in such negotiations each of them has been represented by competent counsel and that the final agreement contained herein, including the language whereby it has been expressed, represents the joint efforts of the Parties hereto and their counsel. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement or any provision hereof, no presumption will apply against any Party as being responsible for the wording or drafting of this Agreement or any such provision, and ambiguities, if any, in this Agreement will not be construed against any Party under the rule of construction, irrespective of which Party may be deemed to have authored the ambiguous provision.
- 14.15 Export Control. This Agreement is made subject to any restrictions required by applicable Laws concerning the export of products or technical information from the U.S. or other countries which may be imposed upon or related to the Parties from time to time. Each Party agrees that it will not export, directly or indirectly, any technology licensed to it or other technical information acquired from the other Party under this Agreement or any products using such technical information to a location or in a manner that at the time of export requires an export license or other governmental approval, except in compliance with U.S. export Laws and regulations.
- 14.16 Execution in Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if both Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

LICENSE AND COLLABORATION AGREEMENT

THIS LICENSE AND COLLABORATION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”), entered into as of May 31, 2021 (the “Effective Date”), is entered into by and among LianBio Inflammatory Limited, a company limited by shares organized and existing under the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China (“Lian”) LianBio, a corporation organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”) (for purposes of Sections 2.9(a) (By Lian) and 14.17 (LianBio Guarantee)) and Lyra Therapeutics, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Lyra”).

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, Lian wishes to obtain from Lyra and Lyra wishes to grant to Lian certain rights and licenses under intellectual property owned or controlled by Lyra to Develop, have Manufactured, and Commercialize the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (each as defined below), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and conditions hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
DEFINITIONS

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms used in this Agreement will have the meanings set forth in this Article 1 (Definitions):

- 1.1 “Accounting Standards” means, with respect to a Person, as applicable, (a) generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) as practiced in the United States or (b) the International Financial Reporting Standards issued by the International Financial Reporting Standards Foundation and the International Accounting Standards Board, in each case, consistently applied.
- 1.2 “Acquired Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 2.9(c) (Business Combinations).
- 1.3 “Acquirer” means, collectively, the Third Party referenced in the definition of Change of Control and such Third Party’s Affiliates, other than the applicable Party in the definition of Change of Control and such Party’s Affiliates, determined as of immediately prior to the closing of such Change of Control.
- 1.4 “Action” means any claim, action, cause of action, or suit (whether in contract or tort or otherwise), litigation (whether at law or in equity, whether civil or criminal), assessment, arbitration, investigation, hearing, charge, complaint, demand, notice or proceeding of, to, from, by or before any Governmental Authority.
- 1.5 “Adverse Event” or “AE” has the meaning set forth in the PRC Measures for the Administration of Reporting and Surveillance of Drug Adverse Events (effective as of July 1, 2011) or the equivalent applicable Laws in any relevant Region, and generally means any untoward medical occurrence associated with the use of a product in human subjects, whether or not considered related to such product. An AE does not necessarily have a causal relationship with a product, that is, an AE can be any unfavorable and unintended sign (including an abnormal laboratory finding), symptom, or disease temporally associated with the use of such product.

- 1.6 “Affiliate” means, with respect to any Person, any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with such first Person, at the time that the determination of affiliation is made and for as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition, “control” means (a) direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the stock or shares having the right to vote for the election of directors of such Person (or if the jurisdiction where such Person is domiciled prohibits foreign ownership of such entity, the maximum foreign ownership interest permitted under such Laws; provided, however, that such ownership interest provides actual control over such Person), (b) status as a general partner in any partnership, or (c) the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct, or cause the direction of, the management or policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise. Affiliates of a Party exclude Persons who are financial investors of such Party or under common control of such financial investors other than such Party and its subsidiary entities.
- 1.7 “Agreement” has the meaning set forth in the Preamble.
- 1.8 “Alliance Manager” has the meaning set forth in Section 5.7(a) (Appointment).
- 1.9 “Anti-Corruption Laws” means laws, regulations, or orders prohibiting the provision of a financial or other advantage for a corrupt purpose or otherwise in connection with the improper performance of a relevant function, including without limitation, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), the Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the PRC and the Criminal Law of the PRC, and similar laws governing corruption and bribery, whether public, commercial or both, to the extent applicable in the applicable territory.
- 1.10 “Assigned Invention” has the meaning set forth in Section 7.1(a) (Inventions).
- 1.11 “Bankruptcy Code” means Title 11 of the United States Code, Section 101, et seq., as amended.
- 1.12 “Breaching Party” has the meaning set forth in Section 12.3(a) (Termination of Material Breach).
- 1.13 “Business Day” means any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, on which the banks in Boston, New York, Beijing, Hong Kong, and Cayman Islands are open for business.
- 1.14 “Calendar Quarter” means each of the three month periods ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of any Calendar Year; provided, however: (a) the first Calendar Quarter of the Term will extend from the Effective Date to the end of the Calendar Quarter in which the Effective Date occurs; and (b) the last Calendar Quarter will extend from the beginning of the Calendar Quarter in which this Agreement expires or terminates until the effective date of such expiration or termination.
- 1.15 “Calendar Year” means, for the first Calendar Year, the period beginning on the Effective Date and ending on December 31, 2021, and for each Calendar Year thereafter each 12-month period commencing on January 1, and ending on December 31, except that the last Calendar Year will commence on January 1 of the year in which this Agreement expires or terminates and end on the effective date of such expiration or termination.
- 1.16 “Change of Control” means, with respect to a Party, (a) a merger or consolidation of such Party with a Third Party that results in the voting securities of such Party outstanding immediately prior thereto, or any securities into which such voting securities have been converted or exchanged, ceasing to represent more than 50% of the combined voting power of the surviving entity or the parent of the surviving entity immediately after such merger or consolidation, (b) a transaction or series of related transactions in which a Third Party, together with its Affiliates, becomes the direct or indirect beneficial owner of more than 50% of the combined voting power of the outstanding securities of such Party, or (c) the sale or other transfer to a Third Party of all or substantially all of such Party's and its controlled Affiliates' assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transaction or series of transactions effected for the primary purpose of financing the operations of the applicable Party (including the issuance or sale of securities for financing purposes) or changing the form or jurisdiction of organization of such Party will not be deemed a "Change of Control" for purposes of this Agreement.

- 1.17 "Clinical Trial" means a trial in which human subjects or patients are dosed with a drug, whether approved or investigational.
- 1.18 "Clinical Supply Agreement" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1 (Supply Agreement).
- 1.19 "CMC" means the Chemistry, Manufacturing, and Controls portion of any Regulatory Filing.
- 1.20 "CMC Data" means any data included in the CMC or in any supporting development reports thereto, in each case, with respect to any Licensed Product in any country in the world.
- 1.21 "Commercial Plan" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.4(b) (Commercial Plan).
- 1.22 "Commercial Supply Agreement" has the meaning set forth in Section 4.1 (Supply Agreement).
- 1.23 "Commercialization" means any and all activities related to the pre-marketing, launching, marketing, promotion (including advertising and detailing), labeling, bidding and listing, pricing and reimbursement, distribution, storage, handling, offering for sale, selling, having sold, importing and exporting for sale, having imported and exported for sale, distribution, having distributed, customer service and support, and post-marketing safety surveillance and reporting of a product (including the Licensed Product), but not including Development activities or Manufacturing. "Commercializing" or "Commercialize" will be construed accordingly.
- 1.24 "Commercially Reasonable Efforts" means, [].
- 1.25 "Competing Product" means [].
- 1.26 "Confidential Information" means (a) all trade secrets or confidential or proprietary information (including any tangible materials embodying any of the foregoing) of the disclosing Party or its Affiliates provided or disclosed (directly or indirectly) to the other Party or any of its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement or disclosed in connection with the Term Sheet, (b) "Confidential Information" (as defined in the Prior CDA) that was disclosed by or on behalf of a Party or any of its Affiliates to the other Party or any of its Affiliates under the Prior CDA and (c) the terms and conditions of this Agreement (which shall be deemed the Confidential Information of both Parties); provided, however, that Confidential Information will not include information that:
 - (i) is published by a Third Party or otherwise is or hereafter becomes part of the public domain by public use, publication, general knowledge, or the like through no breach of this Agreement on the part of the receiving Party or its Affiliates;
 - (ii) is in the receiving Party's or its Affiliates' possession prior to disclosure by the disclosing Party hereunder, and not through a prior disclosure by the disclosing Party, without any obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information (as evidenced by the receiving Party's written records or other competent evidence);

- (iii) is subsequently received by the receiving Party from a Third Party without restriction and without breach of any agreement between such Third Party and the disclosing Party; or
 - (iv) is independently developed by or for the receiving Party without reference to, or use or disclosure of, the disclosing Party's Confidential Information (as evidenced by the receiving Party's or such Affiliate's written records or other competent evidence).
- 1.27 "Contract Manufacturing Organization" or "CMO" means any Third Party contract manufacturing organization.
- 1.28 "Control" or "Controlled" means the possession by a Party of the legal authority or right (whether by ownership, license, or otherwise other than pursuant to this Agreement), (a) with respect to any tangible Know-How, to provide such tangible Know-How to the other Party on the terms set forth herein, or (b) with respect to Patent Rights, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, intangible Know-How, or other Intellectual Property, to grant a license, sublicense, access, or right to use (as applicable) to the other Party under such Patent Rights, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, intangible Know-How, or other Intellectual Property on the terms set forth herein, in each case ((a) and (b)), without (i) breaching or otherwise violating the terms of any arrangement or agreement with a Third Party in existence as of the time such Party or its Affiliates would first be required hereunder to grant the other Party such access, right to use, licenses, or sublicense or (ii) paying any consideration to any Third Party, except for any Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right that a Party in-licenses and under which the other Party elects to take a sublicense and agrees to make any associated payments to the applicable Third Party to the extent directly and specifically attributable to such other Party's activities or exercise of its license to such Know-How, Patent Right, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval or other property right, which will be considered under the Control of such Party, provided that any such payments made by Lian under such a sublicense will be subject to Section 6.3(c) (Third Party Payments). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, a Party will be deemed not to Control any Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right that are owned or in-licensed by an Acquirer except (A) with respect to any such Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right arising from active participation by employees or consultants of the Acquirer in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field after such Change of Control, or (B) to the extent that any such Patent Rights, Know-How, Regulatory Filing, Regulatory Approval, or other property right are actually included in or used in furtherance of the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field by the Acquirer after such Change of Control.
- 1.29 "Cost of Goods Sold" means a Party's actual costs for the Manufacture of Licensed Products (or any component, precursor, or intermediate thereof), calculated in accordance with a Party's internal accounting policies and principles (in accordance with its Accounting Standards, consistently applied). The Cost of Goods Sold for Manufacturing activities with respect to such Licensed Product (or any component, precursor, or intermediate thereof) includes costs for the following, in each case, directly allocable to the Manufacture of such Licensed Products:
- (a) []t;
 - (b) [];
 - (c) [];
 - (d) [];

- (e) [];
 - (f) [];
 - (g) [];
 - (h) []; and
 - (i) [];
- but excludes [].
- 1.30 “Cover,” “Covering,” or “Covered” means, when referring to the Licensed Product: (a) with respect to an issued Patent Right, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under an issued claim included in such Patent Right, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of a specified activity with respect to such Licensed Product would infringe such claim, or (b) with respect to an application for Patent Rights, that, in the absence of a license granted to a Person under a claim included in such application, the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale or import by such Person of a specified activity with respect to such Licensed Product would infringe such claim if such patent application were to issue as a patent.
- 1.31 “CRO” means a Third Party contract research organization.
- 1.32 “CRS” means chronic rhinosinusitis.
- 1.33 “Deficient Site” has the meaning set forth in Section 3.4(b) (Clinical Trial Audits).

Any sublicense granted to a Third Party under this Section 2.2 (Sublicensing and Subcontracting) must [], and provided that []. Lian shall keep Lyra informed through the JSC of each sublicense granted to an Affiliate or Third Party, specifying the name of the Sublicensee and the material terms (including duration) of the sublicense. No Sublicense will diminish, reduce or eliminate any obligation of either Party under this Agreement. Lian will be liable for any act or omission of its Sublicensees as if such Sublicensees were Lian hereunder and Lyra will have the right to proceed directly against Lian without any obligation to first proceed against such Sublicensee. Without limiting the foregoing, each Sublicense granted by Lian or its Affiliates to a Sublicensee will contain (i) confidentiality and non-use provisions at least as restrictive or protective as those set forth in Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) with respect to Lyra's Confidential Information, (ii) if such Sublicense contains a right to Commercialize Licensed Products, such Sublicense will also contain the following provisions: (A) a requirement that the Sublicensee submit applicable sales or other reports to Lian to the extent necessary or relevant to the reports required to be made or records required to be maintained by Lian under this Agreement, and (B) audit requirements in favor of Lian consistent with those set forth in Section 6.4 (Audits), (iii) invention ownership and assignment provisions consistent with and no less restrictive than those set forth in Section 7.1 (Ownership of Intellectual Property), and (iv) if possible under applicable Law, Lian will use reasonable efforts to include in such Sublicense assignment and transfer of possession of, or a right to reference (which right of reference shall be sublicensable (through multiple tiers)) to, all Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals Controlled by such Sublicensee pertaining to any Licensed Product Developed or Commercialized by such Sublicensee (which assignment or right of reference may also be provided to Lian); provided that, if despite using reasonable efforts Lian is unable to obtain such assignment and transfer of, or a right of reference to, such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals, then Lian will include in such Sublicense that upon termination of such Sublicense, Lian obtains such assignment and transfer of, or a right of reference to, such Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Lian will provide Lyra with a copy of any such Sublicense agreement it enters into with a Third Party (other than Third Party subcontractors), within []days after the execution thereof, provided that [].

- (c) Sublicense Survival. Upon the termination of this Agreement by Lyra pursuant to Sections 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), 12.3(c) (Termination for Bankruptcy), 12.3(d) (Patent Challenge), or 12.3(e) (Termination for Cessation of Development or Commercialization), at the written request of any Sublicensee (other than Third Party subcontractors) who is not then in breach of its sublicense agreement, Lyra agrees to enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee under the same terms and conditions of this Agreement (except for Section 6.1(a)) (Upfront Payment), effective upon the date that notice of such written request. If Lian terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3(b) (Termination by Lian for Convenience), then Lyra agrees to consider in good faith any request from any Sublicensee (other than Third Party subcontractors) to enter into a direct license agreement with such Sublicensee.
- 2.3 Performance by Independent Contractors. Lian may contract or delegate any portion of its obligations hereunder to a contractor subject to the terms and condition of Section 14.8 (Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors); provided that Lian []. Lyra is responsible for the compliance of its Affiliates and contractors with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and any act or omission of an Affiliate or contractor that would be a breach of this Agreement if performed by Lyra will be deemed to be a breach by Lyra under this Agreement. For clarity, Lian shall have no right to contract or delegate its obligations hereunder to any Affiliate of Lian or any contractor, CMO or other Third Party, in each case, under terms permitting the performance of any activities related to any Licensed Product outside the Territory, including any Manufacture (for any purpose) of any Licensed Product outside the Territory.
- 2.4 License Grant to Lyra. Lian hereby grants to Lyra and its Affiliates a non-exclusive, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), royalty-free, fully paid up, perpetual, and irrevocable license under any Product Inventions invented or otherwise developed or generated during the Term by or on behalf of Lian (including its Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) to (a) Develop, Manufacture, and Commercialize and otherwise, make, have made, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Licensed Product in the Field outside the Territory and (b) with prior written notice to Lian, conduct Preclinical Development and Development in the Territory (subject to the same restrictions with respect to Lyra's retained rights under the Licensed Technology in the third sentence in Section 2.7 (No Implied Licenses; Reservation of Rights)) for the purposes of Preclinical Developing, Developing, and Commercializing the Licensed Product outside of the Territory.
- 2.5 Lyra Right of Access and Reference. Lian hereby grants Lyra and its Affiliates and Sublicensees access to, and a right of reference with respect to, (a) the Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, Marketing Authorizations and (b) all data generated by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees relating to the Licensed Product, including clinical and preclinical data (including any such data generated from any Clinical Trial performed by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates), Safety Data, and CMC Data, in each case, contained or referenced in any such Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals or Marketing Authorizations, in each case ((a) and (b)), Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates as of the Effective Date or at any time during the Term and to the extent reasonably useful or necessary for Developing, seeking, and securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in or outside the Territory. The foregoing rights include the right for Lyra and, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, to make copies of and reproduce such documentation and information for the sole purposes set forth in this Section 2.5 (Lyra Right of Access and Reference). Without limiting the foregoing, Lian shall use reasonable efforts to []. Lian will promptly provide to Lyra all data generated by or on behalf of it or its Affiliates from any Clinical Trial for a Licensed Product that is necessary or reasonably useful to Lyra or its Affiliates or Sublicensees for securing Regulatory Approval and Marketing Authorization for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product in Field outside the Territory.

- (a) All rights and licenses now or hereafter granted by Lyra to Lian under or pursuant to this Agreement, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the licenses granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Right of Reference) are, for all purposes of Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, licenses of rights to “intellectual property” as defined in the Bankruptcy Code. Upon any filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, upon the appointment of a receiver or trustee over all or substantially all property, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by Lyra, Lyra agrees that Lian, as licensee of such rights under this Agreement, will retain and may fully exercise all of its rights and elections under the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent applicable. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Lyra and Lian intend and agree that any sale of Lyra’s assets that are necessary for the rights and licenses granted by Lyra to Lian under or pursuant to this Agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the licenses granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Right of Reference)) under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be subject to Lian’s rights under Section 365(n), that Lian cannot be compelled to accept a money satisfaction of its interests in the Intellectual Property licensed pursuant to this Agreement, and that any such sale therefore may not be made to a purchaser “free and clear” of Lian’s rights under this Agreement and Section 365(n) without the express, contemporaneous consent of Lian. Lyra will, during the Term, create and maintain current copies or, if not amenable to copying, detailed descriptions or other appropriate embodiments, to the extent feasible, of all Intellectual Property licensed by Lyra under this Agreement. Lyra acknowledges and agrees that “embodiments” of Intellectual Property within the meaning of Section 365(n) include laboratory notebooks, product samples and inventory, research studies and data, all Regulatory Approvals (and all applications for Regulatory Approval) and rights of reference therein, the Licensed Know-How, Licensed Patent Rights, and all information related to the Licensed Know-How or Licensed Patent Rights. If (i) a case under the Bankruptcy Code is commenced by or against Lyra, (ii) this Agreement is rejected in such case as provided in the Bankruptcy Code and (iii) Lian elects to retain its rights hereunder as provided in Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, Lyra (in any capacity, including debtor-in-possession) and its successors and assigns (including a trustee) will: (A) provide Lian with all such Intellectual Property (including all embodiments thereof) held by Lyra and such successors and assigns, or otherwise available to them, immediately upon Lian’s written request. Whenever Lyra or any of its successors or assigns provides to Lian any of the Intellectual Property licensed hereunder (or any embodiment thereof) pursuant to this Section 2.6(a) (Rights in Bankruptcy), Lian will have the right to perform Lyra’s obligations hereunder with respect to such Intellectual Property, but neither such provision nor such performance by Lian will release Lyra from liability resulting from rejection of the license or the failure to perform such obligations, except to the extent such release is provided under Section 365(n) or by operation of another provision of the Bankruptcy Code; and (B) not interfere with Lian’s rights under this Agreement, or any agreement supplemental hereto, to such Intellectual Property (including such embodiments), including any right to obtain such Intellectual Property (or such embodiments) from another entity, to the extent provided in Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. Following Lian’s exercise of its election under Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code to retain its rights under this Agreement, Lian shall comply with and perform its obligations pursuant to Sections 365(n)(2)(B) and (2)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (b) All rights, powers and remedies of Lian provided in this Section 2.6 (Rights in Bankruptcy) are in addition to and not in substitution for any other rights, powers, and remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (including the Bankruptcy Code) in the event of the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to Lyra. The Parties intend the following rights to extend to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, and to be enforceable to the extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code, including under Bankruptcy Code Section 365(n): (i) the right of access to any Intellectual Property (and all embodiments thereof) of Lyra or any Third Party that is licensed or sublicensed to Lian under this Agreement; and (ii) the right to contract directly with any Third Party to complete the contracted work.
- 2.7 No Implied Licenses; Reservation of Rights. No rights, other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement, are granted to either Party under this Agreement, and no additional rights will be deemed granted to either Party by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, with respect to any intellectual property rights. All rights not expressly granted by either Party or its Affiliates to the other Party under this Agreement are reserved. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Lyra reserves the right (on behalf of itself, its Affiliates and its licensees, other than Lian and its Sublicensees) under the Licensed Technology, with the right to grant licenses and sublicenses through multiple tiers, to (a) conduct or have conducted Preclinical Development, Development, and Manufacturing of the Licensed Product anywhere in the world (including the Territory) for the purposes of Preclinical Developing, Developing and Commercializing the Licensed Product outside the Territory, provided that (i) Lyra will provide prior written notice to Lian of any Preclinical Development of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Lyra within the Territory and (ii) any clinical Development of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Lyra within the Territory will be subject to Lian's prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, and (b) perform, and have performed, its obligations under any Development Plan. Neither Party nor any of its Affiliates will use or practice under any Patent Rights licensed or provided to such Party or any of its Affiliates outside the scope of or otherwise not in compliance with the rights and licenses granted to such Party and its Affiliates under this Agreement.
- 2.8 Transfer of Licensed Know-How. [], Lyra will disclose and make available to Lian the Licensed Know-How that exists as of the Effective Date. Lyra may make such Licensed Know-How available in such reasonable form as Lyra determines and is reasonably acceptable to Lian, including in the form such Licensed Know-How is maintained by Lyra. In addition, Lyra will provide periodic updates throughout the Term to Lian of any Know-How that Lyra or its Affiliates comes to Control that constitutes Licensed Know-How, and Lyra will (a) make available to Lian all such Licensed Know-How not previously provided to Lian hereunder, and (b) for a period of [] after the initial Licensed Know-How transfer, provide Lian with reasonable assistance to facilitate the successful transfer of such Licensed Know-How; provided that [].
- 2.9 Non-Compete.
- (a) By Lian. During the Term and subject to the terms of this Agreement, neither LianBio will, nor any of LianBio's Affiliates will, nor Lian, nor any of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Commercialize any Competing Product anywhere in the Territory, nor collaborate with, enable, or otherwise authorize, license, or grant any right to any Third Party to Commercialize any Competing Product anywhere in the Territory, in each case, in the field of []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 2.9(a) (By Lian) shall no longer apply to LianBio nor any of its Affiliates in the event that LianBio is no longer an Affiliate of Lian.
- (b) By Lyra. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, prior to the [] neither Lyra will, nor any of its Affiliates will, directly or indirectly, Commercialize any Competing Product anywhere in the Territory, nor collaborate with, enable, or otherwise authorize, license, or grant any right to any Third Party to Commercialize any Competing Product anywhere in the Territory, in each case, in the field of [].

- 2.10 Right of First Refusal for LYR-220 Product. If, at any time prior to the [] anniversary of the Effective Date, Lyra decides to grant to a Third Party a license to Develop or Commercialize the LYR-220 Product in the Territory, and the material terms of which have been substantially agreed by Lyra, as reflected in a term sheet, letter of intent or other written documentation (“ROFR Terms”) then, prior to entering into any agreement with respect to any such license in the Territory, Lyra will provide written notice to Lian of such potential transaction, including []. Lian will have a right of first refusal (“ROFR”) with respect to obtaining such license in the Territory on the ROFR Terms, exercisable no later than [] after Lian’s receipt of such notice. If Lian provides written notice to Lyra of its exercise of such right of first refusal within the applicable period, then Lian will have [] from the date of Lyra’s receipt of such notice to negotiate and execute an amendment to this Agreement adding the LYR-220 Product to this Agreement []. []. If Lyra and Lian fail to reach a definitive agreement with respect to the Development or Commercialize of the LYR-220 Product in the Territory, then Lyra or any of its Affiliates will be free to enter into a definitive agreement with any Third Party with respect to the Development or Commercialization of LYR-220 Product in the Territory [], provided that, if Lyra does not enter into such a definitive agreement with a Third Party, then []. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the obligations set forth in this Section 2.10 (Right of First Refusal for LYR-220 Product) will not apply to (a) a transaction that is a Change of Control of Lyra, (b) any agreement between Lyra or its Affiliates and any academic, government, or not-for-profit Third Party, and (c) any agreement between Lyra or its Affiliates and any CRO, CMO, or other Third Party under which such Third Party performs contract services on behalf of Lyra or its Affiliates that would grant such Third Party any license relating to the LYR-220 Product in all or any portion of the Territory.

ARTICLE 3 DEVELOPMENT

3.1 Development Responsibilities in General.

- (a) Development Diligence. Lian (directly, or through their respective Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Develop and seek Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Territory, and Lyra (directly, or through its respective Affiliates, Sublicensees and contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to (i) complete the planned Global Phase III Trial for the Licensed Product (subject to Lian’s compliance with its diligence obligations in this Section 3.1(a) (Development Diligence) with respect to such Global Phase III Trial), and (ii) seek and obtain Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the U.S. Without limiting the foregoing and subject to Lyra’s compliance with its diligence obligations in the foregoing sub-clauses (i) and (ii) (but not, for clarity, dependent upon the prior completion of the activities in the foregoing sub-clauses (i) and (ii)), Lian will [] engage Clinical Trial sites in the Territory and enroll up to [] of the total number of Clinical Trial subjects in the planned Global Phase III Trial for the Licensed Product to be conducted by Lyra and Lian; provided that, [].

- (b) Development Responsibilities. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Article 3 (Development) and Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers), Lian will have sole authority to, at its own costs and expense, Develop the Licensed Product for the purpose of obtaining Regulatory Approval in the Field in the Territory. Lian will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation of any Development activities for which it (or any of its Affiliates) is assigned responsibility under this Agreement (including under the Development Plans) and will keep Lyra reasonably informed as to the progress of such activities in accordance with Section 3.5(b) (Reporting).

3.2 Development Activities.

- (a) Regulatory Guidance. Promptly (and in any event within [] months) following the Effective Date, Lian will seek NMPA guidance as to the classification of the Licensed Product as either a drug or device.
- (i) Drug Classification. If the NMPA provides guidance that the Licensed Product will be classified as a drug, then, [].
- (ii) Device Classification. If the NMPA provides guidance that the Licensed Product will be classified as a device, then, [].
- (b) Development in the Territory. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will lead Development activities for the Licensed Product in the Territory as required to obtain, support and maintain the Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product for CRS in the Territory. Lian will have the right to determine after considering in good faith Lyra's suggestions from which Regions all patients in any Clinical Trial for the Licensed Product conducted in the Territory are enrolled, provided that such sites selected by Lian for the Regions do not [] under the Global Development Plan, and otherwise, the Parties will agree upon (i) []; provided however, if the NMPA requires or recommends additional study endpoints, a different study design, or other study protocol changes for the Phase III Trial that are not consistent with the study endpoints, study design, or study protocol contemplated by the IND in the U.S., and Lyra reasonably determines that accommodating such modifications in the Global Phase III Trial would materially delay Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the U.S., then Lyra shall have the right to [], and (ii) []. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Lian does not provide its Clinical Trial data from the Global Phase III Trial in the PRC to Lyra prior to the date set forth in the Global Development Date for the U.S. data read-out for the Global Phase III Trial (which such date will be discussed and approved by the JSC), then Lyra shall have the right, [].

3.3 Development Plans.

- (a) Territory-Specific Development Plan. All Development of the Licensed Product in the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written plan (the "Territory-Specific Development Plan"), the initial draft of which will be prepared by Lian and submitted to the JSC within [] after the Effective Date []. The Territory-Specific Development Plan will contain in reasonable detail (i) [], (ii) [], and (iii) []. Lian will update the Territory-Specific Development Plan not less than [], and either Party may propose modifications to the Territory-Specific Development Plan at any time, including with respect to the inclusion of any additional Indication (subject to Section 3.2(b) (Development in the Territory)), subject in each case []. [], each update to the Territory-Specific Development Plan will become effective and supersede the then-current Territory-Specific Development Plan. In the event of any proposed change to the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, the JSC will meet as promptly as practicable to review and discuss any such proposed changes and determine an appropriate revision

(if any) to the Territory-Specific Development Plan. If Lian is delayed in performing (or fails to perform) an obligation assigned to Lian in the Territory-Specific Development Plan as a result of Lyra's failure to timely perform any of its obligations under this Agreement, then the timelines for the performance of Lian's obligations under the Territory-Specific Development Plan will be extended commensurate with the delay caused by Lyra.

- (b) Global Development Plan. Lyra's global Development of the Licensed Product outside of the Territory and, [], clinical Development within the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a written plan (the "Global Development Plan"). [], Lyra will provide to the JSC for its review and discussion the initial Global Development Plan. The Global Development Plan will include an outline of all major Development activities for the Licensed Product to be conducted throughout the world by Lyra. From time to time, Lyra may propose updates to the then-current Global Development Plan for the Licensed Products, to the JSC to review and discuss and, solely to the extent relating to activities to be conducted by Lian in the Territory, to determine whether to approve such activities.

3.4 Clinical Trial Audits.

- (a) Upon reasonable notification by Lyra and [] based on an audit scope agreed upon by the Parties, [] may conduct an audit, to the extent permitted under Lian's applicable agreements, of Lian's Sublicensees, subcontractors and all Clinical Trial sites engaged by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees to perform Lian's obligations under any Development Plans to ensure that the applicable Clinical Trials are conducted in compliance with such Development Plans, GCP, and applicable Law and meet Lyra's Clinical Trial standards provided by Lyra from time to time during the Term. Lian will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to obtain such audit rights from its Sublicensees, subcontractors and Clinical Trial sites engaged by Lian or its Affiliates and Sublicensees to enable [] to audit such Persons in accordance with this Section 3.4 (Clinical Trial Audits), provided that if Lian is unable to obtain such audit rights, Lian will obtain the right to conduct substantially equivalent audits itself and, []. No later than [] days after preparing or receiving the audit report, Lyra will provide Lian with a written summary of Lyra's findings of any deficiencies or other areas of remediation that Lyra identifies during any such audit. Lian will [] remediate any deficiencies identified in an audit report [] within [] days (or a reasonably longer, mutually agreed period (not to exceed [] days) depending upon the deficiencies) following Lian's receipt of such report, []. [].
- (b) If either Party reasonably determines that any deficiencies with respect to a Global Phase III Clinical Trial site identified pursuant to Section 3.4 (Clinical Trial Audits) (each, a "Deficient Site") may cause a Regulatory Authority to reject or otherwise deem deficient the Clinical Trial data from the conduct of any such Global Phase III Clinical Trial at such Deficient Site, or if the any such deficiencies are not remediated within the time period for remediation specified in Section 3.4(a), then such Party will notify the other Party of such Deficient Site and the Parties will discuss, attempt to agree upon, and implement a remediation plan for such Deficient Site. If the Parties do not agree to such a remediation plan for a Deficient Site that is participating in a global Clinical Trial, then [].
- (c) Lian will provide Lyra with copies of all quality oversight or audit reports prepared in connection with any audit that Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees conduct of any Sublicensee, subcontractor, or Clinical Trial site that Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees have engaged or are evaluating to potentially engage to fulfill Lian's obligations under a Global Development Plan or a Territory-Specific Development Plan no later than [] days after receiving or preparing any such report (as applicable), to the extent permitted under the applicable agreement and subject to redaction as Lian reasonably believes appropriate to protect confidential business information and other sensitive information as applicable. If Lyra believes in good faith that any such quality oversight or audit report may be necessary in connection with obtaining, supporting, or maintaining one or more Regulatory Approvals for a Licensed Product or for other communications with Regulatory Authorities outside of the Territory, then upon Lyra's request, Lian will provide a certified translation thereof at Lyra's sole cost and expense.

- (d) Compliance. Lian will conduct, and will ensure that all of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and other Third Party subcontractors conduct, Development of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory in compliance with applicable Laws and, with respect to any such Development activities conducted as part of the Global Phase III Trial, in compliance with applicable FDA requirements to the extent necessary for the submission of data generated from such activities in Regulatory Filings.

3.5 Development Records and Reporting.

- (a) Records. Lian will maintain complete and accurate records of Development activities conducted by Lian in furtherance of seeking Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Such records will be maintained in sufficient detail and in good scientific manner appropriate for patent and regulatory purposes and in accordance with applicable Laws.
- (b) Reporting. Lian will provide a written report to the JSC for review and discussion, at least [], in English, describing in reasonable detail Lian's activities and progress related to the pursuit of Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Lian will respond to the JSC's reasonable questions or requests for additional information relating to such activities in a timely manner. Any copies of Regulatory Submissions that Lian provides or presents to the JSC shall be in the local language, provided that Lian will also provide to the JSC summaries of such documentation in English.

3.6 Development Costs. Except as set forth in this Section 3.6 (Development Costs), each Party will bear 100% of the costs and expenses it incurs in connection with its respective Development activities. With respect to the Development activities in support of the Global Phase III Trial for the Licensed Product to be conducted by Lyra and Lian in the Territory, Lian will be responsible for: (a) [], and (b) []. As reasonably requested by Lian, Lyra will provide training in English to Lian's Clinical Trial sites in the Territory. Lian will reimburse Lyra's reasonable (a) [] and (b) [].

3.7 Regulatory Submissions and Approvals; Communications; Meetings.

- (a) Regulatory Filings and Approvals. Lian, or its relevant Affiliates or Sublicensees, will have the sole and exclusive right to file and hold all Regulatory Filings, and to apply for and maintain all Regulatory Approvals and Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, in each case, for all Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory at Lian's cost and expense in the name of Lian or any of its Affiliates and Sublicensees. The Parties will use good faith efforts to cooperate to effectuate this Section 3.7(a) (Regulatory Filings and Approvals), and if, after the Parties' use of good faith efforts, Lian, or its Affiliate or Sublicensee []. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will be responsible, at its sole cost and expense, for all regulatory activities leading up to and including the obtaining of Regulatory Approvals and any Pricing and Reimbursement Approvals, as applicable, for Licensed Products in the Field from Regulatory Authorities or Governmental Authorities in the Territory. Lian will conduct such activities (and any and all regulatory activities delegated to Lian in this Agreement) (A) in its own name, if Lian is the legal and beneficial owner of the Regulatory Approvals for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, [].

- (b) Regulatory Communications. Subject to applicable Law and this Section 3.7 (Regulatory Submissions and Approvals; Communications; Meetings), (i) Lian will oversee, monitor, and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory and (ii) Lian will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities for the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings for Licensed Products. Lian will promptly provide Lyra with copies of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory that are received by Lian from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by Lian to any Regulatory Authority. Lian will provide proposed material submissions by Lian to any Regulatory Authority to Lyra for review and comment sufficiently in advance of submission. Lian shall not unreasonably refuse to incorporate any of Lyra's comments to such submissions.
- (c) Regulatory Meetings. Until such time as Lian obtains Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, to the extent legally permissible and practicable, Lian will provide Lyra with reasonable prior written notice of all substantive meetings with Regulatory Authorities in the Territory regarding the Licensed Product if permitted by applicable Law or the Regulatory Authority. Lyra will have the right to request to be present as an observer at or participant in all such meetings with Regulatory Authorities to the extent permitted under applicable Law [], and Lian will use reasonable efforts to permit Lyra to be present at, or participate in, any such meetings, as applicable.
- (d) Termination or Suspension of Clinical Trials. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement or the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, the Parties hereby agree that Lian may terminate or suspend any Clinical Trial relating to the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and Lyra may terminate or suspend any Clinical Trial outside of the Territory, in each case, without the approval or consent of the JSC or the other Party and without violation or default under any provision set forth in this Agreement, if (i) a Regulatory Authority, institutional review board, or safety data review board for such Clinical Trial has required or recommended such termination or suspension or (ii) following review and discussion with the JSC, the Party seeking such termination believes in good faith that such termination or suspension is warranted because of observed safety risks to the study subjects. In either case, such Party will promptly notify the other Party in writing of such termination or suspension.
- (e) Regulatory Investigation or Inquiry. If any Regulatory Authority (i) contacts Lian or its Affiliate with respect to the alleged improper Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of any Licensed Product, (ii) conducts, or gives notice of its intent to conduct, an inspection at Lian's or its Affiliate's facilities used in the Development of the Licensed Product, or (iii) takes, or gives notice of its intent to take, any other regulatory action with respect to any activity of Lian or its Affiliate that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect any Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Product outside of the Territory, then Lian will promptly notify Lyra in writing of such contact, inspection or notice.

- 3.8 No Harmful Actions. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party of all material communications or correspondence with Regulatory Authorities with respect to any Licensed Product in such Party's territory that (a) are received by such Party or its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or other licensees (to the extent that such Party has the right to disclose such material communications or correspondence of other licensees and provided that such Party uses reasonable efforts to obtain such right from such other licensees) from any Regulatory Authority or submitted by such Party, its Affiliates or other licensees to any Regulatory Authority and (b) would reasonably be expected to impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the other Party's territory. If either Party believes that the other Party is taking or intends to take any action with respect to a Licensed Product in such other Party's territory that could have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of any Licensed Product in such Party's territory, then such Party will have the right to bring the matter to the attention of the JSC and the Parties will discuss in good faith the views and suggestions of the JSC to minimize the impact of such action with respect to a Licensed Product in the other Party's territory.
- 3.9 Development of the Licensed Products outside the Territory. Lyra retains the exclusive right and will be solely responsible and have sole discretion and control over the Development activities (including regulatory activities) of the Licensed Products anywhere in the world, other than in Territory. Lyra will, in its sole discretion, oversee, monitor and manage all interactions and communications with Regulatory Authorities with respect to such Licensed Products outside of the Territory. Lyra will have final decision-making authority regarding all regulatory activities, including the labeling strategy and the content of Regulatory Filings with respect to such Licensed Products outside of the Territory.
- 3.10 Pharmacovigilance. No later than [] prior to (a) [] or (b) [], the Parties will negotiate in good faith and finalize the actions that the Parties will employ with respect to the Licensed Products to protect patients and promote their well-being in a written pharmacovigilance agreement (the "Pharmacovigilance Agreement"). These responsibilities will include mutually acceptable guidelines and procedures for the receipt, investigation, recordation, communication, and exchange (as between the Parties) of Adverse Event reports and any other information concerning the safety of any Licensed Product, including recall and withdrawal responsibilities, processes, and procedures. Such guidelines and procedures will be in accordance with, and enable the Parties to fulfill, local and national regulatory reporting obligations under applicable Law. Furthermore, such agreed procedure will be consistent with relevant ICH guidelines, except where such guidelines may conflict with existing local regulatory reporting safety reporting requirements, in which case local reporting requirement will prevail. Lian will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events, and safety data related to the Licensed Products in the Field to applicable Regulatory Authorities in the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory. Lyra will be responsible for reporting quality complaints, Adverse Events, and safety data related to Licensed Product to applicable Regulatory Authorities outside the Territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities relating to Licensed Product outside the Territory. The Pharmacovigilance Agreement will also provide for a worldwide safety database to be maintained by Lyra at its sole cost and expense, which worldwide safety database will be accessible by Lian and its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and contractors to the full extent necessary for Lian to exercise its rights under this Agreement, comply with its obligations under this Agreement, and comply with all applicable Law. Each Party will comply with its respective obligations under such Pharmacovigilance Agreement and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to comply with such obligations.

MANUFACTURE, SUPPLY, AND COMMERCIALIZATION

- 4.1 Supply Agreements. Within [] following the JSC's approval of the Territory-Specific Development Plan, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and enter into a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of clinical quantities of Licensed Products by Lyra to Lian for use solely in connection with Clinical Trials and other Development of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Clinical Supply Agreement") and, no later than [] prior to the date Lian anticipates its First Commercial Sale of the Licensed Products in the Territory, a supply agreement for the Manufacture and supply of commercial quantities of Licensed Products by Lyra to Lian for the commercial sale and distribution of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (the "Commercial Supply Agreement" and, together with the Clinical Supply Agreement, the "Supply Agreements"). Unless otherwise agreed or required by applicable Laws, the Supply Agreements will specify that Lyra will (or will cause its Affiliates to) Manufacture and supply, and Lian will purchase from Lyra, all of Lian's, its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' requirements for the Licensed Products for the Development or Commercialization (as applicable) in the Field in the Territory in their finished form and at a price equal to (a) under the Clinical Supply Agreement, [] and (b) under the Commercial Supply Agreement, []; provided [].
- 4.2 Two-Invoice Policy. The Parties agree that in the event, under the Two-Invoice Policy and tendering policies and applicable Laws in a given province in the PRC, neither Lian nor any of its Affiliates can, based on their existing qualifications, distribute the Licensed Products for such province directly or indirectly to its distributors for the PRC, then, the Parties will use reasonable efforts to discuss in good faith alternative arrangements for the distribution of the Licensed Product in such province that complies with the Two-Invoice Policy as implemented in such province and that maintains the economic interests of the Parties as agreed under this Agreement.
- 4.3 Manufacturing Technology Transfer. In the event of (a)[] or (b) [], upon Lian's written notice to Lyra, (i) the Parties will discuss in good faith and prepare a technology transfer plan pursuant to which Lyra will (A) provide access, and transfer, to Lian or a CMO designated by Lian that is approved by Lyra (which approval may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed) the Licensed Know-How Controlled by Lyra or its Affiliates that is necessary or reasonably useful for Lian or such CMO to Manufacture the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and (B) provide all other reasonably necessary assistance and services to Lian [] to enable Lian or its designated CMO to Manufacture the Licensed Product in substantially the same manner as Lyra or its Affiliates or CMOs (as applicable) Manufactures the Licensed Product for Lian; (ii) following agreement on such plan, Lyra will perform and execute the technology transfer plan in accordance with its terms at Lian's cost and expense, and (iii) Lian will have the right to Manufacture or have Manufactured Licensed Products to satisfy the needs of Lian and its permitted Sublicensees and distributors in the Territory.
- 4.4 Commercialization.
- (a) Commercialization Diligence. Upon receipt of Marketing Authorization for the Licensed Product in the Field in a given Region in the Territory, Lian (directly, or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors) will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize the Licensed Product in the Field in such Region in the Territory. Lian will have sole decision-making authority and control over the Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. [].

- (b) Commercial Plan. All Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Territory will be conducted pursuant to a Commercial Plan. No later than [] prior to the [], Lian will prepare a draft of a standard commercial plan for the Commercialization of the Licensed Product in the Field in such Region, including details with respect to (i) [], (ii) [], and (iii) [] (the “Commercial Plan”). Such draft Commercial Plan and any material changes to the Commercial Plan, including proposed changes to the Commercial Plan as a result of any interaction with any Regulatory Authority, will be submitted to the JSC for review, discussion, and approval pursuant to Section 5.2 (Specific Responsibilities), subject to the decision-making and escalation procedures set forth in Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers).
- (c) Reporting Obligations. Lian will update the JSC at the JSC’s regularly-scheduled meetings regarding Lian’s significant Commercialization activities for the Licensed Products in the Territory. Without limiting the foregoing, on [] basis, beginning with the [] following the first Regulatory Approval of a Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory (for the period ending December 31 of the prior Calendar Year), summarizing in reasonable detail Lian’s material Commercialization activities for such Licensed Product performed to date (or updating such report for activities performed since the last such report was given hereunder, as applicable).
- (d) Trademarks.
- (i) Subject to review and discussion by the JSC, Lian will have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory using Lian related Trademarks and any other Trademarks and trade names it determines appropriate for the Licensed Products, which branding may vary by Region or within a Region. Lian will own all rights in such Trademarks and register and maintain such Trademarks in the countries and regions within the Territory, where and how it determines appropriate.
 - (ii) Lian will also have the right to brand the Licensed Products in the Field and in the Territory using the Licensed Marks, and Lian will comply with Lyra’s reasonable trademark usage guidelines and quality control guidelines in effect from time to time as provided by Lyra. Lyra will own and retain all rights to the Licensed Marks (together with all goodwill associated therewith) in the Territory, and will prepare, file, prosecute, and maintain all Licensed Marks in the Territory at its own expense; provided, however, Lyra will provide to Lian copies of all applications, submissions, communications, and correspondence intended to be sent to, sent to or received by Governmental Authorities or Third Parties in connection with such filing, prosecution, and maintenance of the Licensed Marks in the Territory so that Lian may review and comment thereon (which will be provided with sufficient advanced notice so that Lian may meaningfully review and comment, to the extent practicable), and will incorporate any reasonable comments provided by Lian with respect to such applications, submissions, communications, or correspondence. Subject to terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lyra will grant and hereby grants an exclusive, sublicensable (subject to Section 2.2) (Sublicensing and Subcontracting), fully paid-up, royalty free, non-transferrable (subject to Section 14.1 (Assignment)) license under the Licensed Marks for Lian to Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory.
 - (iii) Diversion. Subject to applicable Law, each Party hereby covenants and agrees that (A) it and its Affiliates will not, and it will contractually obligate (and use reasonable efforts to enforce such contractual obligation) its licensees, Sublicensees and contractors not to, directly or indirectly, actively promote, market, distribute, import, sell or have sold any Licensed Product, including via the Internet or mail order, to any Third Party or to any address or Internet Protocol address or the like, in the other Party’s territory, and (B) neither Party will engage, nor permit its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors to engage, in any advertising or promotional activities relating to any Licensed Product for use directed primarily to customers or other buyers or users of such product located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, or solicit orders from any prospective purchaser located in any country, Region or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory. If Lyra or Lian or any of its Affiliates or sublicensees receives any order for Licensed Product for use from a prospective purchaser located in a country or jurisdiction outside such Party's territory, then such Party, its Affiliates or sublicensees shall immediately refer that order to the other Party and shall not accept any such orders. Neither Lyra nor Lian shall, nor permit its Affiliates or sublicensees to, deliver or tender (or cause to be delivered or tendered) any Licensed Product for use in the other Party's territory.

- (e) Marking. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, Lian shall use reasonable efforts to include on all packaging for each Licensed Product a designation (i) that the Licensed Product incorporates the Licensed Patent Rights, including the word "patent" or the abbreviation "pat." and either the relevant Licensed Patent Rights or a web address that is freely accessible to the public and that lists the relevant Licensed Patent Rights and (ii) if applicable, that the Licensed Product is Manufactured by Lyra, which designations must be in accordance with applicable Laws in the Territory. Lian shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that all Sublicensees and applicable subcontractors mark the Licensed Product accordingly.
- (f) No Violation. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth herein, Lian (including its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and contractors) will not be obligated to undertake or continue any Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products if Lian (or its Affiliates, Sublicensees or contractors, as applicable) reasonably determines that performance of such Commercialization activity would violate applicable Laws or infringe any Third Party Patent Rights.

GOVERNANCE; JOINT STEERING COMMITTEE

- 5.1 Formation; Purposes and Principles. [], Lyra and Lian will form a joint steering committee (the "JSC") to provide oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement.
- 5.2 Specific Responsibilities. In addition to its overall responsibility to provide strategic oversight and to facilitate information sharing between the Parties with respect to the activities of the Parties under this Agreement, the JSC will:
 - (a) coordinate and share information with respect to the Development and Commercialization of the Licensed Product by Lian in the Territory and by Lyra outside the Territory;
 - (b) coordinate and share information with respect to the Manufacture of the Licensed Products by Lyra, for so long as Lyra is supplying Licensed Products to Lian;
 - (c) keep each Party reasonably informed of the other Party's Development and Commercialization activities and interactions with Regulatory Authorities in the other Party's territory, by receiving updates from the Party conducting such activities to the extent that such activities materially impact or would reasonably be expected to materially impact the other Party's Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory;

- (d) [];
- (e) keep Lyra informed of each sublicense granted, and each subcontract entered into, by Lian, as described in Section 2.2(a) (Sublicense Requirements) and Section 2.3 (Performance by Independent Contractors);
- (f) [];
- (g) review and discuss the initial Global Development Plan, and each update thereto, as described in Section 3.3(b) (Global Development Plan);
- (h) review, discuss, and determine whether to approve (i) any activities to be conducted by Lian in the Territory under the Global Development Plan, as described in Section 3.3(b) (Global Development Plan) and (ii) the date for the U.S. data read-out for the Global Phase III Trial under the Global Development Plan ;
- (i) review and discuss the termination or suspension of any Clinical Trial relating to the Licensed Product in light of observed safety risks to the study subjects, as described in Section 3.7(d) (Termination or Suspension of Clinical Trials);
- (j) review, discuss, and determine matters that may have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of the Licensed Products, as described in Section 3.8 (No Harmful Action);
- (k) [];
- (l) [];
- (m) review and discuss the Trademarks and trade names used for the Licensed Products for each Region, as described in Section 4.4(d)(i) (Trademarks);
- (n) review and discuss proposed publications that cover the results of Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory for which a Party has concerns of a potential competitive advantage, and resolve such concerns, as described in Section 8.2(b) (Publicity); and
- (o) perform such other functions as are assigned to it in this Agreement or as appropriate to further the purposes of this Agreement to the extent agreed to in writing by the Parties.

5.3 Membership. The JSC will be composed of a total of [] representatives of each Party, which will be appointed by each of Lyra and Lian, respectively. Each individual appointed by a Party as a representative to the JSC will be an employee of such Party with sufficient seniority and decision-making authority within the applicable Party to provide meaningful input and make decisions arising within the scope of the JSC's responsibilities, and have knowledge and expertise in the Development and Commercialization of products similar to the Licensed Products under this Agreement. The JSC may change its size from time to time by consent of its members, provided that the JSC will consist at all times of an equal number of representatives of each Party, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. Each Party may replace any of its JSC representatives at any time upon written notice to the other Party, which notice may be given by e-mail, sent to the other Party's co-chairperson. The JSC will be co-chaired by one designated representative of each Party. The co-chairperson of the JSC will cast its Party's vote on the JSC and such designee will have the authority to make decisions on behalf of such Party. Each co-chairperson will alternate being responsible for each meeting for (a) calling and conducting meetings, (b) preparing and circulating an agenda in advance of each meeting; provided, however, that the applicable co-chairperson will include any agenda items proposed by either Party on such agenda, (c) preparing minutes of each meeting that reflect the material decisions made and action items identified at such meetings promptly thereafter, and (d) sending draft meeting minutes to each member of the JSC for review and approval within [] days after each JSC meeting. Meeting minutes issued in accordance with clause (d) of this Section 5.3 (Membership) will be deemed approved unless [] members of the JSC objects to the accuracy of such minutes within [] Business Days of receipt. The Alliance Managers will work with the chairpersons to prepare and circulate agendas and to ensure the preparation and approval of minutes. Each JSC representative will be subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those in Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity).

- 5.4 Meetings; Reports. The JSC will hold meetings at least [] per Calendar Quarter during the Term for so long as the JSC exists, unless the Parties agree in writing to a different frequency. No later than [] Business Days prior to any meeting of the JSC (or such shorter time period as the Parties may agree), the applicable co-chairperson will prepare and circulate an agenda for such meeting. Either Party may also call a special meeting of the JSC by providing at least [] Business Days prior written notice to the other Party if such Party reasonably believes that a significant matter must be addressed prior to the next scheduled meeting, in which event such Party will work with the applicable co-chairperson of the JSC and the Alliance Managers to provide the members of the JSC no later than [] Business Day prior to the special meeting with an agenda for the meeting and materials reasonably adequate to enable an informed decision on the matters to be considered. The JSC may meet in person or by audio or video conference as its representatives may agree. Other representatives of the Parties, their Affiliates, or Third Parties involved in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products may be invited by the members of the JSC to attend meetings as non-voting observers if such representatives are subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those set forth in Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity). No action taken at a meeting will be effective unless at least [] of each Party (which [] not such Party's Alliance Manager) is present or participating. Neither Party will unreasonably withhold attendance of at least one representative of such Party at any meeting of the JSC for which reasonable advance notice was provided.
- 5.5 Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers. The Parties will endeavor in good faith and in compliance with this Agreement to reach unanimous agreement with respect to all matters within the JSC's authority. Each Party's representatives on the JSC will collectively have one vote, (the "Party Vote") and no action or decision will be taken by the JSC without unanimous Party Vote (i.e., the affirmative Party Vote of each Party). If the JSC is not be able to reach agreement with respect to a matter at a duly called meeting of the JSC, then either Party may refer such matter to the Senior Officers for resolution, and the Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] Business Days after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then Lian will have the final decision-making authority as to all matters relating to [], except for (a) [], (b) [] (i) [], (ii) [], or (iii) [] (A) [] or (B) []; and (c) []. Lyra will have final decision-making authority over []. The status quo with respect to any matter that is not subject to a Party's final decision-making authority, and is not resolved at the JSC or by escalation to the Senior Officers as described above, will [].
- 5.6 Limitations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, neither Party will have the final decision-making authority on amending or updating the Development Plans in any way that would materially alter the scope of the other Party's obligations hereunder, increase the other Party's financial obligations hereunder, or result in the disclosure of the Confidential Information of the other Party, in each case, without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article 5 (Governance; Joint Steering Committee) to the contrary, the JSC will not have the authority to amend the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

5.7 Alliance Managers.

- (a) Appointment. Each Party will appoint a person to oversee interactions between the Parties for all matters related to the Development and Commercialization of Licensed Products between meetings of the JSC (each, an “Alliance Manager”). The Alliance Managers will have the right to attend all meetings of the committees as non-voting participants and may bring to the attention of the JSC any matters or issues either Alliance Manager reasonably believes should be discussed and will have such other responsibilities as the Parties may agree in writing. Each Party may replace its Alliance Manager at any time or may designate different Alliance Managers with respect to Development and Commercialization matters, respectively, by notice in writing to the other Party.
- (b) Responsibility. The Alliance Managers will have the responsibility of creating and maintaining a constructive work environment within the JSC and between the Parties for all matters related to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Alliance Manager will:
 - (i) provide a single point of communication within the Parties’ respective organizations and between the Parties with respect to this Agreement;
 - (ii) coordinate cooperative efforts, internal communications and external communications between the Parties with respect to this Agreement; and
 - (iii) take such other steps as may be required to ensure that meetings of the JSC occur as set forth in this Agreement, that procedures are followed with respect to such meetings (including working with the co-chairpersons with respect to the giving of proper notice and the preparation and approval of minutes) and that relevant action items resulting from such meetings are appropriately carried out or otherwise addressed.

ARTICLE 6
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Upfront Payment; Milestone Payments.

- (a) Upfront Payment. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Lian will pay Lyra a non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off payment in the amount of $ 12,000,000 U.S. Dollars, which upfront payment will be due and payable to Lyra within [] Business Days following the Effective Date.
- (b) Development Milestone Payment. During the Term, upon the achievement by or on behalf of a Party or its Affiliates or Sublicensees of any milestone event set forth below in Table 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payments) (each, a “Development Milestone Event”) for the Licensed Product, the achieving Party will notify the other Party promptly after the occurrence thereof, and Lian will pay Lyra a non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off, milestone payment set forth in the table below (each, a “Development Milestone Payment”) no later than [] days after its achievement of such milestone event. Each of the milestone payments set forth below in Table 6.1(b) (Development Milestone Payment) is payable [].

- (c) Sales Milestone Payments. During the Term, Lian will notify Lyra in writing of its achievement of each of the sales milestones below within [] days after the [] in which the cumulative Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory first exceed the indicated Dollar value set forth below in Table 6.1(c) (Sales Milestone Events) (each, a “Sales Milestone Event”). Lian will pay to Lyra each of the non-refundable, non-creditable, and not subject to set-off, Sales Milestone Payments set forth below in Table 6.1(c) (Sales Milestone Events) within [] days of providing notice of each Sales Milestone Event (each, a “Sales Milestone Payment”). Each of the milestone payments set forth in Table 6.1(c) (Sales Milestone Payments) is payable only upon the first achievement of such Sales Milestone Event and none of the Sales Milestone Payments will be payable more than once regardless of how many times such Sales Milestone Event is achieved. For clarity, the Sales Milestone Payments are additive, such that if more than one Sales Milestone Events are achieved in the same time period, then the Sales Milestone Payments for all such Sales Milestone Events shall be payable.

6.2 Royalties.

- (a) Royalty Rate. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, during the Royalty Term, Lian will pay to Lyra a tiered royalty on the Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory that is the product of the aggregate annual Net Sales of all Licensed Products in the Territory and the applicable royalty rate in the following Table 6.2 (Royalty Rates), subject to the provisions of Section 6.3 (Royalty Payment Adjustments).

1. []	[]
2. []	[]
3. []	[]
4. []	[]

- (b) Royalty Term. Royalties will be due under this Section 6.2 (Royalties), on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region-by-Region basis, during the period commencing upon the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region and ending upon the latest to occur of (i) the expiration of the last-to-expire Valid Claim of a Licensed Patent Right Covering the making, using, selling, offering for sale or importing of such Licensed Product in such Region, (ii) the expiry of the applicable Regulatory Exclusivity for such Licensed Product in such Region; or (iii) the [] anniversary of the First Commercial Sale of such Licensed Product in such Region (such period, the “Royalty Term”).
- (c) Royalty Payments and Reports. []. Within [] days following the end of each [] following the First Commercial Sale of a Licensed Product, Lian shall furnish to Lyra a written report for the [] showing []. Such written report shall include []. Lian shall pay Lyra the royalty due for such Calendar Quarter calculated in accordance with this Agreement within [] days of delivery of the written report to Lyra.

6.3 Royalty Payment Adjustments. The following will apply to all royalties paid pursuant to Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate):

- (a) Expiration of Valid Claims. On a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and Region by Region basis, if at any time during the Royalty Term in a given Region in the Territory, there is no Valid Claim of a Licensed Patent Right Covering the composition of matter of such Licensed Product that would be infringed by the sale of such Licensed Product in such Region, then the applicable royalty rate in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate) will be reduced by [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such Region.
- (b) Generic Entry. On a [] basis, if, at any time during the Royalty Term subsequent to the first commercial sale of a Generic Product with respect to a Licensed Product in a Region, [], then the applicable royalty rates in effect with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate) will be reduced by [] for [] for such Licensed Product in such Region. For clarity, such reduction will be applied in each [] for the remainder of the Royalty Term for such Licensed Product in such Region in which (i) [] and (ii) []. For purposes of this Section 6.3(b) (Generic Entry), a “first commercial sale” of a Generic Product in a Region means the first sale for monetary value in an arm’s length transaction for use or consumption by an end user of such Generic Product in such Region after the marketing authorization of such Generic Product has been obtained in such Region.

- (c) Third Party Payments. If Lian makes a payment under any agreement with a Third Party pursuant to which Lian obtains a license or sublicense under Patent Right(s) or Patent Right(s) together with Know-How owned or controlled by such Third Party in a given Region that is necessary or reasonably useful to Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize one or more Licensed Products in such Region, then Lian may offset against [] due to Lyra for such Licensed Product in such Region covered by such license an amount equal to [] of the amounts paid to such Third Party under such agreement, subject to Section 6.4(d) (Cumulative Deductions).
- (d) Cumulative Deductions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the deductions set forth in Section 6.3(a) (Expiration of Valid Claims) through Section 6.3(c) (Third Party Payments) reduce the royalties otherwise payable to Lyra as specified in Section 6.2(a) (Royalty Rate) by more than []. To the extent the foregoing limitation limits the reduction Lian is permitted to take during a Calendar Quarter, Lian will be entitled to carryforward the amount of the reduction Lian was unable to take during such Calendar Quarter and apply such amounts to royalties payable to Lyra in future Calendar Quarters within the following three Calendar Years.

6.4 Audits. Each Party will maintain and will cause its Affiliates and all Sublicensees to maintain, complete and accurate records in sufficient detail to permit the other Party to confirm the accuracy of the calculation of royalties, Milestone Payments, Cost of Goods Sold calculations, and other payments under this Agreement. Upon reasonable prior notice, but not more than once per Calendar Year and not more than once with respect to any records, such records will be available during regular business hours for a period of [] years from the end of the Calendar Year to which they pertain for examination at the expense of the requesting Party by an independent certified public accountant selected by the requesting Party and reasonably acceptable to the other Party, for the sole purpose of verifying the accuracy of the financial reports and correctness of the payments furnished by the other Party pursuant to this Agreement. Any such auditor will not disclose the other Party’s Confidential Information, except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to verify the accuracy of the financial reports furnished by the other Party or the amount of payments due by the other Party under this Agreement. The accountant’s report will be disclosed simultaneously to both Parties, and such report will be the Confidential Information of the audited Party and subject to the terms of Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity). Any amounts shown to be owed but unpaid will be paid within [] days from the accountant’s report. Any amounts shown to have been overpaid will be refunded within [] days from the accountant’s report. The requesting Party will bear the full cost of such audit unless such audit discloses an underpayment by the other Party of more than [] of the amount due, in which case the other Party will bear the full cost of such audit. The audit rights in this Section 6.4 (Audits) will survive the Term for [] following the effective date of any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

6.5 Tax Withholding. In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to Lyra) (“Tax Withholdings”) is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) pursuant to this Agreement under applicable Laws, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth under this Agreement, Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) will make such deduction and withholding []. Any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) on a timely basis to the appropriate Governmental Authority for the account of Lyra and Lian (or its Affiliate paying on behalf of Lian) will provide Lyra reasonable evidence of the remittance within [] days thereof and for the purposes of this Agreement, Lian will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligations to Lyra with respect to such payments paid to the such Governmental Authority. Lian may satisfy its withholding, value added or other tax obligations under this Section 6.5 (Tax Withholding) through its Affiliates.

- 6.6 Currency of Payments. All amounts payable and calculations under this Agreement will be in Dollars. As applicable, Net Sales and any royalty reductions will be translated into Dollars using the average of the applicable daily foreign exchange rates published in the Wall Street Journal (or any other qualified source that is acceptable to both Lyra and Lian) for [] in which such Net Sales occurred. All payments under this Agreement will be paid in Dollars by wire transfer to an account designated by the receiving Party (which account the receiving Party may update from time to time in writing).
- 6.7 Late Payments. Without limiting any other rights or remedies available to Lyra hereunder, any late payment by Lian will bear interest, to the extent permitted by Laws, at an annual rate of [] or the highest rate permitted by applicable Law (whichever is lower), computed from the dated such payment was due until the date Lian makes the payment.

ARTICLE 7
INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP,
PROTECTION AND RELATED MATTERS

7.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property.

- (a) Inventions. Lyra will own all Inventions developed or generated by or on behalf of Lian (including by its Affiliates, or any of its employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) that are solely related to the Licensed Product and not related to any other product Controlled by Lian ("Assigned Inventions"), and otherwise ownership will follow inventorship for any and all inventions, Know-How, developments, or discoveries, whether patentable or non-patentable, invented or otherwise developed or generated by either Party alone (including its Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) or jointly by both Parties (including jointly by their Affiliates, or any of its or their employees, Sublicensees, independent contractors, or agents) the performance of a Party's obligations or exercise of its rights under this Agreement (collectively, "Inventions") and such inventorship will be determined in accordance with United States patent Laws.
- (b) Assignment Obligation. Each Party will assign, and will cause its Affiliates to assign, its rights, and cause all employees of such Party or Affiliate who perform activities for such Party or Affiliate under this Agreement to be under an obligation to assign their rights, in any Patent Rights and Know-How, whether or not patentable, resulting therefrom to such Party or Affiliate to effectuate the terms and conditions set forth in Section 7.1(a) (Inventions). Without limiting the foregoing, Lian will and hereby does assign to Lyra all of Lian's rights, title, and interests in and to any Assigned Inventions, and Lyra hereby accepts such assignment. With respect to any activities of a Party or its Affiliate or exercise of its or their rights under this Agreement that are subcontracted to a Person that is not an employee, the Party or such Affiliate retaining such subcontractor will include in the applicable subcontract an assignment to such Party or such Affiliate of all rights in Patent Rights and Know-How developed or generated by such subcontractor resulting from such activities or exercise of its rights, and in any event will include in the applicable subcontract a license to such Party or Affiliate that is sublicensable (through multiple tiers) to the other Party under this Agreement, of any Patent Rights and Know-How developed or generated by such contractor or subcontractor resulting from such activities. Lian and its Affiliates shall ensure that its and their Sublicensees provide Lian with sufficient rights in all Assigned Inventions so that Lian can assign to Lyra all rights and title in and to all Assigned Inventions, as provided herein.

7.2 Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights.

- (a) In the Territory. As between the Parties, Lyra will have the first right, at its expense, to Prosecute the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights in all Regions in the Territory, at Lyra's sole cost and expense. Lyra will keep Lian reasonably informed of all steps with regard to and the status of such Prosecution of such Patent Rights, including by providing Lian with (i) copies of all correspondence and material communications it sends to or receives from any patent office or agency in the Territory relating to such Patent Rights, (ii) a draft copy of all applications, in each case ((i) and (ii)), sufficiently in advance of filing or response to permit reasonable review and comment by Lian, and (iii) a copy of applications as filed, together with notice of its filing date and serial number. Before Lyra submits any material filing, including a new patent application, or response to such patent authorities with respect to any Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights, Lyra will provide Lian with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such filing or response and will incorporate any reasonable and timely comments or suggestions provided by Lian regarding the Prosecution of such Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights under this Section 7.2(a) (In the Territory). For clarity, Lyra may deem unreasonable (and, therefore, have no obligation to incorporate) any comments from Lian that Lyra reasonably believes would be detrimental to Lyra's Prosecution strategy of such Licensed Patent Rights outside of the Territory (even if such comments may be considered reasonable to incorporate regarding such Prosecution in the Territory).
- (b) Step-In Right. If Lyra elects not to continue to Prosecute a given Patent Right within the Licensed Patent Rights or Joint Patent Rights in the Territory pursuant to Section 7.2(a) (In the Territory), then Lyra will give Lian notice thereof within a reasonable period (but not less than [] days) prior to allowing such Patent Rights to lapse or become abandoned or unenforceable, and Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to assume the Prosecution of such Patent Rights in such Region, including paying any required fees to maintain such Patent Rights in such Region, all at Lian's sole expense and through patent counsel or agents of its choice. Upon transfer of Lyra's responsibility for Prosecuting any of the Patent Rights to Lian under this Section 7.2(b) (Step-In Right), (i) Lyra will promptly deliver to Lian copies of all necessary files related to the Patent Rights with respect to which responsibility has been transferred and will take all actions and execute all documents reasonably necessary for Lian to assume such Prosecution, and (ii) such Patent Right shall no longer extend the Royalty Term pursuant to Section 6.2(b) (Royalty Term).
- (c) Cooperation. Each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate, with the other Party with respect to the Prosecution of Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights pursuant to this Section 7.2 (Prosecution and Maintenance of the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights), including with respect to obtaining patent term restoration, supplemental protection certificates or their equivalents, and patent terms extension with respect to the Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights in any Region where applicable.
- (d) Patents Controlled by One Party. Except as otherwise provided under this Agreement, as between Lyra and Lian, each Party will have the sole right (but not the obligation) to Prosecute, at its own cost and expense, all Patent Rights that are Controlled by such Party or its Affiliates.

7.3 Third Party Infringement.

- (a) Notice. Each Party will promptly notify the other in writing if such Party becomes aware of any (i) suspected, threatened, or actual infringement by any Third Party of any Licensed Patent Right or Joint Patent Right in the Territory or (ii) unauthorized use or misappropriation of any Licensed Know-How by any Third Party that impacts or may impact the other Party's rights granted hereunder, and, in each case, will provide the other Party with all evidence in such Party's possession or control supporting such infringement or unauthorized use or misappropriation (each, an "Infringement").
- (b) Lian First Right. As between the Parties, Lian will have the first right, but not the obligation, using counsel of its choosing and at its sole expense, to institute any Action alleging Infringement of the Licensed Technology within the scope of the exclusive license granted to Lian in Section 2.1(a)(i) or the non-exclusive license granted to Lian in Section 2.1(a)(ii) (subject to the restrictions set forth therein) or any Joint Patent Rights in the Field in the Territory (any such Action, an "Infringement Action"). Lyra shall have the right, at its own cost and expense, to be represented in any Infringement Action by counsel of its own choice. Lian will notify Lyra of its decision to commence an Infringement Action, will keep Lyra apprised in writing of any such Infringement Action and will consider Lyra's reasonable interests and requests regarding such Infringement Action.
- (c) Lyra Right. If Lian fails to commence a suit to enforce the Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Rights against such Infringement Action (or to settle or otherwise secure the abatement of such Infringement Action) within (i) [] after its receipt or delivery of notice under Section 7.3 (Third Party Infringement), or (ii) [] before the time limit, if any, set forth in the appropriate Laws for the filing of such actions, whichever comes first, or ceases to diligently pursue such Infringement Action, then Lyra will have the right, but not the obligation, at its own expense to institute such Infringement Action against the applicable Third Party infringer(s).
- (d) Cooperation. In any Infringement Action brought under the Licensed Technology or Joint Patent Rights pursuant to Section 7.3(b) (Lian First Right) and Section 7.3(c) (Lyra Right), each Party will, and will cause its Affiliates to, reasonably cooperate with each other, in good faith, relative to the other Party's efforts to protect the Licensed Technology and Joint Patent Rights, and will join such suit as a party, if requested by the other Party. Furthermore, the Party initiating any Infringement Action pursuant to Section 7.3(b) (Lian First Right) or Section 7.3(c) (Lyra Right) will consider in good faith all reasonable and timely comments from the other Party on any proposed arguments asserted or to be asserted in litigation related to the enforcement or defense of any such Patent Rights. Neither Party will have the right to settle any Infringement Action under this Section 7.3 (Third Party Infringement) in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party under this Agreement without the consent of such other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (e) Allocation of Recoveries. Any settlements, damages or monetary awards recovered by either Party pursuant to any Infringement Action will (i) first be allocated to reimbursing the Parties for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in making such recovery (which amounts will be allocated pro rata if insufficient to cover the totality of such expenses), and (ii) (A) [] or (B) [].

7.4 Claimed Infringement. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party if a Third Party brings any Action alleging patent infringement by Lian or Lyra or any of their respective Affiliates or Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of any Licensed Product or Joint Patent Rights (any such Action, an "Infringement Claim") in the Territory. Lian will have the right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim in the Field in the Territory with respect to Lian's activities, at Lian's sole cost and expense, and Lyra will have the right, at its own expense, to be represented in any such Infringement Claim in the Territory by counsel of its own choice. Lyra will have the sole right, but not the obligation, to control the defense and response to any such Infringement Claim with respect to Lyra's activities, including any such Infringement Claim in the Territory or outside of the Territory. Upon the request of the Party controlling the response to the Infringement Claim, the other Party will reasonably cooperate with the controlling Party in the reasonable defense of such Infringement Claim. The other Party will have the right to consult with the controlling Party concerning any Infringement Claim and to participate in and be represented by independent counsel in any associated litigation. If the Infringement Claim is brought against both Parties, then each Party will have the right to defend against the Infringement Claim. The Party defending an Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 (Claimed Infringement) will (a) consult with the other Party as to the strategy for the prosecution of such defense, (b) consider in good faith any comments from the other Party with respect thereto and (c) keep the other Party reasonably informed of any material steps taken and provide copies of all material documents filed, in connection with such defense. The Party controlling the defense against an Infringement Claim will have the right to settle such Infringement Claim on terms deemed reasonably appropriate by such Party, provided, that, neither Party will have the right to settle any Infringement Claim under this Section 7.4 (Claimed Infringement) in a manner that diminishes the rights or interests of the other Party under this Agreement without the consent of such other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 7.5 Common Interest. All information exchanged between the Parties regarding the Prosecution, enforcement, and defense, of Licensed Patent Rights and Joint Patent Rights under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters) will be deemed Confidential Information of the disclosing Party. In addition, the Parties acknowledge and agree that, with regard to such Prosecution, enforcement, and defense, the interests of the Parties as collaborators and licensor and licensee are to obtain the strongest patent protection possible, and as such, are aligned and are legal in nature. The Parties agree and acknowledge that they have not waived, and nothing in this Agreement constitutes a waiver of, any legal privilege concerning the Patent Rights under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters), including privilege under the common interest doctrine and similar or related doctrines. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, to the extent a Party has a good faith belief that any information required to be disclosed by such Party to the other Party under this Article 7 (Intellectual Property Ownership, Protection and Related Matters) is protected by attorney-client privilege or any other applicable legal privilege or immunity, such Party will not be required to disclose such information, and the Parties will in good faith cooperate to agree upon a procedure (including entering into a specific common interest agreement, disclosing such information on a "for counsel eyes only" basis or similar procedure) under which such information may be disclosed without waiving or breaching such privilege or immunity.

ARTICLE 8 CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY

8.1 Confidential Information.

- (a) Confidentiality Obligation. During the Term and for a period of [] years after any termination or expiration of this Agreement, each Party agrees to, and will cause its Affiliates and Sublicensees and contractors to, keep in confidence and not to disclose to any Third Party, or use for any purpose, except to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, any Confidential Information of the other Party, without the prior written consent of such disclosing Party. The Parties agree that (i) the existence and terms of this Agreement are the Confidential Information of each Party; (ii) the reports provided by Lian to Lyra pursuant to Section 3.5(b) (Reporting) and Section 4.4(c) (Reporting Obligation) are the Confidential Information of Lian; and (iii) the Licensed Know-How, unpublished applications within the Licensed Patent Rights, and Assigned Inventions are the Confidential Information of Lyra.

- (b) Permitted Disclosures. Each Party agrees that it and its Affiliates will provide or permit access to the other Party's Confidential Information only to the receiving Party's employees, consultants, advisors, licensees, collaboration partners, and Sublicensees, and to the employees, consultants and advisors of the receiving Party's Affiliates, in each case on a need to know basis who are subject to obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information no less stringent than the obligations of confidentiality and non-use of the receiving Party pursuant to this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information). Each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates, licensees, collaboration partners, or Sublicensees, and its and its Affiliates' respective employees, consultants and advisors, to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) as if such Affiliates, employees, consultants, advisors, licensees, collaboration partners, and Sublicensees were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information).
- (c) Confidentiality Limitation. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each Party may use and disclose the other Party's Confidential Information as follows: (i) under appropriate written confidentiality and non-use obligations substantially equivalent to those in this Agreement, to its Affiliates, bona fide potential or actual collaboration partners, licensors, Sublicensees, licensees, strategic partners or securitization partners, and to employees, directors, agents, consultants, and advisors of any other Third Parties, (ii) to its financial advisors, attorneys and accountants, bona fide actual or potential acquisition partners, financing sources or investors and underwriters on a need to know basis, in each case under appropriate confidentiality and non-use obligations (which may include professional ethical obligations) no less stringent than those in this Agreement, but of duration customary in confidentiality agreements entered into for a similar purpose; provided, however, that each Party will remain responsible for any failure by any of the foregoing individuals to treat such Confidential Information as required under Section 8.1 (Confidential Information) as if such individuals were parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 8.1 (Confidential Information), (iii) as required by any court or other governmental body or as otherwise required by applicable Laws (including any such disclosures as are required by a Regulatory Authority in connection with seeking Regulatory Approval, Pricing and Reimbursement Approval, import authorization for any Licensed Product in the Territory, or the rules or regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Regulatory Authority in a country other than the United States or of any stock exchange or listing entity (including in connection with the public sale of securities)); provided, that, notice is promptly given to the other Party and the disclosing Party cooperates with reasonable requests from the other Party to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy to protect the Confidential Information, (v) with the disclosing Party's prior written consent, to the extent such use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for the Prosecution of the Licensed Patent Rights. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity), Confidential Information that is permitted or required to be disclosed will remain otherwise subject to the confidentiality and non-use provisions of Section 8.1(b) (Permitted Disclosures) and this Section 8.1(c) (Confidentiality Limitation). If either Party concludes that a copy of this Agreement must be filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or similar Governmental Authority in a country other than the United States, then such Party will, a reasonable time prior to any such filing, provide the other Party with a copy of such agreement showing any provisions hereof as to which the Party proposes to request confidential treatment, will provide the other Party with an opportunity to comment on any such proposed redactions and to suggest additional redactions, and will take such Party's reasonable comments into consideration before filing such agreement and use reasonable efforts to have terms identified by such other Party afforded confidential treatment by the applicable Regulatory Authority.

- (d) Secrecy of Licensed Know-How. Without limiting the generality of Section 8.1(a) (Confidentiality Obligation), during the Term, each Party will protect, and will cause, to the extent applicable, its Affiliates and Sublicensees, and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents to protect, the secrecy and confidentiality of the Licensed Know-How, Assigned Inventions, Product Inventions and unpublished applications within the Patent Rights using at least the same degree of care as it uses to prevent the disclosure of its own other confidential information of like importance and in any event a reasonable duty of care.

8.2 Publicity. The Parties acknowledge the importance of supporting each other's efforts to publicly disclose results and significant developments regarding the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, and each Party may make such disclosures from time to time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 8.2 (Publicity). Such disclosures may include achievement of milestones, significant events in the Development process with respect to Licensed Products, or Commercialization activities with respect to Licensed Products.

- (a) On a date to be agreed by the Parties, the Parties will jointly issue a press release regarding the signing of this Agreement. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence and for disclosures permitted in accordance with Section 8.1(b) (Permitted Disclosures), whenever either Party elects to make any public disclosure regarding milestones or other significant events in the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, it will first notify the other Party of such planned press release or public announcement and provide a draft for review no less than [] in advance of issuing such press release or making such public announcement (or, with respect to press releases and public announcements that are required by applicable Laws, with as much advance notice as possible under the circumstances if it is not possible to provide notice at least [] in advance). Each Party will have the right to review and approve any such planned press release or public announcement proposed by the other Party with respect to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, or that includes Confidential Information of the other Party. In such case, (i) the reviewing Party will attempt to provide such approval as soon as reasonably possible and will not unreasonably withhold such approval; (ii) the reviewing Party will provide explanations of its disapproval of such press release; and (iii) a Party desiring to make such public disclosure may issue such press release or public announcement without such prior review by the other Party if (A) the contents of such press release or public announcement have previously been made public other than through a breach of this Agreement by such Party, and (B) such press release or public announcement is consistent with the previously issued press release or other publicly available information; and provided that []. The Party reviewing a press release provided under this clause (i) of this Section 8.2(a) (Publicity) will review and approve or disapprove such press release within [] Business Days after its receipt thereof.

- (b) In the event that either Party proposes to publish or present the results of Development or Commercialization carried out on the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory, including any oral presentation or abstract that contain clinical data or pertain to results of Clinical Trials or other studies in the Field in the Territory, such publication or presentation will be subject to the prior review by the other Party for protection of such other Party's Confidential Information and to identify concerns regarding competitive disadvantage arising from such publication or presentation. Each Party will provide to the other Party the opportunity to review a draft of any proposed publication that covers the results of Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory during the Term, and the submitting Party (i) will remove from such proposed publication any Confidential Information of the other Party as reasonably requested by the other Party and (ii) will not submit such publication or presentation until the concerns of the other Party regarding any such potential competitive disadvantage are resolved by the JSC.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES; CERTAIN COVENANTS

9.1 Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each Party represents, warrants, and covenants to the other Party that, as of the Effective Date:

- (a) Organization. It is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and has all requisite power and authority, corporate or otherwise, to execute, deliver, and perform this Agreement.
- (b) Authority. It has full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement, it has the right to grant to the other the licenses and sublicenses granted pursuant to this Agreement, and this Agreement and the performance by such Party of this Agreement do not violate such Party's charter documents, bylaws or other organizational documents.
- (c) Consents. Except for any Marketing Authorizations, Regulatory Approvals, Regulatory Filings, Manufacturing approvals or similar approvals necessary for the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, all necessary consents, approvals and authorizations of all Governmental Authorities and other Persons required to be obtained by it in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained.
- (d) No Conflict. It is not under any obligation, contractual or otherwise, to any Person that would materially affect the diligent and complete fulfillment of obligations under this Agreement and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by such Party, and the performance of such Party's obligations under this Agreement (as contemplated as of the Effective Date) and the licenses and sublicenses to be granted by such Party pursuant to this Agreement (i) do not conflict with or violate any requirement of Laws applicable to such Party, (ii) do not conflict with or violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination, or award of any court or Governmental Authority presently in effect applicable to such Party, and (iii) do not conflict with, violate, breach or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of, any contractual obligations of such Party or any of its Affiliates.
- (e) Enforceability. This Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon it and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the general principles of equity and subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and other similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally.

- (f) Compliance with Laws. The Parties will, and will ensure that their respective Affiliates and Sublicensees will, comply in all material respects with all applicable Laws in exercising their rights and fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parties will conduct all Development, and Commercialization activities relating to the Licensed Product under this Agreement in accordance with applicable Laws (including data privacy Laws, current international regulatory standards, including, as applicable, GMP, GLP, GCP, and other rules, regulations and requirements), Export Control Laws, Anti-Corruption Laws and all other applicable Laws concerning bribery, money laundering, or corrupt practices or that in any manner prohibit the giving of anything of value to any official, agent, or employee of any government, political party, or public international organization, candidate for public office, health care professional, or to any officer, director, employee, or representative of any other organization specifically including the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and the UK Bribery Act, in each case, in connection with the activities conducted pursuant to this Agreement. The Parties will cause all permitted collaborators, contractors, subcontractors, Sublicensees, or other Persons that provide services to such Party in connection with this Agreement to comply with such Party's obligations under this Section 9.1(f) (Compliance with Laws).

9.2 Additional Representations and Warranties of Lyra. Lyra represents and warrants to Lian that, as of the Effective Date:

- (a) Licensed Patent Rights. All Licensed Patent Rights as of the Effective Date are listed in Schedule 1.75 (Licensed Patents). Lyra is the sole and exclusive owner of the Licensed Patent Rights, all of which are free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances. All Licensed Patent Rights have been filed and Prosecuted in good faith in the patent offices in accordance with applicable Laws, and all applicable fees have been paid on or before the due date for payment. All issued Licensed Patent Rights are valid and, to Lyra's knowledge, subsisting and enforceable.
- (b) Licensed Know-How. Lyra Controls the Licensed Know-How, and has the right to grant the licenses under the Licensed Know-How to Lian on and the terms set forth in this Agreement. Lyra has the right to use and disclose (in each case, under appropriate circumstances of confidentiality) the Licensed Know-How free and clear of any claims, liens, charges or encumbrances.
- (c) Licensed Technology. Lyra has not granted to any Third Party, including any academic organization or agency, any license, option or other rights to research, Develop, Manufacture, use or Commercialize the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. No Third Party has any license, option or other rights or interest in or to the Licensed Technology in the Field in the Territory other than the rights that are expressly reserved or contingent under this Agreement.
- (d) Control. Lyra or its Affiliates Controls all Patent Rights and Know-How owned, invented, or licensed by Lyra as of the Effective Date that are necessary or actually used as of the Effective Date to Develop, Commercialize, Manufactured and otherwise, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Licensed Products.
- (e) Licensed Marks. Lyra owns or Controls the Licensed Marks, and has the right to grant the licenses under the Licensed Marks to Lian on the terms set forth in this Agreement.
- (f) Delivery of Documentation. Prior to the Effective Date, Lyra has made available to Lian true, complete, and correct copies of: (i) all existing material Regulatory Filings in its possession and control relating to Licensed Products, (ii) all material adverse information with respect to the safety and efficacy of the Licensed Products in Lyra's or its Affiliates' (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) (Lian Right of Access and Reference) possession and control, and (iii) all material data and results relating to the Development of the Licensed Products in Lyra's or its Affiliates' possession and control (to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 2.1(b)) (Lian Right of Access and Reference).

- (g) Third Party Challenges. There are no claims, judgments, or settlements against, or amounts with respect thereto, made against Lyra or any of its Affiliates relating to the Licensed Patent Rights or the Licensed Know-How, and no claim or litigation has been received by Lyra or its Affiliates or, to Lyra's knowledge, threatened by any Person (i) alleging that the Licensed Patent Rights are invalid or unenforceable, (ii) asserting the misuse of any of the Licensed Patent Rights, (iii) challenging Lyra's Control of the Licensed Patent Rights (i.e., alleging that a Third Party has a right or interest in or to the Licensed Technology), or (iv) alleging misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party used in the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products by or on behalf of Lyra prior to the Effective Date.
- (h) Non-Infringement of Third Party IP. To Lyra's knowledge, the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product, as conducted by Lyra, its Affiliates, or its or their Sublicensees on or prior to the Effective Date does not infringe any Patent Right or misappropriate or otherwise violate or misappropriate any Know-How of any Person (in the case of pending Patent Rights, evaluating them as if issued). No claim of infringement of the Patent Rights or misappropriation of the Know-How of any Third Party has been received by the Lyra, or to Lyra's knowledge, threatened, against Lyra, any of its Affiliates or its or their Sublicensees with respect to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products. To Lyra's knowledge, the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product will not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property of any Third Party.
- (i) Absence of Litigation. There are no judgments or settlements against or owed by Lyra or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or, to Lyra's knowledge, pending litigation against Lyra or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, or litigation threatened against Lyra or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, in each case, related to the Licensed Product, including any such litigation any relating to any Regulatory Filings, Regulatory Approvals, or Marketing Authorizations Controlled by Lyra, its Affiliates or its Sublicensees.
- (j) Maintenance of Regulatory Filings, Good Laboratory, and Clinical Practices. Lyra Controls all Regulatory Filings pertaining to the Licensed Product in the Field in the Territory. Lyra and its Affiliates and Sublicensees have generated, prepared, maintained, and retained all Regulatory Filings and Marketing Authorizations relevant to Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory in its control that are required to be maintained or retained pursuant to and in material compliance with applicable Laws, and have conducted in material compliance with applicable Laws, including GLP and GCP all Development of Licensed Products in the Field conducted prior to the Effective Date.
- (k) Confidentiality of Know-How. Lyra has taken commercially reasonable measures consistent with its usual business practice (but in any event no less than industry standard practices) to protect the secrecy, confidentiality, and value of all Licensed Know-How. To Lyra's knowledge, the Licensed Know-How existing as of the Effective Date has been kept confidential or has been disclosed to Third Parties only under terms of confidentiality.

- (l) Assignment of Third Party Rights; Third Party Consents.
- (i) Lyra has obtained from each of its employees and agents, and from the employees and agents of its Affiliates, who are performing Development activities under the Global Development Plan for Licensed Products, rights to any and all Know-How created by such employees and agents in the course of such activities that relates to Licensed Products, such that Lian will, by virtue of this Agreement, receive from Lyra, without payments beyond those required by Article 6 (Financial Provisions), all licenses and other rights granted to Lian under this Agreement.
 - (ii) Each Person who has or has had any ownership rights in or to any Licensed Patent Rights purported to be owned solely by Lyra, has assigned and has executed an agreement assigning its entire rights, title, and interests in and to such Licensed Patent Rights to Lyra, and to Lyra's knowledge, no current officer, employee, agent, or consultant of Lyra or any of its Affiliates is in violation of any term of any assignment or other agreement, in each case, regarding the protection of the Licensed Patent Rights.
 - (iii) Prior to the Effective Date, Lyra has obtained all consents from Third Parties necessary to grant Lian the licenses and rights Lyra purports to grant to Lian under this Agreement.
- (m) Statements to Regulatory Authorities. Neither Lyra nor any of its Affiliates, nor, to Lyra's knowledge, its Sublicensees nor any of its or their respective officers, employees, or agents has made an untrue statement of material fact or fraudulent statement to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products, or failed to disclose a material fact required under applicable Laws to be disclosed to any Regulatory Authority with respect to the Development or Commercialization of Licensed Products.
- (n) Compliance with Laws. All of the studies, tests, and pre-clinical and Clinical Trials of Licensed Products conducted prior to, or being conducted as of, the Effective Date by or on behalf of Lyra have been and are being conducted in all material respects in accordance with applicable Laws.
- (o) No Other Disclosures. To Lyra's knowledge, (i) there are no scientific or technical facts or circumstances that have not been disclosed to Lian that would adversely affect the scientific, therapeutic, or commercial potential of the Licensed Products; (ii) there is nothing within Lyra's Control that has not been disclosed to Lian and that could adversely affect the acceptance, or the subsequent approval, by any Regulatory Authority of any Regulatory Filing; and (iii) there are no safety, efficacy, or regulatory issues that would preclude Lian from exploiting the Licensed Products in the Territory in accordance with this Agreement and applicable Law.
- 9.3 No Conflict. During the Term, Lyra and its Affiliates will not grant any interest in the Licensed Technology that is inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 9.4 No Debarment. Each of Lyra and Lian represents and warrants that neither it nor any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement has ever been, or is currently: (a) debarred under 21 U.S.C. § 335a or by any Regulatory Authority; (b) excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise ineligible to participate in federal health care programs or in federal procurement or non-procurement programs; (c) listed on the FDA's Disqualified and Restricted Lists for clinical investigators; or (d) convicted of a criminal offense that falls within the scope of 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7(a), but has not yet been excluded, debarred, suspended, or otherwise declared ineligible. Each of Lyra and Lian further covenants that if, during the Term of this Agreement, it becomes aware that it or any of its or its Affiliates' employees or agents performing under this Agreement is the subject of any investigation or proceeding that could lead to that Party becoming a debarred entity or individual, an excluded entity or individual or a convicted entity or individual, then such Party will promptly notify the other Party. This provision will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

- 9.5 NO OTHER WARRANTIES. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTION 9.1 (MUTUAL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES), SECTION 9.2 (ADDITIONAL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF LYRA) AND SECTION 9.4 (NO DEBARMENT), NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR EXTENDS ANY WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING WARRANTIES OF TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OR NON-MISAPPROPRIATION OF THIRD PARTY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY WITH RESPECT TO THE LICENSED PRODUCT, VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

ARTICLE 10 INDEMNIFICATION; DAMAGES

- 10.1 Indemnification by Lyra. Lyra will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Lian, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Lian Indemnified Party"), from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Lian Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from or relating to: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Lyra in this Agreement, or any breach by Lyra of any obligation, covenant, or agreement in this Agreement; (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Lyra or any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, or agents, in performing Lyra's obligations or exercising Lyra's rights under this Agreement; (c) activities conducted by or on behalf of Lyra or its Affiliates or (sub)licensees or contractors related to the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of Licensed Products anywhere in the world prior to the Effective Date; (d) the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Products by or on behalf of Lyra, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees (other than Lian), or contractors outside the Territory; or (e) Lyra's or its Affiliate's status as an applicant or a holder of any Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Products; provided, however, that Lyra's obligations pursuant to this Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Lyra) will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Lyra has an obligation to indemnify Lian pursuant to Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian).
- 10.2 Indemnification by Lian. Lian will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Lyra, its Affiliates, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Lyra Indemnified Party") from, against and in respect of any and all Third Party Losses incurred or suffered by any Lyra Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from or relating to: (a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Lian in this Agreement, or any breach by Lian of any obligation, covenant, or agreement in this Agreement, (b) the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of, or violation of Laws by, Lian, any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors, or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, or agents, in performing Lian's obligations or exercising Lian's rights under this Agreement, (c) the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of the Licensed Product by or on behalf of Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees (other than Lyra) or contractors; or (d) Lian's or its Affiliate's status as an applicant or a holder of any Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Products; provided, however, that Lian's obligations pursuant to this Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian) will not apply to the extent such Third Party Losses result from Third Party Losses for which Lyra has an obligation to indemnify Lian pursuant to Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Lyra).

10.3 Claims for Indemnification.

- (a) Notice. An Indemnified Party entitled to indemnification under Section 10.1 (Indemnification by Lyra) or Section 10.2 (Indemnification by Lian) will give prompt written notification to the Indemnifying Party from whom indemnification is sought of the commencement of any Action by a Third Party for which indemnification may be sought (a "Third Party Claim") or, if earlier, upon the assertion of such Third Party Claim by a Third Party; provided, however, that failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of a Third Party Claim as provided in this Section 10.3(a) (Notice) will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice.
- (b) Defense. Within [] days after delivery of a notice of any Third Party Claim in accordance with Section 10.3(a) (Notice), the Indemnifying Party may, upon written notice thereof to the Indemnified Party, assume control of the defense of such Third Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of such defense, then the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld). The Party not controlling such defense may participate therein at its own expense.
- (c) Cooperation. The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.
- (d) Settlement. The Indemnified Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. The Indemnifying Party will not agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party), without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which will not be unreasonably withheld (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)).
- (e) Mitigation of Loss. Each Indemnified Party will take and will procure that its Affiliates and Sublicensees take all such reasonable steps and actions as are necessary or as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require in order to mitigate any Third Party Claims (or potential losses or damages) under this Article 10 (Indemnification; Damages). Nothing in this Agreement will or will be deemed to relieve any Party of any common law or other duty to mitigate any losses incurred by it.

- 10.4 Insurance. Each Party, at its own expense, will maintain liability insurance (or self-insure) with respect to its activities under this Agreement in an amount consistent with industry standards. Each Party will provide a certificate of insurance (or evidence of self-insurance) evidencing such coverage to the other Party upon request. Without limiting the foregoing, during the Term and thereafter for the period of time required below, each Party will maintain on an ongoing basis comprehensive general liability insurance policies which are consistent with normal business practices of prudent companies similar situated in such Party's territory. Not later than [] days following receipt of written request from a Party, the other Party will provide to the requesting Party a certificate of insurance evidencing such insurance policies. Each Party will maintain such insurance or self-insurance coverage without interruption during the Term and for a period of [] thereafter, and, if applicable, will provide certificates or letters evidencing such insurance coverage without interruption as reasonably requested during the period of time for which such coverage must be maintained. Each Party will be provided at least [] days' prior written notice of any cancellation or material decrease in the other Party's insurance coverage limits described above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party's failure to maintain adequate insurance will not relieve that Party of its obligations set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 11.1 NO CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES. EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 11.2 (EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION), NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES OR AFFILIATED ENTITIES WILL BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE EXERCISE OF ITS RIGHTS OR THE PERFORMANCE OF ITS OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER, OR ANY LOST PROFITS ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, IN EACH CASE, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY, OR OTHERWISE, REGARDLESS OF ANY NOTICE OF SUCH DAMAGES.
- 11.2 EXCLUSION FROM LIABILITY LIMITATION. THE LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMER SET FORTH IN SECTION 11.1 (NO CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES) WILL NOT APPLY TO A CLAIM: (A) FOR GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT; (B) FOR A BREACH OF SECTION 2.9 (NON-COMPETE), Article 8 (CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICITY); OR (C) FOR INDEMNIFIABLE LOSSES PURSUANT TO SECTION 10.1 (INDEMNIFICATION BY LYRA) OR SECTION 10.2 (INDEMNIFICATION BY LIAN), AS APPLICABLE.

ARTICLE 12 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 12.1 Term. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Article 12 (Term and Termination), this Agreement will become effective as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force, on a Region-by-Region basis, until the expiration of the Royalty Term applicable to such Licensed Product in such Region(the "Term").
- 12.2 Paid-Up License Upon End of Royalty Term. Upon the expiration of the Royalty Term for a given Licensed Product in a given Region in the Territory, the licenses and rights of reference granted to Lian pursuant to Section 2.1 (License Grants; Rights of Reference) will become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid-up, royalty free, fully sublicensable, and transferable with respect to such Licensed Product in such Region.

12.3 Early Termination.

- (a) Termination for Material Breach. Upon (i) any material breach of this Agreement by Lyra or (ii) any material breach of this Agreement by Lian (the Party so allegedly breaching being the “Breaching Party”), the other Party (the “Non-Breaching Party”) will have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the Breaching Party within [] days in the case of a payment breach, or [] days in the case of any other material breach, which notice will, in each case (A) expressly reference this Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), (B) reasonably describe the alleged breach that is the basis of such termination, and (C) clearly state the Non-Breaching Party’s intent to terminate this Agreement if the alleged breach is not cured within the applicable cure period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such material breach, by its nature, is curable, but is not reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, then such cure period will be extended if the Breaching Party provides a written plan for curing such breach to the Non-Breaching Party and uses reasonable efforts to cure such breach in accordance with such written plan; provided, however, that no such extension will exceed [] days without the prior written consent of the Non-Breaching Party. In addition, if the Breaching Party disputes (A) whether it has materially breached this Agreement, (B) whether such material breach is reasonably curable within the applicable cure period, or (C) whether it has cured such material breach within the applicable cure period, then the dispute will be resolved pursuant to Article 13 (Dispute Resolution), and the applicable cure period will be tolled during the pendency of such dispute resolution procedure.
- (b) Termination by Lian for Convenience. Lian may, upon [] days’ prior written notice to Lyra, terminate this Agreement for convenience, without cause, and for any or no reason, in its entirety.
- (c) Termination for Bankruptcy. This Agreement may be terminated, to the extent permitted by applicable Laws, by either Party upon the filing or institution of bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceedings, or upon an assignment of a substantial portion of the assets for the benefit of creditors by the other Party; provided, however, that in the case of any involuntary bankruptcy, reorganization, liquidation or receivership proceeding such right to terminate will only become effective if the Party subject to such proceeding consents to the involuntary bankruptcy or such proceeding is not dismissed within [] days after the filing thereof.
- (d) Patent Challenge. Lyra has the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Lian in the event that Lian or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees directly or indirectly challenges in a legal or administrative proceeding the patentability, enforceability or validity of any Patent Rights within the Licensed Technology (a “Patent Challenge”) and does not withdraw such Patent Challenge within [] days of written notice from Lyra; provided that, if such Patent Challenge is brought by Lian or its Affiliates and it is withdrawn within such []-day period, Lian shall promptly reimburse Lyra for all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of Lyra in defending and responding to such Patent Challenge; and provided further that this Section 12.3(d) (Patent Challenge) will not apply to any Patent Challenge that (i) is first made by Lian or any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees in defense of a claim of patent infringement brought by the Lyra under the applicable Patent Rights or any Patent Challenge, (ii) was brought by an Acquirer prior to the effective date of such Change of Control, or (iii) is brought by any non-Affiliate Sublicensee if Lian (A) causes such Patent Challenge to be terminated or dismissed (or in the case of ex-parte proceedings, multi-party proceedings, or other Patent Challenges in which the challenging party does not have the power to unilaterally cause the Patent Challenge to be withdrawn, causes such Sublicensee to withdraw as a party from such Patent Challenge and to cease actively assisting any other party to such Patent Challenge), or (B) terminates such Sublicensee’s sublicense to the Patent Rights being challenged by the Sublicensee, in each case, within [] days after the Lyra’s notice to Lian under this Section 12.3(d) (Patent Challenge).

- (e) Termination for Cessation of Development or Commercialization. Lyra may terminate this Agreement in the event that Lian and its Affiliates and Sublicensees do not conduct any material Development or Commercialization activities with respect to any Licensed Product for a continuous period of longer than [] and such failure to conduct any material Development or Commercialization activity is not: (i) [], (ii) [], (iii) [], or (iv) [] or (v) []. Such termination will be effective [] days after Lian's receipt of written notice thereof, provided that, Lian may submit a written plan within [] Business Days after Lian's receipt of such written notice that is reasonably calculated to remedy such failure to conduct any material Development or Commercialization activities with respect to a Licensed Product. If such cure plan is reasonably acceptable to Lyra and Lian commences any material Development or Commercialization activities in accordance with the terms of such cure plan during such [] day period and provides satisfactory written documentation thereof to Lyra, then this Agreement will not terminate upon the expiration of such [] day period.
- 12.4 Alternative Remedy In Lieu of Termination. Lyra stipulates and agrees that Lian's decision to enter into this Agreement and invest in the Development of the Licensed Products is premised upon the assumption that Lyra will perform its obligations under this Agreement, and that a material breach of certain obligations under this Agreement as explicitly set forth in this Section 12.4 (Alternative Remedy in Lieu of Termination) by Lyra will undermine the economic fundamentals of the transaction for Lian, and that in such event Lian's damages arising from Lyra's breach would be of uncertain amount and difficult to prove. If Lian has a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach) as a result of a breach (i.e., such breach constitutes a material breach and is not cured within the applicable cure period and following any dispute resolution proceedings) by Lyra of [], then Lian may elect, in lieu of so terminating and as Lian's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to such breach, to have this Agreement continue on all the terms herein save that all Milestone Payments and royalties payable thereafter by Lian to Lyra hereunder will be reduced by []. [].
- 12.5 Effects of Termination.
- (a) Effects of Termination Generally. Upon any termination of this Agreement, then the Parties' rights, licenses and obligations under this Agreement will terminate and neither Party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement from and after the effective date of termination, except as set forth in this Section 12.5 (Effects of Termination).
- (b) Winding Down of Activities. If there are any on-going Development or Commercialization activities at termination or expiration of this Agreement, then the Parties will negotiate in good faith and adopt a plan to wind-down such activities in an orderly fashion or, at Lyra's election, promptly transition such activities from Lian to Lyra or its designee, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any Clinical Trials of the Licensed Products, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems and in compliance with all applicable Law.
- (c) License Grant to Lyra.
- (i) Upon termination of this Agreement, Lian, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates hereby grants (effective on delivery of the notice of termination) to Lyra an irrevocable, perpetual, transferable, exclusive, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), license under the Lian Technology in existence and actually used by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees, in each case, as of the applicable effective date of termination to Develop, Manufacture, Commercialize and otherwise, use, offer for sale, sell, have sold, and import the Licensed Product in the Field in or for the Territory (the “Reversion License”). If any rights granted by Lian under the Reversion License are Controlled by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees pursuant to an agreement with a Third Party, then Lyra will pay all amounts due under any such agreement to the extent reasonably allocable to Lyra’s exercise of the rights granted thereunder.

- (ii) If Lyra or its or their Affiliates or Sublicensees exercises the Reversion License or the rights granted pursuant to Section 12.5(h) (Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals) and this Agreement has been terminated by Lian pursuant to Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), then Lyra will pay to Lian, in consideration of the rights granted to Lyra, if Lyra (or its Affiliate, licensee or distributor) sells a Licensed Product under the Reversion License, within [] after termination of this Agreement, then Lyra will pay to Lian []. The definition of “Net Sales” in Section 1.86 of this Agreement shall apply to the Net Sales of such product for determining the foregoing mutatis mutandis, and the terms of Section 6.3 (Royalty Payment Adjustments) and Section 6.4 (Audits) shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (d) Discontinuation of JSC. Upon termination of this Agreement in its entirety, the JSC will cease to exist.
- (e) Accrued Obligations. Expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason will not release either Party from any obligation or liability that, on the effective date of such expiration or termination, has already accrued to the other Party or that is attributable to a period prior to such expiration or termination.
- (f) Survival. This Section 12.5(f) (Survival), the provisions set forth in the following Sections, as well as, to the extent applicable, any other Sections or defined terms referred to in such Sections or Articles or necessary to give them effect, will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement in its entirety: Section 2.2(c) (Sublicense Survival), Section 2.4 (License Grant to Lyra), Section 2.6 (Rights in Bankruptcy) (solely with respect to any termination under Section 12.3(c) (Termination for Bankruptcy)), Article 6 (Financial Provisions) (solely with respect to payments payable prior to expiration and termination and as necessary to effectuate Section 12.5(c) (ii)), Section 7.1 (Ownership of Intellectual Property), Section 7.5 (Common Interest), Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity), Section 9.5 (No Other Warranties), Article 10 (Indemnification; Damages), Article 11 (Limitation of Liability), Section 12.2 (Paid-Up License Upon End of Royalty Term), Section 12.5 (Effects of Termination), Article 13 (Dispute Resolution), and Article 14 (Miscellaneous). Furthermore, any other provisions required to interpret the Parties’ rights and obligations under this Agreement, including applicable definitions in Article 1 (Definitions), will survive to the extent required. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, including all rights and obligations of the Parties under this Agreement, including this Section 12.5(f) (Survival), any licenses granted under this Agreement, will terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason.
- (g) Inventory.
 - (i) Appointment as Exclusive Distributor. If Lian is Commercializing any Licensed Product in any Region in the Territory as of the effective date of termination of this Agreement, then, at Lyra’s election (in its sole discretion) on a Region-by-Region basis in the Territory, [], Lian will appoint Lyra or its designee as its exclusive distributor of such Licensed Product in such Region and grant Lyra or its designee the right to appoint sub-distributors, to the extent not prohibited by an written agreement between Lian or any of its Affiliates and any Third Party.

- (ii) Sell-Off Period. At Lian's request, for a period of [] following termination of this Agreement in any Region, Lian shall sell or otherwise dispose of any Licensed Products in such terminated Regions, as applicable, on hand at the time of such termination or in the process of Manufacturing (the "Sell-Off Period").
- (iii) Lyra Buy-Back. Upon expiration of any Sell-Off Period in any Region or in the event that Lyra exercises its right to be appointed Lian's exclusive distributor pursuant to Section 12.4(g)(i) (Appointment as Exclusive Distributor), Lyra will have the right to purchase all of Lian's and its Affiliates' remaining inventory of Licensed Products held as of the effective date of expiration of such Sell-Off Period or such appointment at a price equal to (A) [], if supplied by Lyra or (B) if Manufactured by Lian, [].
- (h) Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Following the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3 (Early Termination), after Lyra's written request, Lian will, to the extent permitted under applicable Laws and not commercially infeasible, and at Lyra's sole cost and expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Lyra's rights under this Section 12.5(h) (Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals) was for Lian's material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach), in which case such transfer will be at Lian's sole cost and expense), assign and transfer to Lyra all Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products that are held by or owned by Lian or its Affiliates or Sublicensees as of the effective date of termination and will take such actions and execute such other instruments, assignments, and documents as may be necessary to effect the transfer of rights under such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Lyra. If applicable Laws or relevant Regulatory Authorities prevent or delay the transfer of ownership of any such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations to Lyra, or if it is commercially infeasible for Lian to do so, then Lian will grant, and hereby does grant, to Lyra and its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and licensees an exclusive and irrevocable right of access and right of reference to such Regulatory Filing, filing for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations for Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, as the case may be, and will reasonably cooperate with Lyra, at Lyra's expense (unless the applicable termination giving rise to Lyra's rights under this Section 12.5(h) (Transfer of Regulatory Filings and Regulatory Approvals) was for Lian's material breach pursuant to Section 12.3(a) (Termination for Material Breach) in which case such transfer will be at Lian's sole cost and expense), to make the benefits of such Regulatory Filings, filings for Pricing and Reimbursement Approval and Marketing Authorizations available to Lyra or its designee(s).
- (i) Transfer of Data. Following the effectiveness of any termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.3 (Early Termination), after Lyra's written request, Lian will, [], (A) promptly provide to Lyra copies of all data described in Section 2.5(b) (Lyra Right of Access and Reference) to the extent not previously provided to Lyra under this Agreement, (B) provide access within the Territory to the data and samples obtained from trial subjects described in the third sentence of Section 2.5 (Lyra Right of Access and Reference), and (C) assign and transfer, and hereby does assign and transfer, and shall ensure that its Affiliates and its and their Sublicensees, and its or their employees, agents or independent contractors will assign, all of their rights, title and interest in any and all such data and samples referenced in the foregoing clauses (A) and (B), provided that Lian's obligations under the foregoing clauses (B) and (C) will be to subject to applicable Law and Lian's contractual rights and obligations with respect thereto.

- (j) Assignment of Third Party Agreements. To the extent requested by Lyra, Lian will promptly upon request assign and transfer to Lyra or its designee (i) all of Lian's rights, title and interests in and to all clinical trial agreements, manufacturing and supply agreements, and distribution agreements (to the extent assignable) in Lian's Control, in each case, to the extent such agreements solely relate to such Licensed Product and are necessary or useful for the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of such Licensed Product, and (ii) all of Lian's rights, title, and interests in and to any promotional materials, training materials, medical education materials, packaging and labeling, and all other literature or other information related to such Licensed Product and copyrights and any registrations for the foregoing.
- (k) Return of Confidential Information. Within [] after the effective date of termination (but not expiration) of this Agreement in its entirety, each Party will, and cause its Affiliates to (i) destroy, all tangible items solely comprising, bearing or containing any Confidential Information of the other Party that are in such first Party's or its Affiliates' possession or Control, and provide written certification of such destruction, or (ii) prepare such tangible items of the other Party's Confidential Information for shipment to such other Party, as such other Party may direct, at the first Party's expense; provided, however, that, in any event, (A) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party to the extent necessary to perform its obligations or exercise its rights that survive expiration or termination of this Agreement; and (B) each Party may retain copies of the Confidential Information of the other Party for its legal archives.
- (l) Cooperation. Each Party will cause its Affiliates, Sublicensees, and contractors to comply with the obligations in this Section 12.5 (Effects of Termination).

ARTICLE 13 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 13.1 Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, any and all disputes between the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (other than (a) matters within the purview of the JSC, which will be resolved in accordance with Section 5.5 (Decision-Making; Escalation to Senior Officers) and (b) matters for which this Agreement expressly provides are subject to a Party's discretion or sole decision-making authority), will first be referred to the Senior Officers for resolution. The Senior Officers will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Senior Officers fail to resolve such matter within [] Business Days after the date on which the matter is referred to the Senior Officers (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then either Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 13.2 (Arbitration).
- 13.2 Arbitration. Except as set forth in Section 12.5(c) (License Grant to Lyra) and this Section 13.2 (Arbitration), each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 13.1 (Dispute Resolution; Escalation) will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (the “Rules”) by an arbitral tribunal composed of three arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the biopharmaceutical industry, with each Party appointing one arbitrator and the third arbitrator to be selected by agreement of the two arbitrators appointed by the Parties. If the two initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within [] days, then the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with ICC rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by either Party by notice to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings commenced by (a) Lyra will be held in [] and (b) by Lian will be held in []; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone or video conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrators. All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. Each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of either Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 13.2 (Arbitration). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 13.2 (Arbitration) may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by Laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of both Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, neither Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 13.2 (Arbitration) will preclude either Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding. Notwithstanding the Parties’ agreement to arbitrate, unless the Parties agree in writing in any particular case, claims and disputes between the Parties relating to or arising out of, or for which resolution depends in whole or in part on a determination of the interpretation, scope, validity, enforceability or infringement of, Patent Rights or of any Licensed Marks will not be subject to arbitration under this Agreement, and the Parties may pursue whatever rights and remedies may be available to them under law or equity, including litigation in a court of competent jurisdiction, with respect to such claims and disputes.

- 13.3 JURY WAIVER. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 13.2 (ARBITRATION). THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

MISCELLANEOUS

14.1 Assignment.

- (a) General. This Agreement and the rights and obligations of each Party under this Agreement will not be assignable, delegable, transferable, pledged or otherwise disposed of by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that either Party may assign or transfer this Agreement together with all of its rights and obligations hereunder, without such consent (but with written notice to the other Party), (i) to an Affiliate or (ii) to a successor in interest in connection with the transfer or sale of all or substantially all of its business or assets to which this Agreement relates, or in the event of its merger or consolidation, reorganization, or similar transaction. Any permitted assignment of the rights and obligations of a Party under this Agreement will be binding on, and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by and against, the successors and permitted assigns of the assigning Party. Any assignment or attempted assignment in violation of this Section 14.1 (Assignment) will be null and void.
- (b) Securitization. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 14.1(a) (General) or elsewhere in this Agreement, Lyra may assign to a Third Party its right to receive the milestone payments and the royalty payments owed under Article 6 (Financial Provisions) (such assignment, a “Securitization Transaction”) without the prior written consent of Lian. Further, in connection with a contemplated Securitization Transaction, subject to Section 8.1(c) (Confidentiality Limitation), Lyra may disclose to such Third Party certain Confidential Information of Lian (including a redacted version of this Agreement and the royalty reports contemplated under Section 6.2(c) (Royalty Payments and Reports)) without the prior written consent of Lian, solely to the extent necessary to enable such Third Party to evaluate the Securitization Transaction opportunity (provided that such Third Party is under obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to such Confidential Information that are no less stringent than the terms of Article 8 (Confidentiality and Publicity)), and to allow such Third Party to exercise its rights under this Section 14.1(b) (Securitization). As part of any consummated Securitization Transaction, Lyra may assign, without the prior written consent of Lian, its right to receive the royalty reports under Section 6.2(c) (Royalty Payments and Reports) to the counterparty in such Securitization Transaction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, if Lyra proposes to enter into a Securitization Transaction with a Third Party that is engaged in the Development, Manufacture, or Commercialization of pharmaceutical products that compete with any product of Lian, then any disclosure of Lian’s Confidential Information to such Third Party will be subject to Lian’s prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

- 14.2 Choice of Laws. This Agreement will be governed by and interpreted under the Laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflicts of law principles thereof. Except as otherwise expressly provided under this Agreement, any dispute, controversy, claim or difference of any kind whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will be resolved exclusively in accordance with Section 13.2 (Arbitration); provided, however, that all questions concerning (a) inventorship of Patent Rights under this Agreement will be determined in accordance with Section 7.1 (Ownership of Intellectual Property) and (b) the construction or effect of Patent Rights will be determined in accordance with the Laws of the country, Region or other jurisdiction in which the particular patent within such Patent Rights has been filed or granted, as the case may be. Any communication or proceedings resulting from disputes under this Agreement will be in English language. The Parties agree to exclude the application to this Agreement of the United Nations Conventions on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980).

14.3 Notices. All notices that are required or permitted hereunder will be in writing and sufficient if delivered by internationally-recognized overnight courier or sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, and in each case, addressed as follows (with a courtesy copy sent by email, which will not constitute notice):

Any such notice will be deemed to have been given: (a) on [] after dispatch if sent by internationally-recognized overnight courier; or (b) on the [] after dispatch if sent by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

14.4 Severability. In the event that one or more provisions of this Agreement is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, then such provision will not render any other provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable, and all other provisions will remain in full force and effect and will be enforceable, unless the provisions that have been found to be invalid or unenforceable will substantially affect the remaining rights or obligations granted or undertaken by either Party. The Parties agree to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the economic objectives of the invalid or unenforceable provision.

- 14.5 Integration. This Agreement, together with all schedules attached hereto, constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all previous arrangements between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, whether written or oral, including, effective as of the Effective Date, the Prior CDA and the Term Sheet (provided that, in each case, all information disclosed or exchanged under such agreement will be treated as Confidential Information hereunder). In the event of a conflict between the Development Plans or any schedules or attachments to this Agreement, on the one hand, and this Agreement, on the other hand, the terms of this Agreement will govern. Each Party confirms that it is not relying on any representations or warranties of the other Party except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.
- 14.6 Waivers and Amendments. The failure of any Party to assert a right under this Agreement or to insist upon compliance with any term or condition of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of that right or excuse a similar subsequent failure to perform any such term or condition by the other Party. The exercise by any Party of any right or election under the terms or covenants herein will not preclude or prejudice any Party from exercising the same or any other right it may have under this Agreement, irrespective of any previous action or proceeding taken by the Parties hereunder. Notwithstanding the authority granted to the JSC under this Agreement, (a) no waiver will be effective unless it has been given in writing and signed by the Party giving such waiver, and (b) no provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified other than by a written document signed by authorized representatives of each Party.
- 14.7 Independent Contractors; No Agency. Neither Party will have any responsibility for the hiring, firing or compensation of the other Party's or such other Party's Affiliates' employees or for any employee benefits with respect thereto. No employee or representative of a Party or its Affiliates will have any authority to bind or obligate the other Party for any sum or in any manner whatsoever, or to create or impose any contractual or other liability on such other Party, without such other Party's written approval. For all purposes, and notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, each Party's legal relationship under this Agreement to the other Party will be that of independent contractor, and the relationship between the two Parties will not constitute a partnership, joint venture, or agency, including for all tax purposes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law.
- 14.8 Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors. To the extent that this Agreement imposes obligations on Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors of a Party, such Party will cause its Affiliates and its Sublicensees and contractors to perform such obligations, as applicable. Either Party may use one or more of its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors to perform its obligations and duties or exercise its rights under this Agreement, solely to the extent permitted and as specified in this Agreement; provided that (a) each such Affiliate, Sublicensee, or contractor will perform any such obligations delegated to it in compliance with the applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement as if such Affiliate, Sublicensee, or contractor were a party hereto, (b) the performance of any obligations of a Party's by its Affiliates, Sublicensees, or contractors will not diminish, reduce, or eliminate any obligation of such Party under this Agreement, and (c) subject to such Party's assignment to an Affiliate pursuant to Section 14.1 (Assignment), such Party will remain liable under this Agreement for the prompt payment and performance of all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to this Section 14.8 (Affiliates, Sublicensees, and Contractors), if a Party exercises its rights and performs its obligations under this Agreement through one or more of its Affiliates, "Lyra" will be interpreted to mean "Lyra or its Affiliates" and "Lian" will be interpreted to mean "Lian or its Affiliates" where necessary to give each Party's Affiliates the benefit of the rights provided to such Party in this Agreement and the ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

- 14.9 Force Majeure. Neither Party will be held liable to the other Party nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement for failure or delay in achieving any objective, satisfying any condition, or performing any obligation under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts or events beyond the reasonable control of such Party, including acts of God, embargoes, war, acts of war (whether war be declared or not), terrorism, insurrections, riots, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, or other labor disturbances (other than strikes, lockouts, or labor disturbances involving a Party's own employees), government actions, fire, earthquakes, floods, epidemics, pandemics, the spread of infectious diseases, and quarantines ("Force Majeure") and for so long as such failure or delay continues to be caused by or result from such Force Majeure. The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date (including related government orders) may not be invoked as a Force Majeure for the purposes of this Agreement, because the pandemic is ongoing and those effects may be reasonably foreseeable as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party will not be excused from making payments owed hereunder due to any such Force Majeure circumstances affecting such Party. The affected Party will notify the other Party in writing of any Force Majeure circumstances as soon as reasonably practical, will provide a good faith estimate of the period for which its failure or delay in performance under this Agreement is expected to continue based on currently available information, and will undertake reasonable efforts necessary to mitigate and overcome such Force Majeure circumstances and resume normal performance of its obligations hereunder as soon as a reasonably practicable under the circumstances. If the Force Majeure continues, then the affected Party will update such notice to the other Party on a weekly basis to provide updated summaries of its mitigation efforts and its estimates of when normal performance under this Agreement will be able to resume.
- 14.10 No Third Party Beneficiary Rights. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement are for the sole benefit of the Parties and their successors and permitted assigns, and they will not be construed as conferring any rights on any other Third Party. This Agreement is not intended to and will not be construed to give any Third Party any interest or rights (including any Third Party beneficiary rights) with respect to or in connection with any agreement or provision contained herein or contemplated hereby, other than, to the extent provided in Article 10 (Indemnification; Damages), the Indemnified Parties.
- 14.11 Non-exclusive Remedy. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and each Party retains all remedies at law or in equity, including the Parties' ability to receive legal damages or equitable relief, with respect to any breach of this Agreement.
- 14.12 Interpretation. The Article and Section headings used herein are for reference and convenience only, and will not enter into the interpretation of this Agreement. Except as otherwise explicitly specified to the contrary, (a) references to an Article, Section or Schedule means an Article or Section of, or a Schedule to this Agreement and all subsections thereof, unless another agreement is specified; (b) references in any Section to any clause are references to such clause of such Section; (c) references to any agreement, instrument, or other document in this Agreement refer to such agreement, instrument, or other document as originally executed or, if subsequently amended, replaced, or supplemented from time to time, as so amended, replaced, or supplemented and in effect at the relevant time of reference thereto; (d) references to particular Laws mean such Laws as in effect as of the relevant time, including all rules and regulations thereunder and any successor Laws in effect as of the relevant time, and including the then-current amendments thereto; (e) words in the singular or plural form include the plural and singular form, respectively; (f) unless the context requires a different interpretation, the word "or" has the inclusive meaning that is typically associated with the phrase "and/or"; (g) the terms "including," "include(s)," "such as," "e.g." and "for example" mean including the generality of any description preceding such term and will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; (h) whenever this Agreement refers to a number of days, such number will refer to calendar days unless Business Days are specified, and if a period of time is specified and dates from a given day or Business Day, or the day or Business Day of an act or event, it is to be calculated exclusive of that day or Business Day; (i) "monthly" means on a calendar month basis; (j) “quarter” or “quarterly” means on a Calendar Quarter basis; (k) “annual” or “annually” means on a Calendar Year basis; (l) “year” means a 365-day period unless Calendar Year is specified; (m) references to a particular Person include such Person’s successors and assigns to the extent not prohibited by this Agreement; (n) the use of any gender herein will be deemed to encompass references to either or both genders, and the use of the singular will be deemed to include the plural (and vice versa); (o) a capitalized term not defined herein but reflecting a different part of speech than a capitalized term which is defined herein will be interpreted in a correlative manner; (p) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein will be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, supplements or modifications set forth herein); (q) the words “hereof,” “herein,” “hereby” and derivative or similar words refer to this Agreement (including any Schedules); (r) neither Party or its Affiliates will be deemed to be acting “on behalf of” the other Party under this Agreement, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided; (s) provisions that require that a Party, or the JSC hereunder “agree,” “consent” or “approve” or the like will be deemed to require that such agreement, consent or approval be specific and in writing in a written agreement, letter or approved minutes, but, except as expressly provided herein, excluding e-mail and instant messaging; and (t) the word “will” will be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word “shall”.

- 14.13 Further Assurances. Each Party will duly execute and deliver, or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents, and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request in connection with this Agreement or to carry out more effectively the provisions and purposes hereof, or to better assure and confirm unto such other Party its rights and remedies under this Agreement (including working collaboratively to correct and clerical, typographical, or other similar errors in this Agreement).
- 14.14 Ambiguities; No Presumption. Each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement has been diligently reviewed by and negotiated by and between them, that in such negotiations each of them has been represented by competent counsel and that the final agreement contained herein, including the language whereby it has been expressed, represents the joint efforts of the Parties hereto and their counsel. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement or any provision hereof, no presumption will apply against any Party as being responsible for the wording or drafting of this Agreement or any such provision, and ambiguities, if any, in this Agreement will not be construed against any Party under the rule of construction, irrespective of which Party may be deemed to have authored the ambiguous provision.
- 14.15 Export Control. This Agreement is made subject to any restrictions required by applicable Laws concerning the export of products or technical information from the U.S. or other countries which may be imposed upon or related to the Parties from time to time. Each Party agrees that it will not export, directly or indirectly, any technology licensed to it or other technical information acquired from the other Party under this Agreement or any products using such technical information to a location or in a manner that at the time of export requires an export license or other governmental approval, except in compliance with U.S. export Laws and regulations.
- 14.16 Execution in Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if both Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

14.17 LianBio Guarantee. LianBio hereby [] guarantees, [], the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations of Lian under this Agreement (the “Lian Obligations”). LianBio agrees that the Lian Obligations may be extended, modified, or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, modification, or renewal of any Lian Obligation. [].

1.101.7 [].

The transfer of Licensed Product by the Licensee or one of its Affiliates to another Affiliate or Sublicensee shall not be considered a sale.

[].

In the event a Licensed Product is sold as a Combination Product, Net Sales of the Combination Product will be calculated, on a country-by-country basis, as follows:

(i) If the Compound and the other product(s) are also sold separately in the applicable country, Net Sales of the Licensed Product for purposes of this Agreement will be calculated by multiplying the total Net Sales of the Combination Product by the fraction $A/(A+B)$, where A is the invoice price in the applicable country of the Compound sold separately, and B is the sum of the invoice prices in the applicable country of all other products in the Combination Product sold separately during the applicable Calendar Quarter.

(ii) If the Compound is sold separately, but the invoice price of the other product(s) cannot be determined, Net Sales of the Licensed Product for purposes of this Agreement shall be equal to the total Net Sales of the Combination Product multiplied by the fraction A/C wherein A is the invoice price of the Compound sold separately and C is the invoice price of the Combination Product, in both cases in the Calendar Quarter in question.

(iii) If the other product(s) is/are sold separately, but the invoice price of the Compound cannot be determined, Net Sales of the Licensed Product for purposes of this Agreement shall be equal to the total Net Sales of the Combination Product multiplied by the following formula: one (1) minus B/C wherein B is the invoice price of the other product(s) and C is the invoice price of the Combination Product, in both cases in the Calendar Quarter in question.

(iv) If the invoice price of neither the Compound nor the other product(s) can be determined, Net Sales of the Licensed Product for purposes of this Agreement shall be equal to Net Sales of the Combination Product multiplied by [].

(v) The invoice price for such other product(s) contained in the Combination Product shall be calculated for each Year by dividing the sales amount by the units of such other product(s), as published by IMS or another independent source agreed by the Parties. In the initial calendar year during which a Combination Product is sold, forecasted invoice prices shall be used for royalty calculation purposes. [].

1.102 “New License Agreement” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 14.6.3.

1.103 “NMPA” shall mean the National Medical Products Administration (formerly the China Food and Drug Administration).

1.153.11 the term “or” will be interpreted in the inclusive sense commonly associated with the term “and/or.”

2. LICENSES

2.1 License Grant to Licensee

ReViral hereby grants to Licensee:

- 2.1.1 an exclusive license, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers (subject to Section 2.2), under the Licensed IPR to Develop, Manufacture (subject to this Section 2.1), Commercialize, and otherwise Exploit the Compound and Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, and
- 2.1.2 a non-exclusive license, with the right to grant sublicenses through multiple tiers (subject to Section 2.2), under the Licensed Know How and Licensed Patents to Manufacture (subject to the below proviso) the Compound and Licensed Products outside the Territory for Exploitation in the Territory (the foregoing licenses set forth in Section 2.1.1 and 2.1.2, collectively, the “License”); provided that, subject to Section 3.1, Licensee will not Manufacture Licensed Products unless ReViral fails to fulfil its supply obligations under the supply provisions set forth in Section 7 and as otherwise provided under this Agreement.

2.2 Sublicense

Licensee may grant sublicenses of the rights granted to Licensee under the License to its Affiliates and Subcontractors [] (but in accordance with the applicable terms of this Agreement). In addition, subject to [], Licensee shall have the right to grant sublicenses under the License to other Third Parties. Each sublicense to a Subcontractor or Third Party shall be subject to a written agreement that is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, each sublicense shall be consistent with the terms of this Agreement, and Licensee shall use reasonable efforts to include in each sublicense to a Third Party provisions assigning to Licensee the right, title and interest in Inventions and Know How developed by the Sublicensee or its employees in the performance of activities under such sublicense to the extent relating to the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization of Licensed Products, and confidentiality, non-disclosure, and non-use provisions at least as restrictive or protective of the Parties as those set forth in this Agreement. At least [] prior to the anticipated closure of a sublicense agreement with a Third Party that is not a Subcontractor, Licensee will notify ReViral, provide a summary of the material terms of the potential sublicense, [], which notice and summary will be the Confidential Information of Licensee. Within [] of ReViral’s receipt of such notice, []. Within [] after the execution of any sublicense agreement to a Third Party that is not a Subcontractor, Licensee shall provide ReViral with a true and complete copy of such sublicense agreement, which shall be deemed to be Licensee Confidential Information; provided that Licensee shall have the right to redact any confidential or proprietary information contained to the extent that such information is not necessary for ReViral to confirm compliance with this Agreement. Licensee shall remain directly responsible for all of its obligations under this Agreement. At the reasonable request of ReViral, Licensee will use reasonable efforts to enforce the terms of each sublicense. Any Sublicensee conduct, act, omission or state of affairs that would have constituted a breach of this Agreement shall be imputed to Licensee and deemed a breach of this Agreement as if such conduct, act, omission or state of affairs had been directly attributable to Licensee. For avoidance of doubt, distributors, resellers, sales representatives, and other channel partners, CROs, other service providers and other Subcontractors shall not be deemed to be Sublicensees under this Agreement unless granted a sublicense hereunder.

2.3 ReViral Retained Rights

Notwithstanding the exclusive license granted to Licensee under Section 2.1.1, ReViral hereby expressly retains the rights to use the Licensed IPR in the Field in the Territory in order to perform its obligations under this Agreement, whether directly or through its Affiliates, licensees, Sublicensees or agents. In addition, ReViral retains the exclusive right to practice, license and otherwise exploit the Licensed IPR outside the scope of the license granted to Licensee under Section 2.1, including the exclusive right to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize the Products outside the Territory and the non-exclusive right to Manufacture and have Manufactured the Licensed Products in the Territory solely for purposes of Developing and Commercializing the Licensed Products outside of the Territory.

2.4 License Grant to ReViral

Licensee hereby grants to ReViral a fully paid, royalty free, perpetual, exclusive and sublicensable (through multiple tiers) license under the Licensee IPR to (a) Develop, and Commercialize the Licensed Products outside the Territory; and (b) Manufacture and have Manufactured the Licensed Products anywhere in the world solely for purposes of Developing and Commercializing the Licensed Products outside of the Territory; provided that, to the extent any such Licensee IPR is in-licensed by Licensee or one of its Affiliates from a Third Party (not being a Sublicensee), (A) the rights and licenses outside the Territory that are granted to ReViral under this Section 2.4 shall apply only if and to the extent that Licensee or its Affiliate has obtained all of the corresponding rights from the Third Party necessary to grant such rights and (B) []. During the Term, Licensee shall [] avoid terminating, amending, or otherwise modifying any such agreement, or taking (or failing to take) any action, that would (i) permit such Third Party to terminate such license or (ii) adversely affect ReViral's sublicense thereunder.

2.5 No Implied Licenses; Negative Covenant

Except as set forth herein, neither Party shall acquire any license or other right or interest, by implication or otherwise, under any Know How, Patent or other intellectual property of the other Party. Licensee shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees to, practice or utilize any Licensed IPR outside the scope of the License granted by ReViral to Licensee under Section 2.1 of this Agreement. ReViral shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates or Sublicensees to, practice or utilize any Licensee IPR outside the scope of the license granted by Licensee to ReViral under Section 2.4 of this Agreement.

2.6 No Diversion

Each Party hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, and shall ensure that its Affiliates and Sublicensees shall not, either directly or indirectly, promote, market, distribute, import, sell or have sold any Licensed Product, including via the Internet or mail order, to any Third Party or to any address or Internet Protocol address or the like in the other Party's territory or to any Third Party that such Party knows (or reasonably should know) has previously exported or is likely to export any Licensed Product to the other Party's territory. Neither Party shall engage, nor permit its Affiliates and Sublicensees to engage, in any advertising or promotional activities relating to any Licensed Product for use directed primarily to customers or other buyers or users of the Licensed Product located in any country or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, or solicit orders from any prospective purchaser located in any country or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory. If a Party or its Affiliates or Sublicensees receive any order for any Licensed Product from a prospective purchaser located in a country or jurisdiction in the other Party's territory, then such Party shall immediately refer that order to such other Party and shall not accept any such orders. Neither Party shall knowingly, nor permit its Affiliates and Sublicensees to, deliver or tender (or cause to be delivered or tendered) any Licensed Product to any Third Party for use in or distribution into the other Party's territory.

- 2.7 Each Party will perform its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with all Applicable Laws. Each Party shall obtain from the requisite Competent Authorities or Regulatory Authorities any consents, licenses, permits, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required to be obtained or made by such Party in connection with the authorization, execution and delivery by such Party of this Agreement and the performance by such Party of its obligations under this Agreement.
3. EXCLUSIVITY
- 3.1 During the Term, neither ReViral or its Affiliates, nor Licensee or any Lian Affiliate will (by itself or with or through an Affiliate or a Third Party) Develop, Manufacture, or Commercialize in the Territory any Competitive Product (“Competitive Activities”), except for the Compound and Licensed Products under this Agreement.
- 3.2 Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in Section 3.1, if ReViral under goes a Change of Control with a company or group of companies owning or Controlling a Competitive Product (an “Acquiror/Partner”), and, thereafter, if ReViral, the Acquiror/Partner, or its or their Affiliates is conducting or commences conducting Competitive Activities with respect to a Competitive Product that does not contain a RSV Candidate in a country or region in the Territory, then:
- (i) ReViral, its Acquiror/Partner, and its or their Affiliates will not be in violation of the terms of Section 3.1, but only with respect to Competitive Products that do not contain a RSV Candidate, provided that, immediately following the closing of such Change of Control and throughout the conduct of such Competitive Activities, (a) ReViral, its Acquiror/Partner, and its or their Affiliates implements reasonable measures to ensure that none of the Licensee Know How or other Regulatory Documents dedicated to the Licensed Product, or Confidential Information of Licensee are used in connection with the conduct of such Competitive Activities, including establishing appropriate firewalls between the personnel performing Competitive Activities and the personnel teams charged with working on any Licensed Product (or component thereof) and ensuring that the personnel performing Competitive Activities are prevented from having access to data from activities performed under this Agreement or Confidential Information of the other Party, and establishing other technical and administrative safeguards to prevent use of or access by the Acquiror/Partner and its Affiliates to Confidential Information relating to activities in the Territory,
- (ii) []
- (iii) [].
- 3.3 Notwithstanding the restrictions set forth in Section 3.1, if Licensee undergoes a Change of Control with an Acquiror/Partner, and, thereafter, if Licensee, the Acquiror/Partner, or its or their Affiliates is conducting or commences conducting Competitive Activities in a country or region in the Territory, then (i) Licensee, its Acquiror/Partner, and its or their Affiliates will not be in violation of the terms of Section 3.1, provided that, immediately following the closing of such Change of Control and throughout the conduct of such Competitive Activities, (a) Licensee, its Acquiror/Partner, and its or their affiliates implements reasonable measures to ensure that none of the Licensed Know How or other Regulatory Documents relating to the Licensed Product, or Confidential Information of ReViral are used in connection with the conduct of such Competitive Activities, including establishing appropriate firewalls between the personnel performing Competitive Activities and the personnel teams charged with working on any Licensed Product (or component thereof) or and ensuring that the personnel performing Competitive Activities are prevented from having access to data from activities performed under this Agreement or Confidential Information of the other Party and establishing technical and administrative safeguards to prevent use of or access by the Acquiror/Partner and its Affiliates to Confidential Information relating to ReViral’s activities related to the Licensed Product, and [].

4. GOVERNANCE

- 4.1 To facilitate day-to-day interaction between the Parties, within [] after the Effective Date they shall each appoint and designate an alliance manager (together, the “Alliance Managers” and respectively “ReViral’s Alliance Manager” or “Licensee’s Alliance Manager”, as the case may be). Each Alliance Manager will be the primary point of contact for the other Party on all matters relating to the operation of this Agreement. They shall not have decision making powers, and will be appointed simply to assist liaison.
- 4.2 With effect from the Effective Date the Parties shall establish and run a Joint Steering Committee (“JSC”).
- 4.3 The JSC shall be organized as follows:
- 4.3.1 the JSC shall comprise [] persons (“JSC Members”) and ReViral and Licensee respectively shall be entitled to appoint [] JSC Members, to remove any JSC Member appointed by it and to appoint any person to fill a vacancy arising from the removal or retirement of such JSC Member appointed by it. JSC Members must be appropriate for the primary function of the JSC in terms of their seniority, decision-making authority, availability, function in their respective organisation, training and experience and there will be a chairperson (“JSC Chairperson”) who will alternate between one of ReViral JSC Members and one of Licensee JSC Members []; and
 - 4.3.2 Licensee and ReViral respectively shall each notify the other of any change in the identities of their JSC Members. Both sides shall use reasonable efforts to keep an appropriate level of continuity in representation. JSC Members may be represented at any meeting by another person designated in writing by the absent JSC Member; and
 - 4.3.3 JSC shall hold meetings in person as frequently as the members of the JSC may agree shall be necessary, and otherwise by teleconference or a video-conference, but no less frequently than four (4) times each Year in total. Dates of meetings shall be agreed by the Parties not less than [] days beforehand. Each Party shall submit the agenda items and associated materials that it wishes to be considered no later than [] days prior to the meeting. The first meeting of the JSC will take place as soon as practicable after the Effective Date, but in no event later than [] days after the Effective Date. Special meetings of the JSC may be called by any JSC Member upon written request to the then current chairman of the JSC; and
 - 4.3.4 the venue for meetings of the JSC shall alternate between the premises of the Parties, or a location agreed by the Parties, if not held by teleconference or videoconference. Each Party shall be responsible for its own expenses including travel and accommodation costs incurred in connection with JSC meetings; and
 - 4.3.5 no later than [] days prior to each meeting of the JSC, each Party will provide the other with written copies of all materials that Party intends to present at the JSC meeting; and
 - 4.3.6 the JSC shall have power to invite persons whose special skills or influence might advance the Development or Commercialisation of Licensed Product in the Territory, in confidence and upon behalf of the JSC, to attend and address meetings of the JSC. For the avoidance of doubt it is agreed that such persons shall not be JSC Members and shall not participate in the decision making process of the JSC; and

4.3.7 ReViral's Alliance Manager shall record the minutes of each JSC meeting in writing. Such minutes shall be circulated by ReViral's Alliance Manager to Licensee's Alliance Manager no later than [] Business Days following the meeting for review, comment and approval of Licensee. If no comments are received within [] Business Days of the receipt of the minutes by Licensee's Alliance Manager, then unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, they shall be deemed to be approved by Licensee. Furthermore, if the Parties are unable to reach agreement on the minutes within [] days after the applicable meeting, the sections of the minutes that have been agreed between the Parties by that date shall be deemed approved and, in addition, each Party shall record in the same document its own version of those sections of the minutes on which the Parties were not able to agree.

4.4 The JSC shall have the following purposes:

- 4.4.1 guide the overall Development strategy and Commercialization strategy of the Licensed Product in the Territory by Licensee, and for general liaison and communication between the Parties;
- 4.4.2 review and discuss the Clinical Trial protocol for the First Global Trial;
- 4.4.3 determine the Specifications for the Licensed Products;
- 4.4.4 review and discuss the Global Development Plan and any updates thereto, and determine whether to approve any elements or activities therein to be carried out in the Territory;
- 4.4.5 review and discuss Clinical Trial study designs and study protocols within the Global Development Plan;
- 4.4.6 discuss the participation of Licensee, Lian Affiliate, CRO or Sublicensee in the Global Development Plan;
- 4.4.7 review, discuss, and determine whether to approve the Territory Specific Development Plan and any updates thereto;
- 4.4.8 review and discuss the progress of Licensee's and ReViral's Development activities, including receiving the Interim Reports and Final Reports regarding the Parties' activities under the Global Development Plan and Territory-Specific Development Plan, as applicable;
- 4.4.9 discuss material regulatory developments related to the Licensed Product in the Territory;
- 4.4.10 review and discuss the Commercialization Plan prepared by Licensee, and any updates thereto;
- 4.4.11 review and discuss Licensee's material Commercialization activities for the Licensed Product in the Territory and ReViral's material Commercialization activities for the Licensed Product outside of the Territory;

- 4.4.12 discuss additional Indications for any Licensed Product proposed by ReViral to be Developed and Commercialized;
- 4.4.13 discuss any Inventions relating to the Licensed Product arising out of either Party's activities under this Agreement; and
- 4.4.14 shall perform such other functions and responsibilities as are given to it under the express provisions of this Agreement but shall have no authority to amend any terms of this Agreement or any matter that would cause any payments stated in this Agreement to be other than the amount of those terms as stated herein.
- 4.5 Conclusions and decisions of the JSC shall be made by unanimous agreement of the JSC Members wherever possible with Licensee JSC Members together having one vote on behalf of Licensee and ReViral JSC Members together having one vote on behalf of ReViral. Both Parties will use their reasonable efforts to build consensus. The JSC shall exercise this authority in good faith.
- 4.6 Any disputes among representatives at the JSC will be resolved by escalation to appropriate senior officers of Licensee and ReViral (the "Senior Officers"). To the extent the Senior Officers cannot reach agreement on the matter at hand, then (i) ReViral will have final decision-making authority over []; provided that [], and (ii) Licensee will have final decision-making authority over (1) [], except to the extent such matter []; (2) [].
5. DEVELOPMENT
- 5.1 ReViral will be in control of and lead global strategy and planning for the further global nonclinical and clinical Development of the Licensed Product [], including the finalisation of formulations. ReViral will detail such global Development activities (the results of and data from which are intended to be used to obtain or maintain Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product both in and outside the Territory) in a global Development plan ("Global Development Plan"). The Global Development Plan will be discussed by the JSC []. From time to time, ReViral may make updates to the Global Development Plan, provided that ReViral will submit such proposed updates to the JSC for review and discussion []. ReViral will be responsible for the study designs and study protocols for the Global Clinical Trial(s), in each case, subject to consultation with Licensee on Territory-specific issues through the JSC and the remainder of this Section 5.1. In addition, Licensee will have the right to participate in the Territory in Global Clinical Trials for the Licensed Product to be conducted by ReViral, subject to ReViral's consent, not to be unreasonably withheld, and Licensee's agreement to the study design and study protocols for such Global Clinical Trial and Global Development Plan. Licensee will have the right to determine the activities of Development to be conducted in the Territory by Licensee, its Affiliates, or its or their respective Sublicensees or CROs, including whether there are local clinical study sites in the Territory forming part of a Global Clinical Trial, whether to conduct separate Clinical Trials in the Territory that are not covered by a Global Clinical Trial, and, after considering in good faith ReViral's suggestions, the countries and regions in the Territory where the clinical study sites will be located. Licensee will participate in the Pivotal Global Clinical Trials for the Licensed Product for the pediatric and elderly adult Indications unless either (i) prevented by Applicable Law or the requirements of any Regulatory Authority in the Territory or (ii) Licensee determines that such participation would not be reasonably likely to support the Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the applicable Indication in the Territory and that Licensee must conduct a separate Clinical Trial in the Territory to obtain or maintain Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in the Territory. In the case of the Licensee proposing to conduct separate Clinical Trials in the Territory that are not covered by a Global Clinical Trial, the Licensee shall submit the study design and study protocols to the JSC for consideration and discussion, and shall, []. The Development activity to be carried out in the Territory by Licensee, its Affiliate or a CRO as determined by JSC, including the timeline and details of all major Development work (including all Clinical Trials, whether included in or separate from any Global Clinical Trial) to be conducted by or on behalf of Licensee to obtain and maintain Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Products in the Field in each country in the Territory will be set out in a written plan to be developed by Licensee (the "Territory-Specific Development Plan"), []. From time to time, Licensee may make updates to the Territory-Specific Development Plan, provided [].

- 5.2 Licensee will be responsible for all Development Costs. To the extent that ReViral incurs any Development Costs in the performance of any Pivotal Global Clinical Trial for the Licensed Product in the Territory, ReViral shall invoice Licensee for reimbursement of the same as follows: within [] after the end of each Calendar Quarter, ReViral shall prepare and submit to Licensee an invoice that reasonably details the actual Development Costs of such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial for such Calendar Quarter, and Licensee shall pay the undisputed amount of such invoice within [] days after the receipt of such invoice.
- 5.3 For each Global Clinical Study in which Licensee participates (a) that is a Pivotal Global Clinical Trial pursuant to Section 5.1, (b) that targets either the pediatric Indication or elderly adult Indication, and (c) for which Licensee approves the study design and study protocol, Licensee will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to enroll study patients in the Territory equal to [] of the total study patients in such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial (the “Patient Commitment”). In the event Licensee joins such a Pivotal Global Clinical Trial, fails to enroll sufficient study patients in the Territory to meet the Patient Commitment (the “Licensee Shortfall”), and ReViral instead enrolls patients in such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial in lieu of Licensee in order to meet the Patient Commitment, then Licensee will reimburse ReViral for the number of patients representing the Licensee Shortfall that ReViral so enrolls in such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial (up to the Patient Commitment) based on [].
- 5.4 Subject to the remainder of this Section 5 (including ReViral’s obligations in Section 5.5, to the extent Licensee’s performance of activities under the Territory-Specific Development Plan relies on ReViral’s performance of the Global Development Plan), Licensee shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to [].
- 5.5 ReViral will use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to [].
- 5.6 When ReViral believes the PTP has been achieved, it shall notify Licensee and, at the next scheduled meeting of the JSC, it shall provide to Licensee all relevant Licensed Know How relating to (i) non-clinical data including pharmacological, toxicological and metabolic data and results of all non-clinical studies relevant to the Licensed Product; (ii) clinical safety and efficacy data relating to the Licensed Product, including data analyses, study reports and information contained in protocols, filings or other submissions to and responses from ethical committees and Regulatory Authorities; and (iii) pharmacovigilance data. [].
- 5.7 Technology Transfer and Exchange of Know How and Commercial Information
- 5.7.1 As promptly as practicable after the Effective Date, the Parties shall coordinate and agree to a technology transfer plan for ReViral to provide and transfer to Licensee the Licensed Know How (including associated Regulatory Documents) that is necessary or reasonably useful for Licensee to Exploit the Licensed Products in the Territory. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.7.1 and the technology transfer plan contemplated hereby shall not address technology transfer in connection with any future technology transfer necessary to Manufacture Licensed Products. ReViral shall transfer such Licensed Know How to Licensee in accordance with such technology transfer plan, and Licensee shall cooperate with ReViral to facilitate the receipt of such transfer of Licensed Know How. On a Calendar Quarter basis during the Term, ReViral shall similarly disclose and transfer to Licensee, through the JSC or as otherwise agreed, all additional Licensed Know How and Regulatory Documents that have been generated since the previous meeting or transfer; provided that ReViral will promptly transfer to Licensee any Regulatory Documents requested by any Regulatory Authority in the Territory.

- 5.7.2 Upon Licensee's reasonable request, ReViral shall also provide Licensee with reasonable technical assistance, including in connection with such initial technology transfer and reasonable access to ReViral's technical personnel involved in the Development of the Licensed Products. The first [] of such technical assistance shall be provided by ReViral without charge, provided that both Parties shall use reasonable efforts to complete the technology transfer as expeditiously as possible. If Licensee nominates any Third Party to participate in the receipt of such technical assistance, including any Affiliate or CRO, and this does not occur at the same time Licensee receives such technical assistance, each hour of technical assistance provided by ReViral shall count towards the [] free assistance. Thereafter ReViral shall be compensated for all additional assistance at an FTE rate to be agreed between the Parties in good faith.
- 5.7.3 At the JSC meeting following the generation of any particular Commercial Information by ReViral, ReViral shall supply Licensee or its nominated Affiliate with the then-existing Commercial Information in the same manner as with Licensed Know-How not being Commercial Information.

5.8 Licensee Refusal to Participate

If ReViral notifies Licensee of its intention to conduct a Pivotal Global Clinical Trial for a Product in an Indication other than the first pediatric Indication or elderly adult Indication, then Licensee may either (a) elect to participate in such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial, subject to Licensee's approval of the study design and study protocols and the relevant part of the proposed Global Development Plan for such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial as it relates to the Territory or (b) conduct a separate Clinical Trial within the Territory with respect to such Indication (to be detailed in the Territory-Specific Development Plan). In addition, if, under Applicable Law in the Territory, Licensee is neither required to participate in such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial nor to conduct a separate Clinical Trial within the Territory, in each case, in order to obtain Regulatory Approval of the Product in the applicable Indication, then ReViral will grant to Licensee a right of reference with respect to Regulatory Documents submitted by or on behalf of ReViral relating to such Pivotal Global Clinical Trial as necessary to support or maintain any existing or future Regulatory Approval for the Product in such Indication or any other Indication for which a Product has received Regulatory Approval in the Territory.

5.9 Development Records

Each Party shall maintain complete, current and accurate records of all Development activities conducted by or on behalf of such Party hereunder, and all data and other Know How resulting from such activities. Such records shall fully and properly reflect all work done and results achieved in the performance of the Development activities in good scientific manner appropriate for regulatory and patent purposes. Each Party shall document all non-clinical studies and Clinical Trials in formal written study reports according to Applicable Laws and national and international guidelines (e.g., ICH, GCP, GLP, and cGMP).

5.10 Development Reports

Licensee shall keep ReViral reasonably informed as to the progress and results of its and its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' Development of the Licensed Products, including the preparation of Interim Reports and Final Reports in relation to its performance of activities set forth in the Territory-Specific Development Plan. ReViral shall keep Licensee reasonably informed as to the progress and results of its and its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' Development of the Licensed Products, including the preparation of Interim Reports and Final Reports in relation to its performance of activities set forth in the Global Development Plan. Without limiting the foregoing, the status, progress and results of the Development of the Licensed Products within and outside the Territory shall be discussed at meetings of the JSC. At least [] before each regularly scheduled JSC meeting, each Party shall provide the JSC with a written report summarizing its respective Development activities and the results thereof, covering subject matter at a level of detail reasonably required by the JSC and sufficient to enable the other Party to determine compliance with the diligence obligations pursuant to Section 5.4 and Section 5.5, as applicable. In addition, each Party shall use reasonable efforts to make available to the other Party such additional information about its Development activities as may be reasonably requested from time to time.

6.1 General

The Territory-Specific Development Plan shall set forth the regulatory strategy for seeking Regulatory Approvals of the Licensed Products in the Field in each country and region in the Territory. Licensee shall be solely responsible for all regulatory activities necessary for obtaining and maintaining Regulatory Approvals of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, which regulatory activities shall be performed at Licensee's own cost and expense and in accordance with the regulatory strategy set forth in the Territory-Specific Development Plan. Through the JSC, Licensee shall keep ReViral informed of material regulatory developments related to the Licensed Products in the Territory, including any decision by any Regulatory Authority in the Territory regarding Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Products.

6.2 Regulatory Documents

Licensee shall provide ReViral with drafts [] of all material Regulatory Documents within a reasonable time (in any event no less than [] prior to submission for review and comment and shall consider in good faith any comments thereon received in a timely manner from ReViral, provided that, with respect to any Regulatory Documents required by Applicable Law to be filed in ReViral's name in the Territory, Licensee will implement all timely comments received from ReViral thereon. In any event, Licensee may submit any Regulatory Document without regard to ReViral's comments if such comments are not received by Licensee at least [] (or such lesser period required by Applicable Law) prior to the submission due date or earlier if necessary to comply with the requirements of any Regulatory Authority in the Territory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, from time to time, the JSC may recommend to ReViral that no review or comment is necessary for certain categories of Regulatory Documents that are immaterial in nature, and ReViral may elect to waive its right to review and comment thereon in its sole discretion, provided further that: (a) on a quarterly basis at the regularly scheduled JSC meetings, Licensee shall inform the JSC of the Regulatory Documents it has received or submitted that have not been reviewed by ReViral as a result of such waiver by ReViral of its right to review the same; (b) ReViral shall have the right to request a copy of such Regulatory Documents at any time notwithstanding such waiver; and (c) ReViral shall have the right to rescind such waiver with respect to future Regulatory Documents at any time in its sole discretion. Licensee shall not make any statement in a regulatory filing for the Licensed Product in the Territory that ReViral demonstrates to Licensee is inconsistent with statements submitted or intended for submission by ReViral in regulatory filings outside for the Licensed Products of the Territory. In addition, Licensee shall notify ReViral of any [] Regulatory Documents for the Licensed Products submitted to or received from any Regulatory Authority in the Territory and shall provide ReViral with copies thereof within [] after submission or receipt (or such lesser period required by Applicable Law) and shall notify ReViral of any other material communication with any Regulatory Authority in the Territory regarding the Licensed Products within [] after such communication (or such lesser period required by Applicable Law). If any such material Regulatory Document is not in the English language, Licensee shall also, [], provide ReViral with an English summary at the time of provision. Upon ReViral's reasonable request from time to time, Licensee will provide other Regulatory Documents in English, subject to the Parties' agreement regarding cost-sharing and timing.

6.3 Regulatory Meetings

Licensee shall provide ReViral with reasonable (and in any event, to the extent practicable, no less than [] advance notice of any substantive meeting or discussion with any Regulatory Authority in the Territory related to the Licensed Products. Licensee shall lead such meeting or discussion; provided, however that, to the extent legally permissible and practicable []. In addition, if reasonably requested by Licensee [], ReViral or its designee shall attend and participate in such meeting or discussion to actively assist in addressing questions regarding the Licensed Products that may be raised by the Regulatory Authority. Licensee shall provide ReViral with a written English summary of such meeting or discussion within [] thereafter. At Licensee's reasonable request, ReViral shall provide assistance in responding to or otherwise addressing questions raised by the Regulatory Authority during any such meeting or discussion, according to a timeline reasonably agreed by the Parties.

6.4 Regulatory Requests

As soon as possible but no later than [] after receipt, Licensee shall provide ReViral any formal or informal requests received from any Regulatory Authority in the Territory related to the Licensed Products. Licensee shall manage preparation of a response to such requests; provided that, [], ReViral or its designee shall provide assistance in preparing a response that addresses matters raised by the Regulatory Authority in such request, according to a timeline reasonably agreed by the Parties. Licensee shall submit all responses before the due date set by the Regulatory Authority.

6.5 Ownership of Regulatory Filings

All Regulatory Documents will be made in the name of and exclusively owned by Licensee or Lian Affiliate; provided, however, that, if Applicable Laws or Regulatory Authorities in a country or region in the Territory require Regulatory Documents to be filed in the name of and owned by ReViral, then Licensee will file such Regulatory Documents in the name of ReViral, with the understanding that ReViral will designate Licensee (or its Affiliate or designee) to be its sole authorized agent in such country or region in the Territory. If Applicable Laws or Regulatory Authorities in such country or region in the Territory later permit Licensee to file and own such Regulatory Documents in Licensee's name, then ReViral will permit such Regulatory Documents then to be filed in the name of and exclusively owned by Licensee, and ReViral will cooperate with Licensee to assign and transfer such Regulatory Documents to Licensee.

6.6 Right of Reference

Subject to Section 5.8, each Party hereby grants to the other Party the right of reference to all Regulatory Documents pertaining to the Licensed Products in the Field submitted by or on behalf of such Party. Licensee may use such right of reference to ReViral's Regulatory Documents in the Field solely for the purpose of seeking, obtaining, supporting, and maintaining Regulatory Approval and Pricing Approval of the License Products in the Field in the Territory. ReViral may use such right of reference to Licensee's Regulatory Documents in the Field solely for the purpose of seeking, obtaining, supporting, and maintaining Regulatory Approval and Pricing Approval of the Licensed Products outside the Territory. Each Party will bear its own costs and expenses associated with providing the other Party with the right of reference pursuant to this Section 6.6. Each Party will take such actions as may be reasonably requested by the other Party to give effect to the intent of this Section 6.6 and to give the other Party the benefit of the granting Party's Regulatory Documents in the other Party's territory as provided herein. Such actions may include (i) providing to the other Party copies of correspondence and communications received from the applicable Regulatory Authorities related to such Party's application for Regulatory Approval of the Licensed Product in the Territory (if Licensee is the Party seeking Regulatory Approval) and of the Licensed Product outside of the Territory (if ReViral is the Party seeking Regulatory Approval), or (ii) providing the other Party with any underlying raw data or information submitted by the granting Party to the Regulatory Authority with respect to any Regulatory Documents Controlled by such granting Party or its Affiliates that relates to any Licensed Product.

6.7 Pharmacovigilance

No later than [] days following the Effective Date, but in any event [], the Parties shall enter into a pharmacovigilance agreement setting forth the worldwide pharmacovigilance procedures for the Parties with respect to the Licensed Products (the "Pharmacovigilance Agreement"), which agreement will provide for coordination and sharing of relevant safety information related to the Licensed Products between the Parties in order to facilitate prompt filing of accurate and consistent reports to Regulatory Authorities in compliance with Applicable Law. Each Party shall hold the primary responsibility for reporting adverse events and other safety data related to the Licensed Products in its territory to the applicable Regulatory Authorities in its territory, as well as responding to safety issues and to all requests of Regulatory Authorities in its territory related to the Licensed Products, in each case, at its own cost and to the extent required by Applicable Laws. ReViral shall be responsible for the establishment and maintenance of a global safety database at its own cost and expense. Licensee may, at its own cost and expense, establish and maintain its own local safety database to store the safety information generated from the Development of the Licensed Products in the Territory, and to assure regulatory reporting compliance in the Territory. Each Party agrees to comply with its respective obligations under the Pharmacovigilance Agreement and to cause its Affiliates, licensees and Sublicensees to comply with such obligations. Each Party will notify the other Party of any new planned Clinical Trials for any Licensed Product and the Parties will update the Pharmacovigilance Agreement to the extent necessary to comply with any applicable requirements set forth under Applicable Law or of any Regulatory Authorities related to adverse event reporting, drug safety, patient safety, pharmacovigilance, and risk management. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, each Party and its Affiliates, licensees, and Sublicensees will have the right to disclose information related to the safety of the Compounds or Licensed Products to the extent that such disclosure is required for such Party to comply with its obligations under Applicable Law or the safety requirements of the applicable Regulatory Authorities. To the extent that there is a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Pharmacovigilance Agreement, the terms of the Pharmacovigilance Agreement will govern with respect to the subject matter set forth therein.

6.8 No Harmful Actions

If ReViral or Licensee believes that the other Party is taking or intends to take any action with respect to any Licensed Product that could have a material adverse impact upon the regulatory status of any Licensed Product outside or inside the Territory (as the case may be), the concerned Party shall have the right to bring the matter to the attention of the JSC and the Parties shall promptly meet to discuss in good faith to resolve such concern. Without limiting the foregoing, unless the Parties otherwise agree: (a) Licensee shall not communicate with any Regulatory Authority having jurisdiction outside the Territory, unless so ordered by such Regulatory Authority, in which case Licensee shall immediately notify ReViral of such order; (b) unless requested by Licensee, ReViral shall not communicate with any Regulatory Authority having jurisdiction within the Territory, unless so ordered by such Regulatory Authority, in which case ReViral shall immediately notify Licensee; and (c) Licensee shall not submit any Regulatory Documents or seek Regulatory Approvals for any Licensed Product outside the Territory and ReViral shall not submit any Regulatory Documents or seek Regulatory Approval for any Licensed Product inside the Territory without Licensee's prior written consent.

6.9 Remedial Actions

Each Party shall notify the other immediately, and promptly confirm such notice in writing, if it obtains information indicating that any Licensed Product may be subject to any recall, corrective action or other regulatory action by any Competent Authority or Regulatory Authority (a “Remedial Action”). The Parties shall assist each other in gathering and evaluating such information as is necessary to determine the necessity of conducting a Remedial Action. Licensee shall have sole discretion with respect to any matters relating to any Remedial Action in the Territory, including the decision to commence such Remedial Action and the control over such Remedial Action. The cost and expenses of any Remedial Action in the Territory shall be borne solely by Licensee.

- 6.10 Licensee or its Affiliate will have sole control over and decision-making authority with respect to responding to medical questions or inquiries from members of the medical and paramedical professions and consumers regarding Licensed Product in the Territory. The Parties, through the JSC, will collaborate to develop consistent responses to common inquiries. If ReViral receives questions about Licensed Product in a country in the Territory, then it will refer such questions to Licensee, and Licensee will have sole control over and decision-making authority with respect to responding thereto.

7. MANUFACTURE AND SUPPLY

- 7.1 ReViral shall, either by itself or through its Affiliates or Third Party contract manufacturers, Manufacture and supply to Licensee, and Licensee shall purchase from ReViral, all of Licensee’s and its Affiliates’ and Sublicensees’ requirements for (i) CTM of the Licensed Product for use in Development and (ii) Licensed Products for use in Commercialization in the Field in the Territory (the “Territory Specific Supply”).
- 7.2 Supplies of CTM for use by the Licensee in Phase II Clinical Trials in the Territory shall be made under the terms set forth in this Section 7.2:
- 7.2.1 As part of the Territory-Specific Development Plan, Licensee shall prepare and provide ReViral at JSC with forecasts of Licensee’s requirement for CTM for Phase II Clinical Trials for the Licensed Products for the Territory as it changes from time to time but covering at least [] in advance. The quantities detailed in each forecast constitute a good faith estimate of future requirement of Licensee and its Affiliates of CTM for Phase II Clinical Trials and do not comprise a minimum purchase requirement or a binding commitment on Licensee.
- 7.2.2 The Licensee shall pay ReViral Cost of Manufacture for CTM. ReViral shall invoice Licensee for such costs following delivery of such CTM to Licensee. ReViral’s invoices for CTM are due for payment no later than [] following receipt of invoice. The CTM shall be delivered by ReViral to Licensee [] accompanied by an associated certificate of conformity and certificate of analysis. []. Title and risk of loss and damage to CTM purchased by Licensee hereunder shall pass to Licensee [].
- 7.2.3 The CTM supplied by ReViral under this Agreement shall be in compliance with the Specifications and GMP.

- 7.2.4 Licensee or its designated agent shall, within [] following receipt of a shipment of CTM at Licensee's warehouse in the Territory, carry out a Visual Inspection (as defined below) of such shipment and the associated certificate of conformity and certificate of analysis. If following Visual Inspection the Licensee determines if [] that the shipment is defective or deficient it shall promptly notify the ReViral in writing rejecting the shipment and specifying in detail the reasons therefor ("Notice of Rejection"). If Licensee does not notify ReViral in this manner within such [] day period, such shipment of CTM shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Licensee.
- 7.2.5 For the purposes of this Agreement, "Visual Inspection" shall mean:
- (a) [];
 - (b) [];
 - (c) [];
 - (d) [].
- For the avoidance of doubt, Visual Inspection does not include [].
- 7.2.6 Within [] days after receipt by ReViral of a Notice of Rejection ReViral shall indicate in writing to Licensee whether ReViral is issuing a return authorisation or not. In the event that a return authorisation is so issued, Licensee shall return to ReViral at [] expense the quantities of CTM in question and ReViral shall replace such quantities as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.
- 7.2.7 If ReViral does not issue a return authorisation under Section 7.2.6 Licensee shall analyse samples from any batch of CTM rejected by Licensee for non-conformity with the Specifications or GMP within [] days of issuance of the Notice of Rejection and shall present its findings with respect to such CTM to ReViral. If such findings seem to confirm non-conformity with the Specification or GMP, but ReViral disputes such findings it may request Licensee to submit some samples from the batch to an independent qualified laboratory nominated by ReViral, [], to analyse such samples of CTM in question, and the definitive results of such laboratory shall be binding on the Parties. If ReViral accepts the Licensee's findings or the laboratory confirms such findings, then ReViral shall supply to Licensee at [] cost and expense a conforming batch in the same quantity as the rejected batch as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. In such circumstances ReViral shall also [] incurred by Licensee including shipping charges in relation to such non-conforming batch. The non-conforming CTM batch shall be held for ReViral's disposition, or shall be returned to ReViral, in each case, [], as directed by ReViral. In circumstances where the independent laboratory finds the batch to be conforming, the Licensee shall be deemed to have accepted the shipment, notwithstanding the Notice of Rejection.
- 7.2.8 Notwithstanding Licensee's acceptance of CTM pursuant to Section 7.2.4, if the CTM did not conform to the Specifications, and if such nonconformity was not reasonably identifiable through the Visual Inspection, then Licensee may submit a Notice of Rejection to ReViral upon discovery of such nonconformity.
- 7.2.9 Notwithstanding the provisions of the last sentence of Section 7.2.7, if ReViral subsequently discovers facts causing it to have reasonable belief that any batch of CTM was defective in that it failed to meet Specification at the time of delivery, it may [] appoint to an independent qualified laboratory nominated by ReViral, to analyse samples of the batch in question and give an opinion whether in the reasonable belief of the laboratory CTM the batch of CTM was indeed defective in that it failed to meet Specification at the time of delivery. The definitive results of such laboratory shall be binding on the Parties. The consequences of any such decision are as set out in Section 7.2.7.

7.2.10 As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date, the Parties shall negotiate and execute a related quality agreement consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement governing the supply of CTM under this Agreement.

- 7.3 If ReViral fails to supply at least [] of the CTM ordered by Licensee [], then Licensee may by written notice to ReViral seek to take over responsibility for Manufacture of CTM. This shall not affect ReViral's right under Section 7.4 to supply Licensee with the quantities of Licensed Product required for Phase III Clinical Trials in the Territory and Commercialization. Upon receipt of such notice ReViral shall, [], as soon as reasonably practicable transfer or procure its contract manufacturer to transfer to Licensee or its nominee the Manufacturing Know How within Licensed Know How.
- 7.4 ReViral shall supply Licensee, any Affiliate or Sublicensee with the quantities of Licensed Product they require for the Phase III Clinical Trials to be conducted in the Territory, and for Commercialization in the Territory pursuant to a full, separate Manufacturing and supply agreement, covering supplies for the Phase III Clinical Trials in the Territory, and for Commercialization in the Territory ("Manufacturing and Supply Agreement"), along with a related quality agreement. No later than [] months prior to the [], the Parties will negotiate and agree in good faith the terms of the Manufacturing and Supply Agreement.

8. COMMERCIALISATION

- 8.1 Licensee shall, either by itself or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees or Third Party contractor(s), be solely responsible for the Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory, at Licensee's own cost and expense, including developing and executing a commercial launch plan, product marketing and promotion, marketing access and pricing strategy, negotiating with Competent Authorities regarding the price and reimbursement mechanisms, booking sales, product distribution, providing customer support (including handling medical queries), and performing other related functions.
- 8.2 Licensee either by itself or through its Affiliates, Sublicensees or Third Party contractor(s), shall use Commercially Reasonable Efforts to Commercialize the Licensed Products in each country of the Territory in which it or an Affiliate or Sublicensee receives Regulatory Approval and Pricing Approval.
- 8.3 Licensee will have sole authority for determining and establishing the price and terms of sale (including any rebates or discounts) of Licensed Product for each country in the Territory. [].
- 8.4 Within [] prior to the anticipated first launch of the Licensed Product in the Territory, Licensee will prepare a Commercialization Plan covering: []. The Commercialization Plan will be updated [] by Licensee. The Commercialization Plan, and updates thereto, will be shared with ReViral via the JSC for comment and discussion.
- 8.5 The Parties shall collaborate with respect to the Commercialization of the Licensed Products across their respective territories. Through the JSC, ReViral shall keep Licensee reasonably informed of its plans (including any updates and amendment thereto) for the global Commercialization of the Licensed Products in sufficient detail for Licensee to make related updates to align Commercialization of the Licensed Products in the Territory with ReViral's global Commercialization plans, provided that any such update will be in Licensee's sole discretion.

- 8.6 The Parties recognize that they may benefit from the coordination of certain activities in support of the Commercialization of the Licensed Products across their respective territories. As such, the Parties may coordinate such activities where appropriate, including scientific and medical communication and product positioning. If the Parties wish to jointly conduct any specific Commercialization activities for the benefit of the Licensed Products in both Parties' territories, the Parties may negotiate and agree on the details of such activities, including allocation of responsibilities, budget and cost sharing.
- 8.7 Licensee or its Affiliates or Sublicensees will have sole authority, consistent with the Commercialization Plan, for the creation, preparation, production and reproduction of all promotional materials relating to Licensed Products in the Territory and for filing, as may be required, such promotional materials with Regulatory Authorities in the Territory.
- 8.8 Licensee shall not make any medical or promotional claims for any Licensed Product other than as permitted by Applicable Laws. When distributing information related to any Licensed Product or its use in the Territory (including information contained in scientific articles, reference publications and publicly available healthcare economic information), Licensee must comply with all Applicable Laws in the applicable country in the Territory.
- 8.9 Licensee shall keep the JSC reasonably informed of its, its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Products. Without limiting the foregoing, Licensee shall update the JSC at least [] at each [] regarding the Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Territory. Each such update shall be in a form to be agreed by the JSC and shall summarize Licensee's, its Affiliates' and Sublicensees' significant Commercialization activities with respect to the Licensed Products in the Territory. In addition, Licensee shall make available to the JSC such additional information about its Commercialization activities as may be reasonably requested by the JSC from time to time.

9. ECONOMICS

UPFRONT FEE

- 9.1 Licensee will pay to ReViral an upfront fee of [] within [] after the Effective Date following receipt by Licensee of an invoice therefor from ReViral.

DEVELOPMENT MILESTONE PAYMENTS

- 9.2 Licensee shall pay ReViral the following Development milestone payments on the occurrence of the following milestone events:

9.2.1 []:

- (i) []: []
- (ii) []: []
- (iii) []: []
- (iv) []: []

COMMERCIALIZATION MILESTONE PAYMENTS

- 9.3 The following one-time payments shall be paid by Licensee to ReViral in USD upon first achievement of the following Commercial sales milestone events:

9.3.1 []: [];

9.3.2 []: [];

9.3.3 []: [];

9.3.4 []: [].

- 9.4 Each of the milestone payments subject to Sections 9.2 and 9.3, shall only be payable by Licensee upon the first occurrence of the applicable event whenever it occurs. Upon the occurrence of the applicable event the milestone payment shall be payable even if more than one occurs in a Year. Such milestone payments are non-refundable in any circumstances whatsoever and are not creditable against the royalties due under Section 9.7.
- 9.5 ReViral shall report the occurrence of each milestone event under Sections 9.2.1(i) and 9.2.1(ii) to Licensee within [] of its occurrence and at the same time shall invoice Licensee, which invoice shall be payable by Licensee within [] of the occurrence after the milestone event.
- 9.6 Licensee shall report the occurrence of each milestone event under Sections 9.2.1(iii) and 9.2.1(iv) and 9.3 to ReViral within [] after its occurrence and shall make the milestone payment to ReViral within [] after Licensee's receipt of an invoice therefor from ReViral.

ROYALTIES

- 9.7 Licensee will pay to ReViral royalties during the Royalty Term as set forth below:

royalty = A + B + C + D where:

A equals [] of that portion of annual Net Sales of Licensed Product in the Territory, which, during the Calendar Year in question, is less than or equal to [];

B equals [] of that portion of annual Net Sales of Licensed Product in the Territory, which, during the Calendar Year in question, is greater than [];

C equals [] of that portion of annual Net Sales of Licensed Product in the Territory, which, during the Calendar Year in question, is greater than []; and

D equals [] of that portion of annual Net Sales of Licensed Product in the Territory, which, during the Calendar Year in question, is greater than [].

ROYALTY REDUCTIONS—NO VALID CLAIMS

- 9.8 In countries of the Territory where, during the Royalty Term, [], then, subject to Section 9.11, the royalty rates set out in Section 9.7 shall be reduced by [].

ROYALTY REDUCTIONS – GENERIC PRODUCTS

- 9.9 If there is market entry of a Generic Product in a country or region in the Territory [], then subject to Section 9.11, the royalty rates set out in Section 9.7 shall be reduced by [].

ROYALTY REDUCTIONS – THIRD PARTY IP

- 9.10 If Licensee pays license fees or other consideration to a Third Party to obtain rights to or a license under [], then, subject to Section 9.11, Licensee will be entitled to deduct such license fees or other consideration paid by Licensee to such Third Party []. If Licensee pays license fees or other consideration to a Third Party to obtain rights to or a license under [], then, subject to Section 9.11, Licensee will be entitled to deduct [].

- 9.11 Notwithstanding the above, any royalty reduction made pursuant to Section 9.8, Section 9.9 or Section 9.10 shall in no event reduce the royalties due from Licensee to ReViral in any Calendar Quarter by [], provided that, [].
- 9.12 Within [] of the end of each Calendar Quarter Licensee shall send to ReViral a written report setting out, on a Licensed Product-by-Licensed Product and country-by-country or region-by-region basis, (i) the amount of Net Sales in such country during such Calendar Quarter expressed in the local currency of that country; and (ii) the amount of the royalties due to ReViral in relation to such Calendar Quarter. Licensee shall make all payments to ReViral under this Agreement in USD. To convert the local currency amounts set out in the report to USD []. Upon receipt of such report ReViral shall invoice the Licensee for the royalties due and Licensee shall pay the same to ReViral within [] of Licensee's receipt of such invoice.
- 9.13 The Licensee shall and shall cause its Affiliates, Sublicensees and distributors to keep full, true and accurate records and books of account containing all particulars that may be necessary for the purpose of calculating all payments due to ReViral under this Section 9 ("Payments") for a minimum period of [] after the time of the generation. Upon timely request by ReViral it shall have the right to instruct an independent accountant to perform an audit as it reasonably necessary to enable such accountant to report to ReViral whether or not Licensee's calculation of the Payments due to ReViral were calculated correctly in accordance with this Agreement on the following basis:
- 9.13.1 such accountant shall be given access to and shall be permitted to examine and copy such books and records of both the Licensee and any of its Affiliates, Sublicensees or distributors upon [] notice having been given by ReViral;
 - 9.13.2 prior to any such examination taking place, such accountant shall undertake to Licensee or a Sublicensee or distributor as appropriate that it shall keep all information and data contained in such books and records strictly confidential and shall not disclose such information or copies of such books and records to any third person other than ReViral and shall only use the same for the purpose of the reviews and calculations that they need to perform in order to issue the report to ReViral;
 - 9.13.3 any such audit shall occur no more frequently than [] per Calendar Year and will not go back over records more than [] unless a discrepancy is found;
 - 9.13.4 Licensee, its Affiliates, Sublicensees and distributors shall make available personnel to answer queries on all books and records required for the purpose of the report; and
 - 9.13.5 if the report indicates that Licensee's prior reports to ReViral of the amount of Payments were inaccurate, then ReViral shall notify Licensee of the accountant's calculations and within thirty (30) days of receipt of these by Licensee it shall notify ReViral whether or not Licensee agrees with the accountant's calculation.
 - 9.13.6 if Licensee notifies its agreement with the calculation within the [], then the amount calculated by the accountant shall be used for purposes of calculating any monies owed by Licensee to ReViral (in the event of an underpayment) or ReViral to Licensee (in the event of an overpayment). In the event of an underpayment, ReViral shall invoice Licensee for any balance due and Licensee shall pay the same within []. In the event of an overpayment, Licensee will credit the amount of such overpayment against future Payments to ReViral or, if no additional Payments are owed, then Licensee shall invoice ReViral for any balance due and ReViral shall pay the same within []. The cost of the accountant shall be the responsibility of ReViral unless the calculation shows that Licensee's previous figures to be inaccurate by more than [].

9.13.7 If Licensee notifies its disagreement with the calculation within the [] period and within [] after such notice the parties have not agreed about the calculation, either Party may refer the items in dispute to a partner of at least ten (10) years qualified experience at an independent, internationally recognised, public accounting firm for final and binding resolution. Such person appointed shall act on the following basis:

- (1) [];
- (2) [];
- (3) Licensee and ReViral shall each provide such person with all information relating to the items in dispute which such person reasonably requires and such person shall be entitled (to the extent he considers appropriate) to base his determination on such information;
- (4) the decision of such person is, in the absence of fraud or manifest error, []; and
- (5) [].

9.14 All payments made to ReViral under this Agreement shall be made by wire transfer to the account of ReViral or any other bank account that may be notified by ReViral to Licensee from time to time.

9.15 All payments to be made hereunder are exclusive of any applicable taxes, including withholding taxes and value-added taxes. In the event any withholding, value added, or other tax (including any tax based on income to ReViral) is required to be withheld and deducted from payments by Licensee under Applicable Laws, Licensee will make such deduction and withholding and will pay the remainder to ReViral, any amounts so withheld and deducted will be remitted by Licensee on a timely basis to the appropriate Competent Authority, and Licensee will be deemed to have fulfilled all of its payment obligation to ReViral with respect to such payments.

9.16 If Licensee fails to make any payment due to ReViral hereunder on the due date for payment and the payment is not in dispute between the parties, or the dispute has not been resolved, without prejudice to the other right or remedy available to ReViral, ReViral shall be entitled to charge Licensee interest (both before and after judgment) on the amount unpaid at the annual rate of [] computed from the date such payment was due until the date Licensee makes the payment.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

10.1 Disclosure and Ownership of new Inventions and Know How

10.1.1 Each Party shall [] disclose to the other Party, [], the making, conception, or reduction to practice of any Inventions relating to the Licensed Product arising when conducting any activities pursuant to this Agreement.

10.1.2 All right, title and interest in any and all Inventions (and all Patents and all Know How embodied in such Inventions) shall be owned by the Party or the Parties based on inventorship, as determined in accordance with the rules of inventorship under United States patent laws. Each Party shall solely own any Inventions made solely by its and its Affiliates' employees, agents, or independent contractors. Each Party shall require any such agents and contractors to assign to such Party all right, title and interest in and to such Inventions. The Parties shall jointly own any Invention that is made jointly by employees, agents, or independent contractors of one Party and its Affiliates together with employees, agents, or independent contractors of the other Party and its Affiliates (“Jointly Owned Inventions”). Except to the extent either Party is restricted by the licenses granted to the other Party under this Agreement, each Party shall be entitled to practice, license, assign and otherwise exploit any Jointly Owned Inventions without the duty of accounting or seeking consent from the other Party.

- 10.1.3 Subject to Section 10.1.2 all right, title and interest in and to any Know How generated by a Party, its Affiliates, licensees or contractors pursuant to activities carried out under this Agreement shall be owned by such Party.

10.2 Patent Prosecution

- 10.2.1 As between the Parties, ReViral shall have the first right (but not the obligation) to file, prosecute and maintain all Licensed Patents and Patents claiming Jointly Owned Inventions, if any throughout the world. For clarity, this shall include all filings for patent term extension. On a Quarterly basis and within [] after the receipt of [].
- 10.2.2 ReViral shall consult with Licensee and keep Licensee reasonably informed of the status of the Licensed Patents in the Territory and shall promptly provide Licensee with all material correspondence received from any patent authority in the Territory in connection therewith. In addition, ReViral shall promptly provide Licensee with drafts of all proposed material filings and correspondence to any patent authority in the Territory with respect to the Licensed Patents for Licensee’s review and comment reasonably in advance of the submission of such proposed filings and correspondences. ReViral shall confer with Licensee and consider in good faith Licensee’s reasonable business interests and incorporate Licensee’s reasonable comments thereon prior to submitting such filings and correspondences in the Territory, provided that [] shall provide such comments within [] of receiving the draft filings and correspondences from ReViral.
- 10.2.3 ReViral shall notify Licensee of any decision to cease prosecution or maintenance of any Licensed Patents in the Territory. ReViral shall provide such notice at least [] prior to any filing or payment due date, or any other due date that requires action, in connection with such Licensed Patent in the Territory. In such event, ReViral shall permit Licensee, at its discretion and at its sole expense, to continue prosecution or maintenance of such Licensed Patent in the Territory. Licensee’s prosecution or maintenance of such Licensed Patent shall not change the Parties’ respective rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to such Licensed Patent other than as expressly set forth in this Section 10.2.3. If Licensee makes such election to continue prosecution and maintenance, then ReViral shall (and shall cause its patent attorneys to) promptly transfer all applicable patent prosecution files (but, for clarity, not the ownership of the Licensed Patent) to Licensee or its designee.
- 10.2.4 [] any available patent term extensions or supplementary protection certificates with respect to any Patents (“Patent Term Extensions”), in each country and region []. [] shall have final decision-making authority with regard to the filing of Patent Term Extensions for the Licensed Patents in the Territory. Licensee agrees to consider in good faith any comments of ReViral as to whether to file any such Patent Term Extension. ReViral shall cooperate with Licensee with regard to obtaining Patent Term Extensions and shall provide to Licensee prompt and reasonable assistance as requested by Licensee, [], including by taking such action as may be required of the patent holder under any Applicable Laws to obtain such Patent Term Extension.

10.2.5 Each Party shall provide the other Party all reasonable assistance and cooperation in the patent prosecution efforts under this Section 10.2, including providing any necessary powers of attorney and executing any other required documents or instruments relating to such prosecution.

10.2.6 For avoidance of doubt, Licensee shall have the sole right to file, prosecute and maintain all Licensee Patents (but excluding Patents claiming Jointly Owned Inventions, if any), at Licensee's own cost and expense.

10.3 Patent Enforcement

10.3.1 Each Party shall promptly notify the other Party if it becomes aware of any suspected, threatened, or actual infringement by a Third Party of any of the Licensed Patents, which infringement adversely affects or could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the Licensed Products in the Territory, or any declaratory judgment, opposition, or similar action alleging the invalidity, unenforceability or non-infringement of any of the Licensed Patents in the Territory (collectively "Product Infringement").

10.3.2 As between the Parties, Licensee shall have the first right to bring and control any legal action in connection with such Product Infringement in the Territory at its own expense as it reasonably determines appropriate. If Licensee does not bring such legal action or take any other reasonable action within [] after the notice provided pursuant to Section 10.3.1 (or such shorter time period as may be required to avoid material prejudice to such action), then ReViral shall have the right to bring and control any legal action in connection with such Product Infringement in the Territory at its own expense as it reasonably determines appropriate.

10.3.3 At the request and expense of the Party bringing an action under this Section 10.3, the other Party shall provide reasonable assistance in connection therewith, including by executing reasonably appropriate documents, cooperating in discovery and joining as a party to the action if required by Applicable Laws to pursue such action. In connection with any such enforcement action, the enforcing Party shall keep the other Party reasonably informed on the status of such action and shall not enter into any settlement admitting the invalidity or non-infringement of, or otherwise impairing the other Party's rights in the Licensed Patents without the prior written consent of the other Party. The non-enforcing Party shall be entitled to separate representation in such enforcement action by counsel of its own choice and at its own expense.

10.3.4 Any recoveries resulting from enforcement action relating to a claim of Product Infringement in the Territory shall be first applied against payment of each Party's costs and expenses in connection therewith. Any such recoveries in excess of such costs and expenses shall be retained by the enforcing Party, provided that, [].

10.3.5 ReViral shall have the exclusive right to bring and control any legal action to enforce the Licensed Patents against any infringement that is not a Product Infringement or that is outside the Territory, in each case, at its own expense and as it reasonably determines appropriate, and shall have the right to retain all recoveries.

10.4 Infringement of Third Party Rights

- 10.4.1 Each Party shall bring to the attention of the other Party any Relevant Third Party Patent Right that it discovers where it believes that the conduct of Development, Manufacture, or Commercialisation of Licensed Products in a country or region of the Territory or outside the Territory would infringe the Relevant Third Party Patent Right. [].
- 10.4.2 [].
- 10.4.3 [].
- 10.4.4 If the Development, Manufacture or Commercialization in the Territory of any Licensed Product or other activity of either of the Parties pursuant to the Agreement is alleged by a Third Party to infringe a Third Party's Patents, the Party becoming aware of such allegation shall promptly notify the other Party. If any such allegation subsequently results in the Third Party bringing infringement proceedings, Licensee has the first right, but not the obligation, to control any defense of any such claim involving alleged infringement of Third Party Patents by Licensee's activities under this Agreement, at its own expense and by counsel of its own choice. ReViral shall provide reasonable assistance to Licensee for such defence and shall join in any such action if reasonably required by Licensee in order to defend such claim or to assert all available defences and claims, and shall cooperate reasonably with the Licensee.
- 10.4.5 With regard to any information (including materials) disclosed pursuant to this Agreement by one Party to the other Party regarding intellectual property rights owned or Controlled by Third Parties, the Parties agree that they have a common legal interest in determining whether, and to what extent, Third Party intellectual property rights may affect the Development, Manufacturing, or Commercialization of any Licensed Product, and have a further common legal interest in defending against any actual or prospective Third Party claims based on allegations of misuse or infringement of intellectual property rights relating to the Development, Manufacturing, or Commercialization of any Licensed Product. Accordingly, the Parties agree that all such information obtained by one Party from the other Party will be used solely for purposes of the Parties' common legal interests with respect to the conduct of this Agreement. All information will be treated as protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product privilege, and any other privilege or immunity that may otherwise be applicable. By sharing any information, neither Party intends to waive or limit any privilege or immunity that may apply to the shared information. Neither Party shall have the authority to waive any privilege or immunity on behalf of the other Party without such other Party's prior written consent, nor shall the waiver of privilege or immunity resulting from the conduct of one Party be deemed to apply against any other Party.

10.5 Patent Marking

Licensee shall mark the Licensed Products sold in the Territory in accordance with the applicable patent marking laws, and shall require all of its Affiliates and Sublicensees to do the same. To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, Licensee shall indicate on the product packaging, advertisement and promotional materials that the Licensed Products are in-licensed from ReViral.

- 10.6.1 Licensee may use the ReViral Trademark in relation to the Commercialisation of Licensed Product in the Territory and will make such determination in good faith and in consultation with ReViral through the JSC. The use by Licensee of the ReViral Trademark shall not constitute or imply any assignment or transfer of the ReViral Trademark or any goodwill associated therewith. Any goodwill accrued in connection with the use of the ReViral Trademark shall accrue solely to the benefit of ReViral. Licensee shall ensure that each reference to and use of the ReViral Trademark by Licensee in promotional materials is acceptable to ReViral and is accompanied by an acknowledgement that the ReViral Trademark is owned by ReViral and used by Licensee under licence.
- 10.6.2 Licensee acknowledges that ReViral may develop a global branding strategy for the Licensed Products and adopt key distinctive colors, logos, images, symbols, and trade dress to be used in connection with the Commercialization of the Licensed Products throughout the world (such branding elements, collectively, the “Global Brand Elements”). ReViral shall own all rights in the Global Brand Elements and shall register and maintain the Global Brand Elements in any country in the world as it determines reasonably necessary, at ReViral’s own cost and expense. Subject to Section 10.6.4, Licensee, its Affiliates and Licensees shall use reasonable efforts to Commercialize the Licensed Products in the Territory using the Global Brand Elements in a manner consistent with ReViral’s global branding strategy for the Licensed Products.
- 10.6.3 In circumstances where under local Applicable Law in a country or region of the Territory Licensee or its Affiliate is required to own the Trademark as part of holding Regulatory Approval for the Licensed Product in such country, Licensee shall supply ReViral with proof of this, and in such case the ReViral shall assign the ReViral Trademark in such country or region to Licensee or the Affiliate as relevant. Thereafter, Licensee shall be responsible, at its own cost and expense, for prosecution and maintenance of the ReViral Trademark in the Territory.
- 10.6.4 In circumstances where Licensee determines in good faith that it would not be appropriate to Commercialize the Licensed Product under the ReViral Trademark in a given country in the Territory, Licensee or an Affiliate as relevant may register a different trademark in such country in their name (“Licensee Trademark”).
- 10.6.5 Licensee shall not directly or indirectly challenge the validity of the ReViral Trademark and shall not aid or assist third parties to do so. ReViral shall not directly or indirectly challenge the validity of the Licensee Trademark and shall not aid or assist third parties to do so. Whatever use Licensee makes of the ReViral Trademark shall inure to the sole and exclusive benefit of the Licensed Product in accordance with this Agreement.
- 10.6.6 Neither Party shall use the other Party’s corporate name, or use any trademarks of the other Party (other than the ReViral Trademark or Licensee Trademark) in connection with any promotional materials or publication without the other Party’s prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. The above restriction will not apply to representations that Licensee is the exclusive licensee of ReViral for the Licensed Product in the Territory.
- 10.6.7 In the case of infringement or misuse of the ReViral Trademark in the Territory, if ReViral fails to initiate proceedings within [] of Licensee’s delivery of notice to ReViral identifying the infringement, Licensee may give ReViral notice requesting ReViral to take such proceedings within [] of the date of this second notice. If ReViral fails to initiate such proceedings within such period, Licensee shall be entitled to do so at its own cost and expense in which case it shall have sole conduct of any claim or proceedings. ReViral shall, and shall procure that its Affiliates shall, reasonably assist and cooperate with Licensee in any such claim, provided that []. Such reasonable assistance and cooperation of ReViral and its Affiliates shall include the execution of such documents and the performance of such other acts as may be reasonably required to facilitate such claim, including such documents and acts that may, upon Licensee's request, be required for the registration of the Licensee as exclusive licensee of the ReViral Trademark in the Territory at the trademark office in the relevant countries of the Territory. Licensee shall have sole right to settle such proceedings provided such settlement does not adversely affect ReViral's rights and interests outside of the Territory, and shall be entitled to retain any financial payment awarded in such proceedings or agreed in any such settlement for its own account.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 11.1 Licensee and ReViral, on behalf of themselves and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, consultants and Affiliates ("Representatives"), undertake that during the Term and for [] after the expiration or any termination of the Agreement for any reason: (i) all Confidential Information shall be treated in confidence by Recipient Party Representatives and shall only be used by Recipient Party Representatives or furnished to any third party for purposes consistent with the Agreement and (ii) Recipient Party Representatives shall treat all Confidential Information provided by the Disclosing Party with the same degree of care as the Recipient Party uses for its own similar information, and in any event shall take reasonable and appropriate precautions to observe confidentiality of, and not disclose, the Confidential Information. Recipient Party shall take all commercially reasonable measures to ensure that Representatives other than itself observe strict secrecy in respect of any of the Confidential Information and that disclosure to such Representatives is limited to only those persons who have a need to know same for the purpose of performing the Agreement. Representatives who are not employees of Licensee or an Affiliate must be obligated to substantially the same extent as set forth in this Section 11.1 to hold in confidence and not make use of such Confidential Information for any purpose other than those permitted by this Agreement.
- 11.2 ReViral shall be considered the Disclosing Party and Licensee the Recipient Party with respect to the Licensed Know How and, to the extent Confidential Information, Regulatory Documents within the Licensed IPR; Licensee shall be considered the Disclosing Party and ReViral the Recipient Party with respect to the Licensee Know How and, to the extent Confidential Information, Regulatory Documents within the Licensee IPR; and each Party will be considered a Disclosing Party and a Recipient Party with respect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 11.3 The following information shall not be Confidential Information, and the obligations set out in Section 11.1 shall not apply to such information, if the Recipient Party can show such information:
- 11.3.1 was generally available in the public domain at the time it was disclosed to the Recipient Party or subsequently came into the public domain through no fault of the Recipient Party;
 - 11.3.2 was known to the Recipient Party at the time it was disclosed and either (i) the person that was the source of such Confidential Information had itself received it from the Disclosing Party but under no obligation of confidence to the Disclosing Party; or (ii) the person that was the source of such Confidential Information was an independent third party, with no connection or relationship with the Disclosing Party, and had generated the Confidential Information independently;
 - 11.3.3 is subsequently disclosed to the Recipient Party or any of its Affiliates without obligation of confidentiality by a Third Party who may rightfully do so and is not under a conflicting obligation of confidentiality to the Disclosing Party;

- 11.3.4 is developed by the Recipient Party or any of its Affiliates independently and without use of or reference to any Confidential Information received from the Disclosing Party, as documented by the Receiving Party's business records.
- 11.4 For clarity, specific aspects or details of Confidential Information shall not be deemed to be within the public domain or in the possession of the recipient party merely because the Confidential Information is embraced by more general information in the public domain or in the possession of the recipient party. Further, any combination of Confidential Information shall not be considered in the public domain or in the possession of the recipient party merely because individual elements of such Confidential Information are in the public domain or in the possession of the recipient party unless the combination is in the public domain or in the possession of the recipient party.
- 11.5 Notwithstanding the above obligations of confidentiality and non-use, a Recipient Party may:
- 11.5.1 disclose Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to: (i) such Recipient Party's Affiliates, licensees and Sublicensees; and (ii) employees, directors, officers, agents, contractors, consultants, attorneys, accountants, and advisors of the Recipient Party and its Affiliates, licensees, and Sublicensees, in each case ((i) and (ii)), to the extent reasonably necessary for the purposes of, and for those matters undertaken pursuant to, this Agreement; provided that such Persons are bound by legally enforceable obligations of confidentiality and non-use with respect to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information no less stringent than the confidentiality and non-use obligations set forth in this Agreement. Each Party will remain responsible for any failure by its Affiliates, licensees, and Sublicensees, and its and its Affiliates', licensees', and Sublicensees' respective employees, directors, officers, agents, consultants, attorneys, accountants, advisors, and contractors, in each case, to treat such Confidential Information as required under this Section 11 (as if such Affiliates, licensees, Sublicensees, employees, directors, officers agents, consultants, advisors, attorneys, accountants, banks, investors, and contractors were Parties directly bound to the requirements of this Section 11); and
 - 11.5.2 disclose Confidential Information to a Regulatory Authority as reasonably necessary to obtain Regulatory Approval in a particular jurisdiction to the extent consistent with the licenses granted under terms of this Agreement; and
 - 11.5.3 disclose Confidential Information: (i) to the extent such disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with the order of a court; or (ii) to the extent such disclosure is required to comply with Applicable Laws, including to the extent such disclosure is required in publicly filed financial statements or other public statements under rules governing a stock exchange; provided, to the extent possible bearing in mind such Applicable Laws and subject to the next subsequent sentence of this Section 11.5.3, such Party shall provide the other Party with a copy of the proposed text of such statements or disclosure [] in advance of the date on which the disclosure is to be made to enable the other Party to review and provide comments, which the disclosing Party will consider in good faith. If the compliance with an Applicable Law requires filing of this Agreement, the filing Party shall to the extent possible seek confidential treatment of portions of this Agreement from the relevant Competent Authority and shall provide the other Party with a copy of the proposed filings at least [] prior to filing for the other Party to review and comment on any such proposed redactions, and the filing Party will consider such comments in good faith. Confidential Information that is disclosed in order to comply with Applicable Law or by judicial or administrative process pursuant to this Section 11.5.3 in each case, will remain otherwise subject to the confidentiality and non-use provisions of this Section 11 with respect to the Party disclosing such Confidential Information, and such Party will take all steps reasonably necessary, including seeking of confidential treatment or a protective order for a period of at least [] (to the extent permitted by Applicable Law or Competent Authority), to ensure the continued confidential treatment of such Confidential Information. Each Party agrees that it will obtain its own legal advice with regard to its compliance with Applicable Laws and will not rely on any statements made by the other Party relating to such Applicable Laws; and

- 11.5.4 disclose Confidential Information: (i) to its actual or potential investment bankers; (ii) to existing and potential investors, (sub)licensees, lenders, and other financial or commercial partners (including in connection with any royalty factoring transaction), and their respective attorneys, accountants, banks, investors, and advisors, solely for the purpose of evaluating or carrying out an actual or potential investment, (sub)license, debt transaction, or collaboration; and (iii) to a bona fide potential acquirer or merger partner for the purposes of evaluating entering into a merger or acquisition, provided, however, any such persons must be obligated to substantially the same extent as set forth in Section 11 to hold in confidence and not make use of such Confidential Information for any purpose other than those permitted by this Agreement; and

- 11.5.5 disclose Confidential Information to its legal advisers for the purpose of seeking advice.

- 11.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, if a Party is required or permitted to make a disclosure of the other Party's Confidential Information pursuant to Section 11.5.2 or Section 11.5.3 then it will, to the extent not prohibited by Applicable Law or judicial or administrative process, except where impracticable, give reasonable advance notice to the other Party of such proposed disclosure and use reasonable efforts to secure confidential treatment of such information and will only disclose that portion of Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed as advised by its legal counsel. In any event, each Party agrees to take all reasonable action to avoid disclosure of Confidential Information of the other Party hereunder.
- 11.7 Nothing in this Section 11 will limit either Party in any way from disclosing to any Third Party such Party's U.S. or foreign income tax treatment and the United States or foreign income tax structure of the transactions relating to such Party that are based on or derived from this Agreement, or materials of any kind (including opinions or other tax analyses) relating to such tax treatment or tax structure, except to the extent that nondisclosure of such matters is reasonably necessary in order to comply with applicable securities laws.
- 11.8 Nothing in this Section 11 restricts either Party from using or disclosing any of its own Confidential Information for any purpose whatsoever, subject always to the rights granted in this Agreement and provided always that Licensee shall not under any circumstances publish the results of any Clinical Studies on Licensed Product without the prior written approval of the ReViral.
- 11.9 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, Confidential Information will not include any knowledge, technique, experience, or Know How that is retained in the unaided memory of any authorized representative of the Recipient Party after having access to such Confidential Information ("Residual Knowledge"). Any use made by the Recipient Party of any such Residual Knowledge is on an "as is, where is" basis, with all faults and all representations and warranties disclaimed and at its sole risk.
- 11.10 Other than the press releases pertaining to this transaction that the Parties have agreed upon and attached as Exhibit F to this Agreement and save as permitted in Section 11.5 neither Party shall make any public announcement or statement to the public containing Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the other. No such public announcements or statements shall be made without the prior review and consent of the appropriate individual designated for the purpose by the other Party.

12. REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS

BY REVIRAL

12.1 ReViral makes the following representations, warranties and covenants at the Effective Date:

- 12.1.1 ReViral is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of England and Wales and has full corporate power and authority to enter into the Agreement and to carry out its provisions.
- 12.1.2 ReViral is duly authorized to execute and deliver the Agreement and to perform its obligations under the Agreement. The person executing the Agreement on ReViral's behalf has been duly authorized to do so by all requisite corporate action.
- 12.1.3 The Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon ReViral and enforceable in accordance with its terms (subject to the applicable laws of bankruptcy and moratorium). The execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement by ReViral will not (i) be prevented or impaired by any agreement, instrument or understanding, oral or written, to which ReViral or its Affiliates is a party or by which they are bound; or (ii) violate any Legal Requirement to which they are subject.
- 12.1.4 ReViral is not aware of any action, suit, inquiry, investigation or proceeding instituted by any Competent Authority or by any other person or Licensee that might question or threaten the validity of the Agreement.
- 12.1.5 Except as disclosed in the Disclosure Letter:
 - (a) ReViral is the sole owner of the entire right, title and interest in and to the Licensed Patents and Licensed Know How existing at the Effective Date and ReViral has not previously entered into any agreement, whether written or oral, with respect to, or otherwise assigned, licensed, transferred, conveyed or otherwise encumbered its right, title or interest in or to such Licensed Patents or Licensed Know How for the Territory (including by granting any covenant not to sue with respect thereto). There are no Patents or Know How owned but not Controlled by ReViral or any of its Affiliates that would constitute Licensed Patents or Licensed Know How, as applicable, if Controlled by ReViral or its Affiliate. The conception, development and reduction to practice of the Licensed Patents and Licensed Know How existing as of the Effective Date have not constituted or involved, nor has any Person alleged, the misappropriation of trade secrets or other rights or property of any Person;
 - (b) The Patent List sets forth a complete and accurate list of all Patents existing as of the Effective Date that are Controlled by ReViral relating to the Licensed Product in the Territory which as of the Effective Date are necessary or reasonably useful for Licensee to perform its obligations hereunder and enjoy the benefit of the licenses and rights granted to it hereunder;
 - (c) [] (i) all Licensed Patents are being diligently prosecuted in the respective patent offices in accordance with Applicable Law; ReViral and its Affiliates have presented all references, documents, or information for which it and the inventors had a duty to disclose under the Applicable Law, including 37 C.F.R. 1.56 or its foreign equivalent, to the relevant patent examiners at the relevant patent offices for each Licensed Patent; (ii) the inventorship of the Licensed Patents is properly identified on each issued patent or patent application in the Licensed Patents; and (iii) all fees required to be paid by ReViral in any jurisdiction in the Territory order to maintain the Licensed Patents have been timely paid and such Licensed Patents are subsisting and, [], the claims of all issued, unexpired Licensed Patents are valid under applicable patent laws and ReViral is not aware of any reason why those claims would not be enforceable under applicable patent laws;

- (d) Licensee has been provided copies of all patent searches relating to the Licensed Patents to investigate freedom to operate that have actually been undertaken by ReViral or its Affiliates prior to the Effective Date;
- (e) [], there is no current unauthorized use, infringement, or misappropriation of any Licensed IPR by any Third Party;
- (f) No notification has been received by ReViral or its Affiliates of any claim or litigation brought (and no such claim has been brought) or threatened in writing by any Person (i) challenging the ownership, scope, duration, validity, enforceability, priority, or right to use any Licensed Patent (including, by way of example, through the institution of or written threat of institution of interference, inter partes review, reexamination, protest, opposition, nullity, or similar invalidity proceeding before the United States Patent and Trademark Office or any foreign patent authority or court), (ii) alleging that the disclosing, copying, making, licensing, assigning or exploiting of Licensed IPR in the Territory violates, infringes or otherwise conflicts or interferes with any intellectual property or proprietary right of any Person;
- (g) To the extent permissible under Applicable Law, (i) all employees, agents, consultants, contractors or other representatives of ReViral or its Affiliates performing activities under this Agreement are under an obligation to assign all rights, title, and interests in and to their Inventions and other Know How, whether or not patentable, and intellectual property therein, to ReViral or its Affiliates as the sole owner thereof; (ii) Licensee will have no obligation to contribute to any remuneration of any inventor employed or previously employed by ReViral or any of its Affiliates in respect of any such Inventions and other Know How and intellectual property therein that are so assigned to ReViral or its Affiliate(s); and (iii) ReViral will pay all such remuneration due to such Inventions and other Know How and intellectual property rights therein;
- (h) [], the practice by Licensee under the Licensed IPR or the Exploitation by Licensee or ReViral (or their respective Affiliates or Sublicensees) of any Licensed Product, in each case, as contemplated under this Agreement in the Territory, will not infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate any intellectual property of any Third Party;
- (i) ReViral has taken commercially reasonable measures consistent with industry practices to protect the secrecy, confidentiality, and value of all Licensed Know How that constitutes trade secrets under Applicable Law. [], the Licensed Know How existing at the Effective Date has been kept confidential or has been disclosed to Third Parties only under terms of confidentiality;
- (j) ReViral and its Affiliates have conducted all Development of Compounds and Licensed Products in accordance with all Applicable Law in all material respects;

- (k) As of the Effective Date, ReViral maintains Control over all Regulatory Documents pertaining to the Licensed Products in the Field;
- (l) ReViral has furnished or made available to Licensee or its agents or representatives (i) all information requested by Licensee, (ii) all material (as determined by ReViral in its reasonable discretion) safety and efficacy data existing as of the Effective Date, and (iii) all material (as determined by ReViral in its reasonable discretion) Regulatory Documents and other material correspondence with Regulatory Authorities, in each case ((i) through (iii)), concerning the Licensed Product (in each case in the form being Developed by ReViral or any of its Affiliates as of the Effective Date); and
- (m) (i) [], there are no scientific or technical facts or circumstances that have not been disclosed to Licensee, and that would adversely affect the scientific, therapeutic, or commercial potential of the Licensed Product; (ii) there is nothing within ReViral's Control that has not been disclosed to Licensee and that could adversely affect the acceptance, or the subsequent approval, by any Regulatory Authority of any Regulatory Documents; and (iii) [], there are no safety, efficacy, or regulatory issues that would preclude Licensee from Exploiting the Licensed Products in the Territory in compliance with the Applicable Law.

BY THE LICENSEE

12.2 Licensee makes the following representations, warranties and covenants as of the Effective Date:

- 12.2.1 Corporate Power. Licensee is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of Delaware and has full corporate power and authority to enter into the Agreement and carry out the provisions of the Agreement.
- 12.2.2 Due Authorization. Licensee is duly authorized to execute and deliver the Agreement and to perform its obligations under the Agreement. The person executing the Agreement on Licensee's behalf has been duly authorized to do so by all requisite corporate action.
- 12.2.3 Binding Agreement. The Agreement is a legal and valid obligation binding upon Licensee and enforceable in accordance with its terms (subject to the applicable laws of bankruptcy and moratorium). The execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement by Licensee will not (i) be prevented or impaired by any agreement, instrument or understanding, oral or written, to which Licensee or its Affiliates is a party or by which they are bound; or (ii) violate any Legal Requirement to which they are subject.
- 12.2.4 Validity. Licensee [] any action, suit, inquiry, investigation or proceeding instituted by any Competent Authority or by any other person or Licensee that might question or threaten the validity of the Agreement.
- 12.2.5 To the extent permissible under Applicable Law, (i) all employees, agents, consultants, contractors or other representatives of Licensee or its Affiliates performing activities under this Agreement are under an obligation to assign all rights, title, and interests in and to their Inventions and other Know How, whether or not patentable, and intellectual property therein, to Licensee or its Affiliates as the sole owner thereof; (ii) ReViral will have no obligation to contribute to any remuneration of any inventor employed or previously employed by Licensee or any of its Affiliates in respect of any such Inventions and other Know How and intellectual property therein that are so assigned to Licensee or its Affiliate(s); and (iii) Licensee will pay all such remuneration due to such Inventions and other Know How and intellectual property rights therein

- 12.3 Each Party additionally represents and warrants to the other Party that, as of the Effective Date:
- 12.3.1 neither such Party, its Affiliates, nor any director, officer, employee, agent or shareholder of any such person (“Official”), has made any unlawful bribe, rebate, payoff, influence payment or kickback or has taken any other action that would violate any Anti-Bribery Law to which it is subject;
 - 12.3.2 it has or will promptly institute and maintain policies and procedures designed to ensure, and that are reasonably expected to continue to ensure, continued compliance with any Anti-Bribery Law to which it is subject in particular as regards interactions with healthcare professionals and provides regular training to its employees on such policies and procedures;
 - 12.3.3 during the past [], it has not received any written communication indicating or alleging that any Official is or may be in violation of any Anti-Bribery Law, or that any Official is or may be subject to any investigation or inquiry by a Competent Authority related to any Anti-Bribery Law, and [] no such investigation or inquiry is pending or threatened.
- 12.4 Each Party covenants and agrees that:
- 12.4.1 it will not utilize in connection with the Development or Commercialization of the Licensed Product any person or entities that are debarred by the FDA pursuant to the provisions of the Generic Drug Enforcement Act of 1992 (21 U.S.C. § 335) or any similar legislation in the Territory;
 - 12.4.2 neither such Party, its Affiliates, nor any director, officer, employee, agent or shareholder of any such person (“Official”), will make any unlawful bribe, rebate, payoff, influence payment or kickback or take any other action that would violate any Anti-Bribery Law to which it is subject; and
 - 12.4.3 it will maintain policies and procedures designed to ensure, and that are reasonably expected to continue to ensure, continued compliance with any Anti-Bribery Law to which it is subject in particular as regards interactions with healthcare professionals, and will provide regular training to its employees on such policies and procedures.
 - 12.4.4 Should Licensee breach the covenants of this Section 12.4 at any time, such breach shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.
- 12.5 EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS AND EXCLUDES ANY AND ALL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, INCLUDING THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.
- 12.6 Except with respect to (i) claims for gross negligence or wilful misconduct, (ii) breaches of Section 3, Section 11, or Section 12.1.5(a), and (iii) Third Party claims the subject of Sections 13.1 and 13.2, neither Party shall be liable to the other in contract, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise for any loss, damage, costs or expenses of any nature whatsoever incurred or suffered by the other or its Affiliates:

- 12.6.1 of a direct nature where the same is a loss of turnover, profits, business or goodwill; or
- 12.6.2 an indirect or consequential or punitive nature, including any indirect or consequential economic loss or other indirect or consequential loss of turnover, profits, loss of enterprise value, business or goodwill or otherwise.
- 12.7 Nothing in this Agreement shall be taken to exclude or limit either Party's liability to the extent that such liability cannot be excluded or limited in law including for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
13. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE COVER
- 13.1 Except as otherwise provided in Section 13.2, Licensee shall defend, indemnify and hold ReViral, its Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "ReViral Indemnitee") harmless from and against any Losses resulting from any Third Party claims, suits, actions or demands to the extent such Losses arise directly or indirectly out of: (i) the breach by Licensee of any of its representations, warranties, or covenants under this Agreement; (ii) the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of Licensee or its Affiliate or Sublicensee, or any officer, director, employee, agent, or representative thereof; or (iii) any claims of any nature arising out of the Exploitation of any Licensed Product by or on behalf of Licensee (other than by any ReViral Indemnitee), including any claim based on alleged or actual bodily injury or death or other product liability type claims resulting from the use of the Licensed Product in the Territory including Losses that are specifically and proximately due to intrinsic defects or defects in the Licensed Product, but excluding Losses to the extent due to manufacturing defects existing in CTM when it is delivered to Licensee, its Affiliate or Sublicensee by or on behalf of ReViral under Section 7, as these Losses are the subject of Section 13.2.
- 13.2 ReViral shall defend, indemnify and hold Licensee, its Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees and agents (each, a "Licensee Indemnitee") harmless from and against any Losses resulting from any Third Party claims, suits, actions or demands to the extent such Losses arise directly or indirectly out of: (i) the breach by ReViral of any of its representations, warranties, or covenants under this Agreement; (ii) any claims of any nature arising out of any Exploitation of any Licensed Product by or on behalf of ReViral; (iii) the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of ReViral or its Affiliate or Sublicensee, or any officer, director, employee, agent, or representative thereof; or (iv) any claim based on alleged or actual bodily injury or death or other product liability type claims resulting from use of the Licensed Product in the Territory to the extent due to manufacturing defects existing in CTM when it is delivered to Licensee, its Affiliate or Sublicensee by or on behalf of ReViral under Section 7.
- 13.3 An indemnified person under Sections 13.1 or 13.2 ("Indemnified Party") shall give the indemnifying party ("Indemnifying Party") prompt written notice of any Loss or discovery of any relevant Third Party claim ("Third Party Claim") upon which such Indemnified Party intends to base a request for indemnification (an "Indemnification Claim Notice"). Where required the Indemnifying Party shall promptly send a copy of the Indemnification Claim Notice to its relevant insurers and shall permit them to exercise their rights of subrogation and hereafter in this Section 13.3 "Indemnifying Party" shall be deemed to include any such insurers. Failure by an Indemnified Party to give an Indemnification Claim Notice as provided in this Section 13.3 will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of its indemnification obligation under this Agreement, except and only to the extent that such Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure to give notice. Each Indemnification Claim Notice shall contain a description of the claim and the nature and amount of the Loss claimed (to the extent that the nature and amount of such Loss is known at such time). The Indemnified Party shall furnish promptly to the Indemnifying Party copies of all correspondence, communications and official documents (including court documents) received in respect of any such Loss. For the avoidance of doubt, all indemnification claims in respect of a Party, its Affiliates or their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (each, an "Indemnitee") shall be made solely by a Party to this Agreement or its insurers, provided that a Party can make a claim on behalf of its Indemnitees.

13.4 The obligations of an Indemnifying Party under this Section 13 shall be governed by and contingent upon the following:

- 13.4.1 At its option, the Indemnifying Party may assume control of the defense of any Third Party Claim (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include the conduct of all dealings with such third party) by giving written notice to the Indemnified Party within [] after the Indemnifying Party's receipt of an Indemnification Claim Notice.
- 13.4.2 Upon the assumption of the control of the defense of a Third Party Claim by the Indemnifying Party:
- (a) subject to the provisions of Section 13.4.3, it shall have the right to and shall assume sole control and responsibility for dealing with the third party and the Third Party Claim, including the right to settle the claim on any terms the Indemnifying Party chooses, but at all times in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.4.5;
 - (b) if it chooses, the Indemnifying Party may appoint as counsel in the defense of the Third Party Claim any law firm or counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party; and
 - (c) except as expressly provided in Section 13.4.3, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party for any legal expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with the analysis, defense or settlement of the Third Party Claim.
- 13.4.3 If the Indemnifying Party chooses not to control the defense of any Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party may control such defense (with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld).
- 13.4.4 Without limiting the remainder of this Section 13.4, the Party not controlling the defense of a Third Party Claim may participate therein at its own expense.
- 13.4.5 The Party controlling the defense of any Third Party Claim will keep the other Party advised of the status and material developments of such Third Party Claim and the defense thereof and will reasonably consider recommendations made by the other Party with respect thereto. The other Party will reasonably cooperate with the Party controlling such defense and its Affiliates and agents in defense of the Third Party Claim, with all out-of-pocket costs of such cooperation to be borne by the Party controlling such defense.
- 13.4.6 The Indemnifying Party shall not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed (unless such compromise or settlement involves (i) any admission of legal wrongdoing by the Indemnified Party, (ii) any payment by the Indemnified Party that is not indemnified under this Agreement, or (iii) the imposition of any equitable relief against the Indemnified Party (in which case, (i) through (iii), the Indemnified Party may withhold its consent to such settlement in its sole discretion)), agree to any settlement of such Third Party Claim or consent to any judgment in respect thereof that does not include a complete and unconditional release of the Indemnified Party from all liability with respect thereto or that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnified Party (other than a monetary obligation on the Indemnifying Party).

- 13.4.7 The Indemnified Party shall not admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, any Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement or other disposition of Losses by an Indemnified Party under such a Third Party Claim that is reached without the written consent of the Indemnifying Party not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 13.4.8 Except as expressly provided above, the reasonable and verifiable costs and expenses, including fees and disbursements of counsel, incurred by the Indemnified Party where it participates in the defence under Section 13.4.3 or Section 13.4.5 shall be reimbursed on a quarterly basis by the Indemnifying Party, without prejudice to the Indemnifying Party's right to contest the Indemnified Party's right to indemnification and subject to refund in the event the Indemnifying Party is ultimately held not to be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Party.
- 13.5 Each Party shall maintain, at its own cost, the insurance coverages set forth in this Section 13.5:
- 13.5.1 Commencing as of the date Licensee files an IND for Licensed Product in the Territory, and thereafter for the period of time required under Section 13.6, each Party shall obtain and maintain on an ongoing basis, products liability insurance, including contractual liability, in the minimum amount of [] per occurrence, combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage liability.
- 13.6 The following provisions apply:
- 13.6.1 All insurance coverages shall be primary insurance with respect to each Party's own participation under this Agreement, and shall be maintained with an insurance Licensee or companies having an A.M. Best's rating (or its equivalent) of A-XII or better.
- 13.6.2 The insurance policies shall be under an occurrence form, but if only a claims-made form is available to a Party, then in such a case, such Party shall maintain the insurance coverage for at least [] following such Party's completing performance of its obligations under this Agreement.
- 13.6.3 Each Party's aggregate deductibles under its commercial general liability and products liability and other insurance policies shall be reasonably satisfactory to the other Party, taking into account the deductibles that are prudent and customary with respect to the activities in which it is engaged under this Agreement.
- 13.6.4 Each Party shall provide to the other Party its respective certificates of insurance evidencing the insurance coverages set forth in Section 13.5 Each Party shall provide to the other Party at least [] prior written notice of any cancellation, non-renewal or material change in any of the insurance coverages. Each Party shall, upon receipt of written request from the other Party, provide renewal certificates to the other Party for as long as such Party is required to maintain insurance coverages hereunder.
14. TERM AND TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT
- 14.1 The Agreement shall enter into force and effect on the Effective Date and shall remain in full force and effect on a country-by-country or region-by-region basis in the Territory for the duration of the Royalty Term, subject to earlier termination as provided in this Agreement. At the expiry of the Royalty Term in each country or region of the Territory the licenses granted to the Licensee hereunder in such country or region shall become perpetual, irrevocable, fully paid up, royalty free and fully sublicenseable and transferable in such country.

- 14.2 Licensee shall have the right during the Term to terminate this Agreement at will and for any reason by giving not less than [] prior written notice to ReViral at any time prior to the First Commercial Sale Date, or []. Until the effective date of termination, Licensee shall be responsible for performing all of its obligations hereunder. For clarity, any milestone and other payments due to ReViral during such [] or [] period, as applicable, shall remain payable by Licensee. Licensee shall terminate the Agreement as set forth under this Section 14.2 if it determines, in its sole discretion, to permanently terminate all Development and Commercialization of all Licensed Products throughout the Territory.
- 14.3 Either Party (“Non-Breaching Party”) shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if the other Party (“Breaching Party”) has materially breached this Agreement, effective (i) upon [] written notice, if the nature of the breach is incapable of remedy or if the breach is of a financial obligation capable of remedy that shall not have been remedied within such [] period; or (ii) in the case of all other material breaches of this Agreement capable of remedy, upon giving [] written notice, if the breach has not been remedied within such [] period. The written notice describing the alleged material breach will provide sufficient detail to put the Breaching Party on notice of such material breach. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, if such material breach (other than a material breach arising from a financial obligation) cannot be reasonably cured during the foregoing cure period, but is capable of cure within [], then the Breaching Party may submit to the Non-Breaching Party a reasonable cure plan to remedy such material breach that is reasonably acceptable to the Non-Breaching Party, and upon such submission, the applicable cure period will automatically be extended for so long as the Breaching Party continues to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such material breach in accordance with such cure plan, but for no more than [] from receipt of written notice of such breach. If the Breaching Party is Licensee and the breach relates to one region or country only or a group of regions or countries of the Territory, then ReViral shall only have the right to terminate this Agreement in relation to such region(s) or country(ies). If the Breaching Party in good faith disputes such material breach or disputes the failure to cure or remedy such material breach and provides written notice of that dispute to the Non-Breaching Party within the above time period, then the matter will be addressed under the dispute resolution provisions in Section 16.3, the relevant cure period will be tolled during the pendency of such dispute resolution proceeding, and the Non-Breaching Party may not terminate this Agreement until (a) it has been determined under Section 16.3 that the Breaching Party is in material breach of this Agreement and (b) such cure period expires without the material breach having been cured by the Breaching Party. For clarity, a failure by ReViral to supply CTM ordered by Licensee shall not constitute a material breach of this Agreement, provided that any breach of this Agreement by Licensee proximately caused by ReViral’s failure to supply CTM shall not give rise to a right of ReViral to terminate this Agreement.
- 14.4 If an Insolvency Event occurs in relation to a Party, the other Party may terminate this Agreement immediately on written notice to insolvent Party.
- 14.5 ReViral may terminate this Agreement in its entirety upon [] written notice to Licensee if Licensee or any of its Affiliates (directly or indirectly, including in association with any other Person) challenges the validity of the Licensed Patents in a legal proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction. Any such termination shall only become effective if Licensee or its Affiliate or the other Person has not withdrawn or settled such action before the end of the above notice period. Licensee shall use reasonable efforts to bind any Sublicensees to similar provisions. For the avoidance of doubt, ReViral may not terminate this Agreement if ReViral or its Affiliate is required by legal process to be joined as a party in any patent challenge by a Third Party. In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing, ReViral will have no right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 14.5 with respect to: (i) any affirmative defense or other validity, enforceability, or non-infringement challenge, whether in the same action or in any other agency or forum of competent jurisdiction, advanced by Licensee, or any of its Affiliates in response to any claim or action brought in the first instance by, or on behalf of, ReViral or any Third Party, or (ii) any patent challenge to the extent commenced by a Third Party that after the Effective Date acquires or is acquired by Licensee or any of its Affiliates or its or their business or assets, whether by stock purchase, merger, asset purchase, or otherwise; provided that such proceeding commenced prior to the closing of such acquisition.

- 14.6 Termination of this Agreement by the Licensee under Section 14.2, or by ReViral under Sections 14.3, 14.4, or 14.5 shall result in the following consequences in the applicable Terminated Region(s):
- 14.6.1 All licenses and rights granted by ReViral to Licensee under the Agreement shall terminate in the Terminated Region. The Licensee shall immediately cease all use of the Licensed IPR and shall cease all Development, Manufacturing and Commercialisation activity (subject to the remainder of this Section 14.6) in the Terminated Region.
 - 14.6.2 The rights and licenses granted to ReViral in the Terminated Region under Section 2.4 shall be irrevocable with respect to Licensee IPR owned by Licensee. In the case of Licensee IP that is in-licensed by Licensee or one of its Affiliates from a Third Party, the rights and licenses granted to ReViral under Section 2.4 shall survive termination of this Agreement and shall be co-terminus with the license received by Licensee or such Affiliate, as applicable.
 - 14.6.3 Upon the request of any Sublicensee in the Terminated Region not then in breach of its sublicense agreement or the terms of this Agreement applicable to such Sublicensee, ReViral will enter into a direct license from ReViral to such Sublicensee on the same terms as this Agreement, taking into account any difference in license scope, territory, and duration of sublicense grant (each a "New License Agreement"). Under any such New License Agreement between ReViral and such former Sublicensee, such Sublicensee will be required to pay to ReViral the same amounts in consideration for such direct grant as ReViral would have otherwise received from Licensee pursuant to this Agreement on account of such Sublicensee's Exploitation of the Licensed Products had this Agreement not been terminated. Under such New License Agreement, the Parties agree that ReViral will not be bound by any grant of rights broader than, and will not be required to perform any obligation other than those rights and obligations contained in, this Agreement and all applicable rights of ReViral set forth in this Agreement will be included in such New License Agreement.
 - 14.6.4 Licensee will promptly re-assign to ReViral any ReViral Trademarks Controlled by Licensee in the Terminated Region.
 - 14.6.5 If there are any on-going Development or Commercialization activities in the Terminated Region at the time of termination, the Parties will negotiate in good faith and adopt a plan to wind-down such activities in an orderly fashion or, at ReViral's election, promptly transition such activities from Licensee to ReViral or its designee, with due regard for patient safety and the rights of any subjects that are participants in any Clinical Trials of the Licensed Products, and take any actions it deems reasonably necessary or appropriate to avoid any human health or safety problems and in compliance with all Applicable Laws.
 - 14.6.6 Each Party will destroy all Confidential Information of the other Party relating to the Terminated Region in its possession as of the effective date of termination (with the exception of one copy of such Confidential Information, which may be retained by the legal department of the applicable Receiving Party to confirm compliance with the non-use and non-disclosure provisions of this Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, such Receiving Party shall not be required to destroy any computer files created during automatic system back up that are subsequently stored securely by it and not readily accessible to its employees, consultants, or others who received such Confidential Information under this Agreement.

- 14.6.7 Licensee hereby grants to ReViral an exclusive, perpetual, sublicenseable license (through multiple tiers), on the financial terms described below, to use the Licensee IPR and Licensee Commercial Information as such Licensee IPR and Licensee Commercial Information exists as of the effective date of date of termination, inside the Terminated Region to further Develop and Commercialise the Licensed Products (in the form such Licensed Products exist as of the effective date of termination.) Licensee shall within [] of the effective date of termination transfer to ReViral the Licensee Know How, Licensee Commercial Information, and Territory Dossiers for the Terminated Region (including any of the same in the possession of a Sublicensee or distributor of the Licensee, to the extent Controlled by Licensee). Licensee shall as soon as [] after the effective date of termination (i) assign to ReViral any Licensee Trademark and the domain name for any website established by Licensee or an Affiliate for the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region; and (ii) transfer, or cause its Affiliates to transfer, to ReViral or its nominee all right, title and interest in all Regulatory Documents (including Regulatory Approvals) held by Licensee and its Affiliates related solely to the Licensed Products in the Terminated Region, and Licensee or such Affiliates shall execute all necessary and appropriate letters to the NMPA and other Regulatory Authorities in the Terminated Region to ensure that ownership of such Regulatory Documents are transferred to ReViral. In the event that such a transfer is not possible under Applicable Laws of the Terminated Region, Licensee shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that ReViral has the benefit of the relevant Regulatory Documents and, to this end, consents to any Regulatory Authority in the Terminated Region cross-referencing to the data and information on file with any Regulatory Authority as may be necessary to facilitate the granting of duplicate Regulatory Documents to ReViral in the Terminated Region. In such circumstance as soon as the duplicate Regulatory Documents are given to ReViral, the Licensee will, so far as possible under Applicable Laws, cancel the corresponding original Regulatory Documents. Licensee agrees, at its own cost and expense, to complete whatever other procedures are necessary under Applicable Laws and to do such other acts and things reasonably necessary to enable ReViral (either itself or in conjunction with a Third Party) to Develop and Commercialise the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region in substitution for Licensee and its Affiliates.
- 14.6.8 The consideration for the license granted under Section 14.6.7 shall be established as follows. The financial terms for such license shall be []. The Parties shall in good faith seek to agree to such financial terms within [] of the date of the notice of termination (based on the valuation methodology specified below). If the Parties fail to agree to terms during such [] period, they shall, at their joint expense, appoint a financial advisory firm specializing in the valuation and licensing of pharmaceutical products, which firm has not been retained by either Party at any time during the previous [], to conduct a valuation of the Licensee IPR related to the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region. The valuation methodology shall []. The decisions of the financial advisory firm shall be final and binding on the Parties.
- 14.6.9 Licensee shall have the right to sell off existing stocks of Licensed Products in a Terminated Region until such time as the MAA and Regulatory Documents for the Licensed Product in such Terminated Region have been transferred to ReViral in accordance with Section 14.6.7. ReViral shall, following the transfer of the MAA for the Licensed Product in the Terminated Region, purchase from Licensee at a price equal to [] all of or any part of stocks of the Licensed Product held by Licensee or its Affiliates that are not subject to orders from customers and are in good and saleable condition and can be re-labelled under Applicable Law.

- 14.7 If Licensee has a right to terminate this Agreement Section 14.3, Licensee may elect, in lieu of so terminating, to have this Agreement continue on all the terms herein save that [].
- 14.8 If Licensee has the right to terminate this Agreement under Section 14.4, Licensee may elect, in lieu of so terminating, to have this Agreement continue on all the terms herein save that (i) []; (ii) []; and (iii) [].
- 14.9 Termination of the Agreement shall be without prejudice to any rights that shall have accrued to the benefit of either party before such termination, including the right of either party to receive or recover: (i) damages sustained by reason of the breach of the Agreement by the other party, or (ii) any payments which may then be owing under the terms of the Agreement. In addition, the following provisions of this Agreement shall survive termination of this Agreement: Sections 1, 2.4, 9.13 through 9.16 (with respect to any payment obligation arising prior to such termination), 10.1.2, 10.1.3, 11, 12.5, 12.6, 12.7, 13, 14.6, 14.9, 16, and 17.
15. CHANGE OF CONTROL/ASSIGNMENT/SUCCESSION
- 15.1 In the event that Licensee Group undergoes a Change of Control, this Agreement continues in force with its obligations on Licensee following any such Change of Control.
- 15.2 In the event that there is a Change of Control of an Affiliate of Licensee (the “Departing Licensee”) without a Change of Control of the whole Licensee Group Licensee will ensure that in the documentation giving rise to such Change of Control all activities and related documentation previously carried out by the Departing Licensee under this Agreement are transferred to Licensee together with all related Licensee IPR Controlled by the Departing Licensee.
- 15.3 This Agreement shall not be assignable nor the rights licensed hereunder be transferable in any way by either Party except by prior written consent of the other Party, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that (i) either Party may assign this Agreement in whole or in part to a corporate Affiliate on the condition that the assigning Party shall remain liable hereunder for the prompt payment and performance of all obligations of the assignee; (ii) this Agreement may be assigned by a Party to a Third Party in connection with a sale or transfer of all or substantially all of such Party’s business or assets to which this Agreement relates or in connection with a merger or consolidation transaction involving such Third Party provided always that at the time of such assignment such Third Party gives a written deed of undertaking to the non-affected Party agreeing to abide by all the obligations under this Agreement of the assigning Party.
- 15.4 This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, all permitted assigns. Any assignment or attempted assignment by either Party in violation of the terms of Section 15.3 will be null, void and of no legal effect.
16. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES
- 16.1 The interpretation and construction of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, USA excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.
- 16.2 With the exception of those matters within the purview of the JSC, which will be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4.6, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the alleged breach, termination or invalidity of this Agreement, shall be submitted in the first instance [].

- 16.3 Disputes not resolved under Section 16.2 shall, unless Section 16.4 applies, be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce (“ICC”) in effect on the date of filing of the arbitration, except as modified herein, and the arbitrator(s) shall be engaged on terms consistent with those set forth herein:-
- 16.3.1 If the amount in controversy, including claims and counterclaims, in terms of a monetary amount is less than [] and does not relate to [] there shall be one arbitrator, who shall be selected jointly by Licensee and ReViral within [] of receipt by respondent of a copy of the demand for arbitration. If the amount in controversy is [], or if the dispute involves [], there shall be three neutral and impartial arbitrators, one appointed by Licensee and one appointed by ReViral within [] of receipt by respondent of a copy of the demand for arbitration, and the third arbitrator, who shall serve as chair of the arbitral tribunal, shall be appointed by agreement of the Party-appointed arbitrators within [] of the appointment of the second arbitrator and who must be an experienced judge, barrister or trial lawyer admitted to practice law in the same jurisdiction as the governing law. Any arbitrator not timely appointed shall be appointed by the ICC from the ICC’s large, complex case panel, using the listing, ranking and striking procedure in the ICC rules, with each Party having no more than 2 peremptory strikes. Any arbitrator appointed by the ICC shall have significant experience with the arbitration of similar large, complex, commercial disputes and shall be an experienced judge, barrister or trial lawyer admitted to practice law in the same jurisdiction as the governing law.
- 16.3.2 The arbitration proceeding shall be conducted in the English language.
- 16.3.3 The arbitration proceeding shall be held and the award/decision shall be issued in [], although the Parties may agree in writing to conduct individual hearings in other locations.
- 16.3.4 During the course of the arbitration, each Party shall provide to the other copies of Relevant Material. “Relevant Material” is defined as all documents or other material relevant to the matters at issue in the arbitration with the exception of (i) communications to and from lawyers admitted to practice law or practicing law (whether or not employed by a Party) for the purpose of obtaining and giving legal advice; (ii) communications between the Parties or their respective advisers in relation to the terms of a settlement of the particular dispute or disputes which is or are the subject of the arbitration proceedings;
- 16.3.5 The arbitrators may, if requested by one of the Parties, order the preparation of lists of the Relevant Material for initial evaluation by the requesting Party prior to disclosure or inspection of the Relevant Material. The arbitrators shall also have the power to order production of the Relevant Material on whatever terms the arbitrators deem fit including the need for production to take place on an urgent basis and the reimbursement of all reasonable costs of production by the requesting party to the furnishing party. Any dispute as to whether a particular document or other material should be classified as Relevant Material or otherwise disclosed in the course of the arbitration shall be determined in the sole discretion of the arbitrators. The classification of a document or other material as Relevant Material shall not determine whether such material shall be admissible in evidence in the arbitration. Questions of admissibility shall be decided by the arbitrators in their sole discretion. In the event that the Parties seek to take deposition discovery in the course of a proceeding, each Party agrees that it will limit the number of depositions that it will take to [] depositions, unless the arbitrators determine that additional depositions are warranted;

- 16.3.6 The arbitration shall be confidential. No Party shall use or disclose any Relevant Material obtained under this paragraph for any purpose except in the course of the conduct of the arbitration and (as far as applicable) proceedings before any court, and then only to the extent necessary for the implementation and enforcement of any award of the arbitrators;
- 16.3.7 The arbitration shall be conducted as expeditiously as practicable, and the Parties and the arbitrators shall use their best efforts to hold the hearing on the merits no later than [] after the appointment of a sole arbitrator and no later than [] after the appointment of a third arbitrator (as the case may be), and the arbitrator(s) shall use their best efforts to issue a final award within [] after the close of the hearing.
- 16.3.8 In addition to damages, the arbitral tribunal may award [].
- 16.3.9 The arbitration award shall be in writing and shall briefly state the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which it is based.
- 16.3.10 The arbitration award shall be final and binding on the Parties and shall not be appealable to any court in any jurisdiction.
- 16.3.11 The award may be entered and enforced in any court having competent jurisdiction.
- 16.3.12 Each Party shall pay its own expenses of arbitration and the expenses of the arbitrators shall be equally shared, except that if, in the opinion of the arbitrators, any claim by a Party hereto or any defence or objection thereto by the other Party was unreasonable, the arbitrators may in their discretion assess as part of the award all or any part of the arbitration expenses of the other Party (including reasonable attorneys' fees) and the fees and expenses of the arbitrators and the ICC against the party raising such unreasonable claim, defence or objection.

- 16.4 Any dispute concerning the ownership or inventorship of any Inventions arising hereunder in a given jurisdiction shall be determined by the courts of the jurisdiction in question.

- 17.1 Force Majeure. Both Parties will be excused from the performance of their obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such performance is prevented by force majeure; provided the non-performing Party promptly provides notice of the start and stop of such force majeure event to the other Party. Such excuse will continue for so long as the condition constituting force majeure continues and the non-performing Party takes reasonable efforts to remove the condition as soon as possible. For purposes of this Agreement, force majeure is a condition beyond the reasonable control of the affected Party and without fault of such Party affected, including an act of God, government order, war, civil commotion, terrorist act, epidemic or pandemic, public utilities or common carriers, destruction of production facilities or materials by fire, earthquake, storm or like catastrophe. The Parties agree the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that is ongoing as of the Effective Date (including related government orders) may be invoked as a force majeure for the purposes of this Agreement even though the pandemic is ongoing and those effects may be reasonably foreseeable (but are not known for certain) as of the Effective Date. In addition, a force majeure may include reasonable measures affirmatively taken by a Party or its Affiliates to respond to any epidemic, pandemic, or spread of infectious disease (including the COVID-19 pandemic), such as requiring employees to stay home, closures of facilities, delays of Clinical Trials, or cessation of activities in response to an epidemic or other force majeure event. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party will not be excused from making payments owed hereunder due to any such force majeure circumstances affecting such Party. The affected Party will notify the other Party in writing of any force majeure circumstances that may affect its performance under this Agreement as soon as reasonably practical, will provide a good faith estimate of the period for which its failure or delay in performance under the Agreement is expected to continue based on currently available information, and will undertake reasonable efforts necessary to mitigate and overcome such force majeure circumstances and resume normal performance of its obligations hereunder as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances. If a force majeure persists for more than [], then the Parties will discuss in good faith the modification of the Parties' obligations under this Agreement [] to mitigate the delays caused by such force majeure.

17.2 Notices

17.2.1 Any notice (which term shall in this Section include any other formal written communication) required to be given under this Agreement or in connection with the matters contemplated by it shall, except where otherwise specifically provided, be in writing in the English language.

17.2.2 Any such notice shall be addressed as provided in Section 17.2.3 and may be:

- (a) Delivered by courier, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given upon delivery at the relevant address if it is delivered not later than 17.00 hours on a business day, or, if it is delivered later than 17.00 hours on a business day or at any time on a day which is not a Business Day, at 08.00 hours on the next business day; or
- (b) sent by electronic mail, in which case it shall be deemed to be given when the E-mail leaves the E-mail gateway of the sender where it leaves such gateway before 17.00 hours on any business day or in any other case at 08.00 hours on the next business day after it leaves such gateway and the onus shall be on the sender to prove the time that the E-mail left its gateway.

17.2.3 The addresses and other details of the Parties for notices are, subject to Section 17.2.4:

17.2.4 Any Party to this Agreement may notify the other Party of any change to the address or any of the other details specified in Section 17.2.3, provided that such notification shall only be effective on the date specified in such notice or [], whichever is later.

- 17.3 No Other Rights. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Agreement, no other right, express or implied, is granted by the Agreement.
- 17.4 Further Actions. Each party agrees to execute, acknowledge and deliver such further instruments, and to do all such other acts, as may be necessary or appropriate in order to carry out the purposes and intent of the Agreement.
- 17.5 LianBio Guarantee. LianBio hereby [] guarantees [] the due and punctual payment and performance of all obligations of Licensee under this Agreement (the “Licensee Obligations”). LianBio agrees that the Licensee Obligations may be extended, modified, or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from it, and that it will remain bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any extension, modification, or renewal of any Licensee Obligation. [].
- 17.6 Amendment. No amendment, modification or supplement of any provision of the Agreement shall be valid or effective unless made in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer or director of each party.
- 17.7 Waiver. No provision of the Agreement shall be waived by any act, omission or knowledge of any party or its agents or employees except by an instrument in writing expressly waiving such provision and signed by a duly authorized officer or director of the waiving party.
- 17.8 Counterparts. The Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which need not contain the signature of more than one party but all such counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. A signed Agreement received by a party hereto via facsimile will be deemed an original, and binding upon the party who signed it.
- 17.9 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of the Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of the Agreement is held to be prohibited by or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of the Agreement.
- 17.10 Affiliates. Each Party may discharge any obligations and exercise any rights hereunder through delegation of its obligations or rights to any of its Affiliates, provided that each Party hereby guarantees the performance by its Affiliates of such Party’s obligations under this Agreement and will cause its Affiliates to comply with the provisions of this Agreement in connection with such performance. Any reference to a “Party” will be interpreted to mean “a Party or its Affiliates” where necessary to give each Party’s Affiliates the benefit of the rights provided to such Party in this Agreement and the ability to perform its obligations.

- 17.11 Independent Contractors. The relationship between ReViral and Licensee created by the Agreement is one of independent contractors and neither party shall have the power or authority to bind or obligate the other. There is no employee-employer relationship or partnership relationship between ReViral and Licensee or any of its representatives.
- 17.12 Local Law Requirements. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, each party shall at their own expense in their respective countries, take such steps as may be required to satisfy any laws or requirements with respect to declaring, filing, recording or otherwise rendering the Agreement valid.
- 17.13 Expenses. Each party shall bear its own expenses and costs incurred in the negotiations leading up to and in preparation of the Agreement and of matters incidental to the Agreement.
- 17.14 Entire Agreement of the Parties. The Agreement (including the Schedules) shall constitute and contain the complete, final and exclusive understanding and agreement of the parties and cancels and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, correspondence, understanding and agreements, whether oral or written, between ReViral and Licensee respecting the subject matter thereof.
- 17.15 Exclusion. The Parties exclude the application of any international statutes on the sales of goods, including the United Nations Convention on International Contracts for the Sales of Goods.
- 17.16 Language. The English version of the Agreement shall be deemed the official and governing instrument, notwithstanding any translations thereof.

LEASE AND LEASE AGREEMENT, dated as of June 18, 2020, between 103 Carnegie Associates, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, with offices c/o Boston Properties at 101 Carnegie Center, Suite 104, Princeton, New Jersey 08540 (the “Landlord”), and LianBio*, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands, with its principal office at Ogier Global (Cayman) Limited, 89 Nexus Way, Camana Bay, Grand Cayman, KY1-9009, Cayman Islands (the “Tenant”).

Subject to all the terms and conditions set forth below, the Landlord and the Tenant hereby agree as follows:

1 Definitions. Certain terms and phrases used in this Agreement (generally those whose first letters are capitalized) are defined in Exhibit E attached hereto and, as used in this Agreement, they shall have the respective meanings assigned or referred to in that exhibit.

2 Lease of the Leased Premises.

2.1 The Landlord shall, and hereby does, lease to the Tenant, and the Tenant shall, and hereby does, accept and lease from the Landlord, the Leased Premises during the Term. The Leased Premises consist of 1,148 square feet of gross rentable floor space on the second floor of 103 Carnegie Center, as more fully described in the definition of Leased Premises set forth in Exhibit E attached hereto.

2.2 The Landlord shall, and hereby does, grant to the Tenant, and the Tenant shall, and hereby does, accept from the Landlord, the non-exclusive right to use the Common Facilities during the Term for itself, its employees, other agents and Guests in common with the Landlord, any tenants of Other Leased Premises, any of their respective employees, other agents and guests and such other persons as the Landlord may, in the Landlord’s sole discretion, determine from time to time.

3 Rent.

3.1 The Tenant shall punctually pay the Rent for the Leased Premises for the Term to the Landlord in the amounts and at the times set forth below, without bill or other demand and without any offset, deduction or, except as may be otherwise specifically set forth in this Agreement, abatement whatsoever.

3.2 The Basic Rent for the Leased Premises during the Initial Term shall be at the rate per year set forth below:

Period	Annual Rental Rate
Commencement Date through Lease Year One	$ 38,458.00
Lease Year Two	$ 39,032.00
Lease Year Three	$ 39,606.00

* dba Lian Pharma

The annual rate of Basic Rent for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term shall be calculated as set forth in subsection 6.3 of this Agreement.

3.3 The Tenant shall punctually pay the applicable Basic Rent in equal monthly installments in advance on the first day of each month during the Term, with the exception of Basic Rent for the first full calendar month of the Term and for any period of less than a full calendar month at the beginning of the Term. The Tenant shall pay the Basic Rent for the first full calendar month of the Term upon execution and delivery of this Agreement. The Tenant shall punctually pay the Basic Rent for a period of less than a full calendar month at the beginning of the Term on the Commencement Date.

3.4 The Basic Rent and the Additional Rent for any period of less than a full calendar month shall be prorated. In the event that any installment of Basic Rent cannot be calculated by the time payment is due, such portion as is then known or calculable shall be then due and payable; and the balance shall be due upon the Landlord's giving notice to the Tenant of the amount of the balance due.

3.5 The Additional Rent for the Leased Premises during the Term shall be promptly paid by the Tenant in the respective amounts and at the respective times set forth in this Agreement.

3.6 That portion of any amount of Rent or other amount due under this Agreement which is not paid on the day it is first due shall incur a late charge equal to the sum of: (i) five (5%) percent of that portion of any amount of Rent or other amount due under this Agreement which is not paid on the day it is first due and (ii) interest on that portion of any amount of Rent or other amount due under this Agreement which is not paid on the day it is first due at the Base Rate(s) in effect from time to time plus two (2) additional percentage points from the day such portion is first due through the day of receipt thereof by the Landlord. Any such late charge due from the Tenant shall be due immediately.

3.7 Any amount of Rent or other amount which is due upon execution and delivery of this Agreement shall be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord through the Boston Properties on-line Tenant Portal for which an invite will be sent to Tenant from the VersaPay ARC platform from the email address noreply@versapay.com (please contact Landlord at ARDept@bxp.com with any inquiries respecting VersaPay); or either (i) electronic funds (ACH) transfer to Bank of America (Dallas, Texas), ABA #111 000 012, for credit to the account of Boston Properties L.P., account no. 3756454460, (ii) overnight courier to Bank of America Wholesale Lockbox, Boston Properties Limited Partnership 3557, MA5-527-02-07, 2 Morrissey Boulevard, Dorchester, Massachusetts 02125, or (iii) mail to Boston Properties Limited Partnership, P. O. Box 3557, Boston, Massachusetts 02241-3557. By notice to the Tenant from time to time, the Landlord may change the foregoing payment instructions with regard to amounts not previously paid.

3.8 If any sum payable by the Tenant under this Agreement is paid by check which is returned due to insufficient funds, stop payment order, or otherwise, then: (a) such event shall be treated as a failure to pay such sum when due; and (b) in addition to all other rights and remedies of the Landlord hereunder, the Landlord shall be entitled (i) to impose a returned check charge of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) to cover the Landlord's administrative expenses and overhead for processing, and (ii) after the second occurrence of a returned check in any twelve (12) month period, or after a third occurrence over the Term, to require that all future payments be remitted by wire transfer, money order, or cashier's or certified check.

4 Term.

4.1 The Initial Term shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall continue for three (3) years from the beginning of the Initial Year, unless sooner terminated in accordance with section 24 of this Agreement. The Term shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall continue until the later of the conclusion of the Initial Term or the conclusion of any Renewal Term, unless sooner terminated in accordance with section 24 of this Agreement.

4.2 Unless the condition contemplated by subsection 4.3 of this Agreement occurs, the Commencement Date shall be the Substantial Completion Date, adjusted to an earlier date to compensate the Landlord for the cumulative number of days of Tenant Delay.

4.3 In the event the Tenant takes possession of, or occupies, the Leased Premises for the conduct of business earlier than the Substantial Completion Date, the Commencement Date shall be the first date of such earlier taking of possession or occupancy, as adjusted to an earlier date to compensate the Landlord for the cumulative number of days of Tenant Delay.

4.4 Once it is ascertained in accordance with subsections 4.2 and 4.3 of this Agreement, the Landlord shall give prompt notice of the Commencement Date to the Tenant; and if the Tenant does not object thereto by notice given to the Landlord within ten (10) days of the Landlord's notice, the date set forth in the Landlord's notice shall thereafter be conclusively presumed to be the Commencement Date.

5 Preparation of the Leased Premises.

5.1 The Landlord shall perform, at the Landlord's sole cost and expense, the Landlord's Work. Otherwise, the Tenant shall accept the Leased Premises on the Commencement Date in its then "AS IS" condition. The Landlord's Work shall mean, using Building Standard materials and methods, (a) re-painting the existing painted walls in the Leased Premises, (b) commercially shampooing the existing carpeted floors in the Leased Premises, (c) installing a new glass entry door, and (d) installing new building standard window shades. The Tenant shall select the single color of the paint to be applied as part of the Landlord's Work from the Landlord's samples within fourteen (14) days after the later to occur of (i) the execution and delivery to the Landlord of this Agreement by the Tenant, and (ii) the execution and delivery to the Tenant of this Agreement by the Landlord. The design and construction of any alterations, improvements or other modifications to the Leased Premises in addition to the Landlord's Work made at the request of the Tenant shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Tenant. The Tenant shall pay such additional design and construction costs to the Landlord within thirty (30) days after the invoicing therefor.

5.5 The Tenant, using its own contractors, desires to install telecommunications and data wiring and cabling, and furniture, fixtures and equipment in the Leased Premises prior to the Substantial Completion Date. The Landlord shall give to the Tenant at least fourteen (14) days' advance notice of the Landlord's projected date of the Substantial Completion Date granting access to the Leased Premises to the Tenant and its contractors to perform such installations. The Tenant and its contractors may have access to the Leased Premises prior to the Substantial Completion Date to perform such installations provided that the Tenant (i) complies with its obligations under section 12 and 14 of this Agreement, and (ii) hereby acknowledges that such access and installation may cause Tenant Delay.

5.6 The Tenant shall timely comply on a continuing basis with each of its obligations under sections 12 and 14 of this Agreement in advance of, and while, any of its employees, contractors or other agents are present in the Building or on the Property performing any alterations, improvements or other modifications in or other preparation of the Leased Premises.

6 Options.

6.1 If, prior to the date of exercise thereof (a)(i) no Event of Default shall have occurred or (ii) if an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Tenant shall have previously cured it in full or the Landlord shall have waived it and (b) there shall not have been a History of Recurring Events of Default, the Tenant shall have one option, exercisable exclusively at the time and in the manner set forth below in subsection 6.2 of this Agreement, to extend the Term for one additional period of three (3) years' duration. The period to which this option relates shall commence upon the end of the Initial Term. This option is the "Option to Renew."

6.2 In the event the Tenant is interested in exercising the Option to Renew, the Tenant shall give timely notice of the Tenant's interest to the Landlord no earlier than fifteen (15), and no later than fourteen (14), months prior to the end of the Initial Term. Within four (4) weeks of the giving of such notice, the Landlord shall give notice to the Tenant of the Landlord's quotation of the Market Rental Rate for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term. In the event the Tenant desires to exercise the Option to Renew, the Tenant shall do so exclusively by giving timely notice thereof to the Landlord no earlier than thirteen (13), and no later than twelve (12), months prior to the end of the Initial Term, and indicating in that notice whether or not the Landlord's quotation of the Market Rental Rate for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term, as set forth in the Landlord's notice, is acceptable. In the event the Tenant fails timely to notify the Landlord of its interest in exercising the Option to Renew or timely to exercise the Option to Renew, the Option to Renew shall thereupon expire.

6.3 The Basic Rent for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term shall be the Landlord's quotation of the Market Rental Rate for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term, as set forth in the Landlord's notice to the Tenant, unless the Tenant, in the Tenant's notice contemplated by the third sentence of subsection 6.2 of this Agreement affirmatively indicates that the Landlord's quotation of the Market Rental Rate set forth in the Landlord's notice is not acceptable, in which case the Basic Rent for the Leased Premises during the Renewal Term shall be the greater of:

6.3.1 the Market Rental Rate as determined in accordance with the procedure described in subsection 33.1 of this Agreement; or

6.3.2 the annual rate of Basic Rent in effect during the last 12 months of the then Expiring Term.

6.4 The Option to Renew may not be exercised by any person other than the original Tenant, Lian Pharma, or an assignee of the Tenant to which the Tenant has assigned this Agreement in accordance with the terms of subsection 17.6 of this Agreement. In the event the Tenant assigns this Agreement or sublets, or licenses the use or occupancy of, the Leased Premises or any portions thereof other than in accordance with subsection 17.6 of this Agreement, or attempts to do so:

6.4.1 any Option to Renew which the Tenant has theretofore properly exercised with respect to a Renewal Term that has not yet actually commenced shall be rescinded, if the Landlord so elects by notice to the Tenant, to the same extent as if it had not been exercised at all; and

6.4.2 any Option to Renew or any other type of option or optional right exercisable by the Tenant not theretofore timely and otherwise properly exercised by the Tenant shall thereupon expire.

7 Use and Occupancy.

7.1 The Tenant shall continuously occupy and use the Leased Premises during the Term exclusively as executive and administrative office for its business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the Leased Premises the Tenant, or assignees, sublessees, licensees or any other occupants of the Leased Premises, shall not open for the public a branch retail banking facility.

7.2 In connection with the Tenant's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises and use of the Common Facilities, the Tenant shall observe, and the Tenant shall cause the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests to observe, each of the following:

7.2.1 the Tenant shall not do, or permit or suffer the doing of, anything which might have the effect of creating not insignificantly increased risk of, or damage from, fire, explosion or other casualty;

7.2.2 the Tenant shall not do, or permit or suffer the doing of, anything which would have the effect of (a) increasing any premium for any liability, property, casualty or excess coverage insurance policy otherwise payable by the Landlord or any tenant of Other Leased Premises or (b) making any such types or amounts of insurance coverage unavailable or less available to the Landlord or any tenant of Other Leased Premises;

7.2.3 to the extent they are not inconsistent with this Agreement, the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall comply with the Building Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit D, and with any changes made therein by the Landlord if, with respect to any such changes, the Landlord shall have given notice of the particular changes to the Tenant and such changes shall not materially adversely affect the conduct of the Tenant's business in the Leased Premises;

7.2.4 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall not create, permit or continue any Nuisance in or around the Carnegie Center Complex, the Leased Premises, the Other Leased Premises, the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property;

7.2.5 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall not permit the Leased Premises to be regularly occupied by more than one individual per two hundred forty (240) square feet of gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises;

7.2.6 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall comply with all Federal, state and local statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations and orders as they pertain to the Tenant's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises, to the conduct of the Tenant's business and to the use of the Common Facilities, except that this subsection shall not require the Tenant to make any structural changes that may be required thereby that are generally applicable to the Building as a whole;

7.2.7 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall comply with the requirements of the Board of Fire Underwriters (or successor organization) and of any insurance carriers providing liability, property, casualty or excess insurance coverage regarding the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities or any portions thereof, any other improvements on the Property and the Carnegie Center Complex, except that this subsection shall not require the Tenant to make any structural changes that may be required thereby that are generally applicable to the Building as a whole;

7.2.8 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall not bring or discharge any substance (solid liquid or gaseous), or conduct any activity, in or on the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities or the Leased Premises that shall have been identified by the scientific community or by any Federal, state or local statute (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Spill Compensation and Control Act (58 N.J.S.A. 23.11 et seq.) and the Industrial Site Recovery Act (13 N.J.S.A. 1 K-6 et seq.), as they may be amended), ordinance, rule, regulation or order as toxic or hazardous to health or to the environment;

7.2.9 the Tenant and the Tenant's employees, other agents and Guests shall not draw electricity in the Leased Premises in excess of the rated capacity of the electrical conductors and safety devices including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, circuit breakers and fuses, by which electricity is distributed to and throughout the Leased Premises and, without the prior written consent of the Landlord in each instance, shall not connect any fixtures, appliances or equipment to the electrical distribution system serving the Building and the Leased Premises other than typical professional office equipment such as computers, computer servers, typewriters, copiers, telephone systems, coffee machines and table top microwave ovens, none of which, considered individually and in the aggregate, overall and per fused or circuit breaker protected circuit, shall exceed the above limits;

7.2.10 on a timely basis the Tenant shall pay directly and promptly to the respective taxing authorities any taxes (other than Taxes) charged, assessed or levied exclusively on the Leased Premises or arising exclusively from the Tenant's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises; and

7.2.11 the Tenant shall not initiate any appeal or contest of any assessment or collection of Taxes for any period without, in each instance, the prior written consent of the Landlord which, without being deemed unreasonable, the Landlord may withhold if the Building was not ninety (90%) percent occupied by paying tenants throughout that period or if the Tenant is not joined by tenants of Other Leased Premises that leased throughout that period, and that are then leasing, at least eighty (80%) percent of all Other Leased Premises, determined by their gross rentable floor space.

8 Utilities, Services, Maintenance and Repairs.

8.1 The Landlord shall provide or arrange for the provision of:

8.1.1 such maintenance and repair of the Building (except the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises); the Common Facilities; and the building standard heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems, any plumbing systems and the electrical systems in the Building, the Common Facilities, the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises as is customarily provided for first class office buildings in the immediate area;

8.1.2 such janitorial services for the Building, the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises as are set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto and such garbage removal from the Building and the Common Facilities as is customarily provided for first class office buildings in the immediate area;

8.1.3 water to the Building and, if the appropriate plumbing has been installed therein, the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises;

8.1.4 sewage disposal for the Building;

8.1.5 passenger elevator service for the Building;

8.1.6 snow and ice clearance from, and sweeping of, Parking Facilities and driveways which are part of the Property or the Common Facilities;

8.1.7 the maintenance of landscaping which is part of the Property or the Common Facilities;

8.1.8 a perimeter card reader system which permits entry to the Building on a twenty four hour, seven day a week basis; and

8.1.9 a roving security guard for the Carnegie Center Complex on a twenty four hour, seven day a week basis.

8.2 The Landlord shall provide or arrange for the provision of:

8.2.1 such maintenance and repair of the Leased Premises as is customarily provided for leased premises in first class office buildings in the immediate area, except for refinishing walls and wall treatments, base, ceilings, floor treatments and doors in general from time to time or for gouges, spots, marks, damage or defacement caused by anyone other than the Landlord, its employees and other agents, and except for the Tenant's furniture, furnishings, equipment including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any supplemental air conditioning equipment installed by or at the request of the Tenant at any time, and other property;

8.2.2 such maintenance and repair of the Other Leased Premises as is customarily provided for leased premises in first class office buildings in the immediate area, except for refinishing walls and wall treatments, base, ceilings, floor treatments and doors in general from time to time or for gouges, spots, marks, damage or defacement caused by anyone other than the Landlord, its employees and other agents, and except for the respective tenants' furniture, furnishings, equipment and other property;

8.2.3 the electricity required for the operation of the Building, the Property and the Common Facilities during Regular Business Hours and, on a reduced service basis, during other than Regular Business Hours, and, at all times, the electricity required for the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises;

8.2.4 such building standard heat, ventilation and air conditioning for the Building, the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises as is customarily provided for first class office buildings in the immediate area for the comfortable use of the Building during Regular Business Hours; and

8.2.5 heated water to the Building (except the Leased Premises and Other Leased Premises, unless the appropriate plumbing, fixtures and hot water heating units have been installed therein); and

8.2.6 during other than Regular Business Hours, upon request either (i) using a dial-up procedure provided by the Landlord, or (ii) faxed by the Tenant to the Landlord or submitted to the Landlord using the Landlord's Internet based service request system, in either case, by (a) 3:00 p.m. on the business day in question, or (b) in the case of any weekend day, Legal Holiday or the morning hours of a business day immediately following a weekend or Legal Holiday, the Tenant shall submit its request by 3:00 p.m. on the business day immediately prior to such day(s) in question, the Landlord shall provide heat, ventilation and air conditioning on a full service basis on such day(s) in question at a cost to the Tenant of $100.00 per hour or partial hour of use per floor.

8.3 Except as specifically set forth in subsections 8.1 and 8.2.1 of this Agreement, the Tenant shall maintain and repair the Leased Premises and any equipment above building standard installed by, or at the request of, the Tenant and keep the Leased Premises and the foregoing in as good condition and repair, reasonable wear and use excepted, as the Leased Premises are upon the respective completion of any improvements contemplated by sections 5 or 12 of this Agreement.

8.4 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, if the Landlord or any Affiliate of the Landlord has elected to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT"), any service required or permitted to be performed by the Landlord pursuant to this Agreement, the charge or cost of which may be treated as impermissible tenant service income under the laws governing a REIT, may be performed by a taxable REIT subsidiary that is affiliated with either the Landlord or the Landlord's property manager, an independent contractor of the Landlord or the Landlord's property manager (the "Service Provider"). If the Tenant is subject to a charge under this Agreement for any such service, then, at the Landlord's direction, the Tenant shall pay such charge either to the Landlord for further payment to the Service Provider or directly to the Service Provider, and, in either case, (i) the Landlord shall credit such payment against Additional Rent due from the Tenant under this Agreement for such service, and (ii) such payment to the Service Provider shall not relieve the Landlord from any obligation under this Agreement concerning the provisions of such service.

9 Allocation of the Expense of Utilities, Services, Maintenance, Repairs and Taxes.

9.1 All Tenant Electric Charges shall be borne by the Tenant.

9.2 Between the Commencement Date and the end of the No Pass Through Period, the Tenant's Share of all Operational Expenses and Taxes incurred during such period shall be borne by the Landlord.

9.3 Between the day after the end of the No Pass Through Period and the end of the Term, the Tenant's Share of Operational Expenses and Taxes incurred during each annual or shorter period ending on (a) December 31 of each year and (b) the end of the Term shall be borne as follows:

9.3.1 the Tenant's Share of: Operational Expenses and Taxes incurred during each such period of twelve (12) months (or shorter period), up to the amounts of Base Year Operational Expenses and Base Year Taxes, respectively (or proportional amount thereof for periods shorter than twelve (12) months), shall be borne by the Landlord; and

9.3.2 the Tenant's Share of: the amounts by which Operational Expenses and Taxes incurred during each such period of twelve (12) months (or shorter period) exceed Base Year Operational Expenses and Base Year Taxes, respectively (or proportional amount thereof for periods shorter than twelve (12) months) shall be allocated to, and borne by, the Tenant as more specifically set forth in section 10 of this Agreement.

10 Computation and Payment of Allocated Expenses of Utilities, Services, Maintenance, Repairs, Taxes and Capital Expenditures.

10.1 The Tenant shall promptly pay the following additional amounts to the Landlord at the respective times set forth below:

10.1.1 commencing with the first day after the end of the No Pass Through Period, and on the first day of each month thereafter during the Term, one-twelfth (1/12) of the Tenant's Share of the amount by which Taxes for the then current calendar year exceeds Base Year Taxes, computed in accordance with subsection 10.5 of this Agreement;

10.1.2 within twenty (20) days of the Landlord's giving notice to the Tenant after the close of each calendar year closing during the Term, commencing with the first calendar year closing after the close of the No Pass Through Period, and after the end of the Term, the Tenant's Share of the difference between the Landlord's previously projected amount of Taxes for such period and the actual amount of Taxes for such period, in either case in excess of Base Year Taxes, computed in accordance with subsection 10.6 of this Agreement (unless such difference is a negative amount, in which case the Landlord shall credit such difference against any amounts next due from the Tenant under subsections 10.1.1 and 10.5 of this Agreement);

10.1.3 commencing with the first day after the end of the No Pass Through Period, and on the first day of each month thereafter during the Term, one-twelfth (1/12) of the Tenant's Share of the amount by which Operational Expenses for the then current calendar year exceed Base Year Operational Expenses, computed in accordance with subsection 10.7 of this Agreement;

10.1.4 within twenty (20) days of the Landlord's giving notice to the Tenant after the close of each calendar year closing during the Term, commencing with the first calendar year closing after the close of the No Pass Through Period, and after the end of the Term, the Tenant's Share of the difference between the Landlord's previously projected amount of Operational Expenses for such period and the actual amount of Operational Expenses for such period, in either case in excess of Base Year Operational Expenses, computed in accordance with subsection 10.8 of this Agreement (unless such difference is a negative amount, in which case the Landlord shall credit such difference against any amounts next due from the Tenant under subsections 10.1.3 and 10.7 of this Agreement);

10.1.5 commencing with the first day of the first month after the Landlord gives any notice contemplated by subsection 10.9 of this Agreement to the Tenant and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter until the earlier of (a) the end of the Term or (b) the last month of the useful life set forth in the respective notice, one-twelfth (1/12) of the Tenant's Share of any Annual Amortized Capital Expenditure, computed in accordance with subsection 10.9 of this Agreement;

10.1.6 on the first day of each month during the Term, the monthly Tenant Electric Charges, computed in accordance with subsection 10.10 of this Agreement; and

10.1.7 promptly as and when billed therefor by the Landlord, the amount of any expense which would otherwise fall within the definition of Operational Expenses, but which is specifically paid or incurred by the Landlord for operation and maintenance of the Building, the Common Facilities or the Property outside Regular Business Hours at the specific request of the Tenant or the amount of any expenditure incurred for maintenance or repair of damage to the Building, the Common Facilities, the Property, the Leased Premises or the Other Leased Premises caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by the active or passive negligence or intentional act of the Tenant or any of its employees, other agents or Guests.

10.2 "Operational Expenses" means all expenses paid or incurred by the Landlord in connection with the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities and any other improvements on the Property and their operation and maintenance (other than Taxes (which are separately allocated to the Tenant in accordance with subsections 10.1.1 and 10.1.2 of this Agreement), Capital Expenditures (which are separately allocated to the Tenant in accordance with subsection 10.1.5 of this Agreement) and those expenses contemplated by subsections 10.6 and 10.8 of this Agreement)) including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

10.2.1 Utilities Expenses;

10.2.2 the expense of providing the services, maintenance and repairs contemplated by subsections 8.1, 8.2.1 and 8.2.2 of this Agreement, whether furnished by the Landlord's employees or by independent contractors or other agents;

10.2.3 wages, salaries, fees and other compensation and payments and payroll taxes and contributions to any social security, unemployment insurance, welfare, pension or similar fund and payments for other fringe benefits required by law or union agreement (or, if the employees or any of them are not represented by a union, then payments for benefits comparable to those generally required by union agreement in first class office buildings in the immediate area which are unionized) made to or on behalf of any employees of the Landlord performing services rendered in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, elevator operators, elevator starters, window cleaners, porters, janitors, maids, miscellaneous handymen, watchmen, persons engaged in patrolling and protecting the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property, carpenters, engineers, firemen, mechanics, electricians, plumbers, other tradesmen, other persons engaged in the operation and maintenance of the Building, Common Facilities and Property, Building superintendent and assistants, Building manager, and clerical and administrative personnel;

10.2.4 the uniforms of all employees and the cleaning, pressing and repair thereof;

10.2.5 premiums and other charges incurred by the Landlord with respect to all insurance relating to the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property and the operation and maintenance thereof, including, without limitation: property and casualty, fire and extended coverage insurance, including windstorm, flood, hail, explosion, other casualty, riot, rioting attending a strike, civil commotion, aircraft, vehicle and smoke insurance; public liability insurance; elevator, boiler and machinery insurance; excess liability coverage insurance; use and occupancy insurance; workers' compensation and health, accident, disability and group life insurance for all employees; and casualty rent insurance;

10.2.6 sales and excise taxes and the like upon any Operational Expenses and Capital Expenditures;

10.2.7 management fees of any independent managing agent for the Property, the Building or the Common Facilities; and if there shall be no independent managing agent, or if the managing agent shall be a person affiliated with the Landlord, the management fees that would customarily be charged for the management of the Property, the Building and the Common Facilities by an independent, first class managing agent in the immediate area;

10.2.8 the cost of replacements for tools, supplies and equipment used in the operation, service, maintenance, improvement, inspection, repair and alteration of the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property;

10.2.9 the cost of repainting or otherwise redecorating any part of the Building or the Common Facilities;

10.2.10 decorations for the lobbies and other Common Facilities in the Building;

10.2.11 the cost of licenses, permits and similar fees and charges related to operation, repair and maintenance of the Building, the Property and the Common Facilities;

10.2.12 an allocable share of service, replacement, repair, maintenance and other charges assessed from time to time by the Carnegie Center Owners Association [II] to the Building;

10.2.13 all costs of applying and reporting for the Building or any part thereof to seek or maintain certification under the U.S. EPA's Energy Star® rating system, the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) rating system or a similar system or standard; and

10.2.14 any and all other expenditures of the Landlord in connection with the operation, alteration, repair or maintenance of the Property, the Common Facilities or the Building as a first-class office building and facilities in the immediate area which are properly treated as an expense fully deductible as incurred in accordance with generally applied real estate accounting practice.

10.3 "Capital Expenditures" means the following expenditures incurred or paid by the Landlord in connection with the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities and any other improvements on the Property:

10.3.1 all costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord in connection with retro-fitting the entire Building or the Common Facilities, or any portion thereof, to comply with any change in Federal, state or local statute, rule, regulation, order or requirement which change takes effect after the original completion of the Building;

10.3.2 all costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord to replace and improve the Property, the Building or the Common Facilities or portions thereof for the purpose of continued operation of the Property, the Building and the Common Facilities as a first class office complex in the immediate area; and

10.3.3 all costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord in connection with the installation of any energy, labor or other cost saving or life safety device or system on the Property or in the Building or the Common Facilities.

10.4 Neither "Operational Expenses" nor "Capital Expenditures" shall include any of the following:

10.4.1 principal or interest on indebtedness, debt amortization or ground rent paid by the Landlord in connection with any mortgages, deeds of trust or other financing encumbrances, or ground leases of the Building or the Property;

10.4.2 any capital expenditure, or amortized portion thereof, other than those included in the definition of Capital Expenditures set forth in subsection 10.3 above;

10.4.3 expenditures for any leasehold improvement which is made in connection with the preparation of any portion of the Building for occupancy by any tenant or which is not made generally to or for the benefit of the Building or the Property;

10.4.4 the cost of repairs or replacements incurred by reason of fire or other casualty, or condemnation (other than costs not in excess of the deductible on any insurance maintained by the Landlord which provides a recovery for such repair or replacement), to the extent the Landlord actually receives proceeds of property and casualty insurance policies or condemnation awards or would have received such proceeds had the Landlord maintained the insurance required to be maintained by the Landlord under this Agreement;

10.4.5 legal fees, space planner's fees, architect's fees, leasing and brokerage commissions, advertising and promotional expenditures and any other marketing expense incurred in connection with the leasing of space in the Building (including new leases, lease amendments, lease terminations and lease renewals);

10.4.6 expenditures for the salaries and benefits of the executive officers, if any, of the Landlord; and

10.4.7 depreciation for the Building, the Common Facilities and any other improvement on the Property.

10.5 As soon as practicable after the close of the No Pass Through Period and December 31 of each year thereafter, any portion of which is during the Term, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth:

10.5.1 Taxes billed, or if a bill has not then been received for the entire period, the Landlord's projection of Taxes to be billed, for the then current calendar year;

10.5.2 the amount of Base Year Taxes;

10.5.3 the amount, if any, by which item 10.5.1 above exceeds item 10.5.2 above; and

10.5.4 the Tenant's Share of item 10.5.3 above.

10.6 As soon as practicable after December 31 of each year during the Term and after the end of the Term, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth:

10.6.1 the actual amount of Taxes for the preceding calendar year in excess of Base Year Taxes (or proportional amount thereof for shorter periods during the Term);

10.6.2 the Landlord's previously projected amount of Taxes for the preceding calendar year in excess of Base Year Taxes (or proportional amount thereof for shorter periods during the Term);

10.6.3 the difference obtained by subtracting item 10.6.2 above from item 10.6.1 above; and

10.6.4 the Tenant's Share of item 10.6.3 above.

10.7 As soon as practicable after the close of the No Pass Through Period and December 31 of each year thereafter, any portion of which is during the Term, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth:

10.7.1 the Landlord's projection of annual Operational Expenses for the current period (if any portion thereof is during the Term);

10.7.2 the amount of the Base Year Operational Expenses;

10.7.3 the amount, if any, by which item 10.7.1 above exceeds item 10.7.2 above; and

10.7.4 the Tenant's Share of item 10.7.3 above.

10.8 As soon as practicable after December 31 of each year during the Term and after the end of the Term, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth:

10.8.1 the actual amount of Operational Expenses for the preceding calendar year in excess of Base Year Operational Expenses (or proportional amount thereof for shorter periods during the Term);

10.8.2 the Landlord's previously projected amount of Operational Expenses for the preceding calendar year in excess of Base Year Operational Expenses (or proportional amount thereof for shorter periods during the Term);

10.8.3 the difference obtained by subtracting item 10.8.2 above from item 10.8.1 above; and

10.8.4 the Tenant's Share of item 10.8.3 above.

10.9 As soon as practicable after incurring any Capital Expenditure, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth:

10.9.1 a description of the Capital Expenditure and the subject thereof;

10.9.2 the date the subject of the respective Capital Expenditure was first placed into service and the period of useful life selected by the Landlord in connection with the determination of the Annual Amortized Capital Expenditure;

10.9.3 the amount of the Annual Amortized Capital Expenditure; and

10.9.4 the Tenant's Share of item 10.9.3 above.

10.10 Tenant Electric Charges shall be initially charged at the rate of $1.75 per rentable square foot per year. From time to time, whenever the Landlord's estimate of Tenant Electric Charges changes, the Landlord shall furnish the Tenant with a notice setting forth its estimate of Tenant Electric Charges per month. Unless the Tenant desires to question the Landlord's then most recent estimate of Tenant Electric Charges exclusively in the manner set forth below, the Landlord's then most recent estimate shall be binding and shall continue in effect until any question raised by the Tenant is otherwise resolved in accordance with this subsection 10.10 of this Agreement. If the Tenant desires to question the Landlord's estimate of Tenant Electric Charges, provided that the Tenant has completed its initial build-out of the Leased Premises, has fully staffed the Leased Premises and is utilizing such quantity of utility service which the Tenant reasonably projects will be the average quantity of utility service which the Tenant will use throughout the Term, the Tenant shall give notice to the Landlord of its desire. Upon receipt of the Tenant's notice, the Landlord shall obtain, at the Tenant's expense, a reputable, independent electrical engineer's formal written estimate and computation of the Tenant Electric Charges. The engineer's estimate and computation of Tenant Electric Charges shall thereupon control for a twelve (12) month period commencing with the date as of which it is given effect as to Tenant Electric Charges, and until the Landlord furnishes the Tenant with a subsequent notice setting forth its estimate of Tenant Electric Charges per month, except to the extent that the Landlord may increase them in proportion to increases in Utilities Expenses during the same period.

10.11 Subject to the provisions of this subsection 10.11 and provided that no Event of Default exists, the Tenant shall have the right to examine the correctness of the Landlord's statement of the actual amount of Operational Expenses and Taxes as set forth in the notices required by subsections 10.6 and 10.8 or any item contained therein:

10.11.1 Any request for examination with respect to any calendar year during the Term may be made by notice from the Tenant to the Landlord no more than sixty (60) days after the date (the "Operational Expenses and Taxes Statement Date") on which the Landlord provides to the Tenant a statement of the actual amount of the Operational Expenses and Taxes with respect to such calendar year and only if the Tenant shall have fully paid such amount. Such notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the matters questioned. Any such examination must be completed and the results communicated to the Landlord no more than one hundred eighty (180) days after the Operational Expenses and Taxes Statement Date. Such examination shall be performed only by an independent certified public accounting firm selected by the Tenant and approved by the Landlord (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and whose fee or other compensation is fixed by contract and is in no manner computed or determined based upon the results of the audit (the "Accountant"). If the results of such examination conclusively show that the Landlord has overstated the Tenant's Share of Operational Expenses and Taxes, the Landlord shall credit the amount of such overstatement against the monthly installments of Rent next due under this Lease (or refund such amount if the Term of this Lease has ended and the Tenant has no further obligation to the Landlord). If the results of such examination conclusively show that the Landlord has not overstated Tenant's Proportionate Share of Operational Expenses and Taxes, then the Landlord may invoice the Tenant for any amount by which the Tenant's Proportionate Share of Operational Expenses and Taxes were understated, which invoice shall be payable by the Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if the results of such examination conclusively show that the Landlord has overstated the Tenant's Proportionate Share of Operational Expenses and Taxes by more than five percent (5%) in the aggregate (after netting any understated line items against any overstated line items), then the Landlord shall reimburse the Tenant for the commercially reasonable costs of Tenant's audit, including the cost of the Accountant.

10.11.2 The Tenant hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Tenant's sole right to contest an Operational Expenses and Taxes statement shall be as expressly set forth in this subsection 10.11. The Tenant hereby waives any and all other rights pursuant to applicable law to inspect the Landlord's books and records and/or to contest such Operational Expenses and Taxes statement. If the Tenant shall fail to timely exercise the Tenant's right to inspect the Landlord's books and records as provided in this subsection 10.11 with respect to any calendar year, or if the Tenant shall fail to timely communicate to the Landlord the results of the Tenant's examination as provided in this subsection 10.11 with respect to any calendar year, the Landlord's statement of Operational Expenses and Taxes with respect to such calendar year shall be conclusive and binding on the Tenant.

10.11.3 So much of the Landlord's books and records pertaining to the Operational Expenses and Taxes for the specific matters questioned by the Tenant for the calendar year included in the Landlord's statement shall be made available to the Tenant and Accountant either electronically or during normal business hours at the offices where the Landlord keeps such books and records or at another location, as reasonably determined by the Landlord, within a reasonable time after the Landlord timely receives the notice from the Tenant to make such examination pursuant to this subsection 10.11.

10.11.4 The Tenant shall have the right to make such examination no more than once with respect to any calendar year for which the Landlord has given the Tenant a statement of the Operational Expenses and Taxes.

10.11.5 [Intentionally Omitted]

10.11.6 As a condition to performing any such examination, the Tenant and the Accountant shall be required to execute and deliver to the Landlord an agreement, in form reasonably acceptable to the Landlord, agreeing to keep confidential any information which it discovers about the Landlord, the Property, the Building or the Leased Premises in connection with such examination.

10.11.7 No subtenant shall have any right to conduct any such examination and no assignee may conduct any such examination with respect to any period during which the assignee was not in possession of the Leased Premises.

10.11.8 All costs and expenses of any such examination shall be paid by the Tenant.

10.12 The mere enumeration of an item within the definitions of Operational Expenses and Capital Expenditures in subsections 10.2 and 10.3 of this Agreement, respectively, shall not be deemed to create an obligation on the part of the Landlord to provide such item unless the Landlord is affirmatively required to provide such item elsewhere in this Agreement.

10.13 In the event that there is located in the Leased Premises a data center containing high density computing equipment, as defined in the U.S. EPA's Energy Star® rating system ("Energy Star"), the Landlord may require the installation in accordance with Energy Star of separate metering or check metering equipment, the Tenant being responsible for the costs of any such meter or check meter and the installation and connectivity thereof. The Tenant shall directly pay to the utility all electric consumption on any such meter and shall pay to the Landlord, as Additional Rent, all electric consumption on any such check meter within thirty (30) days after being billed thereof by the Landlord, in addition to other electric charges payable by the Tenant under this Agreement.

10.14 In the event that the Tenant purchases any utility service directly from the provider, the Tenant shall promptly provide to the Landlord either permission to access the Tenant's usage information from the utility service provider or copies of the utility bills for the Tenant's usage of such services in a format reasonably acceptable to the Landlord.

11 Leasehold Improvements, Fixtures and Trade Fixtures. All leasehold improvements to the Leased Premises, fixtures installed in the Leased Premises and the blinds and floor treatments or coverings shall be the property of the Landlord, regardless of when, by which party or at which party's cost the item is installed. Movable furniture, furnishings, trade fixtures and equipment of the Tenant which are in the Leased Premises shall be the property of the Tenant, except as may otherwise be set forth in section 23 of this Agreement.

12 Alterations, Improvements and Other Modifications by the Tenant.

12.1 The Tenant shall not make any alterations, improvements or other modifications to the Leased Premises which effect structural changes in the Building or any portion thereof, change the functional utility or rental value of the Leased Premises or, except as may be contemplated by section 5 of this Agreement prior to the Commencement Date, affect the mechanical, electrical, plumbing or other systems installed in the Building or the Leased Premises.

12.2 The Tenant shall not make any alterations, improvements or modifications to the Leased Premises, the Building or the Property or make any boring in the ceiling, walls or floor of the Leased Premises or the Building unless the Tenant shall have first:

12.2.1 furnished to the Landlord detailed, New Jersey architect-certified construction drawings, construction specifications and, if they pertain in any way to the heating, ventilation and air conditioning or other systems of the Building, related engineering design work and specifications regarding, the proposed alterations, improvements or other modifications and, (i) if the Tenant elects to perform the work through contractors of its own, paid the Landlord a drawings, specifications and design review fee equal to five (5%) percent of the cost of the work and, during the course of the work, a construction inspection fee equal to five (5%) percent of the cost of the work (the Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord, within fifteen (15) days after the substantial completion of such work, a copy of the contractor's Application and Certification for Payment (AIA Document 702) and Continuation Sheet (s) (AIA Document 703) for the total cost of such work and receipted, detailed invoices therefor), and (ii) if the Landlord performs the work, paid the Landlord a drawings, specifications and design review fee equal to five (5%) percent of the cost of the work and, during the course of the work, a construction supervision fee equal to ten (10%) percent of the cost of the work;

12.2.2 not received a notice from the Landlord objecting thereto in any respect within thirty (30) days of the furnishing thereof (which shall not be deemed the Landlord's affirmative consent for any purpose, and which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed);

12.2.3 obtained any necessary or appropriate building permits or other approvals from the Municipality and, if such permits or other approvals are conditional, satisfied all conditions to the satisfaction of the Municipality; and

12.2.4 met, and continued to meet, all the following conditions with regard to any contractors selected by the Tenant and any subcontractors, including materialmen, in turn selected by any of them:

12.2.4.1 the Tenant shall have sole responsibility for payment of, and shall pay, such contractors;

12.2.4.2 the Tenant shall have sole responsibility for coordinating, and shall coordinate, the work to be supplied or performed by such contractors, both among themselves and with any contractors selected by the Landlord;

12.2.4.3 the Tenant shall not permit or suffer the filing of any mechanic's notice of intention or other lien or prospective lien by any such contractor or subcontractor with respect to the Property, the Common Facilities, the Building or any other improvements on the Property; and if any of the foregoing should be filed by any such contractor or subcontractor, the Tenant shall forthwith obtain and file the complete discharge and release thereof or provide such payment bond(s) from a reputable, financially sound institutional surety as will, in the opinions of the Landlord, the holders of any mortgage indebtedness on, or other interest in, the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities or any other improvements on the Property, or any portions thereof, and their respective title insurers, be adequate to assure the complete discharge and release thereof;

12.2.4.4 prior to any such contractor's entering upon the Property, the Building or the Leased Premises or commencing work the Tenant shall have delivered to the Landlord (a) all the Tenant's certificates of insurance set forth in section 14 of this Agreement, conforming in all respects to the requirements of section 14 of this Agreement, except that the effective dates of all such insurance policies shall be prior to any such contractor's entering upon the Property, the Building or the Leased Premises or commencing work (if any work is scheduled to begin before the Commencement Date) and (b) similar certificates of insurance from each of the Tenant's contractors providing for coverage in equivalent amounts, together with their respective certificates of workers' compensation insurance, employer's liability insurance and products-completed operations insurance, the latter providing coverage in at least the amount required for the Tenant's commercial general liability and excess insurance, for the benefit of, and shall name, the Landlord, the Landlord's managing agent and mortgagees and ground lessors known to the Tenant, if any, of the Building, the Common Facilities, the Property or any interest therein, their successors and assigns as additional persons insured, and (c) certificates of insurance from each of the Tenant's contractors providing for builders' risk insurance coverage from financially sound and reputable insurers, licensed by the State of New Jersey to provide such insurance and acceptable to the Landlord, that is written on an "all risk" of physical loss or damage basis, for the full replacement cost value, which insurance policy shall be maintained in full force and effect until final completion of the respective work, and none of which insurance policies shall contain a "co-insurance" clause;

12.2.4.5 each such contractor shall be a party to collective bargaining agreements with those unions that are certified as the collective bargaining agents of all bargaining units of such contractor, of which all such contractor's workpersons shall be members in good standing;

12.2.4.6 each such contractor shall perform its work in a good and workpersonlike manner and shall not interfere with or hinder the Landlord or any other contractor in any manner;

12.2.4.7 there shall be no labor dispute of any nature whatsoever involving any such contractor or any workpersons of such contractor or the unions of which they are members with anyone; and if such a labor dispute exists or comes into existence the Tenant shall forthwith, at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, remove all such contractors and their workpersons from the Building, the Common Facilities and the Property; and

12.2.4.8 the Tenant shall have the sole responsibility for the security of the Leased Premises and all contractors' materials, equipment and work, regardless of whether their work is in progress or completed.

12.3 After the Commencement Date, the Tenant shall not apply any wall covering or other treatment to the walls of the Leased Premises without the prior written consent of the Landlord.

12.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the Tenant shall be permitted to make Minor Alterations and Cosmetic Alterations (as each defined herein) with the Landlord's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or denied, but without paying the Landlord a design review fee or construction inspection fee. A "Cosmetic Alteration" shall mean any alterations, improvements or modifications to the Leased Premises that (a) is of a cosmetic nature such as painting, wallpapering, hanging pictures and installing carpeting; (b) is not visible from the exterior of the Premises or Building; and (c) will not adversely affect the structural components of the Building. A "Minor Alteration" shall mean any alterations, improvements or modifications to the Leased Premises that (x) cost less than $50,000; (y) is not visible from the exterior of the Premises or Building; and (z) will not adversely affect the structural components of the Building. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Tenant makes any "Cosmetic Alterations", Tenant shall be obligated to restore same on the expiration of the Lease in accordance with Section 21 of the Lease, unless otherwise advised by Landlord.

13 Landlord's Rights of Entry and Access. The Landlord and its authorized agents shall have the following rights of entry and access to the Leased Premises:

13.1 In case of any emergency or threatened emergency, at any time for any purpose which the Landlord reasonably believes under such circumstances will serve to prevent, eliminate or reduce the emergency, or the threat thereof, or damage or threatened damage to persons and property.

13.2 Upon at least one day's prior verbal advice to the Tenant, at any time for the purpose of erecting or constructing improvements, modifications, alterations and other changes to the Building or any portion thereof, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Leased Premises, the Common Facilities or the Property or for the purpose of repairing, maintaining or cleaning them, whether for the benefit of the Landlord, the Building, all tenants of Other Leased Premises in the Building, or one or more tenants of Other Leased Premises, the Carnegie Center Complex or others. In connection with any such improvements, modifications, alterations, other changes, repairs, maintenance or cleaning, the Landlord may close off such portions of the Property, the Building and the Common Facilities and interrupt such services as may be necessary to accomplish such work, without liability to the Tenant therefor and without such closing or interruption being deemed an eviction or constructive eviction or requiring an abatement of Rent. However, in accomplishing any such work, the Landlord shall not materially interfere with the Tenant's use and enjoyment of, or access to, the Leased Premises or the conduct of the Tenant's business and to minimize interference, inconvenience and annoyance to the Tenant.

13.3 At all reasonable hours for the purpose of operating, inspecting or examining the Building, including the Leased Premises, or the Property.

13.4 At any time after the Tenant has vacated the Leased Premises, for the purpose of preparing the Leased Premises for another tenant or prospective tenant.

13.5 If practicable by appointment with the Tenant, at all reasonable hours for the purpose of showing the Building to prospective purchasers, mortgagees and prospective mortgagees and prospective ground lessees and lessors.

13.6 If practicable by appointment with the Tenant, at all reasonable hours during the last twelve (12) months of the Term for the purpose of showing the Leased Premises to prospective tenants thereof.

14 Liabilities and Insurance Obligations.

14.1 The Tenant shall maintain in full force on or before the earlier of (i) the date on which any Tenant Party first enters the Leased Premises for any reason, or (ii) the Commencement Date, and thereafter throughout and until the end of the Term, and after the end of the Term for so long after the end of the Term as any of the Tenant's Property remains in the Leased Premises, or the Tenant or anyone acting by, through or under the Tenant may use, be in occupancy of any part of, or have access to the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, a policy of commercial general liability insurance, on an occurrence basis, issued on a form at least as broad as Insurance Services Office ("ISO") Commercial General Liability Coverage "occurrence" form CG 00 01 10 01 or another Commercial General Liability "occurrence" form providing equivalent coverage. Such insurance shall include contractual liability coverage, specifically covering but not limited to the indemnification obligations undertaken by the Tenant in this Agreement. The minimum limits of liability of such insurance shall be $3,000,000 per occurrence. In addition, in the event the Tenant hosts a function in the Leased Premises, the Tenant agrees to obtain, and cause any persons or parties providing services for such function to obtain, the appropriate insurance coverages as determined by the Landlord (including liquor liability coverage, if applicable) and provide the Landlord with evidence of the same.

14.2 The Tenant shall maintain at all times during the Term, and during such earlier or later time as the Tenant may be performing work in or to the Leased Premises or have property, fixtures, furniture, equipment, machinery, goods, supplies, wares or merchandise in the Leased Premises, and continuing thereafter so long as any of the Tenant's Property, remains in the Leased Premises, or the Tenant or anyone acting by, through or under the Tenant may use, be in occupancy of or have access to, any part of the Leased Premises, business interruption insurance and insurance against loss or damage covered by the so-called "all risk" or equivalent type insurance coverage with respect to (i) the Tenant's property, fixtures, furniture, equipment, machinery, goods, supplies, wares and merchandise, and other property of the Tenant located at the Leased Premises, (ii) all additions, alterations and improvements made by or on behalf of the Tenant in the Leased Premises or are existing in the Leased Premises as of the date of this Agreement ("Leasehold Improvements"), and (iii) any property of third parties, including, but not limited to, leased or rented property, in the Leased Premises in the Tenant's care, custody, use or control, provided that such insurance in the case of (iii) may be maintained by such third parties (collectively the "Tenant's Property"). The business interruption insurance required by this section shall be in minimum amounts typically carried by prudent tenants engaged in similar operations, but in no event shall be in an amount less than the Basic Rent then in effect during any Lease Year, plus any Additional Rent due and payable for the immediately preceding Lease Year. The "all risk" insurance required by this section shall be in an amount at least equal to the full replacement cost of the Tenant's Property. In addition, during such time as the Tenant is performing work in or to the Leased Premises, the Tenant, at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, shall also maintain, or shall cause its contractor(s) to maintain, builder's risk insurance for the full insurable value of such work. The Landlord and such additional persons or entities as the Landlord may reasonably request shall be named as loss payees, as their interests may appear, on the policy or policies required by this section for Leasehold Improvements. In the event of loss or damage covered by the "all risk" insurance required by this section, the responsibilities for repairing or restoring the loss or damage shall be determined in accordance with section 15 of this Agreement. To the extent that the Landlord is obligated to pay for the repair or restoration of the loss or damage covered by the policy, the Landlord shall be paid the proceeds of the "all risk" insurance covering the loss or damage. To the extent the Tenant is obligated to pay for the repair or restoration of the loss or damage, covered by the policy, the Tenant shall be paid the proceeds of the "all risk" insurance covering the loss or damage. If both the Landlord and the Tenant are obligated to pay for the repair or restoration of the loss or damage covered by the policy, the insurance proceeds shall be paid to each of them in the pro rata proportion of their obligations to repair or restore the loss or damage. If the loss or damage is not repaired or restored (for example, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to section 15 of this Agreement), the insurance proceeds shall be paid to the Landlord and the Tenant in the pro rata proportion of their relative contributions to the cost of the leasehold improvements covered by the policy.

14.3 The Tenant agrees to maintain in full force on or before the earlier of (i) the date on which any Tenant Party first enters the Leased Premises for any reason, or (ii) the Commencement Date, and thereafter throughout the end of the Term, and after the end of the Term for so long after the end of the Term that any of the Tenant's Property remains in the Leased Premises or as the Tenant or anyone acting by, through or under the Tenant may use, be in occupancy of, or have access to the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, (a) automobile liability insurance (covering any automobiles owned or operated by the Tenant at the Carnegie Center Complex); (b) worker's compensation insurance as required by law; and (c) employer's liability insurance. Such automobile liability insurance shall be in an amount not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for each accident. Such employer's liability insurance shall be in an amount not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for each accident, One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) disease-policy limit, and One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) disease-each employee.

14.4 All insurance required to be maintained by the Tenant pursuant to this Agreement shall be maintained with responsible companies that are admitted to do business, and are in good standing, in the State of New Jersey and that have a rating of at least "A" and are within a financial size category of not less than "Class X" in the most current Best's Key Rating Guide or such similar rating as may be reasonably selected by the Landlord. All such insurance shall: (1) be acceptable in form and content to the Landlord; and (2) contain a clause requiring the insurer to provide the Landlord thirty (30) days' prior written notice of cancellation or failure to renew. All commercial general liability, excess/umbrella liability and automobile liability insurance policies shall be primary and noncontributory. No liability insurance policy shall contain any self-insured retention greater than $25,000 and no property insurance policy shall contain any self-insured retention greater than $25,000. Any deductibles and such self-insured retentions shall be deemed to be "insurance" for purposes of the waiver in subsection 14.12 below. The Landlord reserves the right from time to time to require the Tenant to obtain higher minimum amounts of insurance based on such limits as are customarily carried with respect to similar properties in the area in which the Leased Premises are located. The minimum amounts of insurance required by this Agreement shall not be reduced by the payment of claims or for any other reason. In the event the Tenant shall fail to obtain or maintain any insurance meeting the requirements of this section 14, or to deliver such policies or certificates as required by this section 14, the Landlord may, at its option, on five (5) days notice to the Tenant, procure such policies for the account of the Tenant, and the cost thereof shall be paid to the Landlord within five (5) days after delivery to the Tenant of invoices therefor.

14.5 To the fullest extent permitted by law, the commercial general liability and auto insurance carried by the Tenant pursuant to this Agreement, and any additional liability insurance carried by the Tenant pursuant to subsection 14.1 of this Agreement, shall name the Landlord, the Landlord's managing agent, and such other persons as the Landlord may reasonably request from time to time as additional insureds (collectively "Additional Insureds") with respect to liability arising out of or related to this Agreement or the operations of the Tenant. Such insurance shall provide primary coverage without contribution from any other insurance carried by or for the benefit of the Landlord, the Landlord's managing agent, or other Additional Insureds. Such insurance shall also waive any right of subrogation against each Additional Insured. For the avoidance of doubt, each primary policy and each excess/umbrella policy through which the Tenant satisfies its obligations under this section 14 must provide coverage to the Additional Insureds that is primary and non-contributory.

14.6 On or before the earlier of (i) the date on which any Tenant Party first enters the Leased Premises for any reason or (ii) the Commencement Date, the Tenant shall furnish the Landlord with certificates evidencing the insurance coverage required by this Agreement, and renewal certificates shall be furnished to the Landlord at least annually thereafter, and at least thirty

(30) days prior to the expiration date of each policy for which a certificate was furnished. Acceptable forms of such certificates for liability and property insurance, respectively, as of the date hereof, are attached hereto as Exhibit G and Exhibit H. Failure by the Tenant to provide the certificates required by this subsection 14.6 shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the requirements in this subsection 14.6. Upon request by the Landlord, a true and complete copy of any insurance policy required by this Agreement shall be delivered to the Landlord within ten (10) days following the Landlord's request.

14.7 The Tenant shall require its subtenants and other occupants of the Leased Premises to provide written documentation evidencing the obligation of such subtenant or other occupant to indemnify the Landlord Parties to the same extent that the Tenant is required to indemnify the Landlord Parties pursuant to section 27 of this Agreement, and to maintain insurance that meets the requirements of this section 14, and otherwise to comply with the requirements of this section 14, provided that the terms of this subsection 14.7 shall not relieve the Tenant of any of its obligations to comply with the requirements of this section 14. The Tenant shall require all such subtenants and occupants to supply certificates of insurance evidencing that the insurance requirements of this section 14 have been met and shall forward such certificates to the Landlord on or before the earlier of (i) the date on which the subtenant or other occupant first enters the Leased Premises or (ii) the commencement date of the sublease. The Tenant shall be responsible for identifying and remedying any deficiencies in such certificates or policy provisions.

14.8 The Tenant shall not commit or permit any violation of the policies of fire, boiler, sprinkler, water damage or other insurance covering the Building and/or the fixtures, equipment and property therein carried by the Landlord, or do or permit anything to be done, or keep or permit anything to be kept, in the Leased Premises, which in case of any of the foregoing (i) would result in termination of any such policies, (ii) would adversely affect the Landlord's right of recovery under any of such policies, or (iii) would result in reputable and independent insurance companies refusing to insure the Building or the property of the Landlord in amounts reasonably satisfactory to the Landlord.

14.9 If, because of anything done, caused or permitted to be done, or omitted by the Tenant (or its subtenant or other occupants of the Leased Premises), the rates for liability, fire, boiler, sprinkler, water damage or other insurance on the Building or the Property or on the property and equipment of the Landlord or any other tenant or subtenant in the Building shall be higher than they otherwise would be, the Tenant shall reimburse the Landlord and/or the other tenants and subtenants in the Building for the additional insurance premiums thereafter paid by the Landlord or by any of the other tenants and subtenants in the Building which shall have been charged because of the aforesaid reasons, such reimbursement to be made from time to time on the Landlord's demand.

14.10 Any or all of the Landlord's insurance may be provided by blanket coverage maintained by the Landlord or any Affiliate of the Landlord under its insurance program for its portfolio of properties, or by the Landlord or any Affiliate of the Landlord under a program of self insurance, and in such event Operational Expenses shall include the portion of the reasonable cost of blanket insurance or self insurance that is allocated to the Building.

14.11 The Landlord shall not be obligated to insure and shall not assume any liability of risk of loss for the Tenant's Property, including any such property or work of the Tenant's subtenants or occupants. The Landlord shall also have no obligation to carry insurance against, nor be responsible for, any loss suffered by the Tenant, subtenants or other occupants due to interruption of the Tenant's or any subtenant's or occupant's business.

14.12 To the fullest extent permitted by law, and notwithstanding any term or provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the parties hereto waive and release any and all rights of recovery against the other, and agree not to seek to recover from the other or to make any claim against the other, and in the case of the Landlord, against all Tenant Parties, and in the case of the Tenant, against all Landlord Parties, for any loss or damage incurred by the waiving/releasing party to the extent such loss or damage is insured under any insurance policy required by this Agreement or which would have been so insured had the party carried the insurance it was required to carry hereunder. The Tenant shall obtain from its subtenants and other occupants of the Leased Premises a similar waiver and release of claims against any or all of the Tenant or the Landlord. In addition, the parties hereto (and in the case of the Tenant, its subtenants and other occupants of the Leased Premises) shall procure an appropriate clause in, or endorsement on, any insurance policy required by this Agreement pursuant to which the insurance company waives subrogation so long as no material additional premium is charged for such waiver. The insurance policies required by this Agreement shall contain no provision that would invalidate or restrict the parties' waiver and release of the rights of recovery in this section. The parties hereto covenant that no insurer shall hold any right of subrogation against the parties hereto by virtue of such insurance policy.

14.13 During such times as the Tenant is performing work or having work or services performed in or to the Leased Premises, the Tenant shall require its contractors, and their subcontractors of all tiers, to obtain and maintain commercial general liability, automobile, workers compensation, employer's liability, builder's risk, and equipment/property insurance in such amounts and on such terms as are customarily required of such contractors and subcontractors on similar projects. The amounts and terms of all such insurance are subject to the Landlord's written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The commercial general liability and auto insurance carried by the Tenant's contractors and their subcontractors of all tiers pursuant to this section shall name the Additional Insureds as additional insureds with respect to liability arising out of or related to their work or services. Such insurance shall provide primary coverage without contribution from any other insurance carried by or for the benefit of the Landlord, the Landlord's managing agent, or other Additional Insureds. Such insurance shall also waive any right of subrogation against each Additional Insured. The Tenant shall obtain and submit to the Landlord, prior to the earlier of (i) the entry onto the Leased Premises by such contractors or subcontractors or (ii) commencement of the work or services, certificates of insurance evidencing compliance with the requirements of this section.

15 Casualty Damage to Building or Leased Premises.

15.1 In the event of any damage to the Building or any portion thereof by fire or other casualty, with the result that the Leased Premises are rendered unusable, in whole or in part, or not reasonably accessible to and from the Building's Common Facilities, within thirty (30) business days of the occurrence of the casualty the Landlord shall determine and give notice of its determination to the Tenant whether, due to the extent of damage and the Landlord's reasonable analysis of the economic feasibility of rebuilding or restoring, the Landlord intends not to rebuild or restore the Building or, if the Landlord shall not have made that determination, the Landlord's reasonable opinion of the period of time required to restore the Building and the Leased Premises to their condition immediately prior to the occurrence of the respective casualty (exclusive of any improvements constructed, installed or added in the Leased Premises as contemplated by sections 5 or 12 of this Agreement).

15.1.1 If the Landlord gives timely notice of its determination that it does not intend to rebuild or restore, due to the extent of damage and the Landlord's reasonable analysis of the economic feasibility of rebuilding or restoring, then this Agreement and the Term shall terminate effective as of the date of the subject casualty with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises rendered unusable by the subject casualty and as of the date of the Tenant's surrender with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises which were not rendered unusable by the subject casualty.

15.1.2 If, in the Landlord's reasonable opinion, the restoration contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement will take more than two hundred forty (240) days (inclusive of a reasonable period for adjustment of the Landlord's insurance claim, but exclusive of any period for resort to a formal dispute resolution forum with the insurer), then either the Landlord or the Tenant may elect to terminate the Term and this Agreement (effective as of the date of the subject casualty with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises rendered unusable by the subject casualty and as of the date of the Tenant's giving notice with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises which were not rendered unusable by the subject casualty) by timely notice of its election to the other. Notice of the Landlord's election to terminate, if any, shall be given to the Tenant within the thirty (30) business day period contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement. If the Landlord shall not timely elect to terminate the Term and this Agreement, notice of the Tenant's election to terminate, if any, shall be given to the Landlord within the thirty (30) day period immediately succeeding the Landlord's giving notice to the Tenant of the Landlord's estimated period to rebuild or restore.

15.1.3 If (a) in the Landlord's reasonable opinion, the restoration contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement will take more than two hundred forty (240) days (inclusive of a reasonable period for adjustment of the Landlord's insurance claim, but exclusive of any period for resort to a formal dispute resolution forum with the insurer) and neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall have timely exercised their respective rights to terminate contemplated by subsection 15.1.2 of this Agreement or (b) in the Landlord's reasonable opinion, the restoration contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement will take two hundred forty (240) days or less (inclusive of a reasonable period for adjustment of the Landlord's insurance claim, but exclusive of any period for resort to a formal dispute resolution forum with the insurer), then this Agreement shall remain in effect and the Landlord shall restore the Building and the Leased Premises as contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement to the extent the Landlord shall have received (and no mortgagee of the Property or the Building shall have received) proceeds of any property, casualty or liability insurance on the damaged portions, causing the restoration to proceed diligently and expeditiously. Under the circumstances contemplated by clause (b) of this subsection 15.1.3, if the Landlord shall not have timely restored the Building and the Leased Premises as contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement to the extent the Landlord shall have received proceeds of any property or liability insurance on the damaged portions, the Term shall terminate upon the expiration of ninety (90) additional days (without the Landlord's completion of its restoration obligation in the interim)

after the Tenant shall have given prompt notice that the Landlord has not completed its restoration obligations on a timely basis and that the Tenant desires termination of the Term (which termination shall be effective as of the date of the subject casualty with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises rendered unusable by the subject casualty and as of the date of the Tenant's giving notice with respect to those portions of the Leased Premises which were not rendered unusable by the subject casualty).

15.2 Under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement, Rent shall abate from the date of the casualty until such time as the Building and the Leased Premises are again restored by the Landlord as contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement by the amount which bears the same proportion to the Rent otherwise payable during such period as the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises which are rendered unusable or not reasonably accessible to and from the Common Facilities of the Building bears to the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises.

15.3 The restoration of the improvements constructed or installed in the Leased Premises as contemplated by sections 5 or 12 of this Agreement shall be the Tenant's responsibility. The Tenant shall make reasonable, good faith efforts to integrate the restoration which is its responsibility with the restoration which is the Landlord's responsibility. To the extent such integration is not feasible, the Tenant shall be allowed an additional, reasonable interval to complete its work, not to exceed thirty (30) days after the completion of the Landlord's restoration work, and Rent shall continue to abate until the earlier of (i) the expiration of such additional interval or (ii) the completion of the Tenant's work, to the same extent contemplated by subsection 15.2. The Landlord shall cooperate with the Tenant to integrate the restoration of such improvements during the reconstruction period.

15.4 In the event either the Landlord shall make any election to cancel contemplated by subsection 15.1.1 of this Agreement or either the Landlord or the Tenant shall make any election to cancel contemplated by subsection 15.1.2 of this Agreement, then the Landlord may proceed with restoration (or non-restoration) in any manner it chooses, without any liability to the Tenant.

15.5 The Tenant shall promptly advise the Landlord by the quickest means of communication of the occurrence of any casualty damage to the Building or the Leased Premises of which the Tenant becomes aware.

16 Condemnation.

16.1 This section 16 of the Agreement shall apply if the power of eminent domain (or private purchase by any public or quasi-public body in lieu thereof for any public or quasi-public purpose) shall be exercised with the result that:

16.1.1 all or substantially all the Property or the Leased Premises is taken during the Term for at least the balance of the Term;

16.1.2 less than substantially all the Property, the Building or the Common Facilities (but none of the Leased Premises) is taken during the Term for at least the balance of the Term, but the Landlord reasonably promptly determines in good faith that it is not economically feasible for the Landlord to make any necessary alterations and continue to operate the portions not so taken, as they may be altered, as a first class Building and facility in the vicinity for the balance of the Term;

16.1.3 less than substantially all the Leased Premises is taken during the Term for at least the balance of the Term, but the Tenant reasonably promptly determines in good faith that it cannot continue to use and enjoy the portions not so taken for the conduct of its business in the ordinary course during the balance of the Term; or 16.1.4 so much of the Property or the Common Facilities is taken during the Term for at least the balance of the Term that the Leased Premises are not reasonably accessible to and from the Common Facilities and reasonable alternate access is not provided by the Landlord.

16.2 Under the circumstances contemplated by subsections 16.1.1 and subsections 16.1.4 of this Agreement, then either the Landlord or the Tenant may elect to terminate the Term by notice to the other given within thirty (30) days after, and effective as of, the later of the date (i) that the condemnor acquires title to the portions taken or (ii) that possession of the portions taken is required to be delivered or surrendered to the condemning authority. Under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 16.1.2 of this Agreement the Landlord, and under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 16.1.3 of this Agreement the Tenant, respectively, may elect to terminate the Term by notice to the other given within thirty (30) days after, and effective as of, the later of the date (i) that the condemnor acquires title to the portions taken or (ii) that possession of the portions taken is required to be delivered or surrendered to the condemning authority.

16.3 Under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 16.1 of this Agreement, if no party with any right to elect to terminate the Term under subsection 16.2 of this Agreement shall have given timely notice to the other of exercise of its election to terminate the Term, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, but Rent shall abate, effective as of the later of the date (i) that the condemnor acquires title to the portions taken or (ii) that possession of the portions taken is required to be delivered or surrendered to the condemning authority, by the amount which bears the same proportion to the Rent otherwise payable during any period as the gross rentable floor space, if any, of the Leased Premises which is taken bears to the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises.

16.4 Under any of the circumstances contemplated by this section 16 of the Agreement, the Tenant hereby waives any claim against the Landlord, the condemning authority for anything of value, tangible or intangible, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the putative value of any leasehold interest or the loss of the use of same, except for any right the Tenant might have to make a claim, independent of, and without reference to or having any effect on, any claim, award or settlement of the Landlord, against the condemning authority regarding the value of the Tenant's installed trade fixtures and other installed equipment which are not removable from the Leased Premises or for ordinary and necessary moving and relocation expenses occasioned by the taking.

17 Assignment or Subletting by Tenant.

17.1 Except as may be specifically set forth in this section 17 of the Agreement, the Tenant shall not, by operation of law or otherwise:

17.1.1 assign, or purport to assign, this Agreement or any of the Tenant's rights hereunder;

17.1.2 sublet, or purport to sublet, the Leased Premises or any portion thereof;

17.1.3 license, or purport to license, the use or occupancy of the Leased Premises or any portion thereof;

17.1.4 otherwise transfer, or attempt to transfer any interest including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a mortgage, pledge or security interest, in this Agreement, the Leased Premises or the right to the use and occupancy of the Leased Premises; or

17.1.5 indirectly accomplish, or permit or suffer the accomplishment of, any of the foregoing by merger or consolidation with another entity, by acquisition or disposition of assets or liabilities outside the ordinary course of the Tenant's business or by acquisition or disposition, by the Tenant's equity owners or subordinated creditors, of any of their respective interests in the Tenant.

17.2 The Tenant shall not assign this Agreement or any of the Tenant's rights hereunder or sublet the Leased Premises or any portion thereof without first giving three (3) months' prior notice to the Landlord of its desire to assign or sublet and requesting the Landlord's consent and without first receiving the Landlord's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. The Tenant's notice to the Landlord shall include:

17.2.1 the full name, address and telephone number of the proposed assignee or sublessee;

17.2.2 a description of the type(s) of business in which the proposed assignee or sublessee is engaged and proposes to engage;

17.2.3 a description of the precise use to which the proposed assignee or sublessee intends to put the Leased Premises or portion thereof;

17.2.4 the proposed assignee's or subtenant's most recent quarterly and annual financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and any other evidence of financial position and responsibility that the Tenant or proposed assignee or sublessee may desire to submit;

17.2.5 by diagram and measurement of the actual square feet of floor space, the precise portion of the Leased Premises proposed to be subject to the assignment of this Agreement or to be sublet;

17.2.6 a complete, accurate and detailed description of the terms of the proposed assignment or sublease including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all consideration paid or given, or proposed to be paid or to be given, by the proposed assignee, sublessee or other person to the Tenant and the respective times of payment or delivery;

17.2.7 a payment to the Landlord of an administrative processing fee in the amount of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars; and 17.2.8 any other information reasonably requested by the Landlord.

17.3 By the expiration of the notice period contemplated by subsection 17.2 of this Agreement, the Landlord, in its sole discretion, shall take one of the following actions by notice to the Tenant:

17.3.1 grant consent on the terms and conditions set forth in subsection 17.4 of this Agreement and such other reasonable terms and conditions set forth in the Landlord's notice;

17.3.2 refuse to grant consent for any of the reasons set forth in subsection 17.5 of this Agreement or for any other reasonable reason set forth in the Landlord's notice; or

17.3.3 elect to terminate the Term as of (a) the end of the third full month after the Tenant has given notice of the Tenant's desire to assign or sublet or (b) the proposed effective date of the proposed assignment or sublease.

17.4 The Landlord's consent to the Tenant's proposed assignment or sublease, if granted under subsection 17.3.1 of this Agreement, shall be subject to all the following terms and conditions (and to any other terms and conditions permitted by that subsection):

17.4.1 any proposed assignee or sublessee shall, by document executed and delivered forthwith to the Landlord, agree to be bound by all the obligations of the Tenant set forth in this Agreement;

17.4.2 the Tenant shall remain liable under this Agreement, jointly and severally with any proposed assignee or sublessee, for the timely performance of all obligations of the Tenant set forth in this Agreement;

17.4.3 the Tenant shall forthwith deliver to the Landlord manually executed copies of all documents regarding the proposed assignment or sublease and a written, accurate and complete description, manually executed both by the Tenant and the proposed assignee or sublessee, of any other agreement, arrangement or understanding between them regarding the same;

17.4.4 with respect to any consideration or other thing of value received or to be received by the Tenant in connection with any such assignment or sublease (other than those payable in equal monthly installments each month during the proposed term of any such assignment or sublease), the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord one-half of any such amount and one-half of the fair market value of any other thing of value within ten (10) days of receipt of same; and

17.4.5 with respect to any amount payable to the Tenant in equal monthly installments each month during the proposed term of any such assignment or sublease in connection with such assignment or sublease, which amount is in excess of the amount which bears the same ratio to the monthly installment of Rent due from the Tenant as the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises subject to the assignment or sublease bears to the gross rentable floor space of the entire Leased Premises, the Tenant shall pay one-half of such excess to the Landlord together with the Tenant's monthly installment of Rent.

17.5 The Landlord's refusal to grant consent under subsection 17.3.2 of this Agreement shall not be deemed an unreasonable withholding of consent if based upon any of the following reasons (or any other reason permitted by that subsection):

17.5.1 the Landlord desires to take one of the other actions enumerated in subsection 17.3 of this Agreement;

17.5.2 there is already another assignee, sublessee or licensee of all or a portion of the Leased Premises;

17.5.3 the proposed sublease is for a term of less than one year;

17.5.4 the proposed sublease is for a term which would expire after the Term;

17.5.5 less than one year remains in the Term as of the proposed effective date of the proposed assignment or sublease;

17.5.6 the financial position or ability or type of business of, or the anticipated use of the Leased Premises by, the proposed assignee or proposed sublessee is reasonably unsatisfactory to the Landlord or is inconsistent with those of tenants of Other Leased Premises or of the Carnegie Center Complex or inconsistent with any commitment made by the Landlord to any such other tenant;

17.5.7 the proposed consideration to be paid to the Tenant during any period of twelve (12) months is less than the amount of the Market Rental Rate divided by the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises and multiplied by that portion of the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises proposed to be subject to the proposed assignment or sublease;

17.5.8 [Intentionally Omitted];

17.5.9 the proposed assignee or sublessee is a tenant, sublessee or other occupant of Other Leased Premises or other premises in the Carnegie Center Complex; or

17.5.10 any part of the rent payable under the proposed assignment or sublease shall be based in whole or in part on the income or profits derived from the Leased Premises or if any proposed assignment or sublease shall potentially have any adverse effect on the real estate investment trust qualification requirements applicable to the Landlord and its affiliates.

17.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in section 17 of this Agreement, the Landlord hereby consents to the Tenant's assignment of this Agreement or subletting the Leased Premises or portion thereof specified below if:

17.6.1 at or prior to the respective dates of exercise and effectiveness thereof (a)(i) no Event of Default shall have occurred or (ii) if an Event of Default shall have occurred, the Tenant shall have previously cured it in full or the Landlord shall have waived it and (b) there shall not have been a History of Recurring Events of Default; and

17.6.2 the Tenant and the proposed assignee or sublessee comply with all the conditions set forth in subsections 17.4.1 through 17.4.3 of this Agreement; and

17.6.3 at the date of effectiveness of the proposed assignment or sublet there is not already more than one other assignee, sublessee or licensee of the Leased Premises or any portions thereof; and

17.6.4 one of the following is applicable:

17.6.4.1 the proposed assignee or sublessee is, and continues to be, an Affiliate of the Tenant, provided that the proposed assignee or sublessee shall also have and shall continue to have a net worth at least as great as that of the Tenant on the Commencement Date; or

17.6.4.2 the proposed assignee or sublessee is a person (a) resulting from the merger or consolidation of the Tenant with or into such person or (b) purchasing substantially all the assets (subject to substantially all the liabilities) of the Tenant and succeeding to the business of the Tenant, provided either the Tenant or the proposed assignee or sublessee shall have and shall continue to have a net worth at least as great as that of the Tenant on the Commencement Date.

17.7 No person other than the Tenant shall have any assignment or sublet rights under this Agreement.

18 Signs, Displays and Advertising.

18.1 The Tenant shall have one sign identifying the Landlord's assigned number for the Leased Premises at the principal entrance to the Leased Premises. The Tenant may identify itself in or on each of: the sign at the principal entrance to the Leased Premises, the Building directory and the directory, if any, on the floor of the Building on which the Leased Premises is located. All such signs, and the method and materials used in mounting and dismounting them, shall be in accordance with the Landlord's specifications. All such signs shall be provided and mounted by the Landlord at the Landlord's expense, except that the Tenant shall bear any expense of identifying itself on the sign at the principal entrance to the Leased Premises.

18.2 No other sign, advertisement, fixture or display shall be used by the Tenant on the Property or in the Building or the Common Facilities. Any signs other than those specifically permitted under subsection 18.1 of this Agreement shall be removed promptly by the Tenant or by the Landlord at the Tenant's expense.

19 Quiet Enjoyment. The Landlord is the owner of the Building, the Property and those Common Facilities located on the Property. The Landlord has the right and authority to enter into and execute and deliver this Agreement with the Tenant. So long as an Event of Default shall not have occurred, the Tenant shall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Leased Premises during the Term in accordance with this Agreement.

20 Relocation. At any time and from time to time during the Term, on at least thirty (30) days' prior notice to the Tenant, the Landlord shall have the right to move the Tenant out of the Leased Premises and into premises having at least equal floor space located in the Building or in any other comparable building located in the Carnegie Center Complex for the duration of the Term. In the event the Landlord exercises this right of relocation, the Landlord shall (x) decorate the new premises similarly to the Leased Premises and remove, relocate and reinstall the Tenant's furniture, trade fixtures, furnishings and equipment, all at the sole cost and expense of the Landlord, and (y) cover all reasonable moving expenses of Tenant. When the substitute new premises are ready, the Tenant shall surrender the Leased Premises. Following any such relocation, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect except for the description of the Leased Premises, the Building and the Property which, upon completion of such relocation, shall be deemed amended to describe the substitute new premises, building and property, respectively, to which the Tenant shall have been relocated in accordance with this section 20 of the Agreement.

21 Surrender. Upon termination of the Term, or at any other time at which the Landlord, by virtue of any provision of this Agreement or otherwise has the right to re-enter and re-take possession of the Leased Premises, the Tenant shall surrender possession of the Leased Premises; remove from the Leased Premises all property owned by the Tenant or anyone else other than the Landlord; remove all cabling, hardware and equipment from the ceiling plenum spaces, and/or concealed in wall cavities, including cabling related to the Tenant's movable wall systems or partition office furniture and IT and telecommunications systems, without damaging existing infrastructure and pathways that may support fire alarm systems, lighting systems, electrical systems, fire protection systems, and/or HVAC systems, that the Landlord may request by notice (electrical receptacles shall remain in place in all full height partition walls); remove from the Leased Premises or any Common Facilities any alterations, improvements or other modifications made to the Leased Premises or in the Common Facilities by or on behalf of the Tenant that the Landlord may request by notice; upon such removal restore the Leased Premises to its condition prior to the installation of such alterations, improvements or other modifications and repair any damage occasioned by such removal and restoration; clean the Leased Premises; leave the Leased Premises in as good order and condition as it was upon the completion of any improvements contemplated by section 5 of this Agreement, ordinary wear and use excepted (subject to the right of the Landlord, as stated above, to require the Tenant to remove from the Leased Premises any alterations, improvements or other modifications to the Leased Premises and perform any restoration and repairs); return all copies of all keys and passes to the Leased Premises, the Common Facilities and the Building to the Landlord; and receive the Landlord's written acceptance of the Tenant's surrender. The Landlord shall not be deemed to have accepted the Tenant's surrender of the Leased Premises unless and until the Landlord shall have executed and delivered the Landlord's written acceptance of surrender to the Tenant, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

22 Events of Default. The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute an Event of Default under this Agreement:

22.1 the Tenant's failure to pay any installment of Basic Rent or any amount of Additional Rent when it is first due, provided that Tenant shall not be in default if Tenant fails to pay any installment of Basic Rent or any amount of Additional Rent when it is first due, once in any twelve (12) month period;

22.2 the Tenant's failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement if such failure has caused, or may cause, loss or damage that cannot promptly be cured by subsequent act of the Tenant;

22.3 the Tenant's failure to complete performance of any of the Tenant's obligations under this Agreement (other than those contemplated by subsections 22.1 and 22.2 of this Agreement) within ten (10) days after the Landlord shall have given notice to the Tenant specifying which of the Tenant's obligations has not been performed and in what respects, unless completion of performance within such period of ten (10) days is not possible using diligence and expedience, then within a reasonable time of the Landlord's notice so long as the Tenant shall have commenced substantial performance within the first three (3) days of such period of ten (10) days and shall have continued to provide substantial performance, diligently and expediently, through to completion of performance;

22.4 the discovery that any representation made by the Tenant in this Agreement shall have been inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect either on the date it was made or the date as of which it was made;

22.5 the sale, transfer or other disposition of any interest of the Tenant in the Leased Premises by way of execution or other legal process;

22.6 with the exception of those of the following events to which section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code shall apply in the context of an office lease (in which case subsection 22.7 of this Agreement shall apply):

22.6.1 the Tenant's becoming a "debtor," as that term is defined in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code;

22.6.2 any time when either the value of the Tenant's liabilities exceed the value of the Tenant's assets or the Tenant is unable to pay its obligations as and when they respectively become due in the ordinary course of business;

22.6.3 the appointment of a receiver or trustee of the Tenant's Property or affairs; or

22.6.4 the Tenant's making an assignment for the benefit of, or an arrangement with or among, creditors or filing a petition in insolvency or for reorganization or for the appointment of a receiver;

22.7 in the event of the occurrence of any of the events enumerated in subsection 22.6 of this Agreement to which section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code shall apply in the context of an office lease, the earlier of the bankruptcy trustee's rejection or deemed rejection (as those terms are used in section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) of this Agreement; or

22.8 the Tenant's abandoning the Leased Premises before expiration of the Term without the prior written consent of the Landlord.

23 Rights and Remedies.

23.1 Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default the Landlord shall have all the following rights and remedies:

23.1.1 to elect to terminate the Term by giving notice of such election, and the effective date thereof, to the Tenant and to receive Termination Damages;

23.1.2 to elect to re-enter and re-take possession of the Leased Premises, without thereby terminating the Term, by giving notice of such election, and the effective date thereof, to the Tenant and to receive Re-Leasing Damages;

23.1.3 if the Tenant remains in possession of the Leased Premises after the Tenant's obligation to surrender the Leased Premises shall have arisen, to remove the Tenant and the Tenant's and any others' possessions from the Leased Premises by any of the following means without any liability to the Tenant therefor, any such liability to the Tenant therefor which might otherwise arise being hereby waived by the Tenant: legal proceedings (summary or otherwise), writ of dispossession and any other means and to receive Holdover Damages and, except in the circumstances contemplated by section 20 of this Agreement, to receive all expenses incurred in removing the Tenant and the Tenant's and any others' possessions from the Leased Premises, and of storing such possessions if the Landlord so elects;

23.1.4 to be awarded specific performance, temporary restraints and preliminary and permanent injunctive relief regarding Events of Default where the Landlord's rights and remedies at law may be inadequate, without the necessity of proving actual damages or the inadequacy of the rights and remedies at law;

23.1.5 to receive all expenses incurred in securing, preserving, maintaining and operating the Leased Premises during any period of vacancy, in making repairs to the Leased Premises, in preparing the Leased Premises for re-leasing and in re-leasing the Leased Premises including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any brokerage commissions;

23.1.6 to receive all legal expenses, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, attorneys' fees incurred in connection with pursuing any of the Landlord's rights and remedies, including indemnification rights and remedies;

23.1.7 if the Landlord, in its sole discretion, elects to perform any obligation of the Tenant under this Agreement (other than the obligation to pay Rent) which the Tenant has not timely performed, to receive all expenses incurred in so doing;

23.1.8 to elect to pursue any legal or equitable right and remedy available to the Landlord under this Agreement or otherwise; and

23.1.9 to elect any combination, or any sequential combination of any of the rights and remedies set forth in subsection 23.1 of this Agreement.

23.2 In the event the Landlord elects the right and remedy set forth in subsection 23.1.1 of this Agreement, Termination Damages shall be equal to the amount which, at the time of actual payment thereof to the Landlord, is the sum of:

23.2.1 all accrued but unpaid Rent;

23.2.2 the present value (calculated using the most recently available (at the time of calculation) published weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities having maturities comparable to the balance of the then remaining Term) of the sum of all payments of Rent remaining due (at the time of calculation) until the date the Term would have expired (had there been no election to terminate it earlier) less the present value (similarly calculated) of all payments of rent to be received through the end of the Term (had there been no election to terminate it earlier) from a lessee, if any, of the Leased Premises at the time of calculation (and it shall be assumed for purposes of such calculations that (i) the amount of future Additional Rent due per year under this Agreement will be equal to the average Additional Rent per month due during the twelve (12) full calendar months immediately preceding the date of any such calculation, increasing annually at a rate of eight (8%) percent compounded, (ii) if any calculation is made before the first anniversary of the end of the No Pass Through Period, the average Additional Rent due for any month after the end of the No Pass Through Period will be equal to nine (9%) percent of the sum of the Base Year Operating Expenses, Base Year Taxes, Annual Amortized Capital Expenditures and Tenant Electric Charges (considered on an annual basis), (iii) if any calculation is made before the beginning of the Base Year, the sum of Base Year Taxes and Base Year Operational Expenses shall be assumed to be $5.00 per gross rentable square foot and (iv) if any calculation is made before the end of the Base Year, Base Year Taxes and Base Year Operational Expenses may be extrapolated based on the year to date experience of the Landlord);

23.2.3 the Landlord's reasonably estimated cost of demolishing any leasehold improvements to the Leased Premises; and

23.2.4 that amount, which as of the occurrence of the Event of Default, bears the same ratio to the costs, if any, incurred by the Landlord (and not paid by the Tenant) in building out the Leased Premises in accordance with section 5 of this Agreement as the number of months remaining in the Term (immediately before the occurrence of the Event of Default) bears to the number of months in the entire Term (immediately before the occurrence of the Event of Default).

23.3 In the event the Landlord elects the right and remedy set forth in subsection 23.1.2 of this Agreement, Re-Leasing Damages shall be equal to the Rent less any rent actually and timely received by the Landlord from any lessee of the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, payable at the respective times that Rent is payable under the Agreement plus the cost, if any, to the Landlord of building out or otherwise preparing the Leased Premises for, and leasing the Leased Premises to, any such lessee.

23.4 In the event the Landlord elects the right and remedy set forth in subsection 23.1.3 of this Agreement, Holdover Damages shall mean damages at the rate per month or part thereof equal to the greater of: (a) one and one-half times one-twelfth (1/12) of the then Market Rental Rate plus all Additional Rent as set forth in this Agreement or (b) double the average amount of all payments of Rent due under this Agreement during each of the last twelve (12) full calendar months prior to the Landlord's so electing or, in the event the Term shall have terminated by expiration under subsection 24.1.1 of this Agreement, the last full twelve (12) calendar months of the Term, in either case payable in full on the first day of each holdover month or part thereof. The Tenant's obligations under this subsection 23.4 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

23.5 In connection with any summary proceeding to dispossess and remove the Tenant from the Leased Premises under subsection 23.1.3 of this Agreement, the Tenant hereby waives:

23.5.1 any notices for delivery of possession thereof, of termination, of demand for removal therefrom, of the cause therefor, to cease, to quit and all other notices that might otherwise be required pursuant to 2A N.J.S.A. 18-53 et seq.;

23.5.2 any right the Tenant might otherwise have to cause a termination of the action or proceeding by paying to the Landlord or into court or otherwise any Rent in arrears;

23.5.3 any right the Tenant might otherwise have to a period of waiting between issuance of any warrant in execution of any judgment for possession obtained by the Landlord and the execution thereof;

23.5.4 any right the Tenant might otherwise have to transfer or remove such proceeding from the court (or the particular division or part of the court) or other forum in which it shall have been instituted by the Landlord to another court, division or part;

23.5.5 any right the Tenant might otherwise have to redeem the Tenant's former leasehold interest between the entry of any judgment and the execution of any warrant issued in connection therewith by paying to the Landlord or into Court or otherwise any Rent in arrears; and

23.5.6 any right the Tenant might otherwise have to appeal any judgment awarding possession of the Leased Premises to the Landlord.

23.6 The enumeration of rights and remedies in this section 23 of the Agreement is not intended to be exhaustive or exclusive of any rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to the Landlord, or to force an election of one or more rights and remedies to the exclusion of others, concurrently, consecutively or sequentially. On the contrary, each right and remedy enumerated in this section 23 of the Agreement is intended to be cumulative with each other right and remedy enumerated in this section 23 of the Agreement and with each other right and remedy that might otherwise be available to the Landlord; and the selection of one or more of such rights and remedies at any time shall not be deemed to prevent resort to one or more others of such rights and remedies at the same time or a subsequent time, even with regard to the same occurrence sought to be remedied.

23.7 The Landlord shall have no duty to mitigate damages; provided, however, the Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to re-let the Leased Premises.

24 Termination of the Term.

24.1 The Term shall terminate upon the earliest of the following events to occur:

24.1.1 expiration of the Term;

24.1.2 in connection with a transaction contemplated by section 16 of this Agreement and under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 16.2 of this Agreement, the effective date of termination of the Term as set forth in subsection 16.2;

24.1.3 upon the respective effective dates of termination set forth in the various subsections (whichever may be applicable) of subsection 15.1 of this Agreement providing for termination of the Term under various circumstances;

24.1.4 the effective date of any election by the Landlord under subsection 17.3.3 of this Agreement in response to the Tenant's notice of the Tenant's desire to assign this Agreement or to sublet all or a portion of the Leased Premises; or

24.1.5 the effective date of any election by the Landlord to terminate the Term under subsection 23.1.1 of this Agreement.

24.2 No termination of the Term shall have the effect of releasing the Tenant from any obligation or liability theretofore or thereby incurred and, until the Tenant shall have surrendered the Leased Premises in accordance with section 21 of this Agreement, from any obligation or liability thereafter incurred.

24.3 Any items of Tenant's Property (except money, securities and like valuables) which remain in the Leased Premises after the expiration or earlier termination of the Term may, at the option of the Landlord, be deemed to have been abandoned and in such case may either be retained by the Landlord as its property or may be disposed of without accountability, at the Tenant's expense, in such manner as the Landlord may see fit.

25 Mortgage and Underlying Lease Priority. This Agreement and the estate, interest and rights hereby created for the benefit of the Tenant are, and shall always be, subordinate to any mortgage (other than a mortgage created by the Tenant or a sale, transfer or other disposition by the Tenant in the nature of a security interest in violation of subsections 17.1.4 and 22.5, respectively, of this Agreement) already or afterwards placed on the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Common Facilities, the Building or any estate or interest therein, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any new mortgage or any mortgage extension, renewal, modification, consolidation, replacement, supplement or substitution. This Agreement and the estate, interest and rights hereby created for the benefit of the Tenant are, and shall always be, subordinate to any ground lease already or afterwards made with regard to the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Common Facilities, the Building or any estate or interest therein, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any new ground lease or any ground lease extension, renewal, modification, consolidation, replacement, supplement or substitution. The provisions of this section 25 shall be self-effecting; and no further instrument shall be necessary to effect any such subordination. Nevertheless, the Tenant hereby consents that any mortgagee or mortgagee's successor in interest may, at any time and from time to time, by notice to the Tenant, subordinate its mortgage to the estate and interest created by this Agreement; and upon the giving of such notice, the subject mortgage shall be deemed subordinate to the estate and interest created by this Agreement regardless of the respective times of execution or delivery of either or of recording the subject mortgage.

26 Transfer by Landlord.

26.1 The Landlord shall have the right at any time and from time to time to sell, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Common Facilities or the Building or any of the Landlord's interests therein, or to assign this Agreement or any of the Landlord's rights thereunder.

26.2 Upon giving notice of the occurrence of any transaction contemplated by subsection 26.1 of this Agreement, the Landlord shall thereby be relieved of any obligation that might otherwise exist under this Agreement with respect to periods subsequent to the effective date of any such transaction. If, in connection with any transaction contemplated by subsection 26.1 of this Agreement the Landlord transfers any Security Deposit of the Tenant and gives notice of that fact to the Tenant, the Landlord shall thereby be relieved of any further obligation to the Tenant with regard to any such Security Deposit provided that the successor landlord assumes obligation for the Security Deposit in writing; and the Tenant shall look solely to the transferee with respect to any such Security Deposit.

26.3 In the event of the occurrence of any transaction contemplated by subsection 26.1 of this Agreement the Tenant, upon written request therefor from the transferee, shall attorn to and become the tenant of such transferee upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

26.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary that may be set forth in subsections 26.1, 26.2 and 26.3 of this Agreement, in the event any mortgage contemplated by section 25 of this Agreement is enforced by the respective mortgagee pursuant to remedies provided in the mortgage or otherwise provided by law or equity and any person succeeds to the interest of the Landlord as a result of, or in connection with, any such enforcement, the Tenant shall, upon the request of such successor in interest, automatically attorn to and become the Tenant of such successor in interest without any change in the terms or provisions of this Agreement, except that such successor in interest shall not be bound by: (a) any payment of Basic Rent or Additional Rent (exclusive of prepayments in the nature of a Security Deposit) for more than one month in advance or (b) any amendment or other modification of this Agreement which was made without the consent of such mortgagee or such successor in interest; and, upon the request of such successor in interest, the Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver any instrument(s) confirming such attornment.

26.5 If this Agreement and the estate, interest and rights hereby created for the benefit of the Tenant are ever subject and subordinate to any ground lease contemplated by section 25 of this Agreement:

26.5.1 upon the expiration or earlier termination of the term of any such ground lease before the termination of the Term under this Agreement, the Tenant shall attorn to, and become the Tenant of, the lessor under any such ground lease and recognize such lessor as the Landlord under this Agreement for the balance of the Term; and 26.5.2 such expiration or earlier termination of the term of any such ground lease shall have no effect on the Term under this Agreement.

27 Indemnification.

27.1 To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Tenant waives any right to contribution against the Landlord Parties and agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Landlord Parties from and against all claims of whatever nature by a third party arising from or claimed to have arisen from (i) any act, omission or negligence of the Tenant Parties; (ii) any accident, injury or damage whatsoever caused to any person, or to the property of any person, occurring in or about the Leased Premises from the earlier of (a) the date on which any Tenant Party first enters the Leased Premises for any reason or (b) the Commencement Date, and thereafter throughout and until the end of the Term, and after the end of the Term for so long after the end of the Term as any of the Tenant's Property remains in the Leased Premises, or the Tenant or anyone acting by, through or under the Tenant may use, be in occupancy any part of, or have access to the Leased Premises or any portion thereof; (iii) any accident, injury or damage whatsoever occurring outside the Leased Premises but within the Building, within the Common Facilities, on the Property or within the Carnegie Center Complex, where such accident, injury or damage results, or is claimed to have resulted, from any act, omission or negligence on the part of any of the Tenant Parties; or (iv) any breach of this Agreement by the Tenant. The Tenant shall pay such indemnified amounts as they are incurred by the Landlord Parties. This indemnification shall not be construed to deny or reduce any other rights or obligations of indemnity that a Landlord Party may have under this Agreement. The indemnification rights of the Landlord Parties provided in this Agreement are their exclusive indemnification rights with respect to this Agreement. The Landlord Parties waive any additional rights to indemnification they may have against the Tenant Parties with respect to this Agreement under common law.

27.2 In the event that the Tenant breaches any of its indemnity obligations hereunder: (i) the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord Parties all liabilities, loss, cost, or expense (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred as a result of said breach, and the reasonable value of time expended by the Landlord Parties as a result of said breach; and (ii) the Landlord Parties may deduct and offset from any amounts due to the Tenant under this Agreement any amounts owed by the Tenant pursuant to this section 27.

27.3 The indemnification obligations under this section 27 shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for the Tenant or any subtenant or other occupant of the Leased Premises under workers' compensation acts, disability benefit acts, or other employee benefit acts. The Tenant waives any immunity from or limitation on its indemnity or contribution liability to the Landlord Parties based upon such acts.

27.4 The Tenant shall require its subtenants and other occupants of the Leased Premises to provide similar indemnities to the Landlord Parties in a form reasonably acceptable to the Landlord.

27.5 The terms of this section 27 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement.

27.6 The foregoing indemnity and hold harmless agreement shall include indemnity for all costs, expenses and liabilities (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the Landlord Parties in connection with any such claim or any action or proceeding brought thereon, and the defense thereof. In addition, in the event that any action or proceeding shall be brought against one or more Landlord Parties by reason of any such claim, the Tenant, upon request from the Landlord Party, shall resist and defend such action or proceeding on behalf of the Landlord Party by counsel appointed by the Tenant's insurer (if such claim is covered by insurance without reservation) or otherwise by counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Landlord Party. The Landlord Parties shall not be bound by any compromise or settlement of any such claim, action or proceeding without the prior written consent of such Landlord Parties.

27.7 The Tenant agrees to use and occupy the Leased Premises, and to use such other portions of the Building, the Property and the Carnegie Center Complex as the Tenant is given the right to use by this Agreement, at the Tenant's own risk. Except to the extent caused by the Landlord Parties' negligence or willful misconduct, the Landlord Parties shall not be liable to the Tenant Parties for any damage, injury, loss, compensation, or claim (including, but not limited to, claims for the interruption of or loss to a Tenant Party's business) based on, arising out of or resulting from any cause whatsoever, including, but not limited to, repairs to any portion of the Leased Premises, the Building, the Property or the Carnegie Center Complex, any fire, robbery, theft, mysterious disappearance, or any other crime or casualty, the actions of any tenants of Other Leased Premises or of any other person or persons, or any leakage in any part or portion of the Leased Premises, the Common Facilities, the Building or the Property, or from water, rain or snow that may leak into, or flow from any part of the Leased Premises, the Common Facilities, the Building or the Property, or from drains, pipes or plumbing fixtures in the Building or on the Property. Any goods, property or personal effects stored or placed in or about the Leased Premises shall be at the sole risk of the Tenant Party, and, except to the extent caused by the Landlord Parties' negligence or willful misconduct, neither the Landlord Parties nor their insurers shall in any manner be held responsible therefor. Except to the extent caused by the Landlord Parties' negligence or willful misconduct, the Landlord Parties shall not be responsible or liable to a Tenant Party, or to those claiming by, through or under a Tenant Party, for any loss or damage that may be occasioned by or through the acts or omissions of persons occupying adjoining premises or any part of the premises adjacent to or connecting with the Leased Premises or any part of the Building or otherwise. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the fullest extent permitted by law, and until the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, and during such further period as any of the Tenant's Property remains in the Leased Premises, or the Tenant or anyone acting by, through or under the Tenant may use, or be in occupancy of any part of, or have access to the Leased Premises or of the Building.

27.8 Subject to the limitations set forth in subsections 14.12, 27.7 and 28.3 of this Agreement, and to the extent not resulting from any intentional act, omission, negligence or willful misconduct of the Tenant or its contractors, licensees, invitees, agents, servants or employees, the Landlord agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Tenant from and against any claim by a third party arising from any injury to any person occurring in the Leased Premises, in the Building, on the Property or in the Carnegie Center Complex after the date that possession of the Leased Premises is first delivered to Tenant and until the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, to the extent such injury results from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord or the Landlord's employees, or from any breach or default by the Landlord in the performance or observance of its covenants or obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the aforesaid indemnity render the Landlord responsible or liable for any loss or damage to fixtures, personal property or other property of the Tenant, and the Landlord shall in no event be liable for any of Tenant's indirect or consequential damages. The Tenant shall provide notice of any such third party claim to the Landlord as soon as practicable. The Landlord shall have the right, but not the duty, to defend the claim. The provisions of this subsection 27.8 shall not be applicable to (i) the holder of any mortgage now or hereafter on the Property or the Building (whether or not such holder shall be a mortgagee in possession of or shall have exercised any rights under a conditional, collateral or other assignment of leases and/or rents respecting the Property or the Building), or (ii) any person acquiring title as a result of, or subsequent to, a foreclosure of any such mortgage or a deed in lieu of foreclosure, except to the extent of liability insurance maintained by either of the foregoing.

28 Parties' Liability.

28.1 None of the following occurrences shall constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Landlord, a termination of the Term, an active or constructive eviction or an occurrence requiring an abatement of Rent:

28.1.1 the inability of the Landlord to provide any utility or service to be provided by the Landlord, as described in section 8 of this Agreement which is due to causes beyond the Landlord's control, or to necessary or advisable improvements, maintenance, repairs or emergency, so long as the Landlord uses reasonable efforts and diligence under the circumstances to restore the interrupted service or utility;

28.1.2 any improvement, modification, alteration or other change made to the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Building or the Common Facilities by the Landlord consistently with the Landlord's obligations set forth in subsection 13.2 of this Agreement; and 28.1.3 any change in any Federal, state or local law or ordinance.

28.2 Except for the commencement, duration or termination of the Term (other than under the circumstances contemplated by subsection 15.1 of this Agreement), the Tenant's obligation to make timely payments of Rent, the Tenant's obligation to maintain certain insurance coverage in effect, the Tenant's failure to perform any of its other obligations under this Agreement if such failure has caused loss or damage that cannot promptly be cured by subsequent act of the Tenant and the period within which any type of option or optional right exercisable by the Tenant must be exercised, any period of time during which the Landlord or the Tenant is prevented from performing any of its respective obligations under this Agreement because of fire, any other casualty or catastrophe, strikes, lockouts, civil commotion, acts of God or the public enemy, governmental prohibitions or preemptions, embargoes or inability to obtain labor or material due to shortage, governmental regulation or prohibition or any other cause beyond the Landlord's control, shall be added to the time when such performance is otherwise required under this Agreement.

28.3 In the event the Landlord is an individual, partnership, joint venture, association or a participant in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the Landlord, the partners, venturers, members and joint owners shall not have any personal liability or obligation under or in connection with this Agreement or the Tenant's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises; but recourse shall be limited exclusively to the Landlord's interest in the Building. In no event shall any officer, director, member, shareholder, partner, employee or agent ever be personally liable for any obligation of the Tenant under this Lease.

28.4 If, at any time during the Term, the payment or collection of any Rent otherwise due under this Agreement shall be limited, frozen or otherwise subjected to a moratorium by applicable law, and such limitation, freeze or other moratorium shall subsequently be lifted, whether before or after the termination of the Term, such aggregate amount of Rent as shall not have been paid or collected during the Term on account of any such limitation, freeze or other moratorium, shall thereupon be due and payable at once. There shall be added to the maximum period of any otherwise applicable statute of limitation the entire period during which any such limitation, freeze or other moratorium shall have been in effect.

28.5 If this Agreement is executed by more than one person as the Tenant, their liability under this Agreement and in connection with the use and occupancy of the Leased Premises shall be joint and several.

28.6 In the event any rate of interest, or other charge in the nature of interest, calculated as set forth in this Agreement would lead to the imposition of a rate of interest in excess of the maximum rate permitted by applicable usury law, only the maximum rate permitted shall be charged and collected.

28.7 The rule of construction that any ambiguities that may be contained in any contract shall be construed against the party drafting the contract shall be inapplicable in construing this Agreement.

29 Security Deposit.

29.1 [The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the sum of $6,409.67 as a security deposit to be held by the Landlord as security for the Tenant's performance of all the Tenant's obligations under this Agreement, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the Landlord. The Landlord may commingle the Security Deposit with its general funds. Any interest earned on the Security Deposit shall belong to the Landlord. The Tenant shall not encumber the Security Deposit. The Landlord, in its sole discretion, may apply the Security Deposit to cure any Event of Default under this Agreement. If any such application is made, upon notice by the Landlord to the Tenant, the Tenant shall promptly replace the amount so applied. If there has been no Event of Default, within thirty (30) days after termination of the Term the Landlord shall return the entire balance of the Security Deposit to the Tenant. The Tenant will not look to any foreclosing mortgagee of the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities or any interest therein for such return of the balance of the Security Deposit, unless the mortgagee has expressly assumed the Landlord's obligations under this Agreement or has actually received the balance of the Security Deposit.

30 Representations. The Tenant hereby represents and warrants that:

30.1 no broker or other agent has shown the Leased Premises or the Building to the Tenant, or brought either to the Tenant's attention;

30.2 the execution and delivery of, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by and the performance of all its obligations under, this Agreement by the Tenant have been duly and validly authorized by its general partners, to the extent required by their partnership agreement and applicable law, if the Tenant is a partnership or, if the Tenant is a limited liability company, by its representative(s) and members to the extent required by their operating agreement and applicable law or, if the Tenant is a corporation, by its board of directors and, if necessary, by its stockholders at meetings duly called and held on proper notice for that purpose at which there were respective quorums present and voting throughout; and no other approval, partnership, corporate, governmental or otherwise, is required to authorize any of the foregoing or to give effect to the Tenant's execution and delivery of this Agreement;

30.3 the execution and delivery of, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by and the performance of all its obligations under, this Agreement by the Tenant will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, the provisions of any statute, charter, certificate of incorporation or bylaws or partnership agreement of the Tenant or any affiliate of the Tenant, as presently in effect, or any indenture, mortgage, lease, deed of trust, other agreement, instrument, franchise, permit, license, decree, order, notice, judgment, rule or order to or of which the Tenant or any affiliate of the Tenant is a party, a subject or a recipient or by which the Tenant, any affiliate of the Tenant or any of their respective properties and other assets is bound; and

30.4 (i) the Tenant is not, nor is it owned or controlled directly or indirectly by, any person, group, entity or nation named on any list issued by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") pursuant to Executive Order 13224 or any similar list or any law, order, rule or regulation or any Executive Order of the President of the United States as a terrorist, "Specially Designated National and Blocked Person" or other banned or blocked person (any such person, group, entity or nation being hereinafter referred to as a "Prohibited Person"); (ii) the Tenant is not (nor is it owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any person, group, entity or nation which is) acting directly or indirectly for or on behalf of any Prohibited Person; and (iii) neither Tenant (nor any person, group, entity or nation which owns or controls the Tenant, directly or indirectly) has conducted or will conduct business or has engaged or will engage in any transaction or dealing with any Prohibited Person, including without limitation any assignment of this Agreement or any subletting of all or any portion of the Leased Premises or the making or receiving of any contribution of funds, goods or services to or for the benefit of a Prohibited Person. In connection with the foregoing, is expressly understood and agreed that (x) any breach by the Tenant of the foregoing representations and warranties shall be deemed a default by the Tenant under subsection 22.2 of this Agreement and shall be covered by the indemnity provisions of section 27 of this Agreement, and (y) the representations and warranties contained in this subsection 30.4 shall be continuing in nature and shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

31 Reservation in Favor of Tenant. Neither the Landlord's forwarding a copy of this document to any prospective tenant nor any other act on the part of the Landlord prior to execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Landlord shall give rise to any implication that any prospective tenant has a reservation, an option to lease or an outstanding offer to lease any premises.

32 Tenant's Certificates and Mortgagee Notice Requirements.

32.1 Promptly upon request of the Landlord at any time or from time to time, but in no event more than ten (10) days after the Landlord's respective request, the Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Landlord or its designee an estoppel or other certificate, satisfactory in form and substance to the Landlord and any of its mortgagees, ground lessors or lessees or transferees or prospective mortgagees, ground lessors or lessees or transferees, with respect to any of or all the following matters:

32.1.1 whether this Agreement is then in full force and effect;

32.1.2 whether this Agreement has not been amended, modified, superseded, canceled, repudiated or revoked;

32.1.3 whether the Landlord has satisfactorily completed all construction work, if any, required of the Landlord or contractors selected and retained by the Landlord in connection with readying the Leased Premises for occupancy by the Tenant in accordance with section 5 of this Agreement;

32.1.4 whether the Tenant is then in actual possession of the Leased Premises;

32.1.5 whether the Tenant then has no defenses or counterclaims under this Agreement or otherwise against the Landlord or with respect to the Leased Premises;

32.1.6 whether the Landlord is not then in breach of this Agreement in any respect;

32.1.7 whether the Tenant then has no knowledge of any assignment of this Agreement, the pledging or granting of any security interest in this Agreement or in Rent due and to become due under this Agreement;

32.1.8 whether Rent is not then accruing under this Agreement in accordance with its terms;

32.1.9 whether any Rent is not then in arrears;

32.1.10 whether Rent due or to become due under this Agreement has not been prepaid by more than one month;

32.1.11 if the response to any of the foregoing matters is in the negative, a specification of all the precise reasons that necessitated the negative response in each instance; and

32.1.12 any other matter reasonably requested by the Landlord or any of its mortgagees, ground lessors or lessees or transferees or prospective mortgagees, ground lessors or lessees or transferees, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such information as the Landlord may request for purposes of assuring compliance with the Industrial Site Recovery Act (13 N.J.S.A. 1K-6 et seq.), as it may be amended, and any other applicable Federal, state or local statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or order concerned with environmental matters.

32.2 If, in connection with the Landlord's or a prospective transferee's obtaining financing or refinancing of the Carnegie Center Complex, the Property, the Building, the Common Facilities, any portion thereof or any interest therein, the Landlord or a prospective lender shall so request, the Tenant shall furnish to the requesting party within fifteen (15) days of the request:

32.2.1 its written consent to any requested modifications of this Agreement provided that, in each such instance, the requested modification does not increase the Rent otherwise due or, in the reasonable judgment of the Tenant, otherwise materially increase the obligations of the Tenant under this Agreement or materially adversely affect the Tenant's leasehold interest created hereby or the Tenant's use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises (except in the circumstances contemplated by section 16 of this Agreement); and

32.2.2 summary financial information regarding its financial position as of the close of its most recently completed fiscal year and its most recently completed interim fiscal period and regarding its results of operations for the periods then ended and comparable year earlier periods, certified by the Tenant's chief financial officer to be a complete, accurate and fair presentation of the summary financial information purporting to be set forth therein.

32.3 If the Landlord or any of its mortgagees gives notice to the Tenant of any of their respective names and addresses from time to time, the Tenant shall give notice to each such mortgagee of any notice of breach or default previously or afterwards given by the Tenant to the Landlord under this Agreement and provide in such notice that if the Landlord has not cured such breach or default within any permissible cure period then such mortgagee shall have the greater of (a) an additional period of thirty (30) days or (b) if such default cannot practically be cured within such period, such additional period as is reasonable under the circumstances, within which to cure such default. Upon request of the Landlord at any time or from time to time, the Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Landlord or its designee an acknowledgment of receipt of any such notice, an acknowledgment of receipt of any notice of assignment of this Agreement or rights hereunder by the Landlord to any of its mortgagees and the Tenant's agreement to the foregoing effect on the respective forms, if any, furnished by the Landlord or the respective mortgagees.

33 Appraisal, Waiver of Jury Trial and Arbitration.

33.1 If the Landlord and the Tenant are unable, at any time of reference, to agree on the Market Rental Rate whenever a determination of the Market Rental Rate is required under this Agreement (other than in the context of Holdover Damages), within 15 days after this appraisal procedure is invoked by either party, each shall appoint one qualified appraiser of its choice which two appraisers shall then together choose a third qualified appraiser within 10 days after their appointment. Within 20 days after the appointment of the third appraiser, each of the three appraisers shall submit his or her opinion of the Market Rental Rate, as defined in, and at the time specified by, the definition of Market Rental Rate set forth in Exhibit E attached hereto, by notice to the Landlord and the Tenant. The Market Rental Rate shall be the arithmetic mean of the two closest appraisers' opinions, unless the absolute difference between the middle opinion and the highest and lowest opinion, respectively, is equal, in which case the middle opinion shall be the Market Rental Rate. Any determination of the Market Rental Rate in accordance with this subsection 33.1 of the Agreement shall be final and binding on, and not appealable by, the Landlord and the Tenant with respect to the respective instance in which the appraisal procedure was invoked. An appraiser shall be qualified, as that phrase is used in this subsection 33.1 of the Agreement, if he is independent, a member in good standing of the Appraisal Institute (successor to the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers), has substantial prior experience appraising the market rental values of leased offices in office buildings located in central New Jersey and is not named in subsection 30.1 of this Agreement. The expense of the third appraiser shall be borne equally by the Landlord and the Tenant; otherwise each party shall bear the expense of its respective appraiser.

33.2 The parties hereby waive any right they might otherwise have to a trial by jury in connection with any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or the use and occupancy of the Leased Premises; and, except as otherwise set forth in subsection 33.1 of this Agreement, they hereby consent to arbitration of any such dispute in Princeton, New Jersey, in accordance with the rules for commercial arbitration of the American Arbitration Association or successor organization, except that the Landlord, in its sole discretion, may, with respect to any dispute involving either (i) the Landlord's right to re-enter and re-take possession of the Leased Premises or (ii) the determination of money damages following the occurrence of an Event of Default under this Agreement, elect to pursue any of or all its rights in any court of competent jurisdiction. Judgment upon any arbitration award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

34 Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, any waiver of contribution or claims, indemnity obligation, or limitation of liability or of damages, or the application of any such term or provision to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be conclusively determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

35 Notices. All notices contemplated by, permitted or required by this Agreement shall be in writing. All notices required by this Agreement shall be personally delivered or forwarded by certified mail--return receipt requested, or by a nationally recognized overnight delivery service provided confirmation can be readily obtained of delivery on the next business day, addressed to the intended party at its address first set forth above (adding, in the case of notices to the Landlord after the Commencement Date, "Attention: Lease Administration") or, in the case of notices to the Tenant during the Term or any other period during which the Tenant shall be in possession of the Leased Premises, at the Leased Premises. Either party may from time to time change the address prescribed in this Agreement for notices to it by notice to the other. All notices required under this Agreement shall be deemed given upon their deposit, properly addressed and postage prepaid, in a postal depository or upon personal delivery to the intended party or the next business day after delivery to an overnight courier as described above provided confirmation of delivery on the next business day is obtained, in either case, regardless of whether delivery shall be refused.

36 Captions. Captions have been inserted at the beginning of each section of this Agreement for convenience of reference only and such captions shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any such section of this Agreement.

37 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in more than one counterpart, each of which shall constitute an original of this Agreement but all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

38 Applicable Law. This Agreement and the obligations of the parties hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey.

39 Exclusive Benefit. Except as may be otherwise specifically set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement is made exclusively for the benefit of the parties hereto and their permitted assignees and no one else shall be entitled to any right, remedy or claim by reason of any provision of this Agreement.

40 Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

41 Amendments. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties hereto, subsumes all prior discussions and negotiations and, except as may otherwise be specifically set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement may not be amended or otherwise modified except by a writing signed by all the parties to this Agreement.

42 Waiver. Except as may otherwise be specifically set forth in this Agreement, the failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision of this Agreement shall in no manner affect the right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of any condition, or of the breach of any term, covenant, representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be or construed as a further or continuing waiver of any such condition or breach, or as a waiver of any other condition or of the breach of any other term, covenant, representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement. The Landlord's acceptance of, or endorsement on, any partial payment of Rent or any late payment of Rent from the Tenant shall not operate as a waiver of the Landlord's right to the balance of the Rent due on a timely basis regardless of any writing to the contrary on, or accompanying, the Tenant's partial payment or the Landlord's putative acquiescence therein.

43 Course of Performance. No course of dealing or performance by the parties, or any of them, shall be admissible for the purpose of obtaining an interpretation or construction of this Agreement at variance with the express language of the Agreement itself.

44 Landlord's Concessions. None.

45 Electronic Signatures. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement may be executed by electronic signature, which shall be considered as an original signature for all purposes and shall have the same force and effect as an original signature. Without limitation, "electronic signature" shall include faxed versions of an original signature or electronically scanned and transmitted versions (e.g., via pdf) of an original signature.

BUILDING DESCRIPTION

BUILDING RULES AND REGULATIONS

DEFINITIONS AND INDEX OF DEFINITIONS

In accordance with section 1 of the Agreement of which this exhibit is a part, throughout the Agreement the following terms and phrases shall have the meanings set forth or referred to below:

1 “Additional Rent” means all amounts, other than Basic Rent and any Security Deposit, required to be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord in accordance with this Agreement.

2 “Affiliate” of any person means a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, that person.

3 “Agreement” means this Lease and Lease Agreement (including exhibits), as it may have been amended.

4 “Annual Amortized Capital Expenditure” means the payment amount determined as an annuity in arrears using the cost incurred by the Landlord for any Capital Expenditure as the present value, the number of years of its useful life (not exceeding ten (10) years) selected by the Landlord in accordance with generally applied real estate accounting practice as the number of periods and the Base Rate in effect when the respective improvement is first placed into service plus two (2) additional percentage points as the annual rate of interest; provided, however, if the Landlord reasonably concludes that a particular Capital Expenditure will effect savings in Operational Expenses, including, without limitation, energy, labor or other cost savings (“Projected Savings”), and if the “Projected Payback Period”, as hereinafter defined, will be less than the useful life of the Capital Expenditure as determined above, then the Landlord shall amortize the Capital Expenditure based upon the Projected Payback Period, together with interest thereon at the interest rate as stated above in equal monthly payments. For the purpose herein, the “Projected Payback Period” shall be defined as the number of months or portion thereof required for the Projected Savings in Operational Expenses to equal the cost incurred by the Landlord for such Capital Expenditure.

5 “Base Rate” means the prime commercial lending rate per year as announced from time to time by JP Morgan Chase Bank (National Association) at its principal office in New York City.

6 “Base Year” means the full calendar year 2020 with respect to Operational Expenses and Taxes.

7 “Base Year Operational Expenses” means actual Operational Expenses incurred by the Landlord with respect to the Base Year. Base Year Operational Expenses shall not include increases due to extraordinary circumstances, including but not limited to, Force Majeure, boycotts, conservation surcharges, security concerns, embargoes or shortages.

8 “Base Year Taxes” means actual Taxes incurred by the Landlord with respect to the Property and the Building with respect to the Base Year.

9 “Basic Rent” is defined in subsection 3.2 of this Agreement.

10 "Building" means the office building erected on the Property which is commonly known as 103 Carnegie Center, Princeton, New Jersey 08540, as it may, in the Landlord's sole discretion, be increased, decreased, modified, altered or otherwise changed from time to time before, during or after the Term. As the Building is presently constructed it consists of 95,751 gross rentable square feet of floor space.

11 "Building Description" means Exhibit C attached hereto which generally describes the type of construction of the Building.

12 "Building standard" is defined in Exhibit C of this Agreement.

13 "Capital Expenditure" is defined in subsection 10.3 of this Agreement.

14 "Carnegie Center Complex" means the office development commonly known as Carnegie Center, Princeton (West Windsor Township), New Jersey, bounded on the north by Alexander Road and on the west by U.S. Route 1.

15 "Commencement Date" is defined in section 4 of this Agreement.

16 "Common Facilities" means the areas, facilities and improvements provided by the Landlord in the Building (except the Leased Premises and the Other Leased Premises) and on the Property, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Parking Facilities and driveways on the Property, for non-exclusive use by the Tenant in accordance with subsection 2.2 of this Agreement, as they may, in the Landlord's sole discretion, be increased, decreased, modified, altered or otherwise changed from time to time before, during or after the Term.

17 "Common Walls" means those walls which separate the Leased Premises from Other Leased Premises.

18 "Electric Charges" means all the supplying utility's charges for, or in connection with, furnishing electricity including charges determined by actual usage, any seasonal adjustments, demand charges, energy charges, energy adjustment charges and any other charges, howsoever denominated, of the supplying utility, including sales and excise taxes and the like.

19 "Event of Default" is defined in section 22 of this Agreement.

20 "Expiring Term" means, at the time of reference, the Term as it is then scheduled to expire.

21 "Force Majeure" means (i) strikes or other labor troubles, (ii) governmental preemption in connection with a national emergency, (iii) any rule, order or regulation of any government agency or any department or subdivision thereof, whether in connection with a drought, energy shortage or other like event or otherwise, (iv) any fact, condition or circumstance related to war, terrorism or other emergency, (v) fire, casualty or other acts of God (including the time necessary to repair any damage caused thereby), (vi) the inability to obtain labor or material due to shortage, governmental regulation or prohibition, or (vii) any other cause whatsoever beyond Landlord's reasonable control.

22 The Tenant's "Guests" shall mean the Tenant's licensees, invitees and all others in, on or about the Leased Premises, the Building, the Common Facilities or the Property, either at the Tenant's express or implied request or invitation or for the purpose of soliciting or visiting the Tenant.

23 A "History of Recurring Events of Default" means the occurrence of three or more Events of Default (whether or not cured by the Tenant) in any period of twelve (12) months.

24 "Holdover Damages" is defined in subsection 23.4 of this Agreement.

25 The "Index" means the "all items" index figure for the New York Northeastern New Jersey average of the Consumer Price Index for all urban wage earners and clerical workers which uses a base period of 1982-84=100, published by the United States Department of Labor, so long as it continues to be published. If the Index is not published for a period of three consecutive months, or if its base period is changed, the term "Index" shall mean that index, as nearly equivalent in purpose, function and coverage as practicable to the original Index, which the Landlord shall have designated by notice to the Tenant.

26 "Initial Term" means the period so designated in subsection 4.1 of this Agreement.

27 "Initial Year" means the first twelve (12) full calendar months of the Term.

28 "Landlord" means the person so designated at the beginning of this Agreement and those successors to the Landlord's interest in the Property and/or the Landlord's rights and obligations under this Agreement contemplated by section 26 of this Agreement.

29 "Landlord Party" or "Landlord Parties" shall mean the Landlord, any Affiliate of the Landlord, the Landlord's managing agents for the Building, each mortgagee, if any, each ground lessor, if any, and each of their respective direct or indirect partners, officers, shareholders, directors, members, trustees, beneficiaries, servants, employees, principals, contractors, licensees, agents or representatives.

30 "Lease Year" means the Initial Year and each succeeding period of twelve (12) consecutive calendar months that commences immediately after the end of the immediately preceding Lease Year.

31 "Leased Premises" means that portion of the interior of the Building (as viewed from the interior of the Leased Premises) bounded by the interior sides of the unfinished floor and the finished ceiling on the second floor (as the floors have been designated by the Landlord) of the Building, the centers of all Common Walls and the exterior sides of all walls other than Common Walls, the outline of which floor space is designated on the diagram set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto, which portion contains 1,148 square feet of gross rentable floor space; and references within this Agreement to the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises shall mean the quantity herein specified.

32 "Legal Holidays" means New Year's Day, Presidents' Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

33 “Market Rental Rate” means, at the time of reference, the gross rentable floor space of the Leased Premises multiplied by the greater of: (a) that annual rate of Basic Rent per square foot of gross rentable floor space which is then being quoted by the Landlord for comparable Other Leased Premises at which the Landlord, or other landlords, as the case may be, are then executing leases for new or renewing tenants for comparable leased space located in buildings in the Carnegie Center Complex and the buildings located at 7-9 Roszel Road, Princeton Overlook and University Square, all in West Windsor Township, New Jersey (or would then be quoted if comparable Other Leased Premises were then available), taking into consideration the following factors, if applicable: (i) the term of such lease, (ii) the terms of any workletter associated therewith, (iii) tenant improvement allowances, (iv) free rent or other concessions, and (v) the subject amount of square feet of gross rentable floor space, or (b) that annual rate of Basic Rent per square foot of gross rentable floor space in effect during the last twelve (12) months of the Expiring Term.

34 “Municipality” means the Township of West Windsor in Mercer County, New Jersey, or any successor municipality with jurisdiction over the Property.

35 “No Pass Through Period” means, in the context of Operational Expenses and Taxes, the period beginning on the Commencement Date and ending on December 31, 2020.

36 “Nuisance” means any condition or occurrence which unreasonably or materially interferes with the authorized use and enjoyment of the Other Leased Premises and the Common Facilities by any tenant of Other Leased Premises or by any person authorized to use any Other Leased Premises or Common Facilities or with the authorized use of any other areas, buildings or other improvements in the Carnegie Center Complex.

37 “Operational Expenses” is defined in subsection 10.2 of this Agreement.

38 “Option to Renew” is defined in subsection 6.1 of this Agreement.

39 “Other Leased Premises” means all premises within the Building, with the exception of the Leased Premises, that are, or are available to be, leased to tenants or prospective tenants, respectively.

40 “Parking Facilities” means the parking area located on the Property, containing the approximate number of lined parking spaces set forth in the Building Description, which parking area is provided as Common Facilities.

41 “Person” includes an individual, a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company, a limited liability partnership, a trust, an estate, an unincorporated group of persons and any group of persons.

42 “Property” means the parcel of land, as it may, in the Landlord’s sole discretion, be increased, decreased, modified, altered or otherwise changed from time to time before, during or after the Term, on which the Building is (or is about to be) erected. As the Property is presently constituted, it is more particularly described in Exhibit B attached hereto.

Printed on November 2000

SPECIAL NOTES

1. This Contract shall be applicable to the preleasing of commodity housing and the leasing of premises for which the rent is determined by negotiations based on the principle of market orientation within the administrative area of this municipality, excluding leasing of the public residential premises leased according to the rent standards prescribed by the municipal government, public welfare non-residential premises leased by administrative deployment and constructed by government investment and the private residential premises leased before the implementation of the Regulations in accordance with the rent standards prescribed by the municipal government.

2. Preleasing shall be restricted to the commodity housing invested in and constructed by real estate development enterprises that has obtained the pre-sale license. However, the commodity housing that has been pre-sold by a real estate development enterprise shall not be preleased. The purchasers of the pre-sold commodity housing shall not prelease the pre-sold commodity housing.

3. The term [lease] or [prelease] referred to herein are note symbols, indicating that such provisions are applicable to leasing or preleasing. When this Contract is used as a lease contract for premises, only the contents marked with [lease] shall be adopted; when using as a prelease contract for commodity housing, the contents marked with [prelease] and the provisions in the part “preleasing related matters” of the Supplemental Terms herein shall be adopted. Other provisions not marked with [] shall be general terms applicable to preleasing or leasing.

4. Where this Contract is used for the preleasing of commodity housing, when the construction of the commodity housing is completed and the real estate development enterprise completes the initial real estate registration and obtains the real estate ownership certificate for the premises, the parties to the prelease contract shall execute the handover letter for the use of the commodity housing. After such handover letter for the use of the commodity housing becomes effective, the performance of the terms with respect to prelease in such contract shall be completed.

5. This Contract is a template (for trial) formulated by Shanghai Housing and Land Resources Administration and Shanghai Administration for Industry and Commerce in accordance with the Premises Lease Regulations of Shanghai Municipality. The terms of this Contract are suggestive for the consideration and adoption by the parties to the lease. Any matter not provided herein may be specified by Party A and Party B by entering into supplemental contracts upon mutual agreement of the parties.

6. Before the execution of this Contract, the Lessor shall present the real estate ownership certificate or other proof of title to the Lessee and the real estate development enterprise shall present the pre-sale license to the lessee to the prelease. The parties should also crosscheck the relevant identity proof of each other. Where the premises is leased to a person who is not a resident of Shanghai, the Lessor shall also present the Premises Lease Security Permit issued by the relevant public security authority.

7. Within 15 days from the execution of this Contract, the parties hereto shall complete the registration and filing of this Contract. In the case of lease for premises, this Contract shall be registered or filed with the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system where the premises is located to obtain the lease contract registration and filing certificate; in the case of preleasing of commodity housing, for the commodity housing sold externally, this Contract shall be registered and filed with the municipal real estate transaction center while for the commodity housing sold internally, this Contract shall be registered or filed with the real estate transaction center where the premises is located. After the construction of the preleased commodity housing is completed and the real estate ownership certificate has been obtained, and the parties have executed a handover letter for the use of the preleased commodity housing, this Contract shall be registered and filed with the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system where the premises is located in accordance with the applicable regulations to obtain the lease contract registration and filing certificate. Upon registration and filing of this Contract, this Contract can be used as evidence against third parties where the premises is repeatedly preleased or leased to other parties or the premises is transferred or disposed of for the enforcement of a mortgage created on the premises during the Lease Term.

8. Where a party hereto requires for the registration and filing of this Contract and the other party fails to cooperate with such respect, the party requiring for the registration and filing may apply for the registration and filing by presenting this Contract, the valid identity proof and relevant documents.

9. Deposit for the premises lease is a performance security. In leasing a premises, the Lessor and the Lessee may agree for the payment of a deposit under this Contract. The amount of the deposit shall be agreed upon by the parties hereto. When the lease is terminated, the remaining deposit shall be refunded to the Lessee after subtracting the fees that shall be borne by the Lessee as provided in this Contract.

10. The text of this Contract may be obtained from the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system at the municipal level or the district/county level where the premises is located. The parties hereto shall read this Contract carefully in order to understand the terms hereof before entering into this Contract.

11. This Contract is a template for the reference by the parties hereto.

12. If the leasing under this Contract is represented or handled by a brokerage agency, the parties hereto shall require the brokerage agency and the broker to sign and affix the seal on the last page of this Contract.

Parties to this Contract:

Lessor (Party A): Shanghai Pudong Kerry Parkside Real Estate Co., Ltd. (上海浦东嘉里城房地产有限公司)
(Details see Article 12 of the Supplemental Terms.)

[lease]

Lessee (Party B): Shanghai LianBio Development Co., Ltd. (上海联拓生物科技有限公司)
(Details see Article 12 of the Supplemental Terms.)

Pursuant to the Contract Law of the People's Republic of China and the Premises Lease Regulations of Shanghai Municipality (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulations”), Party A and Party B desire to enter into this Contract in connection with Party B’s leasing of the premises that can be lawfully leased by Party A based on mutual agreements of the parties and according to the principles of equality, willingness, fairness and honesty.

I. Details of the Leased Premises

- 1.1 The premises leased by Party A to Party B is located at Unit X, X/F, Kerry Parkside Office Building at No. 1155 Fangdian Road, Pudong New District in Shanghai (hereinafter referred to as the “Premises”, and Kerry Parkside Office Building as the “Office Building”). The actual measured gross floor area of the Premises is X square meter (see Article 13 of the Supplemental Terms), and the purposes of the Premises are for office use. The structure of the Premises is steel and concrete. Please see Schedule I hereto for the floor plan of the Premises. Party A has presented to Party B: [lease] real estate ownership certificate [certificate no.: Hu Fang Di Pu Zi (2012) No. 012147].
- 1.2 Party A, as the real estate owner of the Premises, establishes a lessor-lessee relationship with Party B. Before signing this Contract, Party A has notified Party B that a mortgage has been created on the Premises.
- 1.3 For (i) the scope, conditions and requirements of the use of the common or shared area of the Premises and (ii) the current decorations, ancillary facilities, status of equipment and the details, standards and related matters of renovation and addition of ancillary facilities to be done by Party B as agreed by Party A are set forth in Schedules II and III hereto, respectively. Both parties agree that such Schedules shall be the basis for the inspection and acceptance for the delivery of the Premises from Party A to Party B and the return of the same by Party B to Party A upon termination of this Contract.

II. Purposes of the Lease

- 2.1 Party B undertakes to Party A that the Premises shall be used for office purposes, and Party B shall comply with the state and municipal regulations with respect to the use of premises and property management.
- 2.2 Party B covenants that, during the Lease Term, it shall not change the above purposes of the Premises without the written consent of Party A and the approval of the relevant authorities in accordance with applicable regulations.

III. Delivery Date and Lease Term

- 3.1 Both parties hereby agree that Party A shall delivery the Premises to Party B by X (Month) X (Date), X (Year). The Lease Term shall commence from X (Month) X (Date), X (Year) to X (Month) X (Date), X (Year). (Not applicable, see Articles 14 and 17 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 3.2 Upon expiration of the Lease Term, Party A shall be entitled to repossess the Premises and Party B shall return the same as scheduled. If Party B needs to renew the lease, Party B shall request for the renewal of lease in writing X months before the expiration of the Lease Term, and the parties shall enter into a new lease contract upon the approval by Party A. (Not applicable, see Article 19(1) of the Supplemental Terms.)

IV. Rent, Payment Method and Payment Term

- 4.1 Both parties agree that the rent for the Premises shall be X (in X currency) per square meter per day. The aggregate monthly rent shall be X (in X currency) (in writing: X). (Not applicable, see Article 15(1) of the Supplemental Terms.)
- The rent for the Premises shall remain unchanged for X (years/months). From the Xth (year/month), both parties may adjust the rent through negotiations. Matters with respect to the adjustment shall be agreed by Party A and Party B in the Supplemental Terms. (Not applicable.)
- 4.2 Party B shall pay the rent to Party A before the Xth day of each month. In case of any default in payment, Party B shall pay the default payment in the amount equal to X% of the rent per day for each day in default. (See Article 27.2 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 4.3 Party B shall pay the rent in the following manner: (See Article 15 of the Supplemental Terms.)

V. Deposit and Other Fees

- 5.1 Both parties agree that on the delivery of the Premises by Party A, Party B shall pay a deposit to Party A in the amount equal to X months' rent, i.e. X (in X currency). (See Article 16 of Supplemental Terms.) Party A shall issue a payment receipt to Party B upon receipt of the deposit. Upon termination of the lease, the deposit received by Party A shall be refunded to Party B without any interest after subtracting the fees that shall be borne by Party B as provided in this Contract and the Supplemental Terms hereto. (See Article 25.3 of the Supplemental Terms.)

- 5.2 During the Lease Term, the charges for water, electricity, gas, telecommunications, equipment, property management, X etc. shall be borne by Party B. Other related charges shall be borne by X. (See Article 15 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 5.3 The calculation and sharing methods, payment method and timeline for the above fees that shall be borne by Party B are as follows: (See Article 15 of the Supplemental Terms.)

VI. Requirements for the Use of the Premises and Maintenance Responsibility

- 6.1 During the Lease Term, if Party B finds any damage or failure in the Premises and its ancillary facilities, Party B shall promptly notify Party A for repair. Party A shall repair within X days upon receipt of the notice from Party B. If Party A fails to repair within the agreed period, Party B may repair on Party A's behalf at the expense of Party A. (See Article 23.2 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 6.2 During the Lease Term, Party B shall reasonably use and take care of the Premises and its ancillary facilities. If the improper or unreasonable use of Party B causes any damage to or failure in the Premises or its ancillary facilities, Party B shall be responsible for the repair. If Party B refuses to repair, Party A may repair on Party B's behalf at the expense of Party B. (See Article 23.3 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 6.3 During the Lease Term, Party A shall make sure the Premises and its ancillary facilities are under normal, usable and safe condition. If Party A intends to conduct inspection and maintenance of the Premises, Party A shall notify Party B X days in advance. During the inspection and maintenance, Party B shall cooperate with Party A and Party A shall minimize the impacts on Party B's use of the Premises. (See Article 23.2 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 6.4 Except for provided in Schedule III hereto, if Party B otherwise needs to renovate or add ancillary facilities and equipment to the Premises, Party B shall only proceed with the renovation or addition of ancillary facilities and equipment after the prior written consent of Party A; and if the approval by relevant authority is required pursuant to applicable regulations, X shall apply with the relevant authority for the approval before such renovation or addition of facilities or equipment. The ownership and maintenance responsibility of the ancillary facilities and equipment added by Party B shall be agreed in writing by Party A and Party B. (See Article 23.4 of the Supplemental Terms.)

VII. Status of the Premises upon Return

- 7.1 Except in the case that Party A agrees the renewal of the lease, Party B shall return the Premises within X days after the expiration of the Lease Term. If Party B fails to timely return the Premises without the consent of Party A, Party B shall pay Party A an amount for occupying the Premises for X for each day in default. (See Article 24 of the Supplemental Terms.)

- 7.2 The Premises returned by Party B shall be in the normal status after normal use. Upon return, the Premises shall be inspected and accepted by Party A and both parties shall settle in full all the fees that shall be borne by each party respectively. (See Article 24 of the Supplemental Terms.)

VIII. Sublease, Transfer and Exchange

- 8.1 Except that Party A has consented to Party B's sublease of the Premises in the Supplemental Terms of this Contract, during the Lease Term, Party B shall not sublease any part or all of the Premises to a third party without Party A's prior written consent, provided that a single residential unit shall not be subleased in parts. (Not applicable, see Article 21.3 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 8.2 If Party B subleases the Premises, Party B and the sub-leasee shall enter into a written sublease contract pursuant to applicable regulations. The sublease contract shall be registered and filed with the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system at the municipal level or the district/county level where the Premises is located pursuant to applicable regulations. (Not applicable, see Article 29.2 of Supplemental Terms.)
- 8.3 During the Lease Term, if Party B intends to transfer the lease of the Premises to another party or exchange the Premises with the leased property of another party, Party B shall obtain the prior written consent of Party A. Upon such transfer or exchange, Party A and the transferee or the counterparty to the exchange shall enter into a novation agreement and continue to perform this Contract. (Not applicable, see Article 21.3 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 8.4 During the Lease Term, if Party A needs to sell the Premises, Party A shall provide a 3 month prior notice to Party B and Party B shall have the right of first refusal to purchase the Premises under the same terms and conditions. (Not applicable, see Article 20.2(2) of the Supplemental Terms.)

IX. Conditions for Terminating this Contract

- 9.1 Party A and Party B agree that during the Lease Term, this Contract shall be terminated in any of the following events and no Party shall be liable to each other:
- (1) the land use rights of the area where the Premises is located are reverted back to the state prior to the expiration of the granted term pursuant to applicable regulations;
 - (2) the Premises is acquired by the government in accordance with law for social and public welfare;
 - (3) the Premises is included in the area permitted for demolition due to city construction needs;
 - (4) the Premises is damaged, destructed or identified as a dangerous building;

(5) Party A has notified Party B that a mortgage has been created on the Premises before the lease and the Premises is being disposed of to enforce such mortgage;

(6) X.

9.2 Party A and Party B agree that any party may terminate this Contract by giving written notice to the other party in any of the following events. The breaching party shall pay liquidated damages to the other party in the amount equal to X times of the monthly rent. If the breach caused the other party any loss and the liquidated damages are insufficient to compensate the other party for such loss, the breaching party shall also compensate the other party the difference between the loss caused by such breach and the liquidated damages:

(1) Party A fails to deliver the Premises as scheduled and Party A fails to cure within X days after Party B's notice;

(2) the Premises delivered by Party A does not comply with this Contract and thus frustrates the purposes of the lease; or the Premises delivered by Party A is defected or endangers the safety of Party B;

(3) Party B changes the usage of the Premises without the written consent of Party A, which results in the damages of the Premises;

(4) the main structure of the Premises is damaged for reasons attributable to Party B;

(5) Party B sublease the Premises, transfer the lease to another party or exchange the Premises with the premises leased by another party without the consent of Party A;

(6) Party B fails to pay the rent for over X months in aggregate;

(7) X.

(Not applicable, see Article 27 of the Supplemental Terms.)

X. Liabilities for Breach of Contract

10.1 If there is any defect in the Premises upon delivery, Party A shall repair such defect within X days after the Delivery Date. If Party A fails to repair during such period, the parties may discuss to reduce the rent or change the relevant terms of rent. (See Article 17(2) of the Supplemental Terms.)

10.2 If Party A fails to notify Party B of the mortgage created on the Premises or that the title transfer of the Premises is restricted prior to the lease, which causes Party B any loss, Party A shall be liable for indemnifications to Party B.

10.3 If Party A fails to promptly perform the maintenance responsibilities as provided in this Contract during the Lease Term and the Premises is thereby damaged, which causes property losses or personal injury to Party B, Party A shall be liable for indemnifications to Party B. (See Article 23.2 of the Supplemental Terms.)

- 10.4 During the Lease Term, except for the circumstances provided herein, if Party A terminates this Contract and repossesses the Premises before the expiration of the Lease Term without the consent of Party B, Party A shall pay Party B liquidated damages in the amount equal to X times of the rent for the number of days of such early repossession. If the liquidated damages are insufficient to compensate Party B for its loss, Party A shall also be liable for the indemnifications of such loss. (Not applicable.)
- 10.5 If Party B renovates the Premises or add ancillary facilities to the Premises without Party A's written consent or out of the scope and requirements set forth in the written consent of Party A, Party A may require Party B to restore the Premises and indemnify Party B for its loss.
- 10.6 During the Lease Term, except for the circumstances provided herein, if Party B terminates the lease before the expiration of the Lease Term without the consent of Party A, Party B shall pay Party A liquidated damages in the amount equal to X times of the rent for the number of days of such early termination. If the liquidated damages are insufficient to compensate Party A for its loss, Party B shall also be liable for the indemnifications of such loss and Party A may deduct such amount from the deposit paid by Party B. If the deposit is insufficient for such deduction, Party B has the obligations to pay the insufficient amount. (Not applicable, see Articles 21.4 and 19(7) of the Supplemental Terms.)

XI. Miscellaneous

- 11.1 If Party A needs to mortgage the Premises during the Lease Term, Party A shall notify Party B in writing. Party A shall undertake to Party B that, after the creation of the mortgage, Party A shall consult with Party B on Party B's intent to purchase the Premises X days prior to the discounted sale or disposal of the Premises for the enforcement of the mortgage. (Not applicable, see Article 20.2(2) of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 11.2 This Contract shall become effective upon the signing and affixing seals by both parties. Within 15 days after effectiveness, Party A shall be responsible for the registration and filing with the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system at the municipal level or the district/county level where the Premises is located to obtain the registration and filing certificate. Upon registration and filing of this Contract, in case of any change hereto or termination hereof, Party X shall be responsible for the registration of the change or termination with the original registration authority within 15 days from the change hereto or termination hereof. Party A shall be liable for any legal dispute arising from Party A's failure to complete the registration and filing of this Contract or any change hereto or termination hereof. (Not applicable, see Article 29.2 of the Supplemental Terms.)
- 11.3 Any matter not provided herein may be specified by Party A and Party B by entering into supplemental contracts based on mutual agreements of the parties. The Supplemental Terms and Schedules hereto are integral parts of this Contract. The words inserted in the blank spaces of this Contract, the Supplemental Terms and Schedules hereto shall have the same legal effect of the printed words.

- 11.4 Upon execution of this Contract, Party A and Party B clearly understand their respective rights, obligations and responsibilities hereunder and are willing to perform this Contract accordingly. If a party breaches this Contract, the other party shall be entitled to indemnifications pursuant to the provisions hereof.
- 11.5 Any dispute arising in the performance of this Contract by Party A and Party B shall be resolve through negotiations. If the parties fail to resolve the dispute through negotiations, both parties agree to elect the second method below to resolve the dispute:
- (1) to submit the dispute to _Arbitration Committee for arbitration;
- (2) to initiate litigation with the People’s Court of Shanghai Pudong New District in accordance with law.
- 11.6 This Contract and the Schedules hereto shall be executed in three counterparts. Each of Party A and Party B shall hold one counterpart and one counterparty shall be submitted to the real estate transaction center or the acceptance office of the farm system of (Shanghai Municipality or Pudong New District/County). All counterparts shall have the same legal effect.

Supplemental Terms

Upon negotiations, Party A and Party B unanimously agree to enter into the following supplemental terms according to Article 11.3 of this Contract for the matters not provided for in the above provisions of this Contract. These Supplemental Terms (including Lease Terms and the Rules of Lease) are integral parts of this Contract. Except for provided otherwise herein, “this Contract” referred to hereinafter shall include these Supplemental Terms. If there is any discrepancy between Articles 1 to 11 of this Contract and these Supplemental Terms, these Supplemental Terms shall prevail.

13. Leased Units and Area

The Premises is located at Units 901 and 902, 9/F of the Office Building with a gross floor area of 600.34 m². Party A represents and warrants that the numbers mentioned in this Article are true and consistent with the actual measured area.

14. Lease Term

The Lease Term of the Premises shall commence from December 23, 2019 to April 6, 2022 (both dates inclusive) (the “Lease Term”).

15. Rent and Payment Method

- (1) The rent for the Premises shall be paid monthly. The aggregate monthly rent shall be RMB164,343.08 (calculated on the basis of RMB9.0/m² (gross floor area)/day), including:

(a) net rent (tax excluded) of RMB156,517.22;

(b) value-added tax of RMB7,825.86. Value-added tax = net rent (tax excluded) x value-added tax rate (determined to be 5% at the time of the execution of this Contract).

During the Lease Term, if the value-added tax rate changes due to state policy or regulation adjustments (including but not limited to the cancellation of the simple tax rate applicable during the transition period for the replacement of business tax with value-added tax), Party B agrees that the value-added tax rate in the above formula shall be the then value-added tax rate adjusted by Party A according to the state policy and regulations, which shall be used for the calculation of the amount of the value-added tax to be borne by Party B and the aggregate monthly rent (tax included) shall be adjusted accordingly. Party B shall make full payments of the adjusted aggregate monthly rent (tax included) to Party A.

- (2) The rate of property management fee shall be RMB 35/m² (gross floor area)/month. Party B shall make advance payment of the property management fee to the management company of the Office Building (the “Property Company”) prior to the 1st day of each month. If the rate of the property management fee is adjusted, Party B shall pay the monthly property management fee according to the adjusted fee rate. The current Property Company of the Office Building is Kerry Properties Development Management (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. (嘉里建设管理 (上海) 有限公司).
- (3) Except for provided otherwise herein, the rent and property management fee shall exclude the government taxes and other expenses or bank charges payable by Party B, and the monthly rent shall be paid prior to the 1st day of each month without any deduction. If the first month or the last month in the Lease Term is less than one month, the rent and property management fee shall be adjusted in proportion to the number of days of actual use in such month.
- (4) Party B shall make a prepayment to Party A in the amount equal to the sum of one month’s rent and property management fee applicable during the Lease Term (the “Prepayment”) within 5 days from the execution hereof.
- (5) Other Fees

Pursuant to this Contract, Party B shall pay the fees as provided on the bills issued by Party A or the Property Company, including the following:

- (a) The electricity charges (Party A is entitled to adjust the unit price according to the price adjustment made by the relevant public affair organization), additional air-conditioning charges (if applicable) and other charges for public utilities that should be borne by Party B for its use of the Premises.
- (b) The regular period for air-conditioning is 8:00 am to 7:00 pm from Monday to Friday and 8:00 am to 1:00 pm on Saturday, except for statutory holidays. If Party B requires for additional air-conditioning outside of the above hours, Party

B shall notify the Property Company 4 hours in advance and pay the fees for the additional air-conditioning in accordance with the fee rate of Party A or the Property Company for the additional air-conditioning. The current fee rate is RMB0.5/hour/m² and the minimum charge shall be RMB500/hour.

- (c) Party A shall provide Party B with the standard signs on the tenant signboard of the Office Building and the signs of the floor where the Premises is located. The initial preparation and installation of the signs shall be the responsibility of Party A. However, Party B shall pay the costs in relation to the installation and preparation for subsequent changes of such signs.
- (d) Except for the fees and charges set forth above, if there are other fees payable by Party B according to the relevant management rules of the Office Building or applicable government regulations, Party A shall give prior written notice to Party B for such other fees.

All fees incurred in connection with Party B's use of the Premises, including but not limited to the rent, property management fee and the fees set forth in this Article, shall be collectively referred to as the "Payables".

All rent, property management fee and other Payables mentioned in this Contract, except for those specified to be tax excluded, shall include the amount of value-added tax of Party A/the Property Company.

16. Deposit

- (1) Within 5 days after the execution of this Contract and no later than the delivery of the Premises, Party B shall pay a deposit in an amount equal to the sum of 3 months' rent and property management fee, which shall be RMB556,064.94.
- (2) If the rent and/or the property management fee are adjusted, Party B shall make additional payment to Party A to maintain the deposit at the amount equal to the sum of 3 months' rent and property management fee. The additional payment shall be the difference between the amounts of the sum of 3 months' rent the property management fee applicable before and after such adjustment.

17. Delivery

- (1) Delivery Date: Both parties agree to deliver the Premises on December 23, 2019.
- (2) Party A shall deliver the Premises to Party B in the "as is" status as of the Delivery Date (see Schedule III for specific delivery conditions). Upon Party B's acceptance of the Premises accordingly, it shall be confirmed that the Premises is under appropriate condition for lease and in compliance with this Contract. The return standard under Article 2 of Schedule III shall be the basis for the inspection and acceptance of Party B's return of the Premises upon the expiration of the Lease Term.

- (3) If Party B fails to timely pay the deposit and Prepayment in full as provided in this Contract, Party A shall be entitled to refuse the delivery of the Premises, terminate this Contract and forfeit the deposit or Prepayment paid by Party B (if any).

18. Usage

The Premises shall be used as the office of Party B only.

19. Special Terms

(1) Terms for Renewal

Subject to Party B's compliance with and performance of this Contract, Party B shall have the right to renew the lease once for a term of two (2) years before the expiration of the Lease Term.

The renewal rent shall be paid monthly and the aggregate rent for each month shall be RMB164,343.08 (calculated on the basis of RMB9.0/m² (gross floor area)/day)), including:

- (a) net rent (tax excluded) of RMB156,517.22;
- (b) valued-added tax of RMB7,825.86. Value-added tax = net rent (tax excluded) x value-added tax rate (determined to be 5% at the time of the execution of this Contract).

During the Lease Term, if the value-added tax rate changes due to state policy or regulation adjustments (including but not limited to the cancellation of the simple tax rate applicable during the transition period for the replacement of business tax with value-added tax), Party B agrees that the value-added tax rate in the above formula shall be the then value-added tax rate adjusted by Party A according to the state policy and regulations, which shall be used for the calculation of the amount of the value-added tax to be borne by Party B and the aggregate monthly rent (tax included) shall be adjusted accordingly. Party B shall make full payments of the adjusted aggregate monthly rent (tax included) to Party A.

If Party B intends to continue the lease of the Premises, Party B shall deliver a 6 months' prior written notice to Party A for the renewal of the lease and the parties shall enter into a new lease contract. The terms and conditions of the renewed lease (except for the further renewal term, rent-free period, property management fee, deposit, right to lease renewal, renovation period, right to expand the leased area) shall be consistent with the terms and conditions of this Contract, except for provided otherwise by laws and regulations. If Party B fails to deliver a lease renewal notice within the above timeline, this Contract shall be terminated at the expiration of the Lease Term and Party B shall no longer have the right of first refusal to lease the Premises under the same terms and conditions.

(2) Terms for Expansion of Leased Area

If Party B needs to expand the leased area during the Lease Term, Party B shall notify Party A in writing the area to be expanded, the expected commencement time and such other requirements. Upon receipt of Party B's written notice, Party A shall notify Party B in writing the potential available units and the expected available date or the currently available units. Party B shall respond to Party A whether Party B intends to expand the leased area or not within 5 business days after receipt of Party A's notice. If Party B decides to expand the leased area, the expiration date of the new lease contract shall be the same expiration date hereof. However, the rent for the expanded area shall be negotiated by both parties according to the then applicable rent in the public market. If Party B decides not to expand the leased area or fails to respond to Party A in writing within 5 business days, Party A shall be entitled to lease such available units to other parties and the lease expansion notice previously delivered by Party B shall automatically become invalid. If Party B subsequently requests for lease expansion again, Party B shall submit another written notice to Party A.

(3) Terms for Renovation

- (a) Party B shall have to right to conduct decoration, separation, design, reconstruction, equipment installation, repair or such other works on the Premises at its own desire during the Lease Term (except for the circumstances requiring the approvals by the relevant government authority or public affair organization). Party B shall submit a renovation proposal to Party A for Party A's approval before Party B's renovation (Party A shall assist Party B with such respect in a reasonable manner and shall not unreasonably withhold its approval).
- (b) Party A shall use best efforts to assist Party B with applying for the approvals by the relevant government authorities and public affair organization for such renovation proposal. Upon Party B's requests (such requests must be reasonable, legitimate and necessary for Party B's application), Party A shall sign (or issue) the necessary and reasonable applications, documents, receipts, contracts, letters and requests. Party A shall cause the Property Company to sign or issue the necessary and reasonable documents or provide necessary and reasonable assistance as required by the relevant government regulations.
- (c) The renovation period for the Premises shall be 3 months, commencing from December 23, 2019 to March 22, 2020 (both dates inclusive). During the renovation period, Party B does not need to pay any rent, but shall pay the property management fee (based on the fee rate provided in Article 15(2) hereof) and other Payables. Party B shall continue to perform other applicable terms of this Contract during the renovation period.
- (d) If Party B completes the renovation before the expiration of the renovation period, Party B may move into the Premises for business operation with the written consent of Party A and/or the Property Company. Party B shall continue to pay the property management fee and other Payables as provided in the previous paragraph.

- (4) Each party agrees to provide its own business license and the internal authorization document (if applicable) to the other party upon the execution of this Contract to prove that each Party has obtained its respective internal corporate approval that is necessary for the execution and performance of this Contract.
- (5) Access Right to the Building Where the Premises is Located Party B shall have the right to access the Premises 7 days a week and 24 hours a day. The employees of Party B shall be permitted to access the Premises through the passenger elevators of the building designated by Party A at any time out of the regular business hours. However, Party B shall comply with any security measures reasonably implemented by Party A at any time, such as registration with the security guards of the Property Company.
- (6) If Party A is unable to timely deliver the Premises on the Delivery Date due to the late return by the previous tenant of the Premises to Party A, Party A shall promptly notify Party B the delayed delivery of the Premises and Party A shall not be liable for any other indemnifications except for the foregoing notice obligations. In such case, the renovation period and the Lease Term shall be extended according to the actual date of delivery.
- (7) During the Lease Term, neither party shall terminate this Contract without the consent of the other party. If Party B intends to terminate this Contract before the expiration of the Lease Term, Party B shall deliver a written notice to Party A at least 30 days in advance to obtain Party A's written approval. At such time, except for paying all the Payables to Party A, Party B shall also perform its obligations provided herein, including but not limited to restoring the Premises to its original state and paying the liquidated damages in the amount calculated as follows: Party B shall pay Party A liquidated damages for early termination of this Contract in the amount equal to the sum of the total deposit and the amount of three times of the then applicable rent for the Premises.
- (8) Rent-free Period
 - (a) During the Lease Term, Party A agrees to provide Party B with a rent-free period of 0.5 month, specifically from March 23, 2022 to April 6, 2022 (both days inclusive).
 - (b) During the rent-free period above, Party B does not need to pay the rent for the Premises but shall pay all the other Payables as provided in the Contract.

If Party B terminates the lease prior to the expiration of the Lease Term, or the lease is terminated prior to the expiration of the Lease Term for a reason not attributable to Party A, then

- (i) if the rent-free period has not expired, Party B shall no longer have any rent-free period;
 - (ii) if the rent-free period has expired, Party B shall pay Party A in full the rent for the part that was waived during the rent-free period as calculated according to the fee rate of the rent provided in this Contract.
- (9) As of the execution date of this Contract, Party A represents and warrants that Party A shall be the sole owner of the Office Building and shall be entitled to lease the Premises to Party B and have the capacity to sign this Contract.

Section II Rules of Lease

20. Rights of Party A and Party B

20.1 Rights of Party A

- (1) Party A shall be entitled to collect the Payables that should be paid by Party B as provided herein at the time and in the manner as provided herein.
- (2) Party A shall have the right to name the Office Building and change such name upon approval by the relevant government authorities without the consent of Party B. Party A shall not liable to Party B for any responsibilities arising from the name change of the Office Building. However, Party A shall promptly notify Party B after the name change of the Office Building.
- (3) Within the last 6 months of the Lease Term, Party A may take clients to visit the Premises during the normal business hours of Party B by giving prior notice to Party B. Party A shall minimize the impacts on Party B's regular business operations.
- (4) In order to maintain the quality of the Office Building and subject to the conditions of the overall interest of the Office Building, Party A shall be entitled to implement or amend, or authorize the Property Company to implement or amend, the relevant management rules in writing.

20.2 Rights of Party B

- (1) Subject to the timely performance of its various payment obligations as provided in this Contract, Party B shall be entitled to use the Premises during the Lease Term, provided that Party B's use shall comply with the terms of this Contract and the management rules of the Office Building.
- (2) During the Lease Term, if Party A sells the Premises or the Premises is disposed of for the enforcement of the mortgage that has been created thereon, Party B agrees to waive its right of first refusal to purchase the Premises. If Party A sells the Premises, Party A shall give prior written notice to Party B; if the Premises shall be disposed of for the enforcement of the mortgage that has been created thereon, Party A shall promptly give written notice to Party B upon awareness of such disposal.

Party A may mortgage the Premises at its own discretion during the Lease Term without the consent of Party B, but Party A may notify Party B of the mortgage afterwards. The rights of Party B hereunder shall not be affected by such mortgage.

21. Obligations of Party A and Party B

21.1 Party A shall perform the following repair and maintenance obligations:

- (1) To maintain the public facilities and common area of the Office Building in good and operational condition;
- (2) To ensure that Party B shall be the sole occupant of the Premises without any unreasonable interruption by Party A throughout the Lease Term, and that no third party shall be entitled to claim against Party B of the same lease rights for the Premises;
- (3) To keep the common area of the Office Building clean; adopt necessary and precautions measures to prevent the Premises and the building where the Premises is located or any other parts thereof from damages of termites, mice, other animals or pests;
- (4) To maintain the public order and security of the Office Building;
- (5) To maintain the normal operation of the lifts, fire prevention facilities (Party A shall ensure that the Premises are equipped with the smoke detectors and fire sprinklers approved by Shanghai Fire Department), air-conditioning and such other equipment of the Office Building.

21.2 Party B shall use the Premises for the purposes as provided in this Contract and comply with the relevant management rules implemented by Party A or the Property Company, including but not limited to the renovation manual and the tenant handbook. Party B agrees that such property management rules are integral parts of this Contract. If there is any discrepancy between such management rules and this Contract, this Contract shall prevail.

21.3 Party B shall not sublease the Premises in any manner for any third party's use or partial use of the Premises. In the event of any of the following, Party B shall obtain the prior written consent of Party A, or Party B shall be deemed to breach this Contract:

- (1) If Party B is a partnership enterprise, Party B accepts or reduces one or more partner(s) without the consent of Party A;
- (2) If Party B is an individual or a sole proprietorship or a small business owned by an individual, Party B fails to continue to perform this Contract for any reason or has lost its civil capacity and the successor or authorized representative of Party B uses or occupies the Premises or a part thereof;

- (3) If Party B is a limited liability company, the merger, spin-off, bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution or change in controlling shareholder or beneficial owner of Party B causes Party B unable to continue the performance of this Contract;
 - (4) Party B authorizes or delegates a third party to occupy or use the Premises or any part thereof;
 - (5) If Party B changes its legal name, Party B shall provide Party A a photocopy of Party B's updated business license within 30 days after obtaining the updated business license.
- 21.4 Except for provided otherwise herein, Party B shall not terminate this Contract without Party A's consent before the expiration of the Lease Term or any renewed lease term.
- 21.5 In order to protect the overall image and reputation of the Office Building, Party B agrees that the appearance of the Office Building and the internal decorations and images of all floors visible from the outside of the Office Building shall be decent and consistent. Party B understands and hereby further agrees to work with Party A to this end, agrees to be subject to the supervision of Party A or the Property Company, and agree to the following restrictions: Party B shall not install, paste, hang, place or display in the Premises any lighting signs, service marks, advertising signs or publicity materials that are visible from the outside of the Office Building, or Party A or the Property Company shall be entitled to require Party B to remove these items at the expense of Party B.
- 21.6 Party B shall not post any notice, decoration, slogan or advertisement on the external part or any public area of the Premises or post any notice, recruitment advertisement or such other information at the entrance of the Premises, or Party A or the Property Company shall be entitled to request Party B to remove such items posted by Party B without the consent of Party A.
- 21.7 Party B may use the name of Party A or the Office Building to demonstrate the address and operation location of Party B at the Premises. If Party A needs to use the names or the signs of Party A or the Office Building or any part thereof for other business purposes, Party B shall apply for Party A's prior written consent before such use.
- 21.8 Party B shall not use the Premises for other purposes, including but not limited to illegal, immoral production/storage of goods/commodities unrelated to the purposes of the Premises, storage of explosives or dangerous goods, or for residential, bedroom or dormitory purposes.
- 21.9 If Party B needs to load and unload goods, the loading or unloading shall be conducted during the time, through the service entrance and service lifts and in compliance with other requirements designated by Party A or the Property Company.
- 21.10 During the Lease Term, Party B shall not make, or permit others to make, in the Premises any disturbing or irritating noise, or use any music or noise (including the noise from broadcasting or any equipment that can produce, receive, record or broadcast) to disturb the other tenants of the Office Building. Party B shall not make any odor in the Premises and cause nuisance to the other tenants of the Office Building.

- 21.11 If the improper or inappropriate use or negligence of Party B or its contractors, employees, agents or visitors, or Party B's improper installation or design of renovation of plumbing system, restroom facilities or sanitation facilities in the Premises or the common area of the Office Building where the Premises is located, causes any leakage, blockage, damage or shutdown of sewers, restroom facilities or sanitation facilities or other plumbing system in the Premises or the common area of the Office Building, Party B shall repair and restore the normal operation of the facilities as soon as possible, or Party B shall bear all costs for the clearing, repair or change of such facilities/plumbing system by Party A or the Property Company.
- 21.12 Party B shall adopt precautionary measures to prevent the Premises or any part thereof from being infested by pests, and shall conduct regular pest control at its own expense as instructed by Party A or the Property Company. Animals or pets are prohibited from the Premises.
- 21.13 Without the prior written consent of Party A or the Property Company, Party B shall not install any equipment that is connected to or affect the normal use of the fire prevention system, alarm system, preservation system and such other systems of the Office Building.
- 21.14 Party B shall maintain the order of the public area of the Office Building and shall not store items in the public and/or common area, or Party A or the Property Company shall have the right to remove these items at the expense of Party B.
- 21.15 Party A shall purchase necessary insurance for the Office Building, including all-risk property insurance and public liability insurance. Party B may purchase the necessary insurance selected at its own discretion for the Premises, including fire insurance, water insurance, public liability insurance and all-risk decoration construction insurance. Such insurance of Party B shall be procured according to the insured scope and amount required by Party A. Party B shall also provide the photocopies of all the valid insurance policies to Party A. Without the consent of Party A, Party B shall not cancel or amend such insurance policies or impose any restrictions thereon. Party B may procure property insurance for its own property on the Premises as needed (such as theft insurance, cash insurance, business interruption insurance, etc.).
- 21.16 Party B shall not engage in any act or cause any event which may result in the invalidity of the insurance procured by Party A for the Office Building or the whole project on which it is located (including all-risk property insurance and public liability insurance) or permit any act or event which may result in the increase of the relevant premium. Where the premium of Party A is increased due to an act of Party B, Party A shall be entitled to claim indemnifications from Party B. Party A shall provide necessary documents to prove such claim and such documents shall comply with the relevant laws and regulations.

- 21.17 If the glass walls of the Premises are damaged due to the fault of Party B or its employees, agents, contractors or visitors, Party B shall promptly repair at its own expense.
- 21.18 If any person suffers any loss, damages or injury due to the act or negligence of Party B or its employees, contractors, agents or visitors, Party B shall indemnify such person and compensate Party A for Party A's loss caused by such act or negligence.
- 21.19 If the supply of water, power, telecommunications, air-conditioning, lifts and other public utilities of the Premises is suspended or broken down, or the supply of water, power, telecommunications, air-conditioning, lifts and other public utilities of the Premises is temporarily suspended or interrupted due to the maintenance, renovation or reconstruction of the Premises, the units adjacent to the Premises, the Office Building or the malls/apartment connecting to the Office Building, and Party B thus suffers any loss or encounters other obstacles and inconvenience, Party A shall not be liable for the loss of Party B (if any). Party A shall use best efforts to maintain a silent environment for Party B's use of the Premises and minimize any interruption caused by any third party to Party B's use of Premises.
- 21.20 Party A shall not be liable for any personal injury or loss of property on the Premises at any time caused by reasons not attributable to Party A.
- 21.21 If any party breaches this Contract, the non-breaching party's acceptance of the liquidated damages paid by the breaching party or any tolerance thereof shall not be deemed a waiver by the non-breaching party of its rights to claim indemnifications from the breaching party for breach of contract.
- 21.22 During the Lease Term, if Party A intends to conduct alterations, additions or decorations to the Office Building, Party A shall deliver a prior written notice to Party B or make an announcement in advance. Party B hereby acknowledges that if Party A notifies Party B or make an announcement as provided above, Party A shall have the right to renovate, add, reduce, dispose of any part or any facilities of the Office Building (except the facilities in the Premises that is owned by Party B) at its own desire.

22. Terms of Renovation

- 22.1 When conducting renovation for the Premises, Party B shall comply with the provisions and guidelines of Party A and/or the Property Company, laws and regulations and the rules implemented by the relevant government authorities in relation to renovation.
- 22.2 Party B shall strictly comply with the requirements of Party A or the Property Company and submit the design and work details for the internal renovation of the Premises to Party A or the Property Company for examination and approval (such approval or consent shall not be unreasonably withheld unreasonably). Upon the examination and approval by Party A or the Property Company and the relevant government authorities (all fees arising from the submission to government authorities for approval shall be borne by Party B), Party B shall submit the photocopies of the approvals by the government to Party A or the Property Company for records. Party A or the Property

Company shall not be liable for any damages or claims arising from any defect in the design, renovation quality or other aspects for approving such renovation work. Party B shall design and implement the renovation work according to the final approval by Party A or the Property Company and shall not commence any renovation work or change any approved renovation design without the prior written consent of Party A or the Property Company.

- 22.3 Any fire prevention work in the internal renovation of the Premises by Party B shall be conducted by the contractor reasonably designated by Party A.
- 22.4 Before the commencement of the renovation work of the Premises, Party B shall pay the renovation deposit, [management fee during the renovation period], garbage removal charge and such other fees that shall be paid by Party B according to the standard fee rates of Party A or the Property Company. Party B shall purchase the all-risk renovation insurance for the renovation work and pay for all the taxes and fees (if any) charged by the relevant authorities for the renovation of the Premises. Upon Party A or the Property Company's inspection and acceptance after the completion of the renovation work, Party A or the Property Company shall refund the renovation deposit to Party B (without interest) within 30 days. If Party B breaches the renovation rules and requirements of Party A or the Property Company during the renovation, Party A or the Property Company shall be entitled to withhold the renovation deposit until Party B completes all the rectification work and such rectification work is accepted by Party A or the Property Company.
- 22.5 If the renovation work conducted by Party B causes any damages to any part of the Premises or the Office Building, and/or impacts and/or causes losses to Party A and/or other relevant parties, Party B shall immediately cure such damages and indemnify Party A and/or other relevant parties for their losses as required by Party A and/or the Property Company. If Party B fails to cure and/or indemnify within the period prescribed by Party A or the Property Company, Party B shall be deemed to breach this Contract and Party A may give a 3 days prior written notice to terminate this Contract and claim indemnifications against Party B for breach of contract.
- 22.6 Party B shall complete the renovation work within the agreed renovation period and shall not delay the completion of the renovation of the Premises or the payment of the Payables herein for the reasons of, among others, change of renovation plan, failure to obtain approvals from government authorities for the renovation plan, renovation work being suspended or punished during the renovation or rectification required by Party A.
- 23. Repair and Maintenance of the Premises
- 23.1 If Party B notifies Party A that there is any damages or failure in the public area, main structure, renovation, ancillary facilities and equipment during the repair and maintenance process, Party A shall commence the maintenance work within a reasonable period upon receipt of notice from Party B and Party A shall complete such maintenance as soon as possible.

- 23.2 Party B shall maintain the Premises and all the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing in the Premises provided by Party A in good and clean condition (except for the normal wear and tear).
- 23.3 Upon prior written notice within a reasonable period of time, Party B shall permit Party A and its authorized personnel to access the Premises to inspect and conduct inventory check of the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing owned by Party A and proceed with necessary repair and maintenance during a reasonable period of time. However, Party A shall minimize the interruptions caused to Party B. In case of emergency, Party A or the Property Company and/or the authorized personnel may enter the Premises without giving a prior notice. If Party B does not cooperate with Party A or obstruct Party A for maintenance, Party B shall be liable for all the consequences arising therefrom. If Party B subsequently finds out any damages within the Premises and any failure of or defect in the relevant facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing, Party B shall promptly notify Party A or the Property Company in writing. If it is Party A's repair responsibilities, Party A shall commence the repair within 5 business days upon receipt of the notice from Party B and complete the repair and maintenance within a reasonable and feasible period of time.
- 23.4 Party B shall cause its employees, contractors, agents or visitors to properly use and take care of the Premises and the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing thereof, and bear the repairing responsibility for any damages to the Premises and the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing thereof caused by its employees, contracts, agents or visitors. If Party B fails to repair within the period of time required by Party A, Party A may repair on Party B's behalf at the expense of Party B. Party B shall also indemnify Party A of any loss arising from Party B's failure to timely repair as provided in this Article.
- 23.5 Without the prior written consent of Party A, Party B shall not install any fixtures, equipment or wiring and plumbing within the Premises. If the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing installed by Party B are dangerous or causes any safety concerns, Party B shall immediately repair, change or remove such facilities upon the repair or exchange requests of Party A or the public affair organization. Party A or the Property Company shall be entitled to check the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing laid or installed by Party B at a reasonable time. Party B shall be liable for the loss caused by the failure or improper repair or maintenance of the facilities, equipment, wirings and plumbing by Party B.
- 23.6 If all or part of the Premises is damaged due to force majeure or the Premises is thereby inappropriate for lease for a considerable time, Party B may cease to pay a part or all of the rent according to the ratio of the office area that cannot be normally used to the entire leased area from the occurrence date of such damages until the date when the Premises is repaired. If the repair of the Premises is economically unreasonable or impractical, Party A shall not be liable for such repair. If the Premises cannot be reinstated within 6 months from the occurrence date of such damages, at the expiration of such 6-month period, any party may notify the other party in writing of the termination of this Contract without any liability to the other party.

24. Return of the Premises

At the expiration of the Lease Term or the early termination of this Contract as provided herein, Party B agrees as follows:

- 24.1 Party B shall return the Premises to Party A as provided in Schedule III hereto, demolish and remove the facilities and equipment installed by Party B in the Premises at its own cost no later than the expiration of the Lease Term or the date on which this Contract is terminated earlier, and ensure that the Premises is under good, clean and appropriate-for-use condition (except for normal wear and tear) when returned to Party A.
- 24.2 If Party B fails to timely return the Premises and demolish and remove the facilities and equipment installed thereby, Party A shall be entitled to repossess the Premises and authorize a third party to demolish and remove the facilities and equipment at the expense of Party B. If the structure of the Premises is damaged or any loss is incurred when demolishing the facilities and equipment installed by Party B, Party B shall be liable for indemnifications to Party A. Before completion of the removal or demolition work as provided in Schedule III hereto, Party B shall be deemed to be continue occupying the Premises without the consent of Party A. Party A shall be entitled to charge Party B a fee for occupying the Premises in the amount equal to 3 times of the daily rent calculated based on the then applicable rent, and the property management fee shall be charged daily on the basis of the standard fee rate of the Property Company.
- 24.3 If Party B has outstanding Payables and Party B fails to pay such Payables within 3 days after the written notice of Party A, Party B agrees to store the items in the Premises to the location designated by Party A. Without paying in full the outstanding Payables, Party A or the Property Company shall be entitled to prohibit Party B from transferring or hiding properties, evacuation without the consent of Party A or the Property Company or such other acts.
- 24.4 Party A shall notify Party B of the inventory check of the items stored by Party B and such inventory check shall be conducted with the presence of Party B. If Party B fails to present at the inventory check at the time and place designated, Party B agrees that Party A has the sole authority in conducting the inventory check and Party B recognizes the records taken by Party A and such records is binding on Party A. Party A shall be entitled to transfer such items to a location deemed appropriate by Party A for storage purposes.
- 24.5 If Party B fails to fully pay all the outstanding Payables within 30 days after the inventory check by Party A, Party A shall be entitled to dispose of such stored items and the proceeds received shall be used to set off the amount owned by Party B. If the proceeds from the disposal of such stored items are insufficient to fully repay the amount owned by Party B, Party B has the obligations to pay such insufficient amount.

25. Deposit

- 25.1 Party B shall pay the deposit in the amount provided herein to guarantee its full performance of this Contract. During the Lease Term, if the rent or property management fee increase or decrease, the deposit shall be adjusted accordingly.
- 25.2 If Party B breaches of this Contract and the performance hereof is materially affected, Party A shall be entitled to terminate this Contract and forfeit the deposit or, in lieu of the foregoing, elect to deduct from the deposit any outstanding rent, property management fee and other charges due and payable by Party B and claim compensations for the loss arising from Party B's breach of contract. If the lease deposit is insufficient for such deduction, Party A shall be entitled to require Party B to pay for the insufficient amount.
- 25.3 Upon expiration of the Lease Term, if Party B has not breached this Contract, Party A shall refund the deposit to Party B without any interest within 30 days after the satisfaction of all of the following conditions by Party B:
- (1) Party B shall restore the Premises to the status as provided in Schedule III on or before the expiration date of the Lease Term;
 - (2) Party B shall have paid in full all the payable rent, property management fee, charges for electricity, telecommunications, etc.;
 - (3) Party B shall have completed the return of the Premises to Party A on or before the expiration date of the Lease Term;
 - (4) Party B shall have cancelled or transfer the registration of its registered address with the relevant industry and commerce authority and the lease registration (if any) with the Premises;
 - (5) Party B shall have provided the bank account for the refund as requested by Party A and returned the original receipt of the deposit issued by Party A and such other evidentiary documentation requested by Party A.
- 25.4 Upon termination or early termination of this Contract, Party B shall promptly cancel the registrations with the relevant industry and commerce authority and tax authority and such other registrations with the Premises as the registered address, fully pay the public utility charges and complete the cancellations of the relevant accounts. If Party B fails to complete such relevant cancellations within 30 days after the termination or early termination of this Contract, it shall be deemed that Party B agrees to authorize Party A to complete such cancellations on Party B's behalf at the expense of Party B. If Party B delays in the cancellations or transfers of the registrations with the relevant industry and commerce authority, lease registration (if any) with the Premises as the registered address and such other formalities, which cause Party B unable to lease the Premises to others as soon as possible or to suffer other losses, Party B agrees to indemnify Party A of such losses and Party A shall be entitled to deduct such losses from the deposit.
- 25.5 During the Lease Term, if the amount of the deposit in the account of Party A is less than the amount provided in this Article after such deduction, set-off and/or indemnification (including but not limited to the cases that all or part of the deposit has been deducted or set off, etc.) for reasons attributable to Party B, Party B shall pay Party A an amount to make up the prescribed amount of the deposit within 3 days after the written notices of Party A. If Party B fails to make up the deposit within such 3 days period, Party B shall pay Party A the liquidated damages in the amount equal to 0.2% of the amount to be made up by Party B for each day in default. If Party B fails to make up the lease deposit within 7 days after written notice of Party A, Party A shall be entitled to terminate this Contract by giving a written notice to Party B and to forfeit all of the deposit.

26. Payment and Adjustment of Fees

During the Lease Term, the Property Company shall be entitled to regularly adjust the property management fee and such other charges and promptly notify Party B of the adjustment. Party B shall pay the applicable fees according to the adjusted fee rates.

27. Liabilities for Breach of Contract

- 27.1 If the rent, property management fee or other amounts payable by Party B provided in this Contract is not paid within 7 days after such payment is due and payable (whether Party A or the Property Company has delivered a payment notice or not); and/or Party B breaches or fails to perform this Contract and the performance hereof is materially affected, including not paying the rent and/or unilateral termination of the lease before the expiration of the Lease Term; and/or Party B's failure to continue the performance of this Contract due to its bankruptcy/liquidation; and/or the Premises is subject to enforcement in legal proceedings for the reason of Party B, in the event of one or more of the above, Party A shall be entitled to take any, or the combination of any, of the following measures: (1) to enter into the Premises or any part thereof at any time to repossess the whole Premises and this Contract shall be terminated immediately; (2) to initiate a lawsuit against Party B for Party B's breach of contract or non-performance of the terms hereof; (3) to forfeit the deposit and require Party B to indemnify Party A for the loss caused by Party B's breach of contract (including but not limited to the rent and property management fee payable by Party B for the remaining period of the Lease Term); (4) to suspend the supply of water, electricity, air-conditioning, telecommunications (if applicable) and to take such other measures upon giving prior notice to cause Party B to perform its obligations under this Contract, which Party B understands and will be liable for the consequences caused thereby.
- 27.2 Without affecting all the other rights of Party A upon breach of contract by Party B, if Party B fails to pay the rent, property management fee, Payables under this Contract or any part thereof in the manner and at the time provided herein, Party A shall be entitled to receive the liquidated damages in the amount equal to 0.2% of the overdue amount for each day in default.
- 27.3 If Party B fails to pay the rent, property management fee and such other Payables as provided in this Contract, Party A shall be entitled to apply with the relevant People's Court for a payment order in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Civil Litigation Law of the People's Republic of China at the expense of Party B.

- 27.4 In the event that Party A shall have the right to terminate this Contract as provided herein, Party A shall deliver a written notice to terminate this Contract to Party B and this Contract shall be terminated immediately upon the delivery of the notice to Party B. Party B shall return the Premises to Party A in accordance with Schedule III hereto within the period of time designated by Party A. If Party B continues to occupy the Premises after the designated period, Party A shall be entitled to immediately enter into the Premises and repossess the Premises, and Party B shall also indemnify Party A for the losses suffered by Party A for Party B's failure to timely move out of the Premises.
- 27.5 During the Lease Term, if the Premises is damaged due to Party's failure to timely perform its repair and maintenance obligations provided in Article 23.2 hereof, which causes loss of property and/or personal injury to Party B, Party A shall be liable for indemnifications to Party B in accordance with laws.
- 27.6 If the facilities of the Office Building where the Premises is located, such as air-conditioning, antenna, lifts and escalators, is suspended for use due to Party A and/or the Property Company's re-installation, maintenance or repair in the public area or to the facilities of the Office Building where the Premises is located, Party A shall restore the use of such facilities within reasonable period of time.
- 27.7 If any facilities within the Office Building and the Premises temporarily cannot function normally due to circumstances unforeseeable by Party A or out of the control of Party A, including but not limited to a temporary failure or suspension in the normal supply of water, power and air-conditioning, Party A shall not be liable to Party B for any loss. Meanwhile, the provisions of this Contract and the responsibility of Party B to pay the rent and other fees shall not be affected in any way by such failure or suspension.

28. Notices

All notices shall be in writing. If a notice is sent by fax, it shall be deemed to be delivered when sent successfully; if a notice is sent to Party B, it shall be deemed to be delivered when the notice is sent by registered mail with Party B's address written and such notice is sent to the correspondence address or registered address of Party B, or when the notice is delivered to the Premises leased by Party B; if a notice is sent to Party A, it shall be deemed to be delivered when it is sent to the address of Party A set forth in this Contract. In case of any change to the address or fax number of any party, such party shall promptly notify the other party. Any party shall be liable for its own loss caused by such party's negligence in giving the notice of such changes.

29. Miscellaneous

- 29.1 Party A and Party B agree that during the Lease Term, in the event of any of the following, this Contract may be terminated or amended at the option of Party B, and both parties shall not be liable to each other, provided that, if Party B has any unpaid rent and other fees, Party A shall be entitled to credit such amount from the deposit and the remaining amount shall be refunded to Party B without any interest.

- (1) All or part of the land use right of the area where the Premises is located or the real property ownership of the Premises is reverted back to the state or nationalized prior to the relevant granted term;
 - (2) The Premises is acquired or expropriated;
 - (3) The Premises or ancillary facilities are completely damaged or destroyed for reasons not attributable to either Party A and/or Party B, or the supply of public utilities is suspended for more than 1 month for reasons not attributable to either Party A and/or Party B, which frustrates the purposes hereof or causes the Premises to be identified as dangerous premises; and
 - (4) Such other circumstances where this Contract may be terminated or amended as provided by laws and administrative regulations (only limited to the termination of and amendment to this Contract without liabilities to each party as provided by laws and administrative regulations).
- 29.2 Party A and Party B shall be responsible for their respective legal fees and shall pay their respective stamp duties, registration fees and other taxes and fees in connection with this Contract (if any) pursuant to the applicable government regulations. If a party suffers any loss due to the other party's failure to timely pay the taxes and fees, the breaching party shall immediately make reasonable indemnifications to the non-breaching party.
- 29.3 This Contract shall become effective upon the signing and affixing seals by both parties.
- 29.4 If there is any discrepancy between Section I of these Supplemental Terms, Schedules and other integral parts hereof and Section II of the Supplemental Terms hereof, the provisions in Section I of these Supplemental Terms, Schedules and other integral parts hereof shall prevail.
- 29.5 Party A shall not be liable for any loss and/or damages caused by reasons not attributable to Party A, accidents or damages out of control of Party A or reasons attributable to Party B or other third party.
- 29.6 If any term of this Contract becomes invalid or unenforceable due to violation of law, the validity of all other terms shall not be affected.
- 29.7 This Contract and its contents, including all information involved and other business information of both parties, shall be trade secrets. Any Party shall not disclose to any third party or make public such information without the written consent of the other party, regardless of whether this Contract is terminated or not, except in the cases that (1) the disclosure is required for government filings or judicial proceedings and (2) disclosures to the directors, employees or consultants of a party for the necessity of such persons' execution and performance hereof. If any party violates the foregoing, the breaching party shall indemnify the non-breaching party for any loss caused by such breach.

29.8 This Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the People's Republic of China.

Supplemental Agreement II to Lease Contract of Kerry Parkside Office Building

Party A:	Shanghai Pudong Kerry Parkside Real Estate Co., Ltd. (上海浦东嘉里城房地产有限公司)
Registered Address:	Unit 305A, No. 1155 Fangdian Road, Pudong New District, Shanghai
Party B:	Shanghai LianBio Development Co., Ltd. (上海联拓生物科技有限公司)
Registered Address:	3/F, Building No. 1, No. 400 Fangchun Road, China (Shanghai) Pilot Free Trade Zone,
Notice Address:	Units 901-902, No. 1155 Fangdian Road, Pudong New District, Shanghai
Legal Representative:	BING LI

WHEREAS, Party A and Party B entered into that certain Shanghai Municipality Lease Contract for Premises (the “Lease Contract”) on December 23, 2019 for the lease of Units 901-902, 9/F, Kerry Parkside Office Building at No. 1155 Fangdian Road, Pudong New District, Shanghai (the “Office Building”). Party A and Party B entered into that certain Supplemental Agreement I on June 8, 2020 with respect to the rent-free period and reduction and waiver of management fee for a specific period provided by Party A (“Supplemental Agreement I”, together with the Lease Contract, collectively, the “Original Contract”).

NOW, upon the mutual consent of both parties upon negotiations, the parties desire to enter into this Supplemental Agreement II to expand Party B’s leased area to Units 701B, 707 and 708 at 7/F of the Office Building (the “Supplemental Agreement II”) as supplemental to the Original Contract.

1. Leased Premises and Area

- 1.1 Party B’s leased area shall be expanded to Units 701B, 707 and 708 at 7/F of the Office Building (the “Expanded Units”, see Schedule I for more details) commencing from August 31, 2020. The gross floor area of the Expanded Units is 692.80 m².

From August 31, 2020, the “Premises” referred to in the Original Contract shall include the Expanded Units, which means that the “Premises” is located at Units 901 and 902 at 9/F and Units 701B, 707 and 708 at 7/F of the Office Building and the gross floor area of the Premises shall be 1,293.14 m² in total.

2. Lease Term of the Expanded Units

- 2.1 The lease term of the Expanded Units shall commence from August 31, 2020 to April 6, 2022 (both dates inclusive).
- 2.2 On the condition that Party B shall strictly comply with the terms of the Original Contract and this Supplemental Agreement II, Party B shall have the right to renew the lease term once for a period of 2 years before the expiration of the lease term of the Expanded Units. The rent during the renewed lease term shall be RMB8.0/ m² (gross floor area)/day (value-added tax included). If Party B needs to continue the lease of the Expanded Units, Party B shall give a 6 months’ prior written notice to Party A for the renewal of the lease term of the Expanded Units and both parties shall enter into a new lease contract. Except for the terms with respect to the rent, the other terms of the renewed lease contract shall be consistent with this Supplemental Agreement II. If Party B fails to request for renewal within the above period or both parties fail to reach consensus on the terms of the lease and enter into a new lease contract within 2 months after Party B's notice for renewal, this Supplemental Agreement II shall be immediately terminated upon the expiration of the lease term, and Party B waives its right of first refusal in the lease of the Expanded Units under the same terms and conditions.

3. Rent, Deposit, Other Payables and Payment Method

3.1 Rent

From August 31, 2020, details of the rent for the Expanded Units are as follows:

- (1) The rent of the Expanded Units shall be paid monthly and the aggregate monthly rent shall be RMB168,581.33 (calculated on the basis of RMB8.0/m² (gross floor area)/day), including:
 - (a) net rental (tax excluded) of RMB160,553.65; and
 - (b) value-added tax of RMB8,027.68. Value-added tax = net rent (tax excluded) x value-added tax rate (determined to be 5% at the time of the execution hereof).

During the lease term or the renewed lease term of the Expanded Units, if the value-added tax rate changes due to state policy or regulation adjustments (including but not limited to the cancellation of the simple tax rate applicable during the transition period for the replacement of business tax with value-added tax), Party B agrees that the value-added tax rate in the above formula shall be the then value-added tax rate adjusted by Party A according to the state policy and regulations, which shall be used for the calculation of the amount of the value-added tax to be borne by Party B and the aggregate monthly rent (tax included) shall be adjusted accordingly. Party B shall make full payments of the adjusted aggregate monthly rent (tax included) to Party A.

3.2 Property Management Fee

The currently applicable rate of property management fee is RMB35/month/m² (gross floor area). The current standard fee rate of additional air-conditioning outside the regular business hours shall be RMB0.5/hour/m² and the minimum charge shall be RMB500/hour.

3.3 Prepayment

Party B shall make a prepayment to Party A in the amount equal to the sum of one month's rent and property management fee for the Expanded Units within 7 days after the execution date of this Supplemental Agreement II, i.e. a prepayment of RMB192,829.33.

3.4 Deposit

The deposit for the Expanded Units shall be RMB578,487.99. Party B shall pay Party A the deposit of RMB578,487.99 in total for the Expanded Units within 3 days after the execution of this Supplemental Agreement II.

4. Delivery

- 4.1 Delivery Date: Both parties agree to complete the delivery of the Expanded Units on August 31, 2020 at the Expanded Units.
- 4.2 Party A shall deliver the Expanded Units to Party B in the “as is” status as of the Delivery Date (see Schedule II for specific delivery conditions). Upon Party B’s acceptance of the Expanded Units accordingly, it shall be confirmed that the Expanded Units are under appropriate condition for lease and in compliance herewith.
- 4.3 Upon expiration or early termination of the lease term of the Expanded Units, Party B shall restore Expanded Units and then return the restored Expanded Units to Party A pursuant to Schedule II to this Supplemental Agreement II and ensure that the Expanded Units are in good, clean and appropriate-for-use condition at the time of return to Party A.

5. Renovation Period

- 5.1 Party B has completed the renovation work for Units 901 and 902. During the lease term, Party B shall have no more renovation period for Units 901 and 902. If Party B needs to conduct any renovation work at Units 901 and 902, Party B shall obtain Party A’s prior written approval and comply with Article 22 of the Original Contract and other relevant agreements.
- 5.2 The renovation period for the Expanded Units shall commence from August 31, 2020 to December 31, 2020 (both dates inclusive). During the renovation period of the Expanded Units, Party B shall not pay the rent for the Expanded Units, but shall pay the property management fee, public utilities charges and other payables for the renovation period. During the renovation period of the Expanded Units, Party B shall still fully perform other terms under the Original Contract and this Supplemental Agreement II.

6. Rent-free Period for the Expanded Units

- 6.1 During the renovation period of the Expanded Units, Party A agrees to provide Party B with a rent-free period of 1 month in total for the Expanded Units, specifically from March 7, 2022 to April 6, 2022 (both dates inclusive).
- During the abovementioned rent-free period, Party B shall not pay the rent for the Expanded Units, provided that Party B shall still pay the property management fee, public utilities charges and other payables as provided in this Supplemental Agreement II.
- 6.2 If Party B terminates the lease prior to the expiration of the lease term, or the lease is terminated prior to the expiration of the lease term for a reason not attributable to Party A, then:
- (i) if the rent-free period has not expired, Party B shall no longer have any rent-free period;

- (ii) if the rent-free period has expired, Party B shall pay Party A in full the rent for the part that was waived during the rent-free period as calculated according to the fee rate of the rent provided in this Supplemental Agreement II.

7. Miscellaneous

- 7.1 Both parties shall be responsible for their respective legal fees incurred in connection with the execution hereof and shall pay their respective stamp duties, registration fees and other taxes and fees in connection herewith (if any) pursuant to the applicable government regulations.
- 7.2 If there is any discrepancy between this Supplemental Agreement II and the Original Contract, this Supplemental Agreement II shall prevail. Except for the abovementioned changes, all the other terms and conditions of the Original Contract shall remain unchanged and continue to be in full force. Except for the terms otherwise re-defined herein, all the other defined terms in the Original Contract shall be applicable to this Supplemental Agreement II.
- 7.3 This Supplemental Agreement II shall be executed in two counterparts, each of which shall become effective upon the signing and affixing seals by both parties. Each party shall respectively hold one counterpart and each counterpart shall have the same legal effect.

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This Indemnification Agreement (this “Agreement”) is made as of _____, 202__, by and among LianBio, a company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Company”), and _____ (“Indemnatee”).

RECITALS

The Company and Indemnatee recognize that highly competent persons have become more reluctant to serve corporations as directors or in other capacities unless they are provided with adequate protection through insurance or adequate indemnification against inordinate risks of claims and actions against them arising out of their service to and activities on behalf of the corporation. The Company and Indemnatee further recognize the uncertainties relating to liability insurance for directors and officers, and the substantial increase in corporate litigation in general, subjecting directors and officers to expensive litigation risks. Indemnatee does not regard the current protection available as adequate under the present circumstances, and Indemnatee and agents of the Company may not be willing to serve or continue to serve the Company without additional protection. The Company desires to attract and retain the involvement of highly qualified individuals, such as Indemnatee, and to indemnify its directors and officers so as to provide them with the maximum protection permitted by law.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual promises made in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Company and Indemnatee hereby agree as follows:

1. Indemnification.

(a) Third Party Proceedings. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify Indemnatee if Indemnatee is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, arbitration or proceeding or alternative dispute resolution mechanism, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (each, a “Proceeding”) (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) by reason of the fact that Indemnatee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any Related Entity (as defined below) of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action or inaction on the part of Indemnatee while serving in any such capacity (such reasons, collectively, the “Corporate Status”), against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnatee in connection with such Proceeding if Indemnatee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnatee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, Indemnatee had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any Proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that Indemnatee did not act in good faith and in a manner which Indemnatee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, or, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, that Indemnatee had reasonable cause to believe that Indemnatee's conduct was unlawful. For purposes of this Agreement, "Related Entity," means any parent, subsidiary and any other corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other business entity in which the Company, its parent or subsidiary holds, or has the right to acquire, a substantial ownership interest in or control over such entity, either directly or indirectly.

(b) Proceedings By or in the Right of the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify Indemnatee if Indemnatee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company or any Related Entity of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that Indemnatee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any Related Entity of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action or inaction on the part of Indemnatee while serving in any such capacity, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), in each case to the extent actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnatee in connection with the defense or settlement of such Proceeding if Indemnatee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnatee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which Indemnatee shall have been finally adjudicated by court order or judgment to be liable to the Company in the performance of Indemnatee's duty to the Company or its shareholders unless and only to the extent that the court in which such Proceeding is or was brought shall determine that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnatee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(c) Mandatory Payment of Expenses. To the extent that Indemnatee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding referred to in Section 1(a) or Section 1(b) or the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, Indemnatee shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnatee in connection therewith.

2. No Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to create in Indemnatee any right to continued employment.

3. Expenses; Indemnification Procedure.

(a) Advancement of Expenses. The Company shall advance all expenses incurred by Indemnatee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of any Proceeding referred to in Section 1(a) or Section 1(b) of this Agreement (including amounts actually paid in settlement of any such Proceeding). Indemnatee hereby undertakes to repay such amounts advanced only if, and to the extent that, it shall ultimately be determined that Indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized hereby.

(b) Notice/Cooperation by Indemnatee. Indemnatee shall, as a condition precedent to his or her right to be indemnified under this Agreement, give the Company notice in writing as soon as practicable of any Proceeding against Indemnatee for which indemnification will or could be sought under this Agreement. Notice to the Company shall be directed to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall be given in accordance with the provisions of Section 12(d) below. In addition, Indemnatee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnatee's power.

(c) Procedure. Any indemnification and advances provided for in Section 1 and this Section 3 shall be made no later than thirty (30) days after the Company's receipt of the written request of Indemnatee. If a claim under this Agreement, under any statute, or under any provision of the Company's Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association, as may be amended from time to time (the "Restated Memorandum and Articles") providing for indemnification, is not paid in full by the Company within thirty (30) days after a written request for payment thereof has first been received by the Company, Indemnatee may, but need not, at any time thereafter bring an action against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, subject to Section 11 of this Agreement, Indemnatee shall also be entitled to be paid for the expenses (including attorneys' fees) of bringing such action. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding in advance of its final disposition) that Indemnatee has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under applicable law for the Company to indemnify Indemnatee for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Company and Indemnatee shall be entitled to receive interim payments of expenses pursuant to Section 3(a) unless and until such defense may be finally adjudicated by court order or judgment from which no further right of appeal exists. It is the parties' intention that if the Company contests Indemnatee's right to indemnification, the question of Indemnatee's right to indemnification shall be for the court to decide, and neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, any committee or subgroup of the Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination that indemnification of Indemnatee is proper in the circumstances because Indemnatee has met the applicable standard of conduct required by applicable law, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, any committee or subgroup of the Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that Indemnatee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that Indemnatee has or has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(d) Notice to Insurers. If, at the time of the receipt of a notice of a claim pursuant to Section 3(b) hereof, the Company has liability insurance in effect, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such Proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or appropriate action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of the Indemnatee, all amounts payable as a result of such Proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

(e) Selection of Counsel. In the event the Company shall be obligated under Section 3(a) hereof to pay the expenses of any Proceeding against Indemnatee, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such Proceeding at its own expense, with counsel approved by Indemnatee, upon the delivery to Indemnatee of written notice of its election so to do. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by Indemnatee and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same Proceeding, provided that (i) Indemnitee shall have the right to employ counsel in any such Proceeding at Indemnitee's expense; and (ii) if (A) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been previously authorized by the Company, (B) Indemnitee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or (C) the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such Proceeding, then the fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. The Company shall not settle any Proceeding in any manner that would impose any penalty or limitation on the Indemnitee without the Indemnitee's written consent. Neither the Company nor the Indemnitee will unreasonably withhold or delay their consent to any proposed settlement.

4. Additional Indemnification Rights; Nonexclusivity.

(a) Scope. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement but subject to Section 9 of this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees to indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law against all expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or on his behalf as a result of his Corporate Status, notwithstanding that such indemnification is not specifically authorized by the other provisions of this Agreement, the Company's Restated Memorandum and Articles, or by statute. In the event of any change, after the date of this Agreement, in any applicable law, statute, or rule which expands the right of a Cayman Islands company to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes shall be deemed to be within the purview of Indemnitee's rights and the Company's obligations under this Agreement. In the event of any change in any applicable law, statute or rule which narrows the right of a Cayman Islands company to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes, to the extent not otherwise required by such law, statute or rule to be applied to this Agreement shall have no effect on this Agreement or the parties' rights and obligations hereunder.

(b) Nonexclusivity. The indemnification provided by this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights to which Indemnitee may be entitled under the Company's Restated Memorandum and Articles, any agreement, any vote of shareholders or disinterested members of the Company's Board of Directors, the Companies Law or other laws of the Cayman Islands, as amended from time to time, or otherwise, both as to action in Indemnitee's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to Indemnitee for any action taken or not taken while serving in an indemnified capacity even though he or she may have ceased to serve in any such capacity at the time of any Proceeding or at the time any liability or expense is incurred for which indemnification can be provided under this Agreement.

5. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the expenses, judgments, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement actually or reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in the investigation, defense, appeal or settlement of any Proceeding, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion of such expenses, judgments, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement to which Indemnitee is entitled.

6. Mutual Acknowledgment. Both the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that in certain instances, U.S. federal law or public policy or the laws of the applicable jurisdiction may prohibit the Company from indemnifying its directors and officers under this Agreement or otherwise (and, in the case of U.S. federal law, override applicable U.S. state law). For example, the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) has taken the position that indemnification is not permissible for liabilities arising under certain U.S. federal securities laws, and U.S. federal legislation prohibits indemnification for certain ERISA violations. Indemnitee understands and acknowledges that the Company has undertaken or may be required in the future to undertake with the SEC to submit the question of indemnification to a court in certain circumstances for a determination of the Company’s right under public policy to indemnify Indemnitee.

7. Liability Insurance. The Company shall, from time to time, make the good faith determination whether or not it is practicable for the Company to obtain and maintain a policy or policies of insurance with reputable insurance companies providing the directors and officers of the Company with coverage for losses from wrongful acts, or to ensure the Company’s performance of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement. Among other considerations, the Company will weigh the costs of obtaining such insurance coverage against the protection afforded by such coverage. In all policies of such liability insurance, Indemnitee shall be named as an insured in such a manner as to provide Indemnitee the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Company’s directors, if Indemnitee is a director; or of the Company’s officers, if Indemnitee is not a director of the Company but is an officer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have no obligation to obtain or maintain such insurance if the Company determines in good faith that such insurance is not reasonably available, if the premium costs for such insurance are disproportionate to the amount of coverage provided, if the coverage provided by such insurance is limited by exclusions so as to provide an insufficient benefit, or if Indemnitee is covered by similar insurance maintained by a Related Entity of the Company.

8. Severability. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to require or shall be construed as requiring the Company to do or fail to do any act in violation of applicable law. The Company’s inability, pursuant to court order, to perform its obligations under this Agreement shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall be severable as provided in this Section 8. If this Agreement or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Agreement that shall not have been invalidated, and the balance of this Agreement not so invalidated shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

9. Exceptions. Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement:

(a) Claims Initiated by Indemnatee. To indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnatee with respect to Proceedings initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnatee and not by way of defense, except with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under applicable laws, but such indemnification or advancement of expenses may be provided by the Company in specific cases if the Board of Directors finds it to be appropriate;

(b) Lack of Good Faith. To indemnify Indemnatee for any expenses incurred by Indemnatee with respect to any Proceeding instituted by Indemnatee to enforce or interpret this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnatee in such Proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous;

(c) Insured Claims. To indemnify Indemnatee for expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties, and amounts paid in settlement) to the extent such expenses or liabilities have been paid directly to Indemnatee by an insurance carrier under a policy of officers' and directors' liability insurance maintained by the Company; or

(d) Claims under Section 16(b). To indemnify Indemnatee for expenses or the payment of profits arising from the purchase and sale by Indemnatee of securities in violation of Section 16(b) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any similar successor statute.

10. Construction of Certain Phrases.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, references to the "Company" shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents, so that if Indemnatee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, Indemnatee shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Agreement with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as Indemnatee would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, references to "other enterprises" shall include employee benefit plans; references to "fines" shall include any excise taxes assessed on Indemnatee with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to "serving at the request of the Company" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and if Indemnatee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnatee reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, Indemnatee shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company" as referred to in this Agreement; references to the "expenses" shall include, without limitation, attorneys' fees, retainers, court costs, transcript costs, fees and expenses of experts, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees and other disbursements or expenses of the types customarily incurred in connection with prosecuting, defending, preparing to prosecute or defend, investigating, participating, or being or preparing to be a witness in a Proceeding, or responding to, or objecting to, a request to provide discovery in any Proceeding, and shall also include expenses incurred in connection with any appeal resulting from any Proceeding and any federal, state, local or foreign taxes imposed on Indemnatee as a result of the actual or deemed receipt of any payments under this Agreement, including without limitation the premium, security for, and other costs relating to any cost bond, supersede as bond or other appeal bond or its equivalent, but shall not include the amount of judgments, fines or penalties against Indemnatee or amounts paid in settlement in connection with such matters.

11. Attorneys' Fees. In the event that any action is instituted by Indemnatee under this Agreement to enforce or interpret any of the terms hereof, Indemnatee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnatee with respect to such action, unless as a part of such action, the court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnatee as a basis for such action were not made in good faith or were frivolous. In the event of an action instituted by or in the name of the Company under this Agreement or to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this Agreement, Indemnatee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnatee in defense of such action (including with respect to Indemnatee's counterclaims and cross-claims made in such action), unless as a part of such action the court determines that each of Indemnatee's material defenses to such action were made in bad faith or were frivolous.

12. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement and all acts and transactions pursuant hereto and the rights and obligations of the parties hereto shall be governed, construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Cayman Islands, without giving effect to principles of conflicts of law.

(b) Entire Agreement; Enforcement of Rights. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties relating to the subject matter herein and merges all prior discussions between them. No modification of or amendment to this Agreement, nor any waiver of any rights under this Agreement, shall be effective unless in writing signed by the parties to this Agreement. The failure by either party to enforce any rights under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any rights of such party.

(c) Construction. This Agreement is the result of negotiations between and has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel, if any; accordingly, this Agreement shall be deemed to be the product of all of the parties hereto, and no ambiguity shall be construed in favor of or against any one of the parties hereto.

(d) Notices. Any notice, demand or request required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed sufficient when delivered personally or sent by fax or 48 hours after being sent by nationally-recognized courier or deposited in the mail (or the postal service of the applicable jurisdiction), as certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid, and addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address or fax number as set forth below or as subsequently modified by written notice. Notice by electronic mail shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, and sending such notice through a transmitting organization, with a written confirmation of delivery, and to have been effected on the day the same is sent as aforesaid, if such day is a business day, otherwise the next business day.

(e) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Either party may execute this Agreement by facsimile or scanned signature, and the other party will be entitled to rely on such facsimile or scanned signature as conclusive evidence that this Agreement has been duly executed by such party.

(f) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns, and inure to the benefit of Indemnatee and Indemnatee's heirs, legal representatives and assigns.

(g) Subrogation. Except as provided under Section 1(d), in the event of payment to Indemnatee by the Company under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnatee, who shall execute all documents required and shall do all acts that may be necessary to secure such rights and to enable the Company to effectively bring suit to enforce such rights.

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This Indemnification Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into as of October 28, 2020, by and among (i) LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Company”), (ii) Konstantin Poukalov (the “Director”), and (iii) Perceptive Life Sciences Master Fund, Ltd., Perceptive Xontogeny Venture Fund, LP, and LEV LB Holdings, LP (collectively, the “Fund”, and together with each of the Fund’s limited partners and general partners, the “Fund Indemnitees”). The Director and the Fund Indemnitees shall be referred to herein individually as the “Indemnitee” and collectively as the “Indemnitees”.

RECITALS

A. The Company and the Indemnitees recognize the continued difficulty in obtaining liability insurance for its directors, officers, employees, agents and fiduciaries, the significant increases in the cost of such insurance and the general reductions in the coverage of such insurance.

B. The Company and the Indemnitees further recognize the substantial increase in corporate litigation in general, subjecting directors, officers, employees, controlling persons, shareholders, agents and fiduciaries to expensive litigation risks at the same time as the availability and coverage of liability insurance has been severely limited.

C. The Company desires to attract and retain the services of highly qualified individuals, such as the Director and wishes to provide for indemnification to each Indemnitee.

In view of the considerations set forth above, the Company desires that each Indemnitee be indemnified by the Company as set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Company and each Indemnitee hereby agree as follows:

1. Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification of Expenses.

(i) Third-Party Claims. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Director to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law if the Director was or is or becomes a party to or witness or other participant in, or is threatened to be made a party to or witness, any threatened, pending action, suit, proceeding or alternative dispute resolution mechanism, or any hearing, inquiry or investigation that might lead to the institution of any such action, suit, proceeding or alternative dispute resolution mechanism, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (a “Claim”) (other than an action by right of the Company) by reason of (or arising in part out of) any event or occurrence related to the fact that the Director is or was a director of the Company, or any subsidiary of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action or inaction on the part of the Director while serving in such capacity (an “Agent”) or as a direct or indirect result of any Claim made by any shareholder of the Company against the Director and arising out of or related to any round of financing of the Company (including but not limited to Claims regarding non-participation, or non-pro rata participation, in such round by such shareholder), or made by a third party against the Director based on any misstatement or omission of a material fact by the Company in violation of any duty of disclosure imposed on the Company by securities or common laws (an "Indemnification Event") against any and all expenses (if and to the extent reasonable), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (if, and only if, such settlement is approved in advance by the Company) of such Claim and any federal, state, local or foreign taxes imposed on an Indemnitee as a result of the actual receipt of any payments under this Agreement (collectively, the "Expenses"), including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such Expenses. Such payment of the Expenses shall be made by the Company as soon as practicable but in any event no later than twenty (20) days after written demand by an Indemnitee therefore is presented to the Company.

(ii) Derivative Actions. If the Director was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Claim by or on behalf of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was an Agent of the Company, or by reason of anything done or not done by him in any such capacity, the Company shall indemnify the Director against any amounts paid in settlement (if, and only if, such settlement is approved in advance by the Company) of any such Claim and all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement or appeal of such Claim if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company.

(iii) Indemnification of Fund Indemnitees. The Company agrees that, if and whenever a Fund Indemnitee is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is in any way involved in any Claim (including without limitation any such Claim brought by or in the right of the Company), by reason of the fact that (i) the Director is or was an Agent, (ii) by reason of anything done or not done by the Director in such capacity, or (iii) by reason of the fact that a Fund Indemnitee is or was acting as an express agent of the Company upon the request of the Company and solely for the benefit of the Company (provided that the fact that a Fund Indemnitee will incidentally benefit as a shareholder from such action will not alone mean that such action is not or was not solely for the benefit of the Company), the Company shall indemnify each Fund Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such Fund Indemnitee or on such Fund Indemnitee's behalf in connection with such Claim, except to the extent that any such Expenses arise from a Claim for which the Director is not entitled to indemnification hereunder pursuant to Section 8(a) hereof or under applicable law.

(b) Reviewing Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the obligations of the Company under Section 1(a) shall be subject to the condition that the Reviewing Party (as described in Section 10(e) hereof) shall not have determined in writing (or in a written opinion, in case the Independent Legal Counsel referred to in Section 1(f) hereof is involved) that an Indemnitee would not be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law, and (ii) the obligation of the Company to make an advance payment of Expenses to an Indemnitee pursuant to Section 2(a) (an "Expense Advance") shall be subject to the condition that, if, when and to the extent that the Reviewing Party determines that such Indemnitee would not be permitted to be so indemnified under applicable law, the Company shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the Indemnitee (who hereby agrees to reimburse the Company) for all such amounts theretofore paid; provided, however, that if the Indemnitee has commenced or thereafter commences legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to secure a determination that such Indemnitee should be indemnified under applicable law, any determination made by the Reviewing Party that the Indemnitee would not be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law shall not be binding and the Indemnitee shall not be required to reimburse the Company for any Expense Advance until a final judicial determination is made with respect thereto (as to which all rights of appeal therefrom have been exhausted or lapsed). The Indemnitee's obligation to reimburse the Company for any Expense Advance shall be unsecured and no interest shall be charged thereon. If there has not been a Change in Control (as defined in Section 10(c) hereof), the Reviewing Party shall be selected by the Company's board of directors ("Board" or "Board of Directors"), and if there has been such a Change in Control (other than a Change in Control which has been approved by a majority of the Board of Directors who were directors immediately prior to such Change in Control), the Reviewing Party shall be the Independent Legal Counsel referred to in Section 1(f) hereof. If there has been no determination by the Reviewing Party or if the Reviewing Party determines that the Indemnitee substantively would not be permitted to be indemnified in whole or in part under applicable law, such Indemnitee shall have the right to commence litigation seeking an initial determination by the court or challenging any such determination by the Reviewing Party or any aspect thereof, including the legal or factual bases therefor, and the Company hereby consents to service of process and to appear in any such proceeding. Any determination by the Reviewing Party otherwise shall be conclusive and binding on the Company and the Indemnites.

(c) Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in Section 1(a) above for any reason other than the statutory limitations of applicable law, is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unavailable to an Indemnitee in respect of any losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities in which the Company is jointly liable with such Indemnitee, as the case may be (or would be jointly liable if joined), then the Company, in lieu of indemnifying the Indemnitee thereunder, shall contribute to the amount actually and reasonably incurred and paid or payable by the Indemnitee as a result of such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the Company and the Indemnitee, and (ii) the relative fault of the Company and such Indemnitee in connection with the action or inaction that resulted in such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault of the Company and the Indemnitee shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company or the Indemnitee and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent the circumstances resulting in such losses, claims, damages, expenses or liabilities.

(d) The Company and the Indemnites agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 1(c) were determined solely by pro rata or per capita allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take into account the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. No person found guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended) shall be entitled to contribution from any person who was not found guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(e) Survival Regardless of Investigation. The indemnification and contribution provided for in this Section 1 will remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the Indemnitees.

(f) Change in Control. The Company agrees that if there is a Change in Control of the Company (other than a Change in Control which has been approved by a majority of the Board of Directors who were directors immediately prior to such Change in Control) then, with respect to all matters thereafter arising concerning the rights of Indemnitees to payments of the Expenses and Expense Advances under this Agreement or any other agreements or under the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, as amended and restated, Independent Legal Counsel (as defined in Section 10(d) hereof) shall be selected by the Indemnitees and approved by the Company (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld). Such counsel, among other things, shall render its written opinion to the Company and Indemnitee as to whether and to what extent Indemnitee would be permitted to be indemnified under applicable law and the Company agrees to abide by such opinion. The Company agrees to pay the reasonable fees of the Independent Legal Counsel referred to above and to fully indemnify such counsel against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees, if and to the extent reasonable), claims, liabilities and damages arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its engagement pursuant hereto.

(g) Mandatory Payment of Expenses. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement other than Section 9 hereof, to the extent an Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise, including, without limitation, the dismissal of an action without prejudice, in defense of any Claim referred to in Section 1(a) hereof or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such Indemnitee shall be indemnified against all Expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection therewith.

2. Expenses; Indemnification Procedure.

(a) Advancement of Expenses. The Company shall advance all Expenses incurred by an Indemnitee. The advances to be made hereunder shall be paid by the Company to the Indemnitee as soon as practicable but in any event no later than twenty (20) days after written demand by the Indemnitee therefor to the Company, which demand will include a statement or statements from the Indemnitee requesting such advance or advances from time to time and must include written evidence from third parties independent of and not connected with the Indemnitee to support the amount of such Expenses to be incurred.

(b) Notice/Cooperation by Indemnitee. An Indemnitee shall, as a condition precedent to Indemnitee's right to be indemnified under this Agreement, (i) give the Company notice in writing as soon as practicable after receipt of notice of commencement of any Claim made against such Indemnitee for which indemnification will or could be sought under this Agreement; and (ii) give the Company written evidence from third parties independent of and not connected with the Indemnitee to support the amount of the Expenses incurred. Notice to the Company shall be directed to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company at the address shown on the signature page of this Agreement (or such other address as the Company shall designate in writing to the Indemnitee). In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power.

(c) No Presumptions; Burden of Proof. For purposes of this Agreement, the termination of any Claim by judgment, order, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere, or its equivalent, shall not create a presumption that an Indemnitee did not meet any particular standard of conduct or have any particular belief or that a court has determined that indemnification is not permitted by applicable law. In addition, neither the failure of the Reviewing Party to have made a determination as to whether the Indemnitee has met any particular standard of conduct or had any particular belief, nor an actual determination by the Reviewing Party that Indemnitee has not met such standard of conduct or did not have such belief, prior to the commencement of legal proceedings by the Indemnitee to secure a judicial determination that the Indemnitee should be indemnified under applicable law, shall be a defense to the Indemnitee's claim or create a presumption that the Indemnitee has not met any particular standard of conduct or did not have any particular belief. In connection with any determination by the Reviewing Party or otherwise as to whether the Indemnitee is entitled to be indemnified hereunder, the burden of proof shall be on the Company to establish that the Indemnitee is not so entitled.

(d) Notice to Insurers. If, at the time of the receipt by the Company of a notice of a Claim pursuant to Section 2(b) hereof, the Company has director and officer liability insurance in effect which may cover such Claim, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such Claim to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of an Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation in accordance with the terms of such policies.

(e) Selection of Counsel. In the event the Company shall be obligated hereunder to pay the Expenses of any Claim, an Indemnitee shall be entitled to request that the Company assume the defense of such Claim with legal counsel reasonably approved by the Indemnitee, upon the delivery to the Company of written notice of its election to do so. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by the Indemnitee, and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to such Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by such Indemnitee with respect to the same Claim; provided that, (i) the Indemnitee shall have the right to employ separate legal counsel in any such Claim at the Indemnitee's expense and (ii) if (A) the employment of separate legal counsel by the Indemnitee has been previously authorized by the Company, (B) such Indemnitee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and such Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense, or (C) the Company shall not continue to retain the legal counsel originally appointed to defend such Claim, then the reasonable fees and expenses of the Indemnitee's separate legal counsel shall be at the expense of the Company. The Company shall conduct the defense of the Indemnitee in good faith and in consultation with the Indemnitee and legal counsel, and the Company shall not settle any claim against the Indemnitee without the express written consent of the Indemnitee.

3. Additional Indemnification Rights; Non-exclusivity.

(a) Scope. The Company hereby agrees to indemnify the Indemnitees to the fullest extent permitted by law, notwithstanding that such indemnification is not specifically authorized by the other provisions of this Agreement or any other agreements, the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, as amended and restated, or by statute. In the event of any change after the date of this Agreement in any applicable law, statute or rule which expands the right of a Cayman Islands company to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary, it is the intent of the parties hereto that the Indemnitees shall enjoy by this Agreement the greater benefits afforded by such change. In the event of any change in any applicable law, statute or rule which narrows the right of a Cayman Islands company to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary, such change, to the extent not otherwise required by such law, statute or rule to be applied to this Agreement, shall have no effect on this Agreement or the parties' rights and obligations hereunder except as set forth in Section 8(a) hereof.

(b) Non-exclusivity. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the indemnification provided by this Agreement shall be in addition to any rights to which Indemnitees may be entitled under the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, as amended and restated, any agreement, any vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, the laws of the Cayman Islands, or otherwise. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to each Indemnitee for any action Indemnitee took or did not take while serving in an indemnified capacity even though the Indemnitee may have ceased to serve in such capacity.

4. No Duplication of Payments.

The Company shall not be liable under this Agreement to make any payment in connection with any Claim made against any Indemnitee to the extent such Indemnitee has otherwise actually received payment (under any insurance policy, or the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, as amended and restated, or otherwise) of the amounts otherwise indemnifiable hereunder.

5. Partial Indemnification.

If any Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of Expenses incurred in connection with any Claim, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion of such Expenses to which such Indemnitee is entitled.

6. Mutual Acknowledgment.

Both the Company and each Indemnitee acknowledge that in certain instances, applicable law or public policy may prohibit the Company from indemnifying its directors, officers, employees, controlling persons, shareholders, agents or fiduciaries under this Agreement or otherwise. Each Indemnitee understands and acknowledges that if the Company is subject to the informational requirements of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), the Company may be required to undertake with the Securities and Exchange Commission to submit the question of indemnification to a court in certain circumstances for a determination of the Company's right under public policy to indemnify Indemnitee.

7. Liability Insurance.

The Company shall, from time to time, make good faith determinations as to whether or not it is practicable for the Company to obtain and maintain a policy or policies of insurance with reputable insurance companies providing the officers and directors of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, with coverage for losses from Claims, or to ensure the Company's performance of its indemnification obligations under this Agreement. Among other considerations, the Company will weigh the costs of obtaining such insurance coverage against the protection afforded by such coverage. In all policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance, an Indemnitee shall be named as an insured in such a manner as to provide the Indemnitee the same rights and benefits as are accorded to the most favorably insured of the Company's directors.

8. Exceptions.

Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement:

(a) Excluded Action or Omissions. To indemnify an Indemnitee for Expenses resulting from acts, omissions or transactions for which Indemnitee is prohibited from receiving indemnification under this Agreement or applicable law;

(b) Claims Initiated by Indemnitee. To indemnify or advance expenses to an Indemnitee with respect to Claims initiated or brought voluntarily by the Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except (i) with respect to actions or proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any other agreement or insurance policy or under the Company's Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association now or hereafter in effect relating to Claims for Indemnification Events, or (ii) in specific cases if the Board has approved the initiation or bringing of such Claim;

(c) Lack of Good Faith. To indemnify an Indemnitee for any reasonable expenses incurred by the Indemnitee with respect to any proceeding instituted by the Indemnitee to enforce or interpret a right to indemnification under this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by the Indemnitee in such proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous; or

(d) Claims Under Section 16(b). To indemnify an Indemnitee for expenses and the payment of profits arising from the purchase and sale by such Indemnitee of securities in violation of the provisions of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act or any similar successor statute if the Company is subject to the informational requirements of the Exchange Act.

9. Period of Limitations.

No legal action shall be brought and no cause of action shall be asserted by or on behalf of the Company against the Indemnitee, the Indemnitee's estate, spouse, heirs, executors or personal or legal representatives after the expiration of five (5) years from the date of accrual of such cause of action, and any claim or cause of action of the Company shall be extinguished and deemed released unless asserted by the timely filing of a legal action within such five (5)-year period; provided, however, that if any shorter period of limitations is otherwise applicable to any such cause of action, such shorter period shall govern.

10. Construction of Certain Phrases.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, references to the “Company” shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, employees, controlling person, shareholders, agents or fiduciaries, so that if any Indemnitee is or was or may be deemed a director, officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary of such constituent corporation, or is or was or may be deemed to be serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, trustee, general partner, managing member, agent or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust or other enterprise, each Indemnitee shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Agreement with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as Indemnitee would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, references to “other enterprises” shall include employee benefit plans; references to “fines” shall include any excise taxes assessed on the Director with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to “serving at the request of the Company” shall include any service as a director, officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary of the Company which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or its beneficiaries; and if the Director acted in good faith and in a manner the Director reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, the Director shall be deemed to have acted in a manner “not opposed to the best interests of the Company” as referred to in this Agreement.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement a “Change in Control” shall be deemed to have occurred if, on or after the date of this Agreement, (i) any “person” (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than a trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of the Company acting in such capacity or a corporation owned directly or indirectly by the shareholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of stock of the Company, becomes the “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rule 13(d)(3) under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing more than thirty percent (30%) of the total voting power represented by the Company’s then outstanding Voting Securities, (ii) during any period of two (2) consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board and any new director whose election by the Board or nomination for election by the Company’s shareholders was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then still in office who either were directors at the beginning of the period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute a majority thereof, or (iii) the shareholders of the Company approve a merger or consolidation of the Company with any other corporation other than a merger or consolidation which would result in the Voting Securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior thereto continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into Voting Securities of the surviving entity) at least two-thirds (2/3rds) of the total voting power represented by the Voting Securities of the Company or such surviving entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation, or the shareholders of the Company approve a plan of complete liquidation of the Company or an agreement for the sale or disposition by the Company of (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) all or substantially all of the Company's assets.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, "Independent Legal Counsel" shall mean an attorney or firm of attorneys, selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 1(f) hereof, who shall not have otherwise performed services for the Company or any Indemnitee within the last two (2) years (other than with respect to matters concerning the right of any Indemnitee under this Agreement, or of other indemnitees under similar indemnity agreements).

(e) For purposes of this Agreement, a "Reviewing Party" shall mean any appropriate person or body consisting of a member or members of the Board or any other person or body appointed by the Board who is not a party to the particular Claim for which Indemnitee is seeking indemnification, or Independent Legal Counsel.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement, "Voting Securities" shall mean any securities of the Company that vote generally in the election of directors.

11. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original.

12. Binding Effect; Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors, assigns, including any direct or indirect successor by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company, spouses, heirs, and personal and legal representatives. The Company shall require and cause any successor (whether direct or indirect by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all, substantially all, or a substantial part, of the business and/or assets of the Company, by written agreement in form and substance satisfactory to each Indemnitee, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. This Agreement shall continue in effect with respect to Claims relating to Indemnification Events regardless of whether any Indemnitee continues to serve as a director, officer, employee, controlling person, shareholder, agent or fiduciary of the Company or of any other enterprise, including subsidiaries of the Company, at the Company's request.

13. Attorneys' Fees.

In the event that any action is instituted by an Indemnatee under this Agreement or under any liability insurance policies maintained by the Company to enforce or interpret any of the terms hereof or thereof, such Indemnatee shall be entitled to be paid all Expenses incurred by such Indemnatee with respect to such action, regardless of whether any Indemnatee is ultimately successful in such action, and shall be entitled to the advancement of Expenses with respect to such action, unless, as a part of such action, a court of competent jurisdiction over such action determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnatee as a basis for such action was not made in good faith or was frivolous. In the event of an action instituted by or in the name of the Company under this Agreement to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this Agreement, the Indemnatee shall be entitled to be paid all Expenses incurred by such Indemnatee in defense of such action (including costs and expenses incurred with respect to the Indemnatee's counterclaims and cross-claims made in such action), and shall be entitled to the advancement of Expenses with respect to such action, unless, as a part of such action, a court of competent jurisdiction over such action determines that each of Indemnatee's material defenses to such action was made in bad faith or was frivolous.

14. Notice.

All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) two (2) business days after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their address as set forth on the signature page, or to such e-mail address, facsimile number or address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 14.

15. Dispute Resolution.

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim (each, a "Dispute") arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the interpretation, breach, termination, validity or invalidity thereof, shall be referred to and conclusively determined by arbitration upon the demand of any party to the dispute with notice (the "Arbitration Notice") to the other party or parties.

(b) The Dispute shall be settled by arbitration in Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China ("Hong Kong") by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (the "HKIAC") in accordance with the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre Administered Arbitration Rules (the "HKIAC Rules") in force when the Arbitration Notice is submitted in accordance with the HKIAC Rules.

(c) The disputing parties may jointly select one (1) arbitrator, or agree that the Chairman of HKIAC shall select the arbitrator. In the absence of such agreement, there shall be three (3) arbitrators, the claimant to the Dispute, or in the case of multiple claimants, all such claimants acting collectively (the "Claimant") shall select one (1) arbitrator and the respondent to the Dispute, or in the case of more than one respondent, the respondents acting collectively (the "Respondent") shall select one (1) arbitrator. All selections shall be made within thirty (30) days after the selecting party gives or receives the demand for arbitration. Such arbitrators shall be freely selected, and neither the Claimant nor the Respondent shall be limited in their selection to any prescribed list. The Chairman of HKIAC shall select the third arbitrator who will act as chairman of the arbitration board. If any arbitrator to be appointed by a party has not been appointed and consented to participate within thirty (30) days after the selection of the first arbitrator, the relevant appointment shall be made by the Chairman of HKIAC.

(d) The arbitral proceedings shall be conducted in English. To the extent that the HKIAC Rules are in conflict with the provisions of this Section, including the provisions concerning the appointment of the arbitrators, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

(e) Each party to the arbitration shall cooperate with each other party to the arbitration in making full disclosure of and providing complete access to all information and documents requested by such other party in connection with such arbitral proceedings, subject only to any confidentiality obligations binding on such party.

(f) The award of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties thereto, and the prevailing party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement of such award.

(g) The arbitral tribunal shall decide any Dispute submitted by the parties to the arbitration strictly in accordance with the substantive laws of Hong Kong (without regard to principles of conflict of laws thereunder) and shall not apply any other substantive law.

(h) Any party to the Dispute shall be entitled to seek preliminary injunctive relief, if possible, from any court of competent jurisdiction pending the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.

(i) During the course of the arbitral tribunal's adjudication of the Dispute, this Agreement shall continue to be performed except with respect to the part in dispute and under adjudication.

(j) Notwithstanding the foregoing in this Section 15, the parties agree that each party shall have the right, without posting any bond, to seek preliminary injunction, temporary restraining order or other temporary relief from any court of competent jurisdiction.

16. Severability.

The provisions of this Agreement shall be severable in the event that any of the provisions hereof (including any provision within a single section, paragraph or sentence) are held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or otherwise unenforceable, and the remaining provisions shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. Furthermore, to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitations, each portion of this Agreement containing any provision held to be invalid, void or otherwise unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, void or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable.

17. Choice of Law.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of Hong Kong, without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

18. Primacy of Indemnification.

Notwithstanding that the Indemnitee may have certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by other persons (collectively, the “Other Indemnitors”), the Company (i) shall be the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to the Indemnitee are primary and any obligation of the Other Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by the Indemnitee are secondary); (ii) shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by the Indemnitee and shall be liable for the full amount of all Expenses, without regard to any rights the Indemnitee may have against any of the Other Indemnitors; and (iii) irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Other Indemnitors for any and all claims against the Other Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. No advancement or payment by the Other Indemnitors on behalf of the Indemnitee with respect to any claim for which the Indemnitee has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the immediately preceding sentence, and the Other Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of the Indemnitee against the Company. The Company and the Indemnitee agree that the Other Indemnitors are express third party beneficiaries of the terms of this Section 18.

19. Subrogation.

In the event of payment under this Agreement, the Company shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of the Indemnitees who shall execute all documents required and shall do all acts that may be necessary to secure such rights and to enable the Company effectively to bring suit to enforce such rights.

20. Amendment and Termination.

No amendment, modification, termination or cancellation to/of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing signed by all the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any other provisions hereof (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver.

21. Integration and Entire Agreement.

Subject to Section 3, this Agreement sets forth the entire understanding between the parties hereto and supersedes and merges all previous written and oral negotiations, commitments, understandings and agreements relating to the subject matter hereof between the parties hereto.

22. No Construction as Employment Agreement.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as giving the Indemnitees any right to be retained in the employ of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

THIS CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made on September 28, 2021 (the “Agreement Execution Date”) and effective as of August 10, 2020 (the “Agreement Effective Date”) by and among LianBio Licensing, LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, United States (“LianBio Licensing”), Lian Cardiovascular, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Lian Cardiovascular”) and LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”). Each of LianBio Licensing, Lian Cardiovascular and LianBio is referred to herein as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties”.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, LianBio and MyoKardia, Inc. (“MyoKardia”) are parties to a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated August 10, 2020 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing (as Licensee) acquired from MyoKardia (as Company) certain rights and licenses under certain intellectual property owned or controlled by MyoKardia to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement (the “MyoKardia IP” or Licensed Rights”);

WHEREAS, (A) LianBio Licensing desires to assign and transfer, and effect an assignment of, the License Agreement to Lian Cardiovascular, including all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder, such that Lian Cardiovascular assumes all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder as if the original party thereto in place of LianBio Licensing, (B) Lian Cardiovascular desires to accept and agree to such assignment, and (C) LianBio desires to consent and agree to such assignment;

WHEREAS, at the time of the License Agreement, LianBio intended for all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations under the License Agreement, including the Licensed Rights, to benefit Lian Cardiovascular, and that it was the intent of LianBio and LianBio Licensing that Lian Cardiovascular own the beneficial interests in the Licensed Rights; and

WHEREAS, all payments made by LianBio Licensing to MyoKardia under the License Agreement prior to the Agreement Execution Date (the “MyoKardia Payments”) were contributions by LianBio to Lian Cardiovascular in consideration for and in respect of LianBio’s equity interests in Lian Cardiovascular, and that such payments were made on behalf of and at the direction of Lian Cardiovascular.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

- 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, LianBio Licensing hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Cardiovascular all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that LianBio Licensing has or may have under the License Agreement (a) for past, present and future infringements of the MyoKardia IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by MyoKardia of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Cardiovascular, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Cardiovascular had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing (such assignment, the “Assignment”).

- 1.2. Lian Cardiovascular hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Cardiovascular had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing.
 - 1.3. Lian Cardiovascular shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by LianBio Licensing to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution and Direction for Payment. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the MyoKardia Payments were made on behalf of, and at the direction of, Lian Cardiovascular, and any such payments are treated by the Parties as a contribution to Lian Cardiovascular in exchange for, and in respect of, LianBio’s equity interest in Lian Cardiovascular.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by LianBio Licensing in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of LianBio Licensing’s obligations and duties under the License Agreement. All payments, obligations and duties of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Cardiovascular in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.
5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.
6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the License Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall not be construed as conferring any rights on any other person.

7. Governing Law. Construction and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.
8. Dispute Resolution.
 - 8.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, the Parties will first attempt to resolve any and all disputes amongst the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement through good faith discussions. Should the Parties not be able to reach agreement within fifteen (15) days after the date on which the Parties commenced discussions, then any Party may refer such matter to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party for resolution and the Chief Executive Officers of each Party will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Chief Executive Officers of each Party fail to resolve such matter within fifteen (15) Business Days after the date on which the matter is first referred to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, any Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 8.2.
 - 8.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in this Section 8.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 8.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce Rules (the "Rules") by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the pharmaceutical industry, with the two (2) initial arbitrators appointed in accordance with the Rules and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) initial arbitrators. If the two (2) initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with the Rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by any Party by notice to the other Parties. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings will be held in New York, New York, USA; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney's fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of any Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 8.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 8.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of all Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, no Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will preclude any Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding.

8.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 8.2. THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if all Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

THIS CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made on September 28, 2021 (the “Agreement Execution Date”) and effective as of January 1, 2021 (the “Agreement Effective Date”) by and among Lian Cardiovascular, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Lian Cardiovascular”), Lian Cardiovascular Limited, a private company limited by shares organized under the laws of Hong Kong (“Lian Cardiovascular HK”) and LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”). Each of Lian Cardiovascular, Lian Cardiovascular HK and LianBio is referred to herein as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties”.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, United States (“LianBio Licensing”), LianBio and MyoKardia, Inc. (“MyoKardia”) are parties to a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated August 10, 2020 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing (as Licensee) acquired from MyoKardia (as Company) certain rights and licenses under certain intellectual property owned or controlled by MyoKardia to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement (the “MyoKardia IP” or Licensed Rights”);

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, Lian Cardiovascular and LianBio are parties to a certain Contribution, Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated September 28, 2021 (the “Assignment Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit B, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing assigned and transferred the License Agreement to Lian Cardiovascular and Lian Cardiovascular accepted and agreed to such assignment, all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Assignment Agreement;

WHEREAS, as a contribution by Lian Cardiovascular to Lian Cardiovascular HK in consideration for and in respect of Lian Cardiovascular’s equity interests in Lian Cardiovascular HK, (A) Lian Cardiovascular desires to assign and transfer, and effect an assignment of, the License Agreement to Lian Cardiovascular HK, including all of Lian Cardiovascular’s rights and obligations thereunder, such that Lian Cardiovascular HK assumes all of Lian Cardiovascular’s rights and obligations thereunder as if the original party thereto in place of Lian Cardiovascular (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), (B) Lian Cardiovascular HK desires to accept and agree to such assignment, and (C) LianBio desires to consent and agree to such assignment; and

WHEREAS, Lian Cardiovascular intended for all of Lian Cardiovascular’s rights and obligations under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including the Licensed Rights, to benefit Lian Cardiovascular HK, and that it was the intent of LianBio and Lian Cardiovascular that Lian Cardiovascular HK own the beneficial interests in the Licensed Rights.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

- 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, Lian Cardiovascular hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Cardiovascular HK all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Cardiovascular under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that Lian Cardiovascular has or may have under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (a) for past, present and future infringements of the MyoKardia IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by MyoKardia of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Cardiovascular HK, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Cardiovascular HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Cardiovascular (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (such assignment, the “Assignment”).
 - 1.2. Lian Cardiovascular HK hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Cardiovascular under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of Lian Cardiovascular under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Cardiovascular HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Cardiovascular (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement).
 - 1.3. Lian Cardiovascular HK shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by Lian Cardiovascular to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by Lian Cardiovascular under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Assignment and assumption described in Section 1 was a contribution by Lian Cardiovascular to Lian Cardiovascular HK in exchange for, and in respect of, Lian Cardiovascular’s equity interest in Lian Cardiovascular HK.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by Lian Cardiovascular in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of Lian Cardiovascular’s obligations and duties under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement). All payments, obligations and duties of Lian Cardiovascular under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Cardiovascular HK in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.

5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.
6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the License Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall not be construed as conferring any rights on any other person.
7. Governing Law. Construction and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.
8. Dispute Resolution.
 - 8.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, the Parties will first attempt to resolve any and all disputes amongst the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement through good faith discussions. Should the Parties not be able to reach agreement within fifteen (15) days after the date on which the Parties commenced discussions, then any Party may refer such matter to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party for resolution and the Chief Executive Officers of each Party will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Chief Executive Officers of each Party fail to resolve such matter within fifteen (15) Business Days after the date on which the matter is first referred to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, any Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 8.2.
 - 8.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in this Section 8.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 8.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce Rules (the "Rules") by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the pharmaceutical industry, with the two (2) initial arbitrators appointed in accordance with the Rules and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) initial arbitrators. If the two (2) initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with the Rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by any Party by notice to the other Parties. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings will be held in New York, New York, USA; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney's fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of any Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 8.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 8.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of all Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, no Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will preclude any Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding.

8.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 8.2. THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if all Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, QED Therapeutics, Inc. (“QED”) and LianBio Licensing (as novatee of LianBio pursuant to that certain Novation Agreement dated October 11, 2020 by and among LianBio, LianBio Licensing, and QED (the “Novation Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A) are parties to a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated October 16, 2019 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit B, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) (as Licensee) acquired from QED (as Company) certain rights and licenses under certain intellectual property owned or controlled by QED to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement (the “QED IP” or Licensed Rights”);

WHEREAS, (A) LianBio Licensing desires to assign and transfer, and effect an assignment of, the License Agreement to Lian Oncology, including all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder, such that Lian Oncology assumes all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder as if the original party thereto in place of LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement), (B) Lian Oncology desires to accept and agree to such assignment, and (C) LianBio desires to consent and agree to such assignment;

WHEREAS, LianBio intended for all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations under the License Agreement, including the Licensed Rights, to benefit Lian Oncology, and that it was the intent of LianBio and LianBio Licensing that Lian Oncology own the beneficial interests in the Licensed Rights; and

WHEREAS, all payments made by LianBio and LianBio Licensing to QED under the License Agreement prior to the Agreement Execution Date (the “QED Payments”) were contributions by LianBio to Lian Oncology in consideration for and in respect of LianBio’s equity interests in Lian Oncology, and that such payments were made on behalf of and at the direction of Lian Oncology.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

- 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, LianBio Licensing hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Oncology all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that LianBio Licensing has or may have under the License Agreement (a) for past, present and future infringements of the QED IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by QED of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Oncology, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Oncology had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) (such assignment, the "Assignment").

- 1.2. Lian Oncology hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Oncology had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement).
 - 1.3. Lian Oncology shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) under the License Agreement, irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution and Direction for Payment. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the QED Payments were made on behalf of, and at the direction of, Lian Oncology, and any such payments are treated by the Parties as a contribution to Lian Oncology in exchange for, and in respect of, LianBio's equity interest in Lian Oncology.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of LianBio Licensing's (and LianBio's, prior to the Novation Agreement) obligations and duties under the License Agreement. All payments, obligations and duties of LianBio Licensing (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) under the License Agreement due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Oncology in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.
5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.

6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

- 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, Lian Oncology hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Oncology HK all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that Lian Oncology has or may have under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (a) for past, present and future infringements of the QED IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by QED of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Oncology HK, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Oncology HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (such assignment, the “Assignment”).
 - 1.2. Lian Oncology HK hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Oncology HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement).
 - 1.3. Lian Oncology HK shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) under the License Agreement, irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Assignment and assumption described in Section 1 was a contribution by Lian Oncology to Lian Oncology HK in exchange for, and in respect of, Lian Oncology’s equity interest in Lian Oncology HK.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of Lian Oncology’s (and LianBio’s, prior to the Novation Agreement) obligations and duties under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement). All payments, obligations and duties of Lian Oncology (and LianBio, prior to the Novation Agreement) under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Oncology HK in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.

4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.
5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.
6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the License Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall not be construed as conferring any rights on any other person.
7. Governing Law. Construction and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.
8. Dispute Resolution.
 - 8.1. Dispute Resolution; Escalation. The Parties recognize that disputes as to certain matters arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may arise from time to time. It is the objective of the Parties to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement in an expedited manner by mutual cooperation. To accomplish this objective, the Parties will first attempt to resolve any and all disputes amongst the Parties arising out of or in connection with this Agreement through good faith discussions. Should the Parties not be able to reach agreement within fifteen (15) days after the date on which the Parties commenced discussions, then any Party may refer such matter to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party for resolution and the Chief Executive Officers of each Party will attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the Chief Executive Officers of each Party fail to resolve such matter within fifteen (15) Business Days after the date on which the matter is first referred to the Chief Executive Officers of each Party (unless a longer period is agreed to by the Parties), then, any Party may submit the dispute for final resolution by binding arbitration in accordance with Section 8.2.
 - 8.2. Arbitration. Except as set forth in this Section 8.2, each dispute, difference, controversy or claim arising in connection with or related or incidental to, or question occurring under, this Agreement or the subject matter hereof that cannot be resolved pursuant to Section 8.1 will be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the International Chamber of Commerce Rules (the "Rules") by an arbitral tribunal composed of three (3) arbitrators, all of whom will have previous judicial experience and significant experience in the pharmaceutical industry, with the two (2) initial arbitrators appointed in accordance with the Rules and the third arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the two (2) initial arbitrators. If the two (2) initial arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within thirty (30) days, the third arbitrator will be appointed in accordance with the Rules. The foregoing arbitration proceedings may be commenced by any Party by notice to the other Parties. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, all such arbitration proceedings will be held in New York, New York, USA; provided, however, that proceedings may be conducted by telephone conference call with the consent of the Parties and the arbitrator(s). All arbitration proceedings will be conducted in the English language. The arbitrators will consider grants of equitable relief and orders for specific performance as co-equal remedies along with awards of monetary damages. The arbitrators will have no authority to award punitive damages. The allocation of expenses of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney's fees, will be determined by the arbitrators, or, in the absence of such determination, each Party will pay its own expenses. The Parties hereby agree that the arbitrators have authority to issue rulings and orders regarding all procedural and evidentiary matters that the arbitrators deem reasonable and necessary with or without petition therefore by the Parties as well as the final ruling and judgment. All rulings by the arbitrators will be final. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, any Party may seek equitable measures of protection in the form of attachment of assets or injunctive relief (including specific performance and injunctive relief) in any matter relating to the proprietary rights and interests of any Party from any court of competent jurisdiction, pending a decision by the arbitral tribunal in accordance with this Section 8.2). The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 8.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of all Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, no Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will preclude any Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding.

8.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 8.2. THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if all Parties have not executed the same counterpart. Signatures provided by facsimile transmission or in Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF) sent by electronic mail will be deemed to be original signatures.

CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

THIS CONTRIBUTION, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made on September 28, 2021 (the “Agreement Execution Date”) and effective as of January 1, 2021 (the “Agreement Effective Date”) by and among LianBio Licensing, LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, United States (“LianBio Licensing”), Lian Oncology, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Lian Oncology”) and LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”). Each of LianBio Licensing, Lian Oncology and LianBio is referred to herein as a “Party” and, collectively, as the “Parties”.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, LianBio and Navire Pharma, Inc. (formerly known as PTP Pharmaceuticals, Inc.) (“Navire”) are parties to a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated August 9, 2020 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing (as Licensee) acquired from Navire (as Company) certain rights and licenses under certain intellectual property owned or controlled by Navire to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement (the “Navire IP” or Licensed Rights”);

WHEREAS, (A) LianBio Licensing desires to assign and transfer, and effect an assignment of, the License Agreement to Lian Oncology, including all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder, such that Lian Oncology assumes all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations thereunder as if the original party thereto in place of LianBio Licensing, (B) Lian Oncology desires to accept and agree to such assignment, and (C) LianBio desires to consent and agree to such assignment;

WHEREAS, LianBio intended for all of LianBio Licensing’s rights and obligations under the License Agreement, including the Licensed Rights, to benefit Lian Oncology, and that it was the intent of LianBio and LianBio Licensing that Lian Oncology own the beneficial interests in the Licensed Rights; and

WHEREAS, all payments made by LianBio Licensing to Navire under the License Agreement prior to the Agreement Execution Date (the “Navire Payments”) were contributions by LianBio to Lian Oncology in consideration for and in respect of LianBio’s equity interests in Lian Oncology, and that such payments were made on behalf of and at the direction of Lian Oncology.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.
 - 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, LianBio Licensing hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Oncology all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that LianBio Licensing has or may have under the License Agreement (a) for past, present and future infringements of the Navire IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by Navire of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Oncology, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Oncology had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing (such assignment, the "Assignment").

- 1.2. Lian Oncology hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Oncology had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of LianBio Licensing.
- 1.3. Lian Oncology shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by LianBio Licensing to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement, irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution and Direction for Payment. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Navire Payments were made on behalf of, and at the direction of, Lian Oncology, and any such payments are treated by the Parties as a contribution to Lian Oncology in exchange for, and in respect of, LianBio's equity interest in Lian Oncology.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by LianBio Licensing in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of LianBio Licensing's obligations and duties under the License Agreement. All payments, obligations and duties of LianBio Licensing under the License Agreement due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Oncology in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.
5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.
6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the License Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and shall not be construed as conferring any rights on any other person.

7. Governing Law. Construction and interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York, excluding any conflicts or choice of law rule or principle that might otherwise refer construction or interpretation of this Agreement to the substantive law of another jurisdiction.

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, LLC, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, United States (“LianBio Licensing”), LianBio and Navire Pharma, Inc. (formerly known as PTP Pharmaceuticals, Inc.) (“Navire”) are parties to a certain Exclusive License Agreement dated August 9, 2020 (the “License Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing (as Licensee) acquired from Navire (as Company) certain rights and licenses under certain intellectual property owned or controlled by Navire to Develop, Manufacture and Commercialize Licensed Products in the Field in the Territory (each as defined in the License Agreement), all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the License Agreement (the “Navire IP” or Licensed Rights”);

WHEREAS, LianBio Licensing, Lian Oncology and LianBio are parties to a certain Contribution, Assignment and Assumption Agreement dated September 28, 2021 (the “Assignment Agreement”), attached hereto as Exhibit B, pursuant to which LianBio Licensing assigned and transferred the License Agreement to Lian Oncology and Lian Oncology accepted and agreed to such assignment, all upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Assignment Agreement;

WHEREAS, as a contribution by Lian Oncology to Lian Oncology HK in consideration for and in respect of Lian Oncology’s equity interests in Lian Oncology HK, (A) Lian Oncology desires to assign and transfer, and effect an assignment of, the License Agreement to Lian Oncology HK, including all of Lian Oncology’s rights and obligations thereunder, such that Lian Oncology HK assumes all of Lian Oncology’s rights and obligations thereunder as if the original party thereto in place of Lian Oncology (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), (B) Lian Oncology HK desires to accept and agree to such assignment, and (C) LianBio desires to consent and agree to such assignment; and

WHEREAS, Lian Oncology intended for all of Lian Oncology’s rights and obligations under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including the Licensed Rights, to benefit Lian Oncology HK, and that it was the intent of LianBio and Lian Oncology that Lian Oncology HK own the beneficial interests in the Licensed Rights;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment and Assumption.

- 1.1. Effective as of the Agreement Effective Date, Lian Oncology hereby irrevocably assigns and transfers to Lian Oncology HK all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, demands, liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights and all rights, interests, claims, and demands recoverable in law or equity that Lian Oncology has or may have under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (a) for past, present and future infringements of the Navire IP, (b) for past, present, and future breaches by Navire of the License Agreement, (c) for past, present, and future tort or fraud claims, and (d) for compromising, settling, suing for, and collecting any profits and damages in connection with any of the foregoing, all of the foregoing to be held and enjoyed by Lian Oncology HK, its successors and assigns or their legal representatives, as fully and entirely as if Lian Oncology HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Oncology (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) (such assignment, the “Assignment”).
 - 1.2. Lian Oncology HK hereby (a) irrevocably accepts the Assignment, and (b) (i) agrees to be bound by the License Agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) assumes all liabilities, duties, and obligations of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), and (iii) acquires all rights, licenses, title, interest, claims, and demands of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), including, without limitation, the Licensed Rights, in each case, as if Lian Oncology HK had at all times been a party to the License Agreement in place of Lian Oncology (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement).
 - 1.3. Lian Oncology HK shall assume all liability for any breach, non-observance or failure by Lian Oncology to perform any performance, covenants, agreements, duties, and obligations expressed to be undertaken by Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement), irrespective of whether or not any such breach, non-observance or failure is known to any of the Parties.
2. Contribution. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Assignment and assumption described in Section 1 was a contribution by Lian Oncology to Lian Oncology HK in exchange for, and in respect of, Lian Oncology’s equity interest in Lian Oncology HK.
3. Release. All actions prior to the Agreement Execution Date taken by Lian Oncology in fulfillment of its obligations and duties under the License Agreement shall be considered to have discharged those parts of Lian Oncology’s obligations and duties under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement). All payments, obligations and duties of Lian Oncology under the License Agreement (as assignee of LianBio Licensing under the Assignment Agreement) due and payable or due to be performed on or prior to the Agreement Execution Date shall be paid or performed by Lian Oncology HK in accordance with the terms of the License Agreement.
4. Consent and Agreement of LianBio. LianBio hereby irrevocably consents and agrees to the Assignment, assumption, contribution and release described in Section 1, Section 2 and Section 3 above.

5. Further Assurances. Each Party shall duly execute and deliver or cause to be duly executed and delivered, such further instruments and do and cause to be done such further acts and things, including the filing of such assignments, agreements, documents and instruments, as may be necessary or as the other Party may reasonably request to effect the intent and purposes of this Agreement.
6. Interpretation; Successors. It is the clear intent of all Parties that the Assignment will be interpreted as an assignment and not a novation. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the License Agreement. The Parties hereby exclude any right of appeal to any court on the merits of such matter. The provisions of this Section 8.2 may be enforced and judgment on the award (including equitable remedies) granted in any arbitration hereunder may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the award or any of the Parties or any of their respective assets. Except to the extent necessary to confirm an award or as may be required by laws, neither a Party nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of an arbitration without the prior written consent of all Parties. The Parties agree that, in the event of a dispute over the nature or quality of performance under this Agreement, no Party may terminate this Agreement until final resolution of the dispute through arbitration or other judicial determination. Nothing in this Section 8.2 will preclude any Party from seeking interim or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, including a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or other interim equitable relief, concerning a dispute either prior to or during any arbitration if necessary to protect the interests of such Party or to preserve the status quo pending the arbitration proceeding.

8.3. Jury Waiver. EACH PARTY, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY, AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS IT CONTEMPLATES TO ARBITRATE AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 8.2. THIS WAIVER APPLIES TO ANY ACTION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING, WHETHER SOUNDING IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which counterparts, when so executed and delivered, will be deemed to be an original, and all of which counterparts, taken together, will constitute one and the same instrument even if all Parties have not executed the same counterpart. AMENDMENT NO. 1 TO LEASE AND LEASE AGREEMENT

AMENDMENT NO. 1 (“Amendment”), dated as of July 1, 2021, between Carnegie 103 Associates, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, with offices c/o Boston Properties at 101 Carnegie Center, Suite 104, Princeton, New Jersey 08540 (the “Landlord”), and LianBio, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, with offices at 103 Carnegie Center Drive, Suite 215, Princeton, NJ 08540 (“Tenant”), to the Lease and Lease Agreement, dated as of June 18, 2020, between Landlord and LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“Parent Entity”), as predecessor in interest to Tenant (the “Lease”).

Background. Landlord and Parent Entity entered into the Lease and Parent Entity hereby desires to assign to Tenant, and Tenant desires to assume from Parent Entity, the Lease and all obligations of Parent Entity thereunder. Further, the Tenant desires to (a) increase the size of the Leased Premises, (b) relocate to other premises located on the third floor of the Building, and (c) extend the term of the Lease. The Landlord is amenable. The Tenant is prepared to: (i) surrender the Initial Leased Premises on the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date to the Landlord as described below, (ii) forego any further right it might otherwise have to use the Initial Leased Premises following the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date by virtue of the Lease, and (iii) relocate to the Substitute Leased Premises, as said term is defined below. The purpose of this Amendment is to set forth the terms and conditions of the foregoing.

Defined Terms. Initially capitalized terms used but not defined in this Amendment but that are defined in the Lease shall retain their definitions set forth in the Lease, except to the extent they may be deleted or modified in this Amendment.

1 As of the date hereof, Parent Entity hereby assigns to Tenant, and Tenant hereby assumes the Lease and all obligations of Parent Entity thereunder.

2 The Landlord and the Tenant hereby amend the Lease, subject to all the terms and conditions set forth below:

2.1 The definition of “Leased Premises” set forth in Exhibit E of the Lease is amended by deleting it in its entirety and substituting the following therefor: “‘Leased Premises’ means the Initial Leased Premises and, commencing on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date, the Initial Leased Premises and the Substitute Leased Premises and commencing on the date immediately following the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, only the Substitute Leased Premises.”

2.2 The definition of “Renewal Term” set forth in Exhibit E of the Lease is amended by deleting it in its entirety and substituting the following therefor: “‘Renewal Term’ means at the time of reference, any portion of the Term, other than the Substitute Leased Premises Initial Term, as to which the Tenant has properly exercised an Option to Renew.”

2.3 The definition of “Tenant’s Share” set forth in Exhibit E of the Lease is amended by deleting it in its entirety and substituting the following therefor: “‘Tenant’s Share’ of any amount means 1.20%, until the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date, and thereon and thereafter means 7.47%.”

2.4 The definition of “Term” set forth in Exhibit E of the Lease is amended by deleting it in its entirety and substituting the following therefor: “‘Term’ means with respect to the Initial Leased Premises, the Initial Leased Premises Initial Term, and with respect to the Substitute Leased Premises, the Substitute Leased Premises Initial Term, plus at the time of reference, any Renewal Term.”

2.5 The following new definitions are added to Exhibit E of the Lease:

61 “Initial Leased Premises” means that certain Leased Premises identified in the Lease and Lease Agreement by and between Landlord and Tenant dated June 18, 2020 and comprised of 1,148 square feet at 103 Carnegie Center.

62 “Initial Leased Premises Termination Date” means that date which is the seventh (7th) day immediately following the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date.

63 “First Lease Amendment” means that certain Amendment No. 1 to Lease and Lease Agreement dated as of July 1, 2021, between Landlord and Tenant.

64 “Substitute Leased Premises” means that portion of the interior of the Building (as viewed from the interior of the Substitute Leased Premises) bounded by the interior sides of the unfinished floor and the finished ceiling on the third floor (as the floors have been designated by the Landlord) of the Building, the centers of all Common Walls and the exterior sides of all walls other than Common Walls, the outline of which floor space is set forth on the diagram set forth in Exhibit A-1 attached hereto, which portion contains 7,152 square feet of gross rentable floor space; and references within this Agreement to the gross rentable floor space of the Substitute Leased Premises shall mean the quantity herein specified, which shall not be subject to re-measurement.

65 “Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date” is defined in subsection 4 of this Agreement.

66 “Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work” means the work to be performed by the Landlord pursuant to subsection 5.4 of this Agreement.

67 “Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion” means that the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work shall have been substantially completed.

68 “Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date” means the date that Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion has been achieved, adjusted to an earlier date to compensate the Landlord for the cumulative number of days of delay attributable to Substitute Leased Premises Tenant Delay (if any).

69 “Substitute Leased Premises Tenant Delay” means any period of delay encountered by the Landlord or its general contractor selected to perform the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work in achieving Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion or the issuance of the Municipality’s building permits, if any, that is attributable to the following: (i) any material changes made at the request of the Tenant to the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work after the date hereof; (ii) the failure of the Tenant to select the single color of the paint to be applied and the flooring to be installed as part of the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work from the Landlord’s samples within seven (7) business days after the later to occur of (a) the execution and delivery to the Landlord of the First Lease Amendment by the Tenant, and (b) the execution and delivery to the Tenant of the First Lease Amendment by the Landlord; (iii) any labor dispute or disharmonious labor relations with the Landlord’s general contractor, any of its subcontractors or any of their sub-subcontractors (of any tier) caused by any direct contractor or other agent of the Tenant or any of its subcontractors or any of their sub-subcontractors (of any tier) when performing any preparation of the Substitute Leased Premises; (iv) any work performed by or for the Tenant (other than the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work), or any delay in the commencement or performance or completion of any such work, which impedes the orderly coordination, sequence and progress of the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work; (v) any flaw or other deficiency in any work performed by any direct contractor of the Tenant or any of its subcontractors or their sub-subcontractors (of any tier); (vi) any failure of any direct contractor of the Tenant or any of its subcontractors or their sub-subcontractors (of any tier) to properly connect and interface with the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the installation of the Tenant's telecommunications and data wiring and cabling and furniture, fixtures, equipment and other installations not included in the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work; (vii) any delay in the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work encountered as a result of attempting to integrate work of the Tenant's direct contractors with the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work; (viii) any suspension or stoppage of the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work at the request or instance of the Tenant or any of its agents; (ix) the request by the Tenant for materials, finishes or installations other than Building Standard; and (x) any other delay caused by the Tenant or its design professionals, engineers, direct contractors, employees or other agents of which the Landlord shall have advised the Tenant or its construction manager which is not cured within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice by Tenant.

70 "Substitute Leased Premises Initial Term" shall have the meaning in Section 4.1.

71 "Substitute Leased Premises Lease Year" shall be the twelve full calendar months commencing on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date.

2.6 Section 2 of the Lease is amended by adding the following new subsection 2.3 thereto:

"2.3 The Landlord shall lease to the Tenant, and the Tenant shall accept and lease from the Landlord, the Substitute Leased Premises from the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date for the term provided in subsection 4.1 of this Agreement. The Substitute Leased Premises consist of 7,152 square feet of gross rentable floor space on the third floor of 103 Carnegie Center, as more fully described in the definition of Substitute Leased Premises set forth in Exhibit E attached hereto."

2.7 Subsection 3.2 of the Lease is amended by deleting the existing rent table and replacing it with the following:

"The Basic Rent for the Initial Leased Premises shall be at the rate per year set forth as follows:

Period	Annual Rental Rate
Commencement Date through Lease Year One	$38,458.00
Lease Year Two through the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date	$39,032.00

The Basic Rent for the Substitute Leased Premises shall be at the rate per year set forth below:

Period	Annual Rental Rate
Substitute Premises Commencement Date through the end of Substitute Leased Premises Lease Year 1.	$243,168.00
Substitute Leased Premises Lease Year 2	$246,744.00
Substitute Leased Premises Lease Year 3	$250,320.00

All Tenant Janitorial and Tenant Electric charges shall remain consistent with the Lease.

2.8 Subsection 4.1 of the Lease is amended by deleting said subsection in its entirety and substituting the following therefor:

“4.1 The Initial Leased Premises Initial Term shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall expire on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date, unless sooner terminated in accordance with section 24 of this Agreement. The “Substitute Leased Premises Initial Term” shall commence on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date and shall continue for three (3) Lease Years, unless sooner terminated in accordance with section 24 of this Agreement.”

2.9 Subsection 4 of the Lease is amended by adding the following new subsections 4.5, 4.6 and 4.7 thereto:

“4.5 Unless the condition contemplated by subsection 4.6 of this Agreement occurs, the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date shall be the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date, adjusted to an earlier date to compensate the Landlord for the cumulative number of days of Substitute Leased Premises Tenant Delay.

4.6 In the event the Tenant occupies the Substitute Leased Premises for the conduct of business earlier than the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date, the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date shall be the first date of such earlier taking of possession or occupancy.

4.7 Once it is ascertained in accordance with subsections 4.3, 4.4, 4.5 and/or 4.6 of this Agreement, the Landlord shall give prompt written notice of the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date to the Tenant; and if the Tenant does not object thereto by notice given to the Landlord within ten (10) days of receipt of the Landlord’s written notice, the date set forth in the Landlord’s notice shall thereafter be conclusively presumed to be the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date.”

2.10 (i) Subsection 5.5 of the Lease is hereby revised and renumbered as Subsection 5.2, (ii) Subsection 5.6 of the Lease is hereby revised and renumbered as Subsection 5.3 and (iii) Section 5 of the Lease is hereby amended by adding the following as new subsections 5.4, 5.5 and 5.6 thereto:

“5.4 The Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, perform the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work prior to the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date. Otherwise, the Tenant shall accept the Substitute Leased Premises on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date in its then “AS IS” condition. The Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work shall mean completing the following, using Building Standard materials and methods, (a) re-painting the existing painted walls and painting the new walls in the Substitute Leased Premises, (b) re-carpeting the existing carpeted floors in the Substitute Leased Premises, and (c) demolishing the existing demising wall to create the Substitute Leased Premises. The Tenant shall select the single color of paint to be applied and the carpeting to be installed as part of the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work from the Landlord’s Building standard samples within seven (7) business days after the later to occur of (i) the execution and delivery to the Landlord of the First Lease Amendment by the Tenant, and (ii) the execution and delivery to the Tenant of the First Lease Amendment by the Landlord. The Landlord shall cause the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work to be performed with good materials and workmanship, and in compliance with all applicable laws.

The design and construction of any alterations, improvements or other modifications to the Substitute Leased Premises in addition to the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord’s Work made at the written request of the Tenant shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Tenant, and which may result in a Tenant Delay. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that in addition to the Substitute Leased Premises Landlord's Work, Landlord shall perform, at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, additional work requested by Tenant as set forth on Exhibit H hereto (the "Tenant Requested Additional Work"), which Tenant Requested Additional Work may be further modified upon a written agreement of Landlord and Tenant. The Tenant shall pay Landlord for such Tenant Requested Additional Work within thirty (30) days after the invoicing therefor, provided, that, the cost estimate provided by the contractors hired to perform the Tenant Requested Additional Work shall be subject to the prior written approval of both Landlord and Tenant prior to the commencement of any such work.

5.5 The Tenant, using its own contractors, desires to install telecommunications and data wiring and cabling and furniture, fixtures and equipment in the Substitute Leased Premises prior to the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date. The Landlord shall give to the Tenant at least twenty one (21) days' advance notice of the Landlord's projected date of the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date granting access to the Substitute Leased Premises to the Tenant and its contractors to perform such installations. The Landlord hereby consents to and the Tenant and its contractors may have access to the Substitute Leased Premises prior to the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date to perform such installations, provided that the Tenant (i) complies with its obligations under section 12 and 14 of this Agreement, and (ii) hereby acknowledges that such access and installation may cause Substitute Leased Premises Tenant Delay, of which the Landlord shall advise the Tenant at the time the Tenant requests such access. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, there shall be no supervision, review, or inspection fee or other charge payable to the Landlord for its approval of or supervision of the Tenant's installation of its telecommunications and data wiring and cabling and furniture, fixtures and equipment in the Substitute Leased Premises prior to the Substitute Leased Premises Substantial Completion Date.

5.6 The Tenant shall timely comply on a continuing basis with each of its obligations under sections 12 and 14 of this Agreement in advance of, and while, any of its employees, contractors or other agents are present in the Building or on the Property performing any alterations, improvements or other modifications in or other preparation of the Substitute Leased Premises."

2.11 Section 6 shall be amended by adding new subsection 6.5 as follows:

"6.5 Tenants renewal rights pursuant to this Section 6 shall apply to the Substitute Leased Premises commencing on the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Option to Renew for one additional period of three (3) years shall apply to the Substitute Leased Premises."

2.12 Section 21 of the Lease is amended by adding the following new sentence at the end thereof: "Notwithstanding the foregoing and anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, with respect to the Initial Leased Premises, in lieu of the Tenant performing its restoration obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Initial Leased Premises (the "Deferred Restoration Obligations") prior to the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, (a) in the event that subsequent to the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, the Landlord desires to perform all or a portion of the Deferred Restoration Obligations on the Tenant's behalf, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the reasonable cost (without any administrative or oversight charge) to perform any such Deferred Restoration Obligations within thirty (30) days after the Landlord gives notice to the Tenant that the Landlord desires to perform any such Deferred Restoration Obligations, together with an invoice for the reasonable cost (without any administrative or oversight charge) to perform such Deferred Restoration Obligations, and (b) in the event that a replacement tenant for the Initial Leased Premises delivers to the Landlord a written agreement to retain all or a portion of the Deferred Restoration Obligations, the Landlord shall give notice to the Tenant that the Tenant shall be released from its obligations with respect to all or a portion, as the case may be, of the Deferred Restoration Obligations being retained by such replacement tenant. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, with respect to the obligation of the Tenant to remove from the Initial Leased Premises all movable property owned by the Tenant or anyone else other than the Landlord no later than the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, in the event that no later than ten (10) days prior to the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, the Tenant and a replacement tenant for the Initial Leased Premises deliver to the Landlord a written agreement between said parties providing for the replacement tenant to purchase from the Tenant all or a portion of such property, the Landlord shall give notice to the Tenant that the Tenant shall be released from its obligations with respect to the removal of all or a portion, as the case may be, of the property being purchased by such replacement tenant. Tenant shall comply with the balance of Section 21 with respect to the restoration of the Substitute Leased Premises.”

2.13 The security deposit in the amount of $6,409.67 set forth in Section 29 of the Lease shall be increased from and after the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date to $20,264.00.

2.14 Section 30 of the Lease is amended by adding the following new subsection 30.1.1 thereto:

“30.1.1 no broker or other agent has shown the Substitute Leased Premises or the Building to the Tenant, or brought either to the Tenant’s attention;

2.15 The Lease is amended by adding the following new section 46 thereto:

“46 Surrender of Initial Leased Premises.

46.1 The Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, no later than the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, vacate, remove its personal property, equipment and other possessions, perform any restoration obligations and surrender possession of the Initial Leased Premises in accordance with Section 21 of this Agreement (the “Initial Leased Premises Surrender”), and relocate to the Substitute Leased Premises. In the event that the Tenant fails to timely and properly perform the Initial Leased Premises Surrender, the Tenant shall be deemed, for purposes of subsection 23.1.3 of this Agreement, to have remained in possession of the Initial Leased Premises after the Tenant’s obligation to surrender the Initial Leased Premises shall have arisen and thereupon the Landlord shall have the right to exercise its remedies in accordance with said subsection.

46.2 If no Event of Default shall have occurred prior to the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date and if the Tenant shall have timely and otherwise properly performed the Initial Leased Premises Surrender, the Tenant shall have no further liability under this Agreement with respect to Rent for the Initial Leased Premises for periods commencing on and after the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, except for (i) the annual reconciliation of actual to projected escalations in Operational Expenses and Taxes for periods prior to the Initial Leased Premises Termination Date, and (ii) obligations expressly undertaken by the Tenant in this Amendment.”

2.16 The Lease is amended by adding the following new section 47 thereto:

“47 License Space. Landlord and Tenant hereby acknowledge and agree that at any time prior to the Substitute Leased Premises Commencement Date, upon completion of the first phase of the Substitute Leased Premises such that the first phase is ready for occupancy (the “First Phase Space”), upon Tenant’s delivery of written notice to Landlord, Landlord shall provide Tenant with a license to use the First Phase Space pursuant to the terms of a separate license agreement acceptable to both Tenant and Landlord.”

2.17 The Lease is amended by adding the following new section 48 thereto:

“48 Guaranty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary that may be set for in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not become effective unless LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands, the direct owner of 100% of the equity interest in the Tenant, shall have executed and delivered its guarantee of the Tenant’s obligations under this Agreement.”

3 This Amendment shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

4 As amended by this Amendment, the Lease continues in full force and effect. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Amendment and the terms of the Lease, the terms of this Amendment shall control.

5. Electronic Signatures. The parties acknowledge and agree that this Amendment may be executed by electronic signature, which shall be considered as an original signature for all purposes and shall have the same force and effect as an original signature. Without limitation, “electronic signature” shall include faxed versions of an original signature or electronically scanned and transmitted versions (e.g., via pdf) of an original signature.

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of September 26, 2019 by and between LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Company”), and Bing Li, an American citizen whose passport number is (the “Executive”).

WHEREAS, the Company and the Executive desire to establish the terms and conditions of the Executive’s employment with the Company as hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and obligations hereinafter set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment. The Company hereby agrees to employ the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Company upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

2. Term. Subject to the provisions of Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 hereof, the term of the Executive’s employment with the Company will commence on October 1, 2019 (the “Commencement Date”) and end on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Commencement Date (the “Initial Term”). Unless earlier terminated by the Company or the Executive in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Executive’s employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically be renewed for subsequent one (1) year periods (each, a “Renewal Term”). The term “Employment Period” shall mean the Initial Term and, if applicable, the Renewal Term or any shorter period resulting from any termination of service under Sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 hereof.

3. Duties and Responsibilities. The Executive will serve as the Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) of the Company. The Executive will perform such duties and services as are customary for the position of CEO in privately-held enterprises similar to the Company and such other duties as may be reasonably assigned to him from time to time by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Executive hereby agrees to perform faithfully such duties and responsibilities and the other reasonable duties and responsibilities assigned to him from time to time by the Board.

4. Time to be Devoted to Service. Except for reasonable vacations, absences due to temporary illness, and activities that may be mutually agreed to by the parties, the Executive shall devote his entire time, attention and energies during normal business hours and such evenings and weekends as may be reasonably required for the discharge of his duties to the business of the Company while the Executive is employed by the Company during the Employment Period. During the Employment Period, the Executive will not be engaged in any other business activity that, in the reasonable judgment of the Board, conflicts with the duties of the Executive hereunder (including without limitation, any activities that present a conflict of interest) without the prior written consent of the Company.

5. Conflict of Interest. The Executive has reviewed with the Board (i) the present directorships and other positions or roles held by the Executive or his associate(s) in all such business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company and (ii) ownership interests (legal or beneficial, direct or indirect) in another company held by the Executive or his associate(s), schedules of which are listed on Schedule 1 hereto. The Executive agrees to review with the Board any potential directorships, ownership (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) interests and other positions or roles with business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company. Except as set forth in Schedule 1 hereto, the Executive or his associate(s) is precluded from owning an interest (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) in another company or serving as an employee, director, consultant, advisor or member of such other company that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company until such interest is presented to the Board and the Board consents to such interest or employment.

6. Compensation; Benefits; Reimbursement.

6.1 Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall receive as compensation an initial annual base salary of US$550,000 (the “Base Salary”), less any payroll taxes or withholdings legally required or properly requested by the Executive. This Base Salary and all other compensation and reimbursement under the Agreement, may be provided through a human resources service organization, and will be payable in such installments as are applicable to employees of the Company at substantially the same service level as the Executive.

6.2 Stock Options. Subject to the Executive’s continued employment with the Company and the Executive’s execution and delivery of Option Agreements in a form acceptable to the Company, the Company shall grant the Executive incentive stock options to purchase up to such number of ordinary shares of the Company as is equal to four percent (4%) of the Company as of immediately following the consummation of the first preferred equity financing of the Company (the “Preferred Seed Closing”) (after giving effect to the Preferred Seed Closing), as follows: (i) following the Preferred Seed Closing, one-half (1/2) shall be granted at a price per share equal to the fair market value of such shares on the date of grant (as determined by the Board) (the “Initial Option Grant”) and (ii) following the consummation of the first preferred equity financing of the Company occurring after the Preferred Seed Closing, the remaining one-half (1/2) shall be granted at a price per share equal to the fair market value of such shares on the date of grant (as determined by the Board) (together with the Initial Option Grant, the “Options”). The Options shall be subject to the terms and conditions of a long-term incentive plan to be adopted by the Company and approved by the Board, as amended from time to time (the “Plan”) and shall vest as to one-third (1/3) immediately upon grant, another one-third (1/3) on the first anniversary of the Commencement Date and the final one-third (1/3) on the second anniversary of the Commencement Date. The Executive may, from time to time, be entitled to receive additional options to purchase ordinary shares of the Company or its affiliates and other equity-based incentives (including by way of participation in the Plan) as and when determined by the Board, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

6.3 Bonus. At the conclusion of each calendar year during the Employment Period, the Executive may be entitled to receive a performance-based annual bonus with a target equal to 110% of the Base Salary (the “Performance Bonus”), the actual amount of which shall be determined by the Board in its sole and exclusive discretion based on the Board’s evaluation of the Executive’s performance in such calendar year and achievements of goals established annually by the Board after consultation with the Executive. The Executive is eligible to receive an additional annual cash bonus in excess of the Performance Bonus, the amount of which shall be determined by the Board, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

6.4 Fringe Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Executive will be entitled to the fringe benefits that are made available to officers of the Company and such other benefits as are determined by the Board, in its sole and exclusive discretion. In addition, the Executive will be entitled to the specific benefits listed in Schedule 2 attached hereto.

6.5 Reimbursements. During the Employment Period, the Executive will be reimbursed, in accordance with the Company’s expense reimbursement policy as in effect from time to time, for all reasonable traveling expenses and other disbursements incurred by him for or on behalf of the Company in the performance of his duties hereunder upon presentation by the Executive of appropriate vouchers.

6.6 Deductions. Recognizing that the Executive is an employee for all purposes, the Company or a subsidiary of the Company shall deduct from any compensation payable to the Executive the sums which the Company or such subsidiary is required by law to deduct, including, but not limited to, government state withholding taxes, social security taxes and state disability insurance and mandatory provident funds, and the Company or such subsidiary shall pay any amounts so deducted to the applicable governmental entities and agents entitled to receive such payments.

7. Involuntary Termination.

7.1 Disability. If the Executive dies, then the Executive's employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically terminate on the date of the Executive's death. If the Executive is incapacitated or disabled by accident, sickness or otherwise so as to render him mentally or physically incapable of performing the services required to be performed by him under this Agreement for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days or longer, or for ninety (90) days during any six (6) month period (such condition being herein referred to as "Disability"), the Company, at its option, may terminate the Executive's employment under this Agreement immediately upon giving him notice to that effect. In the case of a Disability, until the Company shall have terminated the Executive's service in accordance with the foregoing, the Executive will be entitled to receive compensation, at the rate and in the manner provided in Section 6, notwithstanding any such physical or mental disability. Termination pursuant to this Section 7 is hereinafter referred to as an "Involuntary Termination".

7.2 Substitution. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Executive's place during any period of Disability suffered by the Executive during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Executive shall continue to receive the Executive's Base Salary and benefits in accordance with Section 6 of this Agreement until the Executive becomes eligible for disability income under the Company's disability income insurance (if any) or until the termination of the Executive's employment, whichever shall first occur.

7.3 Disability Income Payments. While receiving disability income payments under the Company's disability income insurance (if any), the Executive shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary under Section 6.1, but shall continue to participate in all other compensation and benefits in accordance with Section 6.4 until the date of the Executive's termination of employment.

7.4 Verification of Disability. If any question shall arise as to whether during any period the Executive is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder, the Executive may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company to whom the Executive or the Executive's guardian has no reasonable objection to determine whether the Executive is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Executive shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Executive.

8. Termination for Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Executive hereunder at any time during the Employment Period for Cause (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a "Termination for Cause") by giving the Executive notice of such termination, upon the giving of which such termination shall take effect immediately. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means any one of the following grounds: (i) repeated drunkenness or use of illegal drugs which adversely interferes with the performance of the Executive's obligations and duties in the Company; (ii) the Executive's conviction of a felony, or any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation or violation of applicable securities laws; (iii) gross mismanagement by the Executive of the business and affairs of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company which is reasonably likely to result in a material loss to the Company or any subsidiary of the Company; (iv) material violation of any material terms of this Agreement or the Compliance Agreement (as defined below), which material violation has not been cured (if it is capable of being cured) within thirty (30) days after the Executive receives written notice of such violation; or (v) a conclusive finding by an independent fact finder appointed by the Board for any wilful misconduct or dishonesty by the Executive which is materially detrimental to the interests and well-being of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, including, without limitation, harm to its business or reputation.

9. Termination without Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Executive hereunder at any time during the Employment Period without Cause (such termination being hereinafter called a “Termination without Cause”) by giving the Executive notice of such termination. The termination of service under this Section 9 will take effect upon the giving of reasonable advance notice.

10. Termination by the Executive.

10.1 Without Good Reason. Any termination of the employment of the Executive hereunder other than as a result of an Involuntary Termination, a Termination for Cause, a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason (as defined below) will be referred to hereinafter as a “Voluntary Termination”. A Voluntary Termination will be deemed to be effective following reasonable notice hereof.

10.2 With Good Reason. The Executive may terminate the services of such Executive hereunder at any time for Good Reason by giving the Company written notice of such termination, provided that such notice specifies: (i) the basis for termination and (ii) the effective date of termination (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a “Termination for Good Reason”). For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Good Reason” shall mean (a) any material diminution of the Executive’s duties or responsibilities hereunder (except in each case in connection with the Termination for Cause or pursuant to Section 7.1) or the assignment to the Executive of duties or responsibilities that are materially inconsistent with the Executive’s then current position; (b) any material breach of the Agreement by the Company which is not cured within ten (10) business day days after written notice thereof is given to the Company; or (c) a relocation of the Executive (other than any relocation requested by the Executive) from the place of initial assignment of the Executive by the Company to a location more than thirty (30) kilometers from such location, other than on a temporary basis not to exceed a period equal to six (6) calendar months.

11. Effect of Termination on Services.

11.1 Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause. Upon the termination of the Executive’s employment hereunder pursuant to a Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause, neither the Executive nor his beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates, or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) the unpaid portion of the Base Salary provided for in Section 6.1, computed on a pro rata basis to the date of such termination;
- (ii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Executive shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 6.5; and
- (iii) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

11.2 Involuntary Termination. Upon the termination of the Executive’s employment hereunder pursuant to an Involuntary Termination, neither the Executive nor his beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 11.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) an aggregate amount equal to the Base Salary and fringe benefits for twelve (12) months (the “Severance Payment”), payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.4 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Executive shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 6.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

11.3 Other Terminations. Upon the termination of the Executive’s employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason, neither the Executive nor his beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 11.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.4 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Executive shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 6.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

11.4 Change in Control Termination. Upon the termination of the Executive’s employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, neither the Executive nor his beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 11.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.4 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) one hundred percent (100%) accelerated vesting of any then-outstanding unvested stock options or other equity-based incentives granted to the Executive by the Company; and
- (iv) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Executive shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 6.5; and

- (v) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Change in Control” means the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (“Person”), acquires ownership of the stock of the Company that, together with the stock held by such Person, constitutes more than 50% of the total voting power of the stock of the Company, except that any change in the ownership of the stock of the Company as a result of a private financing of the Company that is approved by the Board will not be considered a Change in Control; or
- (ii) the sale of all or substantially all assets of the Company.

For purposes of this definition, Persons will be considered to be acting as a group if they are owners of a corporation that enters into a merger, consolidation, purchase or acquisition of stock, or similar business transaction with the Company. Further and for the avoidance of doubt, a transaction will not constitute a Change in Control if: (i) its sole purpose is to re-domicile the Company in a jurisdiction other than its original jurisdiction of incorporation, or (ii) its sole purpose is to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held the Company’s securities immediately before such transaction. With regard to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A (as defined below), to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a Change in Control, to avoid the imposition of an additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, no amount will be payable unless such change in control constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

11.5 Release. The parties acknowledge and agree that damages which will result to the Executive for Termination without Cause by the Company or other breach of this Agreement by the Company shall be extremely difficult or impossible to establish or prove, and agree that the Severance Payment shall constitute liquidated damages for any breach of this Agreement by the Company through the date of termination. The Executive agrees that, except for such other payments and benefits to which the Executive may be entitled as expressly provided by the terms of this Agreement or any applicable benefit plan, such liquidated damages shall be in lieu of all other claims that the Executive may make by reason of termination of his employment or any such breach of this Agreement and that, as a condition to receiving the Severance Payment, the Executive will execute a release of claims in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

12. Indemnification of Executive.

12.1 Indemnification. In the event that (a) the Executive was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding (as defined below) by reason of the Executive’s Corporate Status (as defined below) or (b) the Executive was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the Executive’s Corporate Status, the Executive shall be indemnified by the Company against all Expenses (as defined below) and Liabilities (as defined below) incurred or paid by the Executive in connection with such Proceeding (referred to herein as “Indemnifiable Amounts”). For purposes hereof, the terms (i) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit, arbitration, alternate dispute resolution process, investigation, administrative hearing, appeal, or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral or investigative, whether formal or informal, (ii) “Corporate Status” means the status of the Executive as an employee and/or director of the Company, as applicable, (iii) “Expenses” means all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements and retainers, fees and disbursements of expert witnesses, private investigators and professional advisors (including, without limitation, accountants and investment bankers), court costs, transcript costs, fees of experts, travel expenses, duplicating, printing and binding costs, telephone and fax transmission charges, postage, delivery services, secretarial services and other disbursements and expenses and (iv) “Liabilities” means judgments, damages, liabilities, losses, penalties, excise taxes, and fines.

12.2 Advancement of Expenses. The Company agrees that the Company shall pay to the Executive all Indemnifiable Amounts incurred by the Executive in connection with any Proceeding, including a Proceeding by the right of the Company, in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, as the same are incurred, provided that the Executive provides the Company with a written undertaking to repay the amount of Indemnifiable Amounts if it is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Executive is not entitled under this Agreement to indemnification with respect to such Indemnifiable Amounts.

12.3 Limitation on Indemnification. The Executive shall not be entitled to any indemnification under this Section 12 if the Executive knowingly violated any duty, responsibility or obligation of the Executive imposed under this Agreement, the Compliance Agreement or any Company policy.

12.4 Change in Law. To the extent that a change in applicable law (whether by statute or judicial decision) shall permit broader indemnification or advancement of expenses than is provided under this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to such broader indemnification and advancements, and this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to such extent.

13. Compliance Agreement. As a pre-condition to the effectiveness of this Agreement, the Executive agrees to execute and deliver the Agreement Regarding Confidentiality, Trade Secrets, Intellectual Property and Competitive Activities attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Compliance Agreement”), the terms and conditions of which are specifically incorporated herein by reference. The obligation of the Company to make payments to or on behalf of the Executive under Section 11.2(ii) or Section 11.3(ii) above is expressly conditioned upon the Executive’s continued performance of the Executive’s obligations under the Compliance Agreement.

14. Compliance with Anti-Bribery, Anti-Corruption, Etc. The Executive hereby agrees to attend any and all compliance trainings required by the Company and to comply with all applicable laws relating to anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, record keeping and internal control laws, including but not limited to the People’s Republic of China Criminal Law, the People’s Republic of China Anti-Unfair Competition Law, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the United Kingdom Bribery Act (together, “ABAC Policies”), with respect to all activities undertaken on behalf or in connection with the business of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries. The Executive further agrees that the Executive will not, directly or indirectly, offer, authorize, promise, condone or participate in: (a) the making of any gift or payment of anything of value to any public official by any person or entity to obtain any improper advantage, affect or influence any act or decision of any such public official, or assist the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries in obtaining or retaining business for, or with, or directing business to, any person or entity, (b) the taking of any action by any person or entity which (i) would violate ABAC Policies, if taken by an entity subject to ABAC Policies, or (ii) could reasonably be expected to constitute a violation of any applicable law, (c) the making of any false or fictitious entries in the books or records of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries by any person or entity, or (d) the using of any assets of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries for the establishment of any unlawful or unrecorded fund of monies or other assets, or the making of any unlawful or undisclosed payment.

15. Enforcement. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, to the extent that a restriction contained in this Agreement is more restrictive than permitted by the laws of any jurisdiction whose law may be deemed to govern the review and interpretation of this Agreement, the terms of such restriction, for the purpose only of the operation of such restriction in such jurisdiction, will be the maximum restriction allowed by the laws of such jurisdiction and such restriction will be deemed to have been revised accordingly herein. A court having jurisdiction over an action arising out of or seeking enforcement of any restriction contained in this Agreement may modify the terms of such restriction in accordance with this Section 15.

16. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) two (2) business days after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their address as set forth on the signature page, or to such e-mail address, facsimile number or address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 16.

17. Survival. The provisions set forth in Sections 11, 15, 17, 19, 23, 25 and 28 of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

18. Binding Agreement; Benefit. The provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and will inure to the benefit of, the respective heirs, legal representatives and successors of the parties hereto.

19. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China ("Hong Kong"), without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

20. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party must be in writing and will not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party.

21. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements or understanding among the parties with respect thereto. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

22. Headings. The Section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

23. Severability. Subject to the provisions of Section 15 above, any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

24. Assignment. This Agreement is personal in its nature and the parties hereto shall not, without the consent of the other party hereto, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, provided, however, that the rights and obligations of the Company hereunder shall be assignable and delegable in connection with any subsequent merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of the assets or shares of the Company or similar transaction involving the Company or a successor corporation.

25. Confidentiality. The Executive agrees not to disclose this Agreement or its terms to any person or entity, other than the Executive's agents, advisors or representatives, except as consented to by the Company in writing or as may be required by law.

26. Further Assurances. The Executive agrees to execute, acknowledge, seal and deliver such further assurances, documents, applications, agreements and instruments, and to take such further actions, as the Company may reasonably request in order to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

27. Counterparts. The parties may execute this Agreement in any number of counterparts and, as so delivered, the counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document. The parties agree that each such counterpart is an original and shall be binding upon all of the parties, even though all of the parties are not signatories to the same counterpart.

28. Dispute Resolution.

28.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim (each, a "Dispute") arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the interpretation, breach, termination, validity or invalidity thereof, shall be referred to and conclusively determined by arbitration upon the demand of any party to the dispute with notice (the "Arbitration Notice") to the other party or parties.

28.2 The Dispute shall be settled by arbitration in Hong Kong by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (the "HKIAC") in accordance with the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre Administered Arbitration Rules (the "HKIAC Rules") in force when the Arbitration Notice is submitted in accordance with the HKIAC Rules.

28.3 The disputing parties may jointly select one (1) arbitrator, or agree that the Chairman of HKIAC shall select the arbitrator. In the absence of such agreement, there shall be three (3) arbitrators, the claimant to the Dispute, or in the case of multiple claimants, all such claimants acting collectively (the "Claimant") shall select one (1) arbitrator and the respondent to the Dispute, or in the case of more than one respondent, the respondents acting collectively (the "Respondent") shall select one (1) arbitrator. All selections shall be made within thirty (30) days after the selecting party gives or receives the demand for arbitration. Such arbitrators shall be freely selected, and neither the Claimant nor the Respondent shall be limited in their selection to any prescribed list. The Chairman of HKIAC shall select the third arbitrator who will act as chairman of the arbitration board. If any arbitrator to be appointed by a party has not been appointed and consented to participate within thirty (30) days after the selection of the first arbitrator, the relevant appointment shall be made by the Chairman of HKIAC.

28.4 The arbitral proceedings shall be conducted in English. To the extent that the HKIAC Rules are in conflict with the provisions of this Section, including the provisions concerning the appointment of the arbitrators, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

28.5 Each party to the arbitration shall cooperate with each other party to the arbitration in making full disclosure of and providing complete access to all information and documents requested by such other party in connection with such arbitral proceedings, subject only to any confidentiality obligations binding on such party.

28.6 The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties thereto, and the prevailing party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement thereof.

28.7 The arbitral tribunal shall decide any Dispute submitted by the parties to the arbitration strictly in accordance with the substantive laws of Hong Kong (without regard to principles of conflict of laws thereunder) and shall not apply any other substantive law.

28.8 Any party to the Dispute shall be entitled, without posting any bond, to seek preliminary injunctive relief, temporary restraining order or other temporary relief (if applicable), from any court of competent jurisdiction pending the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.

28.9 During the course of the arbitral tribunal's adjudication of the Dispute, this Agreement shall continue to be performed except with respect to the part in dispute and under adjudication.

SCHEDULE 2

SPECIFIC FRINGE BENEFITS

The fringe benefits listed below shall be provided to the Executive and his eligible dependents (the “Covered Persons”) by the Company in accordance with Section 6.4 of the Executive Employment Agreement dated as of September 26, 2019 (the “Executive Employment Agreement”) by and between LianBio and Bing Li. All terms not otherwise defined below shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Executive Employment Agreement.

1. The Covered Persons’ monthly premiums for health insurance will be reimbursed, less in each month the amount of the Covered Persons’ most recent monthly contribution to such premiums prior to the date of this Agreement, until such time as the Covered Persons obtains health insurance coverage from a plan sponsored by the Company (in which case the Covered Persons shall be eligible to participate in such plan on the terms more favorable than as are made available to other employees and eligible dependents of the Company). The Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Covered Persons to be enrolled into a health insurance plan sponsored by the Company within a reasonable period of time following the Commencement Date; and
2. The Executive will be paid or reimbursed for the premiums for (i) a short-term disability insurance policy providing coverage for the full amount of the Executive’s Base Salary for a period of ninety (90) days and (ii) any long term disability coverage which the Executive may obtain, the premiums for which shall be comparable to premiums paid for similar insurance coverage for similarly situated employees.

The benefits listed below shall be provided to the Executive by the Company in accordance with the Executive Employment Agreement, but shall in no event be provided after the termination of the Executive’s employment with the Company. All terms not otherwise defined below shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Executive Employment Agreement.

3. During the Employment Period, the Company shall provide corporate housing to the Executive in, or rent reimbursement for, a Company-approved residential apartment in Shanghai, China, the specific facilities and accommodations of which shall be determined by the Company in its sole discretion.
4. During the Employment Period, the Company shall provide, or reimburse the Executive for, one round-trip business class air transportation per year and reasonable accommodation expenses for each of the Executive’s immediate family members to visit China.

Bing Li

Dear Bing:

As we discussed on January 13, 2021, and pursuant to Section 9 of the Executive Employment Agreement between you and LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (the “Company”), dated September 26, 2019 (the “Employment Agreement”), we hereby give formal notice to you that, your employment with the Company shall terminate, effective as of March 26, 2021 (the “Termination Date”). The purpose of this letter (the “Agreement”) is to confirm the terms concerning the termination of your employment. Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Employment Agreement.

1. Notice Period and Resignation from the Board and Company Positions.

(a) Effective as of today, February 24, 2021 (the “Notice Date”), you will be placed on a paid leave of absence that will continue through the Termination Date in accordance with Section 9 of the Employment Agreement. The period beginning on the Notice Date and concluding on the Termination Date is hereinafter referred to as the “Notice Period”. During the Notice Period, the Company will continue to pay you your base salary at the same rate and in the same manner in effect as of the date hereof, and to participate in all employee benefit plans of the Company accordance with the terms of those plans (to the extent applicable), except that you will no longer be entitled to receive an annual bonus or the fringe benefits set forth on Schedule 2 of the Employment Agreement, and you will not incur any business expenses during the Notice Period without the advance approval of the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”). During the Notice Period, you will not be expected to report to the Company’s offices, and will perform only such duties as may be assigned to you from time to time by the Board, or its expressly-authorized designee. It is presently anticipated that during the Notice Period, the Company will request no services from you other than episodic assistance in transitioning your current duties and responsibilities to any Company designees, as well as in cooperating with any governmental investigation, internal investigation, litigation or regulatory or other proceeding in accordance with Section 6(d) below, and that you will otherwise be free during the Notice Period to pursue other employment opportunities, subject to your Continuing Obligations (as defined below). During the Notice Period, you will (i) not hold yourself out to any third party as representing the Company on any matter affecting the business of the Company, (ii) immediately refer any inquiries, requests or other communications you may receive concerning such matters to the Board or its expressly-authorized designee, and (iii) not initiate contact with any person or entity that is known (or should be known) by you to be an employee, consultant, customer or other business relation of the Company, for any reason related to the Company or its business, without the express approval of the Board or its expressly-authorized designee. Further, the Company may terminate your employment for Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) at any time during the Notice Period upon notice to you. If the Company terminates your employment for Cause, you will not be eligible to receive any further payments of any sort from the Company (including the severance benefits described in Section 3 below), other than any unpaid compensation through the Termination Date. It is understood and agreed that the paid leave of absence contemplated in this Agreement will not constitute "Good Reason" for purposes of the Employment Agreement.

(b) As of the Termination Date, you will be deemed to have resigned from any and all positions, offices, or memberships that you held with the Company or on any boards of directors or other governing boards of the Company or those Affiliates, including but not limited to the general managers, authorized signatories, legal representatives and other similar positions of any direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company, the Board, and any and all memberships you held on any of the committees of any such boards, without any further action required therefor (collectively, the "Resignations"). The Company, on its own behalf and on behalf of its Affiliates, hereby accepts the Resignations as of the Termination Date (the "Resignation Date"), and you agree to sign and return such documents confirming the Resignations as the Company or any of its Affiliates may reasonably require. For the avoidance of doubt, you agree to (i) execute any such forms, letters, certificates, powers of attorney, instruments and documents necessary or reasonable to effect such your Resignations, including, without limitation, registration forms to be submitted to the PRC State Administration for Market Regulation or any other applicable governmental and regulatory authorities with respect to your Resignations (collectively, the "Removal Documents") and (ii) deliver the Removal Documents to the designee of the Company. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to effect your Resignations, including completion of registrations with all governmental and regulatory authorities, in a timely manner. It is understood and agreed that the Company and its Affiliates have taken and will take actions in reliance on the Resignations and that the Resignations will become irrevocable on the Resignation Date.

2. Final Compensation. You will receive on the Termination Date, all salary and pay for all work you performed for the Company through the Termination Date, to the extent not previously paid. You will receive the payments described in this Section 2 regardless of whether or not you sign this Agreement.

3. Severance Benefits. In consideration of your acceptance of this Agreement and subject to your meeting in full your obligations hereunder, and in full consideration of any rights you may have under the Employment Agreement, the Company will pay you the Severance Payment in accordance with Section 11.2 of the Employment Agreement. The Severance Payment is an amount equal to your salary, at the same rate and in the same manner in effect as of the date hereof, for a period of twelve (12) months following the Termination Date. Payments will be made in the form of salary continuation, and will begin no later than seven (7) days following the Termination Date. The first payment will be retroactive to the day following the Termination Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Severance Payment does not include any fringe benefits referenced in the Employment Agreement (including those set forth on Schedule 2 thereto) which you do not currently receive because you have elected not to participate in such benefit offerings.

4. Acknowledgement of Full Payment and Withholding.

(a) You acknowledge and agree that the payments provided under Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this Agreement are in complete satisfaction of any and all compensation or benefits due to you from the Company, whether for services provided to the Company under the Employment Agreement or otherwise, through the Termination Date and that, except as expressly provided under this Agreement, no further compensation or benefits are owed or will be provided to you by the Company.

(b) All payments made by the Company under this Agreement shall be reduced by any tax or other amounts required to be withheld by the Company under applicable law and all other lawful deductions authorized by you.

5. Status of Employee Benefits and Expenses.

(a) Employee Benefits. Your participation in all employee benefit plans of the Company will end as of the Termination Date, in accordance with the terms of those plans.

(b) Expenses. Within two (2) weeks following the Notice Date, you must submit your final expense reimbursement statement reflecting all business expenses you incurred through the Notice Date, if any, for which you seek reimbursement, and, in accordance with Company policy, reasonable substantiation and documentation for the same. The Company will reimburse you for your authorized and documented expenses no later than seven (7) days following the Termination Date.

(c) Stock Options. As of the Termination Date, you hold options (the "Options") to acquire a total of 342,000 ordinary shares of the Company ("Shares") pursuant to (i) a Share Option Grant Notice by and between you and the Company dated January 1, 2020 (the "First 2020 Option Award") and (ii) a Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement by and between you and the Company effective as of December 17, 2020 (the "Second 2020 Option Award" and together with the 2020 Option Award, the "Option Awards"), which Options are subject to the Company's 2019 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Incentive Plan"). You acknowledge and agree that, if prior to the date hereof, you have not executed the Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement evidencing the Second 2020 Option Award, you shall do so concurrently with your execution of this Agreement. As of the Termination Date, the Options will be vested as to 228,000 Shares, which vested portion of the Options shall remain subject to the applicable Option Award, the Equity Incentive Plan, and any other agreements or other requirements applicable to such Options. All Options which are unvested as of the Termination Date have been cancelled as of that date, and you agree to return, no later than the Effective Date of this Agreement, the stock option certificates for all Options granted you which were unvested on the Termination Date. The vested portion of the Options must be exercised not later than six (6)-months following the Termination Date, and, to the extent not exercised during such period, shall immediately and automatically terminate on the six (6)-month anniversary of the Termination Date with no consideration due to you. If you choose to exercise all or any portion of the Options, you agree that, without limiting any other provisions in favor of the Company contained in the Option Awards or the Plan, the Shares acquired thereunder shall be subject to Sections 9 and 10 of the Company's Second Amended and Restated Shareholders Agreement, as the same may be further amended and restated from time to time, and you agree to execute all agreements requested by the Company to effectuate the foregoing. You acknowledge and agree that, if any portion of the Options was granted as an incentive stock option under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as a result of the provisions of this Agreement, it shall cease to be so and the Company shall have no liability with respect to the foregoing.

6. Continuing Obligations, Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement.

(a) Subject to Section 8(c) of this Agreement, you acknowledge that you continue to be bound by your obligations under the Compliance Agreement between you and the Company dated as of September 26, 2019 (the "Compliance Agreement") and the Option Awards, as well as any other obligations or provisions under the Employment Agreement that survive the termination of your employment by necessary implication or the terms thereof (collectively, the "Continuing Obligations"). For the avoidance of doubt, you will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for disclosing a trade secret (y) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney, solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (z) in a complaint or other document filed under seal in a lawsuit or other proceeding; provided, however, that notwithstanding this immunity from liability, you may be held liable if you unlawfully access trade secrets by unauthorized means.

(b) Subject to Section 8(c) of this Agreement, you agree that you will not disclose this Agreement or any of its terms or provisions, directly or by implication, except to members of your immediate family and/or to your legal and tax advisors on the condition that they agree and undertake not to further disclose this Agreement or any of its terms or provisions to others.

(c) Subject to Section 8(c) of this Agreement, you agree that you will not disparage or criticize any of the Released Parties (as defined below), the Company, its Affiliates, their business, their management or their products or services, and that you will not otherwise do or say anything that could disrupt the good morale of employees of the Company or any of its Affiliates or harm the interests or reputation of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(d) You agree to cooperate with the Company and its Affiliates hereafter with respect to all matters arising during or related to your employment, including but not limited to all matters in connection with any governmental investigation, internal investigation, litigation or regulatory or other proceeding which may have arisen or which may arise following the signing of this Agreement. The Company will reimburse your out-of-pocket expenses incurred in complying with Company requests hereunder, provided such expenses are authorized by the Company in advance.

7. Return of Company Documents and Other Property. In signing this Agreement and in accordance with Section 1(c)(4) of the Compliance Agreement, you represent and warrant that you have returned to the Company any and all documents, materials and information (whether in hardcopy, on electronic media or otherwise) related to the business of the Company and its Affiliates (whether present or otherwise), and all chops, seals, certificates, bank USB-keys (with their passwords), office keys, access cards, credit cards, computer hardware and software, telephones and telephone-related equipment and all other property of the Company or any of its Affiliates in your possession or control, and that you have signed and delivered to the Company the Termination Certificate attached to the Compliance Agreement as Exhibit A. Further, you represent and warrant that you have not retained any copy or derivation of any documents, materials or information (whether in hardcopy, on electronic media or otherwise) of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except that, for the avoidance of doubt, you may retain copies of your Employment Agreement, the Compliance Agreement and this Agreement. Recognizing that your active employment with the Company has ended as of the Notice Date, you agree that you have not, since the Notice Date, for any purpose, other than for performance of this Agreement, attempted to access or use any computer or computer network or system of the Company or any of its Affiliates, including without limitation the electronic mail system, and you agree that you will not do so. Further, you acknowledge that you have disclosed to the Company any and all passwords necessary or desirable to obtain access to, or that would assist in obtaining access to, all information which you have password-protected on any computer equipment, network or system of the Company or any of its Affiliates.

8. General Release and Waiver of Claims.

(a) In exchange for the severance pay and benefits provided to you under this Agreement, to which you would not otherwise be entitled, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which you hereby acknowledge, on your own behalf and that of your heirs, executors, administrators, beneficiaries, personal representatives, successors and assigns, and all others connected with or claiming through you, you agree that this Agreement shall be in complete and final settlement of any and all causes of action, suits, rights and claims, demands, damages and compensation, whether at law or in equity, whether now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, accrued or unaccrued, contingent or otherwise, which you have had in the past, now have, or might now have, against the Company or any of its Affiliates of any nature whatsoever, including but not limited to those in any way related to, connected with or arising out of your employment, its termination, or your other associations with the Company or any of its Affiliates, or pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended by the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the wage and hour, wage payment and fair employment practices laws and statutes (each as amended from time to time) of the state or states in which you have provided services to the Company or any of its Affiliates, and/or any other federal, state, local or foreign law, regulation or other requirement, including under the laws of the Cayman Islands and the laws of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (collectively, the "Claims"), and you hereby release and forever discharge the Company, its Affiliates and all of their respective past, present and future directors, shareholders, officers, members, managers, general and limited partners, employees, employee benefit plans, administrators, trustees, agents, representatives, predecessors, successors and assigns, and all others connected with any of them, both individually and in their official capacities (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from, and you hereby waive, any and all such Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement releases your right to enforce the terms of the Agreement.

(b) In signing this agreement, you expressly waive and relinquish all rights and benefits provided by Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and do so understanding and acknowledging the significance of such specific waiver of Section 1542, which section states as follows:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

Thus, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1542, and for the purpose of implementing a full and complete release and discharge of the Released Parties, you expressly acknowledge that the general release and waiver of claims set forth in this Section 8 is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, all Claims which you do not know or suspect to exist in your favor at the time you sign it, and that this Agreement contemplates the extinguishment of any and all such Claims.

(c) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit you from filing a charge with or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or a comparable state or local agency, provided, however, that you hereby agree to waive your right to recover monetary damages or other individual relief in any such charge, investigation or proceeding or any related complaint or lawsuit filed by you or by anyone else on your behalf. Nothing in this Agreement limits, restricts or in any other way affects your communicating with any governmental agency or entity, or communicating with any official or staff person of a governmental agency or entity, concerning matters relevant to such governmental agency or entity.

(d) This Agreement, including the general release and waiver of claims set forth in Sections 8(a) and 8(b), creates legally binding obligations and the Company and its Affiliates therefore advise you to consult an attorney before signing this Agreement. In signing this Agreement, you give the Company and its Affiliates assurance that you have signed it voluntarily and with a full understanding of its terms; that you have had sufficient opportunity of not less than twenty-one (21) days, before signing this Agreement, to consider its terms and to consult with an attorney (and that you have in fact consulted with an attorney regarding the terms of this Agreement), and to consult with any other of those persons to whom reference is made in Section 6(b) above, if you wished to do so; and that you have not relied on any promises or representations, express or implied, that are not set forth expressly in this Agreement.

9. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and the Company and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous communications, agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, with respect to your employment, its termination and all related matters, including but not limited to the Employment Agreement, and excluding only the Continuing Obligations, all of which shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

(b) This Agreement may not be modified or amended, and no breach shall be deemed to be waived, unless agreed to in writing by you and the Board or its expressly authorized designee. The captions and headings in this Agreement are for convenience only, and in no way define or describe the scope or content of any provision of this Agreement.

(c) The obligation of the Company to make payments or provide benefits to you or on your behalf under this Agreement, and your right to retain the same, is expressly conditioned upon your continued full performance of your obligations under this Agreement (including the Continuing Obligations).

If the terms of this Agreement are acceptable to you, please sign, date and return it to me within twenty-one (21) days of the date that you receive it. You may revoke this Agreement at any time during the seven (7)-day period immediately following the date of your signing by notifying me in writing of your revocation within that period, and this Agreement shall not become effective or enforceable until that seven (7)-day revocation period has expired. If you do not revoke this Agreement, then, on the eighth (8th) day following the date that you signed it (the “Effective Date”), this Agreement shall take effect as a legally binding agreement between you and the Company on the basis set forth above. You agree that if there have been any changes to a prior version of this Agreement (whether material or immaterial), the 21-day consideration period will not be reset. The enclosed copy of this letter, which you should also sign and date, is for your records.

Sincerely,
LIANBIO

AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of September 14, 2021 by and among (i) LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”), (ii) LianBio, LLC, a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, the United States of America (the “Company”), and (iii) Debra Yu, an American citizen whose passport number is _____ (the “Employee”).

WHEREAS, LianBio, the parent of the Company, and the Employee entered into an employment agreement on September 18, 2019 (the “2019 Agreement”) under which LianBio employs the Employee as its President and the Chief Business Officer subject to the terms and conditions of the 2019 Agreement.

WHEREAS, LianBio desires to promote the Employee to the role of President and Chief Strategy Officer subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

WHEREAS, LianBio and the Employee each desire that the Company be substituted for LianBio under the 2019 Agreement, and the Company and the Employee agree to amend and restate the 2019 Agreement by entering into this Agreement as hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and obligations hereinafter set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment. LianBio irrevocably assigns to the Company all rights and obligations of LianBio under the 2019 Agreement (the “Assignment”). The Company and the Employee hereby irrevocably accepts the Assignment, as if the Company had at all times been a party to the 2019 Agreement in place of LianBio.
2. Employment. The Company hereby agrees to employ the Employee and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Company upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.
3. Term. Subject to the provisions of Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 hereof, the initial term of the Employee’s employment with the Company, which commenced as of October 1, 2019, shall end on January 1, 2024 (the “Initial Term”). Unless earlier terminated by the Company or the Employee in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Employee’s employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically be renewed following the Initial Term for subsequent one (1) year periods (each, a “Renewal Term”) unless either party gives a notice of non-renewal to the other party not later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of such Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable (such notice, “Non-Renewal Notice”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a Change in Control (as defined below) occurring during the Employment Period (as defined below), the then current Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable, will be converted to an indefinite term, meaning that (a) the Employee or the Company may terminate the Employee’s employment at any time pursuant to Sections 9, 10, 11 or 12 hereof, and (b) the terms hereof with respect to the renewal and/or non-renewal of the term of the Employee’s employment shall cease to apply. The term “Employment Period” shall mean the Initial Term and, if applicable, the Renewal Term or any shorter period resulting from any termination of service under Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 hereof.
4. Location. The Employee will be initially based in the State of New Jersey, the US. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee may need to travel to other locations as required by the Company or the board of directors of LianBio (the “Board”) from time to time, with the understanding that the Employee is required to perform certain of her duties at the offices of the affiliates of the Company in Shanghai, the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), Hong Kong and Singapore and shall spend significant time in such places every year as may be reasonably determined by the Board. The Employee hereby agrees to sign such other agreements or documents as may reasonably be requested by the Company (or its relevant affiliate(s)) in order to obtain the relevant work permit and residence permits issued by the PRC government and other regulators for the Employee to legally work and reside in Shanghai. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee agrees that the requirements set forth in this Section 4 are material terms of this Agreement.

5. Duties and Responsibilities. The Employee will serve as the President and the Chief Strategy Officer (the "CSO") of the Company. The Employee will perform such duties and services as are customary for the positions of President and CSO in similarly situated enterprises in the biopharmaceutical industry and such other duties as may be reasonably assigned to her from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO"). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Employee hereby agrees to perform faithfully such duties and responsibilities and the other reasonable duties and responsibilities assigned to her from time to time by the CEO.

6. Time to be Devoted to Service. Except for reasonable vacations, absences due to temporary illness, and activities that may be mutually agreed to by the parties, the Employee shall devote her entire time, attention and energies during normal business hours and such evenings and weekends as may be reasonably required for the discharge of her duties to the business of the Company while the Employee is employed by the Company during the Employment Period. During the Employment Period, the Employee will not be engaged in any other business activity that, in the reasonable judgment of the Board, conflicts with the duties of the Employee hereunder (including without limitation, any activities that present a conflict of interest) without the prior written consent of the Company. The Employee and the Company agree that, subject to receiving prior written consent from the Board, the Employee may serve as a director of other corporations and/or non-profit organizations, provided that such directorships do not, individually or in the aggregate, conflict with the duties of the Employee hereunder (including without limitation, any directorships that present a conflict of interest).

7. Conflict of Interest. The Employee has reviewed with the Board (i) the present directorships and other positions or roles held by the Employee or her associate(s) in all such business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company and (ii) ownership interests (legal or beneficial, direct or indirect) in another company held by the Employee or her associate(s) comprising more than two percent (2%) of such company, schedules of which are listed on Schedule 1 hereto. During the Employment Period, the Employee agrees to review with the Board any potential directorships, ownership (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) interests and other positions or roles with business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company. Except as set forth in Schedule 1 hereto, the Employee or her associate(s) is precluded from owning an interest (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) in another company comprising more than two percent (2%) of such company or serving as an employee, director, consultant, advisor or member of such other company that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company until such interest is presented to the Board and the Board consents to such interest or employment.

8. Compensation; Benefits; Reimbursement.

8.1 Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Employee shall receive as compensation an initial annual base salary of US$500,000 (the "Base Salary"), less any payroll taxes or withholdings legally required or properly requested by the Employee. This Base Salary all other compensation and reimbursement under the Agreement will be payable in such installments as are applicable to employees of the Company at substantially the same service level as the Employee. The Board will review the Base Salary on an annual basis and may, in its sole discretion, increase the amount to adjust for inflations and/or market changes.

8.2 Equity Awards. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be eligible to receive stock-based awards (including stock option awards), including in connection with the initial public offering of LianBio's ordinary shares, under LianBio's 2019 Equity Incentive Plan, or such other long-term incentive plan as may be adopted by LianBio from time to time, at a level commensurate with her position and responsibilities as specified above and subject to such terms as shall be established by the Board, or a committee thereof, from time to time in its or their discretion.

8.3 Bonus. At the conclusion of each calendar year during the Employment Period, the Employee may be entitled to receive a performance-based annual bonus with a target equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the Base Salary (the "Performance Bonus"), the actual amount of which shall be determined by the Board in its sole and exclusive discretion based on the Board's evaluation of the Employee's performance and other pre-agreed parameters reflecting the Company's business plan. The Employee is eligible to receive an additional annual cash bonus in excess of the Performance Bonus, the amount of which shall be determined by the Board, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

8.4 Fringe Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be entitled to the fringe benefits that are made available to officers of the Company and such other benefits as are determined by the Board or a committee thereof, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

8.5 Reimbursements. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be reimbursed, in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy as in effect from time to time, for all reasonable traveling expenses and other disbursements incurred by her for or on behalf of the Company in the performance of her duties hereunder upon presentation by the Employee of appropriate vouchers.

8.6 Deductions. Recognizing that the Employee is an employee for all purposes, the Company or a subsidiary of the Company shall deduct from any compensation payable to the Employee the sums which the Company or such subsidiary is required by law to deduct, including, but not limited to, government state withholding taxes, social security taxes and state disability insurance and mandatory provident funds, and the Company or such subsidiary shall pay any amounts so deducted to the applicable governmental entities and agents entitled to receive such payments.

9. Involuntary Termination.

9.1 Disability. If the Employee dies, then the Employee's employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically terminate on the date of the Employee's death. If the Employee is incapacitated or disabled by accident, sickness or otherwise so as to render her mentally or physically incapable of performing the services required to be performed by her under this Agreement, either with or without reasonable accommodation, for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days or longer, or for ninety (90) days during any six (6) month period (such condition being herein referred to as "Disability"), the Company, at its option, may terminate the Employee's employment under this Agreement immediately upon giving her notice to that effect. In the case of a Disability, until the Company shall have terminated the Employee's service in accordance with the foregoing, the Employee will be entitled to receive compensation, at the rate and in the manner provided in Section 8, notwithstanding any such physical or mental disability. Termination pursuant to this Section 9 is hereinafter referred to as an "Involuntary Termination".

9.2 Substitution. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Employee's place during any period of Disability suffered by the Employee during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Employee shall continue to receive the Employee's Base Salary and benefits in accordance with Section 8 of this Agreement until the Employee becomes eligible for disability income under the Company's disability income insurance (if any) or until the termination of the Employee's employment, whichever shall first occur.

9.3 Disability Income Payments. While receiving disability income payments under the Company's disability income insurance (if any), the Employee shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary under Section 8.1, but shall continue to participate in all other compensation and benefits in accordance with Section 8.4 until the date of the Employee's termination of employment.

9.4 Verification of Disability. If any question shall arise as to whether during any period the Employee is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of the Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, the Employee may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company to whom the Employee or the Employee's guardian has no reasonable objection to determine whether the Employee is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Employee shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Employee.

10. Termination for Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Employee hereunder at any time during the Employment Period for Cause (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a "Termination for Cause") by giving the Employee notice of such termination, upon the giving of which such termination shall take effect immediately. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means any one of the following grounds: (i) repeated drunkenness or use of illegal drugs which adversely interferes with the performance of the Employee's obligations and duties in the Company; (ii) the Employee's conviction of a felony, or any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation or violation of applicable securities laws; (iii) gross mismanagement by the Employee of the business and affairs of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company which is reasonably likely to result in a material loss to the Company or any subsidiary of the Company; (iv) material violation of any material terms of this Agreement or the Compliance Agreement (as defined below), which material violation has not been cured (if it is capable of being cured) within thirty (30) days after the Employee receives written notice of such violation; or (v) a conclusive finding by an independent fact finder appointed by the Board for any wilful misconduct or dishonesty by the Employee which is materially detrimental to the interests and well-being of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, including, without limitation, harm to its business or reputation.

11. Termination without Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Employee hereunder at any time during the Employment Period without Cause (such termination being hereinafter called a "Termination without Cause") by giving the Employee sixty (60) days' prior written notice of such termination or pay in lieu of such notice (or any portion thereof). In the event of termination of the Employee's employment in accordance with this Section 11, the Company may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Company so elects, the Company will pay the Employee the Base Salary for the period so waived.

12. Termination by the Employee.

12.1 Without Good Reason. Any termination of the employment of the Employee hereunder other than as a result of an Involuntary Termination, a Termination for Cause, a Termination without Cause, a Termination for Good Reason (as defined below) or a Non-Renewal Termination (as defined below) will be referred to hereinafter as a "Voluntary Termination". A Voluntary Termination will be deemed to be effective thirty (30) days after written notice hereof.

12.2 With Good Reason. The Employee may terminate the services of such Employee hereunder at any time for Good Reason, provided that (i) the Employee provides written notice to the Company, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, within thirty (30) days of the initial existence of such condition, (ii) the condition remains uncured by the Company for a period of thirty (30) days following such notice and (iii) the Employee terminates her employment, if at all, not later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of such cure period (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a “Termination for Good Reason”). For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Good Reason” shall mean (a) any material diminution of the Employee’s duties or responsibilities hereunder (except in each case in connection with the Termination for Cause or pursuant to Section 9.2) or the assignment to the Employee of duties or responsibilities that are materially inconsistent with the Employee’s then current position; or (b) any material breach of the Agreement by the Company.

13. Effect of Termination on Services.

13.1 Non-Renewal by the Employee, Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause. In the event that the Initial Term or any Renewal Term is not automatically renewed as a result of the Employee providing a Non-Renewal Notice (hereinafter a “Non-Renewal by the Employee”), or upon the termination of the Employee’s employment hereunder pursuant to a Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates, or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) the unpaid portion of the Base Salary provided for in Section 8.1, computed on a pro rata basis to the date of such termination;
- (ii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iii) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.2 Involuntary Termination. Upon the termination of the Employee’s employment hereunder pursuant to an Involuntary Termination, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) an aggregate amount equal to the Base Salary and fringe benefits for twelve (12) months (the “Severance Payment”), payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company’s normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.3 Non-Renewal by the Company. In the event that the Initial Term or any Renewal Term is not automatically renewed as a result of the Company providing a Non-Renewal Notice (hereinafter a “Non-Renewal by the Company”, and together with the Non-Renewal by the Employee, collectively referred to as the “Non-Renewal Termination(s)”), neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;

- (ii) one hundred percent (100%) of the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.4 Other Terminations. Upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.5 Change in Control Termination. Upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control (hereinafter a "Change in Control Termination"), neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) one hundred percent (100%) accelerated vesting of any then-outstanding unvested stock options or other equity-based incentives granted to the Employee by the Company;
- (iv) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (v) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Change in Control" means the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (“Person”), acquires ownership of the stock of LianBio that, together with the stock held by such Person, constitutes more than 50% of the total voting power of the stock of LianBio, except that any change in the ownership of the stock of LianBio as a result of a private financing of LianBio that is approved by the Board will not be considered a Change in Control; or
- (ii) the sale of all or substantially all assets of LianBio.

For purposes of this definition, Persons will be considered to be acting as a group if they are owners of a corporation that enters into a merger, consolidation, purchase or acquisition of stock, or similar business transaction with LianBio. Further and for the avoidance of doubt, a transaction will not constitute a Change in Control if: (i) its sole purpose is to re-domicile LianBio in a jurisdiction other than its original jurisdiction of incorporation, or (ii) its sole purpose is to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held LianBio’s securities immediately before such transaction. With regard to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A (as defined below), to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a Change in Control, to avoid the imposition of an additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A, no amount will be payable unless such change in control constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

13.6 Release. The parties acknowledge and agree that damages which will result to the Employee for Termination without Cause by the Company or other breach of this Agreement by the Company shall be extremely difficult or impossible to establish or prove, and agree that the Severance Payment shall constitute liquidated damages for any breach of this Agreement by the Company through the date of termination. The Employee agrees that, except for such other payments and benefits to which the Employee may be entitled as expressly provided by the terms of this Agreement or any applicable benefit plan, such liquidated damages shall be in lieu of all other claims that the Employee may make by reason of termination of her employment or any such breach of this Agreement and that, as a condition to receiving the Severance Payment, the Employee will execute a release of claims in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

14. Indemnification of Employee.

14.1 Indemnification. In the event that (a) the Employee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding (as defined below) by reason of the Employee’s Corporate Status (as defined below) or (b) the Employee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the Employee’s Corporate Status, the Employee shall be indemnified by the Company against all Expenses (as defined below) and Liabilities (as defined below) incurred or paid by the Employee in connection with such Proceeding (referred to herein as “Indemnifiable Amounts”). For purposes hereof, the terms (i) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit, arbitration, alternate dispute resolution process, investigation, administrative hearing, appeal, or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral or investigative, whether formal or informal, (ii) “Corporate Status” means the status of the Employee as an employee and/or director of the Company, as applicable, (iii) “Expenses” means all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements and retainers, fees and disbursements of expert witnesses, private investigators and professional advisors (including, without limitation, accountants and investment bankers), court costs, transcript costs, fees of experts, travel expenses, duplicating, printing and binding costs, telephone and fax transmission charges, postage, delivery services, secretarial services and other disbursements and expenses and (iv) “Liabilities” means judgments, damages, liabilities, losses, penalties, excise taxes, and fines.

14.2 Advancement of Expenses. The Company agrees that the Company shall pay to the Employee all Indemnifiable Amounts incurred by the Employee in connection with any Proceeding, including a Proceeding by the right of the Company, in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, as the same are incurred, provided that the Employee provides the Company with a written undertaking to repay the amount of Indemnifiable Amounts if it is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Employee is not entitled under this Agreement to indemnification with respect to such Indemnifiable Amounts.

14.3 Limitation on Indemnification. The Employee shall not be entitled to any indemnification under this Section 14 if the Employee knowingly violated any duty, responsibility or obligation of the Employee imposed under this Agreement, the Compliance Agreement or any Company policy.

14.4 Change in Law. To the extent that a change in applicable law (whether by statute or judicial decision) shall permit broader indemnification or advancement of expenses than is provided under this Agreement, the Employee shall be entitled to such broader indemnification and advancements, and this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to such extent.

15. Compliance Agreement. The Employee agrees to continue to be bound by the Agreement Regarding Confidentiality, Trade Secrets, Intellectual Property and Competitive Activities executed by the Company and the Employee on September 19, 2019 (the “Compliance Agreement”, attached hereto as Exhibit A), the terms and conditions of which are specifically incorporated herein by reference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto hereby agree that Section 3(a)(2) of the Compliance Agreement shall not apply to the Employee following the date of termination if the Employee’s employment is terminated as a result of (a) a Non-Renewal by the Company or (b) a Change in Control Termination. The obligation of the Company to make payments to or on behalf of the Employee under Section 13.2(ii), Section 13.3(ii), Section 13.4(ii) or Section 13.5(ii) above is expressly conditioned upon the Employee’s continued performance of the Employee’s obligations under the Compliance Agreement.

16. Compliance with Anti-Bribery, Anti-Corruption, Etc. The Employee hereby agrees to attend any and all compliance trainings required by the Company and to comply with all applicable laws relating to anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, record keeping and internal control laws, including but not limited to the People’s Republic of China Criminal Law, the People’s Republic of China Anti-Unfair Competition Law, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the United Kingdom Bribery Act (together, “ABAC Policies”), with respect to all activities undertaken on behalf or in connection with the business of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries. The Employee further agrees that the Employee will not, directly or indirectly, offer, authorize, promise, condone or participate in: (a) the making of any gift or payment of anything of value to any public official by any person or entity to obtain any improper advantage, affect or influence any act or decision of any such public official, or assist the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries in obtaining or retaining business for, or with, or directing business to, any person or entity, (b) the taking of any action by any person or entity which (i) would violate ABAC Policies, if taken by an entity subject to ABAC Policies, or (ii) could reasonably be expected to constitute a violation of any applicable law, (c) the making of any false or fictitious entries in the books or records of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries by any person or entity, or (d) the using of any assets of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries for the establishment of any unlawful or unrecorded fund of monies or other assets, or the making of any unlawful or undisclosed payment.

17. Enforcement. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, to the extent that a restriction contained in this Agreement is more restrictive than permitted by the laws of any jurisdiction whose law may be deemed to govern the review and interpretation of this Agreement, the terms of such restriction, for the purpose only of the operation of such restriction in such jurisdiction, will be the maximum restriction allowed by the laws of such jurisdiction and such restriction will be deemed to have been revised accordingly herein. A court having jurisdiction over an action arising out of or seeking enforcement of any restriction contained in this Agreement may modify the terms of such restriction in accordance with this Section 17.

18. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) two (2) business days after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their address as set forth on the signature page, or to such e-mail address, facsimile number or address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 18.

19. Survival. The provisions set forth in Sections 13, 17, 19, 21, 25, 27 and 30 of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

20. Binding Agreement; Benefit. The provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and will inure to the benefit of, the respective heirs, legal representatives and successors of the parties hereto.

21. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey, the US, without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

22. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party must be in writing and will not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party.

23. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements or understanding among the parties with respect thereto. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

24. Headings. The Section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

25. Severability. Subject to the provisions of Section 17 above, any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

26. Assignment. This Agreement is personal in its nature and the parties hereto shall not, without the consent of the other party hereto, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, provided, however, that the rights and obligations of the Company hereunder shall be assignable and delegable in connection with any subsequent merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of the assets or shares of the Company or similar transaction involving the Company or a successor corporation.

27. Confidentiality. The Employee agrees not to disclose this Agreement or its terms to any person or entity, other than the Employee's agents, advisors or representatives, except as consented to by the Company in writing or as may be required by law.

28. Further Assurances. The Employee agrees to execute, acknowledge, seal and deliver such further assurances, documents, applications, agreements and instruments, and to take such further actions, as the Company may reasonably request in order to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

29. Counterparts. The parties may execute this Agreement in any number of counterparts and, as so delivered, the counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document. The parties agree that each such counterpart is an original and shall be binding upon all of the parties, even though all of the parties are not signatories to the same counterpart.

30. Dispute Resolution.

30.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim (each, a “Dispute”) arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the interpretation, breach, termination, validity or invalidity thereof, shall be referred to and conclusively determined by arbitration upon the demand of any party to the dispute with notice (the “Arbitration Notice”) to the other party or parties. The only claims not covered by this agreement to arbitrate are claims for benefits under U.S. workers’ compensation or unemployment insurance statutes and other claims that cannot be arbitrated as a matter of law. Any Dispute must be brought to arbitration within the statute of limitations for bringing such Dispute in court or before the appropriate administrative agency, as applicable.

30.2 The Dispute shall be settled by arbitration in New Jersey administered by JAMS in accordance with its Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. In the event that JAMS fails or refuses to conduct the arbitration in New Jersey, then the Dispute shall be resolved by binding arbitration before JAMS in New York.

30.3 The disputing parties may jointly select one (1) arbitrator, or agree that JAMS shall select the arbitrator. In the absence of such agreement, there shall be three (3) arbitrators, the claimant to the Dispute, or in the case of multiple claimants, all such claimants acting collectively (the “Claimant”) shall select one (1) arbitrator and the respondent to the Dispute, or in the case of more than one respondent, the respondents acting collectively (the “Respondent”) shall select one (1) arbitrator. All selections shall be made within thirty (30) days after the selecting party gives or receives the demand for arbitration. Such arbitrators shall be freely selected, and neither the Claimant nor the Respondent shall be limited in their selection to any prescribed list. The Chairman of JAMS shall select the third arbitrator who will act as chairman of the arbitration board. If any arbitrator to be appointed by a party has not been appointed and consented to participate within thirty (30) days after the selection of the first arbitrator, the relevant appointment shall be made by the Chairman of JAMS.

30.4 The arbitral proceedings shall be conducted in English. To the extent that the Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures of JAMS are in conflict with the provisions of this Section, including the provisions concerning the appointment of the arbitrators, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

30.5 Each party to the arbitration shall cooperate with each other party to the arbitration in making full disclosure of and providing complete access to all information and documents requested by such other party in connection with such arbitral proceedings, subject only to any confidentiality obligations binding on such party. If the arbitration is conducted in New York, the arbitrator shall permit adequate discovery, shall issue a written award, and is authorized to award any type of relief recoverable in court.

30.6 The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties thereto, and the prevailing party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement thereof.

30.7 The arbitral tribunal shall decide any Dispute submitted by the parties to the arbitration strictly in accordance with the substantive laws of the State of New Jersey.

30.8 Any party to the Dispute shall be entitled, without posting any bond, to seek preliminary injunctive relief, temporary restraining order or other temporary relief (if applicable), from any court of competent jurisdiction pending the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.

30.9 During the course of the arbitral tribunal's adjudication of the Dispute, this Agreement shall continue to be performed except with respect to the part in dispute and under adjudication.

30.10 (i) The Employee acknowledges and agrees that no claims will be arbitrated on a class action or collective action basis, (ii) the arbitration costs incurred by the Employee shall not exceed the cost of filing a complaint in a court of law or equity, and (iii) the parties expressly waive all rights to a jury trial in court on all statutory or other claims.

31. Timing of Payments and Section 409A.

31.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if at the time the Employee's employment terminates, the Employee is a "specified employee," as defined below, any and all amounts payable under this Agreement on account of such separation from service that would (but for this provision) be payable within six (6) months following the date of termination, shall instead be paid on the next business day following the expiration of such six (6)-month period or, if earlier, upon the Employee's death; except (A) to the extent of amounts that do not constitute a deferral of compensation within the meaning of Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(b) (including without limitation by reason of the safe harbor set forth in Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii), as determined by the Company in its reasonable good faith discretion); (B) benefits which qualify as excepted welfare benefits pursuant to Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5); or (C) other amounts or benefits that are not subject to the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A").

31.2 For purposes of this Agreement, to the extent required to comply with Section 409A, all references to "termination of employment" and correlative phrases shall be construed to require a "separation from service" (as defined in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury regulations after giving effect to the presumptions contained therein), and the term "specified employee" means an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee under Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(i)

31.3 Any reimbursement for expenses that would constitute nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A shall be subject to the following additional rules: (i) no reimbursement of any such expense shall affect the Employee's right to reimbursement of any such expense in any other taxable year; (ii) reimbursement of the expense shall be made, if at all, promptly, but not later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred; and (iii) the right to reimbursement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

31.4 In no event shall the Company have any liability relating to the failure or alleged failure of any payment or benefit under this Agreement to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A.

EXHIBIT A

AGREEMENT REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY, TRADE SECRETS, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COMPETITIVE ACTIVITIES

A-1

AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AMENDED AND RESTATED EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of September 14, 2021 by and among (i) LianBio, an exempted company organized under the laws of the Cayman Islands (“LianBio”), (ii) LianBio, LLC, a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, the United States of America (the “Company”), and (iii) Brianne Jahn, an American citizen whose passport number is _____ (the “Employee”).

WHEREAS, LianBio, the parent of the Company, and the Employee entered into an employment agreement on February 4, 2020 (the “2020 Agreement”) under which LianBio employs the Employee as its US Head of Operations subject to the terms and conditions of the 2020 Agreement.

WHEREAS, LianBio and the Employee each desire that the Company be substituted for LianBio under the 2020 Agreement, and the Company and the Employee agree to amend and restate the 2020 Agreement by entering into this Agreement as hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and obligations hereinafter set forth, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Assignment. LianBio irrevocably assigns to the Company all rights and obligations of LianBio under the 2020 Agreement (the “Assignment”). The Company and the Employee hereby irrevocably accepts the Assignment, as if the Company had at all times been a party to the 2020 Agreement in place of LianBio.
2. Employment. The Company hereby agrees to employ the Employee and the Employee hereby accepts employment with the Company upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.
3. Term. Subject to the provisions of Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 hereof, the initial term of the Employee’s employment with the Company, which commenced as of February 4, 2020, shall end on January 1, 2024 (the “Initial Term”). Unless earlier terminated by the Company or the Employee in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Employee’s employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically be renewed following the Initial Term for subsequent one (1) year periods (each, a “Renewal Term”) unless either party gives a notice of non-renewal to the other party not later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of such Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable (such notice, “Non-Renewal Notice”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a Change in Control (as defined below) occurring during the Employment Period (as defined below), the then current Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable, will be converted to an indefinite term, meaning that (a) the Employee or the Company may terminate the Employee’s employment at any time pursuant to Sections 9, 10, 11 or 12 hereof, and (b) the terms hereof with respect to the renewal and/or non-renewal of the term of the Employee’s employment shall cease to apply. The term “Employment Period” shall mean the Initial Term and, if applicable, the Renewal Term or any shorter period resulting from any termination of service under Sections 9, 10, 11 and 12 hereof.
4. Location. The Employee will be initially based in the State of New Jersey, the US. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee may need to travel to other locations as required by the Company or the board of directors of LianBio (the “Board”) from time to time, with the understanding that the Employee may be required to perform certain of her duties at the offices of the affiliates of the Company in Shanghai, the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”), Hong Kong and Singapore and shall spend certain time in such places every year as may be reasonably determined by the Board. The Employee hereby agrees to sign such other agreements or documents as may reasonably be requested by the Company (or its relevant affiliate(s)) in order to obtain the relevant work permit and residence permits issued by the PRC government and other regulators for the Employee to legally work and reside in Shanghai. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee agrees that the requirements set forth in this Section 4 are material terms of this Agreement.

5. Duties and Responsibilities. The Employee will serve as the Chief Business Officer (the “CBO”) of the Company. The Employee will perform such duties and services as are customary for the position of CBO in similarly situated enterprises in the biopharmaceutical industry and such other duties as may be reasonably assigned to her from time to time by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the “CEO”). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Employee hereby agrees to perform faithfully such duties and responsibilities and the other reasonable duties and responsibilities assigned to her from time to time by the CEO.

6. Time to be Devoted to Service. Except for reasonable vacations, absences due to temporary illness, and activities that may be mutually agreed to by the parties, the Employee shall devote her entire time, attention and energies during normal business hours and such evenings and weekends as may be reasonably required for the discharge of her duties to the business of the Company while the Employee is employed by the Company during the Employment Period. During the Employment Period, the Employee will not be engaged in any other business activity that, in the reasonable judgment of the Board, conflicts with the duties of the Employee hereunder (including without limitation, any business activities that present a conflict of interest) without the prior written consent of the Company. The Employee and the Company agree that, subject to receiving prior written consent from the Board, the Employee may serve as a director of other corporations and/or non-profit organizations, provided that such directorships do not, individually or in the aggregate, conflict with the duties of the Employee hereunder (including without limitation, any directorships that present a conflict of interest).

7. Conflict of Interest. The Employee has reviewed with the Board (i) the present directorships and other positions or roles held by the Employee or her associate(s) in all such business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company and (ii) ownership interests (legal or beneficial, direct or indirect) in another company held by the Employee or her associate(s) comprising more than two percent (2%) of such company, schedules of which are listed on Schedule 1 hereto. During the Employment Period, the Employee agrees to review with the Board any potential directorships, ownership (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) interests and other positions or roles with business organizations or arrangements that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company. Except as set forth in Schedule 1 hereto, the Employee or her associate(s) is precluded from owning an interest (legal and beneficial, direct and indirect) in another company comprising more than two percent (2%) of such company or serving as an employee, director, consultant, advisor or member of such other company that may be directly competitive or directly in conflict with the Company until such interest is presented to the Board and the Board consents to such interest or employment.

8. Compensation; Benefits; Reimbursement.

8.1 Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Employee shall receive as compensation an initial annual base salary of US$450,000 (the “Base Salary”), less any payroll taxes or withholdings legally required or properly requested by the Employee. This Base Salary and all other compensation and reimbursement under the Agreement will be payable in such installments as are applicable to employees of the Company at substantially the same service level as the Employee. The Board will review the Base Salary on an annual basis and may, in its sole discretion, increase the amount to adjust for inflations and/or market changes.

8.2 Equity Awards. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be eligible to receive stock-based awards (including stock option awards), including in connection with the initial public offering of LianBio’s ordinary shares, under LianBio’s 2019 Equity Incentive Plan, or such other long-term incentive plan as may be adopted by LianBio from time to time, at a level commensurate with her position and responsibilities as specified above and subject to such terms as shall be established by the Board, or a committee thereof, from time to time in its or their discretion.

8.3 Bonus. At the conclusion of each calendar year during the Employment Period, the Employee may be entitled to receive a performance-based annual bonus with a target equal to fifty percent (50%) of the Base Salary (the “Performance Bonus”), the actual amount of which shall be determined by the Board in its sole and exclusive discretion based on the Board’s evaluation of the Employee’s performance and other pre-agreed parameters reflecting the Company’s business plan. The Employee is eligible to receive an additional annual cash bonus in excess of the Performance Bonus, the amount of which shall be determined by the Board, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

8.4 Fringe Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be entitled to the fringe benefits that are made available to officers of the Company and such other benefits as are determined by the Board or a committee thereof, in its sole and exclusive discretion.

8.5 Reimbursements. During the Employment Period, the Employee will be reimbursed, in accordance with the Company’s expense reimbursement policy as in effect from time to time, for all reasonable traveling expenses, other expenses approved by the CEO and other disbursements incurred by her for or on behalf of the Company in the performance of her duties hereunder upon presentation by the Employee of appropriate vouchers.

8.6 Deductions. Recognizing that the Employee is an employee for all purposes, the Company or a subsidiary of the Company shall deduct from any compensation payable to the Employee the sums which the Company or such subsidiary is required by law to deduct, including, but not limited to, government state withholding taxes, social security taxes and state disability insurance and mandatory provident funds, and the Company or such subsidiary shall pay any amounts so deducted to the applicable governmental entities and agents entitled to receive such payments.

9. Involuntary Termination.

9.1 Disability. If the Employee dies, then the Employee’s employment by the Company hereunder shall automatically terminate on the date of the Employee’s death. If the Employee is incapacitated or disabled by accident, sickness or otherwise so as to render her mentally or physically incapable of performing the services required to be performed by her under this Agreement, either with or without reasonable accommodation, for a period of ninety (90) consecutive days or longer, or for ninety (90) days during any six (6) month period (such condition being herein referred to as “Disability”), the Company, at its option, may terminate the Employee’s employment under this Agreement immediately upon giving her notice to that effect. In the case of a Disability, until the Company shall have terminated the Employee’s service in accordance with the foregoing, the Employee will be entitled to receive compensation, at the rate and in the manner provided in Section 8, notwithstanding any such physical or mental disability. Termination pursuant to this Section 9 is hereinafter referred to as an “Involuntary Termination”.

9.2 Substitution. The Board may designate another employee to act in the Employee’s place during any period of Disability suffered by the Employee during the Employment Period. Notwithstanding any such designation, the Employee shall continue to receive the Employee’s Base Salary and benefits in accordance with Section 8 of this Agreement until the Employee becomes eligible for disability income under the Company’s disability income insurance (if any) or until the termination of the Employee’s employment, whichever shall first occur.

9.3 Disability Income Payments. While receiving disability income payments under the Company’s disability income insurance (if any), the Employee shall not be entitled to receive any Base Salary under Section 8.1, but shall continue to participate in all other compensation and benefits in accordance with Section 8.4 until the date of the Employee’s termination of employment.

9.4 Verification of Disability. If any question shall arise as to whether during any period the Employee is disabled through any illness, injury, accident or condition of either a physical or psychological nature so as to be unable to perform substantially all of the Employee's duties and responsibilities hereunder, the Employee may, and at the request of the Company shall, submit to a medical examination by a physician selected by the Company to whom the Employee or the Employee's guardian has no reasonable objection to determine whether the Employee is so disabled and such determination shall for the purposes of this Agreement be conclusive of the issue. If such question shall arise and the Employee shall fail to submit to such medical examination, the Company's determination of the issue shall be binding on the Employee.

10. Termination for Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Employee hereunder at any time during the Employment Period for Cause (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a "Termination for Cause") by giving the Employee notice of such termination, upon the giving of which such termination shall take effect immediately. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" means any one of the following grounds: (i) repeated drunkenness or use of illegal drugs which adversely interferes with the performance of the Employee's obligations and duties in the Company; (ii) the Employee's conviction of a felony, or any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation or violation of applicable securities laws; (iii) gross mismanagement by the Employee of the business and affairs of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company that, as concluded by an independent fact finder appointed by the Board, is reasonably likely to result in a material loss to the Company or any subsidiary of the Company; (iv) material violation of any material terms of this Agreement or the Compliance Agreement (as defined below), which material violation has not been cured (if it is capable of being cured) within thirty (30) days after the Employee receives written notice of such violation; or (v) a conclusive finding by an independent fact finder appointed by the Board for any willful misconduct or dishonesty by the Employee which is materially detrimental to the interests and well-being of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, including, without limitation, harm to its business or reputation.

11. Termination without Cause. The Company, on recommendation from the Board, may terminate the employment of the Employee hereunder at any time during the Employment Period without Cause (such termination being hereinafter called a "Termination without Cause") by giving the Employee sixty (60) days' prior written notice of such termination or pay in lieu of such notice (or any portion thereof). In the event of termination of the Employee's employment in accordance with this Section 11, the Company may elect to waive the period of notice, or any portion thereof, and, if the Company so elects, the Company will pay the Employee the Base Salary for the period so waived.

12. Termination by the Employee.

12.1 Without Good Reason. Any termination of the employment of the Employee hereunder other than as a result of an Involuntary Termination, a Termination for Cause, a Termination without Cause, a Termination for Good Reason (as defined below) or a Non-Renewal Termination (as defined below) will be referred to hereinafter as a "Voluntary Termination". A Voluntary Termination will be deemed to be effective thirty (30) days after written notice hereof.

12.2 With Good Reason. The Employee may terminate the services of such Employee hereunder at any time for Good Reason, provided that (i) the Employee provides written notice to the Company, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, within thirty (30) days of the initial existence of such condition, (ii) the condition remains uncured by the Company for a period of thirty (30) days following such notice and (iii) the Employee terminates her employment, if at all, not later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of such cure period (such termination being hereinafter referred to as a "Termination for Good Reason"). For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Good Reason" shall mean (a) any material diminution of the Employee's duties or responsibilities hereunder (except in each case in connection with the Termination for Cause or pursuant to Section 9.2) or the assignment to the Employee of duties or responsibilities that are materially inconsistent with the Employee's then current position; (b) any material breach of the Agreement by the Company; or (c) a relocation of the Employee (other than any relocation requested by the Employee) from the place of initial assignment of the Employee by the Company to a location more than thirty (30) kilometers from such location, other than on a temporary basis not to exceed a period equal to six (6) calendar months.

13. Effect of Termination on Services.

13.1 Non-Renewal by the Employee, Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause. In the event that the Initial Term or any Renewal Term is not automatically renewed as a result of the Employee providing a Non-Renewal Notice (hereinafter a "Non-Renewal by the Employee"), or upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to a Voluntary Termination or a Termination for Cause, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates, or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) the unpaid portion of the Base Salary provided for in Section 8.1, computed on a pro rata basis to the date of such termination;
- (ii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iii) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.2 Involuntary Termination. Upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to an Involuntary Termination, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) an aggregate amount equal to the Base Salary and fringe benefits for twelve (12) months (the "Severance Payment"), payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.3 Non-Renewal by the Company. In the event that the Initial Term or any Renewal Term is not automatically renewed as a result of the Company providing a Non-Renewal Notice (hereinafter a "Non-Renewal by the Company"), and together with the Non-Renewal by the Employee, collectively referred to as the "Non-Renewal Termination(s)"), neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;

- (ii) one hundred percent (100%) of the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.4 Other Terminations. Upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason, neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (iv) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

13.5 Change in Control Termination. Upon the termination of the Employee's employment hereunder pursuant to a Termination without Cause or a Termination for Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control (hereinafter a "Change in Control Termination"), neither the Employee nor her beneficiary or estate will have any further rights or claims against the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries under this Agreement except to receive:

- (i) a termination payment equal to that provided for in Section 13.1(i) hereto;
- (ii) the Severance Payment, payable from the date of such termination in accordance with the Company's normal payroll policies and at the same rate and in the same manner as set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 hereof, plus any additional compensation as may be expressly required under applicable law;
- (iii) one hundred percent (100%) accelerated vesting of any then-outstanding unvested stock options or other equity-based incentives granted to the Employee by the Company;
- (iv) reimbursement for any expenses for which the Employee shall not have theretofore been reimbursed as provided in Section 8.5; and
- (v) any other benefits as required by applicable law.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Change in Control” means the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) any one person, or more than one person acting as a group (“Person”), acquires ownership of the stock of LianBio that, together with the stock held by such Person, constitutes more than 50% of the total voting power of the stock of LianBio, except that any change in the ownership of the stock of LianBio as a result of a private financing of LianBio that is approved by the Board will not be considered a Change in Control; or
- (ii) the sale of all or substantially all assets of LianBio.

For purposes of this definition, Persons will be considered to be acting as a group if they are owners of a corporation that enters into a merger, consolidation, purchase or acquisition of stock, or similar business transaction with LianBio. Further and for the avoidance of doubt, a transaction will not constitute a Change in Control if: (i) its sole purpose is to re-domicile LianBio in a jurisdiction other than its original jurisdiction of incorporation, or (ii) its sole purpose is to create a holding company that will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held LianBio’s securities immediately before such transaction. With regard to any payment considered to be nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A (as defined below), to the extent applicable, that is payable upon a Change in Control, to avoid the imposition of an additional tax, interest or penalty under Section 409A, no amount will be payable unless such change in control constitutes a “change in control event” within the meaning of Section 1.409A-3(i)(5) of the Treasury Regulations.

13.6 Release. The parties acknowledge and agree that damages which will result to the Employee for Termination without Cause by the Company or other breach of this Agreement by the Company shall be extremely difficult or impossible to establish or prove, and agree that the Severance Payment shall constitute liquidated damages for any breach of this Agreement by the Company through the date of termination. The Employee agrees that, except for such other payments and benefits to which the Employee may be entitled as expressly provided by the terms of this Agreement or any applicable benefit plan, such liquidated damages shall be in lieu of all other claims that the Employee may make by reason of termination of her employment or any such breach of this Agreement and that, as a condition to receiving the Severance Payment, the Employee will execute a release of claims in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

14. Indemnification of Employee.

14.1 Indemnification. In the event that (a) the Employee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding (as defined below) by reason of the Employee’s Corporate Status (as defined below) or (b) the Employee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the Employee’s Corporate Status, the Employee shall be indemnified by the Company against all Expenses (as defined below) and Liabilities (as defined below) incurred or paid by the Employee in connection with such Proceeding (referred to herein as “Indemnifiable Amounts”). For purposes hereof, the terms (i) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit, arbitration, alternate dispute resolution process, investigation, administrative hearing, appeal, or any other proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral or investigative, whether formal or informal, (ii) “Corporate Status” means the status of the Employee as an employee and/or director of the Company, as applicable, (iii) “Expenses” means all fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with any Proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements and retainers, fees and disbursements of expert witnesses, private investigators and professional advisors (including, without limitation, accountants and investment bankers), court costs, transcript costs, fees of experts, travel expenses, duplicating, printing and binding costs, telephone and fax transmission charges, postage, delivery services, secretarial services and other disbursements and expenses and (iv) “Liabilities” means judgments, damages, liabilities, losses, penalties, excise taxes, and fines.

14.2 Advancement of Expenses. The Company agrees that the Company shall pay to the Employee all Indemnifiable Amounts incurred by the Employee in connection with any Proceeding, including a Proceeding by the right of the Company, in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding, as the same are incurred, provided that the Employee provides the Company with a written undertaking to repay the amount of Indemnifiable Amounts if it is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Employee is not entitled under this Agreement to indemnification with respect to such Indemnifiable Amounts.

14.3 Limitation on Indemnification. The Employee shall not be entitled to any indemnification under this Section 14 if the Employee knowingly violated any duty, responsibility or obligation of the Employee imposed under this Agreement, the Compliance Agreement or any Company policy.

14.4 Change in Law. To the extent that a change in applicable law (whether by statute or judicial decision) shall permit broader indemnification or advancement of expenses than is provided under this Agreement, the Employee shall be entitled to such broader indemnification and advancements, and this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to such extent.

15. Compliance Agreement. The Employee agrees to continue to be bound by the Agreement Regarding Confidentiality, Trade Secrets, Intellectual Property and Competitive Activities executed by the Company and the Employee on February 4, 2020 (the “Compliance Agreement”, attached hereto as Exhibit A), the terms and conditions of which are specifically incorporated herein by reference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto hereby agree that Section 3(a)(2) of the Compliance Agreement shall not apply to the Employee following the date of termination if the Employee’s employment is terminated as a result of (a) a Non-Renewal by the Company or (b) a Change in Control Termination. The obligation of the Company to make payments to or on behalf of the Employee under Section 13.2(ii), Section 13.3(ii), Section 13.4(ii) or Section 13.5(ii) above is expressly conditioned upon the Employee’s continued performance of the Employee’s obligations under the Compliance Agreement.

16. Compliance with Anti-Bribery, Anti-Corruption, Etc. The Employee hereby agrees to attend any and all compliance trainings required by the Company and to comply with all applicable laws relating to anti-bribery, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, record keeping and internal control laws, including but not limited to the People’s Republic of China Criminal Law, the People’s Republic of China Anti-Unfair Competition Law, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the United Kingdom Bribery Act (together, “ABAC Policies”), with respect to all activities undertaken on behalf or in connection with the business of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries. The Employee further agrees that the Employee will not, directly or indirectly, offer, authorize, promise, condone or participate in: (a) the making of any gift or payment of anything of value to any public official by any person or entity to obtain any improper advantage, affect or influence any act or decision of any such public official, or assist the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries in obtaining or retaining business for, or with, or directing business to, any person or entity, (b) the taking of any action by any person or entity which (i) would violate ABAC Policies, if taken by an entity subject to ABAC Policies, or (ii) could reasonably be expected to constitute a violation of any applicable law, (c) the making of any false or fictitious entries in the books or records of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries by any person or entity, or (d) the using of any assets of the Company, its affiliates or its subsidiaries for the establishment of any unlawful or unrecorded fund of monies or other assets, or the making of any unlawful or undisclosed payment.

17. Enforcement. It is the desire and intent of the parties hereto that the provisions of this Agreement will be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Accordingly, to the extent that a restriction contained in this Agreement is more restrictive than permitted by the laws of any jurisdiction whose law may be deemed to govern the review and interpretation of this Agreement, the terms of such restriction, for the purpose only of the operation of such restriction in such jurisdiction, will be the maximum restriction allowed by the laws of such jurisdiction and such restriction will be deemed to have been revised accordingly herein. A court having jurisdiction over an action arising out of or seeking enforcement of any restriction contained in this Agreement may modify the terms of such restriction in accordance with this Section 17.

18. Notices. All notices and other communications given or made pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed effectively given: (a) upon personal delivery to the party to be notified, (b) when sent by confirmed electronic mail or facsimile if sent during normal business hours of the recipient, and if not so confirmed, then on the next business day, (c) five (5) days after having been sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, or (d) two (2) business days after deposit with an internationally recognized overnight courier, specifying next business day delivery, with written verification of receipt. All communications shall be sent to the respective parties at their address as set forth on the signature page, or to such e-mail address, facsimile number or address as subsequently modified by written notice given in accordance with this Section 18.

19. Survival. The provisions set forth in Sections 13, 17, 19, 21, 25, 27 and 30 of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

20. Binding Agreement; Benefit. The provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and will inure to the benefit of, the respective heirs, legal representatives and successors of the parties hereto.

21. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New Jersey, without giving effect to any choice of law rule that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

22. Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party must be in writing and will not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party.

23. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements or understanding among the parties with respect thereto, including without limitation the Consulting Agreement dated October 4, 2019, by and between the Company and Whitehall Consulting, LLC, a company in which the Employee serves as a principal. This Agreement may be amended only by an agreement in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

24. Headings. The Section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

25. Severability. Subject to the provisions of Section 17 above, any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction will not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

26. Assignment. This Agreement is personal in its nature and the parties hereto shall not, without the consent of the other party hereto, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, provided, however, that the rights and obligations of the Company hereunder shall be assignable and delegable in connection with any subsequent merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of the assets or shares of the Company or similar transaction involving the Company or a successor corporation.

27. Confidentiality. The Employee agrees not to disclose this Agreement or its terms to any person or entity, other than the Employee's agents, advisors or representatives, except as consented to by the Company in writing or as may be required by law.

28. Further Assurances. The Employee agrees to execute, acknowledge, seal and deliver such further assurances, documents, applications, agreements and instruments, and to take such further actions, as the Company may reasonably request in order to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement.

29. Counterparts. The parties may execute this Agreement in any number of counterparts and, as so delivered, the counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document. The parties agree that each such counterpart is an original and shall be binding upon all of the parties, even though all of the parties are not signatories to the same counterpart.

30. Dispute Resolution.

30.1 Any dispute, controversy or claim (each, a "Dispute") arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the interpretation, breach, termination, validity or invalidity thereof, shall be referred to and conclusively determined by arbitration upon the demand of any party to the dispute with notice (the "Arbitration Notice") to the other party or parties.

30.2 The Dispute shall be settled by arbitration in New Jersey administered by JAMS in accordance with its Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. In the event that JAMS fails or refuses to conduct the arbitration in New Jersey, then the Dispute shall be resolved by binding arbitration before JAMS in New York.

30.3 The arbitral proceedings shall be conducted in English. To the extent that the Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures of JAMS are in conflict with the provisions of this Section, including the provisions concerning the appointment of the arbitrators, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

30.4 Each party to the arbitration shall cooperate with each other party to the arbitration in making full disclosure of and providing complete access to all information and documents requested by such other party in connection with such arbitral proceedings, subject only to any confidentiality obligations binding on such party. The arbitrator shall permit adequate discovery, shall issue a written award, and is authorized to award any type of relief recoverable in court.

30.5 The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding upon the parties thereto, and the prevailing party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement thereof.

30.6 The arbitral tribunal shall decide any Dispute submitted by the parties to the arbitration strictly in accordance with the substantive laws of the United States and the State of New Jersey (without regard to principles of conflict of laws thereunder) and shall not apply any other substantive law.

30.7 Any party to the Dispute shall be entitled, without posting any bond, to seek preliminary injunctive relief, temporary restraining order or other temporary relief (if applicable), from any court of competent jurisdiction pending the constitution of the arbitral tribunal.

30.8 During the course of the arbitral tribunal's adjudication of the Dispute, this Agreement shall continue to be performed except with respect to the part in dispute and under adjudication.

30.9 (i) The Employee acknowledges and agrees that no claims will be arbitrated on a class action or collective action basis, (ii) the arbitration costs incurred by the Employee shall not exceed the cost of filing a complaint in a court of law or equity, and (iii) the parties expressly waive all rights to a jury trial in court on all statutory or other claims.

31. Timing of Payments and Section 409A.

31.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if at the time the Employee's employment terminates, the Employee is a "specified employee," as defined below, any and all amounts payable under this Agreement on account of such separation from service that would (but for this provision) be payable within six (6) months following the date of termination, shall instead be paid on the next business day following the expiration of such six (6)-month period or, if earlier, upon the Employee's death; except (A) to the extent of amounts that do not constitute a deferral of compensation within the meaning of Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(b) (including without limitation by reason of the safe harbor set forth in Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii), as determined by the Company in its reasonable good faith discretion); (B) benefits which qualify as excepted welfare benefits pursuant to Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5); or (C) other amounts or benefits that are not subject to the requirements of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 409A").

31.2 For purposes of this Agreement, to the extent required to comply with Section 409A, all references to "termination of employment" and correlative phrases shall be construed to require a "separation from service" (as defined in Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Treasury regulations after giving effect to the presumptions contained therein), and the term "specified employee" means an individual determined by the Company to be a specified employee under Treasury regulation Section 1.409A-1(i).

31.3 Any reimbursement for expenses that would constitute nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A shall be subject to the following additional rules: (i) no reimbursement of any such expense shall affect the Employee's right to reimbursement of any such expense in any other taxable year; (ii) reimbursement of the expense shall be made, if at all, promptly, but not later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the expense was incurred; and (iii) the right to reimbursement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

31.4 In no event shall the Company have any liability relating to the failure or alleged failure of any payment or benefit under this Agreement to comply with, or be exempt from, the requirements of Section 409A.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Schedule 1

EXHIBIT A

AGREEMENT REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY, TRADE SECRETS, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COMPETITIVE ACTIVITIES

Exhibit A

LianBio
2019 EQUITY INCENTIVE PLAN

ARTICLE I.
PURPOSE.

The purpose of the Plan is to advance the interests of the Company's shareholders by enhancing the Company's ability to attract, retain and motivate persons who make (or are expected to make) important contributions to the Company by providing such persons with equity ownership opportunities and thereby better aligning the interests of such persons with those of the Company's shareholders. Capitalized terms used in the Plan are defined in Article XI below.

ARTICLE II.
ELIGIBILITY.

Service Providers are eligible to be granted Awards under the Plan, subject to the limitations described herein.

ARTICLE III.
ADMINISTRATION AND DELEGATION.

3.1 Administration. The Plan will be administered by the Administrator. The Administrator shall have authority to determine which Service Providers will receive Awards, to grant Awards and to set all terms and conditions of Awards (including, but not limited to, vesting, exercise and forfeiture provisions). In addition, the Administrator shall have the authority to take all actions and make all determinations contemplated by the Plan and to adopt, amend and repeal such administrative rules, guidelines and practices relating to the Plan as it shall deem advisable. The Administrator may correct any defect or ambiguity, supply any omission or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan or any Award in the manner and to the extent it shall deem necessary or appropriate to carry the Plan and any Awards into effect, as determined by the Administrator. The Administrator shall make all determinations under the Plan in the Administrator's sole discretion and all such determinations shall be final and binding on all persons having or claiming any interest in the Plan or in any Award.

3.2 Appointment of Committees. To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws and the Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company (as may be further amended and/or restated from time to time, the "Articles"), the Board may delegate any or all of its powers under the Plan to one or more Committees. The Board may abolish any Committee at any time and re-vest in itself any previously delegated authority.

ARTICLE IV.
SHARES AVAILABLE FOR AWARDS.

4.1 Number of Shares. Subject to adjustment under Article VIII hereof, Awards may be made under the Plan covering up to 1,300,000 Ordinary Shares. If any Award expires or lapses or is terminated, surrendered or canceled without having been fully exercised or is forfeited in whole or in part (including, without limitation, as the result of Ordinary Shares subject to such Award being repurchased by the Company at or below the original issuance price), in any case in a manner that results in any Ordinary Shares covered by such Award not being issued or being so reacquired by the Company, the unused Ordinary Shares covered by such Award shall again be available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. Further, Ordinary Shares delivered (either by actual delivery or attestation) to the Company by a Participant to satisfy the applicable exercise or purchase price of an Award and/or to satisfy any applicable tax withholding obligation (including, without limitation, shares retained by the Company from the Award being exercised or purchased and/or creating the tax obligation) shall be added to the number of Ordinary Shares available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. However, in the case of Incentive Stock Options, the foregoing provisions shall be subject to any limitations under the Code. Ordinary Shares issued under the Plan may consist in whole or in part of authorized but unissued shares, shares purchased on the open market or treasury shares.

4.2 Substitute Awards. In connection with a merger or consolidation of an entity with the Company or the acquisition by the Company of property or shares of an entity, the Administrator may grant Awards in substitution for any options or other share or share-based awards granted prior to such merger or consolidation by such entity or an affiliate thereof. Substitute Awards may be granted on such terms as the Administrator deems appropriate in the circumstances, notwithstanding any limitations on Awards contained in the Plan. Substitute Awards shall not count against the overall share limit set forth in Section 4.1 hereof, except as may be required by reason of Section 422 of the Code.

ARTICLE V. SHARE OPTIONS.

5.1 General. The Administrator may grant Options to any Service Provider, subject to the limitations on Incentive Stock Options described below. The Administrator shall determine the number of Ordinary Shares to be covered by each Option, the exercise price of each Option and the conditions and limitations applicable to the exercise of each Option, including, without limitation, conditions relating to Applicable Laws, as it considers necessary or advisable.

5.2 Incentive Stock Options. The Administrator may grant Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options only to employees of the Company, any of the Company's present or future "parent corporations" or "subsidiary corporations" as defined in Sections 424(e) or (f) of the Code, respectively, and any other entities the employees of which are eligible to receive Incentive Stock Options under the Code. All Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options shall be subject to and shall be construed consistently with the requirements of Section 422 of the Code. Neither the Company nor the Administrator shall have any liability to a Participant, or any other party, (i) if an Option (or any part thereof) which is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option fails to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option or (ii) for any action or omission by the Administrator that causes an Option not to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, including, without limitation, the conversion of an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option or the grant of an Option intended as an Incentive Stock Option that fails to satisfy the requirements under the Code applicable to an Incentive Stock Option. Any Option that is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, but fails to so qualify for any reason, including, without limitation, the portion of any Option becoming exercisable in excess of the $100,000 limitation described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.422-4, shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option for all purposes.

5.3 Exercise Price. The Administrator shall establish the exercise price of each Option and specify the exercise price in the applicable Award Agreement. The exercise price shall be not less than 100% of the Fair Market Value on the date the Option is granted. In the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an employee who, at the time of grant of the Option, owns (or is treated as owning under Section 424 of the Code) shares representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of shares of the Company (or a "parent corporation" or "subsidiary corporation" thereof within the meaning of Sections 424(e) or 424(f) of the Code, respectively), the per share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the Fair Market Value on the date the Option is granted.

5.4 Duration of Options. Each Option shall be exercisable at such times and subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator may specify in the applicable Award Agreement, provided that the term of any Option shall not exceed ten years. In the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an employee who, at the time of grant of the Option, owns (or is treated as owning under Section 424 of the Code) shares representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of shares of the Company (or a “parent corporation” or “subsidiary corporation” thereof within the meaning of Sections 424(e) or 424(f) of the Code, respectively), the term of the Option shall not exceed five years.

5.5 Exercise of Option; Notification of Disposition. Options may be exercised by delivery to the Company of a written notice of exercise, in a form approved by the Administrator (which may be an electronic form), signed by the person authorized to exercise the Option, together with payment in full (i) as specified in Section 5.6 hereof for the number of shares for which the Option is exercised and (ii) as specified in Section 9.5 hereof for any applicable withholding taxes. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, an Option may not be exercised for a fraction of an Ordinary Share. If an Option is designated as an Incentive Stock Option, the Participant shall give fifteen (15) days prior written notice to the Company of any disposition or other transfer of any Ordinary Shares acquired from the Option if such disposition or transfer is made (i) within two years from the grant date with respect to such Option or (ii) within one year after the transfer of such shares to the Participant (other than any such disposition made in connection with a Change in Control). Such notice shall specify the date of such disposition or other transfer and the amount realized, in cash, other property, assumption of indebtedness or other consideration, by the Participant in such disposition or other transfer.

5.6 Payment Upon Exercise. Ordinary Shares purchased upon the exercise of an Option granted under the Plan shall be paid for in cash, by wire transfer of immediately available funds or by check, payable to the order of the Company, or, subject to Section 10.8, any Company insider trading policy (including, without limitation, any blackout periods) and Applicable Laws, by:

(a) If the Company is a Publicly Listed Company, unless the Administrator otherwise determines, (A) delivery of an irrevocable and unconditional undertaking by a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company sufficient funds to pay the exercise price, or (B) delivery by the Participant to the Company of a copy of irrevocable and unconditional instructions to a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company cash or a check sufficient to pay the exercise price, provided in either case, that such amount is paid to the Company at such time as may be required by the Administrator;

(b) to the extent permitted by the Administrator, delivery (either by actual delivery or attestation) of Ordinary Shares owned by the Participant valued at their Fair Market Value, provided (A) such method of payment is then permitted under Applicable Laws, (B) such Ordinary Shares, if acquired directly from the Company, was owned by the Participant for such minimum period of time, if any, as may be established by the Company at any time, and (C) such Ordinary Shares are not subject to any repurchase, forfeiture, unfulfilled vesting or other similar requirements;

(c) to the extent permitted by the Administrator, surrendering Ordinary Shares then issuable upon exercise of the Option valued at their Fair Market Value on the date of exercise; or

(d) any combination of the above permitted forms of payment (including, without limitation, cash or check).

ARTICLE VI.
RESTRICTED SHARES; RESTRICTED SHARE UNITS.

6.1 General. The Administrator may grant Restricted Shares, or the right to purchase Restricted Shares, to any Service Provider, subject to the right of the Company to repurchase all or part of such shares at their issue price or other stated or formula price from the Participant (or to require forfeiture of such shares if issued at no cost) in the event that conditions specified by the Administrator in the applicable Award Agreement are not satisfied prior to the end of the applicable restriction period or periods established by the Administrator for such Award. In addition, the Administrator may grant to Service Providers Restricted Share Units, which may be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions during applicable restriction period or periods, as set forth in an applicable Award Agreement.

6.2 Terms and Conditions for All Restricted Share and Restricted Share Unit Awards. The Administrator shall determine and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement the terms and conditions applicable to each Restricted Share and Restricted Share Unit Award, including, without limitation, the conditions for vesting and repurchase (or forfeiture) and the issue price, in each case, if any.

6.3 Additional Provisions Relating to Restricted Share.

(a) Dividends. Participants holding Restricted Shares will be entitled to all ordinary cash dividends paid with respect to such shares to the extent such dividends have a record date that is on or after the date on which the Participant to whom such Restricted Shares are granted becomes the record holder of such Restricted Shares, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator in the applicable Award Agreement. In addition, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator, if any dividends or distributions are paid in shares, or consist of a dividend or distribution to holders of Ordinary Shares of property other than an ordinary cash dividend, the shares or other property will be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the Restricted Shares with respect to which they were paid. Each dividend payment will be made as provided in the applicable Award Agreement, but in no event later than the end of the calendar year in which the dividends are paid to shareholders of that class of shares or, if later, the 15th day of the third month following the later of (A) the date the dividends are paid to shareholders of that class of shares, and (B) the date the dividends are no longer subject to forfeiture.

(b) Share Certificates. The Company may require that any share certificates issued in respect of Restricted Shares be deposited in escrow by the Participant, together with a stock power endorsed in blank, with the Company (or its designee).

6.4 Additional Provisions Relating to Restricted Share Units.

(a) Settlement. Upon the vesting of a Restricted Share Unit, the Participant shall be entitled to receive from the Company one Ordinary Share or an amount of cash or other property equal to the Fair Market Value of one Ordinary Share on the settlement date, as the Administrator shall determine and as provided in the applicable Award Agreement. The Administrator may provide that settlement of Restricted Share Units shall occur upon or as soon as reasonably practicable after the vesting of the Restricted Share Units or shall instead be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the election of the Participant, in a manner that complies with Section 409A.

(b) Voting Rights. A Participant shall have no voting rights with respect to any Restricted Share Units unless and until shares are delivered in settlement thereof.

(c) Dividend Equivalents. To the extent provided by the Administrator, a grant of Restricted Share Units may provide a Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents. Dividend Equivalents may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, may be settled in cash and/or Ordinary Shares and may be subject to the same restrictions on transfer and forfeitability as the Restricted Share Units with respect to which the Dividend Equivalents are paid, as determined by the Administrator, subject, in each case, to such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall establish and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

ARTICLE VII.
OTHER SHARE-BASED AWARDS.

Other Share-Based Awards may be granted hereunder to Participants, including, without limitation, Awards entitling Participants to receive Ordinary Shares to be delivered in the future. Such Other Share-Based Awards shall also be available as a form of payment in the settlement of other Awards granted under the Plan, as stand-alone payments and/or as payment in lieu of compensation to which a Participant is otherwise entitled. Other Share-Based Awards may be paid in Ordinary Shares, cash or other property, as the Administrator shall determine. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Administrator shall determine the terms and conditions of each Other Share-Based Award, including, without limitation, any purchase price, transfer restrictions, vesting conditions and other terms and conditions applicable thereto, which shall be set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII.
ADJUSTMENTS FOR CHANGES IN ORDINARY SHARES AND CERTAIN OTHER EVENTS.

8.1 Certain Transactions or Events. In the event that the Administrator determines that any dividend or other distribution (whether in the form of cash, Ordinary Shares, other securities, or other property), reorganization, merger, consolidation, combination, repurchase, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, or sale, transfer, exchange or other disposition of assets of the Company, or sale or exchange of Ordinary Shares or other securities of the Company, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Ordinary Shares or other securities of the Company, or other similar corporate transaction or event, as determined by the Administrator, affects the Ordinary Shares such that an adjustment is determined by the Administrator to be appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended by the Company to be made available under the Plan or with respect to any Award, then the Administrator may, in such manner as it may deem equitable, adjust any or all of:

(a) the number and kind of Ordinary Shares (or other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted or awarded (including, but not limited to, adjustments of the limitations in Section 4.1 hereof on the maximum number and kind of shares which may be issued);

(b) the number and kind of Ordinary Shares (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards;

(c) the grant or exercise price with respect to any Award; and

(d) the terms and conditions of any Awards (including, without limitation, any applicable financial or other performance “targets” specified in an Award Agreement).

8.2 Additional Transactions or Events. In the event of any transaction or event described in Section 8.1 hereof (including, without limitation any change in control) or any unusual or nonrecurring transaction or event affecting the Company or the financial statements of the Company, or any change in any Applicable Laws or accounting principles, the Administrator, on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, either by the terms of the Award or by action taken prior to the occurrence of the event and either automatically or upon the Participant’s request, is hereby authorized to take any one or more of the following actions whenever the Administrator determines that such action is appropriate in order to (x) prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended by the Company to be made available under the Plan or with respect to any Award granted or issued under the Plan, (y) to facilitate such transaction or event or (z) give effect to such changes in Applicable Laws or accounting principles:

(a) To provide for the cancellation of any such Award in exchange for either an amount of cash or other property with a value equal to the amount that could have been obtained upon the exercise or settlement of the vested portion of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights under the vested portion of such Award, as applicable; provided that, if the amount that could have been obtained upon the exercise or settlement of the vested portion of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights, in any case, is equal to or less than zero, then the vested portion of such Award may be terminated without payment;

(b) To provide that such Award shall vest and, to the extent applicable, be exercisable as to all shares covered thereby, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the provisions of such Award;

(c) To provide that such Award be assumed by the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, or shall be substituted for by awards covering the shares of the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, with appropriate adjustments as to the number and kind of shares and applicable exercise or purchase price, in all cases, as determined by the Administrator;

(d) To make adjustments in the number and type of Ordinary Shares (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards, and/or in the terms and conditions of (including, without limitation, the grant or exercise price), and the criteria included in, outstanding Awards;

(e) To replace such Award with other rights or property selected by the Administrator; and/or

(f) To provide that the Award will terminate and cannot vest, be exercised or become payable after the applicable event.

8.3 Equity Restructurings. In connection with the occurrence of any Equity Restructuring, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article VIII, the Administrator will equitably adjust each outstanding Award, which adjustments may include adjustments to the number and type of securities subject to each outstanding Award and/or the exercise price or grant price thereof, if applicable, the grant of new Awards to Participants, and/or the making of a cash payment to Participants, as the Administrator deems appropriate to reflect such Equity Restructuring. The adjustments provided under this Section shall be nondiscretionary and shall be final and binding on the affected Participant and the Company; provided that whether an adjustment is equitable shall be determined by the Administrator.

8.4 Administrative Stand Still. In the event of any pending share dividend, share split, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation or other distribution (other than normal cash dividends) of Company assets to shareholders, or any other change affecting the Ordinary Shares or the share price of the Ordinary Shares, including, without limitation, any Equity Restructuring, for reasons of administrative convenience the Administrator may refuse to permit the exercise of any Award during a period of up to thirty days prior to the consummation of any such transaction.

8.5 Miscellaneous. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or pursuant to action of the Administrator under the Plan, no Participant shall have any rights by reason of any subdivision or consolidation of shares of any class, the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of any class or any dissolution, liquidation, merger, or consolidation of the Company or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or pursuant to action of the Administrator under the Plan, no issuance by the Company of shares of any class, or securities convertible into shares of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of Ordinary Shares subject to an Award or the grant or exercise price of any Award. The existence of the Plan, any Award Agreements and the Awards granted hereunder shall not affect or restrict in any way the right or power of the Company to make or authorize (i) any adjustment, recapitalization, reorganization or other change in the Company's capital structure or its business, (ii) any merger, consolidation dissolution or liquidation of the Company or sale of Company assets or (iii) any sale or issuance of securities, including, without limitation, securities with rights superior to those of the Ordinary Shares or which are convertible into or exchangeable for the Ordinary Shares. The Administrator may treat Participants and Awards (or portions thereof) differently under this Article VIII.

ARTICLE IX.

GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO AWARDS.

9.1 Transferability. Except as the Administrator may otherwise determine or provide in an Award Agreement or otherwise, in any case in accordance with Applicable Laws, Awards, including any interest therein, may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise encumbered by the person to whom they are granted, either voluntarily or by operation of law, except by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and, during the life of the Participant, shall be exercisable only by the Participant. References to a Participant, to the extent relevant in the context, shall include references to authorized transferees.

9.2 Documentation. Each Award shall be evidenced in an Award Agreement, which may be in such form (written, electronic or otherwise) as the Administrator shall determine. Each Award may contain terms and conditions in addition to those set forth in the Plan.

9.3 Discretion. Except as otherwise provided by the Plan, each Award may be made alone or in addition or in relation to any other Award. The terms of each Award to a Participant need not be identical, and the Administrator need not treat Participants or Awards (or portions thereof) uniformly.

9.4 Termination of Status. The Administrator shall determine the effect on an Award of the disability, death, retirement, authorized leave of absence or any other change or purported change in a Participant's Service Provider status and the extent to which, and the period during which, the Participant, the Participant's legal representative, conservator, guardian or Designated Beneficiary may exercise rights under the Award, if applicable.

9.5 Withholding. Each Participant shall pay to the Company, or make provision satisfactory to the Administrator for payment of, and authorize the Company (and/or the Company's parent or subsidiary company employing or retaining the Participant), to the extent determined appropriate by the Administrator and permissible under Applicable Law, to withhold from the Participant's wages or other cash compensation payable to the Participant by the Company (and/or the Company's parent or subsidiary company employing or retaining the Participant), any taxes required by law to be withheld in connection with Awards to such Participant no later than the date of the event creating the tax liability. Except as the Administrator may otherwise determine, all such payments shall be made in cash, by wire transfer of immediately available funds or by certified check. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Participants may satisfy such tax obligations, subject to Section 10.8, any Company insider trading policy (including blackout periods) and Applicable Laws, (i) to the extent permitted by the Administrator, in whole or in part by delivery of Shares, including Shares retained from the Award creating the tax obligation, valued at their Fair Market Value, and (ii) if there is a public market for Shares at the time the tax obligations are satisfied, unless the Administrator otherwise determines, (A) delivery (including, without limitation, telephonically to the extent permitted by the Company) of an irrevocable and unconditional undertaking by a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company sufficient funds to satisfy the tax obligations, or (B) delivery by the Participant to the Company of a copy of irrevocable and unconditional instructions to a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company cash or a check sufficient to satisfy the tax withholding; provided that such amount is paid to the Company at such time as may be required by the Administrator. The Company may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, deduct any such tax obligations based on applicable withholding rates from any payment of any kind otherwise due to a Participant.

9.6 Amendment of Award. The Administrator may amend, modify or terminate any outstanding Award, including but not limited to, substituting therefor another Award of the same or a different type, changing the date of exercise or settlement, and converting an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option. The Participant's consent to such action shall be required unless (i) the Administrator determines that the action, taking into account any related action, would not materially and adversely affect the Participant, or (ii) the change is permitted under Article VIII and Section 10.6 hereof.

9.7 Conditions on Delivery of Shares. The Company will not be obligated to deliver any Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Plan or to remove restrictions from shares previously delivered under the Plan until (i) all conditions of the Award have been met or removed to the satisfaction of the Company, (ii) in the opinion of the Company's counsel, all other legal matters in connection with the issuance and delivery of such shares have been satisfied, including, without limitation, any applicable securities laws and any applicable stock exchange or stock market rules and regulations, and (iii) the Participant has executed and delivered to the Company such representations or agreements as the Administrator deems necessary or appropriate to satisfy the requirements of any Applicable Laws. The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is determined by the Administrator to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any securities hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

9.8 Acceleration. The Administrator may at any time provide that any Award shall become vested and/or exercisable in full or in part, free of some or all restrictions or conditions, or otherwise realizable in full or in part, as the case may be.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS.

10.1 No Right To Employment or Other Status. No person shall have any claim or right to be granted an Award, and the grant of an Award shall not be construed as giving a Participant the right to continued employment or any other relationship with the Company. The Company expressly reserves the right at any time to dismiss or otherwise terminate its relationship with a Participant free from any liability or claim under the Plan or any Award, except as expressly provided in an applicable Award Agreement.

10.2 No Rights As Shareholder; Certificates. Subject to the provisions of the applicable Award Agreement, no Participant or Designated Beneficiary shall have any rights as a shareholder with respect to any Ordinary Shares to be distributed with respect to an Award until becoming the record holder of such shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator or required by any Applicable Laws, the Company shall not be required to deliver to any Participant certificates evidencing Ordinary Shares issued in connection with any Award and instead such Ordinary Shares may be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or share plan administrator). The Company may place legends on share certificates issued under the Plan deemed necessary or appropriate by the Administrator in order to comply with Applicable Laws.

10.3 Effective Date and Term of Plan. The Plan shall become effective on the date on which it is adopted by the Board. No Awards shall be granted under the Plan after the completion of ten years from the earlier of (i) the date on which the Plan was adopted by the Board or (ii) the date the Plan was approved by the Company's shareholders, but Awards previously granted may extend beyond that date in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

10.4 Amendment of Plan. The Administrator may amend, suspend or terminate the Plan or any portion thereof at any time; provided that no amendment of the Plan shall materially and adversely affect (as determined by the Administrator) any Award outstanding at the time of such amendment without the consent of the affected Participant. Awards outstanding under the Plan at the time of any suspension or termination of the Plan shall continue to be governed in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement, as in effect prior to such suspension or termination. The Board shall obtain shareholder approval of any Plan amendment to the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Laws.

10.5 Provisions for Foreign Participants. The Administrator may modify Awards granted to Participants who are foreign nationals or employed outside the United States or establish subplans or procedures under the Plan to address differences in laws, rules, regulations or customs of such foreign jurisdictions with respect to tax, securities, currency, employee benefit or other matters.

10.6 Section 409A.

(a) General. To the extent a Participant is or may become subject to U.S. federal income tax, the Company intends that all Awards be structured in compliance with, or to satisfy an exemption from, Section 409A, such that no adverse tax consequences, interest, or penalties under Section 409A apply in connection with any Awards. Notwithstanding anything herein or in any Award Agreement to the contrary, the Administrator may, without a Participant's prior consent, amend this Plan and/or Awards, adopt policies and procedures, or take any other actions (including, without limitation, amendments, policies, procedures and actions with retroactive effect) as are necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of Awards under the Plan, including, without limitation, any such actions intended to (A) exempt this Plan and/or any Award from the application of Section 409A, and/or (B) comply with the requirements of Section 409A, including, without limitation any such regulations, guidance, compliance programs and other interpretative authority that may be issued after the date of grant of any Award. The Company makes no representations or warranties as to the tax treatment of any Award under Section 409A or otherwise. The Company shall have no obligation under this Section 10.6(f) or otherwise to take any action (whether or not described herein) to avoid the imposition of taxes, penalties or interest under Section 409A with respect to any Award and shall have no liability to any Participant or any other person if any Award, compensation or other benefits under the Plan are determined to constitute non-compliant, "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to the imposition of taxes, penalties and/or interest under Section 409A.

(b) Separation from Service. With respect to any Award that constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" under Section 409A, any payment or settlement of such Award that is to be made upon a termination of a Participant's Service Provider relationship shall, to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, be made only upon the Participant's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Section 409A), whether such "separation from service" occurs upon or subsequent to the termination of the Participant's Service Provider relationship. For purposes of any such provision of this Plan or any Award Agreement relating to any such payments or benefits, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(c) Payments to Specified Employees. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the Plan or any Award Agreement, any payment(s) of "nonqualified deferred compensation" that are otherwise required to be made under an Award to a "specified employee" (as defined under Section 409A and determined by the Administrator) as a result of his or her "separation from service" shall, to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of taxes under Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i), be delayed until the expiration of the six-month period immediately following such "separation from service" (or, if earlier, until the date of death of the specified employee) and shall instead be paid (in a manner set forth in the Award agreement) on the day that immediately follows the end of such six-month period or as soon as administratively practicable thereafter (without interest). Any payments of "nonqualified deferred compensation" under such Award that are, by their terms, payable more than six months following the Participant's "separation from service" shall be paid at the time or times such payments are otherwise scheduled to be made.

10.7 Limitations on Liability. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Plan, no individual acting as a director, officer, other employee or agent of the Company will be liable to any Participant, former Participant, spouse, beneficiary, or any other person for any claim, loss, liability, or expense incurred in connection with the Plan or any Award, nor will such individual be personally liable with respect to the Plan because of any contract or other instrument he or she executes in his or her capacity as an Administrator, director, officer, other employee or agent of the Company. The Company will indemnify and hold harmless each director, officer, other employee and agent of the Company to whom any duty or power relating to the administration or interpretation of the Plan has been or will be granted or delegated, against any cost or expense (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) or liability (including, without limitation, any sum paid in settlement of a claim with the Administrator's approval) arising out of any act or omission to act concerning this Plan unless arising out of such person's own fraud or bad faith.

10.8 Lock-Up Period. By accepting an Award, each Participant agrees that the Participant will not, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter, during the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to an initial public offering of any of the Company's securities and ending on the date specified by the Company and the managing underwriter (such period not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, or such other period as may be requested by the Company or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (1) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (2) analyst recommendations and opinions, including, but not limited to, the restrictions contained in FINRA Rule 2241 or NYSE Rule 472(f)(4)), (i) lend; offer; pledge; charge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Ordinary Shares or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Ordinary Shares held immediately before the effective date of the registration statement for such offering or (ii) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) above is to be settled by delivery of Ordinary Shares or other securities, in cash, or otherwise. The foregoing provisions of this Section shall apply only to an initial public offering of the Company's securities and shall not apply to the sale of any shares to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement for such initial public offering. The underwriters in connection with such registration are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Section and shall have the right, power, and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. Each Participant further agrees to execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with such registration that are consistent with this Section or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

10.9 Right of First Refusal.

(a) Before any Ordinary Shares held by a Participant or any permitted transferee (each, a "Holder") may be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred, or otherwise disposed of (each, a "Transfer"), the Company or its assignee(s) shall have a right of first refusal to purchase the Ordinary Shares proposed to be Transferred on the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 10.9 (the "Right of First Refusal"). In the event that the Articles and/or a shareholders' agreement or other agreement applicable to the Ordinary Shares contain a right of first refusal with respect to the Ordinary Shares, such right of first refusal shall apply to the Ordinary Shares to the extent such provisions are more restrictive than the Right of First Refusal set forth in this Section 10.9 and the Right of First Refusal set forth in this Section 10.9 shall not in any way restrict the operation of the Articles or the operation of any applicable shareholders' agreement or such other agreement. In the event any Holder desires to Transfer any Ordinary Shares, the Holder shall deliver to the Company a written notice (the “Notice”) stating: (A) the Holder’s bona fide intention to sell or otherwise Transfer such Ordinary Shares; (B) the name of each proposed purchaser or other transferee (“Proposed Transferee”); (C) the number of Ordinary Shares to be Transferred to each Proposed Transferee; and (D) the price for which the Holder proposes to Transfer the Ordinary Shares (the “Offered Price”), and the Holder shall offer such Ordinary Shares at the Offered Price to the Company or its assignee(s).

(b) Within twenty-five days after receipt of the Notice, the Company and/or its assignee(s) may elect in writing to purchase all or any portion of the Ordinary Shares proposed to be Transferred to any one or more of the Proposed Transferees by delivery of a written exercise notice to the Holder (a “Company Notice”). The purchase price (“Purchase Price”) for the Ordinary Shares repurchased under this Section 10.9 shall be the Offered Price.

(c) Payment of the Purchase Price shall be made, at the option of the Company or its assignee(s), in cash (by check or wire transfer), by cancellation of all or a portion of any outstanding indebtedness of the Holder to the Company (or, in the case of repurchase by an assignee, to the assignee), or by any combination thereof, within five days after delivery of the Company Notice or in the manner and at the times mutually agreed to by the Company and the Holder. Should the Offered Price specified in the Notice be payable in property other than cash, the Company or its assignee shall have the right to pay the purchase price in the form of cash equal in amount to the value of such property, as determined by the Administrator.

(d) If all or a portion of the Ordinary Shares proposed in the Notice to be Transferred are not purchased by the Company and/or its assignee(s) as provided in this Section 10.9, then the Holder may sell or otherwise Transfer such Ordinary Shares to that Proposed Transferee at the Offered Price or at a higher price; provided that such sale or other Transfer is consummated within sixty days after the date of the Notice; and provided, further, that any such sale or other Transfer is effected in accordance with any Applicable Laws and the Proposed Transferee agrees in writing that the provisions of this Plan and the applicable Award Agreement and any other applicable agreements governing the Ordinary Shares to be Transferred shall continue to apply to the Ordinary Shares in the hands of such Proposed Transferee. If the Ordinary Shares described in the Notice are not Transferred to the Proposed Transferee within such sixty-day period, a new Notice shall be given to the Company, and the Company and/or its assignees shall again be offered the Right of First Refusal, as provided herein, before any Ordinary Shares held by the Holder may be sold or otherwise Transferred.

(e) Anything to the contrary contained in this Section 10.9 notwithstanding and to the extent permitted by the Administrator, the Transfer of any or all of the Ordinary Shares during a Participant’s lifetime or upon a Participant’s death by will or intestacy to the Participant’s Immediate Family or a trust for the benefit of the Participant’s Immediate Family shall be exempt from the Right of First Refusal. As used herein, “Immediate Family” shall mean spouse, lineal descendant or antecedent, father, mother, brother or sister or stepchild (whether or not adopted). In such case, the transferee or other recipient shall receive and hold the Ordinary Shares so Transferred subject to the provisions of this Plan (including, without limitation, the Right of First Refusal), the applicable Award Agreement and any other applicable agreements governing the Ordinary Shares to be Transferred, and there shall be no further Transfer of such Ordinary Shares except in accordance with the terms of this Section 10.9 (or otherwise as expressly provided under the Plan).

(f) The Right of First Refusal shall terminate as to all Ordinary Shares if the Company becomes a Publicly Listed Company upon such occurrence.

10.10 Data Privacy. As a condition of receipt of any Award, each Participant explicitly and unambiguously consents to the collection, use and transfer, in electronic or other form, of personal data as described in this paragraph by and among, as applicable, the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan. The Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may hold certain personal information about a Participant, including but not limited to, the Participant's name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security or insurance number or other identification number, salary, nationality, job title(s), any shares held in the Company or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates, details of all Awards, in each case, for the purpose of implementing, managing and administering the Plan and Awards (the "Data"). The Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may transfer the Data amongst themselves as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of a Participant's participation in the Plan, and the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may each further transfer the Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the Participant's country, or elsewhere, and the Participant's country may have different data privacy laws and protections than the recipients' country. Through acceptance of an Award, each Participant authorizes such recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for the purposes of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan, including, without limitation, any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required to a broker or other third party with whom the Company or the Participant may elect to deposit any Ordinary Shares. The Data related to a Participant will be held only as long as is necessary to implement, administer, and manage the Participant's participation in the Plan. A Participant may, at any time, view the Data held by the Company with respect to such Participant, request additional information about the storage and processing of the Data with respect to such Participant, recommend any necessary corrections to the Data with respect to the Participant or refuse or withdraw the consents herein in writing, in any case without cost, by contacting his or her local human resources representative. The Company may cancel Participant's ability to participate in the Plan and, in the Administrator's discretion, the Participant may forfeit any outstanding Awards if the Participant refuses or withdraws his or her consents as described herein. For more information on the consequences of refusal to consent or withdrawal of consent, Participants may contact their local human resources representative.

10.11 Severability. In the event any portion of the Plan or any action taken pursuant thereto shall be held illegal or invalid for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of the Plan, and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provisions had not been included, and the illegal or invalid action shall be null and void.

10.12 Governing Documents. In the event of any contradiction between the Plan and any Award Agreement or any other written agreement between a Participant and the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company that has been approved by the Administrator, the terms of the Plan shall govern, unless it is expressly specified in such Award Agreement or other written document that a specific provision of the Plan shall not apply.

10.13 Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. By accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally consents to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America, in each case located in the State of Delaware, for any action arising out of or relating to the Plan (and agrees not to commence any litigation relating thereto except in such courts), and further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the address contained in the records of the Company shall be effective service of process for any litigation brought against it in any such court. By accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any litigation arising out of Plan or Award hereunder in the courts of the State of Delaware or the United States of America, in each case located in the State of Delaware, and further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such litigation brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. By accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all rights to trial by jury in connection with any litigation arising out of or relating to the Plan or any Award hereunder.

10.14 Governing Law. The provisions of the Plan and all Awards made hereunder shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, disregarding choice-of-law principles of the law of any state that would require the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such state.

10.15 Restrictions on Shares; Claw-back Provisions. Awards and Ordinary Shares acquired in respect of Awards shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall determine, including, without limitation, restrictions on the transferability of Awards or Ordinary Shares, the right of the Company to repurchase Ordinary Shares, the right of the Company to require that Ordinary Shares be transferred in the event of certain transactions, tag-along rights, bring-along rights, redemption and co-sale rights and voting requirements. Such terms and conditions may be additional to those contained in the Plan and may, as determined by the Administrator, be contained in the applicable Award Agreement or in an exercise notice, shareholders' agreement or in such other agreement as the Administrator shall determine, in each case in a form determined by the Administrator. The issuance of such Ordinary Shares shall be conditioned on the Participant's consent to such terms and conditions and the Participant's entering into such agreement or agreements. All Awards (including, without limitation, any proceeds, gains or other economic benefit actually or constructively received by Participant upon any receipt or exercise of any Award or upon the receipt or resale of any Ordinary Shares underlying the Award) shall be subject to the provisions of any claw-back policy implemented by the Company, including, without limitation, any claw-back policy adopted to comply with the requirements of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder, to the extent set forth in such claw-back policy and/or in the applicable Award Agreement.

10.16 Titles and Headings. The titles and headings of the Sections in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and, in the event of any conflict, the text of the Plan, rather than such titles or headings, shall control.

10.17 Conformity to Securities Laws. Participant acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder, and state securities laws and regulations. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan and all Awards granted hereunder shall be administered only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, the Plan and all Award Agreements shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

ARTICLE XI.

DEFINITIONS. AS USED IN THE PLAN, THE FOLLOWING WORDS AND PHRASES SHALL HAVE THE FOLLOWING MEANINGS:

11.1 "Administrator" means the Board or a Committee to the extent that the Board's powers or authority under the Plan have been delegated to such Committee.

11.2 "Applicable Laws" means the requirements relating to the administration of equity incentive plans under U.S. federal and state and PRC national and local securities, tax and other applicable laws, rules and regulations, the applicable rules of any stock exchange or quotation system on which the Ordinary Shares are listed or quoted and the applicable laws and rules of any foreign country or other jurisdiction where Awards are granted or issued under the Plan.

11.3 “Award” means, individually or collectively, a grant under the Plan of Options, Restricted Shares, Restricted Share Units or Other Share-Based Awards.

11.4 “Award Agreement” means a written agreement evidencing an Award, which agreements may be in electronic medium and shall contain such terms and conditions with respect to an Award as the Administrator shall determine, consistent with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan.

11.5 “Board” means the Board of Directors of the Company.
